SUCCESSFUL APPEAL TO KENTUCKY

Successful Appeal (Valid Appeal--Successful Dancer, by Fortunate Prospect), the leading freshman and juvenile sire of 2004, is being relocated to Walmac International's Kentucky nursery for the 2005 breeding season.

Successful Appeal walmac.com

The eight-year-old stallion, who stood his first three seasons at Walmac South/Hartley De Renzo in Ocala, Florida, is the sire of five individual winners, three of which have already won black-type events. He is the first U.S. stallion to ever sire three two-year-old stakes winners prior to June 26. "We always believed Successful Appeal would be a superior source of early runners, as he was an exceptional two-year-old," said Walmac Vice President John T.L. Jones III. "But siring more stakes winners at this stage of his career than Danzig, Storm Cat, Mr. Prospector or Bold Ruler places him among the elite." The dark bay stallion, campaigned to graded-stakes victories at two, three and four by Starview Stables, has been the subject of increased interest with each and every success of his progeny. "We averaged 68 mares annually the first three years we stood him," said Hartley/De Renzo's Dean De Renzo. "But nothing quite prepared us for the onslaught of phone calls once his two-year-olds started winning. We fielded 25 or 30 calls a day after each stakes win."

Lunarpal Four Footed Photos

Successful Appeal's first crop has been highlighted by Lunarpal, undefeated and a three-time stakes winner in four starts for William Heiligbrodt. The Texas native has the dam of Lunarpal, Quiet Eclipse, back in foal to Successful Appeal. The sire of one additional stakes placed runner, Successful Appeal has progeny earnings to date of $501,727. A stud fee for 2005 has yet to be determined. He stood for $6,000 this year.

8th-BEL, $45,000, Alw, NW1X, 3yo/up, f/m, 1 1/16m, 1:44 3/5, ft.

FLEET INDIAN (f, 3, Indian Charlie--Hustleeta, by Afleet) rattled off three straight victories against New York-breds, breaking her maiden first time out by 8 1/2 lengths Apr. 9, adding a 2 1/4-length victory May 6 and romping by 6 1/4 lengths going nine furlongs June 9. Sent off as the 2-1 second choice, the towering dark bay was pressed early by 4-5 Swinging (Wild Again) and put that foe away at the head of the lane, only to have Mambo Bell (Kingmambo) come after her. But the big filly was resolute on the rail, keeping her rival at bay by a half-length throughout the final furlong. The winner was a $40,000 FTNAUG yearling and a $230,000 OBSMAR juvenile. Favored Swinging, a granddaughter of Personal Ensign, tired to finish last in the six-horse field. Lifetime Record: 4-4-0-0, $105,600. O-Stan E Fulton. B-Thomas/Lakin (NY). T-James Toner.

3rd-BEL, $44,000, Msw, 3/up, 1 1/16m, 1:43 1/5, ft. NAVESINK RIVER (c, 3, Unbridled--Sheepscot {SW, $153,446}, by Easy Goer), fifth in his lone start at Saratoga as a two-year-old, returned June 23 to post a similar finish in a seven-furlong test over this surface. Stretching out a bit in distance, the 5-2 third choice went up to contest the pace from his rail post and continued on gamely, shaking free from Cartage Agent (Saint Ballado) late for a 2 1/4-length graduation. The winner was a $140,000 KEESEP yearling purchase. Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-0, $29,040. O-Char-Mari Stable. B-Hermitage Farm LLC (KY). T-Todd A Pletcher.

9th-BEL, $41,000, Msw, (S), 2yo, 5 1/2f, 1:06 2/5, ft. + BOLD DECISION (c, 2, Precise End--Houston Tune, by Houston) showed some promise in the morning and was the 9-2 third choice for his career opener. The chestnut overcame an awkward start, ranged up five wide turning for home and went on to score by 1 1/2 lengths. A $110,000 OBSFEB two-year-old purchase, he becomes the first winner for his freshman sire (by End Sweep), who captured the GIII Bay Shore S. in 2000. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $24,600. LA TRILLIUM (f, 4, Deputy Commander--Tenacite, by Seattle Slew) crushed her rivals in her June 19 debut, galloping home clear by 11 1/2 lengths, and was the prohibitive 2-5 chalk here. It wasn't as simple this time, but the dark bay got the job done, setting a pressured pace before denying the persistent Elusive A. C. (Elusive Quality) by 3/4 of a length. Miss Matched had posted a pair of solid drills from the gate and was the 3-1 second choice to fellow firster Andtheliviniseasy (Gone West). Breaking alertly, the dark bay shadowed Secret Missile (Golden Missile) from the start, put a head in front at the 3/8-pole and turned on the afterburners, opening up for a 12 1/2-length triumph under little urging from ESPY winner Stewart Elliott. Loving Thoughts (Touch Gold) passed Secret Missile late for second, while the 8-5 Andtheliviniseasy never got involved, finishing sixth.

JOYOUS SONG (f, 2, American Chance--Joyous Melody {MSW & GSP, $266,393}, by Phone Trick), a $55,000 KESEP yearling purchase, missed by 3/4 of a length when third in Gulfstream's Mockingbird S. Apr. 24. The bay filly, who added Lasix for her local bow June 4 and settled for second, was the 4-5 favorite to get her picture taken. Never farm from the front, the Virginia-bred bay came three wide to take the lead and opened up under her own steam to post a 6 3/4-length triumph. Lifetime Record: SP, 4-1-1-2, $37,782. De Seroux Duo Due to Return for Preview Day:

Ballingarry (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), the two-time defending champion of the GIII Stars and Stripes Breeders' Cup Turf H., and Toasted (Hennessy), recent winner of the GII Arlington Classic, will make a return trip to Chicago July 24. Both horse are owned by 93-year-old Sid Port and trained by Laura de Seroux. Ballingarry will shorten up to 10 furlongs for the GIII Arlington H. while Toasted will take his chance in the GII American Derby, contested over 9 1/2 furlongs. De Seroux was planning on training the two up to the International Festival of Racing Aug. 14, but decided to call an audible. "They both took the trip [to Chicago] great and were literally tearing the barn down after they got home," the conditioner commented. "So I talked to Mr. Port and we decided to try these next two races with them."

Weld Shooting for Third American Derby:

All-time leading Irish trainer Dermot Weld has won the GII American Derby in two of the last four years--with Pine Dance in 2000 and last season with Evolving Tactics--and will shoot for a third win in the July 24 event with Moyglare Stud's Simple Exchange (Ire) (Danehill). A maiden winner at first asking last August, the bay finished fifth, beaten four lengths by One Cool Cat, in the G1 National S. Sept. 14 before winning the Listed El Gran Senor S. at Cork in his final start of the season Sept. 27. He was a staying-on fourth in the Listed Hampton Court S. on his return June 17 and should improve nicely off that effort. Pat Smullen, who guided Moyglare's Evolving Tactics to his win last year, has ridden Simple Exchange in each of his five career starts.

Real Dandy (Yankee Victor) rallied for second as Hedge Your Bet settled for the show spot. The winner, a Stonerside homebred, is the first for his freshman sire Lemon Drop Kid (Kingmambo), hero of the GI Futurity S. at two and the GI Belmont S. and GI Travers S. at three before earning an Eclipse Award as the nation's champion older horse at four in 2000. Valenzuela's Attorney to Seek Restraining Order:

Neil Papiano, the attorney for suspended jockey Patrick Valenzuela, will appear this morning in Los Angeles Superior Court to seek a temporary restraining order, which would allow an immediate return to the saddle. Valenzuela was suspended for the entire month of June, but made a winning return to the races on July 1. The following day, after failing to provide a hair follicle sample, as is required of him, Hollywood Park stewards suspended Valenzuela, pending a formal hearing. He was also suspended Jan. 23 by Santa Anita stewards after taking off his mounts the previous afternoon, claiming an ankle injury. He was requested to provide a urine sample, but refused and remained out of touch for two weeks.
