INTERNATIONAL DATE FOR LIGHT

The Weinstock Family's North Light (Ire) (Danehill) will drop back in trip for the G1 International S. at York Aug. 17, it was revealed yesterday.

The G1 Epsom Derby winner, who failed to complete the double when runner-up in the Irish equivalent at The Curragh last time June 27, has recovered from the lameness that caused him to miss Saturday's G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. at Ascot. "When a horse has problems, Sir Michael [Stoute] gives them plenty of time to get over them, but the horse is absolutely fine, to the best of my knowledge," Racing Manager Peter Reynolds told the Mirror. "It's a challenge to bring him back from a mile and a half, but he has won the [G2] Dante [May 12] over that trip at York. The last Derby winner we had, Troy, went to the race and he just beat a horse of Paul Cole's called Crimson Beau. I will speak to the great man on Saturday morning and we will discuss final plans."

OPTIONS OPEN FOR BOARD

Lord Derby's Ouija Board (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}), who completed the G1 English and Irish Oaks double at The Curragh on Sunday, looks likely to run in the G1 Yorkshire Oaks Aug. 18, according to trainer Ed Dunlop. "She's come out of the race well," he said yesterday. "It was a lot of pressure to see her win again and it doesn't come much better than that." Dunlop revealed that she will be asked to take on older fillies in the mile-and-a-half contest rather than tackle the shorter trip of the G1 International S. at the same venue 24 hours earlier. "We're almost certain to go for the Yorkshire Oaks rather than the Juddmonte [International], but we'll keep an eye on the race. We'll give her a week off this week, then we'll take it from there." Looking further ahead, Dunlop revealed that "we haven't ruled out the Breeders' Cup [Filly & Mare Turf Oct. 30]. He added, "There is a supplementary fee for the Breeders' Cup, so we're going to find out a bit more." The G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at Longchamp Oct. 3 also remains a possibility for the filly.

BAILADOR TAKES DE VICHY

Bailador (Ire) (Alzao) earned his first group success with a victory in yesterday's G3 Grand Prix de Vichy at Vichy. Bailador got off the mark in stakes company when winning the Listed le Vase d'Argent at Toulouse Mar. 22, but had failed to build on that effort when 10th in the Listed Grand Prix Gaston Defferre at Marseille Apr. 17 and sixth in the G3 la Coupe at Longchamp last time June 1. Held up towards the rear throughout the early stages of this contest, he made smooth progress at the top of the straight before quickening inside the final quarter. Grabbing the lead with 100 yards remaining, he was driven out to assert from the game Demon Dancer (Fr) (Kaldoun {Fr}) in the closing stages.

Hip #366, by brilliantly fast Grade 1 Cigar Mile winner EL CORREDOR, sells for $245,000 at Fasig-Tipton

Congratulations to seller Taylor Made Sales Agency and purchaser Bob Baffert, Agent.

FROM THE DESK OF...

Bill Oppenheim

BUOYANT TRADE

Last year, the first without Keeneland July, Saratoga and Keeneland September shot up, igniting consistent 20 to 30 percent gains over 2002 figures for the rest of 2003, and continuing through the January Sale and the 2004 two-year-old sales. Because Fasig-Tipton July actually showed slight declines from 2002 to 2003, we can't be absolutely certain whether their impressive 37-percent jump in gross and 23-percent rise in average (to $114,260) this week is the barometer for further gains in 2004, or whether Fasig July was actually just 'catching up' with the gains posted by the rest of the market in the previous eleven months, beginning at Saratoga last August.

We'll have a lot better idea of the answer to that (actually very important) question three weeks from now, but that didn't detract from what was, without any debate, one of those really good Fasig July sales, with plenty of action, rip-roaring trade and profit. Not everything made money, of course--we don't live in that world any more, and, in fact, we never really did--but there were plenty of touches, beginning, of course, with the first-year sires featured in Monday's New Sire Showcase.

Tuesday's average was a third higher, but when you look at some of the stud fee multiples the first-year sires averaged on Monday, there's no doubt it was a good day to be a seller. No less than 11 first-year sires averaged $95,000 or higher with at least three sold (during the entire sale); four of them stood for between $20,000-$30,000 (Group price leader Point Given (Thunder Gulch) had just one sell, for $475,000), while the other seven stood for between $6,500-$15,000.

All horses in the TDN are bred in North America, unless otherwise indicated

Basking in the Sun...

Significantly, no doubt, four Florida stallions were among the 11, led by the top sprinter Trippi (End Sweep), who averaged over $131,000 for his six sold. Exchange Rate (Danzig) and good two-year-old Flame Thrower (Saint Ballado) each averaged just at $108,000 for three each sold, just inches ahead of G1 Fountain of Youth winner Songandaprayer (Unbridled's Song), whose five sold averaged $103,000. None of them stood for more than $10,000 in 2002, their first year at stud.

Though Point Given had just one sell, Claiborne's 2001 Kentucky Derby winner Monarchos (Maria's Mon) and WinStar's dual Breeders' Cup Classic winner Tiznow (Cee's Tizzy) each had four through the ring. Monarchos had three sell, averaging $185,000, while Tiznow had all four, which averaged $152,500 (he'll be the big noise at Saratoga). The other two $20,000-plus stallions, Aptitude (A.P. Indy) and El Corredor (Mr. Greeley), both sold fine, though several other $10,000-$15,000 sires had higher averages and multiple of stud fee. Nonetheless, El Corredor ranked sixth among first-year sired with three-plus sold (seven sold from nine through the ring, average $116,714, or 5.8x stud fee) and Aptitude ranked 10th (six of eight, average $96,333, just under 4x stud fee). In such a strong market, there's no reason for their supporters to be discouraged with those numbers.

Four other first-year Kentucky sires averaged more than seven times their original stud fees. Forest Camp (Deputy Minister), another speedball who won the 1999 Del Mar Futurity (G2), has been a commercial standout all along. He's one of a number of these stallions who was trained by Bob Baffert (Point Given and Flame Thrower are others), and Baffert bought the most expensive of the Forest Camps, a $450,000 colt on Monday (he also paid $475,000 for the Point Given). Overall, Forest Camp had nine sell, of 11 through the ring, for an average of $128,778--more than 12x his original $10,000 stud fee, and still more than eight times his 2004 fee of $15,000. Cont. p. 3

With all of these, no doubt their averages will drop by the end of the September Sale, but the New Sire Showcase is designed to show off some of the good ones, and once again Fasig's secret weapon, Bill Graves, delivered the goods.

Royal Prospect...

Hands down, the star of the show was Brahms, Vinery's Danzig out of champion Queena, by Mr. Prospector out of Grade I winner Too Chic, by Blushing Groom. So the pedigree's not in dispute. He started life with Aidan O'Brien, winning once as a two-year-old and placing behind stablemate Giant's Causeway in the G3 Futurity, as well as placing in two top Newmarket two-year-old races, the G1 Middle Park over six furlongs, and the G1 Dewhurst over seven, before finishing his year running seventh in Anees's Breeders' Cup Juvenile at Gulfstream Park.

Sold to a group headed by Eaton Sales' Tom Van Meter and trained by Elliott Walden, Brahms did not reappear until the following September at Saratoga, but promptly reeled off four wins in all four starts at three, capped by a Group I win--by disqualification--in the Hollywood Derby. He didn't win in seven starts at four, but was right there in several top mile races on the grass. He had nine sell from nine through the ring, averaging $103,889 off an original $12,500 stud fee. They liked him a lot, so if we see more of the same in September, that $10,000 fee for 2004 will be history.

Wintergreen's Five Star Day (Carson City), a really good six-furlong sprinter, sold nearly as well. Nine of his 11 offerings sold at an average of $95,444, over nine and a half times his $10,000 fee. Pin Oak's Broken Vow (Unbridled), who made the big noise among the $10,000 sires last November/January, and had four sell for an average of $71,250, rounded out this strong contingent which averaged over $70,000.

As strongly as the first-year horses sold, the rest of the sale averaged about a third higher, and included all four of the colts who brought over $500,000; so there were a few impressive stud fee multiples among the extensive not-first-year sire brigade, too. Coolmore has been short on good news on the racetrack front this year, but they can take some comfort in the knowledge that four of these other six sires who registered impressive multiples stand at Ashford.

Three third-crop sires whose fees are a lot higher than they were in 2002 had great sales, including Ashford's Grand Slam ($180,000, over 7x his $25,000 fee in 2002) and Tale of the Cat ($173,571, almost 7x the same fee), and Gainsborough's Elusive Quality, whose $190,000 average (19x his 2002 fee) including the $950,000 saletopper. Ashford's Fusaichi Pegasus had two average $635,000, and Hennessy had six average $227,500, over five times his 2002 fee of $45,000; he now stands for $10,000 less. Unbridled's Song had five average $302,000, over seven and a half times his 2002 fee of $40,000, his fee has trebled since then.

Medallist Jim Dandy Bound:

Medallist (Touch Gold), a sharp 3 3/4-length winner in the GII Dwyer S. last out July 11 over GISW The Cliff's Edge (Gulch), will most likely make his next start in the GII Jim Dandy S. at Saratoga Aug. 8, according to Daily Racing Form. Trainer Allen Jerkens plans to work the Robert Clay homebred around two turns at Saratoga prior to the race. "We'll see if he gets around that clubhouse turn in his workout up there," Jerkens told DRF. The dark bay colt has never raced around two turns, but handled the 1 1/16-mile Dwyer distance around one turn remarkably well, earning a 112 Beyer Speed Figure while setting a stakes record.

Hall of Fame Hosts Annual Saratoga Preview:

The National Museum of Racing and Hall of Fame will present its annual Saratoga Preview on Monday, July 26. The program, which features a question-and-answer session with a panel of racing experts, starts at 7:00 p.m. in the Hall of Fame theater. The panel is slated to include racing secretary and NYRA handicapper Mike Lakow, handicapper and racing consultant Dick Powell, and the leading jockey at Saratoga last year, John Velazquez. WILDCAT HEIR (c, 4, Forest Wildcat--Penniless Heiress, by Pentelicus) placed second in the GII Sanford S. as a juvenile, but made only one start in 2003, a second at Belmont last October. The New Farm homebred, returning from an eight-month break, completed the exacta in a Monmouth NW1X May 31, then romped by 4 1/4 lengths as the 1-5 chalk in a similar race June 26. Wildcat Heir, made the slight 2-1 favorite versus an evenly matched field, pressed the pace from the outside and drew off to win by 3 3/4 lengths in a snappy 1:08 3/5. The victor is a full to Forest Heir, MSW, $164,977; and Forest Heiress, MGSW, $419,201. Lifetime Record: GSP, 6-3-3-0, $117,610.

Unbridled's Song's Full Bro To Stand in Florida:

Spanish Steps

Unraced Spanish Steps (Unbridled--Trolley Song, by Caro {Ire}), a full brother to leading sire Unbridled's Song, will enter stud at Eddie Martin's Martin Stable South in 2005, standing for $5,000 live foal. The three-year-old suffered a rear suspensory injury at Gulfstream in March and never made it to the races for trainer Todd Pletcher. The $280,000 KEESEP yearling was purchased privately by Martin shortly thereafter. "Spanish Steps' first three sires, Unbridled, Fappiano and Mr. Prospector, each has crucial ties to Florida," Martin said. "Being able to give Southeast breeders these important bloodlines at a reasonable fee is a dream come true."

"Woody" Sedlacek Succumbs to Cancer:

Retired trainer Woodrow "Woody" Sedlacek, who conditioned MGSW Bounding Basque and MGSW Shy Dawn, died Monday night in Ocala, Florida after a bout with cancer. He was 85. Sedlacek, born in St. Francis Mission, South Dakota, began riding races as a 13-year-old before being severely injured in a spill in 1937. He took out his trainers license in New York in 1945 and saddled his first winner at Jamaica. Sedlacek is survived by his wife, Sue, also a retired trainer, and sons Michael, Gregory and Roy. Mike and Roy Sedlacek are also trainers. A private family service is scheduled.

Veteran Jockey Ray Sibille Calls it Quits:

Illinois-based journeyman Ray Sibille rode his final mount in yesterday's fifth race at Arlington Park finishing fifth aboard Above the Harbor. "It isn't something I wanted to do," the 51-year-old rider said of retiring. "It's just one of those things. My doctors told me it was time. It just has to happen. I've been in too much pain." The Louisiana native is scheduled for hip replacement surgery Aug. 24. "I'll go back to Louisiana and begin an extensive rehabilitation schedule once the surgery is over," he added. Among his career highlights are a riding championship at Arlington in 1980 and a victory in the GI Breeders' Cup Turf in 1988 aboard Great Communicator. He retires with 4,264 wins from 36,859 mounts.

Blackdoun was backed as the second-choice to win his U.S. debut and didn't let his supporters down. Winner of the Listed Prix de la Californie S. at Cagnes Feb. 14, he followed that effort with a third-place showing in the Listed Prix Omnium II S. at Saint Cloud Mar. 31. Stepped up in company for Longchamp's G3 Prix de Fontainebleau S. last time Apr. 25, the gray colt held his own with a third-place finish behind American Post. Making his first start in three months here, he broke slowly and settled towards the back. Taken four-wide for the stretch run, he took over in the lane and was ridden out to a comfortable score while setting a new stakes record. "This is a special horse with a lot of talent," winning rider Corey Nakatani said. "There are no tight turns on the courses in Europe. And their courses are soft. He adapted to it and ran like that. You know he's something." Trainer Julio Canani said he will make a plan for the colt's next start within a couple of days.

COLORI SET FOR SUSSEX Scuderia Archi Romani's Le Vie dei Colori (GB) (Efisio {GB}) will make his British debut in Wednesday's G1 Sussex S. at Goodwood. Conditioner Luca Cumani revealed that the four-year-old was "fit and ready" for the mile test. Last year's G2 Premio Parioli (Italian 2000 Guineas) and G1 Premio Vittorio di Capua winner pleased his new connections in a spin on the Newmarket gallops on Tuesday. "He is fit and ready for the race," Cumani told PA Sport. "Darryll [Holland] was very pleased and will ride him next Wednesday. The track should suit the horse, but it won't be an easy task because we will face all the best milers. But I hope he has improved a lot."

BANDARI GETS GREEN LIGHT

Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Bandari (Ire) (Alhaarth {Ire}) will take his chance in Saturday's G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. at Ascot. The G2 Princess of Wales's S. scorer delighted connections in his work yesterday morning and booked his place in the line-up for the mile-and-a-half show-piece. "I rode him this morning and he felt good," trainer Mark Johnston's wife Deirdre told PA Sport. "It's lovely because he really is relaxed this year. It's going to be very tough. There are horses he's got to make up ground on and he's got to keep improving, but he seems very well and we'll just give it our best shot. He seems to be getting better and better. He's won two Group Twos and three Group Threes, so he deserves a Group One, but this is a very tough one."

SHERGAR CUP TAKING SHAPE

Former jockeys Jason Weaver and Michael Roberts will again select the teams of riders for the final Blue Square Shergar Cup at Ascot next month. Weaver will determine the rides for the Great Britain & Ireland, captained by Kieren Fallon, while Frankie Dettori will lead the Rest of the World team. With an increased entrtr for the six Shergar Cup, Ascot's Racing Director Nick Cheyne expressed himself "delighted" yesterday. "There are a lot of very high class handicappers in each of the five handicaps, while the two-year-old auction race, the Porthault Shergar Cup Juvenile, has attracted a very strong entry as well."

HRI ANNOUNCE GAINS ACROSS THE BOARD

Horse Racing Ireland have announced increases in attendance, sponsorship and betting turnover for the first six months of 2004. With attendance up by over four per cent, Tote betting up 12 percent, and sponsorship amounting to €3.4 million, HRI's Chief Executive Brian Kavanagh described the figures as "extremely encouraging." He added, "Up to the end of May attendances were actually 11 percent ahead of last year's attendances and we expect that level of demand to continue in the second half of the year."
