EDDIE READ HAS FAMILIAR RING

Special Ring (Nureyev) flew home in course record time when he won last year's GI Eddie Read H., but questions swirled about the seven-year-old gelding who was beaten in his final two starts last year and who had not started since finishing eighth in last fall's Breeders' Cup Mile, when he reemerged in yesterday's renewal of the nine-furlong contest. Making his 2004 debut with a pair of bullet works under his belt, Special Ring zipped out to the early lead and opened up as much as 3 1/2 lengths on the field. Down the lane, he was challenged by stablemate Bayamo (Ire) (Valanour {Ire}), who reached the winner's saddle cloth, but could get no closer. "He was running strong all the way," said winning rider Victor Espinoza. "He was just flicking his ears; going fast but going easy. He was waiting for something to come to him. Then the other one came up next to him and my horse dug back in. He just picked it up again." ### KELA AC-CENT-TCHU-ATES THE POSITIVE

Kela (Numerous), who sprinted home a 5 1/4-length winner of Lone Star Park's GIII Texas Mile, pulled clear in the final furlong to win the GI Bing Crosby Breeders' Cup H. yesterday at Del Mar by 1 1/4 lengths. The six-year-old bay was allowed to settle off the pace early in the seven-furlong contest, but loomed a major threat with a four-wide move into the lane. After overtaking favored Pohave (Holy Bull) with a furlong to run, Kela inched clear to the wire. Since earning his Texas Mile win in April, Kela tired to fourth in the GIII Lone Star Park H. at 1 1/16 miles and filled that same spot after a slow start when turned back to seven furlongs in the July 3 GI Triple Bend Breeders' Cup H. Trainer Mike Mitchell, winning his first Grade I, said, "[Kela] has been training great and he just loves it down here. We'll probably look at the [Aug. 15 GII] Pat O'Brien or the mile race at the end of the meet [GII Del Mar Breeders' Cup H. Sept. 5]." Albanova finally gained the Group 1 success she deserves with a stamina-packed display in the soft ground here. Her first attempt at this level came in last year's Coronation Cup, but she trailed in a disappointing seventh behind Warrsan (Ire) on that occasion. She excelled herself after a near three-month absence when finishing 1 1/4 lengths second to Mamool (Ire) in the G1 Preis von Europa in Cologne at the end of September, but could manage only sixth behind Westerner (GB) in the G1 Prix Royal-Oak at Longchamp on her final start a month later. Kept fresh for her seasonal bow, she traveled strongly in mid-pack throughout the early stages under a confident Terence Hellier. Sent in pursuit of the long-time leader Rotteck in the straight, she collared that tiring rival with 100 yards remaining before holding the persistent challenge of Dayano. Albanova will be aimed at the G1 Grosser Preis von Baden Sept. 5 before a tilt at the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at Longchamp Oct. 3. Divine Proportions took this latest step up the ladder in stride to take her record to a perfect three-for-three. Having begun her education with a smooth debut success in a debutantes race at this track May 26, she built on her debut promise by inflicting a four-length defeat on Great Blood (Fr) (Great Palm) in the G3 Prix du Bois at Chantilly last time June 28. Settled in a stalking fourth by Christophe-Patrice Lemaire as that rival cut out the early fractions alongside Shifting Place and Dario Vargiu, she was asked to quicken as the latter was committed inside the final quarter. She took until the eighth pole to wear down the Italian filly, but looked to idle and was firmly in command at the finish. According to trainer Pascal Bary, Divine Proportions will now be aimed at the G1 Prix Morny at Deauville Aug. 22. ☆ KING GEORGE WRAP-UP ☆

LEOPARDSTOWN IN CARDS FOR DOYEN

Godolphin look likely to send Saturday's impressive G1 King George VI And Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. winner Doyen (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) to Leopardstown for the 10-furlong G1 Irish Champion S. Sept. 11. Racing Manager Simon Crisford yesterday reported the four-year-old to be "absolutely fine" after his three-length defeat of Hard Buck (Brz). "Doyen's in good form and now we will have to make and finalize plans for him in the next few weeks," he told PA Sport. "We may well go to Ireland and we wouldn't be worried about dropping in trip." Crisford also reported the third-placed Sulamani (Ire) (Hernando {Fr}) to be "fine," with the G1 International S. at York Aug. 17 a possible next target for the five-year-old.

GERMAN DATE FOR BUCK?

Team Victory's Hard Buck (Brz) (Spend a Buck), who finished runner-up to Doyen (Ire) in Saturday's G1 King George VI And Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. at Ascot, may take in the G1 Grosser Preis von Baden Sept. 5. Conditioner Kenny McPeek has the option of sending the five-year-old to the G1 Sword Dancer Invitational H. at Saratoga Aug. 11, but he is more likely to wait for the German contest. "He's great this morning and he came out of the race very well," he told PA Sport yesterday. "We are going to make a decision in the next few days about where we go. We could take him back to Saratoga for the Sword Dancer, but it may be too fast for him, or we could go to Baden-Baden. He is booked on a flight home on Wednesday, so we will probably make a decision on Tuesday."

PHOENIX BLED

Winterbeck Manor Stud's Phoenix Reach (Ire) (Alhaarth {Ire}) was reported to have bled when disappointing in Saturday's G1 King George VI And Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. at Ascot. Last year's G1 Canadian International winner looked poised to mount a serious threat entering the straight before fading to finish 10th in the mile-and-a-half contest. Conditioner Andrew Balding yesterday explained that investigations revealed that the four-year-old had a "significant bleed," which "explains the poor run." He added, "We'll have to look at options in America for him now."

All horses in the TDN are bred in North America, unless otherwise indicated

Apparently a bit of confidence is all that Spite the Devil needed, as the bay gelding took his second consecutive race after going winless for 14 months. An upset victor of the Gill Withers S. last May, he got stalled on the NW2X level over the winter and spring. Dropped in for an $85,000 tag in a one-mile Belmont claimer June 11, he ran fourth, but came back in his next to win a starter allowance for New York-breds July 8. Last of six after a quarter in :23 flat, Spite the Devil bid wide, then responded to a prolonged Edgar Prado drive to outfinish Sherpa Guide and the aptly named Mr. Determined to the wire. "Allen does good with horses as they get older because he gets to know them better," explained winning owner--and Allen's wife--Elisabeth Jerkens. "This horse stays very fit because he's always in our barn. He never leaves the racetrack. He'll go up to Saratoga and Allen will find something for him."

Purse Reduction at Ellis:

Ellis Park has announced a five-percent reduction in all overnight purses, effective July 28 and through the remainder of the 54-day meeting which runs through Sept. 6. The Henderson, Kentucky track has also cancelled the meet's final three stakes: the Aug. 28 Governor's H., the Sept. 4 Dade Turf Classic and the Sept. 6 Tri-State H. "The loss of wagering revenue during the weather-related power outage at Trackside Louisville during the period of July 14 through 16 and soft on-track wagering totals have prompted this purse reduction," explained Ellis Park General Manager Paul Kuerzi. "We have had solid on-track attendance this meet, but the loss of a major wagering source such as the Trackside Louisville for that period is a factor that we will not be able to overcome at this meet. We regret the decision to reduce our purses, but we continue to face increasing competition in our home market and rising competitive pressure for both horses and a share of the simulcast wagering market from tracks with purses boosted by slot machine revenues. Those factors make it increasingly difficult for Ellis Park to absorb an unanticipated setback like the weather-related loss of simulcast revenues from Trackside Louisville."

General Challenge's little sis Western Hemisphere spent her first four career starts racing against fellow Cal-breds, but she showed she was capable of running against open company in a narrow runner-up defeat to Lovely Rafaela in the Gil Honeymoon Breeders' Cup H. going nine furlongs on Hollywood's lawn June 5. The main pace in the newly minted July 3 GI American Oaks, she stayed on well to be fourth to Ticker Tape in a crowded 13-horse field. The blaze-faced chestnut was returning to the main track for the first time since finishing second to Yearly Report in April's Melair S. and justified her heavy 3-5 favoritism. Off a step slowly, she began cutting into Alphabet Kisses' lead coming down the lane and moved past that foe late to prevail in a professional manner.
