FRANKEL'S DIANA DOMINANCE

Were it not for the narrow defeat of Heat Haze (GB) in this event last year, trainer Bobby Frankel would be in search of a fourth consecutive win in the GI Diana H.

Intercontinental A Coglianesse

Juddmonte Farms' Intercontinental (GB) (Danehill), a three-parts sister to last year's runner-up, should go favored to get the Brooklyn-born conditioner back on the beam this afternoon. Unbeaten since shipping to the States, the bay comes in off back-to-back scores in the GIII Jenny Wiley S. at Keeneland in April and the GII Just a Game Breeders' Cup S. at Belmont June 5. She stretches out to nine furlongs for the first time today. "She has a nice style to get a little more distance," Frankel asserts. "Horses tend to settle better on soft turf. That might be another factor that could help her get the distance, but I'm really not too concerned" Diana H. cont. p3

MICHELLE MA BELLE

Friendly Michelle (Artax), unbeatable at sprint distances this season, bids for her second consecutive Grade I score in today's Test S. at Saratoga. The chestnut filly earned her first graded victory with a half-length tally in the Apr. 29 GIII La Troienne S. going 7 1/2 furlongs at Churchill Downs, but couldn't quite handle the mile of the June 4 GI Acorn S., tiring to be a close third. She bounced back in her latest, closing from just off a fast pace in the July 3 GI Prioress S. to best Feline

Friendly Michelle
A Coglianesse

Story (Tale of the Cat) by a widening 2 1/4 lengths. Jockey Jerry Bailey will be aboard the three-year-old for the first time this afternoon. "She's been doing great ever since we got her in New York," said Tonja Terranova, assistant to trainer Bob Baffert. "She ran a good third in the Acorn and then made a great move on the turn to win the Prioress." Test S. cont. p4

MOTT AND BAILEY...AGAIN...IN THE BARUCH

If it's the GII Bernard Baruch H., it's got to be Bill Mott and Jerry Bailey. The duo teamed to win four of the last six runnings of the event and yesterday made it five victories in seven years with Peter Vegso's Silver Tree (Hennessy), who outlasted favored Nothing to Lose (Sky Classic) by a neck. Last year's Virginia Derby hero, Silver Tree took his seasonal bow at Gulfstream Feb. 21, but pulled hard and could do no better than eighth in the Mar. 21 GII Muniz H. at Fair Grounds and in the GII Dixie H. at Pimlico May 15. A one-length allowance winner over Nothing to Lose at Belmont June 16, the homebred colt was most recently a solid third in the GIII Poker H. downstate July 10. Well rated while never far from the front, Silver Tree commenced his rally approaching the far turn, went up alongside Nothing to Lose turning for home and outslugged that foe to the wire. "He settled very well today," said the victorious trainer. "We've never been on this kind of ground before, but he handled it well."

Peter Chapple-Hyam is back, and how. Just three weeks after Captain Hurricane (GB) captured the G2 July S. at Newmarket, that colt's stable companion Montgomery's Arch caused a mild upset here to take his record to a perfect two-for-two. Dropping back in distance after his seven-furlong debut score in a Folkestone maiden July 8, he showed early speed to seize the advantage under Jimmy Fortune. Allowed an uncontested lead as his rivals were restrained, he avoided any interference caused by the stumble of Obe Gold (GB) (Namaqualand), who spooked soon after the start and unseated Ted Durcan. Tackled and passed by Mystical Land and Frankie Dettori approaching the eighth pole, he belied his inexperience while hemmed against the rail and dug deep to regain the lead in the final stride.

"There was no real pace on and they were hacking," Fortune explained. "I'd planned to drop in, but I found myself in front and in a slowly run race that was probably the best place to be." Chapple-Hyam, doubling his tally in this after Polaris Flight opened the score in 1995, added, "I always thought he was a nice horse and now he's won a Group 2, so he'll have to run in a Group 1, but I don't know where. Him and Captain Hurricane won't meet though." Blue Dakota (Ire) (Namid {GB}), sent off the 9-4 pick to confirm the form of his G3 Norfolk S. success, pulled fiercely early for Eddie Ahern and found little in the closing stages. Phantom Wind found the gaps to swoop late and provide conditioner John Gosden with a one-two in this competitive contest. Highly impressive when winning a Newmarket maiden in October, she faced a race against time to make the 1000 Guineas in the spring and showed she was not ready for that test when finishing sixth in the G3 Fred Darling S. at Newbury Apr. 17. Shaping well on her return from a break to finish fifth behind Pastoral Pursuits (GB) in the Listed Hackwood S. back at that track July 17, she was overlooked by the punters, who allowed her to drift to 16-1. Grabbing a vital rail position early, she traveled easily in mid-division as she tracked Nyramba until switching out for her run at the eighth pole. Quickening instantly in the clear, she reeled in her stable companion inside the final 50 yards to score a shade cosily. "Her mother never truly came to her best until July and she's done exactly the same, but it's exciting that she's come now," Gosden commented. Jockey Steve Drowne was impressed, adding, "She picked up nicely and I was really going away strongly. She's a nice filly in the making." Click for the Racing Post chart.

Sand Springs is a perfect two-for-two on the Saratoga turf, but has not visited the winner's circle since wiring the field in the GII Lake Placid H. last August. The dark bay filly was off the board in her final two outings of 2003 and in her debut this season, but just missed in the May 29 GIII Mint Julep H., finishing second by a half length and came back to be third in the June 26 GIII Locust Grove H. in Louisville. The four-year-old was away slowly in her latest, then rushed up to press the pace before fading while caught in traffic to be seventh in the July 10 GIII All Along Breeders' Cup S. at Colonial Downs, but should improve with a cleaner trip. Ocean Drive has been first or second in her last five starts. She finished a length behind Intercontinental in the Jenny Wiley, returned to take the GIII Gallorette H. at Pimlico May 15, was second again in the June 5 GIII Nassau S. at Woodbine and most recently posted a decisive score in the July 10 GIII Eatontown H. at Monmouth Park.

Dazzle Me, a perfect four-for-four on the dirt, makes her Grade I debut off a resounding 6 1/2-length success in the GIII Azalea Breeders' Cup S. at Calder. She stretches out to seven panels for the first time, but trainer Steve Asmussen said, "She has won twice at 6 1/2 furlongs, and she wasn't desperate to get to the wire in either one of those races." The gray will keep Prioress third-place finisher Forest Music company on the front end. GII Railbird S. winner Elusive Diva ships from California. She stretched out to two turns for the June 12 GII Hollywood Breeders' Cup Oaks and held well for second before dropping back to seven furlongs for the July 10 GII A Gleam H. versus older fillies, where she finished third.

As far as fillies go, Cheveley Park Stud have never had it so good and Chorist will be a warm order to continue the purple patch in today's G1 Nassau S. at Goodwood. Unlike the stud's 2003 heroine Russian Rhythm, who was the latest in a long line of sophomores to beat their elders in this race, Chorist has taken her time to reach this level. Brought through the handicapper ranks two years back to finish runner-up in the G3 Blandford S. at The Curragh, she emerged as a top-class four-year-old when returning to that track to take the 2003 renewal of that race. After a smooth success in the Listed Pipalong S. at Pontefract June 7, she outgamed the tough three-year-old Alexander Goldrun (Ire) by a half length in the upgraded G1 Pretty Polly S. back at her happy hunting ground of The Curragh last time June 26. Godolphin took this in 1999 with Zahrat Dubai (GB) and saddle last year's G2 Sun Chariot S. winner Echoes in Eternity and Zosima today. The latter was a smart juvenile on the dirt last term when winning the GIII Arlington-Washington Lassie S. in September and finishing fifth in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies. She performed with credit when attempting to give 10 pounds to Celtic Heroine (Ire) and may have been closer than third but for a troubled trip in the Listed Sandringham S. on her European debut at Royal Ascot last time June 16. "She's a lovely filly who will stay a mile and a quarter well," commented Racing Manager Simon Crisford. "She's been working exceptionally well and it's a good opportunity for her." Sir Michael Stoute equaled Sir Noel Murless's tally of six winners in this race 12 months ago and saddles Favourable Terms. She was beaten 2 1/2 lengths by Chorist in the G3 Golden Daffodil S. at Chepstow last July before taking the G2 Matron S. at Leopardstown in September, but disappointed when fifth behind Echoes in Eternity in the Sun Chariot S. She returned to take the G2 Windsor Forest S. at Royal Ascot June 16, but was off form again when only sixth behind Soviet Song (Ire) in the G1 Falmouth S. at Newmarket last time July 6.

Off at 62-1 in the June 12 GI Stephen Foster H. at Churchill Downs, Colonial Colony outgamed division leader Southern Image to post the upset by a nose. It was only his fourth win from 29 starts, but the dark bay came back to be fourth, beaten only a length by winner Peace Rules, in the GII Suburban H. July 3 and should factor again here. The ultra-consistent The Lady's Groom has been on the board in seven of eight starts this term. The four-year-old finished third as a 16-1 outsider in the Apr. 3 GII Gulfstream Park H. before capturing the Jim McKay Breeders' Cup H. at Pimlico two weeks later. In his last three starts, the chestnut was second to Seattle Fitz (Arg) in the GIII W.D. Schaefer H. at Pimlico May 15, third by a neck to Offlee Wild and Funny Cide in the June 19 GII Massachusetts H. and second by a neck in the R.R.M. Carpenter Jr. Memorial H. at Delaware Park July 17. Morning-line favorite Olmodavor comes off a second-place finish against a soft field in the July 10 GI Hollywood Gold Cup and is most likely to relish the distance here. Jockey John McKee has the call aboard the 121-pound highweight.

A perfect seven-for-seven when facing fellow fillies, Miss Vegas won three Listed events in Italy before being purchased by Edmund Gann last fall. The bay made her first appearance in America in the May 15 GIII Senorita S. at Hollywood Park and led gate to wire to take it by a head. She came back as the 2-5 chalk in the July 3 Flawlessly S. and cruised to a five-length tally. Bonaire beat the boys in the G3 Prix Eclipse at Maisons-Laffitte last October. On the shelf for 9 1/2 months after that effort, she opened her U.S. account with a third-place finish in an optional claimer going 5 1/2 furlongs on the Hollywood lawn July 15 and should improve in her second start off the extended absence. Victory U.S.A. makes her turf debut. The winner of the seven-furlong GII Beaumont S. at Keeneland in April, she makes the surface switch after finishing fourth in the Apr. 29 GI Kentucky Oaks and sixth in the June 4 GI Acorn S.

PEACE RULES IN, GHOSTZAPPER OUT Trainer Bobby Frankel confirmed yesterday that his stable will be represented in next Saturday's GI Whitney H. by Edmund Gann's Peace Rules (Jules), winner in his most recent appearance of the GI Suburban H. at Belmont Park July 3. The conditioner originally planned on stretching out Stronach Stables' Ghostzapper (Awesome Again) in the nine-furlong event, but the four-year-old colt has shed his frog and was also coughing yesterday morning. "I'll point him to the [GII A.G.] Vanderbilt [H. at six furlongs Aug. 14]," Frankel commented. "Hopefully his foot will be fine." The conditioner added that Peace Rules would not run in the Whitney if the track came up wet, noting that the Aug. 22 GI Pacific Classic at Del Mar is a viable back-up.

LION HEART "UNBELIEVABLE" IN PREP Kentucky Derby runner-up Lion Heart (Tale of the Cat) sizzled five-eighths of a mile in :58 2/5 at Saratoga yesterday morning in his final serious move ahead of the GI Haskell Invitational H. at Monmouth Park Aug. 8, sparking rave reviews from his trainer. "It was an unbelievable work," said Patrick Biancone. "He came back good and scoped well. I'm really excited about this horse." Last year's GI Hollywood Futurity winner was a distant fourth in the GI Preakness May 15 and most recently returned to the races with a head victory over My Snookie's Boy (Crafty Friend) in the GIII Long Branch Breeders' Cup S. July 17. Biancone expects a forward move in the $1-million Haskell. "He has matured so much," he explained. "He's like a teenager who's developed into a man. He's put on weight and developed more muscles."

MEDALLIST WORKS A MILE FOR JIM DANDY Robert Clay's Medallist (Touch Gold), who bested The Cliff's Edge (Gulch) in the GII Dwyer S. July 11, worked a mile yesterday morning at Saratoga in 1:41 as he prepares for his next engagement in the GII Jim Dandy S. Aug. 8. "He went a little too fast early on, more than we wanted," said Fernando Abreu, assistant to trainer Allen Jerkens. "He slowed up a little towards the end, but he did okay. We'll see how he looks tomorrow and then send him out in the morning once more before the Jim Dandy." Also the winner of the GIII Withers S. over Aqueduct's one-turn mile May 1, Medallist will be making his first start around two bends in the Dandy.

Bishop Court Hill was a sharp allowance winner in his only other start at the Spa last summer, but came into this one a bit under the radar. The chestnut colt kicked off his four-year-old campaign with a fifth-place finish in a $100,000 optional claimer at Belmont May 20, then finished fifth again in an allowance over that course June 18. Put on the turf for his latest start, he sprung back to life placing third in the Calder Turf Sprint H. July 10. Ridden by Johnny Velazquez here, he was gunned to the early lead, set fast fractions of :22, :44 1/5 and 1:08 4/5 and dug in gamely while drifting out in deep stretch.

6th-SAR, $46,000, Msw, 3yo/up, 1 1/8m, 1:51 2/5, ft. CONFIRMED (c, 3, Unbridled's Song--Erie Dearie {MSP}, by Kris S.), a $200,000 KEESEP yearling, kept on getting closer with each attempt and finally broke through here in his ninth career start. Backed as the 2-1 favorite off a third-place finish at Belmont June 30, he raced towards the back of the pack, rallied on the turn for home and fought past 5-2 Exaggerate This (El Prado {Ire}) to win by 3/4 of a length. Confirmed is a half brother to Sixkissesforsara (Saratoga Six), SW, $287,776. Lifetime Record: 9-1-5-1, $76,880. O-Tracy Farmer. B-Gallatin & Arnold (KY). T-N Zito.

4th-SAR, $41,000, Msw, (S), 2yo, 5 1/2f, 1:04 2/5, ft. + CARIBBEAN CRUISER (c, 2, Silver Ghost--Jack Betta Be Rite {MSW, $350,399}, by Jacques Who) had plenty of bullets in the holster at Finger Lakes, including a :34 3/5 three-furlong move July 26. Sent off as the 2-1 lukewarm choice, the Farmington invader led at every call and was hand ridden to a two-length victory. On the River (Grand Slam), a $550,000 FTSAUG yearling purchase, completed the exacta. The winner is a 3/4-brother to Grey Comet (Distinctive Pro), MSW & GSP, $355,455. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $24,600. O/B-Star Track Farms (NY). T-Donna Bireta.

2nd-SAR, $41,000, Msw, (S), 2yo, 5.5f, 1:06 1/5, ft. + BIG APPLE DADDY (c, 2, Precise End--Clever Actress, by Theatrical {Ire}), a $40,000 OBSMAR juvenile purchase, was bet down to even-money to win at first asking. Breaking from the one hole under Robbie Albarado, he raced right with the leaders, was angled out for the stretch run and ran down the pacesetter Hottotouch (Touch Gold) to post a 1 1/4-length success. This was the second winner for his freshman sire (by End Sweep). Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $24,600. O-Ervin Rodriguez. B-Thomas/Lakin (NY). T-J Picou.

Badge of Silver Cranking It Up:

Badge of Silver (Silver Deputy), away from the races since a fifth-place finish as the odds-on favorite in the GI General George H. Feb. 16, is nearing a return to action following a seven-furlong work at Saratoga yesterday morning in 1:23 4/5. "The workout went the way I expected," said Ronny Werner, who conditions Badge of Silver for Ken and Sarah Ramsey. "If it was any slower, I would have been concerned." The four-year-old was scheduled to run in the GI Carter H. Apr. 10, but was declared from the race with a callus-like growth called keratoma emerging from his right front hoof. "We tried to contain that growth, but it kept getting bigger," Werner explained. "After talking to several veterinarians or trainers, hardly any of them experienced keratoma with their horses, it's that rare. We called a lot of specialists and got opinions then decided to have it cut out." Werner hopes to prep his charge in a mid-meet allowance with an eye on the GI Forego H. Sept. 4.

Most recently second in the Monmouth slop July 5, he was given a 5-2 chance to exit the maiden ranks here. The $16,000 KEESEP yearling stayed close to the leaders and edged clear late to record a 1 1/2-length tally. Lifetime Record: 5-1-2-0, $37,172.

Freshmen Progeny Head Colin Stakes:

Michael Tabor's Killenaule (Fusaichi Pegasus), one of six first-crop winners for his freshman sire, will attempt to become his second black-type winner in this afternoon's Colin S. at Woodbine. Trained by Todd Pletcher, the dark bay was second in maiden events at Keeneland Apr. 15 and at Belmont Park May 6, but celebrated graduation day in his latest, winning by 6 1/4 lengths at Delaware Park July 5. Killenaule is the 5-2 second choice on the morning line behind Richard and Nancy Kaster's Quite A Ruckus (Richter Scale), who broke her maiden by four at first asking in this track's My Dear S. July 4.

Pimlico to Host Maryland Million:

Due to construction delays in the installation of new racing surfaces at Laurel Park, the 2004 Maryland Million program will be staged this year at Pimlico Race Course. "We have lost 12 days in the reconstruction of Laurel's racing surface and while we feel we are still on schedule for the main track to be completed by the latter part of September, we had concerns about getting the new turf down so it would knit properly to run three $100,000 grass races on Maryland Million Day," said Lou Raffetto, chief operating officer of the Maryland Jockey Club. This year's Maryland Million program consists of 12 races with combined purse money of $1.125 million.

Three Late Noms to Secretariat:

The connections of three sophomore colts submitted a late entry fee of $800 to make their horses eligible for the GI Secretariat S. at Arlington Park Aug. 14. Cool Conductor (Stravinsky) is likely to take a spot in the 10-furlong event, following his came runner-up finish behind Simple Exchange (Ire) in the GII American Derby July 24. Artie Schiller (El Prado {Ire}), one of three likely starters in the race for his sire, is probable to make his first start since finishing second in the GIII Virginia Derby July 10. The winner of the GIII Hill Prince S. in his previous appearance is trained by Jimmy Jerkens. Hazyview (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}), a dual Listed winner at Newmarket this spring, enters the Secretariat off a third-place effort in the G2 Prix Eugene Adam at Maisons-Laffitte July 14.

 Fly Away Angel rallied from seventh to take this prep for the GIII Arlington Breeders' Cup Oaks Aug. 21. A maiden winner over 10 furlongs at Churchill May 7, the dark bay was fourth in a June 10 allowance test over that distance. Third going 8 1/2 panels just 10 days later, she was coming into this off a convincing 2 1/2-length victory at this distance at Ellis Park July 10. Drawn widest of all, Fly Away Angel raced wide in midpack down the backstretch, was roused to the front approaching the final furlong and edged away late to best a game Catboat. Last Song (Unbridled's Song), winner this past winter of the GII Bonnie Miss S., turned in another dull effort and finished fifth, beaten 4 1/2 lengths as the 13-10 chalk.

Third beneath the Twin Spires June 13, the bay was most recently a distant second to the stakes bound Gilded Gold in Louisville July 3. Favored at 2-1, the homebred raced five wide down the backstretch, rallied on the turn and was up late to defeat Crazy Grace (Silver Ghost) for a half-length win. Lifetime Record: 7-2-1-2, $69,600. June 23. He made just one trip to the post last term, taking a Santa Anita allowance tilt Feb. 8 and was the second-longest shot off the 18-month absence. The attractive chestnut chased pacesetting Rojo Toro from second and turned up the heat on that Bob Baffert runner in upper stretch. Pressing on by that one, he tired late, but held on for the narrow victory. Rojo Toro, most recently the runner-up in the GII Triple Bend BC H. at Hollywood, was scratched from last weekend's GI Bing Crosby BC H. in favor of this spot.

OUIJA BOARD TO RACE AT FOUR Lord Derby's dual Classic winner Ouija Board (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) will remain in training at four, the Racing Post revealed yesterday. The G1 English and Irish Oaks heroine's owner-breeder announced the news ahead of her tilt at the G1 Yorkshire Oaks at York Aug. 18. "The plan is to keep Ouija Board in training next season," he told the Post. "I've obviously never had a horse as good as her before, and I'm realistic enough to accept that I'll probably never have one as good again. We still believe she is best at a mile and a quarter and that will give us plenty of options next year, ranging between that distance and a mile and a half." Lord Derby also revealed that her long-term target would be the G1 Prix Vermeille at Longchamp Sept. 12, while ruling out a possible outing at the Breeders' Cup, which he described as "asking too much."

Alkaased became the latest to join the league of ex-handicappers graduating with success to stakes level this season. After failing by a head to give three pounds to subsequent Royal Ascot scorer Wunderwood in a conditions event at Newmarket June 5, he made light work of his task in the prestigious Old Newton Cup at Haydock last time July 3. Settled in a stalking third by Jimmy Fortune off the generous early tempo, Alkaased took command passing the quarter pole before being challenged by First Charter and Kieren Fallon. Joined by that rival inside the final eighth, he battled tenaciously to assert in the closing stages. "Jimmy gave him a very good ride and said that when the second horse came at him, he wouldn't give up and kept on battling," conditioner Luca Cumani said. "He's not far off group class, so we'll have to select our targets carefully."

Godolphin do not usually target the major handicaps, but with the string in their current rude health they proved they are a force in any arena as the highweight Ancient World outclassed the opposition here. Like the stable's luminaries Papineau (GB) and Doyen (Ire), he was trained by Andre Fabre at three and showed promise when taking two conditions events at Longchamp. Switched to Godolphin, he finished runner-up in the Listed Royal Windsor S. May 10 and filled the same spot behind subsequent G3 Silver Trophy winner Shot to Fame in a conditions event at Nottingham last time June 2, before being gelded in the interim. Settled under cover on the rail behind the leading group, Ancient World was switched out by Frankie Dettori and quickened to lead at the eighth pole. Asserting from there, he was firmly in control in the closing stages as he was eased to a comfortable success. "That was a very classy performance and definitely puts him into the listed and group category," commented Racing Manager Simon Crisford. "He's always been a difficult horse and always managed to get himself worked up before his races, so he's been gelded and is much better for it."

TALE OF PERFECTION TOPS WINTER SALE

Tale of Perfection (NZ) (Tale of the Cat) topped yesterday's Inglis Winter Sale in Newmarket with a final bid of A$52,000. The rising four-year-old, selling as lot 137, is out of the stakes-winning mare Bank Burst (Aus) (Vain {Aus}) and was purchased by Inglis, acting on behalf of a client who will send the mare to stud this coming season in Victoria. During the one-day auction, Inglis sold 178 broodmares, weanlings, yearlings and tried racehorses for A$960,000. The average was A$5,393. "This particular sale never ceases to amaze me as every year there is a very strong buying bench across all sections of the catalogue, with particular interest in the tried racehorses," said Inglis Bloodstock Director Jonathan D'Arcy.
