HIDE AND SEEK

Sightseek (Distant View) ran and hid from the competition while carrying 121 pounds in the 2003 edition of the GI Go for Wand H. at Saratoga. Toting top weight of 122 this year, the chestnut mare will defend her title at the Spa this afternoon. The Juddmonte Farms

Sightseek Adam Coglianese

homebred cruised to an 11 1/2-length tally in last year's Go for Wand and came back to take the GI Beldame S. at Belmont in October. But, as she had demonstrated in the past, Sightseek did not handle the surface at Santa Anita, finishing fourth in the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff to end the season and filling that spot again in her 2004 debut, the Jan. 25 GI Santa Monica H. The five-year-old bounced back to capture the Mar. 14 GII Rampart H. by 7 1/2 lengths, but was once again stymied by the footing in her next try and could do no better than fourth over a sloppy track as the 2-5 chalk in the Apr. 30 GII Louisville Breeders' Cup H. Back in New York for her latest, she returned to form with a 3 1/4-length score over Eclipse winner Storm Flag Flying (Storm Cat) in the June 19 GI Ogden Phipps H. "I still think Sightseek is the same horse that everyone saw last year," trainer Bobby Frankel said.

Azeri (Jade Hunter), who was first or second in her first 18 career starts, has been off the board in her last two, running eighth in the May 31 GI Met Mile H. and a distant fourth in the Phipps. Trainer Wayne Lukas is looking for the champion to turn it around, however. "I think two things happened to her at Belmont," Lukas said. "First, she bled a little bit. I don't know if she did that before. But I really think she didn't care for the Belmont race-track." He added, "I feel comfortable where we are at with her. There's a lot of things to like. I believe she is more suited for two turns, she has been working well and she has been superb since coming to Saratoga." Go for Wand field, p5

UP TO THE TEST

Bidding to bounce back after tiring to be sixth in the June 26 GI Mother Goose S., Society Selection (Coronado's Quest) loitered at the back of the pack early, but finished with a flourish to take the GI Test S. at Saratoga by an eye-catching 6 1/4 lengths yesterday. "Almost every horse in the race had speed, so I just bided my time," winning jockey Edgar Prado said. Society Selection "At the half-mile pole, she started picking them up--she went by horses so fast." Test S. cont. p2

ON HER TERMS

Sheikh Maktoum bin Rashid al Maktoum's Favourable Terms (GB) (Selkirk) outbattled Chorist (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) and had enough in hand as Silence is Golden (GB) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) lunged late to win yesterday's G1 Nassau S. at Goodwood. The 11-2 chance provided Sir Michael Stoute with his seventh renewal, eclipsing the record set by Sir Noel Murless. Nassau S. cont. p3

PLEASANTLY PERFECT RETURNS

Pleasantly Perfect (Pleasant Colony) has been on vacation since getting the better of Medaglia d'Oro by 3/4 of a length in the Mar. 27 G1 Dubai World Cup, but the bay has been sharp during his morning trials and looks primed for his return in today's GII San Diego H. at Del Mar. The six-year-old prepped for his come back with a three-furlong blow out in a bullet :34 3/5 Thursday. "He looks as good as ever, he's worked good, he's doing good and I expect his best," trainer Richard Mandella told Daily Racing Form, but cautioned, "I'm not trying to get him beat, but I'm not life-or-death in this situation. He's giving [weight] to a couple of pretty nice horses. At a mile and a sixteenth, who knows?" San Diego field, p5

Margins: 6 1/4, 3 3/4, 4 1/4. Odds: 3.35, 13.00, 12.10. Also Ran: Friendly Michelle, Prospective Saint, Elusive Diva, Dazzle Me, She's a Mugs, Reforest, Humor Me Molly, Feline Story, Rodeo Licious.

Society Selection broke her maiden at Saratoga last August and, after a short break, came back to take the Oct. 4 GI Frizette S. at Belmont. The bay failed to fire in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies, running 10th, but looked sharp on her sophomore bow. Third, but beaten just a neck, in the Feb. 7 GII Davona Dale S. at Gulfstream Park, she set the pace before weakening late to be second in the nine-furlong GII Bonnie Miss S. Mar. 6, then came from out of it to take the one-mile GIII Comely S. at Aqueduct Apr. 9. The Cowan homebred used late-running tactics once again when second in the June 4 GI Acorn S., but faltered badly after pressing the pace in the Mother Goose. Adding Lasix for the first time here, she flew from out of the pack as speedster Forest Music staggered after dashing off a half in :44.19, then opened it up in the final furlong. Trainer Allen Jerkens indicated that the filly will stretch out to nine furlongs for her next start, the Sept. 11 GI Gazelle H. at Belmont. - 3--Ocean Drive, 118, f, 4, Belong to Me--Clever But Costly, by Clever Trick. ($160,000 yrl '01 KEESEP). O-S & B Baskin; B-Conway & Mueller (KY); $50,000. Margins: 5 3/4, 2 1/4, 2 1/4. Odds: 3.10, 9.40, 8.00. Also Ran: Sand Springs, Intercontinental (GB), Spice Island, Halory Leigh. Scratched: Nevermore, Buy the Sport, Alchemist.

Off the board in three of her last four starts last term and again in her 2004 bow, Wonder Again had people wondering if she would ever regain the form that saw her win the GII Lake Placid H. and the GI Garden City Breeders' Cup S. as a three-year-old. The bay showed little in her sixth-place finish in the June 5 GII Just a Game Breeders' Cup H. at Belmont, but rebounded to take the July 5 GII New York H. by 3 1/4 lengths over a soft turf last time out and once again showed an affinity for give in the ground here. Rated just off the lead as Sand Springs (Dynaformer) took them along through a driving rain, Wonder Again found running room along the rail as they turned for home and burst through before opening it up for an easy score. "Last year, nothing went right for us, but, fortunately, [owner John Phillips] decided to race her again this year," trainer James Toner said. He added that the mare would be pointed for the GI Flower Bowl Invitational H. at Belmont Oct. 2. Plagued by back problems at the end of last season, Favourable Terms looked on top of her game when she made her belated first start of 2004, posting an impressive win in the G2 Windsor Forest S. at Royal Ascot June 16. She trailed in more than 10 lengths behind subsequent G1 Sussex S. scorer Soviet Song (Ire) when sixth on her latest start, the July 6 G1 Falmouth S. at Newmarket, but some impressive gallops and intensive physio saw her book her place in this line-up. "It was only after her last two pieces of work that we decided to run, but even after those she needed working on," winning trainer Sir Michael Stoute admitted. Settled in rear early, she had Chorist in her sights as that rival was committed at the three-furlong marker, but closed to take command passing the quarter pole. She leaned into Chorist in the closing stages as Silence is Golden ate into her advantage, but the post came in time.

"She's very good at a mile, so its nice to see her win this over 10 furlongs and opens up the options," Stoute said. Trainer Brian Meehan revealed that the runner-up is believed in foal to Medicean (GB) and has run her last race. Also Ran: Colonial Colony, The Lady's Groom.

Eye of the Tiger received a much-needed confidence boost when dropped into a $75,000 optional claimer at Belmont July 16 and made it two straight wins with a game victory here. The bay colt started the season out west under the care of Jerry Hollendorfer and finished a disappointing fourth over the Golden Gate turf Jan. 15. Stacked up against a solid field in the Feb. 7 GII Strub S., he ran a decent sixth and was sent off as the favorite in his next start, but could only manage a second-place finish in a $100,000 optional claimer at Santa Anita Feb. 22. He ran fifth in the GII San Carlos H. Mar. 7 while making his last start for Hollendorfer. Shipped to Kiaran McLaughlin's barn, he ran one of his best races ever, finishing third behind Pico Central (Brz) and Strong Hope in the GI Carter H. Apr. 10. But, facing top company again next time, he could do no better than seventh in the GI Met Mile May 31. The highest price in this short field, he stalked the pace, took a short lead in the stretch while bumping with Olmodavor and refused to let that one go by. "He came out and proved himself today," assistant trainer Barry Downes said. "He's done nothing wrong in his last few races. He's raced against some tough horses. We were just happy to see him win today." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Sweet Win started her career against $25,000 maiden claimers at Calder in April and could finish only fourth at 53-1, then tried the turf May 9 and was fifth. The chestnut came back to break her maiden on the Calder main track June 1 and added a six-length allowance win on the grass 12 days later before shipping west to new trainer Jeff Mullins. Adding Lasix in her stakes debut here, the $10,000 OBSAPR juvenile rated in third as odds-on Miss Vegas cut out honest early fractions. Sweet Win went after the favorite in the stretch, but Miss Vegas dug in stubbornly, yielding only in the dying strides as Victory U.S.A. came on to finish third in a three-way photo for the win. Winning owner Gayle Fogelson, who purchased the filly for $175,000 in June, is the son of Buddy Fogelson, who campaigned Horse of the Year Ack Ack. It was the first winner for the younger horseman. "It's been a long, long time since a Fogelson has been in the winner's circle--maybe 40 years," he said. Miss Vegas was losing to fillies for the very first time. Astrocharm took a handicap at Haydock July 1 and made a quick return a week later to finish a half-length runner-up to subsequent scorer Mephisto (Ire) in a more competitive event at Newmarket. She showed she was still on the upgrade with an impressive success in a conditions race at Pontefract last time July 25 and built on that effort to record a career best here. Settled in fifth by Neil Callan off the generous early tempo, she was racing behind the leaders at the top of the straight and had to wait until Pongee and Summitville swooped to deliver her run. Quickening in the clear, she caught the former with 75 yards remaining before asserting in the drive to the line. "She's done it really well and Neil gave her a lovely ride," commented conditioner Mark Tompkins. "She's 100 percent genuine and tries her hardest. Neil said she was wanting to do it for him."

Jockey Gary Stevens is still looking for that elusive first domestic Group 1 winner and relies on Nebraska Tornado to break his duck in this contest, upgraded to the highest level for the first time. Notoriously difficult in the preliminaries, she has talent in abundance and a generous way of running that saw her capture two of France's most important races in 2003. Despite winning the G1 Prix de Diane (French Oaks) over an extended 10 furlongs at Chantilly last June, she showed a mile was her optimum when winning the G1 Prix du Moulin de Longchamp in September. Her lack of an outing may have contributed to her fifth placing in the G1 Prix d'Ispahan at Longchamp on her return May 23, but she performed with credit when fourth behind Refuse to Bend (Ire) in the G1 Queen Anne S. at Royal Ascot last time June 15. Pascal Bary used this to relaunch the career of the Niarchos Family's Six Perfections (Fr) 12 months ago and he will be hoping that the same connections' Denebola can go one better this time. Like her illustrious stable companion, she was a smart juvenile, winning the G3 Prix de Cabourg before finishing third behind Whipper in the G1 Prix Morny at this track last August. She emulated Six Perfections in winning the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac at Longchamp in October, but has been slow to come to hand this term, finishing third in the G3 Prix de la Grotte back at that venue Apr. 25 and an unlucky runner-up in the Listed Prix Amandine at Deauville last time July 8. Monturani had G2 Premio Emilio Turati scorer Marbye back in fifth when finishing runner-up to Favourable Terms (GB) in the G2 Windsor Forest S. at Royal Ascot June 16 before finishing fourth behind Soviet Song (Ire) in the G1 Falmouth S. at Newmarket last time July 6.

Powerscourt has an opportunity to get his season back on track after two tough encounters against the best 10-furlong performers that Britain can offer. Despite shaping like a potential stayer at three when winning the G2 Great Voltigeur S. at York in August and finishing third in the G1 Irish St Leger at The Curragh in September, he has been transformed by a shortening in trip this term. After running away with the G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup at The Curragh on his seasonal bow May 23, he finished runner-up to Rakti (GB) in the G1 Prince of Wales's S. at Royal Ascot June 16, where Scott's View was fifth. The ease in the ground may have accounted for his disappointing effort when only fifth behind Refuse to Bend (Ire) in the G1 Eclipse S. at Sandown last time July 3 and he could improve off that effort here. Imperial Dancer has yet to recapture the form of his three-length defeat of Altieri (GB) in the G1 Premio Roma in November, but on last year's evidence he thrives on a busy schedule. He has nearly four lengths to find on Powerscourt on the form of his seventh in the Eclipse, but his finest hours have come when traveling overseas. Of the home team, last year's G1 Preis der Diana winner Next Gina may offer the best defence as she bids to provide her trainer Andreas Schutz with his second renewal, following the exploits of the star filly Elle Danzig (Ger) in 1998. She finished fourth in this 12 months ago and shaped with promise when second in the G3 Preis der Jungheinrich Gabelstapler at Hamburg last time July 2.

The most prestigious of the five group races to be held in Rio de Janeiro over the weekend has drawn a full field of 22, including seven Group 1 winners. The event was first run in 1933. The crowd favorite this year will likely be Evil Knievel, a multiple group winner who is unbeaten in six starts over Gavea's turf course. He posted an easy victory in the July 4 G2 G.P. Dezesseis de Julho going 2400 meters last time out.

TAPIT OUT OF HASKELL GI Wood Memorial S. winner Tapit (Pulpit) worked seven furlongs in 1:27.40 at Delaware Park yesterday morning, but trainer Michael Dickinson said after the move that the gray is still being troubled by breathing problems and would be forced to miss the Aug. 8 GI Haskell Invitational H. at Monmouth Park. The three-year-old has not been out since running ninth in the May 1 GI Kentucky Derby. "He worked super this morning, but he needs minor throat surgery," Dickinson said. "He'll walk for a week after the surgery, so the Haskell is out." But Rock Hard Ten (Kris S.) is still on target for the nine-furlong event. The strapping colt worked five furlongs in :58.40 at Del Mar yesterday, the fastest work of the day at the distance. His final quarter was clocked in :22.60. "He did it pretty easy," trainer Jason Orman said. "I'm very happy with the work. As long as he is good tomorrow, we'll ship (to Monmouth Park) on Wednesday morning." Orman will arrive from California Thursday morning. Swingforthefences (Boston Harbor), on the fence between the Haskell, the GII Jim Dandy S. at Saratoga on the same afternoon or the Aug. 7 GIII West Virginia Derby at Mountaineer Park, also breezed yesterday, going six furlongs in 1:12 4/5 on the Saratoga main track. "There was some traffic in front of him and he had to be maneuvered a bit, but he got through it nicely and finished well," trainer Rick Violette Jr. said. "Now we have to see where we're going next weekend. The Jim Dandy is our first choice, but we'll...do some handicapping and make a decision."

Funny Cide Sharp at Spa:

Funny Cide (Distorted Humor) drilled five furlongs in an impressive :59 1/5 over the Saratoga main track yesterday morning. Jockey Edgar Prado was in the saddle. "We were very pleased with the way he went out there," trainer Barclay Tagg said. "We did everything we could to make it go that way, and it did." The four-year-old is pointing for the Aug. 22 GII Saratoga Breeders' Cup H.

Whitney Hopefuls Tune Up:

Peace Rules (Jules), gallant winner of the GI Suburban H. last time out, breezed five furlongs in 1:01 2/5 on the Saratoga main track yesterday. Jockey Jorge Chavez was aboard for the move, but Jerry Bailey will be in the irons for Saturday's GI Whitney H. "I thought he'd go a little faster, but as long as the jock got him to relax, that's fine," trainer Bobby Frankel said. "He's a dead-fit horse after running so hard in [the 10-furlong Suburban]. He's right on." Also prepping for the Whitney was Seattle Fitz (Arg) (Fitzcarraldo {Arg}), who took the June 12 GII Brooklyn H. going a one-turn mile and an eighth last time out. The five-year-old went his five-eighths in 1:01 2/5. "He might prefer one turn, but it's hard to say," trainer Kiaran McLaughlin said, but added, "He couldn't be doing any better."

Ramon Dominguez Sits Out Saturday Card:

Jockey Ramon Dominguez took off all his mounts at Saratoga yesterday and will be sidelined at least until Wednesday. Dominguez has been bothered by shoulder pain since being involved in a spill at Delaware Park last Wednesday. "He went for X-rays Wednesday and they said it was just a bruise," agent Steve Rushing said. "He had an MRI done on Thursday afternoon, but it takes 24 hours to get the results, so he decided to ride at Saratoga [Friday]. When he was finished riding, he called for the results and they said he could have a hairline fracture in his shoulder." Dominguez won with one of his three mounts Friday. He will see an orthopedist Tuesday to determine the extent of his injury. Saratoga Report cont. p2

SIR WALTER RAHY (c, 4, Rahy--Madam Sandie {MGSP}, by Our Native) took an allowance test on the Belmont turf last September, but ended the year on a sour note, finishing seventh in the Oct. 18 Gill Hawthorne Derby and again in the Dec. 20 Pete Axthelm S. at Calder. Returning after the seven-month layoff as the 3-1 second choice, the 1/2 to Gritty Sandie (Manila), GSW & GISP, $514,195, bided his time as Puget Sound (Capote) dashed out to a lead that reached 12 lengths after the opening half. But jockey Javier Castellano didn't panic, gaining steadily as the frontrunner started to falter and driving to the front in the final yards to take it by 3/4 of a length. TOP SHOTER (g, 5, Ormsby--Rajadiddle, by Raja's Revenge) took his record at Saratoga to four wins from five starts with a front-running victory. The neck winner of a Finger Lakes state-bred allowance Nov. 23, the dark bay splashed through the slop to record a 5 1/2-length victory in the G. W. Barker S. at the Lakes in his return May 31 then acquitted himself well in open company in his latest, a runner-up effort in the Mountain State H. at Mountaineer July 4. A 7-1 chance in this spot, the half to Travelator (A. P Jet), MSW, $300,311, cut out fractions of :21.89 and :44.90, turned back a challenge from Willy o'the Valley (Will's Way) in the stretch and went on to take it by 3 1/2 solid lengths. Last seen finishing third at this level at Belmont July 24, he was given a 4-1 shot on the quick turnaround. The bay colt raced with the early pace and was all out to get by Lucky Gamble (Dove Hunt) by 3/4 of a length. Lifetime Record: 9-2-1-3, $69,770.

Proud Accolade became the fifth winner for his freshman sire (by Is It True) with an impressive first-out victory. Half of an entry sent off the 19-10 betting favorite, the dark bay colt dueled for the lead from the inside, began to shake loose on the turn and sprinted clear once straightened for the drive to win by 7 1/2 lengths. Stablemate More Than Somewhat (Lemon Drop Kid) was second. Knocked down for $47,000 as an OBSAUG yearling, Proud Accolade was pinhooked by Eisaman Equine for $450,000 at this year's OBSMAR sale. SWIFT ATTRACTION (c, 3, Storm Cat--Golden Attraction {Ch. 2yo Filly, MGISW, $911,507}, by Mr. Prospector), from the champion juvenile filly of 1995 and winner of that year's GI Spinaway S. at this track, finished a troubled fifth in his career bow at the Spa last Aug. 13 and was shelved off that effort. The homebred returned to action at Belmont Park July 14 and showed speed for a half mile before fading back to fourth. Tighter for this effort, the 7-1 chance disputed the early pace, but looked destined for second as Maytown (Menifee) began to edge clear in the stretch. But a resurgent Swift Attraction responded to a right-handed whip from Pat Day to overtake that one late and win by a half length. His two-year-old full brother, Big Top Cat, is in training and is expected to debut during the meet. Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-0, $29,825.

A maiden winner at first asking at Woodbine June 13, Wholelottabourbon was a 12-1 outsider in the Victoria S. 13 days later, but outran his odds to be second. The third choice trying a furlong father and a sloppy track this time, the chestnut colt went right to the front, shook a brief early bid from favored Quite a Ruckus and was alone on the lead down the lane, winning handily. "We were hoping for rain," trainer Nick Gonzalez admitted. "We breezed him a few times in the mud and he trained really well over it."

Mar. 6, the bay added a 3/4-length score in the Apr. 24 Caesars Wish S. for Maryland-breds before a subpar sixth against open company in the Hilltop S. over the Pimlico turf May 8. She atoned for that defeat with a 2 3/4-length tally in the off-the-turf May 31 Pearl Necklace S. for state-breds and was most recently the hero of the Gill Iowa Oaks July 2. Park Avenue Ball took apart a field of Jersey-bred maidens by five easy lengths on his July 15 bow at this track going half a furlong shorter and was part of an entry favored at odds-on in their stakes debuts. Settled nicely off a three-headed speed duel, the chestnut accelerated sharply on the turn, came wide for the drive and outran his stablemate to the wire.

Second in a two-turn maiden at Fair Grounds Jan. 31, the bay was a well-beaten ninth in a Feb 22 turf maiden in New Orleans, but exploded to win her Pimlico debut by 13 3/4 lengths going this distance Mar. 31. BABEL (c, 3, Kingmambo--Lady Reiko {Ire} {SW & GSP, $303,561}, by Sadler's Wells) put in a belated rally which carried him to a fourth-place finish in his June 22 bow over course and distance, but added Lasix for his most recent effort and improved to be third, beaten 1 3/4 lengths over this turf July 6. A half brother to Chopper Won (Kris S.), SW, $134,670, the homebred was rated in midpack behind soft early fractions, circled three wide on the turn and stayed on gamely to decision Formal Commander (Deputy Commander) by a neck as the 2-1 choice. Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-1, $26,010. O/B-Jayeff B Stables (KY). T-Alan E Goldberg.

1st-PHA, $23,047, Msw, 2yo, f, 5f, :59 2/5, ft.
PRINCESS LANA (f, 2, Lion Hearted--Frog Princess {SW}, by Sensitive Prince) made the front from the 11-hole in her July 13 bow over track and distance before tiring late to be second. Drawn more favorably this time around, the half sister to Proof's Prince (Proof), SW, $116,448, set the pace racing off the rail, turned back a bid from Salori (Grand Slam) at midstretch and went on to score by 2 1/4 lengths as the 9-5 second choice. She becomes the third winner for her freshman sire (by Storm Cat). Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, $19,760. O/B-Daniel J Ljoka (PA). T-Timothy James Kelly.

+ EL BATALLON (c, 2, High Yield--Sandshell, by Silver Hawk) acted like a runner in the morning and was dispatched the 2-1 second choice to become the second winner for his freshman sire (by Storm Cat). The $77,000 KEESAP yearling purchase dueled head-and-head for the lead through the opening furlongs, responded nicely when tackled by Hurricane Mia (Stormy Atlantic) in the final furlong and went on to win by three-parts of a length. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $13,800. O-Establo Madoca. B-Foxfield (KY). T-Edward Plesa Jr.

10th-CRC, $23,000, Msw, 2yo, 6 1/2f, 1:21, ft.
HOSTILE WITNESS (c, 2, Successful Appeal--Diablo's Blend, by Diablo) rallied into a strong pace to finish third, beaten a half length at 51-1 in his July 10 debut, but was 3-5 in his second career outing. A $95,000 OBSAPR two-year-old purchase, the New York-bred chased the pace from the inside, was guided off the rail leaving the turn and pulled away late en route to a three-length victory over Hadaya (Afternoon Deelites). He is the sixth winner for his freshman sire (by Valid Appeal). Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-1, $16,330. O-Thomas Willmott. B-Sez Who Thoroughbreds (NY). T-Larry Bates.

She had to work appreciably harder than she had in her first two career starts, but Panorama Valley retained her unblemished record with a game victory in this race, named for one of Chicago's best juvenile fillies in recent memory. Entered against a group of males in her May 11 debut at Prairie Meadows, she flexed her muscle, winning off by 10 lengths and made it two straight with an 11-length victory in the Prairie Gold Lassie S. in Iowa July 1. With the pace from between horses, the Ohio-bred filly relinquished the lead to Mary Alex in upper stretch, but dug down deep, overtaking that filly before holding a furious rally from Kota.

4th-APX, $30,000, Msw, (S), 2yo, f, 5 1/2f, 1:07, ft. + BLUESBDANCING (f, 2, Golden Gear--Casino Blues {SP}, by Thirty Six Red) was let go at 10-1 in her debut, but made the handicappers pay for their lack of faith. Always close, the dark bay took over at midstretch and galloped away to a six-length score. The winner was a $27,000 KEESEP yearling and a $65,000 OBSMAR juvenile. MORE THAN WILD (c, 2, More Than Ready--Tell Margie {SW, $209,884}, by Talc) became the sixth individual winner for his freshman sire (by Southern Halo) with a popular victory. The $95,000 KEESEP yearling purchase finished runner-up in a pair of sloppy Churchill maidens May 15 and June 12, but was coming into this off a third-place finish beneath the Twin Spires June 23. Trying the turf for the first time, the dark bay rated in second for the opening quarter mile, responded when set down for the drive and skipped past pacesetter Bluegrass Fever (Stormin Fever) to score by 1 3/4 lengths as the 7-10 chalk. The bay was bumped at the outset of a May 9 maiden at Churchill and could do no better than sixth at odds-on. Hammered down to 20 cents on the dollar for this, the half to Ile de France (Storm Cat), GISP, $125,300, did not disappoint, sprinting down the stretch to a comprehensive 11-length victory. Statement had not visited the winner's circle since taking a Saratoga turf allowance test by a neck over Request for Parole last August. The bay had hit the board just once in his nine starts since, running second by 3/4 of a length in the Gil Arcadia H. at Santa Anita in April, but followed that effort with an eighth in the Gill Inglewood H. May 1 and fourth-place finishes in Hollywood allowance races June 6 and July 5. The second-longest shot on the board here, the New York-bred was never far from the front, closed stoutly to take over in deep stretch and held off Seine for the score. Even-money chalk Buddy Gil (Eastern Echo) was caught in traffic along the inside and couldn't find the needed late response once clear, finishing fifth.

Fong's Thong opened his account in an Arlington maiden last August before being switched to Brian Meehan for a European turf campaign. He justified that decision instantly with an impressive success in a decent conditions event at Newbury last time July 16 and took this step into stakes company in stride under the in-form jockey Jimmy Fortune. Taken to the front in the early stages, he dictated an even pace before quickening away from his rivals in the straight and recording a comfortable success. "He's a real nice horse and he might be one of those that only come along once in a while," Meehan said. "He's always been very straightforward and has come on for Newbury. Jimmy said he wasn't doing a tap in front."

Pivotal Point is still lightly raced and gave notice he was coming right when beating a subsequent scorer in a five-furlong handicap at Ascot July 10. He was caught in the dying strides by Baltic King (GB) in Sunday's Hong Kong Jockey Club Sprint H. over that course and distance, but made amends while being upped in trip here. Breaking well, he showed early dash to stalk the pace on the stands' side and was traveling strongly as Seb Sanders bided his time. Committed approaching the eighth pole, he was comfortably on top of High Reach on the far side and was firmly in command in the closing stages despite drifting right. "When the draw was made we wanted to be on the far side, but when they had all gone we decided to go low," trainer Peter Makin said. "Luckily, there was a lot of pace on our side and it all worked out really well."

MAC LOVE (GB) (g, 3, Cape Cross {Ire}--My Lass {GB} {SP-Ire}, by Elmaamul) placed in both the Listed Carnarvon S. at Newbury May 14 and the Listed Cathedral S. at Salisbury June 13. Sixth most recently in the Listed Hackwood S. back at Newbury July 17, he started this lesser event as a 5-1 chance. Reserved in rear early, the 45,000gns TATOCT yearling and 75,000gns TATAUT two-year-old made progress under pressure inside the final quarter mile and was driven out in the closing stages to deny Lochridge (GB) (Indian Ridge {Ire}) by a neck. NOTABLE GUEST (c, 3, Kingmambo--Yenda {GB} {GSW & GISP-US, SW & G1SP-Fr, SP-Eng, $273,121}, by Dancing Brave), third to Godolphin's unbeaten Into The Dark (GB) and this week's impressive Goodwood winner Art Trader in a competitive handicap at Newmarket July 16, was asked to score in his fifth go as the 1-10 favorite. He raced in a prominent third during the opening exchanges, then eased to the front at halfway. Tackled by Argent (GB) (Barathea {Ire}) approaching the final quarter mile, he was pushed clear to best that rival by a comfortable five lengths. Lifetime Record: 5-1-2-1, £10,709.

LITERATIM (GB) (c, 4, Polish Precedent--Annie Albright, by Verbatim), fourth on his belated debut over course and distance May 3, raced prominently in second early until easing to the front at halfway. The 3-1 second choice was headed by 4-9 pick Kauri Forest (Woodman) with 2 1/2 furlongs remaining, but showed fighting spirit to remain on that rival's tail to the eighth pole. From there, he had to be angled off the rail around the lugging favorite with 100 yards to go and was driven out late to secure a determined half-length success. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, £6,040.

ROAD RAGE (IRE) (f, 2, Giant's Causeway--Endorsement {GB} {GSW-Eng}, by Warning {GB}), third behind the promising Librettist in a decent course-and-distance maiden on her debut July 16, broke well and was settled in a stalking second before taking command at the quarter pole. The 8-11 pick ran greenly in front and Richard Quinn needed to use the persuader to straighten her, but she dug deep to hold the challenge of Elizabethan Age (Fr) (King's Best) by a short head. Road Rage marks the seventh winner for her freshman sire (by Storm Cat). Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-1, £5,587. O/B-Cliveden Stud Ltd; T-Ed Dunlop.

Scandinavia, a $725,000 KEENOV weanling, was beaten 3/4 of a length by subsequent Listed Tyros S. winner Elusive Double (Ire) in a Tipperary maiden on his debut June 10 before filling the same spot in a similar event at The Curragh June 25. Settled towards the rear by a confident Jamie Spencer, the half to Composure (Touch Gold), MGISW-US, $731,300, made smooth progress approaching the quarter pole to challenge the long-time leader Set in Motion (Ire) (Grand Lodge). He needed only the threat of the whip to quicken to the lead with 200 yards remaining and record a facile two-length score. "We think a lot of him," commented trainer Aidan O'Brien. "He works extremely well at home and could make up into a lovely staying type." Scandinavia marks the seventh winner for his freshman sire (by Mr. Prospector). Petit Calva finished third in the Listed Prix Imprudence at Maisons-Laffitte Apr. 6 before splitting Grey Lilas (Ire) and Denebola in the G3 Prix de la Grotte at Longchamp Apr. 25. After disappointing when sixth in the G2 Prix de Sandringham at Chantilly last time June 6, she was rested and returned to record a game first stakes success in this contest. Racing prominently early, she was driven to lead with 300 yards remaining and battled in determined fashion to hold her advantage as Polyfirst finished with a late flourish. "It's rather an appropriate name to win with at Deauville," commented trainer Richard Gibson, referring to the local brandy Calvados. He added, "Regarding the future, it could be the [G3] Prix Quincey at this track Aug. 31, but that is on the straight track. A mile on a straight course may be a bit too far...and she will be taking on older horses as well, but that's how the program is."

It has been a long journey for Ratio since finishing third to Mozart (Ire) and Aldebaran in the G3 Jersey S. at Royal Ascot three years ago, but he showed he retained his ability when winning the G3 World Trophy at Newbury last September. But he disappointed on his return trip to Britain when only 14th in the G2 Diadem S. at Ascot later that month and was making his belated seasonal bow here. Held up in rear throughout the early stages, he cut through the pack under a hand ride to head stable companion Miss Emma in the final stride.

The 272-10 outsider made good progress under pressure approaching the final furlong and ran on well in the closing stages to deny the subsequently disqualified Vatori (Fr) (Vettori {Ire}) by a half length nearing the line. "He's a decent horse who does better in the afternoon than he does in the morning," explained winning trainer Richard Gibson. "He has proved a bargain buy from the Deauville Sale last year and, if he comes out of the race well and shows improvement, he'll go for the Listed Criterium du FEE at this track Aug. 21." This was the second winner for his freshman sire (by Elmaamul). Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, €14,000. O-J Martinez Salmean; B-Ecurie Pelder; T-R Gibson.
