ALL A-TRAIN FROM THE WORD 'GO'

Sent off by a cautious Saratoga crowd as the 5-2 second betting choice, Azeri (Jade Hunter) displayed the form that led to Horse of the Year honors in 2002 with a rousing victory over Sightseek (Distant View) in yesterday's GI Go For Wand H. Whispers of the six-year-old's decline, spawned by listless off-the-board efforts in the May 31 GI Metropolitan H. and June 19 GI Ogden Phipps H., proved exaggerated as Azeri came out running and led the way with an ideally placed Sightseek sitting just off her flank. Sightseek was nudged on to draw on even terms nearing the quarter pole, but a resolute Azeri turned back the challenge and was edging away as she hit the wire in stakes-record time. "We've had more than one horse that people have written off and have come back to win big," said trainer D. Wayne Lukas. "I never lost confidence in her. We'll enjoy this one." With the win, Azeri becomes the leading female money earner of all time, edging another Lukas trainee, the retired Spain. Go For Wand cont. p2

A "MAR"VELOUS DAY AT DEAUVILLE

Marbye (Ire) (Marju {Ire}) sprang an upset on a baking hot afternoon at Deauville, sprinting by even-money choice Nebraska Tornado (Storm Cat) before holding the challenge of Majestic Desert (GB) (Fraam {GB}) to take the G1 Prix d'Astarte at Deauville yesterday. Third behind Bright Sky (Ire) and Six Perfections (Fr) in this event a year ago, she was an 11-1 outsider in the one-mile test this time, but came through to provide trainer Bruno Grizzetti with his finest hour. "She appreciates this flat track and, after finishing behind those top fillies last year, she had a good shot today," Grizzetti said. Prix d'Astarte cont. p3

CHOCTAW NATION PERFECT IN SAN DIEGO

Choctaw Nation (Louis Quatorze) spotted the field a considerable amount of ground early, but unleashed an eye-catching rally on the second turn and got up in time to upset GI Breeders' Cup Classic S. hero Pleasantly Perfect (Pleasant Colony) in Sunday's GII San Diego H. at Del Mar. The victory, coming in the four-year-old gelding's stakes debut, ran his record to a perfect five-for-five. Claimed by trainer Jeff Mullins for $40,000 out of his debut in February, Choctaw Nation was allowed to settle nearly 10 lengths off the leading trio of During (Cherokee Run), Taste of Paradise (Conquistador Cielo) and Pleasantly Perfect as they cruised through a half in :47 2/5. Kicking into gear with his customary late run, the bay drew to within striking distance at the top of the lane, reeled in the game Pleasantly Perfect and asserted late to prevail as the public's third choice. "The only angle we had was the Dubai thing," admitted Mullins. "Everybody knows that horses usually don't fire the first time back from Dubai." Mullins said the Aug. 22, GI Pacific Classic is a possibility. Click for the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Train Kept a Rollin'...

The 2002 GI Breeders' Cup Distaff heroine Azeri (Jade Hunter), switched from the barn of Laura De Seroux to D. Wayne Lukas over the winter, kicked off 2004 with an impressive win in the Apr. 3 GI Apple Blossom H. After a head second to Mayo on the Side (French Deputy) in the seven-furlong GI Humana Distaff H. on the Kentucky Derby undercard at Churchill Downs, she then went off form in the Met Mile and Ogden Phipps, a race in which she was reported to have bled. "It was not a small thing that she bled in her last race," said Lukas. "I felt that once we got lined out a little bit, we would be able to identify some of the problems." Azeri's victory means that the Paulson family has campaigned both the male and female leading North American money earners of all time. The great Cigar heads the list with earnings of over $9 million. "My real goal starting out this year was to get that for my father," said Michael Paulson, who calls the shots for the Allen Paulson Living Trust. "Since he is gone now, this will probably be the last champion he will have bred. So, it is very gratifying to have both of them on top." No Shame Finishing Second...

Juddmonte Farms homebred Sightseek (Distant View), a well-backed 3-5 favorite to defend her title in the Go For Wand, had every chance to go by through the lane, but wound up spinning her wheels in the final eighth as Azeri found more to counter. "I was upset at the beginning of the race," said Sightseek's trainer, Bobby Frankel. "I was giving [Azeri] two pounds that I shouldn't have been giving her. I just hope next time I get five pounds."

Halted for $40,000 out of his Feb. 29 debut at Santa Anita, Choctaw Nation overcame a 17-length deficit to win that race by 2 1/4 lengths. He returned to post an impressive 101 Beyer while capturing an 8 1/2-furlong starter allowance Mar. 28, he kept his record clean at Santa Anita with a victory against first-level allowance rivals Apr. 18. Kept closer to the pace in his next--the gelding was back only single-digit lengths at the first call--he produced a 3/4-length tally in a Hollywood NW2X before earning a two-month freshening.

Not Perfect, But Not Bad...

Returning from a four-month absence following his gritty win in the Mar. 27 G1 Dubai World Cup, Pleasantly Perfect put up a respectable runner-up performance. Perhaps carrying a bit more flesh off the layoff, the towering bay pressed the pace between horses up the backstretch, but couldn't match strides late and settled for second. "He was too fresh, that's all," said trainer Richard Mandella. "He was a little anxious up there early. But it'll set us up for the Pacific Classic."

Quickly establishing herself among Italy's elite milers last summer, Marbye surprised the seashores here when finishing third in this race 12 months ago. During a busy fall, she finished fourth in the G1 Premio Vittorio di Capua before taking the G3 Premio Sergio Cumani at the San Siro in the space of a week in October. She held her form when third in the G2 Premio Ribot at the Capannelle in Rome the following month, then went on vacation. The filly returned to post a conditions score at that track Mar. 21, but could do no better than fourth in the G3 Premio Carlo Chiesa May 1. She bounced back to take the G2 Premio Emilio Turati in Milan June 2 before finishing fifth behind subsequent G1 Nassau S. winner Favourable Terms (GB) in the G2 Windsor Forest S. at Royal Ascot last time June 16. Held up in rear by Mirco Demuro as the stable rabbit Rumba Loca (Ire) (Sri Pekan) pestered Nebraska Tornado throughout the early stages, she was taken wide for her challenge approaching the final quarter as the contenders fanned out across the track. Quickening to lead with 100 yards remaining, she was driven out to hold Majestic Desert and Ted Durcan as Nebraska Tornado boxed on to hold third towards the stands' rail. "On her last run she hated the undulations of Ascot and wasn't herself," said trainer Bruno Grizzetti. He added that the winner will remain in France for her next outing. "All being well, she will return for the G1 Prix Jacques le Marois [Aug. 15]," he remarked. Click for the racingpost.co.uk chart. Intendant struck for the minor stable of Andrea Bertram when overpowering Powerscourt in a pulsating finish to this contest. Unraced at two, he made a successful debut at Frankfurt Apr. 25 before finishing more than seven lengths back in third behind Shirocco (Ger) in the Listed Derby-Trial at Mulheim May 15. He was bogged down in the soft going when fourth in the G2 Oppenheim-Union-Rennen at Cologne June 13, and testing ground was again to blame for his subsequent effort when down the field in the G1 Deutsches Derby at Hamburg last time July 4. Stalking the strong early fractions set by Powerscourt and Jamie Spencer here, he was delivered with his challenge by Jiri Palik inside the final quarter and wore down the long-time leader in the final 50 yards to assert for the success. Intendant hails from the new training centre at Warendorf, which was designed by the owner-breeder Ferdinand Leve. Leve is the husband of Janet Ostermann, joint-owner of Gestut Ittlingen, who bred and stand the 1995 G1 Japan Cup hero Lando (Ger). Intendant is the first Group 1-winning three-year-old for that sire, who is also responsible for this year's G1 Singapore Airlines International Cup winner Epalo (Ger) and G1 Dubai Sheema Classic dead-heater Paolini (Ger). Layman faced a field mainly made up of more experienced rivals, but he showed them all the way home under an enterprising ride from Gary Stevens. Making a successful debut over seven furlongs July 10, the flashy chestnut showed surprising speed dropped back in trip here when breaking best of all and grabbing the early advantage. He had his rivals on the stretch passing the quarter pole and failed to relent, pulling further clear under hand riding in the closing stages. "He is a very good two-year-old and he is good horse, period," Stevens said. "You can expect to see an even better three-year-old, as he is bred to run a mile and half. To do what he did today over six shows how good he is."

Yell Works Toward Honorable Miss:

Claiborne Farm's MGSW Yell (A.P. Indy) worked four furlongs in :48 3/5 over the Oklahoma training track at Saratoga yesterday, preparing for a tilt in Friday's GII Honorable Miss S. The four-year-old filly is winless in four 2004 starts, most recently finishing second to La Reason in the nine-furlong GII Molly Pitcher Breeders' Cup H. at Monmouth on Independence Day. It will be the first time Yell has contested the Honorable Miss' six-furlong distance. "She's kind of an in-between horse," revealed trainer Shug McGaughey, whose charge has never run shorter than seven furlongs. "I don't think she really wants to run three-quarters, and I don't think she wants to go a mile and an eighth. She's doing really well right now, so I kind of think sprinting is going to be what her deal is."

Bounding Charm reeled off two straight victories at Gulfstream this spring before coming home a lackluster fifth going a mile on the sod at Belmont May 15. She most recently finished a distant second, following a rough start, at 1 1/16-mile in the slop over that track June 17. The well-supported second choice to return to her winning ways, the dark bay was content to track a pedestrian early pace, surged to the fore turning for home and continued to gather momentum late en route to an easy win.

REGGIE FOR THREE (c, 3, Belong to Me--Wild Lady A. {MSW, $397,505}, by Princely Pleasure) finished fourth in his latest in an off-the-turf allowance going a mile at Belmont July 14 and was given a 6-1 chance to improve this time. An unhurried sixth early, the $140,000 OBSAUG yearling closed with a rush 1 1/2 furlongs out and drew off late to score by 3 1/4-lengths over favored Consecrate (Silver Charm). MSW Punch Appeal Sold:

Two-time stakes winner Punch Appeal (Successful Appeal--Okanagan Dawn, by Two Punch) has been sold privately "for a substantial sum" and is slated to join Steve Asmussen's string in Saratoga, according to a Calder press release. The buyer was not revealed. "She left the barn [Saturday] morning," said trainer Bill White. "She went to trainer David Fawkes' barn for now and is supposed to be shipped to Asmussen from there." An 8 1/2-length winner versus $40,000 maiden claimers in May, the bay has added victories in the June 26 J J's Dream S. and July 23 Chipiski S., both at Calder. White indicated that previous owner Dianne Waldron has retained a small interest. "It's great to race a promising horse like this, but sometimes, when serious dollars are offered, it becomes a business decision you have to make to keep going." Punch Appeal is one of three stakes winners for leading freshman sire Successful Appeal (Valid Appeal), who will stand the 2005 season in Kentucky after beginning his stud career in Florida.

My Vintage Port capped off 2003 with three straight stakes victories en route to a Canadian Juvenile filly championship, but has been unable to find the winner's circle so far this term. Out of the money in her debut on the grass at Keeneland, My Vintage Port finished in the top three in her four latest starts, including a third-place finish in the 8.5-furlong Bison City S. at Fort Erie July 4. Let go at generous odds for her first try at 1 1/4 miles, the bay settled back in third behind early pace setter, favored Eye of the Sphinx, though a pedestrian opening mile and launched her bid turning for home. Determined late, My Vintage Port overtook her game rival late to eke out the narrow victory.

Smockey Glacken, a half to champion sprinter Smoke Glacken, emerged as a promising two-year-old last fall with wins in the Forward Gal S. at Monmouth and Gill Valley Stream S. at Aqueduct. Given a three-month winter break, she ran up against the tough Madcap Escapade in her sophomore debut, the Feb. 14 Old Hat S., and finished a non-threatening third before being shelved again. Showing no signs of rust after the 5 1/2-month layoff, she tracked the speedy Silver Wench through a half in :44 4/5, then wore down that rival to post the victory.

Trying turf for the first time, the $24,000 KEESEP yearling tracked the frontrunners early and moved closer as they raced around the far turn. The dark bay went after the speedy even-money favorite Wild Executive (Bold Executive) in the lane, driving to the front at the eighth pole before opening it up to beat the crowd's choice by 2 1/2 lengths. Straight Line came home an easy four-length winner in his debut against $50,000 maidens July 14 and was given a 7-1 chance to translate that form into stakes company this time. On the engine early, the dark bay prevailed, despite running greenly in the stretch, over favored Toliver. NO LIGHT IN LEGER

Sir Michael Stoute has ruled out a tilt at the G1 St Leger for the Weinstock Family's North Light (Ire) (Danehill). Revealing that the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at Longchamp Oct. 3 would be the colt's main target, the Newmarket conditioner added that immediate plans for the G1 Epsom Derby hero are still undecided. However, they will not include a bid to win the oldest Classic. "What I can say for sure is that North Light will definitely not run in the St Leger," he told the Racing Post. "We want to run North Light in the Arc, but I haven't decided yet on which race we will go in before hand. I'll have to discuss things with Peter Reynolds before we make a decision."

DALGLEISH QUILTS

Jockey Keith Dalgleish has retired from riding, it was revealed yesterday. The Scottish-born 21-year-old, who partnered Yavana's Pace (Ire) to success in Cologne's G1 Pokal two years ago, has reportedly been suffering from weight problems. His agent Richard Hale confirmed the news to PA Sport yesterday. "He is over six feet tall, so it is an uphill struggle and it has presumably got the better of him," Hale said. Trainer Mark Johnston, who saddled the majority of Dalgleish's big-race winners, including Yavana's Pace, Gateman (GB) and Lucky Story, told the Racing Post, "I quite understand his situation, as his weight problem has been getting him down for several months. It must have just become unbearable in the end and it's a real shame. There is absolutely no doubt in my mind that he would have been really top class had he not had such a problem."

Rum Shot went into many notebooks with a smooth conditions score at Yarmouth in October and he confirmed that promise when fourth on his return in the Listed Carnarvon S. at Newbury May 14. He was hampered at the start when only ninth in the Listed Sandy Lane S. at Haydock eight days later, but had received a freshener in the interim and arrived here ready to rebuild his reputation. Showing the necessary early dash to gain a stalking position at this tight track, he was switched wide for his challenge at the eighth pole and reeled in Talbot Avenue in the final 50 yards.

LOVE AND LAUGHTER (IRE) (f, 2, Theatrical {Ire}--Hoh Dear {Ire} {GSW-US, SW & GSP-GB, $148,088}, by Sri Pekan) was coming off a sixth-place finish in a Haydock maiden on her debut July 17. Off at 2-1 this time, she was settled in a stalking fourth early before delivering her challenge wide on the turn into the straight. Grabbing the lead with 100 yards remaining, the crowd's pick was driven out to beat Wizardmicktee (Ire) (Monashee Mountain) by two lengths. The winner was a €60,000 GOFORB yearling. This race is something of an aberration, as it is restricted to unraced juveniles, but has played host to the debuts of future stars the like of Bluemamba, Amonita (GB) and Danseuse d'Etoile (Fr). In Speciale, it may have unearthed another bright prospect from the Criquette Head-Maarek production line, which has been responsible for four winners since 1999. Breaking smartly against the stands' rail, she was taken to the front by Christophe-Patrice Lemaire and needed only to be pushed out to comfortably beat Nipping, who ran on well without being able to get on terms in the closing stages. "She is a very easy filly to ride and she should have a nice future," Head-Maarek commented.

Artiste Royal had taken two of his four starts in conditions events and showed in his defeat of Volisix (Ire) on his last start at Longchamp June 22 that he was ready for this grade. Settled in mid-division by Olivier Peslier early, he was always traveling easily and was full of run at the top of the straight. He quickened to lead passing the eighth pole, and Peslier put his stick down when the race was on in the final 50 yards.

"He's an improving colt and, like his sister Aquarelliste, there should be more to come," commented trainer Elie Lellouche. "I will probably consider the G2 Prix Guillaume d'Ornano back here [Aug. 21]."

Foreign Affairs caused a major upset by beating G1 Singapore Airlines International winner Epalo (Ger) by a nose in this contest. A stalwart of Sir Mark Prescott's Newmarket yard in recent years, he opened his stakes account in the Listed Grand Prix du Sud-Ouest at La Teste de Buch in September. He doubled his tally in the Listed Prix Lord Seymour at Longchamp Mar. 25, but disappointed on his last start when fifth in the G2 Gerling-Preis at this track May 2. Answering every call in typically tenacious fashion under Jimmy Quinn, he won the war of attrition with the 1-3 favorite as the duo pulled nine lengths clear of the third.
