SMARTY PARTY'S OVER

Smarty Jones (Elusive Quality--I'll Get Along, by Smile), who electrified the American public with his march through this spring's Triple Crown, has been retired from racing. Owners Roy and Pat Chapman announced yesterday their colt was found to have bruising of the bottom of the cannon bone in all four fetlock joints, prompting the decision to retire him to Three Chimneys Farm in Midway, Kentucky. The injury would require three months of rest. "He'd start back in training about the time of the Breeders' Cup," explained Roy Chapman. "If everything went right, he might make the Dubai World Cup, but he might not. That's just too many 'ifs' for a horse of this caliber, who has done so much and who has given us so much." The charismatic chestnut, beaten only once in nine starts, entered the Kentucky Derby with six straight wins under his belt, including a 1 1/2-length victory in the GII Arkansas Derby that stamped him as the Derby favorite. Smarty Jones splashed to a 2 3/4-length triumph in the Run for the Roses, becoming the first undefeated Derby winner since Triple Crown winner Seattle Slew and the Smarty legend was off to the races. In the first of two public morning appearances, a throng of adoring fans turned out to watch the Derby winner gallop around his home base of Philadelphia Park as he prepared for the GI Preakness. The colt affirmed their faith in him with a eye-popping 11 1/2-length victory in the second leg of the Triple Crown. In what would be the final start of his career, Smarty Jones was a gallant runner-up to the late-closing Birdstone. Original plans called for the colt to return to the races in the Sept. 6 GII Philadelphia Derby, but he was withdrawn from consideration for that race with a bruised foot. The cannon bone bruising was discovered when Smarty Jones underwent a nuclear scan last week to determine if his feet were ready for him to proceed with training. Cont. p. 2

SIREN OF THE LAKE

Lengthening her stride impressively in mid-stretch, Seducer's Song (Unbridled's Song) outfinished tepid favorite Venturi (GB) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) to take yesterday's feature at Saratoga, the Gill Lake George S. for three-year-old fillies on the grass. The gray was unveiled at Gulfstream in February and broke her maiden in her route debut over that track's main oval in early April. She returned from a two-month freshening to win her turf bow--a Belmont NW1X June 4--then ran well to get place honors in the restricted Fieldy S. July 2. Forced to check entering the clubhouse turn here, she settled into stride up the backstretch, skimmed the hedge to on the far turn and moved powerfully between foes in upper stretch before edging away late. "She made a tremendous move around the far turn, which probably won the race for her," explained winning jockey Jerry Bailey. "A few other horses probably got stuck in traffic or had to go around each other." Click for the brisset.com chart. Smarty Jones Retired (cont. from p. 1)

"We consulted with [trainer] John Servis, our primary veterinarians and veterinarians in Kentucky," Roy Chapman said of the decision to retire his star. "We talked it over with Robert Clay and Three Chimneys supports our decision wholeheartedly. Everyone agrees that the number one consideration is the horse." Orthopedic equine surgeon Dr. Larry Bramlage, who was consulted on the case, said, "He had nine superb performances in eight months. It is this type of accumulated inflammation that causes all athletes to cycle in and out of peak form." Trainer John Servis, a picture of class during the Triple Crown trail, said, "We had a great ride with him and he is a great racehorse. The thing that bothers me the most is that some people didn't get a chance to see how talented this horses really was. I think the Preakness was just the tip of the iceberg, and I was hoping to bring him back and let people see that he was just an exceptional individual. There are some skeptics out there, but, believe me, if he had gotten back to the races, they wouldn't have been skeptics for long, I can promise you that. He could do things so effortlessly that other horses couldn't do." Smarty Jones retires with eight wins in nine starts and earnings of $7,613,155. A stud fee has not been set, but an announcement is expected in the next month.

Smarty's Dam to Be Offered at F-T

Multiple stakes winner I'll Get Along (Smile--Don't Worry Bout Me, by Foolish Pleasure), the dam of Smarty Jones, is set to go under the hammer at Fasig-Tipton's November Mixed Sale, it was announced yesterday by Fasig-Tipton and the dam's owner, Florida-based Cloverleaf Farms II. "We are honored to have the opportunity to sell this wonderful mare," Fasig-Tipton President Walt Robertson said of the 12-year-old bay. "Smarty Jones has been a positive force in the entire sporting world and his dam is a collector's item. In addition, she is in-foal to Elusive Quality and thus carrying a full sibling to Smarty Jones." A winner of 12 of 39 starts with earnings of $277,008, I'll Get Along hit the national stage when her second foal, Smarty Jones, became the first horse since Seattle Slew to win the GI Kentucky Derby and GI Preakness S. undefeated.

Hour of Justice, winner of the Alywow S. last May, ended her sophomore campaign with a runner-up effort in the Ontario Colleen H. over the Woodbine turf last August in her final start for trainer Reade Baker. Away for nearly a year, the bay filly returned with a turf allowance victory July 11, in her first start for trainer Mike Keogh.

Heavily favored in the field of nine, Hour of Justice contested the pace between foes before breaking clear in upper stretch en route to an easy win in stakes-record time. "I didn't expect her to win so easily,"

Keogh admitted. "She was really impressive, though. She sure is a nice filly." Winning jockey Todd Kabel added, "She's very professional about everything. Her last work was terrific [six furlongs July 25 in 1:12 2/5]. It was everything I had to do to hold her from getting away from me. I expected a big race out of her today."

Blue Eleven, winner of the G3 Radio Tampa Hai Nisai S. at two, made only one start during his sophomore year, but was soon forced to the sidelines for 11 months because of a back injury. In 2004, he finished out of the money in his first three starts of the year, but improved to place second behind Tap Dance City in his latest in the G2 Kinko Sho May 29. Favored to record his first victory in almost two years, Blue Eleven settled in fourth early, moved up to take control at the top of the stretch and held off the late charge of 21-1 shot Lord Flag to win by a neck. According to trainer Katsuhiko Sumii, the four-year-old will be aimed at the G2 Mainichi Okan Oct. 10 and the G1 Tenno Sho Oct. 31.

*Second SW (first graded) for freshman sire (by Storm Cat).

Back in early April, when forced to predict which of the numerous highly qualified new stallions would take the first-crop honors in Europe this year, I opted none too imaginatively, for Giant's Causeway. My choice was based largely on two factors. Firstly, this wonderfully tough and versatile performer appeared likely to have far more ammunition than many of his rivals, as his efforts during his single season in Ireland had produced a crop of 149 two-year-olds. Then there was his precocity to take into account. Giant's Causeway had recorded the first of his six Group 1 successes as a juvenile, during an unbeaten campaign which started in July, and precocity could be said to course through his veins. He's by Storm Cat, the third-best juvenile colt of 1985, and he's out of Mariah's Storm, who was rated only seven pounds inferior to the champion juvenile filly of 1993 after she'd taken the GII Arlington-Washington Lassie S.

Moving on to Giant's Causeway's grandparents, all four won at least twice at two and among them were champion Storm Bird, who remained unbeaten in his five juvenile starts, Terlingua, a sensation in her first four juvenile starts, and Rahy, who was second in the G1 Middle Park S. Surely, I reckoned, a background of this nature would hand Giant's Causeway a head start over the likes of Dubai Millennium and Montjeu.

Perhaps I should have taken into account the widespread desire of mare owners to compensate for any shortcomings in their broodmares. For example, many a small stallion will initially be inundated with mares whose physiques are reminiscent of those old Soviet bloc shot-putters (even though these gargantuan mares tend to produce large foals, no matter how big the stallion). Similarly, many mares who needed time and/or distance are sent to stallions who possessed the speed and early maturity they lacked. Taken to extremes, the end result can be a serious dilution of the very qualities which made the stallion stand out on the track.

Giant's Causeway inevitably attracted his fair share of mares by stallions who shone over a mile and a quarter or a mile and a half with Shirley Heights, Unbridled, A.P. Indy, Rainbow Quest, Nijinsky II, Darshaan, Alysheba, Sadler's Wells, Generous, Secreto, Caerleon, Pleasant Colony, Nashwan and Seattle Slew among them.

In the circumstances, Giant's Causeway's career path at least with his Irish crop may take a somewhat different route from those of Storm Cat's more speed-oriented sons, such as Hennessy, Tale of the Cat, Forestry, Storm Boot and Forest Wildcat. He had had only two winners, the Italian Listed winner Aischa and Maids Causeway, by the end of June, but the winners are now beginning to flow, to the extent that he added five more individual winners to his tally during July.

The last 10 days of July were particularly encouraging. Maids Causeway failed by only a head to become stakes winner number two on the 22nd; another filly, Shohrah, made an eye-catching winning debut over six furlongs at Ascot on the 23rd; Shamardal then kept his unbeaten record intact with an impressive all-the-way victory in the G2 Veuve Clicquot Vintage S. on the 28th; and finally Road Rage beat some well-bred fillies over seven furlongs at Newmarket on the 31st.

The victories of Shohrah, Road Rage and Shamardal suggest that Giant's Causeway is indeed capable of injecting some speed into middle-distance mares. Shohrah's dam, the Nashwan mare Taqreem, was suited by a mile and a half, while Road Rage's dam Endorsement was a group winner over two miles. Shamardal's dam Helsinki was very much at home over a mile and a quarter and the colt's second dam, Helen Street, stayed well enough to win the Irish Oaks. Shamardal is by no means the first good two-year-old from this family, as Helen Street was a Group 3 winner at two and Helsinki's brother Street Cry was third in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile. It's an exciting thought, though, that this family tends to improve with age, so Shamardal could easily help move Giant's Causeway higher up the Anglo-Irish first-crop sire table than his current position of second to Namid.

Although it is too early to be looking for traits in the pedigrees of Giant's Causeway's winners, the many breeders who have used him since his move to Ashford will be encouraged by the prominence of the Mr. Prospector line. Aischa's dam is by Zafonic, who was by Mr. Prospector's son Gone West, while Shamardal's broodmare sire Machiavellian and Maids Causeway's broodmare sire Kingmambo are both by Mr. Prospector. Could it be that Giant's Causeway is going to prove equally well suited to Mr. Prospector line mares as his illustrious sire?

BUDDY GIL CO-OWNER HITS RECORD $2.1

MILLION PICK 6 AT DEL MAR Scott Guenther, whose Desperado Stables is a partner in GISW Buddy Gil, was a major shareholder in the lone winning Pick Six ticket at Del Mar Sunday that paid a California record $2,100,117. There was a two-day carryover of $717,343 before an additional $2,490,228 was wagered on Sunday's card, pushing the Pick Six pool to $3,207,571. The winning ticket was purchased on track at Del Mar for $1,176. In an interesting twist, Guenther retains the services of trainer Jeff Mullins, who played no small part in Sunday's winning ticket. With the first four legs all going to non-favorites (Gent, $11; Smokette, $17.60; longshot bomb Short Route, $106.20; and Ya Lajwaad, $15.40), the last two races were taken by Mullins' runners. First, he sent out Choctaw Nation to an upset win over Pleasantly Perfect in the GII San Diego H., then his Golden Souvenir won the card's finale, a maiden special weight, as the second betting choice. Five of six winners paid $8,230.20. The national record Pick Six payoff of $3,068,138.60 was hit on Nov. 6, 1999 when Cat Thief's Classic victory keyed a massive single ticket in the Breeders' Cup Ultra Pick Six.

Azeri to Personal Ensign:

Azeri (Jade Hunter), who returned to the winner's circle with a stakes record-setting performance in Sunday's GI Go for Wand H., will likely make her next start in Saratoga's Aug. 27 GI Personal Ensign H. "She's good," trainer D. Wayne Lukas confirmed yesterday. "We couldn't have been any happier with her. Praise all the way around."

Spa Works:

Gygistar (Prospector's Music), pointing toward Saturday's GI Whitney H., worked four furlongs over Saratoga's main track yesterday in :49 3/5. "I'm happy," trainer Mark Hennig said after the drill. "I've been real pleased with the way he has trained and he ran really well in his first start going two turns." In his two-turn debut, Gygistar was fourth behind Offlee Wild in the June 19 GII Massachusetts H. "I think he's a much happier horse now that we've stretched him out and let him settle," Hennig explained. "Even when he was sprinting, he never liked being down inside of horses. He was inside and behind horses in the MassCap, but stayed in the bridle and finished well." Joe Bravo will be in the irons when Gygistar goes postward in the Whitney.

Also aiming for the Whitney, Midway Road (Jade Hunter), coming off a last-place effort in the June 12 GI Stephen Foster, worked five furlongs yesterday in :59 1/5 and GI Suburban H. runner-up Newfoundland (Storm Cat) went five furlongs in 1:00 3/5.

Hennig also sent out Sunday's GII Jim Dandy hopeful Eddington (Unbridled) to work yesterday at Saratoga. The chestnut, off since finishing fourth in the June 5 GI Belmont S., worked five furlongs in 1:00 2/5. "He is more mature mentally and he has trained very sharp," Hennig said. "He had a great work over the track today. He handled it well and went over it easy."

Fellow Jim Dandy contender Purge (Pulpit), last in the Belmont S., went five furlongs in :59 yesterday.

+ BALLETTO (UAE) (f, 2, Timber Country--Destiny Dance {GSW}, by Nijinsky II) opened her career with a 2 1/4-length score as a 16-1 outsider at Belmont July 18. Adding Lasix for her second start, the Darley homebred remained undefeated at a better-backed 3-1. The chestnut tracked the early pace, went after 3-5 Paragon Queen (Lord Carson) down the lane and ran that one down for a 3/4-length victory. The winner is a half to Dearly (GB) (Rahy), GSW-Ire, $113,809. Lifetime Record: 2-2-0-0, $44,200. O/B-Darley Stable (UAE). T-Thomas Albertrani.

DEPUTY SQUEALIE (f, 3, Deputy Minister--Minidar {GSW, $350,900}, by Alydar) opened her career with a pair of runner-up efforts last fall at Aqueduct and finished in that all-too-familiar position when she returned to the track after a seven-month layoff July 2 at Belmont. The 2-1 favorite battled on the front end early and inched clear late to score by two lengths over 18-1 longshot Tap 'n Tango (Elusive Quality). Lifetime Record: 4-1-3-0, $52,800. O/B-Edward P Evans (KY). T-Mark A Hennig.

SAVE THE PROFIT (c, 3, Hennessy--Hedge Ratio, by Unbridled), a $145,000 KEESEP yearling who made just one unsuccessful start in July of his juvenile year, took his grass and seasonal debut by 5 1/4 lengths at Belmont June 6 and came back to run a solid second going nine furlongs at this level July 4. The chestnut looked to be up against it here as he was forced to check in mid-pack on the far turn, but re-rallied gamely and surged clear late to justify his 4-5 favoritism. Buff Naked (Pine Bluff) was two lengths adrift in second. Lifetime Record: 4-2-1-0, $60,400. O-Green Hills Farm. B-Jacob Yuzari & Angela Yurkzary (NY). T-Todd A Pletcher.

4th-SAR, $41,000, Msw, (S), 2yo, f, 5 1/2f, 1:05 4/5, ft.
 + MEGASCAPE (f, 2, Cape Canaveral--Bigger Half, by Megaturn), an $80,000 OBSMAR juvenile, debuted for solid two-year-old trainer Steve Asmussen as the 4-5 favorite. The half to Richest Half (Rizzi), SW, $135,607, broke on top and dueled for the early lead, but took command as they raced out of the turn and galloped home a five-length victress. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $24,600. O-Robert L Beck. B-Sez Who Thoroughbreds (NY). T-Steven M Asmussen.

6th-SAR, $41,000, Msw, (S), 2yo, f, 5 1/2f, 1:06 3/5, ft.

+ KIKI B (f, 2, Williamstown--Upstate Kate, by Miswaki) showed plenty in the mornings and was a well-supported 5-2 second chance. Quickest into stride, she opened up by daylight up the backstretch and raced into the turn well clear under jockey Edgar Prado. Prado had to get busy as his mount tired through the lane, but the pair held on to win by a length over the closing favorite Tiffany Touch (Deputy Minister). Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $24,600. O-Summer Wind Stable. B-Michael Francessa (NY). T-John O Hertler.

The bay sped through a quarter in :21 4/5 and had opened a four-length lead turning for home, but had to dig deep to stave off the closing My Parade (Parade Ground) by half a length. Black Injured in Philly Spill:

Jockey Tony Black, who had only recently returned to race riding after missing most of the spring, has been sidelined again. Black was thrown from his mount leaving the gate at the start of yesterday's fifth race at Philadelphia Park. The mount, Bartley, who stumbled badly leaving the gate appeared to have stepped on Black's face. "When I first got up, I couldn't see out of my right eye and I thought the horse had clipped me and I was concerned about my vision," Black explained. The jockey suffered a broken nose and facial lacerations, but was relieved to find his vision unimpaired. Black expects to be out of action for two weeks.

The improving Adobe Gold added her second open-lengths stakes victory in as many starts. The runner-up in a pair of allowance events at Calder in May, the chestnut ran second in the Office Queen S. over trip and track June 12, then went one better when romping by 4 3/4 lengths in the Halo America S. under similar conditions July 6. Confidently handled here, she stalked in fifth through a half in :47 1/5, moved to challenge on the far turn and turned it into a procession through the lane.

AMERICAN FURY (c, 4, Souvenir Copy--Meet Me Soon {MSP}, by General Meeting) ran second behind Royal Moro in his last trip to the post for trainer Douglas Driever at this distance June 26 at Hollywood. The 3-1 third choice broke sharply, but was taken back to a stalking position. The dark bay colt reeled in pacesetting favorite Grand Appointment (Unbridled) passing midstretch and won going away by 1 1/4 lengths. The winner was a $41,000 BESMAY two-year-old. QUATRIN (m, 5, Quiet American--Heaven for Bid {GSP}, by Spectacular Bid) found a home on the turf when taking her grass debut as a maiden back in August of 2002, but went missing after the victory for 20 months. In her comeback, she ran sixth sprinting 5 1/2 furlongs over Hollywood's sod Apr. 22, then improved to be a head runner-up at this distance May 20. She set the pace in her latest, an entry-level allowance test at Hollywood June 19, before tiring to third, but got it done here in a big way. The Moss homebred was eager to run while restrained in third by jockey Tyler Baze, then shot to the lead once given her head leaving the backstretch. The even-money chalk was never seriously threatened from there and looked sharp winning by 3 1/2 lengths over Jewel of the Year (Event of the Year). Lifetime Record: 10-2-3-2, $110,760.

YA LAJWAAD (c, 4, Deputy Minister--Fineza {SP}, by Lypheor {GB}), unraced as a juvenile, broke his maiden in his turf bow at Arlington last summer and added an allowance score at that track before being shelved off a fifth in the Oct. 5 Storm Cat S. at Keeneland. The bay, coming off a five-month respite, just missed third sprinting down Santa Anita's hillside course in mid-March and was offered another break after a narrow nose loss going a flat mile at Santa Anita Apr. 7. A 6-1 chance here, he rallied from well out of it, swept past the pacesetting Vallarta (Wavering Monarch) and outfinished favored Patriot's Pass (Quiet American) to win by a neck. Ya Lajwaad, a $600,000 KEESEP yearling, is a full to Keeper Hill, MGISW, $1,661,281; and a half to Golden Gear (Gulch), MGSW, $634,009. Lifetime Record: 8-3-1-0, $93,406.

The Herrick homebred made 'em pay as she launched her bid from a stalking perch and got a head in front of 8-5 chalk Miss C Continental (Flying Continental) in the shadow of the wire. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $29,400.

GOLDEN SOUVENIR (g, 3, Souvenir Copy--Avenue of Gold {MSW, $463,460}, by Avenue of Flags) gave trainer Jeff Mullins the late double after stablemate Choctaw Nation took the GII San Diego H. Golden Souvenir ran an honest second in his June 5 unveiling at Hollywood before disappointing as the 3-5 choice when third sprinting six furlongs July 3. Trying Del Mar for the first time as a 3-1 shot, he was in close attendance to the dueling pacesetters up the backstretch, then sprinted clear when asked to prevail by a widening four-length margin. Pacefactor Whata Soldier (Lost Soldier) kept on for second. Lifetime Record: 3-1-1-1, $43,160.

DR ON THE MOVE Dr Fong (Kris S.--Spring Flight, by Miswaki) will be moved from Side Hill Stud to Highclere Stud in Berkshire early this month, the Racing Post revealed yesterday. The syndicate-owned nine-year-old sire of this year's G1 Prix Saint-Alary winner Ask For The Moon (Fr) will leave the historic stud in Newmarket, which was sold by the Duke of Devonshire to Juddmonte Farms and will be used to house that operation's overflow broodmares. Dr Fong, who was the leading British-based first-season sire in 2003, will join the 22-year-old stallion Efisio (GB) at Highclere, whose manager John Warren told the Post, "Dr Fong has some very nice horses coming along. He's had a pretty consistent level of mares all along."

FALLON INQUIRY CHALLENGED

Kieren Fallon may not have to face the proposed Jockey Club inquiry into allegations by the News of the World paper that he fixed races in exchange for reward, the Racing Post revealed yesterday. In a new development, the champion jockey's legal team have unearthed tape recordings which could lead to a challenge in the High Court to next month's planned inquiry. In the recordings, Fallon is heard to say, "I did not tell you to back the horses so I could get money," before adding, "I've never done it in my life and I never will do it. I like riding horses and I like winning." His solicitor Christopher Stewart-Moore labeled the disrepute charge as "unsustainable," adding, "If we feel the procedures being adopted by the Jockey Club in the conduct of this inquiry breach the rules of natural justice, then we may have to seek guidance by the High Court." John Maxse responded to the Post, "At the end of the road is the disciplinary panel. In the interim, there is scope for their legal teams to consult with ours to try to establish some common ground."

She confirmed her trainer's high opinion by winning the Listed Harvest S. at Ascot later that month and was not disgraced when third in the Listed Saval Beg S. at Leopardstown last time May 26, which was turned into farce when the leader Windermere (Ire) was ignored and stole the race. Settled in mid-division by Niall McCullagh throughout the early stages of this contest, she made smooth progress on the turn into the straight and joined the front rank inside the final quarter. Passed by Tarakala soon after, she rallied gamely to lead with 200 yards remaining before holding that rival's persistent challenge in the drive to the line.

3--Shersha (Ire), 130, m, 5, Priolo--Sheriya, by Green Dancer. €5,460. (€24,000 HRA '02 GOFNOV).

Margins: 1HF, 2HF, 3. Odds: 9-4, 8-13, 5-1.

Also Ran: Peace Offering (Ire).

Caradak has made rapid strides since finishing fourth on his debut in a Leopardstown maiden July 14 and booked his place in this line-up when powering away with a Galway maiden on Tuesday. Stalking the early pace set by One More Round and then Peace Offering, he lengthened alongside the former approaching the eighth pole and needed only hand riding to quickly assert and settle the result. "He has progressed very well in the last few weeks, but needed a few races to tune him in," trainer John Oxx told Irish Racing Online. "He is a good horse and we'll see now whether or not he can improve further from this."

MIDNIGHT GRACE (IRE) (f, 2, Night Shift--Adamparis {GB}, by Robellino), successful at Cork and Down Royal in June, finished down the field in the Listed Silver Flash S. at Leopardstown last time July 14.

Stalking the early pace, the 7-2 second choice quickened to reel in the long-time leader Dancing Duchess (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) in the final strides and score by a head. Lifetime Record: 4-3-0-0, €32,123.

2nd Dam: As You Desire Me {Ire}, by Kalamoun {GB}

3rd Dam: Royal Saint {GB}, by Saint Crespian III {GB}

Luas Line, a €150,000 GOFORB yearling purchase, performed with credit when seventh on her debut in a hot renewal of the Listed Silver Flash S. at Leopardstown July 14 and that form was boosted by the success of Midnight Grace (Ire) at Naas earlier yesterday afternoon. Showing early dash to lead from her high draw, the 2-5 Luas Line was never asked to extend out of a canter to easily beat Rare Beauty (Ire) (Xaar {GB}) by two lengths. "She would have done more work trotting around at home than coming here today," conditioner David Wachman told Irish Racing Online. "She may run in the G2 Debutante S. at The Curragh on Sunday and Jamie [Spencer] holds her in very high regard." Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, €13,020. O-E Stockwell; B-Rockhart Trading; T-David Wachman.

Naas, 4.25, Mdn, €19,280, 2yo, 7fT, 1:34.00, gd/fm. PERFECT MEMORY (IRE) (f, 2, Nashwan--Ghanaj {GB}, by Caerleon), third in a decent Tipperary maiden last time July 11, stalked Euphrates (Ire) (Danehill) throughout the early stages before taking command with 2 ½ furlongs remaining. Asserting in the closing stages, the €65,000 GOFORB yearling had 1 ½ lengths to spare over that rival at the line. Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-1, €18,600.

SWALLOW ON COURSE FOR CHAMPION

Dermot Weld yesterday confirmed that Grey Swallow (Ire) (Daylami {Ire}) will run in the G1 Irish Champion S. at Leopardstown Sept. 11 as he prepares for the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at Longchamp Oct. 3. The grey, who runs in the colors of Rochelle Quinn, has been off the track since beating the Epsom Derby winner North Light (Ire) by a half length in the G1 Irish Derby at The Curragh June 27. According to Weld yesterday, "It's a very tough prep race and maybe even tougher than the Arc." Weld attributed his last success to his subsequent improvement from his placed efforts in the English and Irish 2000 Guineas in the spring. "I'm sure he was just beneath the top of his form in the spring and the Guineas come very early in the year," he said. "He ran two excellent races in them, but I now believe he has matured into the horse I always thought he would be. In the Irish Derby, he was stronger and physically better and he has continued to progress."
