BIG TEN

Roll a pair of fives on the green felt in Atlantic City and receive seven dollars back for each one you've invested. Further up the Jersey Shore this afternoon, don't expect to see those kind of odds on Rock Hard Ten (Kris S.), as he attempts to earn his first Grade I victory in the $1-million Haskell Invitational H. at Monmouth Park. The strapping bay colt, who earned a reputation during the Triple Crown as something of a class clown, has been the consummate professional in his morning gallops and at the gate in Oceanport and looms the one to beat in the nine-furlong event. He breaks from the middle of the gate beneath jockey Corey Nakatani, who rode the colt to victory in the GII Swaps BC S. July 10. "That's a good spot for him," trainer Jason Orman said, referring to post position five. "Corey can kind of figure out what the pace is going to be and put him where he needs to be from there." Haskell cont. p2

SEVEN DANDY SOPHS

Will Medallist (Touch Gold) relax enough to see out the distance in today's GII Jim Dandy S. at Saratoga?

Medallist winning the Dwyer
A Coglianesse

That is one of several questions in this puzzler, which has attracted an evenly matched field of seven sophomore colts. The dark bay colt is by a winner of the Belmont S. and out of a mare twice placed in graded-stakes competition going long and third in 1998 GI Acorn S. over Belmont's one-turn mile. On pedigree, today's trip is no obstacle. But his freewheeling running style has connections a touch concerned as he tries to negotiate two turns for the first time. Jim Dandy cont. p9

MAY-DAY IN AUGUST

Named for obvious reasons, Roses In May (Devil His Due) didn't come along quickly enough to contest last year's Triple Crown, but that was then and this is now.

Roses In May (inside) outnods
Perfect Drift Horsephotos

And the dark bay is very much the 'now' horse after a stirring victory over a stellar field in yesterday's GI Whitney H. at Saratoga. Twice a winner in his sophomore season, including a blowout 10 1/2-length allowance victory over this surface last August, the colt was sixth in the GIII Jerome H. in his final start of the year in September, but has begun to live up to his high expectations this term, with three wins from as many starts coming into this test. Whitney cont. p3

Something to Prove...

The 9-5 favorite on the morning line is the talented Lion Heart (Tale of the Cat), who took Monmouth's GIII Long Branch Breeders' Cup S. by a head July 17, his first victory of the year. The lone Grade I winner in the field, the chestnut colt has had something of a frustrating season thus far, with runner-up efforts in the GII San Rafael S., the GI Toyota Blue Grass S. and the Derby prior to his fourth in the GI Preakness S. He didn't have the easiest of journeys in the Long Branch, racing with a demanding pace three wide before outdueling longshot

Busy Weekend for the Zito Barn...

The Nick Zito barn is well represented in three-year-old stakes this afternoon and the veteran horseman sends Royal Assault (Kris S.) and Pies Prospect (Crafty Prospector) for this event. The former, third to stablemate Birdstone in the GI Belmont S. June 5, returned to fill the same spot in the Long Branch three weeks back. He has the services of jockey Pat Day, winner of the 1999 Haskell aboard Menifee. Pies Prospect has rounded into form over the last six weeks, taking the Floor Show S. at Delaware June 22 prior to a second-place effort behind Pollard's Vision (Carson City) in the July 18 GIII Leonard Richards S. at that same oval. The field is completed by Tap Day (Pleasant Tap), a 5 1/2-length Monmouth allowance winner July 2 and Wimplestiltskin (Petionville), a good third to the ill-fated Boomzeeboom in the GIII Affirmed H. at Hollywood Park June 19. Swingforthefences (Boston Harbor) is expected to start in today's Jim Dandy S.

A Budding Superstar at Four...

Off for over seven months following his effort in the Jerome, Roses In May hinted at his true ability in a second-level Keeneland allowance Apr. 17, defeating a good horse in Best Minister by 12 lengths. He tacked on a five-length success in a May 21 optional claimer at Churchill Downs and completed step one of his ascent to prominence with a front-running defeat of Perfect Drift (Dynaformer) in the GIII Prairie Meadows Cornhusker Breeders' Cup H. in Iowa July 3.

Deja Vu All Over Again...

The stakes were higher and the competition deeper this time around, which resulted in post-time odds of 7-1 on Roses In May. Yessirgeneralsir (Patton) was quarter-horsed away from the gate and set suicidal fractions of :45.25 for the half and 1:08.92 for six furlongs, shadowed all the while by Roses In May and a three-wide Peace Rules (Jules). Asked to go after the pacesetter at the quarter pole by jockey Edgar Prado, Roses In May took control in upper stretch, but was quickly joined by an onrushing Perfect Drift. The latter got half a head in front inside the final 100 yards, but Roses In May showed the heart of a champion and dug in tenaciously for a richly deserved victory.

The Aftermath...

"It went just as I hoped it would play out," said trainer Dale Romans, winning the first Grade I of his career. "The fractions were fast, but my main concern was Peace Rules and he was right there with us. So, if [the pace] was going to affect us, it was going to affect him. I knew Perfect Drift would come running and when we got head-to-head, it was just a matter of who would outgame the other." For Peace Rules, it was a rare off day. "They were going too fast for me," said his jockey Jerry Bailey. "He just didn't throw his best dart today."

The bay made it three straight with a 3 1/4-length win over Quick Action (Carson City) in the Apr. 4 GIII Lafayette S. at Keeneland, but had gone winless since, finishing third in the GIII Derby Trial Apr. 24, a head second in the Hirsch Jacobs S. on the Preakness undercard May 15 and most recently third to Weigelia and Classy Migration (Migrating Moon) in the GIII Carry Back S. at Calder July 10. Settled at the rear after breaking a bit slowly, Bwana Charlie began to roll at the quarter pole, came out in upper stretch and finished full of run for the win. "The race set up extremely well for him," said winning trainer Steve Asmussen. "It takes a great horse to win a stakes here. And this one solidifies him as one of the top three-year-old sprinters in the country." The winner goes next in the seven-furlong GI King's Bishop S. Aug. 28. Lune d'Or finished third behind Diamond Tango (Fr) and subsequent G1 Prix de Diane runner-up Millionaia (Ire) in a conditions event at Maisons-Laffitte Apr. 20 before opening her account in a weaker race at Chantilly June 13. Despite taking the G2 Prix de Malleret at Saint-Cloud last time July 4, she looked up against it with a four-pound penalty against her elders in this contest. Settled in mid-division by a confident Thierry Jarnet throughout the early stages, she made smooth progress on the turn, but was temporarily left trailing by Hidden Hope and Davy Bonilla at the top of the straight. Responding to her rider's urgings, she reeled that rival in the final strides to win a shade cosily. "This confirmed all the quality she showed in the Malleret," conditioner Richard Gibson commented.

"This was a better performance with the penalty, as she got a proper pace here, unlike last time. She's a fresh filly and, all being well, she will head to the G1 Prix Vermeille [at Longchamp Sept. 12] next."

Sir Shackleton showed a lot of promise earlier this year, breaking his maiden at Gulfstream Park in March and adding a Keeneland allowance victory Apr. 9 before making it three in a row in the GIII Derby Trial at Churchill Downs Apr. 24. That performance earned the chestnut a ticket to the second leg of the Triple Crown, but, after chasing the pace, he faded to finish sixth in the May 15 G1 Preakness as a 37-1 outsider. Trainer Nick Zito gave the colt a break after that experience, bringing him back for July 11 GII Dwyer S., where he was coupled with The Cliff's Edge as the 3-5 chalk. The odds-on entry had to settle for minor placings in that event, however, as Medallist sped to a 3 1/4-length score, with The Cliff's Edge second and Sir Shackleton far from disgraced in third. The slight choice against lesser rivals here, the Tracy Farmer homebred was restrained off the moderate pace set by Britt's Jules, started to close ground as they raced around the far turn and was kept to the task as the pacesetter shortened stride, driving to the front inside the final sixteenth and drawing clear. Ecclesiastic (Pulpit) was eased late. Click for the brisnet.com chart.

Angela's Love capped a memorable day for trainer Dale Romans, winning the Gardenia following a rail-skimming trip. The winner of a $75,000 optional claimer at Gulfstream Feb. 22, the Maryland-bred then added a victory in the Fairway Fun S. at Turfway Mar. 27. Stepped up to graded competition in her next two, she disappointed when sixth in the GIII Pimlico Breeders' Cup Distaff H. May 14 and fourth in the GII Fleur de Lis H. at Churchill last out June 12. Making her first start at Ellis here, she stalked the early pace of Wildwood Royal (Royal Academy), took over in the stretch and cruised home to a decisive victory. Last year's winner Bare Necessities sat a perfect trip just off the leaders, was carried out into the stretch by the tiring pacesetter and could do no better than third in her title defense. Also Ran: Crypto's Wild, Wise Investor, Timeintown, Starleena, Excusabull.

Inspiring ran her record to a perfect two-for-two and in doing so became the first stakes winner for her promising freshman sire (by A.P. Indy). The highest-priced filly of her generation for Golden Missile, the attractive chestnut was knocked down for $450,000 at last year's Keeneland September sale. Put into serious training at the beginning of June, the March 15 foal fired four consecutive bullets leading up to her July 5 debut going five-eighths at Hollywood Park. Settled nicely off the early pace, she responded when asked and drew off to a four-length victory as the 3-10 chalk, earning a Beyer Speed Figure of 91 for the effort. Odds-on to remain undefeated, Inspiring was quickest into stride, but was allowed no easy lead, as GIII Landaluce S. winner Souvenir Gift came up to apply pressure from the inside. Going a touch better than that one as the field rounded into the stretch, she continued to find more on the front end and stayed on gamely for the win. Click for the brisnet.com chart.

Mister Monet finished third behind One Cool Cat on his debut in a York maiden last June before opening his account in style at Sandown the following month. Injury kept him off the track for 12 months, but the Mark Johnston trainee performed creditably when runner-up in a decent Newmarket handicap July 8. He got back to winning ways in a conditions event at Hamilton a week later before following up at Ascot last time July 24. Always traveling easily in second under Joe Fanning throughout the early stages of this contest, he took command with three furlongs remaining and, despite running greenly in the closing stages, was comfortably on top of Muqbil at the finish. "Mark has always thought a huge amount of this horse," the trainer's wife Dierdre said of the winner, who has the G1 Champion S. at Newmarket Oct. 16 as his long-term target. Margins: 1 1/4, HF, NK. Odds: 5-1, 10-1, 10-1.

Also Ran: Arbella (GB), Indiannie Star (GB), Windscreamer (GB), Royal Alchemist (GB), Valentin (Ire), Strawberry Dale (Ire), Extreme Beauty, Piddies Pride (Ire).

Maids Causeway was beaten a neck by the impressive subsequent Listed Chesham S. scorer Whazzat (GB) in a Newbury maiden on her debut June 9 before taking a Kempton maiden a fortnight later. She was beaten a head when runner-up to the smart Queen of Poland (GB), pulling clear of the third, in the Listed Star S. at Sandown last time July 22. Keen in the early stages as she stalked the pace under Steve Drowne, she quickened to lead with 300 yards remaining and required only hand riding up the rising ground to comfortably hold Slip Dance. "She was a bit fresh, but she quickened up well and did it nicely," Drowne commented. "She cantered all the way and could go around again--she certainly wasn't stopping. She's probably like Giant's Causeway in that she's not happy until she's eyeballing something."

Susan Magnier's Damson has already slammed the best of her own sex so far and she will be a warm order to show the colts what's what in today's feature at The Curragh. There was a suggestion that she was smart when taking a Cork maiden on her debut Apr. 12 and Listed Swordlestown Stud Sprint S. at Naas June 7, but her electrifying three-length defeat of subsequent G3 Princess Margaret S. winner Soar (GB) in the G2 Queen Mary S. at Royal Ascot set her apart last time June 16. "We are very happy with her," trainer David Wachman told PA Sport. "We gave her a break after Ascot and she seems to be in good order. It is a big challenge [to beat the colts]." Aidan O'Brien set a record 12 months ago when One Cool Cat became his sixth consecutive winner of this race and he saddles three against the filly this time. The trio is headed by Russian Blue, who followed a workmanlike third success over this course in the Listed Marble Hill S. with a second to Democratic Deficit (Ire) in the G2 Railway S. back last time June 27. He may be upstaged by stable companion Oratorio, who put a disappointing seventh placing in the G2 Coventry S. at Royal Ascot June 15 behind him when beating Cougar Cat in the G3 Anglesey S. at this track last time July 18.

Holiday makers and serious racing connoisseurs will be treated to a feast of speed as the majority of the best sprinters in training are assembled for this intriguing affair. With only four in the line-up not having won a group race, the quality is spread across the track and that should benefit Frizzante, who showed when beating Ashdown Express in the G1 July Cup at Newmarket last time July 8 that she excels when she has class horses to aim at. Overnight rain helped on that occasion, as the bay struggled on a fast surface when third in the G2 King's Stand S. at Royal Ascot previously June 15. Like that filly, Somnus is a Group 1 winner looking for ease in the ground to revive old fortunes. He should reverse placings with Royal Millennium on better weight terms than when second in the G3 Chipchase S. at Newcastle June 26. Somnus comes off a troubled trip in the July Cup last time, where he could do no better than fifth. Of the sophomores, Whipper has strong claims, having won the G1 Prix Morny at this track last August. He confirmed his position as France's top sprinting juvenile when winning the G2 Criterium de Maisons-Laffitte in October and returned with a scintillating display in the soft when taking the Listed Prix Djebel back at that track Apr. 6. He may not have seen out the mile when fifth in the G1 2000 Guineas at Newmarket May 1 and warrants respect.

Second to Smarty Jones in the Mar. 20 Rebel S. and fifth to the dual Classic winner in the GII Arkansas Derby Apr. 10, Purge turned in the best performance of his career, winning the GII Peter Pan S. by 6 3/4-lengths over subsequent Iowa Derby hero Swingforthefences. The bay fell apart in the paddock prior to the Belmont S. and finished last of nine, but a much better effort is in the offing today. "The horse has done well and we've pointed to this race since the Belmont," commented trainer Todd Pletcher. "We have taken the appropriate steps [coming off a big defeat in the Belmont] and we are optimistic." The Cliff's Edge, winner of the GI Toyota Blue Grass S. in April, was a decent fifth in the Kentucky Derby, but missed the rest of the Triple Crown. Perhaps a touch short for his return in the July 10 GII Dwyer S., he rallied stoutly on the turn, but could get no closer than to within 3 3/4 lengths of Medallist.

Three-year-old House of Fortune takes on her elders for the first time. The dark bay filly posted a 17-length score in the Mar. 6 California Oaks at Golden Gate Fields and added a 1 3/4-length victory in the Apr. 9 GII Fantasy S. at Oaklawn Park, but couldn't handle the off going in the Apr. 30 GI Kentucky Oaks and finished eighth. The Cal-bred rebounded from that effort to go gate to wire in the June 12 GII Hollywood Breeders' Cup Oaks. She takes on Star Parade, who was second to Victory Encounter in the May 9 GI Vanity H., but turned the tables to take the July 11 Milady Breeders' Cup H., with Victory Encounter fourth. "She really likes it down here at Del Mar," trainer Darrell Vienna said. "She's been training very well." The five-year-old raced where the surf meets the turf twice last season, winning an optional claimer and finishing a troubled second in a second event at that level. Victory Encounter is a perfect two-for-two at Del Mar, with wins in an optional claiming contest and the Torrey Pines S. at the 2003 meet. Elloluv makes her second start of the season. A Grade I winner at three, the four-year-old was second to Adoration in the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff, but went to the shelf after running sixth as the 6-5 chalk in the Dec. 27 GI La Brea S. She made her return in the July 10 GII A Glean H. at Hollywood Park and tired late to be sixth, but should improve in her second start off the layoff. She has two wins and two seconds from five tries at the Hirsch distance.

This race plays host to the return of the 2002 G1 Melbourne Cup hero Media Puzzle, but a subsequent 642-day absence and a trip short of his best should see him play a bit part. Tropical Lady has emerged as one of the top older fillies in training after winning two handicaps at this track in May and June. Her defeat of subsequent G1 Prix d'Astarte runner-up Majestic Desert (GB) in the G3 Brownstown S. at Leopardstown July 3 was followed by a fluent score in the Listed Kilboy Estate S. back here last time July 18 and she should have no problems with this step up in trip.

All carry 123 pounds.

Aidan O'Brien usually reserves his best juvenile fillies for this contest, which is upgraded in status for the second time since 2000. In that period, the Ballydoyle conditioner has saddled subsequent group one heroines Sequoyah (Ire), Imagine (Ire), Quarter Moon (Ire), Yesterday (Ire) and Necklace (GB), and on recent evidence Silk and Scarlet could be the next big thing. After going down to only Chelsea Rose in a seven-furlong maiden at Leopardstown June 9, she returned to that venue to win a hot renewal of the Listed Silken Glider S. over six furlongs last time July 14. She had Alexander Icequeen, Desert Tigress, National Swagger and Luas Line behind on that occasion and may have made up the two-lengths deficit on Chelsea Rose in the interim.

Those victories seemed a distant memory as he trailed in rear in the G1 2000 Guineas at Newmarket May 1 and when a disappointing fifth in the G3 International S. at this track last time July 17. Osterhase proved he is Ireland's fastest five-furlong campaigner when breaking the track record in the Listed Richard H Fraught Memorial S. at this track June 27 and has another crack at this extra furlong, having defied top weight in a handicap here last time July 17.

The party is the foundation's principle annual fundraiser and offers a live auction of stallion season options and "unique experiences," or access to items and events not otherwise for sale. A stallion season to Congaree will also be offered. "Experiences" on the auction block include a commission from leading contemporary equine artist Leslie Priggen, a trip to the Billboard Music Awards in Las Vegas, personalized mating advice for your mares from TDN columnists, an afternoon at the taping of Fox NFL Sunday, tickets to the premieres and premiere parties of four upcoming Hollywood films, tickets and garage passes to NASCAR's Pocono 500, the right to appear in a scene in the HBO hit show Deadwood, five days of fly fishing and instruction in Vermont and Key West, a night in New York City that includes a $2,500 shopping spree at Theory and a movie premiere, the right to throw out the first pitch at a Baltimore Orioles game at Camden Yards, and a trip to the 2005 Dubai World Cup. Founded in 1982, the TRF is the country's oldest and largest equine rescue organization, caring for a permanent population of almost 700 horses on 37 farms in 14 states. Another approximately 125 horses per year are rehabilitated and retrained for second careers as pleasure horses, pets or therapeutic riding partners. The TRF is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit tax-exempt organization entirely dependent on public contributions. Tickets to the gala are sold out.

FRIENDLY ISLAND (c, 3, Crafty Friend--Island Queen, by Ogygian) couldn't have been more impressive in victory breaking his maiden by 17 lengths versus state bred at Belmont June 6, but came back with a seventh-place finish in his next start as the even-money favorite in the Mike Lee S. June 26. Backed as the 4-5 chalk to get back on track, the $85,000 OBSMAR two-year-old duked it out with Oz (Stormin Fever) for the early lead and drew away from that rival to win by 4 1/4 lengths. Lifetime Record: 3-2-0-0, $50,856. O-Anstu Stables Inc. B-Kildare Stud & Adrian Regan (NY). T-Todd A Pletcher.

+ FUNK (c, 2, Unbridled's Song--Verbal Volley {MSW, $221,231}, by Oh Say), a $400,000 FTSAUG yearling purchase, was off at 7-2 to earn his diploma at first asking. The bay colt contested the early pace, turned back Thunder Ridge (Storm Cat) in the stretch and drew clear to a 5 3/4-length victory over Lion Cat (Tale of the Cat). Funk is a half brother to Spavinaw (Allen's Prospect), SW, $162,423; and Volley Ball (A.P. Jet), SW, $111,103. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $27,000. CRIMSON STAG (c, 2, Glitterman--Alabama Anne {SP}, by D'Accord) finished an even fourth in his career opener at Churchill Downs June 23. Overlooked at 13-1 in his second start, the $80,000 TEXMAR juvenile rated just off the pace while racing wide early, launched a bid on the far turn that carried him to the front at midstretch and pulled away late to take it by three lengths. The team of Kruncher (Siphon {Brz}) and Silver Train (Old Trieste) hit the wire in a dead-heat for second. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $28,800. O-West Point Stable. B-Sharon Pate (LA). T-D Stewart.

Yearly Report Preps for Alabama:

Yearly Report (General Meeting) drilled six furlongs in 1:12 yesterday morning over the Saratoga main track in as she prepares for her upcoming start in the GI Alabama S. Aug. 21. "She went really well out there this morning," said trainer John Terranova, overseeing the Bob Baffert string at the Spa. "Right now, we are just keeping her fitness level maintained while stretching her out." A homebred for Golden Eagle Farm, Yearly Report will take a four-race winning streak into the Alabama, including graded scores in the GII Black-Eyed Susan S. May 14 and the GII Delaware Oaks July 17.

My Trusty Cat to Dance in Ballerina:

My Trusty Cat (Tale of the Cat), who gave trainer David Vance his first-ever victory at Saratoga in Friday's six-furlong GII Honorable Miss H., will step up in class for the GI Ballerina H. over seven panels Aug. 29. "She's got a pretty good punch going six furlongs to seven-eighths," Vance said. "The main thing is how tough the competition is going to be when we come back for the Ballerina. Ema Bovary (Chi) and Bear Fan are pretty tough if they run."

Birdstone Breezes for Travers:

Marylou Whitney's GI Belmont S. winner Birdstone (Grindstone) came out of his six-furlong breeze Friday in good order and remains on track for the GI Travers S. Aug. 28. "He went very, very well," trainer Nick Zito said of the move, accomplished in 1:16 4/5 over the Oklahoma training track. "He worked great and he looks great." It was Birdstone's third official work since winning the Belmont, but Zito is confident that he will lead over a fit horse for the Midsummer Derby. "He gets himself in the game with no problem," the conditioner explains. "He's got a lot of lung power and a lot of guts."

One for Rose showed the boys what it was all about with this compelling five-length trouncing. Last year's champion older mare in Canada returned from a seven-month vacation to run a lackluster fourth in the slop against males in the GIII Eclipse H. May 24, but returned to her winning ways against the girls in the Ontario Matron H. June 20. Off as the heavy 4-5 pick in her latest, the July 18 Belle Mahone S., she couldn't keep up late and finished second by 3 1/2 lengths. Back against males this time, she stalked the pacesetting Norfolk Night (Tejabo) through modest fractions before taking over after six furlongs and drawing well clear on the turn. The morning-line favorite, MGSW Mobil (Langfuhr), scratched.

Im a Dixie Girl was on the engine early in her career opener at Churchill May 23, but tired to finish fourth before being placed fifth for causing interference at the eighth pole. She opened her win account when dropped in versus $80,000 maiden claimers in Louisville June 18, then ran a solid fourth as a 51-1 bomb to eventual GII Schuylerville S. winner Classic Elegance in the GIII Debutante S. going 5 1/2 panels at Churchill July 4. A well-respected chalk off those credentials, the Bruce Levine trainee battled with Elke up front early, was headed by that foe on the turn while skimming the rail, regained the lead at the quarter pole and turned it into a procession from there. "I knew I had horse left, I just wasn't sure how much," admitted rider Stewart Elliot. "When I called on her, she just hit another gear." Im a Dixie Girl keyed the exacta for freshman Dixie Union.

A 13-1 outsider in that event, the bay just missed, finishing 3/4 of a length behind Mystery Giver in second. The effort earned him the role of 7-2 favorite in the GII Dixie S. at Pimlico May 15, but the Oak Crest homebred never got untracked that day, finishing 10th. The second choice facing a softer field this time, he bided his time in fifth early, drove between horses when ready to make his move at the head of the stretch and took over late before holding off the charge of longshot False Promises at the wire.

Pacific Classic Taking Shape:

While Pleasantly Perfect (Pleasant Colony) remains on schedule for the GI Pacific Classic Aug. 22, the $1-million race lost a pair of runners yesterday. Even The Score (Unbridled's Song), winner of the GII Mervyn LeRoy H. in May, is suffering from persistent foot problems and will not make the 1 1/4-event, according to trainer Vladimir Cerin. "We're out. We're not running," he confirmed. Olmodavor (A.P. Indy) is also very unlikely to start in the Classic. The five-year-old was most recently second in the GII Washington Park H. at Arlington July 31, but has not bounced back to the satisfaction of trainer Richard Mandella. "I doubt if he'll run," he said. "He looks very tired since coming back from Chicago."

The 2-1 second pick, a half to Millie's Quest (Quest for Fame {GB}), GSW & GISP, $171,545, was last of five up the backstretch, but a methodical bid through the lane got her up in time to deny The Toast of Troy (Unusual Heat) by a neck. The winner represented a major pinhooking success. A $12,500 OBSJAN yearling and sold later that year for $30,000 at OBSAUG, he was bought by this Kentucky Derby-winning owner for $825,000 at this year's FTFFEB sale from the consignment of Jessie and Stacy Longoria. Claimed for $32,000 after breaking his maiden at Hollywood in December, Areyoutalkintome has been on the board in each of eight starts while carrying his new colors. The dark bay took a starter allowance test by 10 lengths Feb. 8 and added a victory vs. state-bred optional claimers two outings later Apr. 9. Second against entry-level allowance foes in his next two, he was coming off a third-place finish at Hollywood July 10. The second choice facing state-bred stakes company, he trailed his four rivals through an opening half in:44.25, but closed ground from the inside on the far turn, angled wide for the drive and took over at the sixteenth pole before drawing clear.

BLUE AFLEET (c, 4, Northern Afleet--Distinctively Blue, by Distinctive) had tried the turf once before, finishing second in a state-bred optional claimer Jan. 30, but had not been out since taking a similar event on the Santa Anita main track Feb. 16. The co-favorite at 5-2 despite facing open company off the layoff, the dark bay was rated off a fast pace and had to wait for running room in the stretch, but finished well once clear to post a 1/2-length tally over the other choice of the crowd, the speedy Blairs Roarin Star (Roar). REST OF THE WORLD MAKE ALL

South African jockey Weichong Marwing led home a resounding success for the Rest of the World at yesterday's Shergar Cup at Ascot. His all-the-way success in the last race on Paradise Isle (GB) (Bahamian Bounty {GB}) was symbolic of the afternoon as his team led from the outset to clinch a 138-102 point success. That score also ensured that the South African captured the Silver Saddle as leading rider with 37 points, six ahead of the team captain Frankie Dettori. "It is an honor to represent a team like this," Marwing commented. "To win the Silver Saddle is a bonus and I didn't expect that." Team selector Michael Roberts paid tribute to that rider, describing him as a "brilliant jockey." He added, "I had no doubts that we would be beaten, but the boys rode well--I'm very proud of them."

Reserved in rear by Frankie Dettori off the generous early tempo, he was delivered widest of all with her challenge at the top of the straight and quickened to cut down Beaver Patrol (Ire) (Tagula {Ire}) in the final strides, scoring by a head. "Seven furlongs is her trip at the moment and next year she'll need a mile," commented trainer Ian Wood. "That confirms the belief we had in the filly and she will take her place in the line-up for the G3 Prestige S. [at Goodwood Aug. 29]." Lifetime Record: 7-3-1-1, £37,209. Made the 6-1 favorite for this furlong-extra contest, Desert Lord was reserved off the pace in midfield early, was ridden to close on the front rank approaching the final furlong and produced a power-packed finish up the final climb to deny Royal Storm (Ire) (Royal Applause {GB}) by a short head on the line.
