LION HEART REIGNS IN HASKELL

Seven years ago, a lightly raced colt by the name of Tale of the Cat finished a respectable fourth in the GI Haskell Invitational. Yesterday his son, Lion Heart, came back to avenge his sire's loss with a one-length tally in this year's renewal of the Monmouth centerpiece. Despite a win over the track last time out in the GIII Long Branch Breeders' Cup H. July 17, Lion Heart was made the second choice in the betting this time around, with GII Swaps S. winner Hard Rock Ten (Kris S.) getting backed down to 4-5 favoritism. In command from the start, Lion Heart broke alertly and was allowed to carve out a sensible opening quarter in :23 and an equally modest half mile :46.81, giving trainer Patrick Biancone reason to celebrate early. "After a quarter in :23, I knew the others were done," said Biancone, explaining his reaction to the soft opening fractions. "Three months ago, it would have been 22 and change, but he is a more sensible horse now." In front by two lengths with a furlong left to travel, Lion Heart was put to task by Joe Bravo and the colt responded with a game victory over My Snookie's Boy (Crafty Friend), who finished second behind Lion Heart in the Long Branch. "Patrick told me I'd have more horse today than I did in [the Long Branch] and he was right," said Bravo. "He broke so sharp, right out of the gate. I just didn't want to get in his way. Every furlong he came to, he just got stronger and stronger. When I called upon him, he had plenty left." Rock Hard Ten, who finished sixth as the 4-5 choice, appeared to run out of gas after pressing the early pace. "We were just asking too much of him," said trainer Jason Orman. We should've given him some time off. We've shipped him across the country four times now, and that's too much." Trainer Rick Violette Jr. also was left at a loss following Swingforthefences (Boston Harbor)'s dull fifth-place finish. "He was travelling well, but when [jockey Shaun Bridgmohan] asked him, he didn't have anything. I really don't know what happened. We'll go home and try and figure it out."

PURGE ROCKETS TO JIM DANDY VICTORY

Following an inexplicably poor showing in his latest start in the GI Belmont S. June 5, Purge (Pulpit) returned to his winning ways with an impressive 4 1/2-length score in Sunday's GII Jim Dandy S. at Saratoga Race Course. Close-up to pacesetter Medallist (Touch Gold), who was coming into this race fresh off a stake record-setting performance in the GII Dwyer S. July 11, Purge forced the issue early, but allowed that rival to steal away from him after three quarters of a mile in 1:09.64. Closing quickly turning for home, Purge passed Medallist with consummate ease, drew clear of his foe in the final furlong and remained in front late to post a facile win. "It set up like we thought it would," said trainer Todd Pletcher. "The fractions were solid, I'd say the horses that came from off the pace wouldn't have much excuse." (cont. p2)

SOMNUS TAKES MAURICE DE GHEEST

Jockey Gary Stevens found that elusive first domestic Group 1 winner in the most unexpected place as

Somnus (#5) www.france-galop.com

Somnus (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) denied Whipper (Miesque's Son) in a thrilling finish to yesterday's highly competitive Prix Maurice de Gheest at Deauville.

DAMSON ADDS PHOENIX WIN

A filly had failed to win the G1 Phoenix S. since Eva Luna (Ire) accomplished the feat 10 years ago, but Damson (Entrepreneur) made short work of her male counterparts yesterday and earned one for the fairer sex with a professional score in The Curragh's marquee event. With the win, Damson halted the Ballydoyle juggernaut, ending Aidan O'Brien's run of six straight successes in this contest and provided rookie trainer David Wachman with the finest hour of his brief career. Lion Heart aspired to greatness even before he set foot on the track. Purchased for $1.4 million at last year's Fasig-Tipton February Sale for juveniles in training, Lion Heart showed that he was worth every penny with three straight wins at two, including an easy score in the GI Hollywood Futurity. A model of consistency at three, he reeled off a trio of second-place finishes in the GI San Rafael S., the GI Blue Grass S. and the GI Kentucky Derby before failing to fire and coming home fourth in the GI Preakness S. May 15. Put to the side for a brief breather, Lion Heart returned with a narrow win in the Long Branch, but Biancone was quick to point out that the Long Branch was merely a rehearsal for yesterday's Haskell. "He needed to be really fit for this race," said Biancone. "This is a Grade I, so he needed to be ready for a big effort."

Purge broke his maiden by four lengths in a Saratoga sprint last term, but didn't reappear until a three-length tally at Gulfstream Feb. 22. Second and fifth, respectively, to Smarty Jones in the Rebel S. and the GI Arkansas Derby earlier this spring, Purge came back to win by six lengths two back in the GI Peter Pan S. at Belmont May 22. Poised for another big effort in the Belmont S., the 1 1/2 Classic proved too much for the colt and he trailed home a well-beaten ninth. According to Pletcher, Purge remains on the fence regarding a start in the 1 1/4-mile GI Travers S. Aug. 28. "My only concern is the 20 days time. The Belmont was back too soon and he got shook up in the paddock that day," said Pletcher, explaining the colt's poor showing last time. "This time, we let him settle into Saratoga. He's been up here since the week after the Belmont." Favored The Cliff's Edge, winner of the GI Blue Grass S., closed well in the final stages to edge Eddington for second, but the latter didn't hold onto the show spot for long and was demoted to fourth for interference with Niigon. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

There was little to suggest that she was a world-beater when scoring on her debut in a Cork maiden Apr. 12, but she showed she was smart when taking the Listed Swordlestown Stud Sprint S. at Naas June 7. Dropped back to a stiff five for the G2 Queen Mary S. at Royal Ascot last time June 16, she displayed a devastating turn of acceleration to overwhelm the subsequent G3 Princess Margaret S. winner Soar (GB) by three lengths. Settled in a stalking third throughout the early stages as Russian Blue dictated under Jamie Spencer, she responded to Kieren Fallon's urgings to head that rival with 250 yards remaining before holding the rally of Oratorio and Seamus Heffernan in the closing stages. "She switched off and Kieren [Fallon] said it is only a matter of pressing the button," Wachman said. "She gets relaxed in behind and as soon as she hits the front she idles. We'll think about the G1 Cheveley Park S. [at Newmarket Sept. 30] now and also consider the G1 Moyglare Stud S. [at The Curragh Sept. 5]."

The punters assembled at Deauville who allowed Somnus to be sent off at generous odds of 14-1 must have forgotten that he overhauled Oasis Dream (GB) in the soft in last year's G1 Haydock Sprint Cup, but he relished the ease in the ground here and a positive ride to belie that price. Things had gone against him so far this term, as he was buried underneath a huge penalty when seventh in the G2 Duke of York S. at York May 11 and when second in the G3 Chipchase S. at Newmarket June 26. He had performed better than his finishing position suggests when fifth in the G1 July Cup at Newmarket last time July 8 and met no trouble from his low draw here, racing across to join the main group before halfway and leading passing the quarter pole. Pressed by Whipper and Christophe Soumillon in the final 100 yards, he dug deep to repel that challenge and provide his rider with the ultimate wedding gift. "I'm thrilled," the Hall of Famer commented. "I had a wonderful trip and he stayed on really well." Connections confirmed that he will return to Haydock to attempt to win back-to-back renewals of the Sprint Cup Sept. 4. "We had this race mapped out for him for some time," commented trainer Robert Collet. "It is disappointing, but he will be back soon as I want to train him for the GI Breeders' Cup Mile [at Lone Star Park Oct. 30]."

Miss Lauren failed to consult the tote board prior to this one as she romped clear as the longest shot of an eight-horse field. The dark bay had spent the majority of her career in her native Argentina, where she knocked off no fewer than eight group events, including last season's grassy G1 Copa De Plata in December. She ran fourth and third in Group 2 races at San Isidro in January and February, respectively, then came to the States to resume her 2004 campaign. A non-threatening third to Summer Wind Dancer in the GIII Hawthorne H. going this trip over Hollywood's main track June 6, she failed to see out the 10-furlong distance of the June 27 GII Beverly Hills H. and finished fourth to Light Jig (GB). Returning to the dirt here as a 34-1 bomb, Miss Loren was settled off the first flank by jockey Jon Court as the pacesetter Royally Chosen was kept company by Star Parade (Arg) (Parade Marshal) and House of Fortune. That trio fanned out turning for home, but it was the hard-charging Miss Loren that powered past them widest of all on her way to a compelling open-lengths score. "She has all what you need from a horse," said trainer Luis Seglin. "She's quiet and very professional. If you want her to come from behind, she will. She's perfect for this country. When I saw her, I told the owner, my friend, Juan Carlos Bago, that he needed to send her to this country." Solskjaer reportedly tore ligaments off a hock before he got a chance to set foot on a racecourse at two, but the fact that he was pitched into the G1 Irish 2000 Guineas on his debut at The Curragh last May spoke volumes. In the event, he aggravated that old injury and was soundly beaten and connections had to wait until a Naas conditions event on his return June 7 to see him in the winner's enclosure. He battled gamely when narrowly beaten in both the Listed Celebration S. at The Curragh June 27 and in the G3 Meld S. at Leopardstown last time July 24, but gained a deserved first stakes success with his customary forcing tactics here. Taken to the front in the early stages by Jamie Spencer, that proved the best place to be as Mick Kinane became wedged against the rail in behind on Tropical Lady, who was extricated too late to catch the gallant front runner. "Ninety-nine percent of horses don't come back from horrific injuries like that," said winning trainer Aidan O'Brien. "He's getting better with every race and we'll train him for the G1 Irish Champion S. [at Leopardstown Sept. 11]."

Silk and Scarlet left it late, but she had her head in front where it mattered to provide Aidan O'Brien with back-to-back renewals of this contest. She may have needed the outing when second on her debut in a seven-furlong maiden at Leopardstown June 9, but looked a different proposition when winning the Listed Silken Glider S. dropped to six furlongs last time July 14. Held up in rear by a confident Jamie Spencer throughout the early stages of this contest, she was penned in by Alexander Icequeen (Ire) (Soviet Star) until passing the quarter pole, where Luas Line was committed by Kieren Fallon. When the gap appeared soon after, she quickened to cut down that rival with 100 yards remaining before asserting under a hand ride. "She is a great traveller and could be anything," said O'Brien, adding, "Hopefully, she will come back here for the G1 Moyglare Stud S. [Sept. 5]."

Twelve months on from his smooth-as-silk success in the G1 Phoenix S. at this venue, One Cool Cat returned to his imperious best to re-launch his well-scrutinised career. He had looked just as brilliant when winning the G1 National S. over seven furlongs of this track in September, but was bitterly disappointing when down the field on his return in the G1 2000 Guineas at Newmarket May 1. He returned with a heart irregularity on that occasion and failed to shine when only fifth in the G3 International S. back here last time July 17, where again post-race tests revealed an abnormal heart rate. Handled with supreme confidence by Jamie Spencer in this contest, he traveled with ease from the rear before quickening to swamp The Kiddykid with 100 yards remaining and gain the all-important score. "When you see him on the gallops in the morning, Pegasus wouldn't catch him and it was so frustrating when he didn't do it on the racecourse," said Spencer. "He has so much speed and at halfway it was just a case of keeping him covered--I asked him to go and whoosh!" John Magnier added, "The fact that he ran was totally down to Aidan [O'Brien]. I wanted to retire him after the Guineas and I said under no circumstances was he to run, but he defied me." There was an additional twist in the tale for O'Brien, as Grand Reward refused to leave the stalls when the gates opened.

Gulch Approval ran his record on the sod to a perfect three-for-three in a thrilling finish to this contest. The Nick Zito trainee won three of 12 on the main track as a three-year-old, including a pair of Kentucky allowance events in the fall, but was off the board in four consecutive allowance races at Gulfstream and Keeneland earlier this year. He began to show signs of life when runner-up in a NW3X at Keeneland Apr. 16, then lit up the board as a 19-1 shot when switched to the grass in a seven-furlong allowance on the Belmont S.

undercard June 5. Gulch Approval handled the rain-softened Monmouth lawn when taking the Elkwood S. at this trip July 17 and was partnered with Hall of Famer Pat Day to continue the streak. Kept along the rail in third as Max's Buddy (Irish River {Fr}) clicked off fractions of :23.98, :48.32 and 1:12.25, the dark bay bid gamely turning for home while still on the inside, took a narrow lead a furlong out and was all heart to get the photo in a blanket finish.

the lane to win her fifth race in her last six trips to post.

The chestnut began to roll with a one-length tally in the London Lil S. at Calder last November, then parlayed a Gulfstream optional-claiming victory in late April into a win in the June 12 My Fair Lady S. at Suffolk June 12. The streak was snapped when she lost by a head bob in the July 3 Dr. James Penny Memorial H. at Philly Park July 3, but a 2 1/2-length win in a one-mile $100,000 optional claimer at Belmont July 21 got her back on track. Jockey Corey Nakatani, in town to ride Rock Hard Ten in the Haskell, was content to let his mount race near the back of the pack through six furlongs. Asked for her best turning for home, Where We Left Off closed resolutely down the middle of the track and swept past the free-running Mrs. M, who ran admirably as a 12-1 outsider.

Pletcher Drills Team

Ashado (Saint Ballado), winner of the GI CCA Oaks, and MGSW Speightstown (Gone West) worked in tandem Sunday at Saratoga. The pair covered five furlongs, over the main track, in :59 flat. Speightstown is scheduled to make his next start in Saturday's six-furlong GII Alfred G. Vanderbilt H., while Ashado is pointing toward the GI Alabama S. at 10 furlongs Aug. 21. "It was a touch quicker than we wanted to go; we were looking for a minute," said Pletcher, adding, "But they are two good horses and they worked in hand the whole way." Also on the work tab, Pletcher tightened the screws on Balto Star (Glitterman), who will start in Saturday's GI Sword Dancer H., and Strong Hope (Grand Slam), who is slated to contest the Sept. 4 GII Forego H. at seven furlongs. Balto Star breezed five panels in 1:01, while Strong Hope negotiated the same distance in 1:03 3/5. "It was his first five-eighths since the Met Mile [3rd; May 31]," said Pletcher. "We're kind of easing our way back in with him."

Peace Rules Fine Following Whitney

Peace Rules (Jules), who finished sixth in Saturday's GI Whitney H., came out of the race fine, according to trainer Bobby Frankel, who tried to explain the colt's poor showing. "I always fancy myself going by my feelings," said Frankel. "I knew I was going to scratch, and for some stupid reason, I didn't. I even called the barn and told them we're probably going to scratch. Things happen for a reason and the rain was my signal to get out of there. I'm stupid. I didn't follow my instincts." Also from the Frankel barn, Ghostzapper (Awesome Again), winner of the GII Tom Fool H. July 4, was sent out for a spin over the main track yesterday. The four-year-old, who is scheduled to appear in Saturday's A. G. Vanderbilt, worked five furlongs in 1:00 2/5. "He worked really well," said Frankel. "He should be ready to go."

MONMOUTH GETS 2007 BREEDERS' CUP As expected, Monmouth Park in New Jersey has been named host of the 2007 Breeders' Cup World Thoroughbred Championships, Breeders' Cup Limited, the National Thoroughbred Racing Association and the New Jersey Sports and Exposition Authority announced Sunday. It will be the first time the Oceanport track has staged the international event. "We are delighted to bring the Breeders' Cup to New Jersey and Monmouth Park," said Breeders' Cup President D.G. Van Clief, Jr. "We have been extremely impressed with the enthusiasm and professionalism of the NJSEA team, one that has developed an outstanding reputation in handling major league sporting and special events over the years. Furthermore, we believe that Monmouth Park has earned its place as one of America's finest and most popular Thoroughbred facilities and will provide an excellent showcase to stage the world's greatest day of international racing." The announcement coincided with the signing of four pro-racing bills into law by New Jersey Governor James McGreevey (see East report). "What an incredible day for New Jersey racing," an enthused Dennis A. Drazin, general counsel to the New Jersey Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association. "New Jersey's Thoroughbred horsemen have worked for two years to bring the Breeders' Cup to New Jersey. Everything was done in partnership with the governor, his administration and the Sports Authority. Obviously, we showed the Breeders' Cup that Monmouth Park, its staff and the state's Thoroughbred horsemen are committed to racing and that we are a first-class operation ready to host the world's greatest day of racing." This year's Breeders' Cup will be held at Lone Star Park in Grand Prairie, Texas on Saturday, Oct. 30. New York's Belmont Park is set to host its fourth Breeders' Cup in 2005, with Churchill Downs slated to host in 2006.
