SUN SHINING ON SARATOGA

The yearling sale action shifts to upstate New York for Fasig-Tipton's Saratoga Yearling Sales, a three-day auction which gets underway tonight at 7:30 p.m. at the Humphrey S. Finney Pavilion in Saratoga Springs. The market for racing prospects has been buoyant thus far in 2004, and Fasig-Tipton President Walt Robertson expects much of the same over the next three days. "I felt like we had a great sale [July in Kentucky]," he said. "It's been good all through this year and the second half of last year. You'd have to be feeling pretty good after the way the two-year-olds and, so far, the yearlings have sold this year. I don't see one thing that has changed here. I've looked at all of the horses in this sale and we've got as many quality horses as we've ever had, and that's the bottom line; I don't care how the market is, if you've got the right horses, they will sell well." Fasig-Tipton has put together another strong catalogue, which includes sons and daughters of leading sires A.P. Indy, Carson City, Danzig, Deputy Minister, Dynaformer, El Prado (Ire), Gone West, Kingmambo, Kris S., Machiavellian, Pulpit, Saint Ballado, Seattle Slew, Seeking the Gold, Storm Cat and Unbridled's Song. Those established stallions--some of whom are now deceased--are bolstered by a group of young horses whose stars are ascendant, such as Distorted Humor, Elusive Quality, Grand Slam, Tale of the Cat and Wild Rush. Yearling buyers, always receptive to first-crop stallions, will also have a chance to acquire offspring by Aptitude, El Corredor, Monarchos, Point Given and Tiznow. "There are a lot of exciting young horses out there," Robertson noted. "There's Tiznow, and we sold a Point Given real well in Kentucky. We've also got some horses that are really exciting second-year horses--FuPeg and Giant's Causeway. We have several really nice horses by both those sires. And then of course there's Grand Slam."

ARTIE'S TOO MUCH IN HALL OF FAME

Already recognized as a top member of a deep three-year-old turf division, Artie Schiller (El Prado {Ire}) continued to impress yesterday while winning the GII National Museum of Racing Hall of Fame H. at Saratoga. Stakes-placed on the grass as a two-year-old, the bay didn't really step forward until May, when he came off a 3 1/2-month breather to win an Aqueduct allowance May 1. A victory in the Woodlawn S. May 15 earned him a shot in the June 6 GIII Hill Prince S., where he won wire-to-wire. A hiccup in the name of Kitten's Joy broke the three-race skein, as Artie Schiller finished second to that foe in the July 10 GIII Virginia Derby, but the Jimmy Jerkens trainee was back to his winning ways here. Well-placed in third as Icy Atlantic (Stormy Atlantic) and Street Theatre (Theatrical {Ire}) laid down honest fractions, 'Artie' swept past that pair in upper stretch when Street Theatre nearly went down after appearing to clip heels with Icy Atlantic, then unleashed a devastating turn of foot to win it by open lengths. "I knew once he saw daylight, it was all over," said jockey Richard Migliore. "He was the real deal today, but I don't think we've seen the best of him yet." The Sept. 6 GIII Saranac S. at the Spa is up next for 'Artie.' Change is All Around...

Several announcements in recent weeks may change things on both the buying and selling sides. Lane's End, always among the leading consignors, announced that they would not be sending yearlings to Saratoga, while Padua Stables' Satish Sanan--whose purchases at this sale in recent years include $2.15-million champion Vindication--revealed that he would in effect be boycotting public auctions in 2004 in an effort to raise awareness of his initiative, the Alliance for Industry Reform. "As far as Lane's End goes, it wasn't expected," Robertson admitted. "We certainly wish they were here this year and hope they'll be back [in the future]. But, as I've said, we've got as many top-level horses as I've ever seen on these sale grounds."

Sanan's announcement was also unexpected. "It was a total surprise," Robertson added. "You always miss a buyer. He was a good buyer in Kentucky and here last year. We had a great sale in Kentucky [last month]. I wish he'd show up here, and there's still time." But Robertson is quietly confident that buyers will be active. "So far, everybody is accounted for," he said. "I'm sure we'll see some more over the next two days. All the people that we were expecting are in town." Consignors are also expecting good business in the coming days. "We started showing on Saturday and had about 25 shows per horse," said Meg Levy of Bluewater Sales. "On Sunday, there were about 50 shows per horse. I've been selling up here for five years. There aren't necessarily any new buyers, but there are people based on the East Coast who just come to Saratoga. There's so much tradition here. The mornings are so busy, and the afternoons are much less so, since there's the racing and so much else to do socially." Levy has a draft of 12 yearlings to sell at the Spa. "Our group this year is very consistent," she said. "They're all good physicals, and I think they're going to be real racehorses. We have one of the last Saint Ballado colts and I really like him." That chestnut colt, slated to sell as hip 130, is out of Eye Catching (Alydar), making him a half brother to SW Lady Melesi. "We had a good sale in Kentucky and hope that continues," Levy added.

Taylor Made for Success...

Sunday's Gil Jim Dandy S. saw a major catalogue update for a pair of colts from Taylor Made's consignment. The winner Purge has a half brother by Forestry, hip 111, to sell Wednesday, while runner-up The Cliff's Edge has a Coronado's Quest half brother who will go through the ring earlier in that session as hip 83. "The Jim Dandy was a good result for us," said Duncan Taylor. "We've got a really athletic group of horses. They're well-conformed and they look like racehorses." Taylor expects the status quo to continue at this sale. "[Buyer traffic] at the barns has been steady but not overwhelming, same as last year," he noted. "There aren't really any new faces, but maybe some of the agents I've seen have some new buyers. There are still a few days, maybe more people will show up."

GONE WEST FEE GOES HIGHER The stud fee for emerging sire of sires Gone West (Mr. Prospector--Secrettame, by Secretariat) will go up to $150,000, live foal, in 2005. The Mill Ridge Farm stallion stood the past six seasons at $125,000. "For several years we have withstood the pressure to boost Gone West's fee," explained Mill Ridge owner Alice Chandler. "This year in particular, with his incredible success worldwide as a sire of sires, the time has come when we felt we had to raise his fee." Through Aug. 9, Gone West has sired 76 stakes winners and the earners of $57.6 million. His sons include leading sire Elusive Quality, leading third-crop sire Grand Slam and South Africa's leading sire of 2003 Western Winter.

HALL WELCOMES NEW MEMBERS Thoroughbred racing welcomed the newest members to its Hall of Fame yesterday with a ceremony at the Fasig-Tipton Sales Pavilion in Saratoga Springs, New York. Trainer Shug McGaughey, jockey Kent Desormeaux and equine champions Skip Away and Flawlessly were all honored with plaques in the National Museum of Racing and Hall of Fame. In accepting his induction, McGaughey said, "Whether it's the challenge of developing a racehorse, or the thrill of the crowd on race day, we do this because of the horses." Personal trainer for the Phipps family for much of his career, McGaughey has campaigned champions Personal Ensign, Easy Goer, and Storm Flag Flying. Desormeaux has won the Kentucky Derby twice, aboard Real Quiet and Fusaichi Pegasus. Carolyn Hine accepted the plaque for 1998 Horse of the Year Skip Away on behalf of her late husband and trainer Sonny Hine. "Skippy thanks you, Sonny thanks you and I thank you," she said. Also inducted in historic categories were jockey Jimmy Winkfield and Bowl of Flowers.

FAIR GROUNDS, HORSEMEN REACH ACCORD

Louisiana horsemen and Fair Grounds have reached an agreement that will likely end the sale of the historic New Orleans racetrack, according to Harness Tracks of America newsletter. Horsemen had demanded $90 million for withheld purse supplements from video poker, forcing the track into bankruptcy. A deal was reportedly reached early Saturday morning that will pay the horsemen $25 million. A bankruptcy judge was expected to review the deal, which would end 10 years of dispute between the track and the Louisiana HBPA, yesterday.

Sophomores Eye Travers:

Connections of several top three-year-olds who returned to action over the weekend are now aiming their charges at the Aug. 28 GI Travers S. at Saratoga. Purge (Pulpit), winner of the Gil Jim Dandy S., came out of Sunday's race in good order and is expected next in the Midsummer Derby. "I thought he was pretty special yesterday," trainer Todd Pletcher said of Purge. "That was a dominant performance."

In the Travers, Purge will have to again contend with Jim Dandy runner-up The Cliff's Edge (Gulch). "Todd had his horse ready to run for the Jim Dandy and I cannot take anything away from him," trainer Nick Zito said yesterday. "The Cliff's Edge is the type of horse that needs a couple of races to develop." Zito will also have GI Belmont S. winner Birdstone (Grindstone) in the Travers and could possibly be represented by Sunday's GI Haskell Invitational third and fourth-place finishers Pies Prospect (Crafty Prospector) and Royal Assault (Kris S.).

Haskell Invitational winner Lion Heart (Tale of the Cat) returned to his Saratoga base Sunday night and is also expected to start next in the Travers. "He's doing fine," trainer Patrick Biancone said yesterday. Cont. p2

"The owners and I are going to discuss our options this week," said trainer Allen Iwinski. "He looks good right now. He ate everything in his tub after the race. We really won't get a good idea where he's at until we get him back on the track to walk around and train later this week."

FORTUNE WRITERS (c, 4, Kris S.--Sweet Lexy May, by Danzig) didn't shed his maiden until his eighth career start, a nine-furlong turf effort at Saratoga last August. The dark bay came back to fill out the trifecta as a 17-1 shot in the 12-furlong GIII Lawrence Realization H. at Belmont in mid-October, but went missing off a last-of-13 finish in the GI Hollywood Derby Nov. 30. Returning to the sight of his maiden victory, the 3-2 pick tracked in sixth, picked up the tempo entering the lane and showed a nice turn of foot to mow down his rivals en route to a 1 3/4-length tally. Making his route debut in the July 17 New York Derby for statebreds, the $6,500 OBSJAN yearling and $12,000 FTMSEP yearling raced six wide before getting up for third and was the heavy favorite dropping into allowance company. Indy) was off nine months after her seventh-place debut over the main Spa track last August and returned to run second over the Churchill lawn May 20. Fourth in a 10-furlong off-the-turfer June 13, the bay filly returned to the grass to run fourth July 1 in Louisville. Let got at 6-1, Parading Tomisue dropped well back before storming into contention with a six-wide move entering the straight and finished gamely to record a half-length victory over 3-1 favorite She's Sterling (Silver Deputy). The second-highest-priced filly at the Barretts March juvenile sale with a $600,000 price tag, and from the same connections as Sunday's Haskell winner Lion Heart, the handsome dark bay entered the race off a sharp :47 3/5 work from the gate at Saratoga Aug. 5. Duly respected as the 4-5 pick, she rated kindly off the dueling leaders before being angled out for the drive. Jockey Edgar Prado gave her a few taps of the whip in upper stretch to prompt her past Burnish (Menifee) and Winsome (War Chant), then resorted to a modest hand ride in the final panel as Should Be Royalty edged away to win by 2 1/2 lengths. Firster Burnish held for second. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $27,000.

The New York-bred lost a bit of momentum at the break after being bumped, but recovered to rush up and set the pace through a half in :45 1/5. Allowed to open up by Javier Castellano, he powered off the turn with an eight-length lead and extended his advantage to 10 1/2 lengths as he hit the wire an impressive first-out winner. TCOA Pitches In For TRF South Carolina Farm:

Thoroughbred Charities of America, which helps fund several equine charities, has donated $7,000 to the Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation, money that will be spent on the construction of a new TRF farm at the Wateree River Correctional Institute in Rembert, South Carolina. "We know Donna Freyer and Kip Elser and they are wonderful people and they are doing wonderful things for horses," said TCOA President Herb Moelis, speaking of the two TRF committee members who have spearheaded the project to open the farm at Wateree. "We felt it was important to help get them started. We generally support a lot of rescue and retirement organizations and this is certainly a good program. The only other thing I can say to them is keep up the good work." The Wateree River Farm, which will be the latest TRF retirement farm based at a correctional facility, is expected to open by November, 2004. Inmates will learn valuable skills that will better their chances of landing jobs in the South Carolina horse community upon their release. Many of the Wateree River horses will be available for adoption. "We appreciate the donation from a charity that does so much for equine research and horse rescue," said Elser, who is the president of the TRF's South Carolina committee. "We are getting ready to start construction and the sooner we can get that done the sooner we can start helping some horses and some of the inmates. Donations such as these are certainly a big help."

MUBTAKER SET FOR FREER

Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Mubtaker (Silver Hawk) looks set to return in Saturday's G2 Geoffrey Freer S. at Newbury, in which he will attempt to record a third consecutive success. Off the track since finishing runner-up to Dalakhani (Ire) in the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at Longchamp in October, the seven-year-old has fully recovered from tendonitis and will be prepared for another tilt at that Longchamp feature. Conditioner Marcus Tregoning told PA Sport that it is "more likely" that Mubtaker would run on Saturday than in the G1 Juddmonte International at York the following Thursday. "We're very much looking forward to seeing him return to action in his favourite race, and he's in very good form--in top order," he added.

TARFAH (f, 3, Kingmambo--Fickle {GB} {SW-GB}, by Danehill), successful on her debut in an Ascot maiden July 25, raced keenly in the early stages as she shadowed Cut Short (Diesis {GB}) at the head of affairs. Tackling that rival at the top of the straight, she got the better of their duel with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining before striding to an impressive five-length success from Kentucky King (Tale of the Cat). "We really liked her last year, but she had a few problems, so we gave her time," trainer Gerard Butler explained. "She was going really well in the spring, but had a slight setback, so we let her down and waited to turn the corner. She handled that ground and I think she'll get further." Lifetime Record: 2-2-0-0, £10,952.

Holding a slight advantage in a wall of five from the outset, he edged into a length lead at the quarter-mile marker and was ridden out thereafter to account for Lateral Thinker (Ire) (Desert Sun {GB}) by a decisive 2 1/2-length margin. Lifetime Record: 3-2-0-0, £7,702. O/B-Cheveley Park Stud; T-Sir Mark Prescott.

ONE PUTRA (IRE) (c, 2, Indian Ridge {Ire}--Triumphale, by Nureyev), a 200,000gns TATOCT yearling, ran fifth in a decent Goodwood maiden on his debut July 27. Quickly off the mark, the 10-3 second choice soon held a narrow advantage and, despite running greenly in front, stretched clear of Rebuttal (Mr. Greeley) in the closing stages to score by 1 1/2 lengths. "He has really come on for his first run because he's lazy at home," conditioner Michael Jarvis commented. "He liked the rain-softened ground here and we'll take it slowly with him, but he has fancy entries like the G1 Middle Park S. [at Newmarket Oct. 1]. He'll run in a conditions race next and then move on to something better afterwards." Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, £5,343.

INDIGENOUS DIES IN HONG KONG Hong Kong Horse of the Year Indigenous (Ire) (Marju {Ire}--Sea Port {GB}, by Averof {GB}), who recently collapsed and was placed into veterinary care at Tuen Mun Public Riding School in Hong Kong, died Sunday, according to farm sources. The cause of death has yet to be confirmed. Horse of the Year in 1999, Indigenous also collected champion middle-distance and champion stayer titles. Trained by Ivan Allan, the 11-year-old won the 1998 G2 Hong Kong International Vase, Hong Kong Gold Cup in 1998 and 1999 and consecutive editions of the Hong Kong Champions & Chater Cup (1997 & 98). "Indigenous was one of the classiest, toughest and most reliable horses that we will ever see and he is one of the first horses to really put Hong Kong on the international racing map," said Winfried Engelbrecht-Bresges, Hong Kong Jockey Club's Executive Director of Racing. "He will be greatly missed at Tuen Mun, where he enjoyed a happy retirement and gave many of his visitors great enjoyment as part of the Hong Kong Racing Hall of Fame." The highest earning horse in Hong Kong history, the gelding raced 62 times, winning on 12 occasions, before being retired last year with HK$45,125,289 in earnings.

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, a ▲ will denote a first-time Grade/Group 1 winner.
