AIN'T THAT A KICK IN THE PANTS

Last year, Storming Home (GB) was first across the finish line in the GI Arlington Million, but also crossed the paths of several rivals in deep stretch and found himself demoted to fourth. It was a case of deja vu all over again at Arlington yesterday. Powerscourt (GB) (Sadler's Wells) closed from far back under jockey Jamie Spencer to take the lead inside the eighth pole in the 22nd running of the event and was 1 1/2 lengths in front of Kicken Kris (Kris S.) at the wire, but he had also changed lanes late. Jockey Kent Desormeaux, inducted into racing's Hall of Fame just five days ago, had a few choice words for Spencer as they galloped out and a few more for the stewards and, after serious deliberation, Kicken Kris was in the winner's circle. More on the Million, p2

RED LETTER DAY

Already a winner in her native South Africa, in Dubai and in England, Crimson Palace (SAf) (Elliodor {Fr}) added America to that list with a game victory in the GI Beverly D. S. at Arlington Park yesterday. The five-year-old was let go at 9-1, but outfinished Riskaverse (Dynaformer) for a half-length score. "She's a great filly," trainer Saeed bin Suroor said, adding, "We'll have to see how she comes back, but we'll consider the Breeders' Cup." Crimson Palace was purchased privately by Team Valor after her South African campaign, then sold to Godolphin after winning her debut in Dubai. Beverly D. cont. p2

JOY TO THE WORLD

Kitten's Joy (El Prado {Ire}) took on an international cast in the GI Secretariat S. at Arlington yesterday and ran his turf record to seven-for-eight. The chestnut colt, sent off the 9-10 favorite, settled in sixth early, but showed impressive acceleration in the stretch to win by a widening 3 1/4 lengths. Secretariat S. cont. p3

NEAR PERFECTION

Looking to bury the memory of her disappointing effort when sixth in the G1 Queen Anne S. at Royal Ascot June 15, Six Perfections (Fr) (Celtic Swing {GB}) heads the field for the G1 Prix du Haras de Fresnay-le-Buffard Jacques le Marois at Deauville this afternoon. The four-year-old filly finished worse than second for the first time in her career last time out, but trainer Pascal Bary told the Racing Post, "It took her some time to get over the race, but she has been pleasing me recently." She faces Attraction (GB) (Efisio {GB}), who was beaten for the first time in her latest. More on the Marois, p8

An Arlington Double...

Kicken Kris became the third horse in history to follow up on a win in the GI Secretariat S. with success in the Million. But it wasn't until his most recent effort that the four-year-old seemed on track to match the feat achieved by Awad and Marlin. Second in the GII Jamaica H. after his Secretariat score, the bay added a win in the GIII Lawrence Realization H., then ended the year with a third-place finish in the GI Hollywood Derby. He opened 2004 with a close-up third in the Feb. 22 GI Gulfstream Park Breeders' Cup H., but finished off the board in the May 1 GI Early Times Turf Classic and again in the June 5 GI Manhattan H. He was bet down to 6-5 favoritism despite back-to-back lackluster efforts, however, and came through with a 1 1/2-length tally. A 9-1 shot in the Million, Kicken Kris was caught in some traffic early and rated off a solid pace. He closed ground on the final bend and, looking for running room, angled toward the rail in the stretch. But, as the colt moved inside 4-1 chalk Epalo (Ger) (Lando {Ger}), a rallying Powerscourt swerved and the chain reaction pushed Kicken Kris into the fence. Kicken Kris did recover enough to get up for second, and the stewards ruled that the interference was enough to disqualify Powerscourt, who was placed fourth. "I lost so much momentum," Kent Desormeaux said. "But, lo and behold, when he got all four feet on the ground, he re-broke. It was a very, very good performance. He was a deserving winner."

Horse Power...

A Group 2 winner at three, Powerscourt kicked off his four-year-old campaign with a win in the May 23 G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup at The Curragh. He came back to be second in the G1 Prince of Wales's S. at Royal Ascot, but faded to fifth in the July 3 G1 Eclipse S. The bay was adding blinkers and Lasix off a second-place effort in the G1 Bayerisches Zuchtrennen at Munich just 13 days ago. Rated in 10th for the opening mile of the Million, the 9-2 shot closed well to take the lead inside the final eighth and was going away at the wire, but failed to keep a straight course and got fourth money.

A Group 1 winner while racing in South Africa, Crimson Palace was off for nearly a year after running fourth against the colts in the G1 Majorca S. at Kenilworth Feb. 1, 2003. She returned to take the Alhaarth S. at Nad Al Sheba Jan. 29 and made it close in the Mar. 27 G1 Dubai Duty Free H., finishing fourth, but just 3/4 off dead-heating winners Right Approach (GB) and Paolini (Ger). The bay also made a winning debut in England, taking the G3 Middleton S. at York in May, but disappointed as the 6-5 choice in the June 16 G2 Windsor Forest S. at Royal Ascot, finishing sixth. Looking to rebound off that effort, Crimson Palace settled just off the lead as first 2-1 favorite Musical Chimes (In Excess {Ire}) and then Aubonne (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}) cut out the fractions. She drove to the front in deep stretch and held on over Riskaverse. "I think maybe the straight track at Ascot was a bit too much for her," jockey Frankie Dettori said. "She handled the turns here well. She was in control and showed a good kick."

Kitten's Joy first stepped onto the turf for a maiden race at Belmont Park last October and came home a 4 1/2-length winner. He then reeled off victories in a Churchill allowance Nov. 16, the GIII Tropical Park Derby at Calder Jan. 1, the GIII Palm Beach S. at Gulfstream Feb. 21 and, after a return to Louisville, the GIII Crown Royal American Turf S. Apr. 30. The colt lost his unbeaten grass record when second by a head to prince Arch in the June 12 GIII Jefferson Cup over a yielding course at Churchill, but he was back on track in his latest, taking the 10-furlong GIII Virginia Derby at Colonial Downs by 2 3/4 lengths over Artie Schiller, with Prince Arch third. Taking up his customary position off the pace in the Secretariat, Kitten's Joy started to pick up horses on the final bend and came flying in the final furlong to post his most impressive victory to date. "He's gotten a little better with each start and this was his best yet," trainer Dale Romans confirmed, adding the colt would have one more start before the Oct. 30 GI Breeders' Cup Turf. Better Talk Now had to settle for second in the June 12 Battlefield S. at Monmouth and in the July 17 GII Bowling Green H. at Belmont, but got the job done at Saratoga yesterday. The bay trailed the field while saving ground as Balto Star cut out a half in :49.87 and six furlongs in 1:15.08 over the yielding turf. He angled outside as they raced around the far turn and finished with a flourish to win going away. "Things are falling into place," trainer Graham Motion said. "I thought the pace was legitimate. I knew the ground had to be very soft. I could see how relaxed our horse was and I knew they wouldn't let Balto Star get away with an easy pace. I felt confident." As for what's next, Motion added, "We're obviously going to have to consider the Man o'War [GI at Belmont Sept. 11]." Balto Star, sent off the 3-2 chalk, held on for third. "He tried," jockey John Velazquez said. "He didn't give it up." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Speightstown was the odds-on favorite in quest of his fourth consecutive stakes victory and proved up to the task. The chestnut stopped the timer in 1:08 at the finish of the June 5 GII True North Breeders' Cup H. at Belmont, missing the track record by just a tick, but he equalled that time and the Saratoga mark yesterday. Head-and-head with 11-1 shot Mike's Classic (Seeking the Gold) through a half in :44.40, the crowd's choice kicked clear at midstretch and had enough left in the tank to hold Clock Stopper at bay. "He's so good right now, it's scary," trainer Todd Pletcher said. "He looked like he was in hand, even though they were rolling along. When [jockey John Velazquez] asked him turning for home, there was another gear." Pletcher said the six-year-old will skip the Sept. 4 GI Forego H., but could go for the GI Vosburgh S. at Belmont Park Oct. 2, or head straight to the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint at Lone Star Park Oct. 30. A Listed winner at Cagnes-sur-Mer in February, Blackdoun ended his European stint with a third-place finish in the G3 Prix de Fontainebleau at Longchamp in April. The gray made his U.S. debut after a three-month break, closing well after a slow break to take the second division of the Oceanside S. at Del Mat July 21. The colt's time was a full second faster than the first division that day and he was accordingly sent off the odds-on choice here. Allowed to settle off a moderate pace, he had to wait for running room at the quarter pole and was steadied at the eighth pole, but fought his way through the crowd to win by a deceptively short margin. "Sometimes with horses that run in the country for the first time, when they come back [for their second start], they're not the same," jockey Corey Nakatani said. "But this one is just unbelievable. He's so athletic. I rode him with a lot of confidence...a lot of confidence. He's a special one." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Mubtaker put in a career-best effort when 3/4-of-a-length second to Dalakhani (Ire) in the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at Longchamp on his last start in October. That effort earned him the tag as the top-rated horse currently in training in Europe, and he hammered the point home with a facile score here. Successful in this race for the last two seasons, he met a diminished field this time as he took the all-important first step back towards Longchamp's feature in the fall. Reined back in second by Richard Hills early, he showed a natural enthusiasm while stalking Dubai Success and was still under restraint as he loomed upsides the long-time leader approaching the quarter pole. Asked to settle the issue soon after, he strode clear in exuberant fashion before being eased to a comfortable success. "He was very fresh today and Richard did a very good job keeping him under control--he was like a lion trying to break from his cage," conditioner Marcus Tregoning said.

Chic shed her 'nearly' tag in emphatic style to take this competitive contest and put a string of unlucky runs behind her. Almost floored when clipping heels in the G2 Windsor Forest S. at Royal Ascot June 16, she again met with trouble when a fast-finishing third behind Phantom Wind in the G3 Oak Tree S. at Goodwood last time July 30. But she was always traveling strongly in behind the leaders under Kieren Fallon here, and the gaps opened for her as she was committed at the quarter pole. Taking command soon after, she stretched clear of the pack and needed only to be kept to her work to record a convincing success. "She was unlucky at Ascot--she was going through to win the race--and she didn't get the splits at Goodwood," Fallon commented. "This filly could work with anything in the yard and today everything went right. She felt impressive and should go on and prove the filly we think she should be." Special Kaldoun improved throughout his 2003 campaign, winning the G3 Prix Messidor at this venue in July and rounding off his European campaign with an impressive success in the G2 Prix Daniel Wildenstein at Longchamp in October. He failed to make an impact in the G1 Mile Championship at Kyoto in November or the G1 Hong Kong Mile at Sha Tin the following month and had subsequently disappointed in his first two outings this term before showing some sparkle when third back in the G3 Prix Messidor at this track last time July 11. Bouncing back to winning ways in this contest, he was settled towards the rear before quickening to pass the long-time leader Mamool with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining and asserting in the closing stages. "He took a while to recover from his campaign in Asia, but he has shown me the right signs recently," trainer David Smaga commented. "He will go for the G3 La Coupe de Maisons-Laffitte [Sept. 21] and then possibly the G2 Prix Dollar [at Longchamp Oct. 2]."

11	1	Attraction (GB)	Efisio (GB)	Johnston	120

Six Perfections turned her fortunes around when winning this race 12 months ago. She had suffered more than her share of ill fortune when runner-up in both the G1 English and G1 Irish 1000 Guineas at last May, but her success in this race served as the launch pad for her revival, completed with a scintillating success in the G1 Breeders' Cup Mile at Santa Anita in October. She shaped with promise when second on her return in the G1 Prix d'Ispahan at Longchamp May 23 before her below-par run in the Queen Anne S. at Royal Ascot.

That venue witnessed the crowning of dual 1000 Guineas heroine Attraction, who maintained her unbeaten run in impressive fashion in the G1 Coronation S. at Royal Ascot June 18. She may have caught a Tartar when beaten for the first time by Soviet Song (Ire) in the G1 Falmouth S. at Newmarket July 6. That defeat was met with surprise, but was made to look considerably better by the winner's subsequent G1 Sussex S. victory. If the two fillies fail to shine, Diamond Green may have what it takes to provide Andre Fabre with his fifth renewal of this race. He looked unlucky when hampered by Antonius Pius before eventually finishing second to American Post (GB) in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains at Longchamp May 16, and was beaten just a neck by Azamour (Ire) when filling the same spot in the G1 St James's Palace S. at Royal Ascot June 15. Last time out, he found the easy conditions against him when again runner-up to Ryono in the G3 Prix Messidor at this track July 11.

7	8	Malinas (Ger)	Lomitas (GB)	Schiergen	120
9	3	Omikron (Ire)	Germany	Hofer	121

Albanova had Rotteck back in third when taking the G1 Deutschlandpreis at Dusseldorf over 10 furlongs July 25 and bids to uphold that form back at her favored trip. It was over this course and distance that she had produced a previous career best when 1 1/4 lengths second to Mamool (Ire) in the G1 Preis von Europa in September. Germany's crop of sophomores may be above average this year and G1 Deutsches Derby flop Intendant (Ger) struck for the younger generation when lifting the G1 Grosser Dallmayr-Preis a fortnight ago. The form of the Hamburg Classic July 4 is represented by Malinas and Omikron, who trailed the imperious winner Shirocco (Ger) by four lengths and six lengths, respectively, on that occasion. Malinas had previously beaten Omikron and Shirocco in the G2 Oppenheim-Union-Rennen at this track June 13 and rates a serious threat to the older horses here.

Central shoulders top weight of 122 pounds. The winner of the Mar. 7 GII San Carlos H. and Apr. 10 GI Carter H., he picks up three pounds off his 3/4-length score in the May 31 GI Met Mile. Trainer Paul Lobo is concerned about the time between races and the extra burden, but told Daily Racing Form, "He's ready...I believe he is going to run a big race." Kela, winner of the July 25 GI Bing Crosby BC H. at this oval last time out, has been first or second in five of six Del Mar appearances, but put in his lone off-the-board effort at the track when sixth in this event last year.

Last Sunday, trainer Patrick Biancone and jockey Joe Bravo teamed up to win the GI Haskell Invitational H. with Lion Heart. The two will try for the Haskell/Oaks double with Rings and Things. A maiden winner at Hollywood Park last November, the $450,000 KEESEP yearling was a well-beaten fifth in the GI Hollywood Starlet S. Dec. 21. She has made one start since, posting a 7 1/2-length score in a Monmouth allowance July 29. She takes on Ender's Sister, who followed a win in the Mar. 14 Florida Oaks with seconds in the Apr. 29 GIII La Troienne S. and the July 17 GII Delaware Oaks, which sandwiched a third in the June 5 GIII Dogwood BC S. "I think [the Delaware Oaks] was her best race so far," trainer Rusty Arnold said. "She was hung wide the whole trip. [Winner] Yearly Report had everything her own way and when Ender's Sister finally got to her, she had a lot left. But those two opened up on the field and, except for the outcome, I was very happy."

Wetherly is the only horse in the field with a win over the track. The dark bay went gate to wire to win by four lengths at Del Mar July 24, and trainer William Currin believes he will handle the step up to stakes company. "He's as black as coal, as smooth as silk and he's the best balanced horse I've ever seen," Currin said. "He looks like he belongs in this race." Roman Ruler has not competed where the surf meets the turf, but he has been burning up the track in the morning. A maiden winner at Hollywood in his June 19 debut, he drilled five-eighths in a bullet :57 4/5 Monday. Stablemate Actxecutive sheds the hood after running second in the July 17 GIII Hollywood Juvenile Championship.

THREE LATE SCRATCHES SHORTEN O'BRIEN FIELD

Three of the eight horses entered for today's GII Pat O'Brien H. at Del Mar could be scratched. Six-year-old Disturbingthepeace (Bold Badgett) is definitely out. The gelding won the seven-furlong event in 2002 and 2003, but will miss this year's edition after pulling a stifle. Trainer Darrell Vienna noticed the problem when he was taking Disturbingthepeace to the paddock to school Friday afternoon. The Daily Racing Form reports that Marino Marini (Storm Cat), second in the May 8 GIII L.A. Times H. last time out, will be pulled from the race to wait for an easier spot, and seven-year-old Hasty Kris (Kissin Kris) is likely to scratch and instead point for the GIII Longacres Mile next Sunday.

FAREWELL PARTY FOR SMARTY JONES Smarty Jones (Elusive Quality) was vanned to Three Chimneys Farm in Midway, Kentucky, yesterday evening, but first he had to say goodbye to his many fans at Philadelphia Park. Some 10,000 Smarty Jones fans turned out on a gloomy afternoon at Philadelphia Park to catch a final glimpse of the Kentucky Derby and Preakness winner. It was announced Aug. 2 that Smarty Jones, suffering from bone bruising, would not race again. Though

Smarty Jones raced just twice at Philadelphia Park and had not started there since Nov. 22, it was clear once again yesterday that the suburban Philadelphia track was very much his home. After the conclusion of the third race, Smarty Jones, led by exercise rider Pete Van Trump and groom Mario Arriaga, walked the length of the Philadelphia Park stretch, took a few turns in the paddock and entered the winner's circle for the conclusion of the brief ceremonies. He was accompanied by a large entourage that included trainer John Servis. Co-owners Roy and Pat Chapman did not attend. "I want to thank the Chapmans for giving me an opportunity to train the greatest horse to come from Pennsylvania and maybe the greatest horse of all time," Servis said, his words greeted by a loud cheer from the crowd. "He gave us a great ride. We're doing what's in the best interests of him. That's the way we have to look at it. I know you guys had a lot of fun, but nobody had more fun with this than myself and my family. We had to look out for the horse. I can tell you we're going to miss him." Smarty Jones's injury may not have prevented the colt from running as a four-year-old, but most Philly fans said they couldn't blame the Chapmans for retiring the star of their stable at this time. "My feeling is that if he ever got hurt or had to be put down I'd be devastated," said fan Harry Beccari. "I'd rather have him ride off into the sunset like this and lead a great life for a long time to come."

Apr. 4, received a confidence booster when wiring $75,000 claimers at Belmont July 11 and was the 9-5 choice in this six-horse field. Taking advantage of his rail post, the bay colt immediately went to the lead and kept on going, crossing the wire 2 1/4 lengths clear of Zakocity (Precocity). Entered as main-track only here, the 20-1 shot came from way out of it to post his elusive first win by 2 1/2 lengths over Lex (Runaway Groom). A 3/4-brother to Vindication (Seattle Slew), Ch. 2yo Colt, GISW, $680,950, Scipion was bound to attract attention at last year's Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Sale. He was originally listed as a buy-back at $1.9 million, but an agreement was reached soon after, with trainer Patrick Biancone handling the deal as agent for an undisclosed buyer. "I thought the horse could bring $2.5 to $3 million," Duncan Taylor, whose Taylor Made Sales Agency consigned the colt on behalf of Payson Stud, told TDN after the sale. "But I think we did Mrs. Payson a disservice. We got too high...because we had every person that you would want in the business on the horse. Patrick talked to Mrs. Payson and they put a deal together...and Mrs. Payson did retain part of the horse." Solid morning drills and the purple pedigree saw the colt go postward at 4-5 for his career opener, but things didn't look too promising on the backstretch, when the bay began to drop back along the rail, losing touch with the field and prompting announcer Tom Durkin to say, "He just can't keep up with the others." Jockey Javier Castellano, eager to get his 10 percent of the purse, went to work on Scipion and the colt finally responded, advancing through the turn and really kicking in late, blowing by Royal Sultan (Out of Place) in the final strides to win by 3/4 of a length. His yearling half-brother by Saint Ballado is scheduled to sell at Keeneland September. Click here for the brisnet.com chart or the Race Replays video. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $27,000.

UNITED (c, 2, Dixie Union--Robyns Tune {MSW, $127,155}, by Robyn Dancer) tired to be eighth in his first trip to the post June 18, but showed marked improvement next time to be second at Belmont July 24. Sent off as the 7-1 third choice, the Pennsylvania-bred quickly showed in front and began to open a bit of daylight in the stretch. The 4-5 favorite Flagstaff (Thunder Gulch) made a late run, but United found the wire in time to record a length victory. A $90,000 FTSAUG yearling and $150,000 FTFEB two-year-old, he marks the sixth winner for his freshman sire (by Dixieland Band). Lifetime Record: 3-1-1-0, $35,886. O-Dogwood Stable. Ashado Sizzles in Alabama Prep:

Ashado (Saint Ballado), coming off a win in last month's GI Coaching Club American Oaks, put in her final prep for the Aug. 21 GI Alabama S. between races at Saratoga yesterday, going five furlongs in a rapid :58 3/5. "She was very good," trainer Todd Pletcher said. "I was hoping to work her [today], but the weather looks like it will be a little unreliable. It looked like it would be better to get it in on a fast track." He added, "I figured she would go a little faster in the afternoon, but we're seven days out and she did it easy." Also working at Saratoga for the 10-furlong Alabama yesterday was GII Delaware Oaks heroine Yearly Report (General Meeting), who went six furlongs in 1:11 3/5. "She's ready now," said exercise rider Simon Harris, who was aboard the Bob Baffert trainee for the move. "I think she is one of the nicest fillies I've sat on. She's all class and she does everything right."

Alumni Hall Preps for Saratoga Breeders' Cup:

Five-year-old Alumni Hall (A.P. Indy) didn't make his debut until April, but has now won four of five starts for trainer Neil Howard. The full brother to GI Kentucky Oaks heroine Secret Status goes for his fourth straight victory in the GII Saratoga Breeders' Cup S. next Sunday. He worked six furlongs in 1:17 2/5 over a muddy Saratoga main track yesterday morning. "Going on his pedigree, conformation and the way he acted, we always thought he was a decent horse," Howard said. Explaining his charge's belated debut, he added, "There were no fractures or any injuries that required surgery. He had nagging things that were three steps forward and two steps back. Finally, it all came together with patience."

My Snookie's Boy to Skip Travers:

Trainer Allen Iwinski said yesterday that My Snookie's Boy (Crafty Friend), runner-up in the GI Haskell Invitational H. at Monmouth Aug. 8, will skip the Aug. 28 GI Travers S. and instead head to the Sept. 6 GII Pennsylvania Derby. "I think the [Travers] is going to be much tougher," Iwinski said. "We'd probably be 10-1 [in the Travers] there and one of the favorites for the Pennsylvania Derby. We thought it would be a good business decision to run there."

Jockey Santana Sidelined:

Jockey Jozbin Santana, who was leading the standings with eight wins at the Pimlico meet that began July 31, suffered a hairline fracture to his left leg during a spill at the Maryland track Friday and will be out for four-to-six weeks. The 25-year-old rider was injured when his mount, Trevor's Lucky One, broke down during the sixth race. "He had a small break between the ankle and the knee," said Santana's agent, Paul Plymire. "The doctors told him not to put any weight on the leg for two weeks. He could be back as soon as four weeks, but no longer than six weeks."

FALLON HIGH ON OUIJA Kieren Fallon is looking forward to his ride on Lord Derby's Ouija Board (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) in Wednesday's G1 Yorkshire Oaks at York. The G1 English and Irish Oaks heroine will face a maximum of 11 rivals in the 1 1/2-mile contest, including Godolphin's Punctilious (GB) (Danehill) and His Highness the Aga Khan's Hazarista (Ire) (Barathea {Ire}), who finished second and third respectively in the Curragh Classic last time July 18. "I rode work on her last week and she felt fine," Fallon said. "Hopefully the soft ground will dry out, as if there is any more rain we will be in trouble."

WEATHER WATCH FOR THE CAT Aidan O'Brien is keeping an eye on the weather as he prepares Susan Magnier's One Cool Cat (Storm Cat) for Thursday's G1 Nunthorpe S. at York. With the current wet spell continuing, Sunday's G3 Phoenix Sprint S. winner was reported to be "fine," but the Ballydoyle conditioner will make a last-minute decision as to his participation if the ground does not dry out. "As far as One Cool Cat is concerned it is too early to call," he told the Racing Post. "We have more time to decide with him and wait to see what the ground is like early in the week." One Cool Cat was one of 17 declarations for the five-furlong contest at yesterday's stage, including Airwave (GB) (Air Express {Ire}) and last year's G2 Gimcrack S. and G1 Middle Park S. winner Balmont (Stravinsky).

DAKOTA WILL AWAIT 2005

Top sprinting juvenile Blue Dakota (Ire) (Namid {GB}) will be put away for the season, connections announced yesterday. The G3 Norfolk S. hero lost his unbeaten tag when a disappointing sixth in the G2 Richmond S. at Goodwood last time July 30 and trainer Jeremy Nosedo will rest the colt for a sprinting campaign at three. "We feel that he has had a good solid two-year-old campaign--the highlight of which was his win at Royal Ascot," he said yesterday. "We achieved our goal with him that day. The horse is still growing and maturing. Therefore, with limited opportunities available from now until the end of the season for two-year-olds over five furlongs, it's a good idea with the horse's future in mind to give him a break. He will return as a three-year-old when his first major target will be the G2 King's Stand S."

Gerard Butler saddled Swiss Lake to win this race in 2001 and he unleashed another smart filly in Sumora here. Showing impressive natural speed to wire a well-contested Lingfield maiden on the polytrack on debut July 31, she was reserved towards the rear off the generous early fractions this time. Asked to quicken by Jimmy Fortune passing halfway, she picked up to swamp Right Answer approaching the eighth peg and sprinted clear before being eased to a comfortable score. "It was a very smart performance at Lingfield and she was very good here," Butler said. "She's very professional and she's always been like that at home. She could go for the G2 Flying Childers S. [at Doncaster Sept. 11], but Swiss Lake got beat there so we've got no great plans at the moment."
