GOLDEN OLDIE

Two years after he was edged out in the G1 July Cup, the nine-year-old gelding Bahamian Pirate (Housebuster) grabbed his share of the spoils when beating the relative youngster The Tatling (Ire) (Perugino) by a neck in yesterday's G1 Victor Chandler Nunthorpe S. at York. Helped by the recent heavy rain, the 16-1 chance rewarded jockey Seb Sanders' early persistence by swooping to the lead with 100 yards remaining and grinding out the career-best. "He's decided at nine to become faster than he's ever been in his life," commented trainer David Nicholls, who also took this with dead-heater Ya Malak (GB) in 1997. Cont. p.2

STYLISH SEVEN FOR THE SPINAWAY

Despite being downgraded this season, this afternoon's GII Spinaway S. at Saratoga is not wanting for talent. Michael Tabor, who took the 1999 renewal of this with Circle of Life, is back for another try with

Sense of Style A Coglianesse

Sense of Style (Thunder Gulch), whom he owns in partnership with Derrick Smith. The attractive bay filly, an $800,000 Keeneland September purchase, was bet down to 8-5 for her Aug. 1 bow going 6 1/2 furlongs and did not disappoint, rallying for a 2 1/2-length score over the promising Summer Raven. "I was not surprised with the way she ran in her debut," commented trainer Patrick Biancone. "She had trained well and we liked her very much before that race. [Jockey] Edgar [Prado] gave her a lovely ride. She relaxed well like she did in the morning." Broadway Gold (Seeking the Gold), won her first two career starts, including the June 27 Astoria S., but was most recently the beaten favorite in the GII Schuylerville S. on opening day, finishing fifth behind Classic Elegance (Carson City). She may not have cared for the off going that afternoon and gets a chance to make amends today. Play With Fire (Boundary) looked every bit a 48-1 longshot as she raced 12 lengths off the pace in her July 29 debut. She looked more like 1-5 after charging home a 2 1/4-length winner, with a final sixteenth of a mile in less than six seconds and could be the one to take advantage of a speed duel up front.

The Old Warrior Fights On...

Despite Bahamian Pirate's past glories, he had looked exposed in his old age despite being kept continually on the go. He showed in his 11th outing this term that he retained all his ability when upsetting Balmont (Stravinsky) in a conditions race at Newmarket July 23, but had subsequently disappointed when sixth back on a firm surface in the G3 King George S. at Goodwood last time July 29. "He gave me a great ride and a furlong out I knew if he went through with it, he'd win," explained Sanders. "It was pretty straightforward and I thought I had everything pretty much covered at halfway," Sanders continued. "He loves that soft ground and [trainer] Dandy [Nicholls] said beforehand if he runs up to his best he's got every chance, but they were more hopeful than confident." Nicholls added, "It's marvelous for such an old horse to come back and dig in the ground. He didn't look nine today and he's a grand horse to train." After much deliberation, Aidan O'Brien decided to let the 3-1 pick One Cool Cat (Storm Cat) take his chance and he justified that decision by flashing home late to grab the third spot. "He's only a three-year-old, so Jamie [Spencer] had to nurse him and let him find his way and he came out with as much credit as he could without winning," the trainer said. "He's really a horse you look forward to running now and the G1 Haydock Sprint Cup [Sept. 4] and G1 Prix de l'Abbaye de Longchamp [Oct. 3] are options open to him. I made the wrong decisions to run him at a mile--when we brought him back in trip he showed what he could do." Bahamian Pirate will also now be aimed at the Sprint Cup and Prix de l'Abbaye.

James Fanshawe agonised over whether to let Soar take her chance on this rain-affected track, but he must have wondered why he had deliberated after she made light work of her rivals here. Her previous form has been on a fast surface and she had been far from disgraced when beaten three lengths by subsequent G1 Phoenix S. winner Damson (Ire) in the G2 Queen Mary S. at Royal Ascot June 16. She bounced back to take the G3 Princess Margaret S. back there last time July 24 and was under a three-pound penalty for this. Settled in the rear, Soar quickened through the quagmire to head Salsa Brave at the eighth peg and had it comfortably sewn up in a matter of strides. "You never know how they will handle this ground until they actually race on it," Fanshawe commented. "She'll meet Damson in the G1 Cheveley Park S. [at Newmarket Sept. 30] and hopefully Soar will do the talking there."

Claimed last summer for $30,000, Clever Electrician has improved steadily for trainer Bruce Levine and came from just off the pace to earn his first stakes score here. A five-length winner of an open allowance at Aqueduct on the Wood Memorial undercard Apr. 10, Clever Electrician faltered in his first try at the next level, finishing fourth over the Belmont main oval May 31. The bay bounced back to take a state-bred starter allowance by 6 1/2 easy lengths going 7 1/2 panels downstate June 16 and was coming into this off a third-place effort in allowance company at Belmont July 21. A full brother to graded-stakes winning sprinter Wire Me Collect, Clever Electrician chased pacesetting Uncle Camie from second, took aim on that foe inside the final furlong and was going away late.

Changing World took her turf record to .500 with a pace-pressing score. Eighth in her first attempt over this course last Aug. 16, the bay atoned for that effort with a 4 1/2-length victory just 15 days later before finishing third in the restricted Starine S. over a yielding Belmont turf Sept. 24. In her lone appearance since, the homebred filly recovered from a slow start to take Calder's grassy Frances A. Genter S. Dec. 20. The slight favorite off the lengthy layoff, Changing World stalked a slow early pace over the off going, took command on the far turn, drew clear and held off a late bid from Alchemist.

PRAY FOR ACES (f, 4, Pulpit--Aces {SW, $102,607}, by Housebuster), a $145,000 KEESEP yearling and a $750,000 KEEAPR juvenile purchase, had her career debut postponed until this past winter, when she turned in a rallying fourth-place effort at Gulfstream Park Feb. 25. Sidelined off that effort, the dark bay returned to action over Churchill Downs' one-turn mile, finishing a distant second as the favorite, but was also shelved off that June 20 try. Azeri Sizzles in Work:

Azeri (Jade Hunter) continued her march toward a scheduled start in the Aug. 27 GI Personal Ensign H. with a sparkling workout over the Oklahoma training track Thursday morning. The six-year-old mare, accompanied by regular exercise rider C.T. Lang, covered six furlongs in a crisp 1:11 3/5. "She's something else," said trainer D. Wayne Lukas. "That's mind boggling after the harrow break. Usually I breeze her early in the morning, but today I elected to go later because I wanted to see her all the way around." Commenting on the sluggish nature of the Oklahoma surface, Lukas added, "[Trainer] Nick [Zito] told me that's a world's record on that track. One clocker said he's never seen anything like it." Azeri, who won the GI Apple Blossom H. at Oaklawn earlier this year, most recently defeated Sightseek in the GI Go For Wand H. Aug. 1. "I think I'm getting on the same page with her more a little bit every day," said Lukas. "It always has been a trial-and-error experience. I think I'm learning more about what she likes and dislikes: little subtle things that you do every day with her. I think I am doing a better job with her, frankly."

The following three stallions with 10 or more yearlings catalogued for the Keeneland September sale were inadvertently omitted from the chart accompanying Bill Oppenheim's column in yesterday's TDN. We regret the error.

Jerkens Readies Bowman's Band and Medallist:

Trainer H. Allen Jerkens worked a pair of his stable standouts, Medallist (Touch Gold) and Bowman's Band (Dixieland Band), yesterday over the Saratoga main track. Bowman's Band, who is slated to make his next start in Sunday's GII Saratoga Breeders' Cup H., negotiated seven furlongs in 1:27. "We've been thinking about the race all along," said Jerkens. "We just wanted to give him a final work before this race." The six-year-old most recently ran third in the GI Whitney H. Aug. 7. Also sent out to the main track, stablemate Medallist covered five panels in :59 4/5 and is likely to make his next start in the seven-furlong GI King's Bishop S. Aug. 28. "He's always been a sharp workout horse," commented Jerkens. "Another horse tried to go with him and we decided to slow down Medallist. Otherwise, we would have probably gone with him. He's such a competitive horse." An impressive winner of the May 1 GIII Withers S. and the July 11 GII Dwyer S., Medallist finished fifth in his latest start going two turns for the first time in the GII Jim Dandy S. Aug. 8.

Roses in May Breezes:

Roses in May (Devil His Due), winner of the GI Whitney H. Aug. 7, breezed four furlongs in :48 at Saratoga yesterday morning. "I just wanted him to go out there and stretch his legs," trainer Dale Romans said. "He looked good out there and came back fine. In the meantime, we are going to continue looking at our options for his next race." The four-year-old colt may start next in either the GII Kentucky Cup Classic at Turfway Sept. 28, the GI Jockey Club Gold Cup at Belmont Oct. 2 or the GII Hawthorne Gold Cup at Hawthorne Park Oct. 2.

Canadian Frontier to Questroyal Stud:

GSW Canadian Frontier (Gone West) has been acquired by Questroyal Stud LLC and will stand his first season at stud in New York next year. The five-year-old colt will campaign this fall for his current connections with the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint at Lone Star Oct. 30 as his main goal. His 2005 stud fee will be announced at the conclusion of his racing career. The $325,000 Keeneland September yearling purchase has six wins from 12 starts, with $253,239 in earnings. Winner of Belmont's GIII Bold Ruler H. May 8, he was last seen notching Monmouth's Teddy Drone S. August 8.

Horse Farm Workers' Fund Awards 40 Scholarships:

The Horse Farm Workers' Educational Assistance Fund has awarded 40 annual scholarships for the 2004-05 school year to children of full-time workers on central Kentucky Thoroughbred breeding farms. The scholarships are for education after high school and most are $2,500 a year. "These scholars are a truly amazing group of young people," Rob Whiteley, president of the Fund said. "Our goal is to provide enough money to help these deserving children get to college or a vocational training program without having to work an excessive number of hours away from their studies." Since the Fund's inception in 1996, 248 scholarships averaging nearly $2,000 have been awarded.

LAGARDERE RUMORS DENIED Rumors that the Lagardere Family's breeding operation is to be disbanded have been denied by manager Roland de Longevialle. The speculation had surrounded a story in the French publication L'Express, which suggested that the tax situation surrounding the death of Jean-Luc Lagardere might mean the selling off of the family's interests. De Longevialle reacted to the article at the "Gala des Courses" ceremony on Tuesday evening, where he was picking up the Leading Breeder in France in 2003 Award in honor of the late owner-breeder. "I hope that the Lagardere Breeding operation will live long in its present colors," he said.

Tarakala was rewarded for her consistency throughout this term with a game first stakes score in these testing conditions. Having finished a fine third in the G3 Noblesse S. at Naas June 16, she gave the smart My Renee a battle before finishing a neck second in the Listed Give Thanks S. at Cork last time Aug. 2. Settled in last by Mick Kinane throughout the early stages, she traveled upsides Selebela approaching the three-furlong marker before striking the front soon after and gradually pulling clear of that tiring rival. "They've got to stay and act on that ground, and I went to the front a bit sooner than I would have liked," Kinane explained. "She idled in front, but has done it well."

Polar Bear has been lightly campaigned and needs these conditions, having disappointed when down the field in the Royal Hunt Cup H. at Royal Ascot June 16. He bounced back with an effortless score on his favored soft surface in a Newcastle handicap eight days later on his latest start and was sent off the well-supported 2-1 favorite this time. Held up towards the rear by Tony Culhane throughout the early stages, he had plenty of ground to make up on the runaway leader Welsh Emperor in the closing stages, but produced a rattle to lead in the final stride.

Mamela beat Saldentigerin (Ger) in the G3 Premio Dormello in Milan last October, but had taken time to regain the thread this term. She shaped better when fourth in the Listed Stuten-Meile at Munich last time in July after forcing the pace. Reserved in rear by Dominique Boeuf throughout this contest in a change of tactics, she was switched wide for her run at the top of the straight and lengthened to grab the lead with 100 yards remaining before outgaming Belle Ange in the drive to the line. "She has been training better and better as the season has progressed and last time she raced too keenly in front," explained her trainer Andreas Lowe. "She enjoyed these tactics and the ground was perfect for her."
