THE PERFECT PREP?

The seven runners in the 135th running of the GI Travers S. competed in five different races in their final start before today's $1 million headliner at Saratoga Race Course. Which is the perfect prep? Since 1960, a dozen three-year-olds have used the GI Haskell Invitational H. at Monmouth Park as their springboard to Travers success, while 11 have tried their luck in the GI Jim Dandy S. The GI Swaps S.

Saratoga Start

has been on the Hollywood Park calendar since 1973, but it is only in the last decade that it has gained popularity as a prep for the Midsummer Derby.

A Classic Double?

No less than 56 GI Belmont S. winners have gone on to try their luck in the Travers, and exactly half have completed the double, including Triple Crown winner Whirlaway and greats like Ruthless, Man o'War, Native Dancer, Damascus and Arts and Letters. Point Given was the last to add the accomplishment to his resume in 2001. But, in modern history, no colt has tried to go straight from the Belmont to the Travers without a prep. Can Birdstone (Grindstone) break that streak? Trainer Nick Zito is not concerned about the layoff since his last start.

Birdstone Horsephotos

"That's how he runs his best races," Zito, who also saddles The Cliff's Edge (Gulch), second in the Aug. 8 Jim Dandy; and Sir Shackleton (Miswaki), who will try to become the first to use the GIII West Virginia Derby as his Midsummer Derby prep. The pressure of having three starters in a million-dollar event is starting to build for Zito. "I'm starting to feel it, but...you've got to enjoy these things," he said. "I hope I'm doing the same thing next year and every year until I retire. It's an up-and-down game--you've got to know when it's your turn. Yeah, there's pressure, but be thankful these horses are in there and they're OK." Travers cont. p2

STORM FLAG FLYING STUNS AZERI

Pace does make the race. Benefitting from blistering splits, Storm Flag Flying (Storm Cat) overcame odds-on Azeri (Jade Hunter) to take the GI Personal Ensign H., a race named for her peerless granddam, at Saratoga yesterday afternoon. "It's a great thrill to be rewarded this way," said winning trainer Shug McGaughey, who was inducted into the Hall of Fame earlier this month. "To come back and be able to win a big race at Saratoga--especially after all we went through with her in her three-year-old year. It kind of fell in our lap here today with the fast fractions. You can't take anything away from Azeri; what a race she ran." Personal Ensign cont. p4

Travers cont.

Fine and Dandy...

Of the 11 sophomores that have gone from the Jim Dandy to Travers victory, five have won both races.

Purge Adam Coglianese

Todd Pletcher, who finished third with Jim Dandy hero Strong Hope in last year's running of the 10-furlong test, will try to complete the double with Purge (Pulpit) this year. "He ran so well in the Jim Dandy--I hope he can duplicate it," said the meet's leading trainer, who bids for his first Travers score. "It was as good as any three-year-old has run all year." But the connections of The Cliff's Edge (Gulch), runner-up in the Jim Dandy, and Eddington (Unbridled), who was third that afternoon, are hoping to follow in the hoofsteps of the six who improved on their Jim Dandy efforts on Travers day. "Hopefully [Purge] will regress a little bit," said Eddington's trainer, Mark Hennig. "If he regresses and we move forward, maybe we can make a race of it."

From the Jersey Shore to a Travers Score...

The last three Travers winners who shipped to the Haskell for their final prep--Point Given (2001), Coronado's Quest (1998) and Holy Bull (1994)--were victorious at Monmouth Park as well. Lion Heart (Tale of the Cat) looks more than capable of adding his name to that list. With jockey Joe Bravo aboard, the chestnut led every step of the way in his last start, but trainer Patrick Biancone maintains that his speed is now under control. "Before, we couldn't really handle him," Biancone said. "He wanted to do everything his own way. Now he does everything our way. He's a lot more mature." He added, "He's a tough horse. Not many horses have his speed and stamina." Nick Zito agrees. "I don't see Lion Heart throwing in the towel soon, even if Purge goes with him," he said. "But, we hope when the smoke clears, we're lucky enough to have one of ours win."

KING FOR A DAY

The 20th running of the GI King's Bishop S. at Saratoga this afternoon brings together some of the nation's top sophomore sprinters, including the top three finishers of the local prep, the GII Amsterdam S.

Aug. 7--Bwana Charlie (Indian Charlie), Pomeroy (Boundary) and Weigelia (Safely's Mark)--as well as the fleet Medallist (Touch Gold), who cuts back to seven furlongs after failed assay in the GII Jim Dandy S. Aug. 8. Medallist had blazed his way downstate in the GIII Withers S. May 1 and the GII Dwyer S. July 11, putting up 110 and 112 Beyer Speed

Figures in those respective races while defeating the likes of Forest Danger, The Cliff's Edge and Sir Shackleton. But the handsome bay folded when sent two turns in the Jim Dandy, and trainer Allen Jerkens made the call to go back to sprinting. Medallist has drawn the rail. "He runs so fast you wonder how he could lose a sprint race," said Jerkens, who has already saddled Society Selection to victories in the Test and Alabama at this meeting. "It looks like he'll have some company, but if they're able to do it, hopefully he'll be able to do it."

Medallist Horsephotos

Among the recent winners of the King's Bishop are Eclipse champ Squirtle Squirt (2001) and leading young sires More Than Ready (2000), Forestry (1999), Tale of the Cat (1997) and Honour and Glory (1996).

Where There's Smoke...

Fire Slam (Grand Slam) had some success at two turns, winning the GIII Lecomte S. Jan. 24 and finishing second in the GII Lexington S. Apr. 17, but has shone since being remodeled as a sprinter. The powerfully built colt defeated Cuvee by 5 1/4 lengths in the Matt Winn S. May 8 and was a hard-fought winner of the GII Riva Ridge Breeders' Cup S. June 5 before overcoming his elders in the Don Bernhardt S. July 24. Trainer David Carroll is hoping a hot pace develops for his charge. "He's got an explosive kick," Carroll said. "It's not a long kick--probably about three sixteenths. His punch is very effective, but I don't want to get into a head-to-head battle with Medallist. I'd prefer to run right by him with 100 yards to go."

☆ RESULTS ☆

CHAMPIONS DAY AT THE SPA Storm Flag Flying (Storm Cat) and Azeri (Jade Hunter) both reigned as queens of the 2002 Breeders' Cup. Azeri concluded her Horse of the Year campaign with a Distaff victory, while Storm Flag Flying's future seemed limitless after an unbeaten, championship season was capped by triumph in the Juvenile Fillies. But 2003 proved anti-climactic for the Phipps homebred, who failed to win in two starts at three and spent most of the year on the sidelines with a small fracture in her right hind cannon bone. After returning with a win in a Gulfstream optional claimer in February, the dark bay was third in the GII Distaff Breeders' Cup H. Mar. 27 before getting her picture taken in the GII Shuvee H. May 15. She was second--with Azeri fourth--in the GI Ogden Phipps H. June 19 at Belmont, then ran third to the two-time Eclipse Champion Older Mare in the GI Go for Wand H. Aug. 1.

Pace 101...

When the gates sprang open, Roar Emotion (Roar) bounced out quickly to set the pace under Jerry Bailey, and Pat Day proved unable to get 3-5 Azeri to settle into an easy rhythm 1 1/2 lengths behind in second. Roar Emotion raced along with fractions of :23.15 and :46.26, but Azeri moved to her throatlatch through three-quarters in 1:09.78, and Roar Emotion began to drop back at the head of the lane. But Storm Flag Flying, seven lengths behind on the backstretch, advanced on the far turn and came up to head Azeri with a flourish to go. Though the six-year-old valiantly tried to stave off her younger rival, Storm Flag Flying switched back to her right lead late and drew clear in the final strides. The two could meet again, perhaps even before the Breeders' Cup. "The Breeders' Cup Distaff [Oct. 30] is where we want to go, and I could train her up to it," McGaughey said. "We'll wait and see how she comes out. We'll see how the Beldame [GI, Oct. 9] and Spinster [GI, Oct. 10] shake out." According to Azeri's trainer D. Wayne Lukas, the latter is the next stop for the chestnut. "We'll bring her back to Kentucky for the Spinster at Keeneland," he confirmed. Lukas was pleased with Azeri's effort. "I felt she ran a strong race," he said. "Pat got into the race a little more than what we would have wanted; she was trying to run and he let her run. I'm not critical of that. It came down to two champions."

Soldier Hollow is picking up where he left off when winning the G3 Dr. Busch-Memorial at Krefeld last April and injuring himself when fourth in the G2 Mehl-Mulhens-Rennen (German 2000 Guineas) at Cologne the following month. After finishing runner-up to Aubonne (Ger) in the G3 La Coupe at Longchamp June 17, he returned to winning ways in the G3 Hessen Pokal at Frankfurt last time July 18 and defied a subsequent penalty to follow up here. Settled in a stalking role early by William Mongil, he was committed at the top of the straight, where the French challenger Glavalcour (Fr) (Glaieul) clipped heels and fell, bringing down Rajpute (Ger) (Deploy {GB}) in the process. Always in control in the final eighth, Soldier Hollow was driven out to hold the fast-finishing Longridge and Morbidezza. Click here for the Racing Post chart.

Ay Caramba beat subsequent GII Inglewood H. winner Leroidesanimaux (Brz) in a Group 1 event going a mile on the grass at Gavea in June Of 2003, but ended his Brazilian stint with a sixth-place effort in a 10-furlong Group 1 run over a heavy turf last September. He made his U.S. bow after a 9 1/2-month absence, closing from off the pace to take a July 5 Churchill allowance test, and makes his American stakes bow here. Christine's Outlaw was second by a neck to Gulch Approval in his first try on the turf, a Belmont allowance race going seven furlongs June 5, before disposing that condition 15 days later. The dark bay was dismissed at 13-1 in his latest, the July 10 GIII Poker H., but led from gate to wire to take it by a neck. Gulch Approval followed that score with victories in the July 17 Elkwood S. and the Aug. 8 GIII Oceanport H. at Monmouth Park and is now three-for-three on the lawn. Silver Tree tired to be third in the Poker, but rebounded with a game neck tally over Nothing to Lose in the July 30 GII Bernard Baruch H. going nine furlongs over this course, and is a perfect two-for-two at the Fourstardave distance.

Nayyir returns to the scene of his finest domestic efforts when successful in the G2 Lennox S. last July and second in the G1 Sussex S. last time July 28. He had Hurricane Alan back in seventh when going down by only a neck to Soviet Song (Ire) in the Sussex over course and distance and should confirm that form on his favored soft surface. But trainer Gerard Butler has warned that heavy ground may mean that Nayyir will be scratched. "I have walked the course myself and the jockeys are talking about it being very testing," he told PA Sport yesterday. "The horse does not want extremes of going, neither too hard or too soft. They say they are not forecast to get any more rain and obviously I hope that is the case, but looking up at the sky, I could not be sure it will be dry." Chic put a string of disappointments firmly behind her when taking the G3 Hungerford S. in authoritative style over seven furlongs at Newbury last time Aug. 14, but connections are wary of risking her on the testing conditions. "It's difficult to say whether she will run, because we are waiting to see what happens with the weather," owner/breeder Cheveley Park Stud's Managing Director Chris Richardson told PA Sport yesterday. "I think that she will be fine stepping back up to a mile, but if the ground is testing, it's not ideal." Passing Glance took the G3 Diomed S. at Epsom June 5 before finding the competition too hot in the Sussex, but shaped better when fourth behind subsequent G1 International S. runner-up Norse Dancer (Ire) in the G3 Sovereign S. at Salisbury last time Aug. 12. He bids to go one better than 12 months ago, when he was denied by a head by Priors Lodge (Ire) in this race.

The winner of the 2003 Gill Dance Smartly H. at Woodbine last July, Madeira Mist raced nine times in the following nine months, adding victories in the George Rosenberger Memorial S. in September and the Feb. 10 Endeavour S. at Tampa Bay. Runner-up in that track's Gill Hillsborough H. Mar. 14, the homebred mare finally earned some well-deserved rest following a third-place effort to Intercontinental (GB) in the Gill Jenny Wiley S. at Keeneland Apr. 18. Favored off the layoff, Madeira Mist stalked a moderate pace from third, came out three wide at the quarter pole and wore down a game Finery for the win.

going this distance at Santa Anita Mar. 13 before switching to the turf to register a neck victory Apr. 18.
The $200,000 KEESEP yearling purchase was most recently a troubled fourth racing over the Hollywood grass course May 19 and was dispatched the 8-5 favorite in her return to the main track. A half sister to Saint Marden (Saint Ballado), GSW, $159,800, the chestnut was outsprinted in the early going before rallying on the turn. Five wide into the stretch, the Florida-bred filly assumed command at the eighth pole and went on to defeat Deputy Squealie (Deputy Minister) by two lengths. Lifetime Record: 4-2-0-1, $64,080.

6th-SAR, $46,000, Msw, 2yo, 8.5fT, 1:42 3/5, fm.
APOLLO JONES (c, 2, Cape Canaveral--Sister Jones, by Saratoga Six) made his first three starts on the main track, finishing fourth in his June 18 at Belmont Park, second at Delaware Park July 5 and fifth, placed fourth, in a Monmouth maiden July 17. In his most recent start, the bay stretched out to two turns over the local turf course and pressed the early pace before settling for third. Adding blinkers for this one as the 9-5 chalk, he set a good pace on the front end, led by as many as six in the stretch, but was fully extended to best Veiled Speed (Runaway Groom) by three-parts of a length. He becomes the seventh winner for his freshman sire (by Mr. Prospector). Lifetime Record: 5-1-1-1, $42,800. O-Robert J Sullivan. B-Ships Helm Stable et al (KY). T-Vincent L Blengs.

4th-SAR, $46,000, Msw, 2yo, f, 8.5fT, 1:43 3/5, fm.
MADISON DOLLIE (f, 2, Forest Wildcat--La Samanna, by Tremolino), fifth at 3-1 in a 4 1/2-furlong Keeneland maiden Apr. 21, set the pace before weakening to third in a six-furlong grass test at Belmont Park July 9. Connections saw fit to try stakes company off that effort and the gray completed the trifecta in the off-the-turf Tippett S. at Colonial Downs July 25. Getting two turns for this attempt, the 2-1 favorite settled just behind the pacesetter, advanced to lead on the far turn, drew clear and held off a late run from Misinformer (Dynaformer) to win by a neck. The winner was a $37,000 KEENOV weanling and $102,000 KEESep yearling purchase. Lifetime Record: SP, 4-1-0-2, $38,630. O-Todd A Pletcher & Michael Cagnina. B-Fred Seitz (KY). T-Todd A Pletcher.

2nd-SAR, $41,000, Msw, (S), 2yo, f, 5.5f, 1:05 1/5, ft.
+ FIXED AMOUNT (f, 2, Precise End--Gringo Money, by Green Forest) registered a pace-pressing victory to become the fifth winner for her freshman sire (by End Sweep). The lesser fancied of the two runners for her sire in this heat, she breezed a half mile from the gate over the Saratoga main track in :48 Aug. 19 and was sent off at debut odds of 8-1. With the pace three wide, the chestnut poked a head in front turning for home and responded nicely when asked, crossing the line 4 1/4 lengths to the good of Cathy's Choice (Lion Cavern). Favored The End Is Clear (Precise End) was third. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $24,600. O-Mary & Chester Broman Sr. B-Chester & Mary R Broman (NY). T-Ramon M Hernandez.

Heckle Returns:

Graded stakes winner Heckle (Hennessy) will make his first start in 13 months in today's fifth race, a seven-furlong N2X allowance at Saratoga. The grey colt won two of three starts last year in the colors of Dogwood Stable, including the Gill Tremont S., but has not been out since stumbling at the start and finishing last in the Gill Sanford S. July 24. Jockey John Velazquez has the mount for trainer Todd Pletcher.

★ CENTRAL ★

'Ali Versus Jimi Lee in Arlington Sprint:

The way Rob Lloyd sees it, why run against Speightstown, Clock Stopper and Cajun Beat if you don't absolutely have to. After toying with the idea of sending Gill Smile Sprint H. Champali (Glitterman) to Saratoga for the GI Forego H. next week, Lloyd, who manages the Lloyd Madison Farms syndicate--owner of Champali--and trainer Greg Foley decided on a shorter ship to Chicago for this significantly easier event. "It would have been nice to go after a Grade I, but we thought this was the more sensible option," Rob Lloyd, who manages the Lloyd Madison Farms syndicate, told Daily Racing Form. "He'll have one more race after this and that might be tough enough, wherever that is. Then hopefully we'll be off to the Breeders' Cup." Locally based Coach Jimi Lee (Roar) looms the lone threat to the favorite. Four-for-six at Arlington, the chestnut comes into this off a half-length score in the Iowa Sprint H., where he stopped the timer in 1:07 4/5 for the six furlongs.

LOUISIANA SKY (f, 3, Conquistador Cielo--Louisiana Purchase, by Pleasant Colony) debuted going nine furlongs over the Ellis turf course, splitting the field in a fifth-place finish Aug. 13. Switched to the main track for this attempt, the $77,000 KEESep yearling purchase easily made the early lead, was briefly headed at the half-mile pole, but quickly regained the advantage and went on to a three-length victory over odds-on Freedom Fries (French Deputy). Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $15,083. O-P Van Anandel. B-Ralph C D'Arge (KY). T-John Hennig.

 + DR. SOCRATES (c, 2, Wild Wonder--Roses for Regina, by Stacked Pack), a $7,500 OBSAUG yearling and $25,000 OBSAPR two-year-old in training purchase, was made the 7-2 third choice by the Woodbine faithful. Sent up to track even-money Radical Right (Metfield) from second, the bay colt drew alongside that rival with a furlong to run and went on to score by 3/4 of a length. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $34,200. O-Hamdelue Stable. B-Double Brook Farm (FL). T-Gregory de Gannes.

ELUSIVE THUNDER (c, 2, Thunder Gulch--Be Elusive {SW & GSP, $144.151}, by With Approval), a $75,000 KEESEP yearling, was last of 12 in his Independence Day bow sprinting over this main track, but improved nicely in his first two-turn voyage July 31, finishing fourth after setting the pace. Well backed to continue his progress, the chestnut colt alternated on the front end with Another Dilemma (Sword Dance {Ire}), took a narrow lead into the stretch and outgamed his rival to win by a neck as the 3-1 third choice. A Woodman half brother to the winner sells Sept. 21 at Keeneland. Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-0, $24,420. O-Winged Foot Stables. B-Hopewell Investments Llc (KY). T-Derek S Ryan.

Trainer Warren Stute was taken to Scripps Memorial Hospital Friday morning with stroke-like symptoms. The 83-year-old conditioner was accompanied to the hospital by his younger brother Mel and his son Glen. No further details were available at press time.

Shins Force Inspiring to Stop:

Unbeaten Inspiring (Golden Missile) will be out of training for 60 days due to sore shins, according to Daily Racing Form. Owned by Robert and Beverly Lewis, the chestnut posted a sharp victory in the GII Sorrento S. West Nile Claims Racehorse:

California Horse Racing Board officials have confirmed that Quick Nip (Whiskey Wisdom) was euthanized Aug. 10 at Golden Gate Fields after the five-year-old mare was infected with the West Nile Virus. Claimed for $12,500 out of a winning effort May 30 at Hollywood Park, Quick Nip had not raced since finishing sixth at that track July 9. Though infected horses are not contagious, owners and trainers are urged to maintain vaccination schedules. "Two excellent weapons we have against this disease are mosquito control and two USDA fully licensed equine vaccines," said Dr. Annette Whiteford, director of Animal Health & Food Safety Services with the California Department of Food and Agriculture. "We urge horse owners to consult with their veterinary practitioners to make certain that the vaccination status of their horse is current. It is also very important to remember that a horse infected with the West Nile Virus is not contagious. The horse does not amplify the virus sufficiently to infect and enable biting mosquitoes to spread the disease to other horses or humans." Information on the disease is available on <http://www.cdc.gov/ncidod/dvbid/westnile/index.htm>.

STEVENS SIGNS UP FOR FAREWELL RIDES

Gary Stevens was back in winning action at Deauville yesterday, just three days after announcing his departure from France. After announcing that he would see out the Deauville festival, which finishes tomorrow, the Hall of Famer took the Listed Prix du Haras de la Huderie on Stop Making Sense (GB) (Lujain). His five-month stint with Andre Fabre will be complete when he partners Martaline (GB) (Linamix {Fr}) in the G2 Grand Prix de Deauville, while he has also signed up for a spare ride on British raider The Kiddykid (Ire) (Danetime {GB}) in the G3 Prix de Meautry on the undercard.

Saturday, Clairefontaine, post time: 3:05 p.m.

Gary Stevens decided to see out the final weekend of the Deauville festival and found a perfect parting shot in Stop Making Sense in this contest. Third at Fontainebleau on his debut June 9, he broke his maiden at Clairefontaine July 30 and duly followed up in his first try at stakes level. Settled last of the five runners early, he made smooth progress down the outside of the pack and galloped to the head of affairs passing the quarter pole. Strongly pressed by Molto Bello in the closing stages, he found extra to hold that rival's game rally. "He's a very good colt," Stevens said. "He wandered about at Clairefontaine when he got in front too early and again today when he was left in front. He is a hold-up horse with a quick turn of foot and I think he'll get 10 furlongs eventually."

Deauville, 2.05, Mdn, €18,000, unraced 2yo, c/g, 7fT, 1:32.19, vsf.

+ BIRTHSTONE (GB) (f, 2, Machiavellian--Baya {GSW & G1SP-Fr, $201,022}, by Nureyev), a 231-10 outsider sporting the owner's second colors, was reserved off the pace in rear for most of this debut run. Making rapid headway on the outside with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining, she was still four lengths off the lead with 100 meters to go, but found an extra gear in the latter stages to deny long-time pacesetter Torte (Ire) (Grand Lodge) by a half length in the final strides. Lifetime Record: 1 start, 1 win, €15,500.
