IT'S A BIRDIE!

The critics said he couldn't do it, and the bettors weren't entirely convinced that Marylou Whitney's Birdstone (Grindstone), unraced in the 84 days since his stirring victory in the GI Belmont S. June 5, could win the GI Travers S. But with a three-wide move at the quarter pole, the little engine that could stole away to a clear lead past the midstretch marker and went on to register a 2 1/2-length victory over his stable-

mate The Cliff's Edge

(Gulch). "Those two horses were really great today," said trainer Nick Zito. "Birdstone proved how great he is, coming off the layoff. They ran slow up front, but we were still able to run them down." The victory was the first in the $1-million event for Zito, who had been shut out in his previous 11 attempts. Travers cont. p2

POMEROY POUNCES TO TAKE KING'S BISHOP

Michael Tabor and Derrick Smith's Pomeroy (Boundary) sat just in behind a speed duel up front then charged through a mammoth opening turning for home en route to a 1 1/2-length victory over Weigelia

Pomeroy Horsephotos

(Safely's Mark) in the GI King's Bishop S. It was the second victory in the King's Bishop for Tabor, who took the event in 1996 with Honour and Glory when it was run as a Grade II. Favored Medallist (Touch Gold) was off slowly, rushed up to make the lead, but faltered in the stretch to finish second last. "He ran good going into the turn and then he tried to come out," said his jockey Jorge Chavez. "There was nothing I could do." King's Bishop cont. p3

and got up in time to defeat Silver Tree (Hennessy) in yesterday's GI Fourstardave H. at the Spa. It was the first victory of the year for the four-year-old, who was coming into yesterday's event off a tough-luck defeat at the hands of Silver Tree in the GI Bernard Baruch H. July 30. "We got lucky," said the winning rider. "We could have got shut off and got beat. The horse ran really, really well. It was nice turning the tables on Silver Tree." Fourstardave cont. p5

A Harbinger of Things to Come...

There was no more impressive maiden winner at the 2003 Saratoga meeting than Birdstone, who splashed through the mud to win by a whopping 12 1/2-length margin at first asking last Aug. 2. The next logical step was the GI Hopeful S. four weeks later, but the bay lacked the same turn of foot that carried him to his maiden score and he could do no better than fourth, some 6 1/2 lengths behind Silver Wagon. The half brother to 2003 GI Kentucky Oaks and Eclipse Award winner Bird Town regrouped off that effort and came from just off the pace to register his first success at the highest level in the Oct. 4 Champagne S., but Zito decided not to go on to the Breeders' Cup and instead put the colt away with an eye on 2004.

A Start and Stop Campaign...

The three-length winner of his sophomore bow at Gulfstream on Valentine's Day, Birdstone was sent to Kentucky for the GII Lane's End S. Mar. 20, but the colt struggled mightily over a sealed main track and was fifth as the 3-5 chalk. The GI Toyota Blue Grass was to be next on the agenda, but the homebred developed a high white blood count two days before the Apr. 10 test and was scratched. Entered in the Kentucky Derby without the benefit of a prep, Birdstone was eighth, inspiring in his trainer the necessary confidence to point for the Belmont.

Party Crasher...

The rest, as they say, is history. Before a crowd in excess of 120,000 on the first Saturday in June, Birdstone kept close contact with the pace, hoping that would-be Triple Crown hero Smarty Jones would be softened up by his early efforts. And that he was. Birdstone, with Edgar Prado up, rallied four wide into the stretch, took aim on Smarty Jones and went on to dash the dreams of the Thoroughbred world, winning by a length. But surely he couldn't win the $1-million Midsummer Derby off this kind of layoff...or could he?

Threatening Skies, But a Happy Result...

No, those weren't cameras going off as the field for the Travers was sent on its 10-furlong journey, but rather flashes of lightning from a menacing thunderstorm which rolled into Saratoga. Lion Heart (Tale of the Cat) got off to a sluggish beginning, but led the field past the stands for the first time, covering the opening two furlongs in a pedestrian :24.48. GII Jim Dandy S. winner Purge (Pulpit) stalked the leader from second while Eddington (Unbridled) was a ground-saving third. Birdstone found himself just a half dozen lengths off Lion Heart's easy half mile of :49.15 and took even closer order after six furlongs in 1:12.82. Asked to accelerate approaching the quarter pole, Birdstone was pulled out three wide, assumed command at the three-sixteenths pole and was going away at the finish. The Cliff's Edge, who found himself closer to the front as a result of the slow pace, put in a strong move on the far turn, but was no match for the winner. Trainer Patrick Biancone was perplexed following the last-place finish of favored Lion Heart. "He quit too early. I don't know what else until I see him." Added jockey Joe Bravo, "He rated good and nice. He felt good, pole to pole. Then he started shortening his stride."

The First Family of Saratoga...

The Whitney family had been represented by just one winner of Saratoga's marquee event, when Chompion carried the eton blue silks of C.V. Whitney to victory in 1968. For his widow, yesterday was the completion of a fairy tale. "I can't believe it's true. It's like a dream come true," Marylou Whitney commented. "I always wanted to see my colors on that canoe out there [on the infield lake]. It was so wonderful to see my colors at the Belmont on the jockey, but now the canoe." She was effusive in her praise for her trainer. "I am so thrilled with the way Nick brought this horse up. He's the doctor, he did a brilliant job of training this horse."

Put away for the winter after getting disqualified from first in the GIII Kentucky Cup Juvenile, Pomeroy returned with a runner-up effort in the GIII Gotham S. at Aqueduct Mar. 20, but ran fourth in the GII Coolmore Lexington S. Apr. 17 at Keeneland, causing his connections to re-focus on sprinting. He came back to wire his foes by four lengths in the GIII Jersey Shore Breeders' Cup S. June 26 before settling for a narrow second to Bwana Charlie (Indian Charlie) in the GII Amsterdam S. Aug. 7 over this surface. With a bullet half-mile drill in :46 4/5 under his belt and blinkers off, the handsome colt recovered from an awkward start to race in fourth, then mounted his challenge on the turn as favored Medallist (Touch Gold) began to back up. He struck the front in midstretch, staved off Weigelia's valiant bid and edged away to win the nation's premier sprint for three-year-olds. "He may be a very good sprinter next year," said winning trainer Patrick Biancone. "Now, I enjoy champagne." Sweet Catomine, second to She's Salty (Salt Lake) in a 5 1/2-furlong maiden July 31, overcame a rough start and charged home with good energy to win the GI Del Mar Debutante. It is the second time in the last four years that the race has been won by a previously winless horse, following the victory of Cindy's Hero in 2000. In that debut effort, the Wygod homebred was forced to endure a wide trip for most of the journey, but did well to be runner-up, five lengths behind She's Salty. With a huge six-furlong breeze in 1:12 Aug. 22 under her belt, she and stablemate Proposed (Benchmark), a full sister to GI Santa Anita Oaks winner Silent Sighs, were sent off the 8-5 favorite, despite their status as maidens. Sweet Catomine hopped at the start and caboosed the field after a quarter mile. She began to advance wide on the turn and into the lane and overhauled Souvenir Gift in the waning strides. "She's backwards, training-wise, because she's so big," said winning trainer Julio Canani. "I haven't trained this winner hard because she's so big. As a three-year-old, I think she'll be a very nice filly." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Silver Tree had gotten the best of Nothing to Lose in their last two meetings, but a heady ride by leading jockey Johnny Velazquez made all the difference here. Nothing to Lose closed out his three-year-old season with a win in the Gill Palm Beach S. while making his final start for trainer D. Wayne Lukas. Sent out west to Bobby Frankel's shedrow, he finished second in the Gill San Marcos S. Jan. 19, then ran sixth in the Gill Mervin Muniz Jr. H. Mar. 21 at the Fair Grounds, a race in which Silver Tree finished eighth as the 2-1 favorite. He faced off with that rival again in a $100,000 optional claimer at Belmont June 16, but proved second best. Overlooked at 11-1 in the GI United Nations S. July 3, the bay colt ran a career best 106 Beyer Speed Figure while third. Pegged as the chalk in his most recent start, he finished second, beaten a neck by Silver Tree in the Gill Bernard Baruch H. July 30. The crowds' choice to get it right here, he rated kindly in midpack, split rivals in the stretch, then shot through on the inside to outkick the second-place finisher to the wire. "If he doesn't try to get through, he probably doesn't win the race," trainer Bobby Frankel said. "Silver Tree has beaten me twice. The last time we ran, I thought I had the best horse, but he got bumped pretty good. This time, he had the best trip and get through."

Chic has long been held in high regard by connections and looked to be on her way to justifying that opinion in the June 16 G2 Windsor Forest S. at Royal Ascot when she was almost brought down. She suffered more bad luck when third in the G3 Oak Tree S. at Goodwood July 30, but it all came together with a fluid score in the G3 Hungerford S. over seven furlongs at Newbury last time Aug. 14. Despite fears that the rain-softened ground might stretch her stamina back at a mile here, she allayed all concerns with a devastating late kick to swoop from last to first under Kieren Fallon. Despite looking beaten approaching the quarter pole as Nayyir was committed by Mick Kinane, she picked up in dramatic fashion to reel in the favorite in the final strides for the career best. "They went very quick and she couldn't go with them," Fallon explained. "I've always said this is a very good filly and she's proved it today to be able to come from as far back as she did. She works like a Group 1 horse at home and her work in the spring was very good. We always thought that she was going to be a better four-year-old and she has progressed." Soaring Free's lone previous defeat in seven starts over his home turf course came last year, when he came within a half length of winning the GI Atto Mile. That Sept. 19 event is squarely in the crosshairs after the Sam-Son homebred found another gear in the stretch and went on to a second consecutive victory in the Play The King. A respectable fifth in the GI Breeders' Cup Mile last October, the dark bay returned to action with a 1 1/2-length victory in the Apr. 10 Shakertown S. at Keeneland prior to an eighth in the GIII Maryland Breeders' Cup H. on the Pimlico main track May 15. Odds-on in his last three, he took a six-furlong grass allowance June 6, added a 2 1/4-length win in the GIII Highlander H. three weeks later and most recently defended his title in the Ontario Jockey Club S. July 24. With the pace three wide, Soaring Free edged to the front in upper stretch and dug in gamely for the win. "He's pretty good right now," said trainer Mark Frostad. "It will take a helluva horse to beat him in the Atto." Click for the brisnet.com chart.

With only a Pimlico maiden score to his credit, Evil Minister was sent off the longest shot on the board, but he belied his odds with a rallying score. The chestnut made his debut at Monmouth in June, but broke slowly and could do no better than fourth. He improved sharply in his second start, cruising to a 2 3/4-length win Aug. 1, and 33-year-old trainer Erik Juvonen decided to give him a shot in the Sapling. "After that race, my horse was noticeably different," the Maryland-based horseman said. "He knows what this is all about now." Rated at the back of the pack through a rapid opening quarter yesterday, the juvenile moved closer as they hit the quarter pole, then angled outside and ran down Tyro S. winner Park Avenue Ball for the victory. "This is great," Juvonen said. "It's great to win races for the guys that own Namcook Stables LLC. I'm a young guy, not proven like someone like Todd Pletcher, but they were willing to invest $200,000 in this colt and then to give him to me. I can't tell you how much I appreciate that." The principal partner in Namcook is retired Fleet Bank CEO Terry Murray.

Runner-up to Putra Pekan (GB) over an extended mile in the Listed Royal Windsor S. at this track May 10, Ancient World followed up with an impressive success in the valuable William Hill Mile handicap at Goodwood July 30. He was unable to go with the flow last time when eighth of 12 behind Norse Dancer (Ire) in the G3 Sovereign S. at Salisbury Aug. 12, but was more adept here as he battled to a decisive victory from the game-as-ever Gateman. Settled in a share of fourth behind leader A One (Ire) (Alzao) from the gate, the winner took closer order as Gateman went to the lead with three furlongs remaining. Sent to the front inside the quarter-mile marker, Ancient World ran on strongly in the closing stages despite a slight tendency to drift right and was always holding Gateman to record a career-first stakes win. "He is getting better with every race and has been really relaxed since we gelded him," winning trainer Saeed bin Suroor told PA Sport. "He was not upset and sweating, as he has sometimes been in the past. We will keep him in training next year and we will probably give him one more run before the end of this season. This mile and a quarter is his trip, and he liked the soft ground."

Never worse than third in his eight previous trips to the post, Organ Grinder had to work for it, but got his head down on the wire to complete a very successful afternoon for his sire. The runner-up in last year's GII Grey Breeders' Cup S. at Woodbine, the gray returned to action with a third-place effort in a six-furlong allowance in Toronto May 1. Second to Judiths Wild Rush in the May 22 GIII Marine S., he took the Victoria Park S. by six lengths June 13, came back on 14 days' rest to be second in a second-level allowance at Woodbine and was coming into this off a 1 3/4-length allowance success at that oval July 25. Content to settle in midpack while saving ground, Organ Grinder came out three wide with three furlongs to race, took aim on Controlled Meeting inside the final eighth of a mile and prevailed after a hard drive.

Six fillies have won Saratoga's premier sprint race for three-year-olds, the GI Test S., prior to taking this event, and Lady Tak looks to complete the double this afternoon. Following her career-best 110 Beyer in the Test, the chestnut was second in the GI Gazelle H. and seventh in the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff to close out her sophomore season. Two-for-four this term, including a 3/4-length victory in the May 22 Winning Colors H. at Churchill, she comes into this off a third in the GII Princess Rooney H. in South Florida July 10. Harmony Lodge seeks to become just the second mare to go back-to-back in the Ballerina. The six-year-old added wins in the GII Gallant Bloom H. last October and this year's GIII Shirley Jones H. Feb. 8, but is winless in four tries since, including a last-of-six effort in the Princess Rooney. "She had an inside post [in the Princess Rooney] and wasn't quite quick enough to get there," trainer Todd Pletcher explained. "She's come out of it well and has trained well up here. I think she's back on her 'A' game." Owned by Eugene and Laura Melnyk, Harmony Lodge has three wins from four starts at Saratoga. My Trusty Cat, winner of the seven-furlong GIII Chicago Breeders' Cup H. in June, successfully cut back in distance to win the GII Honorable Miss H. Aug. 6 going three-quarters and should appreciate the added ground today.

Moscow Burning, who captured Belmont Park's GII Sheepshead Bay H. at this distance, takes on the boys after back-to-back second-place finishes in the June 27 GII Beverly Hills H. at Hollywood and the July 24 GI John C. Mabee H. at Del Mar. The four-year-old has been first or second in 13 of her 16 career starts.

Dimitrova will also try her luck against colts. The winner of the American Oaks and the GI Flower Bowl Invitational H. last season, the bay ended the year with a 12th-place finish in the GI Breeders' Cup F/M Turf and has been fourth in all three tries this term, missing by three lengths in the May 31 GI Gamely Breeders' Cup H., then taking a short break before returning to run 2 1/4 lengths behind Musical Chimes in the Mabee. Star Over the Bay, claimed for $80,000 after a victory at Hollywood in May, was beaten a neck in the June 19 Dallas Turf Cup H. at Lone Star Park in his first start under new management. Off at 3-1 in the July 18 GI Sunset H. at Hollywood Park, the six-year-old gelding led every step and held on gallantly to beat Continuously by a nose. "He's a fun horse to train," said Mike Mitchell, who also starts Murano, who was claimed for $62,500 after a victory at Del Mar last time out Aug. 14. "He doesn't do a thing wrong. He's a lamb in the stall, but when he gets out there on the track, he's all business." Continuously, second in four of his last five starts, looks for his first score since taking an allowance at the track and trip last July. He was third, beaten just a half length, in this test last year. Sarafan is the horse for this course, with four wins from five Del Mar turf starts. The seven-year-old comes off a win over Gene de Campeao and Outta Here in the Aug. 4 Escondido H. at the Del Mar H. distance.

All carry 129 pounds bar Cherry Mix, 118.

Andre Fabre, Elie Lellouche and Paul Cole have accounted for no less than 12 of the last 16 winners of this race, and they are represented by five of the seven runners assembled for this renewal. Fabre, who has saddled five winners, as well as the disqualified Polish Summer (GB) 12 months ago, puts forward a three-strong team headed by Martaline. Last year's G2 Prix Maurice de Nieuil winner returned to finish fifth in the G2 Jockey Club S. at Newmarket May 2 before beating Kindjhal by 1 1/2 lengths in the Listed Prix de Reux over course and distance last time Aug. 3. Kindjhal hails from the Lellouche stable responsible for two winners since 1990, including last year's promoted Policy Maker (Ire). This year's runner, who gets a three-pound weight shift in his favor from his last start, had subsequent G2 Grosser Mercedes-Benz-Preis winner Touch of Land (Fr) back in second when winning the Listed Prix de la Porte de Madrid at Longchamp Apr. 11. Cole has collected five times since 1988, but stayer Swing Wing will need to make this a severe stamina test if he is to build on his fourth in the G2 Lonsdale Cup at York Aug. 17.

Urban Sea has also distinguished herself in the breeding shed, having produced dual Derby hero Galileo (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) and multiple Group 1 winner Black Sam Bellamy (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) as well as the stakes-winning and Classic-placed fillies All Too Beautiful (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) and Melikah (Ire) (Lammtarra). Now owned by Live Oak Plantation and conditioned by Bill Mott, My Typhoon will break from post two with Jerry Bailey in the irons. The chestnut is 5-1 on the morning line. The 7-2 favorite is Winsome (War Chant), who makes her turf debut after hitting the board in each of her three main-track starts to date.

Ramseys Give 'Badge' to Frankel:

Star-crossed Badge of Silver (Silver Deputy) has been transferred by owners Kenneth and Sarah Ramsey to trainer Bobby Frankel, Daily Racing Form reports. Ronny Werner conditioned the colt to an impressive victory in the GIII Risen Star S. in 2003, but he suffered an injury on the eve of the GI Blue Grass S. and was sidelined for the rest of the year. He returned to take a Fair Grounds allowance in January, but made his last appearance in the GII General George H. in February, finishing fifth as the odds-on favorite. Ramsey insisted that the colt is not being taken from Werner due to any wrongdoing. "I've been talking to a lot of breeders and this horse is worth a lot of money if he can win a Grade I," Ken Ramsey told the Form. "Ronny is going back to Kentucky and there's no sense hauling this horse all the way back to Kentucky." He added, "There's nothing wrong with Ronny Werner as a trainer." Ramsey indicated that Badge of Silver would be pointed towards races such as the GI Vosburgh S. and the GI Cigar Mile H. He also suggested that the colt would continue to race next season, with an eye on the GI Carter H. and the GI Metropolitan H. Ramsey also announced that GI Whitney H. winner Roses In May (Devil His Due) would go next in the GII Kentucky Cup Classic Sept. 18 while GI Secretariat S. hero Kitten's Joy (El Prado {Ire}) will have his final prep for the Breeders' Cup in the GI Joe Hirsch Turf Classic at Belmont Park Oct. 2.

Smokey Glacken capped her two-year-old season with a victory in Aqueduct's Gill Valley Stream S. in November. The bay filly opened 2004 with a distant third to the meteoric Madcap Escapade in the Old Hat S. at Gulfstream on Valentine's Day, but didn't see action again until Aug. 1, when she won the off-the-turf Trenton S. at Monmouth. The second choice in this contest, she set a swift pace of :21.72 and :44.87 and never looked back, opening up to win by daylight. "We expected her to run a big race today," said winning trainer Jimmy Jerkens. "The track is favoring speed. I had a good feeling that if she shook loose, it would be hard for anyone to cut her down." Jerkens indicated that Smokey Glacken's next outing might be the Gill Safely Kept Breeders' Cup S. at Pimlico Oct. 2.

Tapit Breezes; PA Derby Next:

Winchell Thoroughbred LLC's Tapit (Pulpit) breezed seven furlongs Friday afternoon in 1:27 at Delaware Park and could resurface in the GII Pennsylvania Derby at Philadelphia Park Sept. 6. The gray colt reportedly broke off five lengths behind a stablemate and gradually reeled him in, finishing two or three lengths clear. David Fiske, racing manager for Winchell Thoroughbreds, told Daily Racing Form, "From [trainer Michael Dickinson's] vantage point in the grandstand, he looked great, was traveling good. If everything goes the way it went [Friday] morning, he'll run in the Pennsylvania Derby." Tapit was being pointed for the Aug. 8 GI Haskell Invitational H., but was removed from consideration when he entrapped in a pre-race workout and has subsequently undergone surgery.

Stay Forever to Tackle Males in Miami Mile:

Stay Forever (Stack), most recently second to Wonder Again in the GII New York H. at Belmont Park July 5, is slated to make her next start versus the boys in the GIII Miami Mile Breeders' Cup H. at Calder Sept. 6. The seven-year-old, a homebred for Santa Cruz Ranch, was to have started in the GI Beverly D. S. Aug. 14, but was forced to miss that race with an injury. "It was very disappointing," admitted trainer Marty Wolfson. "About 10 days before [the Beverly D.], another horse kicked her in the shoulder on the track. The injury was only the size of a quarter, but it got infected and I missed two days of training with her at a critical time." Stay Forever, a good third versus males in the 2002 Bonnie Heath Turf Cup, has won three of her six starts this year, including the GIII Mint Julep H. at Churchill May 29.

Second in the G2 German 2000 Guineas at Cologne and in a Group 3 event at Dortmund last season, Royal Price ended his German campaign with a third-place effort in a conditions event at Cologne in July of 2003. Still a maiden when he landed on these shores, he captured his U.S. bow, a special weight test at Santa Anita in October, then earned minor awards in three starts before returning to the winner's circle following a Santa Anita allowance in April. The bay picked up checks in his first two tries at Hollywood and added another score in an allowance event at that track last time out July 18. March S. cont.

Orange Touch was sidelined after finishing fourth in the Listed Glasgow S. at York last May and faced another spell off the track after returning to finish sixth in a conditions race on Newmarket's Rowley Mile May 1. He looked a different proposition on his return, however, beating Remaadd by six lengths in a similar event on the July Course last time Aug. 14, and the soft ground was firmly in his favor in this contest. Stalking Supremacy (GB) (Vettori {Ire}) in second early, he was committed passing the three-furlong marker and steadily drew clear before being eased to record a facile score. "We were concerned about the ground, as the breeder told us to keep him on fast ground," commented Cheveley Park Stud's Managing Director Chris Richardson. "Amanda [Perrett] has always thought a lot of him and the ground didn't inconvenience him today." He added, "Johnny [Murtagh] has just said to go for the G1 Irish St Leger [at The Curragh Sept. 18], but that may be aiming a bit high."

Chookie Heiton has had his share of training problems, but is talented on his best days as he proved when dead-heating with Acclamation (GB) in a Doncaster conditions event last August. Off the board in every start since finishing fourth in the Listed Cammidge Trophy at Doncaster Mar. 27, he bounced back to record his first stakes success at the rewarding odds of 40-1 in this competitive event. Racing in mid-division early, he was taken to the inner and found a charmed passage to lead with 100 yards remaining before holding the late rattle of Simianna.

Since the turn of the year, Prince Aaron has collected five sprint handicaps, including a competitive seven-furlong contest at Ascot last time July 9. Sent off the well-supported 3-1 favorite for his first attempt at stakes level, the gelding was settled in rear by Gary Carter and quickened down the outside to cut down Atavus in the final 50 yards. "They didn't go fast enough for me and he ran too free," his rider explained, but added, "He's improved well--that's the first time I've hit him."

Naheef hadn't quite been able to find his feet after a third-place finish in Round 3 of the G2 Sheikh Maktoum al Maktoum Challenge at Nad al Sheba Mar. 6. In his first two starts after returning to Europe, he finished fifth to Powerscourt (GB) in the G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup at The Curragh May 23 and last of eight to Bandari (Ire) in the G2 Princess Of Wales's S. at Newmarket July 7. But, facing a softer field this time, he exhibited abundant enthusiasm to secure a deserved sixth stakes win. Leading from the bell, he dueled for the pacesetting duties with Compton Bolter until repelling that rival at the quarter-mile marker. From there, he ran on strongly for metronomic taps of Kerrin McEvoy's persuader to comfortably hold the running-on Hawridge Prince. Naheef will remain in training next year, as conditioner Saeed bin Suroor told PA Sport, "He loved the ground and likes this course--he has won here before. He always tries his best. He travelled well and he needs to be up near the front. We will look for a Group race for him now."

Echelon lined up the sole filly amongst a clutch of highly regarded colts here and was sent off at odds of 7-1. Reserved in mid-division throughout the early stages, she was trapped wide without cover, but, quickening to take command with a furlong remaining, she was pushed out to beat Newsround (GB) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}) by two lengths, with five lengths back to the third. "She's an attractive, racy type and she went through the ground well," commented Cheveley Park Stud's Managing Director Chris Richardson. "Sir Michael wanted to run her against the fillies yesterday, but the ground was against her, so we waited." The winner is a half sister to yesterday's G2 Totesport Celebration Mile winner Chic (GB) (Machiavellian), MGSW-GB, £140,162.
