LADY TAK DANCES AWAY WITH BALLERINA

Lady Tak (Mutakddim) fought off the late-closing duo of My Trusty Cat (Tale of the Cat) and Harmony Lodge (Hennessy) and then weathered a steward's inquiry to take yesterday's GI Ballerina H. at Saratoga. Ridden by jockey Jerry Bailey for the first time in almost a year, the 2003 GI Test S. winner took command early and zipped through a quarter mile :22.35 and a half in :44.49 before ripping through three quarters in 1:07.90, faster than Saratoga's track record for that distance. Despite the four-year-old's sharp early exertions, it appeared to some that Lady Tak wouldn't be able to sustain her bid late, but her pilot was not among them. "My filly got really strong around the far turn," explained Bailey. "She was pulling me out of the saddle. So I went ahead and let her go. As soon as those horses got to her throat, she just gave it another surge."

LION HEART RETIRED

Kentucky Derby runner-up Lion Heart (Tale of the Cat--Satin Sunrise, by Mr. Leader) suffered a broken coffin bone in his right front foot while running seventh and last in Saturday's GI Travers S. at Saratoga and has been retired from racing. Purchased by Michael Tabor and Derrick Smith for $1.4 million at the 2003 Fasig-Tipton February Sale, Lion Heart was unbeaten in three starts at two and ended his juvenile campaign with a 3 1/2-length victory in the GI Hollywood Futurity. He began 2004 with runner-up efforts in the GII

Lion Heart Horsephotos

San Rafael S. and GI Blue Grass S. before a game second-place finish behind Smarty Jones in the Kentucky Derby. A well-beaten fourth in the Preakness S., the chestnut rebounded with wins in the GIII Long Branch Breeders' Cup S. and GI Haskell Invitational H. at Monmouth Park. Sent off the 5-2 Travers favorite off his Haskell victory, Lion Heart set the pace Saturday, but faded badly turning for home. Trainer Patrick Biancone said the injury, which will not require surgery, likely occurred when the colt switched leads nearing the stretch run. "The horse has been very generous to us," Biancone said. "He gave everything he had. I'll look forward to training his babies." On the board in eight of 10 starts, Lion Heart retires with five wins and earnings of $1,390,800.

Star Over The Bay, who posted three 100-plus Beyer figures in his three most recent starts, had been hard to beat when placed on the front end and yesterday's Del Mar H. proved no different. A four-length winner when claimed from trainer Vladimir Cerin for $80,000 going a mile at Hollywood May 16, the gelding had to settle for second in the nine-furlong Dallas Turf Cup H. at Lone Star June 19. A nose victor over rival Continuously in the Gil Sunset H. while contesting 12 furlongs at Hollywood July 18, the grey was nonetheless sent off the second choice behind that foe for the rematch. Allowed to gallop ahead of the field through modest opening fractions, the six-year-old had enough left in reserve to fend off a slow-closing Sarafan.

Also ran: Swing Wing (GB), Kindjhal (Fr), Fair Mix (Ire), Franklins Gardens (GB).

Cherry Mix began his campaign with a third in the Listed Prix Maurice Caillault at Saint-Cloud Mar. 18 before finishing runner-up in the G2 Prix Noailles at Longchamp Apr. 11. Subsequently third in the G2 Prix Hocquart back at that track May 13, he filled second spot in a conditions event at Saint-Cloud July 4 prior to picking up a confidence-boosting first stakes score in the Listed Prix Frederic de Lagrange at Vichy last time July 24. Held up in rear by Thierry Gillet as Gary Stevens cut out the fractions aboard Martaline, he quickened to pass his stable companion with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining. He was never in any danger from there and left that rival to his own private battle with Bailador for the runner's-up spot on his rider's final major domestic ride. "I felt he had a string chance as he won very nicely last time," the Lagardere Family's Racing Manager Roland de Longevialle commented. "He won so easily, he must tackle a Group 1, and that could be the Arc."

Autumn Glory tasted stakes success for the first time when beating Duck Row by two lengths in the Listed Hambleton S. at York May 12 before disappointing in two major handicaps on fast ground. He shaped better when sixth behind subsequent G1 International S. runner-up Norse Dancer (Ire) in a competitive renewal of the G3 Sovereign S. at Salisbury last time Aug. 12 and encountered his favored easy conditions here. Heading the group while racing in the centre of the track early, he was taken over to dispute the overall lead and showed determination to ward off the threat of Mister Sacha and the revitalised Keltos in the closing stages. "We fancied him a little bit as soft ground is very important to him," explained jockey Steve Drowne. "It's probably a bit heavy for him really, but he's an improving horse." Conditioner Geoff Wragg may point the four-year-old at the G2 Prix Daniel Wildenstein at Longchamp Oct. 2. Click for the Racing Post chart.

Dubai Surprise followed a promising third in a Newbury maiden July 16 with a fluent score at Redcar last time Aug. 7. Sent off at the rewarding odds of 16-1 despite her respected connections, she tracked the early pace in mid division under Ryan Moore before being asked to take closer order as the field moved across to the stands' rail in the straight. The bay filly quickened through the testing conditions and reeled in Nanabanana in the final 50 yards before asserting under a drive. Connections are now eyeing the G1 Fillies' Mile at Ascot Sept. 25 or G1 Prix Marcel Boussac at Longchamp Oct. 3. "She's fairly straightforward and a very game filly," Moore said. "She handled the ground well, but she's a good-moving filly and hopefully she'll go on from there. I'm sure she's up to winning another race at this level."

Star Valley, who ran third at seven furlongs in the Listed Prix de Montretout at Longchamp Apr. 29, also finished in the show spot while attempting a mile in the G3 Prix du Chemin de Fer du Nord at Chantilly June 13 and the Listed Prix Jacques de Bremond at Vichy last time July 22. Dropped back to six furlongs for the first time this time, he may yet emerge as one of his country's leading sprinters if this impressive display is anything to go by. Settled in mid division by Ioritz Mendizabal, who allowed the early speed duel to play itself out, Star Valley quickened when switched to the stands' rail at the quarter pole, cut down Swedish Shave in a matter of strides and forged clear under a hand ride for an impressive success. "I didn't know what to expect with this being his first try at the trip on heavy ground," conditioner Jean-Claude Rouget commented. "He obviously liked it and this may be his ideal distance, as he has been a bit keen at seven and a mile. He should mature well next year, when he will remain in training." He failed to land a blow when only sixth behind Maraahel (Ire) in the G3 Gordon S. at Goodwood last time July 27, but bounced back to break his maiden in style in this competitive contest. Reserved in mid division by Andreas Suborics throughout the early stages, he made steady progress widest of all to challenge inside the final quarter. Lyonels Glory hit the front with 150 yards remaining and was made to battle by Saldentigerin in the drive to the line, but pulled out extra under strong driving. ☆ TRAVERS WRAP-UP ☆

Birdstone Heads Straight to Classic

Birdstone (Grindstone), winner of Saturday's G1 Travers S. at Saratoga Racecourse, will not start again until the 10-furlong G1 Breeders' Cup Classic at Lone Star Oct. 30, according to trainer Nick Zito yesterday. "Marylou Whitney and John Hendrickson said [yesterday] they'd like to go right to the Classic," Zito said. "If he's gonna fire his best shot, might as well go for four million dollars." Zito added, "I've told everyone enough times that this horse needs time between races, so what else can I say, other than we showed you." Zito also indicated that Travers second-place finisher The Cliff's Edge (Gulch) came out of the 10-furlong contest in good order and is likely to make his next start in the G1 Jockey Club Gold Cup at Belmont Park Oct. 2. "His feet stung him a little bit, but other than that he's fine," said Zito. The third member of Zito's Travers team, Sir Shackleton (Miswaki), reportedly bled before finishing a lackluster fifth. "It was a humid day," explained Zito. "Things like that happen. I'll talk to his owners before we make any plans with him."

A Break for Purge

Purge (Pulpit), who finished fourth in Saturday's G1 Travers S., will receive a brief freshening, according to Michael McCarthy, assistant to trainer Todd Pletcher. "We'll walk him for the next few days," said McCarthy. Pletcher wouldn't confirm where the winner of the GII Jim Dandy S. will appear next, although he offered suggestions. "The [Jockey Club] Gold Cup [Belmont, Oct. 2] is a possibility, but he's a horse than can appreciate time, so it would come down to that or the G1 Breeders' Cup [Oct. 30]," Pletcher said, adding, "We'll just take it day by day."

PLEASANTLY PERFECT TO START IN JAPAN?

Pleasantly Perfect (Pleasant Colony), winner of the G1 Pacific Classic at Del Mar Aug. 22, may cap off the 2004 season, and possibly his career, with a start in the G1 Japan Cup Dirt at Tokyo Racecourse Nov. 28, according to trainer Richard Mandella. Mandella stated that the six-year-old's connections are keen on trying to surpass Cigar on the all-time earnings list. Pleasantly Perfect is scheduled to train straight up to his next start in the G1 Breeders' Cup Classic at Lone Star Oct. 30. Pleasantly Perfect, a winner of nine of 17 lifetime starts, has earned $7,349,880 to date and is $2,649,935 shy of Cigar's record. Mandella indicated that although there remains a 'small chance' that the powerful bay will return for a 2005 campaign, it is most likely that he will be retired. According to Mandella, discussions with stud farms are ongoing.

NO VERMEILLE FOR OUIJA Lord Derby's G1 English and Irish Oaks heroine Ouija Board (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) will avoid a tilt at the G1 Prix Vermeille at Longchamp Sept. 12. Conditioner Ed Dunlop announced that the G1 Prix de l'Opera at Longchamp Oct. 3 and G1 Champion S. at Newmarket Oct. 16 are under consideration for the filly, who will remain in training next term. "She's staying in training next year, so we don't need to run on soft ground at this stage," said Dunlop.

A winner of two of four starts this term, Lady Tak won two straight going six furlongs at Churchill Downs, including the Winning Colors H. May 22 and came back from a two-month break to finish third in her latest in Calder's GII Princess Rooney H. July 10. "After the race, you're worried about [the outcome] and you want them to leave her up," said trainer Steven Asmussen, referring to the inquiry. "The significance of them leaving her up to me is it put her over $1 million [in earnings] in a Grade I race."

Storm Causes Losses at Spa:

A powerful storm which passed through the Saratoga area Saturday night forced the cancellation of the day's final race and caused track officials to move up the running of the GI Travers S. by five minutes. "A quick estimate of the loss in handle was over $1 million on track and $5 million in total wagering," New York Racing Association Senior Vice President Bill Nader said in a statement from the track. "The early closing of mutual pools for the Travers cost us about $600,000 in on-track handle and $4 million overall. The cancellation of the last race was another big blow, with an estimated loss of about $600,000 in on-track handle and $2 million overall."

Yougottawanna is having a career year at age five. A two-time stakes winner at two and hero of the GIII El Camino Real Derby at three, the chestnut was winless in nine starts last year, but broke through in his third start of 2004, taking an optional claimer at Golden Gate Feb. 28 by eight lengths. Second in the Mar. 27 GIII Berkeley Breeders' Cup H., he came back to post a six-length score in an optional event at Bay Meadows in April and added a tally in the GIII Seabiscuit Breeders' Cup H. May 31. Off the board in a Grade III test at Hastings Park July 1, the Cal-bred was coming off a second-place stakes finish at this track Aug. 7. Never far from the front, the odds-on choice drove past pace-setter Sanger in the stretch and edged clear.
