ARRESTED JOCKEYS RETURN

Jockeys Kieren Fallon, Darren Williams and Fergal Lynch returned to racecourse action yesterday after their arrest and subsequent release on police bail Wednesday. Fallon and Williams were out of luck, at Salisbury and Carlisle, respectively, but Lynch did make a winning return aboard Caitlin (Ire) in a nursery handicap at Redcar. As expected, a number of television crews were in attendance for Fallon's return at Salisbury and Christopher Stewart-Moore, Fallon's solicitor, advised his client not to give any interviews, but did issue a joint-statement for the benefit of viewers of Racing UK. It read, "[Kieren Fallon] was taken by Police to Bury St Edmunds at 4 a.m. [Wednesday morning] and spent a total of approximately 14 hours at the station, most of that time spent in a cell. He was questioned for between four and five hours. During that time not one specific horse or race was mentioned." Stewart-Moore also indicated that Fallon was repeatedly asked the question "Can you stop a horse by pulling its reins?" and also said one officer asked Fallon "You are renowned for riding a horse very hard. If you didn't ride a horse very hard from the beginning to the end of a race you are not doing your job properly, are you?" At this point Stewart-Moore said he told the questioning officer "You clearly don't know anything about horse racing by saying that. If you don't mind me saying, I find your questions naive." To which the officer was said to have given the reply, "I'm sorry, I don't know anything about horse racing so you will have to bear with me." Stewart-Moore continued, "During the police interview, the interviewee and his solicitor are given an information pack designed as the basis for the questions and answers. I have never seen a pack with so little information in it." Fallon added: "I felt like I was being treated like a terrorist. The officers who searched [my property] took the home computer away. I can't even work it, it's there for the kids if they want to use it but it's broken anyway." Fallon, under the terms of his bail, is due to appear at a London police station Nov. 2.

SMOK'N FROLIC RETIRED

Dogwood Stable's Smok'n Frolic (Smoke Glacken--Cherokyfrolicflash, by Green Dancer), a multiple graded stakes winner of $1,534,720, has been retired from racing. "Smok'n Frolic has been one of the most consistent and admirable mares in training, having won stakes for four straight years," Cot Campbell, president of Dogwood Stable said. "She has been wonderful to us, and we hate to see her go. However, it is clearly indicated and she should be a popular offering at Keeneland's November Breeding Stock Sale, where she will be sold by Three Chimneys." The five-year-old mare notched a total of six graded stakes races in her career, including the last two runnings of Aqueduct's GIII Next Move H. She was last seen finishing fifth, beaten 6 1/2 lengths by Lady Tak in the GI Ballerina H. Aug. 29.

TEN MOST WANTED TO STAND FOR $12,500

Gainesway Farm has set the stud fee for last year's GI Travers S. winner Ten Most Wanted (Deputy Commander) at $12,500. "We believe this top class racehorse has the potential to be a champion sire," said Antony Beck, president of Gainesway. Trainer Wally Dollase thinks his former star will excel in the breeding shed as well. "Ten Most Wanted was one of the most talented horses I've ever trained," Dollase said. "He showed me exceptional class and ability against some of racing's best. His outstanding looks and effortless stride should enable him to become an exceptional sire." The dark bay colt ended his career in style winning the GIII National Jockey Club H. at Hawthorne Apr. 17. The 2003 GI Belmont S. runner up retired with five wins from 13 starts, totaling $1,718,460.

ATSWHATIMTALKNBOUT EUTHANIZED

Atswhatimtalknbout (A.P. Indy--Lucinda K, by Red Ransom), one of the top three-year-olds of 2003, was euthanized Sept. 1 after suffering an apparent internal rupture following intestinal surgery, the Blood-Horse reports. Trainer Ron Ellis told the publication that the four-year-old colt was sent to San Luis Rey Equine Hospital two weeks ago to be treated for what he thought might have been ulcers. Pronounced ulcer-free, the colt later underwent exploratory surgery which indicated a displaced sacrum.

Atswhatimtalknbout
Horsephotos

Atswhatimtalknbout was said to have improved following the surgery, but Ellis received a phone call indicating that the horse's condition was deteriorating and that there was likely irreparable internal injuries. "I had a lot of people ask me about him," Ellis said. "Even now, there were a lot of people who wanted to know how he was doing." Purchased by B. Wayne Hughes for $900,000 at the 2002 Fasig-Tipton Calder Sale, the handsome bay colt won two of his first three starts following which a 10-percent interest was sold to a group including movie directors Steven Spielberg and Gary Ross. In his first start for the new partnership, he was second by a nose to Buddy Gil in the GII San Felipe S. before finishing fourth in the GI Santa Anita Derby and GI Kentucky Derby. Plagued by foot problems, Atswhatimtalknbout was forced to miss the Belmont S., and those same ailments kept him on the sidelines this year. Connections were pointing for a five-year-old campaign. "I always felt he never really got to show what kind of a horse he really was. It wasn't meant to be," Ellis said.

Sixth in his first try against winners downstate June 5, the bay was most recently third in at this level in an event washed off the turf Aug. 22. Back on his preferred surface for this, the half to Julie Jalouse (Kris S.), GSW-US, SW-Ire, $226,868; and Mariensky (Gulch), MGSW-US, SW & GSP-Fr, $340,098, sat a perfect trip from second, charged to the front on the final turn, opened up and held off a troubled Old Forester (Forestry) for a 1 3/4-length tally. Adding blinkers for this effort and getting an extra three-eighths of a mile, the homebred sped to the front and raced keenly through the opening stages. Coaxed along through his third quarter mile in :25 4/5 by Javier Castellano, the bay responded when set down for the drive, was five lengths clear at the eighth pole and dug in late for a one-length victory from Raise a Glass (Kris S.). Most recently second in a Saratoga off-the-turfer Aug. 18, the bay was sent off at 29-1 in this grass marathon. A ground-saving sixth for the opening half mile, he was shuffled back on the turn, came out at the quarter pole and wore down French Horn (Dixieland Band) for a 3/4-length victory. Elizabeth Maloney Dies:

Elizabeth "Lib" Maloney, the widow of Hall of Fame trainer James Maloney, died Wednesday in Aiken, SC after a brief illness. She was 87. Jim Maloney, a trainer from 1935 through 1984, conditioned champions Lamb Chop and Gamely, as well as Dewan, Boldnesian, Dignitas and Proud Birdie. Lib Maloney was one of the premier show ring riders of the 1930s and she won the Maclay Medal at the 1934 Madison Square Garden Horse Show. She was an active supporter of Meals on Wheels and Recording for the Blind. A memorial service will be held Sept. 7 at 11 a.m. at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Aiken. Donations may be made to the Hitchcock Foundation, Aiken, or St. Mary's Catholic Church.

Bailey Out With Broken Wrist:

Jockey Jerry Bailey will be sidelined for three to four weeks with a broken left wrist. The Hall-of-Fame rider took off his mounts Wednesday and Thursday at Saratoga to prepare his Fort Lauderdale, FL home for Hurricane Frances and injured his wrist after falling off a ladder while putting up storm windows. The injury will not require surgery. "Timing is never right for an injury," Bailey said in a statement. "Although it is not a serious injury, it will require a little time off. I have every intention of being fully recuperated and back riding at full strength by the end of the month."

Champagne or Futurity Next Stop for Proud Accolade:

Proud Accolade (Yes It's True), an impressive allowance winner going 6 1/2 furlongs at Saratoga Wednesday, will start next in the GI Champagne S. at Belmont Oct. 9 or the GII Futurity S. Sept. 19, according to trainer Todd Pletcher. "I think we'll go straight to the Champagne," Saratoga's leading trainer said. "I'll leave a little bit of a window for the Futurity. But I like the spacing of the Champagne. That race gives me a little more time. It seems to work better for me when I give him a little more time." Pletcher believes the Padua colorbearer should have no problem stretching out in distance. "The great thing about him is he has a load of ability and acts like he wants to run further," Pletcher added. The $450,000 OBSMAR juvenile purchase broke his maiden at the Spa by 7 1/2 lengths July 31.

The bay filly finished second in last year's GI Breeders' Cup Distaff Oct. 25, then closed out her sophomore campaign with a sixth-place finish in the GI La Brea S. Dec. 27. After a pair of sixth-place finishes this season in the GII A Gleam H. July 10 and the GII Clement Hirsch H. Aug. 8, trainer Craig Dollase decided to add blinkers here. Allowed to settle off the pacesetter in second through quick fractions of :22 1/5 and :46, the favorite took over in the stretch and kicked clear to a powerful victory.

Sent off at odds of 5-1 making his first start around two turns, he vied for early command and fought off all challengers to come home a 3/4-length winner over Stanton (Menifee). The winner, a $120,000 BESMAR juvenile, becomes the fifth winner for his freshman sire (by Danzig). Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-1, $36,160. O/B-Gaines-Gentry Thoroughbreds & Serengetti Stables (KY). Suez entered many notebooks when easily accounting for the well-regarded Clear Impression (Ire) on debut in a Goodwood maiden July 28 but then missed an intended engagement in the G2 Lowther S. at York 19, when the track came up soft. She confirmed the promise of her debut run by wiring the field in decisive fashion here for a first stakes success and will now point to the G1 Cheveley Park S. at Newmarket Sept. 30. She is already quoted as low as the 12-1 third favorite by bookmakers William Hill for next season's G1 1000 Guineas. "This is the best filly I've got," claimed conditioner Michael Jarvis, adding, "I'll have to speak to Sheikh Mohammed first, but I think she'll only have one more run this season and that will probably be the Cheveley Park. I'm not sure if she'll stay a mile next year as she has got such blistering speed." That speed was in evidence from the break as Suez was sent to an immediate lead from an unfavorably low draw. Maintaining control throughout, she responded to Philip Robinson's every tender urging inside the final quarter mile to retain her unbeaten record in cozy style.

Salisbury, 4.20, Cond, £15,950, 3yo/up, 14f 15ydsT, 3:09.48, gd.

BAROLO (GB) (g, 5, Danehill--Lydia Maria {GB}, by Dancing Brave), victorious last time in the Listed Challenge S. at Leopardstown July 14, was settled three lengths off the pace in second until coming under pressure to close on the lead with three furlongs to go. Ridden along to challenge at the quarter-mile marker, the 4-1 chance required strong driving inside the final furlong to overtake Fight Your Corner (GB) (Muhtarram) and then held the late bid of Grampian (GB) (Selkirk) by a neck. The winner is a half brother to Propinquity (GB) (Primo Dominie {GB}, GSP-Eng). Lifetime Record: SW-Ire, 15-6-1-2, £83,189. O-Mrs P W Harris; B-Pendley Farm; T-Peter Harris.

LIAKOURA (GER) (c, 2, Royal Academy--Lady Member {Fr} {GSP-Fr, $113,485}, by Saint Estephe {Fr}), successful on debut at this track July 10 and eighth in her only other start at Newmarket July 30, was restrained in rear for much of this mile debut. Ridden along at the quarter-mile marker, the 6-1 chance was driven to close on the front rank at the distance and finished strongly in the latter stages to deny Sun Kissed (Jpn) (Sunday Silence) by a length in the final strides. The winner was a 58,000gns TATOCT yearling. Lifetime Record: 3-2-0-0, £13,123.

O-Mark Tracey; B-Dr Christoph Berglar; T-Amanda Perrett.

Salisbury, 2.20, Mdn, £16,500, 2yo, f, 6f 212ydsT, 1:28.72, gd.

DONYANA (GB) (f, 2, Mark Of Esteem {Ire}--Albarsha {GB}, by Mtoto {GB}), fifth in her only previous go at Newmarket Aug 14, broke smartly from the gate and led from the outset here. The 4-1 joint-favorite was pushed along at the quarter-mile marker, pulled out an extra length on the field approaching the final furlong and kept on well in the closing stages to safely hold Miss The Boat (GB) (Mtoto {GB}) by two lengths. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, £10,725.

ALMANSOORA (f, 2, Bahri--Bashayer {SP-Eng}, by Mr. Prospector), second on debut at Newmarket July 8, went postward for this as a 4-1 chance. Settled in midfield from flagfall, she was ridden to close on the front rank with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining and responded willingly to a forceful Frankie Dettori drive inside the final furlong to deny Elizabethan Age (Fr) (King's Best) by a short head in the very last stride. Ridden along for his effort at the quarter-mile marker, the 9-2 chance seized the initiative at the eighth pole and kept on strongly thereafter to best Namat (Ire) (Daylami {Ire}) by a length.
