GOING 'FORE' THE GRADE ONE

This afternoon's GI Forego H. at Saratoga will offer Strong Hope (Grand Slam) an opportunity to notch an elusive Grade I victory, but the bay isn't the only talented horse in the race who's got the credentials to win at the highest level. Edmund Gann's Midas Eyes (Touch Gold) looked like a locomotive just 10 days ago when he nearly equaled the track record at the Spa romping by 5 3/4 lengths in an allowance event. The two-time Grade III winner has twice hit the board in Grade I races--a second in last year's Cigar Mile and a third in the Malibu--and will take plenty of action to finally break through.

Oh, It's Just Dickinson...

An eight-year-old gelded West Virginia-bred by Cool Joe, making just his eighth career start, going for his second Grade I race in a year? That might be the beginning of a good joke if the punchline wasn't Michael Dickinson. The success of the trainer's sometimes eccentric methods is well documented, but even the most passionate Dickinson devotee had to be a little surprised when he saddled A Huevo (Cool Joe) to victory in last November's GI Frank J. DeFrancis Memorial Dash making his third start off an almost four-year absence. A Huevo has been on the sidelines since that race, but his connections aren't worried. "The layoff might be a little short. He's only got nine months as opposed to four years," owner Mark Hopkins joked.

Aiming for the Best Grade...

Another Grade I hopeful who has shown serious ability is Clock Stopper (Gilded Time), a four-year-old Dallas Stewart trainee who has had the misfortune of running into some monsters in his stakes attempts. Last year, he found only eventual Breeders' Cup Sprint hero Cajun Beat too good in the GIII Kentucky Cup Sprint and most recently was 1 1/2 lengths adrift of divisional leader Speightstown in the Aug. 14, six-furlong GII Alfred G. Vanderbilt H. over this strip. "That's the way it goes. That's horse racing," said Stewart of facing horses that are peaking. "You've got to get in there and fight and hope you're good enough to win one of these." Stewart suspects the added furlong will help his late-running charge. "I like that [he's adding ground]," Stewart said. "I don't know if it's his favorite distance, but we're going to find out today."

HIS CUP OF TEA

Unsuccessful in his two tries at a mile, One Cool Cat (Storm Cat) may have found his niche as a sprinter. The three-year-old heads a field of 19 in the G1 Stanleybet Sprint Cup at Haydock this afternoon. The bay won four of his five starts at two and was sent off the favorite in the G1 Sagitta 2000 Guineas May 1, but faltered at the distance and finished 13th. He did little better in the G3 International S. going a mile at The Curragh July 17, finishing fifth of seven, and it was decided after that effort that he would be relegated to the sprint ranks. "We probably ran him over too far and trained him to go too far,"

One Cool Cat Getty Images Sport

trainer Aidan O'Brien admitted. One Cool Cat responded with a win in the Aug. 8 G3 Patrick P. O'Leary Memorial Phoenix Sprint S. over six furlongs at The Curragh. He found the five furlongs of the Aug. 19 G1 Nunthorpe S. at York a trip too short, but closed well to be third and should appreciate the added eighth here. "The extra furlong should play to his strengths," said jockey Jamie Spencer told Racing Post. "The drier weather has been encouraging and I expect him to give a very good account of himself." Sprint Cup cont. p2-3

Daring Love took her record to a perfect three-for-three in a thrilling finish to this contest. A winner over Beirut on his debut at Hamburg June 29, she came back with an impressive follow-up in the Aug. 1 Listed Oppenheim-Rennen at Cologne, but was forced to battle to confirm those placings and overcome the penalised raider Tournedos. The bay was reserved towards the rear early by Andreas Boschert early, but tackled Tournedos as that rival was committed at the top of the straight by Ted Durcan. Getting on top inside the final 100 yards, she was driven out to assert from Beirut, who had made her move up the far rail under Andrasch Starke.

Somnus overpowered Oasis Dream (GB) in the driving rain here 12 months ago and may have improved as he bids for back-to-back successes in this event. Despite a drying week, the ground should ride soft enough for him and he comes off a neck victory over subsequent G1 Prix Jacques le Marois winner Whipper in the G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest at Deauville Aug. 8. Frizzante beat Ashdown Express in the G1 July Cup at Newmarket July 8 before disappointing when 10th in the Prix Maurice de Gheest. Ashdown Express, fourth on that occasion, has his conditioner Chris Wall is hoping it will be "our turn." He said, "He's come out fine from his latest run at Deauville. Everybody has had a go at winning these big sprints this season and we are certainly in there with a fighting chance." Bahamian Pirate captured the G1 Nunthorpe S. over five furlongs at York Aug. 19 in his most recent outing, with One Cool Cat just over a length back in third.

Etoile Montante has been favored in each of her five U.S. starts, kicking off 2004 with a victory in the GIII Las Cienegas H. Apr. 4 at Santa Anita. But the chestnut has failed to come through for her backers in three starts since that victory, finishing third to stablemate Intercontinental in the GII Just a Game Breeders' Cup H. June 5, and most recently running a very troubled fourth--beaten a length by Voz de Colegiala and Makeup Artist--in the restricted Osunitas H. Aug. 11. over this course. Trainer Bobby Frankel's assistant Humberto Ascanio thinks she can get back to the winner's circle this time. "She's been training very well here, and she's ready to go," he said. Jockey Gary Stevens will mark his return to U.S. stakes races with a reunion with Fun House. The duo captured the GII Buena Vista H. Feb. 21 before Stevens decamped to France. Fun House has come up short in three starts since, finishing fifth last out in the GIII Royal Heroine H. July 3 at Hollywood. Trainer Ron McAnally is pleased to have Stevens back in the irons. "Stevens rides her very well," McAnally told Daily Racing Form. "She's doing super, and I think the change of tracks will really help her."

NONSUCH BAY RETIRED Nonsuch Bay (Mr. Greeley--Brighter Than Gold, by Light Idea) has been retired by owners Joseph and Mary Platt, who plan on offering the five-year-old mare in the Keeneland November Breeding Stock sale. Purchased for $75,000 at the 2001 OBS April Two-Year-Olds in Training Sale, the chestnut became a leading three-year-old of her generation with a runner-up finish in the GII Bonnie Miss S. and wins in the GII Nassau Breeders' Cup S. followed two starts later by the most important victory of her career in the GI Mother Goose S. Placed in no fewer than 16 stakes events, she recorded one victory in eight trips to the post this year, a successful defense of her title in the Banshee Breeze H. at Gulfstream Park. Bred in Kentucky by Sabine Stables, Nonsuch Bay retires with a record of 27-7-5-8 and earnings of $747,078.

E.I. KELLY PASSES AWAY Trainer Edmund I. Kelly died Thursday at his home in Brooksville, Florida. He was 83. Kelly followed his brother, Hall of Famer Tommy, into racing and was working for Circle M Ranch in Kentucky when he was called on to serve in a tank outfit in Europe during World War II. He returned to Circle M after he was discharged, then took out his own trainer's license, saddling his first winner, Ardent Miss, in 1945. The Baltimore native enjoyed one of the longest-running and most successful partnerships in racing history, training for owner Harry Isaac's Brookfield Farm from 1949 until Isaac's death in 1990. The name of nearly every Brookfield runner began with an I. The collaboration produced Intentionally, the champion sprinter of 1959, as well as stakes horses I Enclose, I'm in Time, I'm Sky High, In From Dixie, In True Form, I Rejoice, I Speed Up and Is Your Pleasure. Kelly retired shortly after Isaac passed away, but remained a part of racing as an owner. He co-owned Lucky Coin, who won seven of nine starts, including the GII Kelso H., and was fourth in the 1997 GI Breeders' Cup Mile. He is survived by his wife, Margaret; sons E.I. Jr. and Michael and daughter Colleen; and brothers Tommy and John. Funeral arrangements are pending.

Willard Straight, winner of the restricted King Cugat S. at the Big A last November, closed out the season with an 11th-place finish in the GI Hollywood Derby Nov. 30. Backed at even-money to take his four-year-old debut in a $100,000 optional claimer at Gulfstream Feb. 20, he didn't let his supporters down, winning by 1 1/4 lengths. Stepped up in class for his next start in the GII Mervin H. Muniz Jr. Memorial H. at the Fair Grounds last out Mar. 21, he could do no better than seventh. Returning off the long layoff here, he raced towards the back of the pack, was swung out for the stretch run and got up in time. "He had a problem with his stifle and we had to give him some time off," trainer Todd Pletcher explained. "He's the kind of horse that likes to make one run, so it worked out well. We'll probably run back in the Kelso [GII, at Belmont Oct. 9]." For jockey John Velazquez, this marked his 62nd victory of the meet, setting a single-season record for jockey victories at Saratoga. He held the previous record of 61, which was set last year.

Pattiano hadn't gotten her picture taken since posting an Aqueduct allowance Nov. 1. After the filly finished third in consecutive allowance races this season at Belmont July 23 and Saratoga Aug. 7, trainer Kristina Dupps decided to put back the blinkers on her charge here. OLD FASHION GIRL (f, 3, Arch--Bourbon Blues, by Seeking the Gold) ended her juvenile campaign with a second in the Oct. 18 Hildene S. at Delaware Park, then disappeared for nine months. The bay returned to be second in an off-the-turf test at Colonial Downs July 12 and filled that spot again going seven furlongs at that track two weeks later. Trying the turf for the first time here, the Lazy Lane homebred pressed the pace from second and finally fought her way past front-running Emtayat (GB) (Gone West) at the wire for a nose win as the slight 7-2 chalk. Lifetime Record: SP, 7-1-5-0, $60,800.

J P JEWEL (f, 2, Dixie Union--Easy 'n Gold, by Slew o' Gold), a $350,000 FTSAUG yearling, tired to be sixth after pressing the pace in her Saratoga debut Aug. 5. Going a quarter mile here, the 5-2 chance was bumped at the start, recovered to set a pressured pace and drew clear to a sharp 6 1/2-length victory over Winning Season (Lemon Drop Kid). J P Jewel, a 3/4-sister to Dixieland Gold (Dixieland Band), GSW, $226,231, becomes the ninth winner for her freshman sire (by Dixieland Band). Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $27,180. O-Memorial Stable. B-Kilroy Thoroughbred Partnership (KY). T-Nicholas P Zito.

Lou Mondello Dead:

Louis Mondello, who was a trainer on the New York circuit for many years, died Wednesday at age 81. A native of East Harlem, he had resided in Hicksville on Long Island since his retirement. Mondello purchased his first horse in 1958 and went on to condition stakes winners such as Bar Dexter, Cavamore, Mochila, Young and Foolish and Zazzie. He twice sent out eight straight winners, at Narragansett Park in 1996 and again at Fair Grounds in 1968. He is survived by his wife, former trainer Sue Alpers Mondello. The funeral will be private, but a memorial service is being planned.

NYRA Fully Funds Horsemen Accounts:

The New York Racing Association has announced that it has fully funded the account maintained for the benefit of its horsemen using the proceeds from recently completed business transactions. The specific nature of those transactions that have made the payment to the horsemen's accounts possible are confidential. In order to reach the goal of funding the account, NYRA worked in tandem with New York Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association, the Federal Monitor, and the State Racing and Wagering Board. "Finding a way to fully fund the horsemen's account has been a top priority for NYRA," said NYRA's acting co-Chief Operating Officer and Trustee C. Steven Duncker. "Each party involved--the Monitor, the horsemen and the Racing and Wagering Board--united for the good of the industry to help NYRA make this goal a reality."

Campbell Named Integrity Task Force Chair:

W. Cothran "Cot" Campbell, the founder and manager of the Dogwood Stable syndicate, has been chosen the chairman of the Sales Industry Task Force (SITF) during its first meeting yesterday at Keeneland. "I am happy to work with such industry heavyweights on such an important project," Campbell said. "Our task force met and took the first step in making public auctions more buyer friendly." The Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders Association (TOBA) organized the task force in response to issues regarding the integrity of sales by prominent Thoroughbred owner Satish Sanan and his Alliance for Industry Reform (AIR). The SITF replaces the AIR. Members of the task force include Headley Bell, Reynolds Bell, Dr. Larry Bramlage, Boyd Browning, Bill Casner, Robert Clay, Lincoln Collins, Nick de Meric, Bill Farish, Greg Goodman, Reiley McDonald, Gerald McMahan, Nick Nicholson, Walt Robertson, Geoffrey Russell, Satish Sanan, Fred Seitz, Duncan Taylor, D.G. Van Clief Jr., Tom Ventura and trainer John Ward.

FALLON SPEAKS OUT

Kieren Fallon yesterday hit back at allegations of race-fixing, labeling them a "complete joke." In the six-time champion jockey's first interview since his high-profile arrest along with fellow jockeys Fergal Lynch and Darren Williams and trainer Karl Burke Wednesday, he told the Daily Mirror newspaper, "The whole thing is a complete joke. I make enough money through my percentage of prize money, riding fees and stallion rights. It's not in my nature--I've never done it and I never will. Obviously I've left myself a bit more open than I should have sometimes. I should have been more careful, but that's the top and bottom of it. We all know you can't fix races. It doesn't happen. It does in a fairytale world, but not in the real world." Those arrested could face reviews of their licences by the Jockey Club.

ON TO IFFEZHEIM

Hoping to follow up on the success at Deauville last month, the Baden-Badener Auktionsgesellschaft (BBAG) take the baton with their one-day yearling sale today. The Iffezheim venue should attract an international presence, based on the recent record of German-breds on the world stage. Those high-class performers include G1 Dubai Duty Free winner Paolini (Ger), G1 Singapore Airlines International Cup hero Epalo (Ger) and G1 Charles Whittingham Memorial H. victor Sabiano (Ger). The 258-lot catalogue offers yearlings by leading domestic sire Monsun (Ger), alongside other top stallions Acatenango (Ger), Big Shuffle, Dashing Blade (GB), Lando (Ger) and Lomitas (GB). International names featured include Barathea (Ire), Cadeaux Genereux (GB), Danehill Dancer (Ire), Fasliyev, Highest Honor (Fr), Nashwan and Night Shift, as well as promising young sires such as Montjeu (Ire), Diktat (GB) and Galileo (Ire). Among the notable lots are hip 17, Ferdinand Leve's Lando (Ger) half-sister to G1 Grosser Dallmayr-Preis winner Intendant (Ger); hip 31, Gestut Auenquelle's Big Shuffle half-brother to yesterday's G2 Maurice-Lacroix Trophy winner Daring Love (Ger); hip 122, Union-Gestut's Monsun colt out of a half-sister to the dam of stellar past graduates Samum (Ger) and Salve Regina (Ger); hip 59, Gestut Schlenderhan's filly by promising young sire Tiger Hill (Ire), who is a close relative of G1 Deutsches Derby runner-up Malinas (Ger); hip 61, Gestut Karlshof's Winged Love (Ire) half-brother to G1 International S. runner-up Norse Dancer (Ire); and hip 143, Gestut Wittekindshof's Galileo (Ire) half-brother to the G2 Henkel-Rennen winner La Blue (Ger) from the family of the champion Lomitas. Selling gets underway at 9:30 a.m. Full catalogue and results can be found on www.bbag-sales.de.
