But it was jockey Eric Legrix who benefited from the exit of the Hall of Famer here and he had an armchair ride, keeping the 5-1 chance in a stalking second until committing at the top of the straight and opening up a decisive lead. Cont. p2

A ROSE GROWS AT THE CURRAGH

Chelsea Rose (Ire) (Desert King {Ire}) held on gamely to win yesterday's G1 Moyglare Stud S. at The Curragh by 3/4 lengths. The filly lowered the colors of Silk and Scarlet (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) on her debut in a Leopardstown maiden June 9, but could only finish third behind that rival in the G2 Debutante S. over course and distance last time Aug. 8. Trapped wide in mid-division under Pat Shanahan throughout the early stages yesterday, Chelsea Rose raced keenly without cover and was asked to stride to the front passing the three-furlong marker. The 9-1 chance was tackled by Belle Artiste (Ire) (Namid {GB}) soon after, but repelled that challenge before asserting in the closing stages as Pictavia (Ire) (Sinndar {Ire}) and the luckless Saoire (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) ate into her advantage. "We always thought an awful lot of her," explained trainer Con Collins' daughter Tracey. "Whatever she did this year was always going to be a bonus, as she will improve." She added, "She will not run again this season and her campaign will be geared around a crack at next year's G1 Irish Oaks here in July." Of the runner-up, conditioner Jim Bolger said, "She could go for the Listed Silken Glider S. here [Oct. 23] or the G1 Prix Marcel Bousac [at Longchamp Oct. 23]." Chart p3

TAPIT RETURNS IN PENNSYLVANIA DERBY

It's not the Smarty party that Philadelphia Park officials were hoping for, but a solid field of 12 sophomores will go postward in today's GII Pennsylvania Derby. The 1 1/8-miles contest is headed by Tapit (Pulpit), who has been sidelined by respiratory problems since running ninth behind Smarty Jones in the May 1 G1 Kentucky Derby. The gray colt, trained by Michael Dickinson, stamped his ticket to the Derby with a gutsy half-length victory in the Apr. 10 G1 Wood Memorial. The field also includes the former claimer turned graded stakes performer My Snookies Boy (Crafty Friend). Claimed for $50,000 in April, the chestnut colt was a game second behind Lion Heart in the July 17 GIII Long Branch Breeders' Cup S. and was runner-up to that rival again in the Aug. 8 G1 Haskell Invitational H. Nick Zito, with a deep sophomore bench, will saddle Pies Prospect (Crafty Prospect) and G1 Belmont S. third-place finisher Royal Assault (Kris S.) in the Pennsylvania Derby. The pair were third and fourth in the Haskell. Field p6

Workaholic...

"The original plan was to run [Grey Lilas] in the G1 Prix de l'Opera [at Longchamp Oct. 3], but we felt she had won so easily in the Nonette that she had not done enough, as she needs a lot of work," commented Andre Fabre, who was collecting his fifth renewal of this event. "We decided to give her another race and I knew she had come back to her best." Grey Lilas had provided Stevens with his first French winner when taking a course-and-distance conditions event Apr. 4, and gave the American his first group score when following up in the G3 Prix de la Grotte over the same terrain three weeks later. She found only Torrestrella (Ire) too strong in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches (French 1000 Guineas) at Longchamp May 16 before filling the third spot in the G1 Prix de Diane at Chantilly June 13. Her tune-up at Deauville and subsequent work had shown Andre Fabre that she was ready to mix it with the colts. "I would like to thank Gary Stevens for the great job he has done with this filly, as she has always come back remarkably well from her races," Fabre added. "She will now go for the [G1 Prix de l'Opera], as she is not eligible for the Breeders' Cup." Runner-up Diamond Green will be pointed at the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. at Ascot Sept. 25 or the G1 Champion S. at Newmarket Oct. 16.

WARRSAN FLIES TO BADEN-BADEN WIN

Warrsan (Ire) (Caerleon) furnished Kerrin McEvoy with his finest moment since leaving his native Australia when holding the outsider Egerton (Ger) (Groom Dancer) in a pulsating finish to yesterday's G1 Preis von Baden. In so doing, he provided trainer Clive Brittain, who has been something of a pioneer on the international stage throughout his career, with handsome reward for his bold campaigning of the tough six-year-old. The Saeed Manana homebred fared well on his travels last term, winning the G1 Coronation Cup at Epsom in June and finishing second in the G1 Gran Premio di Milano later that month, then running third in the G1 Pokal at Cologne in August, the G1 Gran Premio del Jockey Club at Milan in October and the G1 Hong Kong Vase at Sha Tin in December. Warrsan showed he retained all his ability when collecting a second Coronation Cup June 4 and only went down by a head to Refuse to Bend (Ire) after a battle royal in the G1 Eclipse S. at Sandown July 3. As he had 12 months ago, he disappointed when trailing in the G1 King George VI & Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. at Ascot last time July 24, but bounced back after a freshener to break the million-pound mark in earnings. Reserved in mid-division throughout the early stages as the even-money pick Mubtaker (Silver Hawk) proved a reluctant leader, he was brought wide for his challenge on the turn into the straight as that rival faded. Shirocco (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}) and Andreas Suborics went to the front approaching the quarter pole, but Warrsan swooped immediately to take control and had enough in the tank to hold the late lunge of the maiden Egerton and Andreas Helfenbein. "He is a very tough horse and likes traveling," Brittain told PA Sport. "Maybe we will now run in the G1 Irish Champion S. [at Leopardstown] in a week's time, or maybe we will go for the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe [at Longchamp Oct. 3]." Mubtaker's jockey Richard Hills reported that the favorite, who faded early in the straight to finish seventh, "didn't like the ground." Chart p3. Supah Blitz had been knocking on the door to graded stakes success throughout much of his career, finishing second in last year's GI Fountain of Youth and in this year's GIII Skip Away H. and GIII Texas Mile, but finally got the elusive graded stakes victory with a determined run here for his new connections. Tom and Jerry Kagele and David Leib bought Supah Blitz last month from the Bee Bee Stable of owner-breeder-trainer Manny Tortora. In his final start for Tortora, the dark bay narrowly missed in an Aug. 9 nine-furlong Delaware allowance. Never far from the front here, Supah Blitz snuck clear to a 1 1/2-length advantage in upper stretch and then had just enough left to hold the late rush of Domestic Dispute. "I wanted to spurt away from them in the stretch," commented winning rider Victor Espinoza. "I knew they'd be coming after me late. I knew that Domestic Dispute was outside me and that he'd be coming. I had to work hard on him late. And he ran hard enough. Hard enough to win." Kent Desormeaux, aboard the runner-up, said, "I thought the winner was slipping away from me in the stretch and that I wasn't going to be able to catch him. But I threw a cross [of the reins] on him and he took off again. I almost got him in the end." Click for the brisnet.com catalog-style pedigree. Click for the brisnet.com chart. Humaita, an allowance winner at this distance at Gulfstream in March, took the Sabin S. May 12 before running a non-threatening fourth behind Wonder Again over a soft turf course in the July 5 GII New York H. The chestnut filly waited just off pacesetting Savedbythelight through moderate fractions, moved to the front in upper stretch and outbattled Where We Left Off to the wire for a narrow score. "She ran a really good race," jockey Cornelio Velasquez said of the winner. "She is such a better horse running longer. I just let her run her race." Winning trainer H. Graham Motion added, "Cornelio had her in a good spot. I was a little concerned at the half-mile pole because it looked like he had to nuzzle her along a little bit. Once he got her in gear, she really ran on. She's a big rangy filly and, with the pace being as slow as it was, she really had to pick it up." Motion said Humaita could make her next start in the Oct. 2 GI Flower Bowl H. at Belmont Park. Click for the brisnet.com chart. For the video race replay, select: broadband or modem.

Arvada narrowly missed in two allowances this past spring before scoring her first U.S. victory in her fourth stateside start with a 3 1/4-length win over 1 3/8 miles at this track Aug. 11. On the lead from the start, the bay filly carried a 2 1/2-length advantage into the lane and determinedly held off favored Spice Island in the closing strides. Of his trip, winning rider John Velazquez said, "She broke well. I put her in the lead and she kind of rated herself. Once we got to the backside, she started picking it up all by herself. I didn't have to do much until we got into the stretch. When I asked her, she was there for me." Bobby Frankel took over training duties on Arvada from Rupert Pritchard-Gordon when the filly was transferred to the United States. "The first time we ran her, we tried to rate her," explained Frankel. "After that, we decided to just let her go. There are always anxious moments; you never know when they're going to stop." As for what is next for Arvada, Frankel said, "It looks like she's all right, so maybe we'll go on to some bigger and better things." Click for the brisnet.com chart. For the video race replay, select: broadband or modem.

Cherokee was one of two Ballydoyle debutantes facing a host of experienced rivals here, but she belied her lack of a run to open her stakes account at the first attempt. Reserved in last place under a typically confident Jamie Spencer ride, she quickened in pursuit of Lock and Key and reeled in that rival in the final stride. Last year, Patavellian (Ire) quickly metamorphosed from a high-class sprint handicapper into a top-level stakes runner. Following in the hoofsteps of that gelding, Pivotal Point has used success in the Stewards' Cup H. at Goodwood as a springboard to greater things. Pivotal Point looked to have something in hand when winning that ultra-competitive contest last time July 31 and confirmed that impression here under Frankie Dettori to open his stakes account. Showing blazing speed to shadow the early pace, he was allowed to stride to the front passing the quarter pole and was always holding The Tatling in the drive to the line. "He is improving all the time and is a very nice horse," conditioner Peter Makin commented. "He will go straight to the G1 Prix de l'Abbaye de Longchamp [Oct. 3]." Ringmoor Down finished fourth behind subsequent G1 Haydock Sprint Cup winner Tante Rose (Ire) in the G3 Summer S. at York July 9 before swooping late to deny Boogie Street (GB) in the G3 King George S. at Goodwood last time July 29. Adopting those same patient tactics here, Michael Kinane reserved the mare off the early speed duel of Benbaun and Osterhase, then sent her up to catch the former in the shade of the post. She will now be aimed at the G1 Prix de l'Abbaye de Longchamp Oct. 3. Click for the free racingpost.co.uk chart.

Fast and Furious opened his racing career with three straight wins over the French turf before suffering his first loss when third in the G2 Prix Noailles in April, followed by a sixth-place effort in the May 13 G2 Prix Hocquart. He rebounded with a two-length victory in a listed stake at Toulouse in June in his final start for trainer Jean-Claude Rouget. The dark bay colt has been training forwardly for his U.S. debut. "He's training well and he's acclimated well over here," confirmed trainer Ron McAnally. "He looks like a good horse and acts like a good horse and he has very good action." Fellow French invader Blackdown, group placed in his native country, made a splash in his U.S. bow with a speedy win in the July 21 Oceanside S. and followed up with a win in the GII La Jolla H. over this course last time out Aug. 14. Laura's Lucky Boy won the GIII Will Rogers in May in just his fourth lifetime start. He was passed late when finishing second in the June 26 GIII Cinema Breeders' Cup H. and was steadied while running fifth in the La Jolla last time out.

RIGHT THIS WAY (f, 3, West By West--Slew's Ann, by Slewpy), a half to Daisies And Nites (Saint Ballado), MSW, $266,240, graduated in an off-the-turf Saratoga maiden July 28 and returned to be a solid third in a nine-furlong NW2L over the dirt in mid-August. Here, the $67,000 OBSJUN two-year-old, finally getting to the sod as a 10-1 shot, bid gamely between Tuesday Prayer (Holy Bull) and Muguet (Run Softly) down the lane and got the head bob in the shadow of the wire over the latter, with another head back to the former. The $600,000 KEEJUL yearling, the 3-5 choice in her return, was on top through a half in :46.36 and turned it into a procession from there, airing by an impressive 5 1/2 lengths over The K O Touch (Touch Gold). Calder Cancels Sunday Card:

Calder Race Course, which called off Friday's and Saturday's programs ahead of Hurricane Frances, also cancelled yesterday's card. Explaining the decision to remained closed for a third straight day, track president Ken Dunn said, "We didn't incur any major damage, but we do have a lot of clean-up to do. The track is in good shape, but we need to give our employees a chance to take care of matters at home as well. We will be prepared to race and simulcast on Monday."

Mobil didn't let down the Woodbine faithful, who sent the Gustav Schickedanz homebred off as the piping hot 1-10 choice. The bay, a game second in the July 25 GI Chinese Cultural Centre S. over this course but a lackluster ninth in the Aug. 14 GI Arlington Million, shadowed pacesetter Crosspoint (Tejano Run) up the backstretch before tackling that rival turning for home. Drawing clear while being shown the whip by jockey Tony Kabel, he was never in any danger from there and was wrapped up late for the facile victory.

One for Rose, named 2003 champion older mare in Canada, improved off a runner-up finish in the July 18 Belle Mahone S. over trip and track to romp by five lengths over the boys in the Seagram Cup 19 days later. Odds on versus just three rivals, One for Rose was bothered slightly by Winning Chance leaving the gate, but recovered to hound that pacesetting rival through a half in :48.44 and three-quarters in 1:12.40. Winning Chance kept up the fight to the final eighth, but couldn't match strides late as One for Rose opened up by 2 1/4 lengths.

Dubleo, part of a three-horse entry for trainer Todd Pletcher here, showed grit to get his second stakes win in as many starts. The dark bay knocked off a Colonial turf allowance July 10 before returning to the dirt with an off-the-turf score in the Chenery S. at that track two weeks later. Quickest into stride here under Chris DeCarlo, Dubleo carried a daylight lead down the backstretch and into the far turn, began to feel the pressure as United closed steadily down the lane, but was never seriously threatened late.

Ready Ruler went wire-to-wire breaking his maiden by two lengths at Lone Star in his second outing June 19, then came back to be a well-beaten fourth in the Pioneer S. a Louisiana Downs July 10. Switched to the lawn, he just failed to last when second sprinting 7 1/2 furlongs against Retama allowance foes Aug. 14. Improving off that one while overcoming some late antics, the dark bay colt rallied from a stalking position, surged to the lead in deep stretch and held on by a length despite propping late as he saw the photo-finish lights.

Tucked Away, who had not started on the turf since running fifth in the Pro or Con H. in February, returned from a three-month freshening to run second in the July 10 GII A Gleam H. and was coming off a fifth-place outing in the Aug. 8 GII Clement L Hirsch H. With blinkers off here, the dark bay filly sat just off the early leaders after a slow start. She began vying for the lead at midstretch and outbattled Test the Waters for a narrow victory. "She ran great today," confirmed winning rider Kent Desormeaux. "I never hit her; never had to. I could feel her giving me maximum effort when I was hand riding, so there wasn't any need to do anything else. She was a winner today. She felt like it and she ran like it."

Ometz looked a touch unlucky when fifth behind Ask for the Moon (Fr) in the Listed Prix Saint-Alary at this track May 23 before disappointing when down the field in the G1 Prix de Diane at Chantilly June 13. She returned with a conditions success at Clairefontaine last time Aug. 5 and showed the benefit of that confidence booster to record a first stakes score under an enterprising ride from loritz Mendizabal. Settled in a stalking third early, she took command at the top of the straight and was comfortably clear as Buoyant made late inroads to fill the runner's-up spot. "She is a lovely filly and has improved since the Diane," trainer Rod Collet said. "In an ideal world, I'd like to take her to Woodbine for the GI E. P. Taylor S. and she may run in the G2 Prix de Royallieu here first [Oct. 2]."

SUCCESS AT BADEN-BADEN

Apart from the fireworks created by John Ferguson's bid of €400,000 for hip 66, Gestut Brummerhof's Acatenango (Ger) colt, Saturday's Baden-Baden Yearling Sale was marked by a major strengthening of the middle market. With a strong foreign contingent present, thanks mainly to the international exploits of German-bred horses this year, the session provided evidence that German bloodstock is more marketable than ever before. In a particular boost to the domestic sphere, home-based sires such as Acatenango, Big Shuffle, Dashing Blade (GB), Lando (Ger) and Monsun (Ger) generated considerable overseas interest. Figures were up across the board, with a 76-percent clearance rate, a 37-percent increase in average and a healthy 93-percent rise in the median. Not long after the excitement surrounding hip 66 had died down, Dirk Eisele's BBA Germany caught the crowd's attention when paying €220,000 for hip 143, a colt from the first crop of Galileo (Ire) from the draft of Gestut Wittekindshof. He was out of the prolific producer La Luganese (Ire), the dam of the G2 Henkel-Rennen (German 1000 Guineas) winner La Blue (Ger) from the family of the champion Lomitas (GB). Gestut Fahrhof secured the top-priced filly when he bought hip 79, Gestut Park Wiedingen's Monsun half-sister to Friday's Listed Baden-Baden Cup winner Qsar (Ger), for €170,000.
