SHOW ME THE MONEY

The retirement of Philly Park hero Smarty Jones left the door open for a longshot in Monday's $750,000 GII Pennsylvania Derby, and it was 12-1 Love of Money (Not For Love) who made the most of the opportunity with a front-running tally in his route debut. The dark bay, making just his fourth lifetime start and his first against stakes company, was away from the gate in good order and led a crowded 12-horse field through a half in :47 3/5. Moving well around the far turn as third choice Pollard's Vision (Carson City) struggled to keep up, Love of Money entered the lane up by four lengths and extended his advantage to 8 1/2 by the time he cruised under the wire. Pennsylvania Derby cont. p2

ON THE ROAD TO SUCCESS

Just minutes after watching Tapit disappoint as the favorite in the Pennsylvania Derby, trainer Michael Dickenson had a nice pick-me-up in the form of two-year-old Bellamy Road (Concerto), who staged the mild upset over Scipion (A.P. Indy) in the Gill Miller Genuine Draft Cradle S. at River Downs. Coming off an impressive 7 1/2-length victory sprinting six furlongs in his unveiling at Delaware Park Aug. 3, the strapping Kinsman colorbearer broke from post two and was soon leading the way through dawdling fractions of :25 1/5, :49 2/5 and 1:12 2/5. Given his head nearing the quarter pole, he lengthened clear with enormous strides as Scipion, a stalking presence down the backstretch, came up empty late. MGD Cradle S. chart, p3

FADE TO BLACK

Waiting patiently for room in mid-stretch before unleashing a sparkling turn of foot, then waiting just as patiently as stewards sorted out a claim of foul,

Blackdown

Benoit photos

Blackdown (Fr) (Verglas {Ire}) looked the consummate pro as he kept his U.S. record clean in yesterday's GII Del Mar Derby. The handsome gray was a Listed winner in France earlier this year before coming to Julio Canani's barn off a third in the Apr. 25 G3 Prix de Fontainebleau. A late-running score in the second division of the restricted Oceanside S. at Del Mar July 21 was followed by a similar victory in the GII La Jolla H. Aug. 14, and a convinced Del Mar crowd sent him off the prohibitive 4-5 chalk here. Last of 10 through the opening three quarters, Blackdown began cutting into the lead that Laura's Lucky Boy (Theatrical {Ire}) had established into the lane. Locked behind a wall of horses at the eighth pole, Blackdown turned on the afterburners once daylight appeared, sprinting past the game Toasted (Hennessy) on the outside. A claim of foul by sixth-place finisher Semi Lost (Lost Soldier) was disallowed. Gimme Some Love...

Love of Money made an auspicious debut in a six-panel Belmont special weight in mid-June, wiring the field by six lengths as a 3-1 chance. The Richard Dutrow trainee returned to finish second in a swiftly run NW2L at that track July 9, then posted a sharp 105 Beyer capturing a first-level allowance by a half-dozen lengths at Saratoga Aug. 12. That effort was enough to convince Dutrow to try his charge, a $70,000 FTMSEP yearling acquisition for Jay Em Ess Stables, in this tough spot. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Tapit Fails as Favorite...

The Philly Park faithful had a tough time picking out a favorite before settling on Tapit (Pulpit) at 3-1 odds. The gray, who was sidelined for most of the summer with respiratory problems, raced a bit erratically around the first turn before tiring to be a well-beaten ninth.

No Snookie for You...

A likeable longshot in his last two, My Snookie's Boy (Crafty Friend) failed to fire at relatively short 7-2 odds this time and finished 10th under jockey Stewart Elliot. Second to Lion Heart in the July 17 GIII Long Branch Breeders' Cup S. at 12-1 odds and again as a 20-1 shot in the Aug. 8 GI Haskell Invitational H., My Snookie's Boy was in a good spot in fifth rounding the first turn, but began to retreat after a half mile.

Failed Assault by Zito...

Trainer Nick Zito's banner 2004 season had a slight hiccup yesterday as Royal Assault (Kris S.) and Pies Prospect (Crafty Prospector) each failed to add any hardware to a barn steeped with talented three-year-olds. Forced to steady into the first turn as a crush of horses vied for position, Royal Assault never regained his momentum and finished eighth. Pies Prospect, near the back of the pack for most of the race, made up some ground late to be fifth.

The defending champion in this race, Strut the Stage was sidelined following a fourth in the GII Sky Classic H. last September. He didn't make it back to the races until July 25, when he rallied for third in the GII Chinese Cultural Centre H. With that effort under his belt, the Woodbine faithful bet the six-year-old down to 1-5, and he lived up to the billing. The chestnut settled into an easy rhythm at the back of the pack, but began to pick it up approaching the half-mile pole. In front at the head of the lane, Strut the Stage opened up under a hand ride and coasted home well clear of the others. "It's nice to have him back; it was a long wait for him," said winning rider Todd Kabel. "I know I missed him all year, but it's nice to see him come back with this victory, and hopefully everything goes well for him." Winning trainer Mark Frostad was pleased with his charge's effort. "He ran a super race last time and he badly needed that one," Frostad said of the Chinese Cultural Centre effort. "He got pretty tired in that race. He got a little tired in this one at the end, but he was back and he ran a great race." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Apr. 30 GIII Crown Royal American Turf S. at Churchill Downs, but scored once more in the June 13 GIII Jefferson Cup. Stretching out to a mile and a quarter for his latest, the late-running colt was wide into the lane and could do no better than third behind Kitten's Joy in the GIII Virginia Derby July 10.

Prince Arch was favored off that effort and came through for the crowd, but only just. He trailed the field for six furlongs and bumped with Good Reward (Storm Cat) as he kicked it into gear at the top of the lane, but kept on coming to get up for a narrow score. "I was a little bit worried, because it is a short stretch and I didn't know if there was enough room to get the leader," owner Raymond Cottrell Sr. said. "I didn't think he was going to catch him." But jockey Javier Castellano, celebrating his fourth winner of the afternoon, said, "I had a lot of horse. When he responded, he took off and finished strong."

As he's a son of Sadler's Wells, who has such an exceptional record with mares from the Mill Reef male line, Breeders' Cup Mile hero Barathea was bound to be sent mares from this line. What started as a trickle has become a substantial flow since his first runners reached the track in 1998, when Mill Reef's son Shirley Heights and Shirley Heights' son Slip Anchor cropped up as the broodmare sires of Barathea's first two group winners. Since then Barathea's partnership with the Mill Reef line has built up a sizeable collection of stakes winners, including this year's Group 2 winner Pongee and three Classic-placed performers in Barathea Guest, Alasha and Hazarista.

But there could be another reliable way of breeding a high-class performer from Barathea, as his daughter Tante Rose has been demonstrating throughout her unbeaten 2004 campaign. This filly, who got up in the last strides to defeat the males in the G1 Stanleybet Sprint Cup, is inbred 3x3 to Habitat through two of that excellent stallion's Group 1 winners. Another of Barathea's group winners, the unbeaten French colt Apsis, combines these two approaches, as he is out of a grand-daughter of Mill Reef and he is inbred 3x4 to Habitat. Another of Barathea's stakes winners, the French filly Pampa Negra, is another inbred 3x3 to Habitat.

Habitat's name may not mean much to American readers, except that he sired the champion turf horse Steinlen and the Santa Anita Derby winner Habitony (who in turn sired that very fast horse Richter Scale). To Europeans, though, Habitat will be remembered as a champion miler who became a tremendously prolific source of group winners and an exceptional sire of broodmares. Unfortunately he will also be remembered as a fairly disastrous sire of sires, but more of that later.

Habitat's racing career began with two defeats over a mile and a quarter and this son of Sir Gaylord raced only at a mile throughout the rest of his career. It's a measure of Habitat's class that he won five of his six starts over that distance. His final appearance saw him comprehensively account for a strong Prix du Moulin field which included Right Tack, the dual Guineas winner who was the only horse to beat Habitat over a mile.

Tim Rogers then recruited Habitat to stand at his Airlie/Grangewilliam Studs, with sensational results. Not only did Habitat become the leading freshman sire of 1973, but he also topped the list of sires of two-year-olds. His son Habat was the highest-rated English-trained juvenile colt, while his daughter Bitty Girl (now the third dam of Action This Day) was the co-top juvenile filly.

Habitat was to top the two-year-old table on four occasions and he reached the top 12 stallions on the general sires' list in 12 consecutive years. Unfortunately he never took the title of champion sire--mainly because his stock generally didn't stay well enough to contest the major mile-and-a-half prizes--but he finished second four times.

The strangest aspect of Habitat's stallion career, which was ended by laminitis in 1987, concerned his progeny's stamina, or lack of it. Habitat was initially considered to be a mile-and-a-quarter horse, which seemed reasonable for a son of Sir Gaylord. But for breaking down just before the race, Sir Gaylord would probably have started favorite for the 1962 Kentucky Derby on the strength of his win in the Everglades S. over a mile and an eighth. Habitat was also a half-brother to Northfields, a Northern Dancer colt who won the Louisiana Derby over a mile and an eighth. Cont. p6

Yet Habitat's mature progeny collected nearly 50 percent of their successes in Britain and Ireland in races over distances between five and seven furlongs (which aren't nearly as common in Britain as they are in the U.S.). Only 25 percent of their successes came beyond a mile, even though Habitat was mated with plenty of mares with staying pedigrees.

He sometimes completely negated the stamina in his mares. For example, he sired the blisteringly fast Sigy from a stoutly bred mare which had won over just short of 11 furlongs. Then there was his son Hittite Glory, winner of the G1 Flying Childers S. over five furlongs and the G1 Middle Park S. over six, who was out of a mare which excelled beyond a mile and a half. Another example was his diminutive son Sayyaf, who was a specialist sprinter even though his first three dams were by horses which won over at least a mile and a half.

I have often wondered about the source of this dominant speed. Perhaps the credit belongs to Sir Gaylord, whose record during a 14-race juvenile campaign reminds us how much times have changed over the last 50 years. He had already had three races in Florida by the time he won at Aqueduct on April 5. Kept very busy, he won three stakes races over 5 1/2 furlongs before taking the Sapling S. over six furlongs on Aug. 5. Clearly he wasn't short of speed.

I said earlier that Habitat will be remembered as a fairly disastrous sire of sires. Indeed, his male line has virtually died out in Britain and Ireland, but a few of his sons had respectable records, including Tante Rose's broodmare sire Distant Relative.

As Distant Relative belonged to Habitat's penultimate crop, the prejudice against sons of Habitat was already well established by the time he retired to Whitsbury Manor Stud in 1991. His fee was set no higher than £6,000, even though this supremely consistent performer had emulated Habitat's victory in the Prix du Moulin and had also won the Sussex S.

By 1998 he was on his way to Turkey, but he was by no means a failure (four of his daughters--Distant Valley, Iftiraas, Islay Mist and De Puntillas--won graded races in the U.S.).

If Habitat had a reputation for being a "filly sire," Distant Relative took this to extremes. Fillies account for eight of his 10 group winners and for eight of his nine Listed winners. One of those Listed winners was Tante Rose's dam, My Branch, who was third in the Irish 1000 Guineas after finishing fourth in the English version. My Branch clearly stayed a mile and so did Barathea, who won the Irish 2000 Guineas, but their daughter--in true Habitat fashion--failed to stay the mile in last year's 1000 Guineas. Once again it appears that Habitat's influence has proved the strongest, even though Tante Rose's second dam, Pay the Bank, stayed a mile and a quarter and her third dam, the Run the Gantlet mare Zebra Grass, was bred to stay well.

The fourth dam, Ash Lawn, was a half sister to Royal Palace, winner of the 2000 Guineas and Derby, and to Glass Slipper, who produced winners of the 1000 Guineas and St Leger, so it was hardly surprising that it took 350,000 guineas to buy Tante Rose at Tattersalls last December.

Attendance Drops, Handle Steady at Saratoga:

Despite record rainfall that contributed to an eight-percent drop in attendance, the Saratoga meet ended yesterday with virtually no change in handle compared with 2003 numbers. On-track handle was nearly even with last year, with an average of over $3.2 million wagered on Saratoga races each day, while all-sources handle was down less than one percent at nearly $15.9 million per day. New York Racing Association Senior Vice President Bill Nader said he was pleased with the figures, especially considering the adverse affect weather had on grass racing. "Our business was compromised with a total of only six turf races through the first four Saturdays of the meet," said Nader. "And then we got hit hard with a severe thunderstorm on our fifth Saturday, which forced the Travers S. to be run early and the cancellation of the last race." The dip in attendance was no surprise to track officials, said Nader, who explained, "We had a record-setting year last season, and different circumstances this year suggested we would suffer a setback."

Crimson Palace Ships In with Eye on Flower Bowl:

Godolphin's Crimson Palace (SAf) (Elliodor {Fr}), heroine of the Aug. 14 GI Beverly D. S. at Arlington Park, is scheduled to ship to New York tomorrow morning and will likely appear next in the GI Flower Bowl Invitational H. at Belmont Oct. 2. The five-year-old mare will travel with rest of the Godolphin contingent still remaining at Arlington. "They [home office] haven't told us any plans for the rest of the horses, other than the fact that they are all going to New York," commented Rachel Dore, Godolphin's head Arlington assistant.

Power Touch, on the board in eight of nine previous starts, missed by just a head to Offlee Wild in the 2003 GIII Holy Bull in his last start for trainer Ken McPeck. Off for over a year after that effort, the gray gelding came back to win three of five for Bobby Frankel, most recently earning a neck win over this track and trip July 28. Power Touch chased the pacesetters while racing three wide down the backstretch, powered to the front turning for home and pulled clear from his entrymate down the lane for a confident score. Toccet, off since finishing seventh in the May 5 GIII Westchester H., was making his first start for Frankel. The bay colt pressed the pace, briefly took a narrow advantage on the final bend, but couldn't hold off Power Touch.

Host took back-to-back allowance races on the Gulfstream Park turf course in March, but hadn't seen the winner's circle while facing stakes company in his four starts since. The chestnut colt was over his head when ninth in the July 17 GII Bowling Green H. at Belmont, but finished a decent third in his latest outing, the restricted John's Call S. going 13 furlongs at Saratoga Aug. 16. Shortening up an eighth off that test, the four-year-old chased the pace from second, drove to the front on the far turn and outgunned Balustrade to the wire for the victory.

9th-SAR, $47,000, Alw, NW1X, 3yo/up, 6f, 1:10, ft. PRIMARY SUSPECT (c, 3, Hennessy--Deb's Honor {SW & GSP, $182,973}, by Affirmed) stormed to a 10 3/4-length debut win racing six furlongs at Monmouth July 17 and returned to run third over a furlong further on a sloppy Saratoga track Aug. 12. The 5-2 second choice took the lead with a three-wide move turning for home and drew off to best late-running favorite Tango Tales (Tale of the Cat) by 4 1/2 lengths. Lifetime Record: 3-2-0-1, $55,100. O/B-Lee Lewis (KY). T-Mark A Hennig.

11th-SAR, $46,000, Msw, 3yo/up, 1 1/16mT, 1:41, fm. SLIDING HOME (c, 3, Grand Slam--Flowers and Vines, by Blushing John) had a string of three straight runner-up efforts coming into this affair, most recently over this course Aug. 5. Favored at 5-2, the dark bay colt swept to the outside for the drive and finished gamely for a 3/4-length victory over London (Mr. Greeley). Turfway last December and returned to take a June 19 Belmont allowance before running second in the July 10 GIII Azalea Breeders' Cup S. and ninth in the July 31 GI Test S. The bay filly set a pressured pace, opened a one-length advantage in upper stretch and just held on to dead-heat for the win with Taittinger Rose. Taittinger Rose, a Belmont allowance winner in June, was third in the July 24 Serena's Song S. at Monmouth Park and was coming off a 7 3/4-length Saratoga allowance tally. Allowed to settle off the pace from the start, the dark bay filly angled to the outside for the drive and got up late to tie Reforest at the wire.

Smooth Maneuvers, claimed for $25,000 from his 5 1/2-length debut win at Delaware Park in August 2003, returned to score a pair of allowance victories over that track last September and rebounded from a runner-up effort in the Cordially S. to win the Nov. 15 GIII Anne Arundel S. Sidelined for eight months after that effort, the dark bay filly was fifth in her July 4 return before runner-up efforts in optional claimers July 26 and Aug. 23. Favored in the field of nine, Smooth Maneuvers dueled for the early lead, pulled clear to a three-length lead in upper stretch and held off Thermal Ablasion late.

 Our New Recruit was given plenty of time to regroup from his unlikely two-length victory in March's G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen and looked very sharp taking this contentious race. The chestnut, campaigned primarily in allowance company in 2003, showed signs of improvement with a second in the Nov. 27 GIII Vernon O. Underwood S. before running third by five lengths in the GII Palos Verdes H. in early February. Sent off the 7-2 third choice making his first start since the Mar. 27 Dubai event, the Maryland-bred ranged up to collar Bluesthstandard turning the corner and scampered clear under jockey Tyler Baze. Injured Solis on the Mend:

Jockey Alex Solis, on the sidelines since breaking a vertebra in a Del Mar spill July 23, will undergo an MRI Thursday that will determine if the back brace he's been wearing for six weeks can be removed. "If things look good, the brace will come off," the rider confirmed. "My doctor was very pleased when he saw the X-rays the last time I went. The MRI will show better how things are healing." Solis appeared in the winner's circle to celebrate the victory of Pleasantly Perfect, who had been his regular mount, in the Aug. 22 GI Pacific Classic, and said he's been feeling well since. "The last 10 days I've been doing really well," said Solis. "I'm finished with all the pain pills and the pills I needed to sleep, so I feel really good. I feel like I'm back to my real self."

WARRSAN CHAMPION BID IN BALANCE

Conditioner Clive Brittain is considering a tilt at Saturday's G1 Irish Champion S. at Leopardstown with G1 Grosser Preis von Baden hero Warrsan (Ire) (Caerleon). The six-year-old captured his third Group 1 success in Sunday's 12-furlong contest, and his Newmarket conditioner looks to drop him back in trip and make a quick return in the 10-furlong Champion, which attracted 13 at yesterday's five-day stage. "We've left him in and it's still on the cards," Brittain said yesterday. "He's a contender for the Arc whatever happens, the G1 Champion S. is not out of the reckoning and a crack at the G1 Breeders' Cup Turf is also on the cards." Godolphin's G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. winner Doyen (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) may be joined by stable companions Vespone (Ire) (Llandaff) and Millstreet (GB) (Polish Precedent), while the Niarchos family's Bago (Fr) (Nashwan), Rochelle Quinn's Grey Swallow (Ire) (Daylami {Ire}), Gary Tanaka's Rakti (GB) (Polish Precedent) and His Highness the Aga Khan's Azamour (Ire) (Night Shift) also stood their ground. Of the latter, conditioner John Oxx said it is "odds on" that the G1 St James's Palace S. winner will be in the line-up, having been scratched from the G1 International S. at York due to the rain-softened conditions last time Aug. 17. "Missing the International because of soft ground wasn't ideal with Saturday's race in mind, as it means it will be almost three months from his St James's Palace S. win and that is a long enough gap between big races," he told the Racing Post. "However, he was pretty fit and well in himself before York and everything has gone well with him since." Aidan O'Brien has left in three, including Susan Magnier's Powerscourt (GB) (Sadler's Wells) and Yesterday (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), who has not been sighted on the track so far this term.

LEGER SALE GETS UNDERWAY

The British yearling auction season gets underway at Doncaster today with the four-day St Leger Yearling Sale. With gains at Deauville and Baden-Baden and significant recent successes of past graduates on the track, the portents are strong for the flagship event of the Doncaster Bloodstock Sales' calendar. Just 12 months ago, a record price of 250,000 guineas for a colt by Xaar (GB) complemented a 26 percent increase in average and 36 percent rise in the median for this popular niche sale. The 520 lots catalogued include representatives by first-season stallions such as Bertolini, Fantastic Light, King Charlemagne, Medicean (GB), Mozart (Ire) and Observatory, which should attract considerable interest alongside the progeny of established sires such as Cape Cross (Ire), Danehill Dancer (Ire), Fasliyev, Grand Lodge, Night Shift, Pivotal (GB) and Royal Applause (GB). Lots to note include hip 339, Highclere Stud's Dr Fong half-brother to this year's G2 July S. winner Captain Hurricane (GB), purchased from this sale for 21,000 guineas 12 months ago; hip 434, Limestone and Tara Stud's Bertolini half-sister to this year's Weatherbys Super Sprint winner Siena Gold (GB), purchased for just 12,000 guineas from this sale 12 months ago; hip 114, Courtleigh Stud's Elnadim half-brother to this year's dual listed scorer Polly Perkins (Ire), another inexpensive graduate of the 2003 sale at 25,000 guineas; hip 227, Aston Mullins Stud's Singspiel (Ire) colt out of a half-sister to stakes scorers Top Romance (Ire) and National Anthem (GB); and hip 246, leading vendor Catridge Farm Stud's Royal Applause (GB) brother to G2 Diadem S. winner and sire Acclamation (GB). Selling begins at 10 a.m. today and continues at 5 p.m. after racing tomorrow through Friday. Full catalogue and results can be viewed on www.dbsauctions.com.

LAW HEADS LEGER 13

Godolphin's Rule of Law (Kingmambo) yesterday headed the 13 confirmed for Saturday's G1 St Leger at Doncaster. The G1 Epsom Derby runner-up booked his ticket to the oldest Classic with a 2½-length defeat of Neil Jones' Let the Lion Roar (GB) (Sadler's Wells) in the G2 Great Voltigeur S. at York last time Aug. 17, but will be stretching out when he tackles the extended 14-furlong trip. Big-race jockey Kerrin McEvoy believes that will not present a problem. "He is certainly more mature than he was earlier in the season and he has certainly filled out more, so it all points to a good run," he said. "I think he has come on from York and he was very impressive there. I have ridden him in his last couple of pieces of work, so I would like to think that he has improved and will get the extra distance."

St Leger cont.

Let the Lion Roar and the Sangster family's Percussionist (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) finished third and fourth in the Epsom Classic, but the latter is not certain to line up, according to Ben Sangster. "We have got an open mind with him and we want to see what is in the G2 Prix Niel at Longchamp and the G3 Arc Trial S. at Newbury a week on Saturday," he told PA Sport yesterday. "He's in very good form, but the bottom line with this horse is that we will do what's right for him. We will probably make a decision on Wednesday or Thursday." Doubts also surround Juddmonte Farms' impressive G1 Yorkshire Oaks winner Quiff (GB) (Sadler's Wells), who was the sole filly declared yesterday. Khalid Abdullah's Racing Manager Teddy Grimthorpe told the Racing Post that she is "by no means a certain runner if the ground dries out to very firm at Doncaster." Aidan O'Brien has left in five, headed by G1 Irish Derby third Tycoon (GB) (Sadler's Wells), with the ground also likely to determine running arrangements.
