ZAPPED!

Ghostzapper (Awesome Again) pulled out all the stops to overcome a very game Saint Liam (Saint Ballado) in taking the GI Woodward S. at Belmont yesterday. The four-year-olds joined battle on the turn and separated themselves from the others, covering the nine furlongs in 1:46.38. "He always won his races easily, but he fought on and ran a big race today," said winning trainer Bobby Frankel.

AZ YOU LIKE

All the pre-race hype revolved around hot favorite Doyen (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), but he was off the radar as Azamour (Ire) (Night Shift) swooped from last to first to deny Norse Dancer (Ire) (Halling) in yesterday's G1 Irish Champion S. at Leopardstown. Settled in rear off the strong early fractions by Mick Kinane, the 8-1 chance quickened down the outside to collar Norse Dancer in the final strides. "He's a great horse," conditioner John Oxx said. "He's tough and genuine and showed a great turn of foot." Cont. p2

LAYING DOWN THE LAW

JockeyKerrin McEvoy proved an able deputy on Rule of Law (Kingmambo) and galvanised the 3-1 joint favorite to a head defeat of fellow market-leader Quiff (GB) (Sadler's Wells) in yesterday's G1 St Leger at Doncaster. "Everyone's been talking about this all week and it's nice to get the job done," explained McEvoy, in his first season with the Godolphin entourage. "This is right up there with the Melbourne Cup and tops off my first season--it's unbelievable. I thank the team for giving me my chance." Cont. p3

GIMME FIVE

Latice (Ire) (Inchinar {GB}) looks to extend her unbeaten streak to a perfect five-for-five in the G1 Prix Vermeille at Longchamp this afternoon. She needs little introduction after beating Millionaia (Ire) and subsequent G1 Prix du Moulin heroine Grey Lilas (Ire) in a strong renewal of the G1 Prix de Diane Hermes at Chantilly last time June 13. "Latice is an exceptional filly," trainer Jean-Marie Beguigne said after that effort. "She has an amazing ability to accelerate and stays." Cont. p8

EERIE TALENT A half brother to GI Hopeful S. winner City Zip, Ghostzapper made a splashy debut in winning by nine lengths at Hollywood at two, but was sidelined for six months. He captured a pair of Belmont allowance contests upon his return, but his late rally fell just short when third-beaten two necks--in the GI King's Bishop S. last summer at Saratoga. Ghostzapper capped his 2003 season with a 6 1/2-length romp in the GI Vosburgh S. last September, and posted a very impressive victory in the GII Tom Fool H. July 4 upon his return here at Belmont. Trainer Bobby Frankel considered entering the colt in the GI Whitney H. at Saratoga, but opted for the GIII Iselin Breeders' Cup H. at Monmouth Aug. 21. Ghostzapper turned in a tour de force, winning by 10 3/4 lengths and earning a Beyer Speed Figure of 128.

Trying to Banish the Ghosts...

Ghostzapper was away alertly under regular rider Javier Castellano and was part of a four-way scrimmage for the lead through the opening half of :45.70. Saint Liam asserted himself from the inside and the favorite followed; the pair had 5 1/2 lengths on the others after three-quarters in 1:08.75. Though Saint Liam drifted out on the turn and in the stretch, he kept on doggedly despite Ghostzapper's menacing presence to his outside, but the Stronach colorbearer finally got his head in front at the wire. "Prado [jockey Edgar on Saint Liam] did a good job; the horse was trying to get out a lot," explained Castellano. "I kept yelling, 'Prado, keep your horse straight!' He bumped my horse a little bit, and my horse went on his wrong lead. I love this horse. He's got a good, good heart." Frankel wasn't sure where Ghostzapper would run next, but was full of praise for the runner-up. "Saint Liam hung in there tough," admitted Frankel. "I knew Dutrow [trainer Richard] loved this horse going into the race."

Also ran: Grey Swallow (Ire), Rakti (GB), Imperial Dancer (GB), Doyen (Ire), Millstreet (GB).

Azamour looked a smart prospect when winning the G2 Beresford S. at The Curragh in October and confirmed that impression when third in the G1 2000 Guineas on his return at Newmarket May 1. He followed that with a second in the Irish equivalent May 22 before his hard-fought success in the G1 St. James's Palace S. at Royal Ascot. His Highness the Aga Khan, who watched the race from his helicopter after being delayed in France, paid tribute to conditioner John Oxx. "We always thought that he would go more than a mile and it was an outstanding training performance by John, because it was a long break between his last race and this one," he said, adding that the colt may remain in training as a four-year-old. Norse Dancer will be back next year, according to his trainer David Elsworth. Trainer Saeed bin Suroor and jockey Frankie Dettori were mystified by the poor run of Doyen, who traveled easily into the straight before finding little for pressure. "I am very disappointed," commented bin Suroor. "Frankie said he was traveling so well, but when he asked him to quicken, he couldn't." Racing Manager Simon Crisford almost ruled out a tilt at the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at Longchamp Oct. 3. Click for the Racing Post chart or the brisnet.com pedigree.

Rule of Law has been keeping exalted company all season, filling the runner-up spot behind North Light (Ire) in the G2 Dante S. at York May 12 and again in the Epsom Classic June 5. He was fourth behind Grey Swallow (Ire) in the G1 Irish Derby at The Curragh June 27, but showed what damage he could cause with an uncontested lead in the G2 Great Voltigeur S. at York Aug. 17. Always in control of the fractions, he had enough stamina to deny Quiff, who was providing Sir Michael Stoute with his fifth second-place finish in this Classic. Godolphin representative Diana Cooper paid tribute to McEvoy, saying, "That was perfection. Kerrin deserves all the acclaim that is coming his way." She added, "The plan is to keep Rule of Law in training as a four-year-old, and he will come back down in distance. There were obviously slight doubts about the trip and we also had a lot of respect for Quiff, but Rule of Law is very honest, and he always gives everything he's got." Jockey Kieren Fallon felt Quiff had an excuse for the loss. "The ground was against her and there was no pace," he said. Magistretti's late charge fell 2 1/2 lengths short when third in the GI Arlington Million Aug. 14, but the added furlong here gave him time to run down Epalo for his first win at Grade I level. Winner of the G2 Dante S. last spring, the bay concluded his three-year-old season with a second to Falbrav (Ire) in the G1 Juddmonte International, but had languished a bit in three starts in England in 2004, finishing fourth in the Listed Steventon S. July 14 at Newbury prior to heading overseas to Chicago. He settled near the back of the pack and was full of run turning for home before finding himself behind a wall of horses. Jockey Edgar Prado extricated him in the stretch and Magistretti responded, lengthening his stride and getting up for the win. "The horse ran roughly the same race he ran in the Million," said winning trainer Patrick Biancone, who took over duties from Neville Callaghan. "I'm lucky to have this horse come into my stable; he seems to have a great kick." Magistretti's next start could be the GI Joe Hirsch Turf Classic Oct. 2. Stellar Jayne has emerged as one of the most consistent members of her crop, pairing up victories in the GIII Dogwood Breeders' Cup S. June 5 and the GI Mother Goose S. June 26 before a pair of runner-up efforts in the GI CCA Oaks July 24 and the GI Alabama S. Aug. 21. The fact that she was returning to the site of her Mother Goose victory, coupled with the scratch of the speedy Capeside Lady (Cape Town), led to Stellar Jayne's going postward as the prohibitive favorite. The grey filly went to the front, clicking off :24 quarters, and was joined by Daydreaming at the top of the stretch. The Phipps filly got her head in front, but Stellar Jayne had enough left after the leisurely fractions and drew clear late. "She's 1,200 pounds of heart," said Peter Hutton, assistant to winning trainer D. Wayne Lukas. The GI Breeders' Cup Distaff at Lone Star Oct. 30 could be the next stop for Stellar Jayne. glorious isolation, only to be joined by her arch rival passing the furlong marker. Gaining the edge with 50 yards remaining, Soviet Song had that extra surge when Attraction could give no more. For Soviet Song, it was her third consecutive success at the top level, having followed her

Falmouth romp with a neck win over Nayyir (Ire) in the G1 Sussex S. July 28. The top two could meet again in either the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. at Ascot Sept. 25 or the G1 Sun Chariot S. at Newmarket Oct. 2. Winning trainer James Fanshawe said, "If she is bouncing, then she will run in the QEII, and if not, she'll wait for the Sun Chariot." Deidre Johnston, wife of Attraction's trainer Mark, remarked that the runner-up will only run again this term if the ground stays on the firm side, but will remain in training at four. Off the track subsequently, he bounced back to confirm the placings at the Royal meeting with the penalised runner-up. Reined back off the furious early fractions by Seb Sanders, he quickened to the head of affairs with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining before forging clear on the run to the line. "He gave me a real nice feel and is a proper sprinter," his rider said. "Everything was going nice and I was always going to get past everything in front. He has proper speed and won well." Conditioner Nick Littmoden added, "You can write off his last run as he had an infection a few days afterwards, then we were set to run at York last month before the ground went against him. Ivan [Allan] is in Hong Kong now and I'll have a chat with him to see what he wants to do. We've done our job now and he may not want to run again this season, although the horse is in the G1 Middle Park S. [Newmarket Oct. 1]." Twice a graded stakes winner in 2003, taking the GIII Azalea Breeders' Cup S. and the GIII Florida Oaks, Ebony Breeze had a bridesmaid beginning to this season before notching her first victory in the My Juliet H. at Philly Park June 26. The Kinsman homebred lost a heartbreaker last out, coming up a nose short in the GII Honorable Miss H. at Saratoga Aug. 6, and was odds-on to go one better this time. She gave her backers a bit of a worry when last through a half in :44 2/5, but rallied five wide into the stretch, came rolling up the center of the track and won going away. "This is a nice filly and Bill [trainer Mott] has done a wonderful job with her," said winning jockey Heriberto Castillo Jr. "On her game, she is as good a sprinter as any other filly I have seen going three-quarters. The race today really worked out well. We had a nice honest pace in front of us and we picked up the pieces at the end."

Angled out for the drive by Phil Teator, Twilight Road finally got his head in front in deep stretch amidst a cavalry charge and found the wire first. "You know what I think it is? He just loves Florida," said winning trainer David Fawkes. "He's done everything right since he got here. The thing about him is that he wants to be covered up, which didn't happen the last time he tried turf. We'll just look at the options now--turf or dirt--obviously he can handle both."

European expatriate Spotlight will try to make it three straight in this Grade I affair, but she'll have to face several tough runners from across the sea. The chestnut, who defeated Oaks heroine Oujia Board (GB) at two, won over a soft Belmont course in her U.S. bow July 23 and streaked to victory in the GII Lake Placid H. Aug. 23 at Saratoga, with Mambo Slew the runner-up in the latter. "She's a great filly, a tiny little filly, but very tough,"

Spotlight at Saratoga
Adam Coglianese

said trainer Christophe Clement. "This is going to be a tougher race, but it's a Grade I for three-year-old fillies on the turf, and I've got to take a shot." Spotlight will be joined by stablemate Torrestrella, who makes her first start in the U.S. The dark bay capped a three-race streak in France with a victory in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches, beating Grey Lilas (Ire) in that one-mile Classic, but has not been out since finishing up the track in the G1 Prix de Diane June 13. "She's been with me for about two months," said Clement. "I would have preferred to give her a race in an allowance and then run in this stake, but it didn't happen." Aidan O'Brien sends Necklace from Ireland. Winner of the G1 Moyglare Stud S. last season, the regally bred bay had failed to hit the board in her first three starts this year, but nearly upset her elders in the GI Beverly D. Aug. 14 at Arlington. She was caught in traffic before rallying for third, beaten a half-length by Crimson Palace (SAf) and Riskaverse. "It took a lot of time for her to come around as a three-year-old; she really went backwards over the spring," explained O'Brien. "She started coming around in July, so we sent her to the Beverly D. We were delighted with her effort."

Whortleberry has been afforded the chance of another crack at the race in which she was fifth last year. She followed that outing with an unfortunate second in the G2 Prix de Royallieu here in October before taking the G2 Premio Lydia Tesio in Rome the following month. After some fair efforts this term, she returned to winning ways in the G2 Prix Jean Romanet at Deauville last time Aug. 22 and represents the Francois Rohaut stable that was successful with Pearly Shells (GB) two years ago. The progressive Lune d'Or won the G2 Prix de Malleret at Saint-Cloud July 4 and the G2 Prix de Pomone at Deauville last time Aug. 7. She is one of a host of smart sophomores that also includes Silverskaya, who bounced back to form when winning the G3 Prix Minerve at Deauville last time Aug. 24.

Polish Summer, who bids to provide Andre Fabre with his sixth renewal since 1989, looked to have a profitable season ahead of him when winning the G3 Prix Exbury at Saint-Cloud Mar. 6 and the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic at Nad al Sheba three weeks later. But he encountered testing conditions on his subsequent runs in his native France and duly disappointed when off the board in the G1 Prix Ganay at Longchamp May 2 and G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud last time July 4. Connections will be hoping that the rain stays away and that stable companion Short Pause can provide the requisite strong pace here. Policy Maker finished ahead of Polish Summer when chasing home the easy winner Gamut (Ire) in second at Saint-Cloud and previously won the G2 Grand Prix de Chantilly June 13.

Bago returns to the scene of his success in the G1 Grand Prix de Paris June 27. He lost his unbeaten tag, but little distinction, when third behind Sulamani (Ire) in the G1 International S. at York last time Aug. 17. With three Group 1 victories under his belt, including the G1 Criterium International at Saint-Cloud in November and G1 Prix Jean Prat on his belated return at Chantilly June 6, he sets the standard. The Niarchos family, whose colors were carried to success by Hernando (Fr) in 1993 and by Sulamani (Ire) two years ago, may yet have a horse to avenge the defeat of those past greats in the Arc in three weeks' time. He has to get past the shock G1 Prix du Jockey-Club winner Blue Canari, who is out to prove his defeat of Prospect Park and Valixir in the Chantilly Classic was no fluke June 6. Off since that performance, he has enjoyed the typical summer break that has worked for all the domestic sophomore middle-distance stars in recent times. Prospect Park is another who comes here fresh, having followed his head defeat in that Classic with a subsequent score in the G3 Prix du Lys at this track June 27. Valixir captured the G2 Prix Eugene Adam at Maisons-Laffitte July 14 before getting his summer holiday.

LANE'S END

RINGSIDE... with Alan Carasso

LASTING IMPRESSIONS

The marathon Keeneland September sale, which kicks off tomorrow morning in Lexington, will be conducted with a certain melancholy as it will feature the final yearlings produced by two of the world's pre-eminent sires.

Seattle Slew, who died a little over two years ago on the 25th anniversary of his sweep of the Triple Crown, is represented by three fillies in the catalogue, two of which will go under the hammer during Tuesday's second select session. Hip 346 is the second foal from the 10-year-old Pleasant Temper, a Storm Cat mare who was a two-time graded stakes winner on the turf. She is being consigned to the sale by Tom Van Meter and Reiley McDonald's Eaton Sales. Hip 391 is a daughter of Ski Dancer (Baldski), who earned her reputation as a top sprinter on the West Coast, with victories in the GIII Las Cienegas H. and the GIII San Simeon H. on the Santa Anita downhill turf course. She was also classy enough to transfer that form to the main track, finishing third to Serena's Song in the 1994 GI Hollywood Starlet S. and second in the GI Santa Monica H. in 1997. The dark bay is part of the Lane's End consignment.

The third and last of the Slews sells during Wednesday's first open session. Consigned by Three Chimneys, for 17 years the home of Seattle Slew, hip 687 is a dark bay filly out of Plaintiff (Seeking the Gold), a daughter of GI Kentucky Oaks winner Dispute.

"We're really happy to have a filly from Seattle Slew's last crop to sell," said Dan Rosenberg, Three Chimneys President. "It's obviously the end of an era, but we know that Seattle Slew's pedigree is going to carry through and be an influence for the next 100 years. It's sad, but horses die and things move on and we're really happy to have one of the last ones."

Commenting on the filly, Case Clay, son of Three Chimneys owner Robert Clay said, "She's got a lot of Slew in her. You'd be able to look at her among a bunch of horses and say which one is a Slew filly. She definitely has a Slew head. She's very typey."

Another prominent stallion who was taken from the Thoroughbred world well before his time was Saint Ballado, who died in October 2002 at just 13 years old. The former Taylor Made stallion is represented by 41 of his sons and daughters in a sales pavilion where his get have consistently excelled, including a son of Charm a Gendarme who topped the 2001 July sale at $4 million. His loss is a profound one, according to Duncan Taylor, who stood Saint Ballado on behalf of Aaron and Marie Jones.

"He was the kind of horse that consistently got top runners and he could get you the horse to take you all the way to the Grade I. It was tragic to lose him at such a young age," he said. "To find a great stallion as well-bred as he was, it's tough to replace those. It looks like he's going to become a sire of sires and I think even his broodmares are going to do well."

Saint Ballado's 20 yearlings in book one include hip 53, a daughter of millionaire sprint mare JJ's Dream (Glitterman), consigned by Hill 'n' Dale Sales on behalf of the estate of John Franks; hip 163, a Taylor Made-consigned son of Strawberry Reason (Strawberry Road {Aus}), making him a half brother to 2002 champion juvenile colt Vindication; hip 174, an attractive bay filly and first foal from Thunder Bertie (Thunder Gulch), winner of the 2000 GIII Arlington-Washington Lassie, also consigned by Taylor Made.

Lane's End to Sponsor TVG Coverage...

Lane's End Farm near Versailles, Kentucky, will sponsor the live coverage of the Keeneland September Yearling Sale on TV Games Network. TVG will broadcast the first three days of the sale, Sept. 13-15, with reports beginning at 1 p.m. and continuing through 7 p.m. daily. "The Keeneland Sales Reports" will feature Jill Byrne and Jeff Lifson, with expert commentary from Keeneland Director of Sales Rogers Beasley.

3--Weston Field, 115, g, 6, Gulch--Escrow Agent, by El Gran Senor. ($400,000 yrl '99 KEEJUL). $7,800.

Margins: 2, NK, 3HF. Odds: 0.30, 9.00, 7.40.

Lion Tamer kicked off the season with three straight victories, including the GII Commonwealth Breeders' Cup S. at Keeneland Apr. 10. That streak came to end when the handsome chestnut finished fifth in Belmont's GIII Westchester H. May 5. Last seen running fourth behind Ghostzapper in the GII Tom Fool H. July 4, he received a significant drop in class here and was bet down accordingly. Ridden by Eibar Coa, the heavy favorite sat comfortably off the leaders, rallied four wide in the stretch and was ridden out to a comfortable score.

Simianna had shown glimpses of a return to her best when runner-up to Chookie Heiton (Ire) in the Listed Beverley Bullet S. last time Aug. 28. Dealt the considerable advantage of the one draw at this turning track, she recorded her first success here since beating Shuffling Kid (GB) in the Lily Agnes Conditions S. as a juvenile three years ago. Able to stalk the early pace hard against the fence, she got the split between Blue Dream and Fruit of Glory inside the final 100 yards and squeezed through to record a hard-earned and richly deserved first stakes success.

Var arrived in the Newmarket stable of Clive Brittain after winning an optional claimer at Calder Jan. 2 and made his belated European debut a successful one under an enterprising ride. Taken to the front soon after the start by Jimmy Quinn, he quickened approaching the eighth peg and was always holding the challenge of Ruby Rocket in the drive to the line. "He arrived in March and, on his first day out on the heath, he got kicked by another horse and a quarter inch of his shoulder blade came out," his trainer explained. "When he was ready to go out again there was a thunderstorm and he got kicked by another horse and was out for four weeks. He might now go for next Saturday's G3 World Trophy at Newbury."
