HOW SWEET IT IS

Sweet Stream (Ity) (Shantou) stunned the crowd at Longchamp yesterday as she led home a shock 1-2-3 in the G1 Prix Vermeille Fouquet's Barriere. Off at 30-1, the four-year-old filly was settled towards the rear by Thierry Gillet. Kept to the fence throughout, she received a charmed run when the favorite Lattice (Ire) (Inchior {GB}) veered away from the inside in the final quarter. Gillet found the rail to be golden from there, driving through to collar 44-1 Royal Fantasy (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}) in the final 50 yards, with 40-1 Pride (Fr) (Peintre Celebre) another short neck away in third. "She has been working very well recently, but is a funny filly because she's an autumn filly," trainer John Hammond said. "She's very laid back and was the first off the bridle today, but finds plenty every time she runs. Prix Vermeille cont. p2

Sweet Stream opened her stakes account in the Listed Prix Belle de Nuit at Maisons-Laffitte in November, but was soundly beaten in the G3 Prix Allez France at Chantilly on her return May 7. She shaped better when third in the G2 Prix de Pomone at Deauville last time Aug. 7, but received little support when breaking through with her first-ever group win in this event. The dark bay is not bound for the Oct. 3 G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, according to trainer John Hammond, who added, "I don't know where she will go next." Sweet Stream became the 10th Group 1 winner syndicated by Barry Irwin and Jeff Siegel since 1987. Trainer Jean-Marie Beguigne said of disappointing G1 Prix de Diane winner Latice, who faded to eighth in the final furlong, "She ran like a filly that doesn't stay and she had every chance." As for what's next, he said, "We will have to change the original plan and go for the G1 Prix de l'Opera here [Oct. 3] instead of the Arc."

A maiden winner on the grass at Belmont at two, Lucifer's Stone ended her juvenile campaign with a third in the Oct. 26 Miss Grillo S. She kicked off 2004 with three straight victories, capping the streak with a head score in the Apr. 14 Appalachian S. at Keeneland, then just missed making it four in a row when she finished a neck second to Mambo Slew (Kingmambo) in the June 13 GIII Sands Point S. Last time out, the Team Solaris colorbearer had to settle for fifth behind Seducer's Song in the Aug. 2 GIII Lake George S. Overlooked with the step up to Grade I company here, she was rated in behind the leaders through moderate early splits, but shifted into high gear for the stretch run, closing between horses to take the lead late before striding clear. As for what's next, Linda Rice said, "Our plan all along was to go to the [G] Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup at Keeneland Oct. 16]." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Andre Fabre always produces a contender for the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe and in Valixir he has a live chance for that showpiece in three weeks' time. Having been brushed aside by Bago when runner-up in the G3 Prix des Chenes at this track in September, he returned to record a facile victory on his return in the Listed Prix Matchem at Maisons-Laffitte Apr. 20. He chased home Voix du Nord (Fr) and Millemix (Fr) in the G1 Prix Lupin back at this venue May 16 before filling third spot in the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club (French Derby) at Chantilly June 6. Rested after a fluent score in the July 14 G2 Prix Eugene Adam at Maisons-Laffitte last time, he looked more at home over this trip than he had before his summer break. Settled in fourth by Eric Legrix off the even tempo, he allowed Prospect Park and Olivier Peslier first run in the straight before quickening to join that rival approaching the eighth pole. Despite veering left under pressure, he found extra when asked to win the bobber as Bago closed late under Thierry Gillet. "He has needed a lot of time to mature, but has come right now," explained the Lagardere Family's Racing Manager Roland de Longevialle. "He definitely goes for the Arc and, at his best, he will give them all a fight on the day." The Niarchos Family's Racing Manager Alan Cooper admitted he was "puzzled" by the run of Bago. "He took time to pick up and then finished very well," he said. "I can't say where he will run next." Click for the brisnet.com catalog-style pedigree or for the Racing Post race chart.

Margins: 2, 1HF, 3/4. Odds: 0.80, 4.80, 4.00.

Also Ran: Polish Summer (GB).

Policy Maker was promoted to first place after finding Polish Summer (GB) (Polish Precedent) a short neck too strong in the G2 Grand Prix de Deauville last August. He failed to land a blow in the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe in October, however, finishing down the field, and could do no better than fifth in his return in the G2 Prix d'Harcourt here Apr. 4. The four-year-old improved to gain a last-gasp victory in the G2 Grand Prix de Chantilly June 13, but he was no match for Gamut (Ire) when runner-up in the G2 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud last time July 4. He benefitted from an enterprising ride from the front here by Olivier Peslier, quickening at the top of the straight before comfortably holding Short Pause in the closing stages. Owner Alec Wildenstein said, "Policy Maker will return for the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe [Oct. 3], where he will be joined by Vallee Enchantee, who couldn't make this due to a bout of coughing." An allowance winner in her first try on the turf at Belmont Park June 5, Seducer's Song came back to be a solid second in the July 3 Fieldy S. before getting the job done in the Aug. 2 GIII Lake George S. at Saratoga.

The gray filly shipped cross-country after that effort, but after racing on the bit early, faded in the final drive to be fourth in the Aug. 21 GI Del Mar Oaks. Facing a softer field this time, she was bet down to even-money and came through for the crowd. The three-year-old broke from the far outside in the eight-horse field, but jockey Joe Bravo eased her toward the rail and saved ground around the first turn. The duo settled just off the leaders down the backstretch, found running room between horses on the final bend and finished well to take over in the stretch. The winner had enough left in the tank to hold off the late charge of Go Robin to the wire. But Bravo almost had to miss the ride on Seducer's Song. Monmouth's top jockey was forced to take off his mount in the race prior to the Boiling Springs when he was unseated behind the starting gate. He ended up in first aid with an injured right foot, but was given the OK to ride by the track's physician, Angelo Chinnici and pulled it together to get the filly home first.

Fearless Flyer stormed to a 13-length maiden win racing one mile over Ireland's Bellewstown racecourse, but was overmatched when last of seven against the boys in the listed Tyros S. at Leopardstown July 24. Making her North American bow, the Irish miss was allowed to settle well off the pace, moved into contention with a three-wide bid turning for home and kicked clear late for an easy win. "I had a perfect trip," said winning rider Emile Ramsammy. "I was in a bit of a fight with her early on and got myself a little far back early, which I didn't mind. Being a European filly, she really enjoyed the long stretch here. She had some pace to run at. I think she really enjoyed herself, a typical European horse, a big galloping horse." James Stack, assistant to winning trainer Tommy Stack, said Fearless Flyer will ship to California to join the stable of trainer Ben Cecil. "Mr. [John Paul] Reddam bought her after she won her maiden," Stack explained. There's a lot of competitive fillies in Ireland this year, so Mr. Reddam thought there might be more opportunities in Canada for her. I'm glad it all worked out."

Last year's G1 Prix du Cadran and G1 Prix Royal-Oak winner Westerner returned to win the G3 Prix de Barbeville over course and distance Apr. 22, but surrendered his air of invincibility when edged out by Forestier (Fr) in the G2 Prix Vicomtesse Vigier next time May 23. He recovered all his lustre when beaten 1 1/2 lengths by Papineau (GB) in a vintage renewal of the G1 Ascot Gold Cup at the Royal meeting June 17 before being dropped to a mile and half for the G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud last time 4. In that event, he disappointed when only ninth and had questions to answer back at a more suitable distance here. Settled in rear by a confident Olivier Peslier throughout the early stages, Westerner unleashed his trademark turn of acceleration to lead with 300 yards remaining before holding Cut Quartz in the closing stages. "He's a stayer and trying a mile and a half didn't work out," explained trainer Elie Lellouche. "He won well there without Peslier having to take out the ear plugs and he'll come back to defend his title in the G1 Prix du Cadran [Oct. 3]." Click for the Racing Post race chart.

Alkaadhem was aimed high after taking the Listed Festival S. over course and distance May 20, but disappointed when down the field in the G1 Queen Anne S. at Royal Ascot June 15. After his fourth placing in the Listed Gala S. at Sandown July 2 and third in the Listed Glorious S. at Goodwood last time July 30, connections decided to use blinkers. Always traveling smoothly in mid-division, he was full of run with a quarter mile remaining and quickened to hit the front approaching the furlong marker before drawing clear from the closer Battle Chant. "He does go well here and we put blinkers on because he's not won when we have expected him to," explained trainer Marcus Tregoning. "He's been going very well at home and I probably got it wrong earlier on pitching him into Group 1 level when he wasn't ready." Click for the Racing Post chart.

A Tough Act To Follow...

The 2003 Keeneland September Sale was conducted under a specter of uncertainty as to how Mare Reproductive Loss Syndrome would impact the market. As a byproduct of MRLS, officials at Keeneland made the difficult decision to forego their boutique July sale and group those horses in September Book 1. No one could have predicted what was to come. For the select portion of the 2003 event, gross receipts jumped 31 percent, the average of $387,168 represented a whopping 45-percent improvement on 2002 and the median rose by a generous 35 percent. It was, in a sense, comparing apples to oranges, but the results were no less impressive. Optimism rules the day again 12 months later, though tempered by pragmatism. "Our gains last year were phenomenal--to say we're going to do that [again] would be ridiculous," admitted Geoffrey Russell, Keeneland's director of sales. "By the looks of it, the top end of the market is about the same as it was last year. We are very pleased with the horses we've recruited for the select portion of the sale and our consignors have brought us a very strong group of individuals both physically and pedigree-wise. We hope for the best. Obviously any increases we could get we'd be very pleased to have."

Cautious Optimism...

The upper end of the market will get its test today and tomorrow and there are some questions to be answered. While the summer's first yearling venue, Fasig-Tipton July, held up very well, there seemed to be some hesitation on the part of buyers during that company's boutique Saratoga Select sale a month ago. While the market performed reasonably well, just five horses reached the seven-figure plateau, the cumulative average was off marginally and the median sunk by over 11 percent. Russell was unwilling to label these developments a trend and hopes the September sale can 'right the ship.' "The select portion of the sale is as strong as last year and I think the middle part of the sale is exceedingly strong as well," he said. "And I hope there will be a carryover effect like last year, where we had a rollover effect from one book to another pretty much all the way through the whole sale." During the 2003 sale, each session saw an increase in the average from the previous year, with the exception of the 12th and final day of bidding. Russell is also encouraged by the applications for credit which have been streaming in since August. "One of the ladies just came up from the credit office and said they were swamped down there," he commented. "I notice this year that we got a lot of credit apps in early from some new people. I've been getting them on a regular basis. They are full ranges, too. There are low five-figure [applications] to high six-figure. It's a good range."

The Lure of September...

Judging by the volume of activity and a general buzz on the sales grounds, one thing is clear. Buyers and sellers alike love being at Keeneland. "The September sale offers both the consignor and the buyer a great comfort level," Geoff Russell explained. "I think a buyer, no matter what price range he wishes to shop at, knows that when he comes here, he will have plenty of quantity in that price range to choose from. And the seller on the other side knows that many buyers come here because they know that they can find horses and that when they leave here, they'll have what they want. When you have boutique-type sales, with 200 head in a sale, the problem is that some people are going to go home without buying a horse. We want buyers to be happy and leave with horses. The September sale accomplishes that very well."

Spanning the Globe...

One very positive development early in the yearling sales season has been an influx of new money, which was in particular evidence at Fasig-Tipton July. Like any other business venture, competitors are consistently vying for new customers and Keeneland is no exception. "Because we have more horses and just the way the industry is at the moment, we spent a lot of time doing direct public marketing and catalogue distribution throughout North American racetracks and training centers," Russell said. "[Former sales director and current Keeneland Director of Racing] Rogers [Beasley] has done a trip to the Far East and to the Russian republics and our European representative Tim Preston has been all over Europe promoting the fact that our dollar is weaker than the European currency and that we offer good value as well. Having 14 days this year as opposed to 12 days last year, we are increasing our efforts to get people to come to this sale."

☆ HORSES TO WATCH ☆

Hot Pants...

One of the top Illinois-bred racemares of her time, Sassy Pants (Saratoga Six) won a pair of restricted stakes and nearly $240,000. But that pales in comparison to what she's done as a broodmare and she has a chance to improve on an already impressive start at stud when hip 137, a daughter of Carson City, is led into the pavilion. The filly's page has been very live this year, as she is a half sister to none other than Madcap Escapade (Hennessy), who stamped herself one of the leading three-year-old fillies earlier this year with a win in the GIII Forward Gal S. followed by a victory over Ashado in the GI Ashland S. Subsequently third to that divisional leader in the GI Kentucky Oaks, she emerged with an injury and is sidelined. Bill Betz, who consigned both Madcap Escapade ($160,000, 2002 Keeneland September) and this filly, explained the mating. "We liked the cross of Storm Cat on Saratoga Six, that's why we bred her to Hennessy, and Madcap was the result," he said, adding that the same cross produced Catinca, among others. Betz also consigned an Awesome Again half sister which was purchased by pinhooker Jerry Bailey for $75,000 at last year's September sale. Six months later, the same filly breezed a hole in the wind ahead of the Barretts March Sale and went on to top that sale at $2 million. Any regrets about letting go? "Well, Madcap Escapade hadn't run yet and Awesome Again was just getting started on his career," he said, adding, "It's never bad to sell a good horse to somebody because they'll always come back. I am happy to have bred a horse that brought $2 million as a two-year-old." Betz would love to approach that figure with his Carson City filly. "This filly is a later foal. She has a lot of the same balance and scope that Madcap Escapade has. She's by Carson City, so a different sire line than Storm Cat, but we really like her and think that given time to mature that she'll be a very useful filly for somebody." Twelve-year-old Sassy Pants has a suckling colt by High Yield and is in foal to 2003 GI Belmont S. winner Empire Maker.

MiddleBrook Hoping for Day One Deja Vu...

On the opening day of the 2003 September sale, it was a colt by Danzig--Queena, from the consignment of Helen Alexander's MiddleBrook Farm, who stole the show when he brought a session-topping bid of $3.6 million from Demi O'Byrne. While Alexander may not be armed to do quite the same damage this time around, she is back with a trio of fillies set to be sold this afternoon. Of particular interest in hip 205, the lone offering in the massive catalogue by European Horse of the Year and U.S. champion turf horse Daylami (Ire). The Mar. 31 foal is a daughter of Antics (Unbridled), who in turn is out of Aurora, the dam of full stakes winners Arch, Festival of Light and Alisios. Alexander explained the decision to breed to the 10-year-old stallion. "We had sent the mare over to be bred to Giant's Causeway in 2002, but with MRLS going on here, we were afraid to bring her back. We just left her over there," she said. "I really loved Daylami as a racehorse and he was an outcross, so we gave it a chance. You can only imagine how happy we were when his two-year-olds came out running." Daylami, who entered stud in 2000, is represented by Grey Swallow (Ire), winner of this year's G1 Irish Derby. Antics' Giant's Causeway colt, now known as Morning Raider (Ire), was knocked down for $450,000 at last year's September sale.

Another Touch of Greatness...

It was a clash of the titans on Day 2 of last year's September sale when hip 522 strode into the ring. A filly by Gone West out of the tremendous producing mare Touch of Greatness, the full sister to Elusive Quality was the subject of fierce bidding, finally falling to John Ferguson on behalf of Sheikh Mohammed for a sales-topping price of $3.8 million. This afternoon, the latest foal from the 18-year-old mare, a filly by Giant's Causeway, gets her chance in the ring. "Her pedigree alone is going to carry her a long way," said Robert Clay, whose Three Chimneys consigns the bay on behalf of Silver Springs Stud Farm and Jayeff 'B' Stables. "She's a very nice filly. Whether we can set off the same fireworks as last year, I don't know. It's a great family and I expect her to sell well. She's a nice walker, a good mover and she's a big strong filly. She's different than the filly last year, but I still expect her to sell well." Catalogued as hip 180, the Feb. 24 foal is also a half sister to Irish champion Rossini (Miswaki) and Great Exhibition (Gone West), a $1.8 million purchase out of the 2002 Keeneland July sale.

There's a New Deputy in Town...

In a tribute befitting Deputy Minister, who died Friday at the age of 25, several of Saturday's biggest winners had pedigrees that figured heavily with blood from the perennial leading sire. The valiant hero of the GI Woodward S. at Belmont, Ghostzapper, is by a son of Deputy Minister, Awesome Again, while a second Grade I on the card, the Man o' War S., went to Magistretti, a Diesis (GB) colt out of a Deputy Minister mare. With Deputy Minister getting 64 of the 71 mares he covered this year in foal, there will be plenty of chances down the road to pick up his offspring, but he is well-represented at Keeneland (19 catalogued, all in session one and two) and is sure to be popular. In addition to hip 81, a three-parts brother to champion Left Bank (see Hip Happenings), Deputy Minister has hip 20, a half brother to GSW She's a Devil Due (Devil His Due); hip 206, a filly out of MGSW Appealing Missy (Lypheor {GB}); hip 285, a colt out of GSP Hollywood Baldcat (Kris S.) from the family of Hollywood Wildcat and War Chant; hip 297, a filly out of French champion Lady in Silver (Silver Hawk); hip 303, a colt out of MGSW Lazy Slusan (Slewvescent); hip 338, a half brother to MGSW Dr. Kashnikov (El Gran Senor); and hip 472, a filly named Deputy's Hero out of GISW Cindy's Hero (Sea Hero).

☆ HIP HAPPENINGS ☆

Hip 75, A.P. Indy--Magicalmysterycat, by Storm Cat
Consigned by Taylor Made Sales Agency, Agent CCLVII B-WinStar Farm (Ky)

The second foal from MGSW Magicalmysterycat is bred on the same cross as GSW Jump Start. The dark bay counts as his second dam MGSW Nannerl (Valid Appeal), who was hammered down for $1.25 million at KEENOV in 2002. A full to this one sold for $195,000 at last year's FTKOCT auction.

Hip 81, Deputy Minister--Marshesseaux, by Dr. Blum
Consigned by Hill 'n' Dale Sales Agency, agent B-John Youngblood, Fletcher & Carolyn Gray (Ky)

The colt is a three-parts brother to the brilliant but ill-fated Left Bank (French Deputy), who was able to stretch his sprinting speed to two turns when taking the GI Whitney H. on his way to champion older male honors in 2002. A Pulpit half to this colt made $1.4 million at the '02 KEESEP sale, while three other siblings became minor stakes winners.

Hip 112, Storm Cat--Pennant Fever, by Seattle Slew

*Consigned by Lane's End, agent
B-Edward P. Evans (Ky)*

GSP Pennant Fever has produced three Storm Cats that have made the races: MGISW Raging Fever, GSW and good young sire Stormin Fever and MGSP Roaring Fever. Not too bad. This filly, a Mar. 29 foal, is the first from the dam to be offered at sale.

Hip 121, A.P. Indy-- Princess Atoosa, by Gone West

*Consigned by Eaton Sales, agent
B-Brushwood Stables (Pa)*

The first foal out of an unraced Gone West daughter of European Mare of the Year and four-time Group 1 winner Kooyonga (Ire) (Persian Bold {Ire}), hip 121 is, "a lovely individual, a bright chestnut with beautiful balance," according to consignor Reiley McDonald of Eaton Sales. "She's very correct and very athletic." The dam, Princess Atoosa, was purchased by Brushwood Stables for $1 million out of the '98 KEENOV sale.

Hip 133, Kingmambo--Rings a Chime, by Metfield

*Consigned by Taylor Made Sales Agency, Agent CCXLV
B-Stonerside Stable (Ky)*

Hip 133 is the first foal from GI Ashland S. winner and GI Kentucky Oaks runner-up Rings a Chime. "She's pure racehorse," said Taylor Made's Duncan Taylor. "She's got a lot of bone and is a smart, smart filly. A friend was down at the barn the other day and said she looked just like [MGISW] Lakeway, but with a better hip." This cross (Metfield is by Seattle Slew) is responsible for 2004 GSW Mambo Slew, in addition to champion Lemon Drop Kid. Rings a Chime was purchased by Stonerside for $800,000 out of the '02 KEEJAN sale. She slipped her foal that year.

Hip 150, Seeking the Gold--Soaring Softly, by Kris S.

*Consigned by Darby Dan Farm, agent
B-Phillips Racing Partnership (Ky)*

The third foal from the talented Soaring Softly, who was named champion grass mare off her victory in the inaugural GI Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Turf, hip 150 is a Mar. 2 foal. Second dam Wings of Grace (Key to the Mint), a Grade III winner, also produced Soaring Softly's three-quarters sister, GISW Plenty of Grace (Roberto).

All horses in TDN Headline News and TDN American edition are bred in North America, unless otherwise indicated

Hip 162, Storm Cat--Strategic Maneuver, by Cryptoclearance

*Consigned by Eaton Sales, agent
B-Brushwood Stables (Pa)*

Strategic Maneuver, winner of the GI Matron S. and GI Spinaway S., has excelled in the breeding shed as well. The 13-year-old produced Irish Group 3 winner Ishiguru (Danzig) and Grade II winner Cat Fighter (Storm Cat), who sold as a four-year-old for $1.35 million at this year's BESMAR sale as part of The Thoroughbred Corp. dispersal. Of hip 162, Eaton Sales' Reiley McDonald said, "She's a late May foal that looks like a January filly from a mare that's getting top-class horses."

Hip 163, Saint Ballado--Strawberry Reason, by Strawberry Road (Aus)

*Consigned by Taylor Made Sales Agency, Agent CI
B-Payson Stud (Ky)*

The 12-year-old GSW Strawberry Reason has already produced two seven-figure yearlings: $2.15 million Saratoga graduate Vindication (Seattle Slew), the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile S. victor and 2002 champion juvenile; and $1.9 million Scipion (A.P. Indy), who captured his debut at Saratoga in spectacular fashion before finishing third in the Sept. 6 GIII MGD Cradle S. in his latest. Like his brother Vindication, hip 163, a dark bay colt, should have no problem with two turns, according to Taylor Made's Duncan Taylor. "He looks like a Classic horse," said Taylor. "He's got a great neck and has a good presence. He's very athletic."

Hip 172, Storm Cat--Tenga, by Mr. Prospector

*Consigned by Paramount Sales, Agent VII
B-Gaines-Gentry Thoroughbreds & Overbrook Farm (Ky)*

A May 12 foal, he is a half to GISW Star Tac (Theatrical {Ire}) out of stakes-winning Tenga. "He's a really nice colt, very racey," said Paramount's Pat Costello. "He's a late foal, but he's very powerful. He's quite high behind, so I think he be a good-sized horse. And he's very correct for a Storm Cat." A full to Star Tac sold for $2 million at the '01 KEESEP sale.

Hip 228, Kingmambo--Chelsey Flower, by His Majesty

Consigned by Robert E. Courtney/Crestfield Farm, LLC, Agent I B-Jaime S. Carrion, Trustee (Ky)

Out of GI Flower Bowl Invitational H. winner Chelsey Flower, who banked over a half-million, this Feb. 3 colt has had several siblings to sell well, including an A.P. Indy half sister that went for $950,000 at the '00 KEESEP sale. "He's a handsome boy," said consignor Robert Courtney, Sr. "He's a great big horse with a lot of bone, and has a lot presence about him." The dam sold for $1.1 million at the '97 KEENOV sale.

What They're Saying At The Sales...

Bayne Welker, Jr., Mill Ridge Sales:

"So far the traffic has been good. I think we're optimistic that the sale stays on the same plane as it did last year. I think we'll have some really happy consignors. There's been a lot of interest out here. If you go in there and you set your sights at the right spot, you get horses sold. You don't get greedy."

Martha Jane Mulholland, Mulholland Springs Farm:

"Things have been going really well. We had more people out here on Friday this year than ever before. I don't know if there are more people or if everyone is getting an early start. Right now, the sale looks really, really strong. It's been wonderful. All of my horses are being very well received. We just have to wait and see."

John Amerman, Amerman Racing:

"There's an awful lot of nice individuals here. I think you just have to go through and find ones that fit your program, but the important thing is that those horses are definitely here. There are very good individuals in most of the consignments and we've been very pleased by what we've seen."

Eoin Harty, trainer:

"Well, as always, there are some very, very nice horses here. You've just got to be lucky enough to be able to afford them. There is good supply at all levels. It sort of has to be that way when you have as many horses as you have here. It feels good to me out here. I think it will be a good sale."

Rick Littrell, Viking Stud:

"It's been very, very busy. There were even a whole lot of farm shows before we got out here. Interest seems to be very high and let's hope that this translates into good sales. I think the top end is going to be extremely strong and we'll just have to see how the middle market goes. I think you're going to see a great couple of weeks here. I am also seeing some new faces out here and plenty of end users as well as pinhookers. I think these are all good signs for a good sale. There are a lot of good horses here. People are telling me that they're having an awful hard time paring down their short lists."

PRIX D'AUMALE-G3, €73,000, 2yo, f, 1mT

SC	PP	HORSE	SIRE	TRAINER
1	3	Birthstone (GB)	Machiavellian	Pantall
2	2	Portrayal	Saint Ballado	Fabre
3	4	Lonesome Me (Fr)	Zafonic	Bary
4	6	Victoria Page (Fr)	Anabaa	Beguigne
5	5	Pretty Soon (Fr)	Zafonic	Rouget
6	1	Faint Heart (Ire)	Sadler's Wells	Wachman

All carry 121 pounds.

Portrayal looked a smart prospect when finishing third behind subsequent G1 Prix Morny winner Divine Proportions in the G2 Prix Robert Papin July 25 and the very soft ground may have counted against her when fourth in the G3 Prix du Calvados at Deauville Aug. 21. Birthstone has been supplemented on the strength of her debut score at Deauville Aug. 27.

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, a ▲ will denote a first-time Grade/Group 1 winner, a + will first-time starters, an (S) will be used for state-bred races, a (C) will be used for maiden-claiming races and an (R) will be used for other restricted races. Purses for Canadian races are in Canadian dollars.

With Patience, on the board in all but one of her six starts this term and a stakes winner sprinting over the Colonial Downs turf in June, came into this off a pair of runner-up efforts, in Woodbine's Aug. 2 Gill Royal North H. and Monmouth's Aug. 28 Omnibus S. The bay mare ran a ground-saving trip just off the pacesetters through fractions of :22.66 and :45.71. She moved quickly to the lead nearing the stretch and pulled away when asked for run down the lane. "There was a lot of speed in the race," commented winning rider Javier Castellano. "They went too fast in the beginning. I settled down my filly. She settled down perfect. I had a good trip in the race. She did everything right today. She finished strong and galloped out strong." Elizabeth Merryman, the winning owner and trainer, added, "She is a real neat, classy horse. With turf racing, a lot of times you get in trouble and this horse was boxed in last time at Monmouth. Today Javier rode her so beautifully. She settled behind some hot fractions. She got a nice clean trip and was on her way."

Margins: HD, 3 1/4, HF. Odds: 12.90, 1.10, 6.40.

Mass Media dominated the competition when he began his career with two starts at Louisiana Downs last summer, but disappeared after finishing 10th in the GII Breeders' Futurity at Keeneland in October. The dark bay colt returned to win a track-and-trip allowance June 23 before coming up short when seventh in the Aug. 7 GII Amsterdam H. last time out. Dismissed as the longest shot in this field of five, Mass Media circled the field on the turn and outbattled even-money choice Smokume in a spirited duel to the wire. "[Trainer Bobby Frankel] told me to take him behind and make one big run," explained winning rider Javier Castellano. "I thought he had a bad trip in the Amsterdam. This horse likes to be in the clear. I had a good post today. I sat behind the speed and made one big run."

6th-BEL, $50,000, Alw, NW2X, 3yo/up, f/m, 1mT, 1:34 4/5, gd.

LENTIL (m, 5, Alphabet Soup--Black Tie Diamond {SP}, by Black Tie Affair {Ire}) hadn't visited the winner's circle since posting a win in a $100,000 optional claimer at the Meadowlands last October, but showed signs of life at 62-1 while second last out in the restricted De La Rose S. at Saratoga Aug. 11. Sent to the lead by Jose Santos, the 11-1 chance dictated the early fractions and had enough left to hold off 1-2 choice Shoot (GB) (Barathea {Ire}) by one length. Lifetime Record: SP, 31-4-7-6, $148,830.

3rd-BEL, $46,000, Msw, 3yo/up, 1 1/16m, 1:43, ft. EXAGGERATE THIS (g, 3, El Prado {Ire}--Palana {SW-Eng}, by Gulch), a $185,000 FTKJUL yearling, earned a 92 Beyer Speed Figure while second at Saratoga July 30, but returned with a seventh-place finish on the lawn last out Sept. 2. The heavy 3-5 favorite here, he fought for the early lead, took over in the stretch and crossed the line one length clear of 7-2 shot Macao (Seeking the Gold). The winner is a half brother to My Pal Lana (Kris S.), MSP, $327,294. Lifetime Record: 11-1-4-0, $70,764.

O-Padua Stables. B-John T Crane Jr (MD). T-Todd A Pletcher.

5th-BEL, $45,000, Msw, 2yo, f, 6 1/2f, 1:18, ft. HANGING CHADS (f, 2, Dixie Union--Chadra North {MSP}, by Far North) closed to finish second in her Saratoga debut at 5 1/2 furlongs Aug. 18. Given a 4-1 chance to earn her diploma here, she stumbled at the start, but recovered to press the early pace. Asked for run on the far turn by jockey Richard Migliore, the dark bay filly responded and drew clear to post a 2 1/4-length tally over the regally bred 4-5 chalk Salute (Unbridled). Hanging Chads, a half sister to Silver Chadra (Silver Deputy), MSP, $334,525, becomes the 10th winner for her freshman sire (by Dixieland Band). Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, $36,000.

O/B-White Fox Farm (KY). T-Kieran P McLaughlin.

2nd-BEL, $41,000, Msw, (S), 2yo, 7f, 1:24 2/5, ft. FREDDY THE CAP (c, 2, Precise End--Farma Speech, by Farma Way) outran his 32-1 odds in his debut, finishing second at Saratoga Aug. 23. Given a 9-1 chance this time, the $35,000 OBSAUG yearling and $8,500 OBSAPR juvenile, stayed close to the leaders and rallied in the stretch to defeat Precision Perfect (Precise End) by a half length. Freddy The Cap becomes the eighth winner for his freshman sire (by End Sweep). Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, $32,800.

O-Anita Velazquez. B-Sez Who Thoroughbreds, Inc (NY). T-Alfredo Velazquez.

Woodward 1-2 Headed to Classic:

Ghostzapper (Awesome Again) and Saint Liam (Saint Ballado), the one-two finishers in Saturday's GI Woodward S. at Belmont Park, will both likely train up to the GI Breeders' Cup Classic. Trainer Bobby Frankel said yesterday that Ghostzapper's gallant effort in beating Saint Liam by a neck would set him up well for the Classic. "In a way, it was good for him," Frankel said. "It was a hard race, but it got him fit, real fit. I was happy with it." Trainer Rick Dutrow Jr. was not quite as happy with Saint Liam's performance. "I was kind of disappointed that he was getting out so bad every step," he said. "I'm concerned about why he did that. [But] if there was anything wrong with him, he would not have been able to run that big of a race."

FORMAL COMMANDER (c, 3, Deputy Commander--Winthataway, by Blushing Groom {Fr}) finished second at Delaware in his only other start on the turf July 31, then ran sixth in an off-the-turfer at Saratoga last out Aug. 18. Backed as the 2-1 second choice here, the $15,000 KEENOV weanling and $42,000 OBSJUN two-year-old was bumped at the start, settled in fifth thereafter, rallied up the inside in the stretch and outfinished 9-5 favorite Conestoga (Pulpit) to win by a neck. DOYEN FLOP A MYSTERY Jockey Frankie Dettori yesterday admitted he was "puzzled" by the poor run of Doyen (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) in Saturday's G1 Irish Champion S. at Leopardstown. With no immediate reason coming to the fore after Godolphin's four-year-old faded to finish seventh in the 10-furlong contest, Dettori said, "He looked well and had worked well, so he absolutely puzzled me. He ran no race at all and we'll have to go back and look at it and carry on." Despite connections initially casting doubt on his participation in the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at Longchamp Oct. 3, Dettori refused to rule out the race. "It's only been 24 hours, so we'll have to get together and talk about it."

ARC STILL ON MUBTAKER AGENDA Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid al Maktoum's Mubtaker (Silver Hawk) looks likely to run in the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at Longchamp Oct. 3, despite his disappointment in the Sept. 5 G1 Grosser Preis von Baden. Last year's Arc runner-up won the G2 Geoffrey Freer S. in his return at Newbury Aug. 14, but could only manage seventh at Baden-Baden. Conditioner Marcus Tregoning reported the seven-year-old in "good form" yesterday and believes another tilt at the Arc is still on the cards. "It was my fault for not taking him out of the race at the time," he explained. "They had watered it, rolled it and then watered again, so it was deceptive and was rough ground. He ran a bit flat and it may have come a bit quick after the Geoffrey Freer, but he's in good form, so I'd be keen to go."
