A STYLISH GIRL

The unbeaten Sense of Style (Thunder Gulch) will attempt to secure her claim as New York's top two-year-old filly in the GI Matron S. this afternoon at Belmont. Trainer Patrick Biancone has been effusive in his praise for the pretty bay, who won at first asking at Saratoga Aug. 1 and followed that up with an impressive victory in the GII Spinaway S. Aug. 20. "I have said from day one she is a very, very good filly, and more distance would be better for her," Biancone said. "I have been happy with her training. She put in a Grade I performance in the Spinaway." Biancone opted to send stablemate Comacina against colts in the Futurity later in the afternoon. The regally bred Balletto (UAE) (Timber Country), a granddaughter of Eclipse champion Althea, is also unbeaten in two career starts. After breaking her maiden at Belmont July 18, the Darley homebred came from off the pace to annex a Saratoga allowance Aug. 2. Trainer Todd Pletcher, who won this event with Marylebone last year, sends out Summer Raven (Summer Squall). The $200,000 KEESEP yearling was second to Sense of Style in her second start and led gate to wire in her latest to break her maiden by a nose in the mud at Saratoga Aug. 29.

FREE FOR ALL?

Sam-Son homebred Soaring Free (Smart Strike) will attempt to become the first favorite to capture the GI Atto Mile at Woodbine since its inception in 1997. The five-year-old--second by a half-length in last year's Atto--is riding a four-race winning streak, capped by the GIII Play the King H. Aug. 28. "Maybe it's time they did," trainer Mark Frostad said when asked about the dearth of winning favorites. "It's probably a good omen. He'd won five straight last year coming into the race, so he's a very good horse, a world-class horse. A mile is probably the extent of his distance capabilities. But if it's a smart ride and not a killing pace, he's got a good chance to win it. Todd [jockey Kabel]s been riding super this year. We're really happy to have him in the irons." Soaring Free's runner-up effort in last year is his only loss in eight starts on this course. Atto Mile field p10

FOUR-PEAT FOR VINNIE ROE

He was allowed to drift to 7-2 joint favoritism by The Curragh faithful and that ended up a huge price as Vinnie Roe (Ire) (Definite Article {GB}) recorded his fourth, and arguably his easiest, success in the G1 Irish St Leger at The Curragh yesterday. Despite fears that he was not the force that had emerged on top on each of the last three years, he always looked comfortable, cruising to the head of affairs at the top of the straight. Jockey Pat Smullen looked behind for dangers, but none came and the evergreen six-year-old drew clear to a resounding 2½-length score. "I was waiting for them to come, but he put distance between them in strides and annihilated them," Smullen said. St Leger cont. p2

ROSES IN BLOOM

Roses In May (Devil His Due) was sent off the 3-10 chalk in the GII Kentucky Cup Classic at Turfway Park yesterday and came through for the crowd, drawing off to a four-length score. The four-year-old is now five-for-five in 2004. KC Classic cont. p2

ALL THE VERY BEST...

The very promising Shanghai Lily and Dubai Surprise are quoted for the 1,000 Guineas. Acomb Stakes winner Elliots World is aiming for the 2,000 Guineas. Sailor King is Stakes placed on his debut.

And King's Best's most recent winner, bringing his tally to nine, is Alexander Queen, beating a 29-runner field.

He warmed up with his usual outing in Leopardstown's Listed Ballyroan S. going 1 1/2 miles Aug. 15. The doubts crept in when he failed to get to Foreign Affairs (GB) in that test, but he silenced the critics yesterday. "Earlier in the year, I thought he wasn't as good, but he proved me wrong," Pat Smullen said. "It's fairytale stuff. He put me on the map and is dear to my heart, as he has never let me down. He's an out-and-out battler and it will be a while before I sit on one as tough." Trainer Dermot Weld, winning his sixth renewal since 1993, added, "We'll think about the G1 Melbourne Cup [at Flemington Nov. 2] if he comes out of this well." Roses in May, coming off a gallant nose score in the GI Whitney S. at Saratoga Aug. 7, took on much less vaunted rivals at Turfway Park and posted a workman-like victory. The dark bay dogged Pie N Burger through six furlongs in 1:11.66, forged to the front at the head of the stretch and was kept to the task as he drew off in the final eighth, working an extra eighth after the wire in preparation for the Oct. 30 GI Breeders' Cup Classic. "I couldn't have asked for it to go any better," trainer Dale Romans said. "He broke well, relaxed, rated well. After the race was over, he worked out well. I am very happy right now, but I also have a lot of relief." The colt will look to make it six-for-six on the year at Lone Star Park. Jockey John Velazquez, the fifth rider to pilot Roses in May this year, had not been aboard Roses in May since finishing sixth in the GII Jerome H. last year. He will be back aboard in Texas.

Teton Forest went right to the lead and never looked back, cruising to an easy first stakes success. The dark bay showed he could handle a mile when second to Rock Hard Ten in an allowance test at Santa Anita Mar. 3, but showed little when sixth in the WinStar Derby at Sunland Park 25 days later. He rebounded from that effort to take an optional claimer at Santa Anita Apr. 10, then shipped to Pimlico for the May 15 Hirsch Jacobs S. on the Pimlico undercard and finished a solid fourth. The three-year-old was making his first start since running second by a head in the June 5 GII Riva Ridge Breeders' Cup S., but had plenty of gas, dashing through a half in :46.66 and six furlongs in 1:10.73 en route to a decisive victory. "I was just a passenger," jockey Shaun Bridgmohan said. "[Trainer Bob Baffert] and his crew had this horse ready to go and all I had to do was steer him." Senor Swinger has been winning every other start since taking an allowance test at Churchill Downs in April and he kept that streak alive with a rallying score here. Fifth in the May 15 GII Dixie H. at Pimlico off his Louisville victory, the gray came back to take the Opening Verse S. over a yielding Churchill turf June 12 before running second in the July 3 GII Firecracker Breeders' Cup H. He won the GIII Arlington H. three weeks later, but was bothered at the break in the Aug. 14 GI Arlington Million and never got into the hunt, finishing seventh. Facing just three rivals as the second choice in his first try at Belmont, the four-year-old settled in third as Gulch Approval (Gulch) cut out easy fractions on the rain-soaked course. Senor Swinger was still in third as favored Stroll took control at the top of the lane, but ran down the crowd's choice inside the final furlong and pulled away to win handily. "He has been training incredibly and we had a lot of confidence in him," said Tonja Terranova, assistant to trainer Bob Baffert.

After opening his account in a Windsor maiden July 12, Galeota finished fifth in both the G2 Gimcrack S. at York Aug. 18 and the G3 Sirenia S. at Kempton Sept. 4. But he had enjoyed a confidence boost when making all in a Doncaster conditions event seven days previously and displayed the same pillar-to-post speed to wire this race. Breaking best of all from his middle stall, he soon had a length on his rivals and quickened when asked by jockey Ryan Moore inside the final quarter. Challenged by Mystical Land and Frankie Dettori in the closing stages, he maintained the relentless gallop all the way to the line as that rival tired in the softening ground. "He's always shown so much at home and he's probably strengthening up and beginning to show what he can do," his jockey commented. Trainer Richard Hannon told Sporting Life, "I couldn't believe he got beat first time out at Salisbury." He added, "He is the sort who will do well through the winter and make up into a smashing three-year-old." Ticker Tape rattled off consecutive stakes wins at Santa Anita earlier this season taking the China Doll S. Mar. 18 and the Providencia S. Apr. 11, before finishing second in the GIII Senorita S. at Hollywood May 15. Backed as the even-money chalk off that effort, she could only manage a fourth-place finish in Hollywood's GII Honeymoon Breeders' Cup H. June 5. Overlooked at 12-1 odds in the GI American Invitational Oaks July 31, the bay filly posted the biggest victory of her career in winning by one length. Last seen finishing a game second in the GI Del Mar Oaks Aug. 21, she was made the slight favorite in her Arlington Park debut. Allowed to settle towards the back of the pack as Bonanza Jellybean (Parade Ground) cut out the early splits, Ticker Tape began to rally on the final turn and drew off to post a solid victory. "She was very professional," winning trainer James Cassidy said. "The plan is to go to Keeneland to run in the [GI] Queen Elizabeth II [Oct. 16] if everything comes out OK." Greater Good may have the pedigree of a sprinter, but the bay colt belied his bloodlines when he easily won this two-turn contest. From the first crop of top sprinter Intidab--and a grandson of Eclipse Champion Sprinter What a Summer--the bay colt was an even fifth in his July 24 career opener at Ellis, but rallied five wide next out to win going seven-eighths at the same track Aug. 7. Jockey John McKee allowed his mount to settle into stride and the pair loped along well behind the early scimmages of Magna Graduate, Storied Cat (Tale of the Cat) and United (Dixie Union). But the rangy colt advanced on the far turn, aimed his sights on Magna Graduate in midstretch and won going away. "I'll talk it over with Mr. Lakin [owner/breeder Lewis], but I don't think we'll be going to the Breeders' Cup," said winning trainer Bob Holthus. Holthus indicated that Greater Good could go next in the GIII Iroquois S. Nov. 6 at Churchill. Winless since taking an optional claimer on the dirt at Oaklawn Park in February, Level Playingfield was freshened after running sixth in his turf debut, the GIII Crown Royal American Turf S. at Churchill Apr. 30. He came back to be second by a nose in an optional claimer on the Louisville lawn June 20 and was the runner-up again in a five-furlong grass handicap at Arlington July 17. Fourth in a turf sprint at Ellis Park Aug. 7, the dark bay was coming off yet another second-place effort in an Ellis handicap at 5 1/2 furlongs Aug. 29. The $15,000 OBSAPR juvenile was switching back to the dirt for this start and, overlooked at 10-1, trailed the field through a half in :44.27, but closed from the outside to catch crowd's choice Cuvee in deep stretch and drew clear late. It was the third win of the afternoon for trainer Bob Holthus, who also took the KC Juvenile with Greater Good. "It turned to be a good day," Holthus said. "I really liked the colt in the Juvenile, but this one was definitely a pleasant surprise." GISW Cuvee was making his second start of the season and his first since running second in the May 8 Matt Winn S. at Churchill Downs.

Feline Story was off to a slow start, but finished with determination to catch front-running Cologney in the final strides. The bay last visited the winner's circle after posting a two-length tally in the Legal Light S. at Delaware Park in April. She finished second in her next three outings, missing by a nose in an optional claimer at Belmont May 19, by a head in the Funistrada S. June 12 and by 2 1/4 lengths in the Gl Prioress S. as a 26-1 shot July 3. Sent off at 13-1 in the July 31 Gl Test S., the sophomore faltered after running into trouble at the half-mile pole and could do no better than 11th, but improved against softer when third as the choice in the Aug. 28 Victory Ride S. at the Spa. Feline Story was the choice once again yesterday and looked likely to let her backers down as Cologney hit the eighth pole with a two-length lead, but she reeled in the pacesetter in the shadow of the wire. "She broke bad, but I didn't rush her," jockey Edgar Prado said. "I knew the fractions were fast. When I got into my filly left-handed, she really responded. She gave me another gear." Added trainer Stanley Hough, "I have been having trouble with her at the gate--I took her to the gate three times before this race. She's gotten to fighting in the gate now and she never used to do that. I've got to get her over that. I'm going to give her a little break and hopefully get her over the gate problem." It took Susan's Angel seven starts to break her maiden, but she did so in style, winning by 8 1/4 lengths in the mud at Churchill Downs May 26. The three-year-old was the even-money favorite in a Churchill allowance race June 9 and finished second by a nose, but made it two-for-three with a head victory in the July 24 Serena's Song S. at Monmouth Park. Stepped up sharply in class off that effort, she was sent off at 21-1 in the Aug. 21 Gl Alabama S. at Saratoga and ran to her odds, pressing the early pace before tiring to be sixth. The only sophomore, Susan's Angel was the fifth choice in this six-horse field. She pressed favored Angela's Love through solid splits, took over in the final drive and held Mayo On the Side at bay for her first graded tally. "She is an absolute jewel to train, very consistent," trainer D. Wayne Lukas said. "This was her first [graded] stakes win, so for her to get over that is a big step." He added, "I don't know if she will go to the Breeders' Cup, because we have Stellar Jayne and Azeri, but she's only a three-year-old. I haven't talked to the owners yet, but the Indiana Oaks [GIII, at Hoosier Park Oct.1] is a possibility."

Punch Appeal broke her maiden for a $40,000 tag at Calder May 17, then ran third in an allowance over that course June 6. Stepped up to stakes company for her next two starts, she didn't disappoint taking the JJ's Dream S. by 4 1/4 lengths June 6 and the Chipiski S. by 1 1/4 lengths July 23. Purchased privately after that race, she was shipped to Saratoga for her latest and found Sense of Style a bit too tough in the GII Spinaway S., finishing fifth, beaten 8 3/4 lengths Aug. 20. The bay, backed as the second-choice to get back on track here, showed the early way and was headed at the half-mile marker, but responded when asked and came home a comfortable winner. "She is a nice filly," trainer Steve Asmussen said. "I was a little surprised that she was on the lead early. My directions to [jockey Shane Sellers] were to just make sure she got away smoothly, but she did a great job." Added Sellers, "My filly broke running, as do most of Steve's horses. She has a style that fit the track, and the class to go with it." The winner is likely to go next in the GII Alcibiades S. at Keeneland Oct. 8, but Asmussen remarked, "She is a small filly and we'll have to see how she comes out of this." He was only beaten 2 1/4 lengths when fourth behind Tante Rose (Ire) in the G1 Haydock Sprint Cup last time Sept. 4 and returned to winning ways with a workmanlike display in the rain in this competitive contest. Always needing to be chased along by his rider, Ted Durcan, throughout the early stages, he closed from mid-division to grab the lead with 150 yards remaining before holding Moss Vale in the drive to the line.

Comete earned a tilt at this level with an impressive success in a competitive handicap at Clairefontaine last time Aug. 2 and justified the faith of connections to open her stakes account at first asking. Davy Bonilla was intent on keeping the leaders in sight throughout the early stages of this contest and his mount traveled strongly under cover in fourth. Short of room at the top of the straight, she was angled wide for her challenge as Millennium Force was committed inside the final quarter. The winner grabbed the lead with 100 yards remaining and was driven out to assert as Puppeteer finished with a flourish under jockey Christophe Soumillon. "She is at her best over course and distance with big weights in handicaps and I knew she was up to this class," explained trainer Maxime Cesandri, who was also recording a first success at group level. "The original plan was to head for the breeding shed after this, but I will see if the owner wants to change his mind after that."

Helios Quercos had yet to tackle stakes company, but had won four of his six career starts and looked smart when beating subsequent G3 Prestige S. runner-up Nanabanana (Ire) by 1 ½ lengths in a conditions event at Deauville last time Aug. 11. Stalking the early pace in fourth under Alex Roussel here, he swooped down the outside to lead approaching the eighth pole and clung gamely to his diminishing advantage as Musketier closed late. Delfos entered the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club (French Derby) at Chantilly June 6 as one of the leading players, but disappointed when soundly beaten. He returned to finish three lengths second to Valixir (Ire) in the G2 Prix Eugene Adam at Maisons-Laffitte July 14 before finding the smart Mister Monet (Ire) four lengths too strong when second in the G2 Prix Guillaume d'Ornano at Deauville last time Aug. 21. Stalking the early pace in second under Miguel Blancpain, he was committed passing the quarter pole and had firm command as Apsis emerged from the pack under Christophe Soumillon to be second on his seasonal bow. "He deserves that as he's very tough and his only bad run was in the Jockey-Club, when the mile and a half was too far," conditioner Carlos Laffon-Parias said, adding, "He may go for the Hollywood Derby [Nov. 28] if he's still in good form, or wait until next year as he remains in training." Golden Legacy finished eighth in the Listed Albany S. on only her second start at Royal Ascot June 18 before breaking her maiden at Catterick July 21. She overcame an unfavorable draw to win a Chester nursery as the highweight Aug. 1, then drew another bad berth in a conditions race at the same track last time Aug. 19, but managed to finish third. Settled in rear by Paul Hanagan early this time, she made steady progress through the pack as Castelletto battled with Nufoos on the front end. Driven out in the closing stages, she headed those warring rivals in the final strides before asserting for her first stakes score. Castelletto finished second, but was disqualified and placed third behind Nufoos. "There was just a big question mark about the ground with this filly," Hanagan said. July 10. Perfect Soul rebounded from a third in last year's Atto to take the GI Keeneland Turf Mile. He kicked off the year with a win in the GII Maker's Mark Mile Apr. 9, but has come up short in his next three starts. A distant 10th in the GI Early Times Turf Classic over yielding ground May 1, he was put up to second in the GII Firecracker Breeders' Cup H. July 3, he was most recently fifth in the GII Chinese Cultural Centre H. July 25, where Mobil was second best.

Unbeaten in four previous outings at Belmont, Sightseek will be heavily favored as she bids to rebound from a loss to Azeri in the GI Go for Wand H. at Saratoga Aug. 1. But while trainer Bobby Frankel ranks the powerful chestnut "right up there with the best I've had," he isn't polishing the Ruffian trophy just yet. "There's no such thing as a walkover in racing," he said. "She's got to go out there and do it." Miss Loren, a Group 1 winner in her native Argentina, earned her first U.S. victory in the GII Clement L. Hirsch H. at Del Mar Aug. 8. Trainer Luis Seglin thinks his charge is ready for the big time. "I'd like to think she is good enough for the Breeders' Cup Distaff, and this is an experiment to see how she's going to handle shipping and top-class company," said the Argentine native.

Godolphin suffered a rare reversal in Ireland last Saturday, but they are back to attempt to clinch another big prize with Dubawi in this renewal. The most precocious of the limited progeny of Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum's beloved Dubai Millennium (GB), he followed a Goodwood debut score June 4 by grinding out a success in the G3 Superlative S. at Newmarket last time July 8.

Dubai Millennium Action Plus

"We freshened him up after his last race," trainer Saeed bin Suroor said yesterday. "He is in good form and training really well. This is a big step up for him, tackling a Group 1 race. Dubawi has done well in his races and has the class. I am happy with him." Aidan O'Brien, who has won this five times with such as One Cool Cat, Hawk Wing, King of Kings (Ire) and Desert King (Ire), saddles a trip headed by Russian Blue. He has proved admirably consistent so far this term, performing with credit at the top level without hitting the board. He was beaten 3/4 of a length by Democratic Deficit when second in the G2 Railway S. at this track June 27 before filling third spot behind Damson (Ire) in the G1 Phoenix S. back here Aug. 8. He handled Deauville's desperate conditions well when third behind Divine Proportions in the G1 Prix Morny last time Aug. 22 and steps up to seven furlongs for the first time in this contest. Democratic Deficit went on to fail by two lengths to give four pounds to Oratorio (Ire) in the G2 Futurity S. over course and distance last time Aug. 21, where Elusive Double was back in third, and holds strong claims back on level terms. The latter represents Dermot Weld, who has also taken this event five times.

Evil Minister is unbeaten in two starts since adding Lasix, coming from off the pace to land both a Pimlico maiden Aug. 1 and the GIII Sapling S. Aug. 28 at Monmouth. Both of those victories came at six furlongs, and the chestnut should be suited by this stretchout to a mile. "Of course, you never know until they do it, but he gives me the impression he'll go a distance," said trainer Erik Juvonen. "I like a mile, although I think we'll see his best around two turns." Stakes-placed in her second start, Comacina had blinkers added last out and responded with eight-length tally at the Spa Aug. 15. Wallstreet Scandal and Fusaichi Rock Star both posted sharp maiden scores last out, the former at Saratoga Aug. 16 and the latter at Del Mar Aug. 7.

Cheveley Park Stud have an embarrassment of riches among their fillies this season and Red Bloom will be a warm order to continue their current vein of form. A one-time ante-post favorite for the G1 1000 Guineas, she failed to overcome Attraction (GB) both in that Classic and the G1 Coronation S. But she returned after a summer break, showing determination to beat Salselon (GB) in the G3 Strensall S. at York last time Sept. 1, and should appreciate this step up in trip. Hazarista, who finished third behind Ouija Board (GB) and Punctilious (GB) in the G1 Irish Oaks at The Curragh July 18, reverts to 10 furlongs having found a mile and a half in testing conditions too far when third behind Quiff (GB) in the G1 Yorkshire Oaks at York last time Aug. 18. All Too Beautiful, who finished runner-up in the G1 Epsom Oaks June 4 before disappointing when fourth in the Irish equivalent, warrants respect after a subsequent freshener.

Dubleo ships in toting a three-race winning streak, including a pair of victories on the turf. The dark bay captured a Colonial Downs allowance by eight lengths July 10 and won the off-the-turf Chenery S. at the Virginia oval two weeks later before annexing Monmouth's Continental Mile S. on the grass Sept. 5. Trainer Mark Frostad sends out a pair of regally bred Sam Son homebreds: Go to the Sun, out of Wilderness Song, broke his maiden in his turf debut Sept. 4, while Dance With Ravens--the latest runner from Dance Smartly--was a close third in his Aug. 22 career bow.

☆ SALES NEWS ☆

MONARCHOS COLT TOPS AT KEENELAND A colt from the first crop of 2001 Kentucky Derby hero Monarchos brought a final bid of $550,000 to top yesterday's fifth session of the Keeneland September sale in Lexington. Consigned to the sale by the Woods Edge Farm of Peter O'Callaghan, the gray colt is a son of Lac du Printemps (Meadowlake), a full sister to GI Champagne S. winner Greenwood Lake as well as a half sister to GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile hero Success Express and Canadian champion Charley Barley. Trainer Bob Baffert signed the ticket on the Mar. 3 foal. "I'm very partial to grays," said Baffert, who was buying on behalf of Bob and Beverly Lewis. "I've been waiting for the Monarchoses and this horse was pretty outstanding looking. He looked the part. I like a certain look and he fit all of my qualifications." Woods Edge Farm, a pinhooking operation, has had a terrific sale thus far, consigning horses that sold for $700,000 and $650,000 on Wednesday in addition to yesterday's session topper. O'Callaghan was pleased that buyers such as the Lewises and their advisors thought so highly of the colt. "It's very satisfying," he admitted, adding that Woods Edge acquired the colt as a weanling in a private transaction. "He's a wonderful horse. He's the epitome of his sire--he looks a lot like him. And he's from one of the best families in the stud book. They liked him and we wish them the very best of luck," he said. The top-selling filly during Saturday's trade was a daughter of Arch--Questress (Seeking the Gold), purchased by Robert LaPenta's White Horse Stable for $360,000. LaPenta, who campaigns The Cliff's Edge, also purchased a half brother to the filly for $45,000 at this venue in 2002. That colt, who would become GI King's Bishop S. winner Pomeroy, was pinhooked for $300,000 at the 2003 Fasig-Tipton Calder sale. Trainer Nick Zito, who signed the ticket on behalf of his client, did not immediately know whether LaPenta would keep the filly to race or return her to the two-year-old sales next year. The $360,000 price tag was matched by hip 1421, a colt by Golden Missile--Ms. Copelan (Copelan). Consigned to the sale by Meg Levy's Bluewater Sales as agent, the bay was purchased by Mike Akers' Dapple Bloodstock. Akers has been in the Thoroughbred business for 15 years and his agency offers a wide variety of services to its clients. The racing arm of the operation, Dapple Stable, employs trainers Steve Asmussen, Bill Mott, Christophe Clement and Bertrand de Brevedent.

Paiota Falls graduated over the Belmont lawn June 26, then added allowance scores over the Saratoga main oval Aug. 1 and last out Aug. 25. Making her stakes debut here, the chalk broke a step slow, then was rushed up to take early command. Eventual second-place finisher Touchnow turned up the pressure a half mile out, but couldn't get by the winner after a spirited stretch duel. "She broke a little bit slower than I thought," winning rider Heriberto Castillo said. "I kind of gave her a shot to go into the first turn to see what's going to happen and it developed up to the lead. From there, I just kind of nursed her along and when she dug in, she dug in gamely."

An allowance winner at Woodbine July 25, Organ Grinder took his show on the road to Northlands Park and annexed the GIII Canadian Derby Aug. 28. He was favored in this competitive allowance contest and lived up to the billing. Content to race in third as 2003 Sovereign Award winner Judiths Wild Rush opened up a lonely lead, the grey commenced a three-wide move into the stretch and outfinished Cut and Shoot for his third straight victory.

Newbury's judge needed to get down to mega pixels to separate Salamanca from Arabian Dancer and Umniya on the photo at the end of this race, but after long deliberation it was the former who came out on top to maintain her unbeaten record. She claimed the scalp of Halle Bop (GB) on her debut over six furlongs at this track Aug. 13 and needed every yard of this extra half-furlong to claim the sizeable pot on offer. Unable to go with the early pace, she took time to wind up her challenge, but finished strongly under Frankie Dettori's drive to win the bobber. "I've had so much trouble with her joints," trainer Sylvester Kirk told PA Sport. "I've just been swimming her. She only cantered once last week and has been in the pool the rest of the time. That will be it for the season with her now."

Funfair Wane rolled back the years to become the latest veteran from the Dandy Nicholls academy to recapture past glories. After the exploits of Group 1 sprinters Continent (GB) and Bahamian Pirate, Funfair Wane revisited his success in this race two years ago when wiring a seemingly competitive renewal. He was always in control early under Paul Doe, responded gamely when Fantasy Believer arrived at his quarters approaching the final eighth and pulled out extra to forge clear. "He jumped and was doing it really easy," Doe commented. "He loves the ground and was very calm today. He was within himself, so I thought why not keep going." Nicholls added, "We've had our troubles with him, as he's difficult to keep calm. He proved to everybody today how good he is."

Longchamp, 4.30, Cond, €23,000, 3yo, 9f 165ydsT, 2:04.30, gd/sf.

MAN RAY (c, 3, Theatrical {Ire}--Irtifa {GB}, by Lahib) had been in the money in all three previous starts, including a last-time second at Clairefontaine Aug. 17. He was positioned in a stalking fourth from the outset here. Making smart progress inside the three-eighths pole, the 19-10 favorite quickened to the fore approaching the final furlong and was ridden out thereafter to account for Return In Style (Ire) (Desert Style {Ire}) by 1 1/2 lengths. Lifetime Record: 4-1-2-1, €23,150.
