Godolphin's Dubawi (Ire) (Dubai Millennium {GB}) added further lustre to his ill-fated sire's legacy with a highly impressive success in yesterday's G1 National S.

Dubawi Peter Mooney

at The Curragh. Returning from a break after taking the G3 Superlative S. at Newmarket July 8, the imposing colt showed no sign of rustiness as he stalked Russian Blue (Ire) (Danehill) throughout the early stages. Frankie Dettori was in cruise control as he passed that rival at the quarter pole and his only concern was his colt's kink towards the rail soon after, but he straightened Dubawi with a slap of the whip and the 8-13 favorite quickened all the way to the line to record a facile three-length score from the eye-catching Berenson (Ire) (Entrepreneur {GB}). "To have a son of Dubai Millennium win a Group 1 is a great day for Godolphin and he is now very much a Classic prospect for next year," commented Racing Manager Simon Crisford. National S. cont. p2

SOARING TO VICTORY

Local favorite Soaring Free (Smart Strike) just missed when a tiring second in last year's renewal of the GI Atto Mile at Woodbine, but made amends yesterday when he became the first favorite to take the seven-year-old event.

On the engine from the widest post in a crowded 11-horse field, the Sam-Son homebred battled a game Royal Regalia (Cozzene), then staved off the closing Perfect Soul (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) to register the victory in stakes-record time. Cont. p2

TREND SETTER

Derrick Smith and Michael Tabor have enjoyed a banner year in 2004 with the likes of Lion Heart in their barn, and the duo looks to have another top-calibre horse with the two-year-old filly Sense of Style (Thunder Gulch).

Adam Coglianese

The bay, sent off at prohibitive 1-5 odds in Sunday's GII Matron S. at Belmont, overcame a slow start and rallied past an overmatched field to win her second consecutive graded event, following her open-lengths victory in August's GII Spinaway S. at Saratoga. "I didn't want to rush her into the race," said jockey Edgar Prado. "I called on her a little bit at the half-mile pole, and in three jumps, she caught up right away." Cont. p3

SIGHT TO BEHOLD

The Juddmonte homebred Sightseek (Distant View) toyed with the competition while racing between rivals on the turn, but tired of the company and unleashed a devastating turn of foot on her way to an eye-catching 11 1/4-length triumph in the GI Ruffian H. at Belmont.

"That was as easy as you can have it," said winning rider John Velazquez. "When I gave her a couple of taps, it felt like she was walking." Cont. p3

Green Means Go...

Dubawi was green on debut at Goodwood June 4, but his quality saw him home in front of the useful Fox (GB). He gave the impression he had more in hand than the official half-length margin back to Henrik (GB) at Newmarket last time, and once again held something in reserve en route to his first Group 1 score. "He has never stopped surprising me," Frankie Dettori commented. "I rode him in work this week and he had improved tremendously. He had the race won with one- and-a-half furlongs to go and is still very green. He reminds me very much of his sire." Trainer Saeed bin Suroor added that he will be put away until next season, when he is expected to be aimed at the G1 Epsom Derby. "He is improving all the time and will be better next year," he said. Soaring Free, a perfect five for five on the turf this year, kicked off the season with a score in Keeneland's GIII Shakertown H. Apr. 10, but failed to repeat that form next time out when eighth in the GIII Maryland Breeder's Cup H. Back on his favorite surface thereafter, Soaring Free reeled off four straight victories heading into today, including the GIII Highlander H. June 27 and, most recently, the seven-furlong GIII Play the King H. Aug. 28. Sent off the solidly backed favorite for his first attempt at a mile this year, the chestnut broke well, held a modest lead through a half in :46.10 and a half in 1:09.19 and had enough left in the tank to hold off a slow-closing Perfect Soul, who out finished Royal Regalia. Sense of Style was sent off the 8-5 pick in her unveiling and didn't disappoint, storming from off the pace to win by 2 1/2 lengths at Saratoga Aug. 1. Handling the stiff ascent in class in the Aug. 20, seven-furlong GII Spinaway S., she looked even more impressive in her second trip to post, securing the comprehensive 6 3/4-length victory with ease. Adding another panel here, the $800,000 Keeneland September graduate was acting up a bit and was caught flat-footed as the gates sprang open, getting away last of six. Jockey Edgar Prado kept his mount relaxed and allowed her to settle before asking her to pick it up entering the turn. The leggy bay responded instantly, cruising up to collar the pacesetter Grateful Nancy (Maria's Mon) with a quarter mile left to run. Play with Fire, moving well widest of all, kept Sense of Style honest in mid-stretch, but the latter had another gear and was never seriously threatened. Balletto, racing greenly down the lane, showed good energy late to get the place spot. "I don't know what we'll do next with her," said trainer Patrick Biancone. "She has run three times in 50 days. We could run her once before the [GI] Breeders' Cup [Juvenile Fillies, Oct. 30], or go straight in. We're going to Texas tomorrow to see what the track is like, and decide if and for how long we want to train over it." One of the best racemares of her generation, Sightseek took a four-race winning skein, all versus Grade I competition, into last year's GI Breeders' Cup Distaff, where she never got going in a fourth-place effort at Santa Anita. She began the year with another uncharacteristically poor effort--a fourth in the GI Santa Monica H. at Santa Anita Jan. 25--but got back on track with a dominating win in the GII Rampart H. at Gulfstream in mid-March. Perhaps the slop was to blame when she finished fourth in the GII Louisville Breeders' Cup H. at Churchill Apr. 30, but a facile win in the GI Ogden Phipps H. at Belmont June 19 set the stage for a duel with the great Azeri in the Aug. 1 Go For Wand H. In that one, she gave it her all against the 2002 Horse of the Year and wasn't disgraced when finishing 1 3/4 lengths adrift of that foe. Hammered down to 1-5 favoritism against a lackluster field, the Bobby Frankel trainee raced between Pocus Hocus and Class Above (Quiet American) rounding the turn, moved aggressively when switched to the outside and left them all in her wake as she turned on the afterburners entering the lane. "Everyone is worried about the Breeders' Cup," said Frankel. "If I run her in the [Oct. 9, GI] Beldame S. [at Belmont], she will be a short price in there. Why give away $750,000? We'll see how she comes out and how she's acting. Maybe we'll come back in the Beldame. Maybe not." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Park Avenue Ball kicked off his career with a five-length score over fellow Jersey-breds at Monmouth Park July 15 and made it two in a row with a 2 1/2-length tally in the July 31 Tyro S. Last time out, the chestnut colt grabbed the lead at the eighth pole, but was caught by Evil Minister in the final yards and had to settle for second.

Looking to turn the tables as the longest shot on the board here, he was at the back of the pack through a moderate opening half, edged closer at the quarter pole and forged to the front as they drove down the lane. Park Avenue Ball opened up on his rivals inside the eighth pole, holding Wallstreet Scandal at bay to the wire. "He broke sharp, but I wanted to settle him down today to see if he could go a mile," winning jockey Javier Castellano said. "He settled good behind horses. I had plenty of horse, and when he switched leads, he took off." As for that's next, trainer Jim Ryerson said, "We'll have to consider the Champagne [GI, at Belmont Oct. 9], because it's a big one-turn race and he just won over the track." Even-money favorite Fusaichi Rock Star (Wild Wonder) pressed the pace, but faded late to be fifth. "I think he lost his air, because he was really tired," trainer Bob Baffert said, adding, "We'll do some work with him and give him a shot in the Champagne."

Dubleo has been on a run since finishing a badly beaten fifth in the June 4 Gill Flash S. at Belmont, winning four in a row, including this, his first graded tally. The Todd Pletcher trainee rebounded from the Flash to best Colonial allowance foes on the grass by eight lengths July 10, then took the off-the-turf Chenery S. at the same track July 24. Stretched to two turns for the first time, he held on to notch the gate-to-wire victory in the one-mile Continental Mile S. over Monmouth's lawn Sept. 5 and kept his record on the green stuff perfect here. The crowd's tepid choice shook loose of a dueling rival going into the far turn, got to the three-quarters in a solid 1:10 flat and was well clear down the lane to win convincingly. "It's a long stretch," said winning jockey Corey Nakatani. "I talked to Todd yesterday in New York and he told me, 'The horse could be really keen coming out of the gate. All I need do is just be patient where I was at. I didn't particularly have to be on the lead but he'd probably put you there.' So I just rode him accordingly, asked him when we turned for home, he set down and they didn't catch us." It was Pletcher's second win in the Summer S. in the last three years, following Lismore Knight's victory over Wando in 2002. Classic Stamp finally broke through at the graded level to post the 10-1 upset for owner/breeder William Sorokolit, Sr. An allowance victory at Woodbine in late June was sandwiched between third-place finishes in the June 5 GIII Nassau S. and July 17 GIII Dance Smartly H., and in her latest, the four-year-old Ontario-bred filled the exacta in an open allowance race Aug. 28. Kept well off the dueling Heyahohowdy and favored Inish Glora, the dark bay rallied between rivals turning for home, then showed a sparkling turn of foot in the final sixteenth to surge past Inish Glora on the outside. "I'm just thrilled for the connections," said an ebullient Cliff Hopmans, Jr., who trains the victress. "To see them come up with such a wonderful filly is a thrill for me for them." Hopmans said the race set up perfectly for his charge. "She needs to run down speed and that's what she did today," he said. "She's just a wonderful filly, beautifully bred... we're absolutely thrilled." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Monturani chased home Favourable Terms (GB) when runner-up in the G2 Windsor Forest S. at Royal Ascot before finishing fourth behind Soviet Song (Ire) in the G1 Falmouth S. at Newmarket July 6. She filled the same spot in the G1 Prix d'Astarte at Deauville Aug. 1, but could only manage fifth on testing ground in the G2 Prix Jean Romanet three weeks later. Roused from the stalls to take close order by Ted Durcan, she stalked the strong early tempo under cover here before moving out to challenge on the turn into the straight. Committed at the three-furlong marker, she was pressed all the way up the straight by Kinnaird, but responded to every call to cling to her advantage. "She's a lengthener, so the plan was to be really positive and the race went well," her rider said. "She had a good position behind a strong pace, got the split and lengthened all the way to the line." Monturani will be aimed at the G2 Prix de Royallieu at Longchamp Oct. 2 and G1 Premio Lydia Tesio in Rome Oct. 24. Soldier Hollow confirmed his upwards progression with a convincing success to add to his burgeoning group-race tally. Cut off by injury in his prime last term, he has become Germany's finest comeback story this year. The bay won the G3 Hessen Pokal at Frankfurt July 18, took the G3 Preis der Sparkassen-Finanzgruppe at Baden-Baden Aug. 27 and made it three in a row yesterday. Stalking the early pace in second under William Mongil, he took command passing the quarter pole and was not asked for his full effort to comfortably beat Fight Club. Perfect in two previous trips to the post, Three Hour Nap launched his bid in the stretch and split horses in the waning strides to earn his first stakes success.

Drawn in the 10 hole for his 5 1/2-furlong debut at this track July 23, the bay came six wide at the quarter pole and was able to sustain that bid en route to a 3/4-length score at odds of 21-1. Stretched out to the Arlington-Washington Futurity trip for his latest effort Aug. 29, the $67,000 stalked the pace and finished willingly to win by an easy 2 1/2 lengths. The second choice here, he raced close to sharp fractions for the opening furlongs, but relaxed nicely in the second quarter mile to trail by three after a half. Asked to accelerate into the lane, Three Hour Nap took aim at the eighth pole and came between Elusive Chris to his inside and Straight Line to his outside to record the narrow victory. It was the second win in the event for trainer Hugh Robertson, who saddled Polar Expedition to take it in 1993. Robertson owns this colt in partnership with Homewrecker Racing LLC of Ron and Ricki Rashinski. Odds-on favorite Rocky River (Concorde's Tune), winner of Arlington's Spectacular Bid S. Aug. 29, set the pace for the opening seven furlongs, but faded to be fourth. Click for the brisnet.com chart.

☆ SALES NEWS ☆

LAST IS BEST AT KEENELAND A colt by Thunder Gulch, the final horse to go under the hammer, attracted a bid of $320,000 from the Whitehorse Stables of Robert LaPenta to top yesterday's sixth session of the Keeneland September Yearling Sales in Lexington. Consigned by Lane's End, agent, the dark bay is the second foal from Cyber Cat, a Storm Cat daughter of MGISP Future Pretense. The waiting was the hardest part, according to his consignor. "I was worried about him being the last horse in the sale," admitted Lane's End owner William Farish, "but obviously everybody stayed around. He was a lovely horse." Whitehorse Stables was easily the most active buyer, signing tickets on nine horses for gross receipts of over $1.2 million. A colt from the first crop of Airdrie Stud's Forest Camp (Deputy Minister) attracted the second highest bid during yesterday's proceedings. Consigned to the sale by the Four Star Sales agency, the bay colt was purchased for $310,000 by Mike Akers on behalf of his Dapple Bloodstock. Akers has been busy so far at the sale, signing tickets on seven horses for gross receipts of just over $1.3 million, including a $360,000 filly by Golden Missile on Saturday. So, what drew his attention to this offering? "He's by a first-crop sire, he's a big sturdy horse and he's the best Forest Camp I've seen at all the sales this year," Akers commented. "I knew he was going to be a little pricey. Those kind are always going to be popular in this marketplace." Seven-year-old Forest Camp, winner of the 1999 Gil Del Mar Futurity, has proved attractive to buyers this sales season. He is the sire of several six-figure yearlings--off an advertised 2002 stud fee of $10,000--and was represented by a $450,000 son of Cope's Light (Copelan) at the Fasig-Tipton July sale. Vinery had a successful day consigning a pair of horses by their More Than Ready (Southern Halo). Hip 1878, a son of Reina Victoriosa (Arg) (Interprete {Arg}), got the ball rolling when he sold to William Heiligbrodt for $300,000. The dark bay colt received a boost recently when his full brother Ready Ruler won the El Joven S. at Retama Park. "He's just a very nice individual," Heiligbrodt said of his purchase. "He looks like a very good racehorse. He's already got the family there." Late in the day, Buzz Chace, bidding on behalf of Barry K. Schwartz, went to $250,000 to acquire a More Than Ready daughter of Ceridwen (Lord Avie) from the family of dual Classic winner and horse of the year Point Given. Toppers and Stats, p9

That's A Wrap...

The positive vibes from the first two books of the sale continued into Book 3, with across-the-board increases from last year. For the Saturday and Sunday sessions, gross receipts for 531 horses topped $39.8 million, an increase of nearly seven percent. The average of $74,985 improved on the 2003 figure by 10.5 percent. Overall, the sale continues on a record pace, a fact not lost on sales officials. "This is still a very solid sale," Keeneland Director of Sales Geoffrey Russell commented. "The median and the average are up and we are on a solid pace." Nearing the midway mark of the sale, the cumulative average is ahead by 13.4 percent over last year while the median is up by 17.6 percent.

Put It Back Colt Makes a Splash...

He is represented in the massive Keeneland September catalogue by just three horses, but Put It Back (Honor and Glory) made an excellent first impression during Saturday's session. The six-year-old stallion, who stands at Arthur Appleton's Bridlewood Farm in Ocala, Florida, is the sire of hip 1446, a dark bay colt which is off to Japan after being purchased by the Durham Company Ltd. for $230,000. A son of the nine-year-old mare Pleasant Dixie (Dixieland Band), the Florida-bred is well-related. "He was a real good moving colt and he's a half brother to one of the top horses in America," said Denali Stud's Craig Bandoroff, referring to Southern Image (Halo's Image), a dual Grade I winner and of one of the leaders of this year's handicap division. Put It Back entered stud following a perfect three-year-old campaign, which included victories in the Best Turn S. at Aqueduct and the Gil Riva Ridge Breeders' Cup S. at Belmont Park. He stood his initial season at stud for $5,000 and commanded a 2004 fee of $3,500. A pair of his daughters sell in the latter part of the sale, hips 3455 and 4065.

Bet down to 2-1 for her latest, she was forced to endure a four-wide trip and completed the trifecta at the Spa Sept. 4. Three deep while racing with the early pace, the bay filly gained at the quarter pole, took command with a little more than a furlong to run and went on to best Sincera (Citidancer) as the 2-1 second choice. SLEW'S SAGA (c, 2, Seattle Slew--Belle Breasing, by Southern Halo), second in the slop his debut July 31, came home fourth when thrown into stakes company in the Vandal S. Aug. 15, but couldn't improve on that form when fifth against maidens in his latest going six furlongs Sept. 11. Backed down to 9-5 favoritism for his route debut, the bay tracked the early pace, forged to the front after three quarters in 1:13.18, opened up a comfortable lead going into the stretch and maintained the advantage late to score by 2 1/4 lengths over Criminal Mind (Cryptoclearance). Tuned In was sent off the 13-10 chalk for her June 13 debut going a sixteenth of a mile shorter at Lone Star and made good on that promise, scoring by a neck. Dismissed at 8-1 in her first start since, the bay was bumped at the start, was blocked from the quarter to the eighth pole, but fought her way out of that predicament and went on to a game score.

A 3/4-length winner going Arlington's one-turn mile July 2, Miss Moses carved out a third-place finish in the July 30 Sweetest Chant S. over that track and trip, but was coming into this off a sixth in the GIII Arlington Breeders' Cup Oaks Aug. 21. Saving ground from midpack for the opening six furlongs, Miss Moses had to come around a tiring rival into the stretch, found her way back to the rail and rallied to win going away.

Happy Ticket beat open-company maidens by 9 1/2 lengths June 4 and tacked on a 12 1/4-length allowance score against state-breds July 2 before registering her first stakes success in the Aug. 7 Elge Raspberry S. sprinting over this main track. Stretching out and trying the turf in this spot, the bay was allowed to dictate a plodding pace, opened up when asked turning for home and had enough in reserve to maintain her perfect record.

Lunar Flight turned in a game debut effort versus Cal-bred company at Del Mar Aug. 1, battling on the front end throughout before settling for third, beaten a head. She carried her speed a little further in a Sept. 3 state-bred maiden, reporting home a one-length winner, but was lightly regarded in her stakes bow. Settled just off the early pace, Lunar Flight split horses on the far turn, took command with 100 yards to run and pulled clear.

He failed to get past With Reason in the Listed Robert Sangster Superior Mile at Haydock last time Sept. 4, but benefitted from positive front-running tactics to open his stakes account here. Pressed by Miss Mambo and Pat Smullen in the closing stages, he pulled out extra to hold at to the line. "That was a good brave effort," trainer Aidan O'Brien commented. "He'll go for a group race now and he's a horse to look forward to."

Slip Dance made the most of a poor turn-out for this valuable prize to gain due reward for a series of creditable efforts in stakes company. She was a surprise winner of the Listed Empress S. at Newmarket June 26 before finishing sixth behind Oratorio (Ire) in the G3 Anglesey S. at The Curragh July 18. After finding only the smart Maids Causeway 1 1/4 lengths too strong in her return to Newmarket for the G3 Sweet Solera S. Aug. 7, the filly was not disgraced when sixth in the G1 Moyglare Stud S. at The Curragh last time Sept. 5. Covered up on the fence stalking the early pace here, she was short of room when asked to challenge by John Egan inside the final quarter, but, muscling her way through the gap, she passed All Night Dancer with 200 yards remaining before stretching clear for a convincing score.

SIR STANLEY CLARKE DIES

Northern Racing Plc's supremo Sir Stanley Clarke has died at his home in Staffordshire, it was announced yesterday. Famed for his role as executive chairman of the operator of nine UK racecourses, his colors were carried to success by Lord Gyllene (NZ) in the 1997 Grand National. He was awarded a CBE in 1990 and a knighthood in 2001 and was a member of the Jockey Club, as well as serving as a board member of the Racecourse Association for over 10 years. His son, Simon Clarke, deputy chairman of Northern Racing Plc, paid tribute yesterday. "My father was a powerful and charismatic man who will be dearly missed by his family and his many friends," he said. "Sir Stanley's contribution to horseracing, to business and to charity is immeasurable. To put it simply, he made a difference."
