HAAFHD QEII BID LIKELY

Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid al Maktoum's G1 2000 Guineas winner Haafhd (GB) (Alhaarth {Ire}) looks set to make the line-up in Saturday's G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. at Ascot. Off the track since disappointing when ninth in the G1 Sussex S. at Goodwood July 28, he pleased connections when completing a six-furlong exercise at his Lambourn base yesterday morning. "[Trainer] Barry [Hills] is perfectly happy with the horse and said he is ready to go at the weekend if the owner wants to," explained Racing Manager Angus Gold, who revealed that the Oct. 16 G1 Champion S. at Newmarket is an alternative.

Jarvis Weather Watch for Rakti...

Michael Jarvis is hoping that the current dry spell continues to allow Gary Tanaka's Rakti (GB) (Polish Precedent) to run in Saturday's G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. at Ascot. The Newmarket conditioner revealed yesterday that "the intention is to go to Ascot" with the five-year-old, "so long as the weather remains dry." Rakti will be reverting to a mile for the first time in his career at the track at which he took the G1 Prince of Wales's S. June 16. "He loves Ascot," his trainer said yesterday. "It is a step back in distance, but he's a horse with plenty of speed, so we are hoping he'll run a good race," he added.

Adieu to Ascot, For Now...

This weekend's Ascot meeting will be the final one before the course closes for 20 months of redevelopment. The 2005 Royal meeting will be held at York.

ASCOT FINALE - HIGHLIGHTS

CORRECTION: Tuesday's TDN incorrectly attributed a quote to Tony Vasil, who trained Elvstroem (Aus) (Danehill) to victory in the Sept. 19 G1 Underwood S. in Australia. The quote should have been attributed to trainer Fred Kersley, who said of his nine-time Group 1 winner Northerly (Aus) (Serheed), fourth in the Underwood, "This was a very big ask, given the circumstances. He has not settled in to Melbourne as well as I would have liked, and he is a touch on the fresh side. If he comes out the race safe and sound and in good order, I will be happy."

LOOKIN' FOR LOVE Love of Money (Not for Love), the eye-catching winner of the GII Pennsylvania Derby on Labor Day, drilled six furlongs in 1:11 4/5, handily, at Aqueduct yesterday morning. "He's doing unbelievable," said trainer Richard Dutrow Jr. "We may be looking at something special. He cooled off by the time he got back to the barn. It was a great work. I'm very excited about him." Dutrow, wasn't sure about the three-year-old's next start, but hinted that the GII Indiana Derby at Hoosier Park Oct. 2 was a serious option. The bay is nominated to the GI Jockey Club Gold Cup the same day, but the conditioner said he would run there "only if it was an off track."

OLMODAVOR RETIRED TO ADENA SPRINGS Multiple graded stakes winner Olmodavor (A.P. Indy--Corrazona, by El Gran Senor) has been retired, according to trainer Richard Mandella. "He left my barn at Santa Anita at 5 a.m. [Wednesday] morning, and he's on his way to Adena Springs in Kentucky, although I don't know if he'll stand in Kentucky or Florida," the Hall of Fame conditioner explained.

"Adena Springs bought into his breeding rights." Produced by Grade I winner

Corrazona, Olmodavor raced in the colors of his breeders, the Wertheimer brothers. In 2003, the handsome bay ran second to Medaglia d'Oro in the GII Strub S. and to Mineshaft in the GII New Orleans H. before concluding his season with a victory in the GIII Native Diver H. He added the GIII Whirlaway H. as a five-year-old this year, and posted runner-up efforts in his final two starts, the GI Hollywood Gold Cup and the GII Washington Park H. "He was wearing a little thin and it was getting time to retire, so we did," Mandella added. "He had a chip fracture removed from an ankle as a yearling, and we went in twice after that to clean it up during his racing career. So to have that much trouble and to accomplish what he did, he was a helluva horse." Olmodavor heads to the breeding shed with a record of 15-5-51 and earnings of $706,540.

Bailey Eyes Return:

Jockey Jerry Bailey had the cast removed from his broken wrist Friday and has targeted either the week-end of Oct. 16 or Oct. 23 to make his return to the saddle. He last rode Aug. 29 at Saratoga before falling off a ladder at his South Florida home when attempting to shore up the house for the impending Hurricane Frances. Following the accident, Bailey was hopeful he could return in time to ride in the Oct. 2 Jockey Club Gold Cup. "I thought I might be out only four weeks, but I had nothing to go on," Bailey said. "The doctor had told me that the sooner I got screws put in my wrist, the sooner I could get back. Because of the hurricanes, we lost a week waiting to get the screws in." Bailey said he is undergoing rehabilitation therapy seven days a week. "I talked to the doctor after the cast came off and said I had to be back a week before the Breeders' Cup, if not two weeks before," Bailey said. "He said he didn't see any problem with that. If there's nothing important going on the weekend of the 16th, I might just wait for the following weekend." Should he return around Oct. 23, Bailey will either ride in New York or at Calder. He then will head to Lone Star Park and ride there during Breeders' Cup week as another tune-up for the Oct. 30 Breeders' Cup. Bailey's attempts to protect his house from the onslaught of Florida hurricanes were largely a wasted effort. "We dodged every bullet," he said. "One time, we got 60 mile-per-hour winds, but that was the worst of it."

War Deputy and Alydeed Sold:

Canadian sires War Deputy (Deputy Minister--Sweet Alliance, by Sir Ivor) and Alydeed (Shadeed--Baily, by Alydar) have been sold for stud duty, according to Windfields Farm Ltd. War Deputy has eight stakes winners from seven crops to race, including GSW Forever Grand. The 13-year-old stallion will stand the 2005 breeding season at Elia Stud, near Athens, Greece. Racing in the colors of his breeder Windfields Farm, War Deputy realized his biggest win at two in the GIII Brown and Williams Kentucky Jockey Club S. in 1993. GISW Alydeed will make his new home at Jack and Linda's Johnson's Peaceful Valley Stud, near Red Deer, Alberta. The bay led the general sires list in Canada in 2001. Among his chief winners are Canadian champion Primaly and GISW Hedonist. During a racing career that spanned three seasons, Alydeed was campaigned by Kinghaven Farm and won five of 10 starts at three, including the Queen's Plate and Marine S., both north of the border, and the GIII Derby Trial at Churchill Downs. Campaigned predominantly in the U.S. in 1993, Alydeed won three starts during his sophomore season, including the GIII Commonwealth Breeders' Cup, but his biggest score was recorded at four in the GI Carter H.

Breeders' Cup Sold Out at Lone Star:

The Breeders' Cup, which will be held at Lone Star Park Oct. 30, is officially sold out, according to a press release. The sale of the 51,034 reserved seats at the Dallas-Fort Worth oval marks an advance sales record for the event. "Texans have embraced the Breeders' Cup, and horse racing fans around the world are eager to visit the Lone Star State," said D.G. Van Clief Jr., president of the Breeders' Cup. "In addition to the earliest sellout, we were able to offer the most reserved seats in the history of the World Thoroughbred Championships." Lone Star Park, which has 12,000 permanent seats, is erecting 39,000 temporary seats with accompanying service structures, including mutuel windows, concessions, merchandise sales and restrooms.

OPTIMISM IN MILAN After solid returns at Deauville, Doncaster and Baden-Baden, the sales action switches to Italy today as SGA begin their two-day Select Yearling Sale at Settimo Milanese in Milan. Confidence is high that the steady onslaught of Italian-breds on the main international stage will filter through to a sale which recorded significant increases in gross and average and a top price of €250,000 for a Montjeu (Ire) colt 12 months ago. Loreto "Lollo" Luciani, president of the Italian Breeders' Association, is confident that the knock-on effect will continue. "Italian-breds are very competitive at the highest level around the world now and are a good advertisement for our horses," he commented. "This is thanks to the breeders' scheme, which has allowed our breeders to buy a better quality of mare and use the top stallions. The sale has been well promoted abroad, the catalogue is good and all the elements are there for a strong sale." Among the sires represented in the 286-strong catalogue are Cape Cross (Ire), Danehill Dancer (Ire), Desert Prince (Ire), Marju (Ire), Nashwan, Orpen, Rainbow Quest, Red Ransom, Spectrum (Ire) and Xaar (GB), alongside first-season sires Bertolini, Fantastic Light, Galileo (Ire), Kalanisi (Ire), Medicean (GB), Mozart (Ire), Mull of Kintyre and Observatory. Most of the sale's highlights will appear during this evening's session, which kicks off in some style with S.A.R.L's Spinning World son of the G1 Oaks d'Italia winner Germinagna (Ity) (hip 1). The yearling is a half brother to last year's top lot, Mr Vegas (Ire). Others to note include hip 55, the sole Galileo in the catalogue, who is a half sister to the G2 Premio Parioli winner Davide Umbro (Ity) from the draft of Ascagnano SPA; hip 54, a Rainbow Quest half brother to the Japanese champion Eishin Preston from the S.A.R.L consignment; hip 64, a Xaar half brother to G1 Gran Premio di Milano second Maktub (Ity) from Luciani's own stud; and hip 76, an Anabaa half brother to the G1 Prix de la Foret and G2 Prix d'Astarte winner Field of Hope (Ire) from the draft of Franca Vittadini's Azienda Agricola Oriano. It is no wonder that SGA Secretary Andrea Benetti describes the catalogue as the "best we have ever had," adding that "we are expecting a good international attendance." Selling of the select first 77 yearlings gets underway at 7 p.m. this evening, with the bidding for the remaining 200-plus due to start at 10 a.m. tomorrow. Full catalogue and updates can be found on www.anacpurosangue.com.

UNCERTAINTY SURROUNDS ARC FIELD The Weinstock Family's North Light (Ire) (Danehill) has become the latest in a line of contenders with doubt surrounding their participation in next Sunday's G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at Longchamp. Ballymacoll Stud Farm's Manager Peter Reynolds told PA Sport yesterday that, despite the fact that they are "very keen to run" the G1 Epsom Derby winner, it would be left to conditioner Sir Michael Stoute to decide whether the colt goes to Paris or waits for the G1 Champion S. at Newmarket Oct. 16. "If he doesn't make it to France on Sunday week, the alternative is the Champion S. two weeks later which gives us a bit more time," he said after North Light worked in Newmarket yesterday morning. Doubts also surround his G1 Irish Derby conqueror Grey Swallow (Ire) (Daylami {Ire}), who was reported by trainer Dermot Weld to have come out of the G1 Irish Champion S. a "bit flat," as well as Godolphin's G1 International S. winner Sulamani (Ire) (Hernando {Fr}) and Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Mubtaker (Silver Hawk), who disappointed when only seventh in the G1 Grosser Preis von Baden Sept. 5. "We went to Germany last time thinking he would be winning a Group 1, but for some reason he didn't fire," explained Racing Manager Angus Gold. "[Trainer] Marcus [Tregoning] thinks it was the ground, as the horse has been fine."

MAMOOL BOOKS TICKET Godolphin yesterday confirmed that Mamool (Ire) (In the Wings {GB}) will run in Sunday's G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at Longchamp. He back-pedaled when soundly beaten in the G1 Queen Anne S. at Royal Ascot June 15 and, after two fair subsequent efforts in listed company, the headgear was applied with success in the G3 Select S. here last time Sept. 12. Always traveling smoothly in fourth, he quickened to hit the front at the eighth peg before asserting for the follow-up under a penalty here. "He's a very nice horse and he's improved again," trainer Marcus Tregoning commented. "He will go to Dubai for the carnival in the spring and be aimed at the G1 Dubai Duty Free [at Nad al Sheba in March], which could be the perfect race for him."

WOODS SECURES TOP LOT

Fillies were again the order of the day during the second session of Tattersalls (Ireland)'s three-day September Yearling Sale, with Dwayne Woods snapping up the top lot. Woods, the brother of trainer Sean Woods, went to €57,000 for hip 327, a Lujain half sister to the listed-placed Church Cross (Ire) from the consignment of Ballysheehan Stud. That eclipsed the day's previous best of €52,000 paid by Peter Doyle for hip 257, Carrigbeg Stud's Desert Style (Ire) colt from the family of G2 Grand Prix de Deauville winner Russian Hope (Ire). The average for the two days is up by nearly 13 percent on 2003, mainly as a result of the new streamlined catalogue. Selling starts for the final session this morning at 10 a.m. Full catalogue and results can be found on www.tattersalls.ie. Stats, p7

AUSTRALASIA

MOSSMAN OUT FOR SEASON Vinery's emerging young stallion Mossman (Aus) (Success Express) has undergone surgery at Scone Veterinary Hospital for colic Tuesday and will not cover the remaining 104 of 150 mares booked to him at the Hunter Valley stud this season. With 11 individual first crop winners and two stakes winners from a book of only 40 mares, Mossman's fee increased from A$5,000 to A$16,500. Mossman is the sire of G2 Silver Shadow S. winner Our Sweet Moss (Aus) and Listed Gimcrack S. winner Segments (Aus). Vinery Australia reported that many breeders have transferred their nominations to More Than Ready, whose U.S. run of success is not going unnoticed Down Under.

In the first three books at Keeneland, his yearlings have averaged $94,000!

CORRECTION...A story in Wednesday's TDN incorrectly reported that the injured Special Harmony (Aus) (Spinning World) was third in Sunday's G1 Underwood S. In fact, the multiple Group 1-winning filly was third from last in the race. We regret the error.

In 2004, Taylor Made is the #1 Consignor of G1 winners, Graded Stakes winners & Stakes winners

Here's a second chance at a first-rate group of horses. If you haven't quite found what you're looking for, we'd like to invite you to please come out and inspect our yearlings that were RNA'd earlier in the sale.

We will be showing at our yearling complex Thurs 9/23: 10am-8pm & Fri 9/24: 9am-7pm
