DANCE TO HER TUNE

It has been a long time since Milligram (GB) led home a one-two for the fairer sex when beating Miesque in 1987, but Soviet Song (Ire) (Marju {Ire}) may be able to end the fillies' drought and beat the colts in today's G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. at Ascot. Having lived in the shadow of Russian Rhythm in 2003, she has come alive in that rival's absence this term, rattling off successes in the G1 Falmouth S. at Newmarket July 6, the G1 Sussex S. at Goodwood July 28 and the G1 Matron S. at Leopardstown last time Sept. 11. Her jockey thinks the best may be to come. "She won very well last time and her trainer says she's come on for the run," said John Murtagh. "I'm expecting her to run a big race." Murtagh believes that Soviet Song, who took the G1 Fillies' Mile over course and distance two years ago on this card, kick-started her revival when winning the G2 Ridgewood Pearl S. at The Curragh May 22. "That race gave her confidence and she's gone from strength to strength and developed into a very high-class filly," he added. QE II cont. p2

ECHELON LOOKS TO TAKE THE NEXT STEP

Sir Michael Stoute, who collected this prize with Untold (GB) in 1985 and with Red Bloom (GB) 12 months ago, saddles an exciting prospect in Echelon (GB) (Danehill) in this year's edition of the G1 Meon Valley Stud Fillies' Mile, to be run at Ascot this afternoon. The bay, a half sister to MGSW Chic, was the lone filly in a 13-horse Newmarket maiden Aug. 28, but quickened nicely away to win by two lengths. She faces a steep rise in class here, but she looked made to measure for the top flight when beating the impressive subsequent Newbury maiden winner Newsround (GB) with a clutch of highly regarded rivals struggling five lengths and more in arrears. Fillies' Mile cont p2

ON THE COMEBACK TRAIL

Imperialism (Langfuhr), on the sidelines since finishing fifth in the May 15 G1 Preakness S., makes his return in the GII Super Derby at Louisiana Downs this afternoon. The gray looked to be headed for a turf career at the beginning of the season, but was switched to the dirt and to a new barn after running fifth in the Jan. 1 GIII Tropical Park Derby at Calder. He posted a rallying score in the Feb. 7 GII San Vicente S. in his first start for trainer

Imperialism Horsephotos

Kristin Mulhall and made it two in a row in the Mar. 6 GII San Rafael S. Third under the wire in the Apr. 3 GI Santa Anita Derby, he was moved up to second on the DQ of Rock Hard Ten. He was third again in the May 1 GI Kentucky Derby, and earned a vacation after his fifth-place effort at Pimlico. "We freshened him up," Mulhall told Daily Racing Form. "He'd run hard as a two-year-old and he campaigned hard this year." She added that the colt enjoyed the time off. "He was out in a big three-acre pasture," she said. "He gained a little weight...and he came back good." Imperialism has been working well for his return, firing a bullet seven furlongs in 1:24 2/5 at Santa Anita Sept. 18. But he will face a tough local customer in South Africa (Cape Town). Three-for-three at Louisiana Downs, the bay gelding comes off a neck win over Fantasticat (Storm Cat), with Britt's Jules another neck back in third, in the Super Derby prep, the Aug. 28 Prelude S.

Playful Act built on the promise of her Newmarket maiden win Aug. 27 when taking the G2 May Hill S. at Doncaster Sept. 9. G3 Sweet Solera S. winner Maids Causeway was beaten 3/4 lengths when third on that occasion, but renews rivalry on three pounds better terms. Despite his impressive record with juveniles, David Loder has yet to win this race. He relies on Dubai Surprise, who overcame adversity to win a competitive renewal of the G3 Prestige S. at Goodwood Aug. 29.

Soviet Song's subsequent winning streak has been interrupted only by Refuse to Bend (Ire), who bested her by a neck in the G1 Queen Anne S. over the straight mile at the Royal meeting here June 15. He went on to add the G1 Eclipse S. at Sandown July 3 before struggling home in last place in the Sussex S. last time. He bids to provide Godolphin with their fourth renewal since 1996. With the exception of Diamond Green (Fr), this year's miling sophomores have lacked consistency at the top level. He has found one too good in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains May 16, G1 St James's Palace S. over course and distance June 15 and G1 Prix du Moulin de Longchamp last time Sept. 5.

Perfect ten

Mazuna proves too good for a classy field of fillies and mares in the G3 Princess Royal Stakes at Ascot. She is the 10th Stakes winner from her sire's outstanding first crop, which also features the dual Oaks winner Ouija Board. Cape Cross has now sired a world-class 10 per cent Stakes winners to foals with his first runners.

All carry 123 pounds.

Aidan O'Brien, who has won this twice since 1999, relies solely on Scandinavia, a slow learner who typifies a change in direction by Ballydoyle regarding their juveniles. The odds-on favorite for his first two starts, at Tipperary June 10 and The Curragh June 25, he could only fill the runner-up spot behind subsequent stakes performers Elusive Double (Ire) and Indesatchel (Ire). But he was stepped up to an extended mile at the Galway festival July 31 and, ridden with supreme confidence by Jamie Spencer, opened his account with his first win. He was given a break subsequently and that patience is expected to pay off, as his pedigree suggests he will be better with time. He faces Godolphin's Perfectperformance, who followed a second in a decent Newmarket conditions event July 30 with a fluent three-length defeat of Grand Marque in the Listed Stonhenge S. at Salisbury Aug. 11. Wilko has been a model of consistency throughout the term and was unlucky not to finish closer than fourth behind Etlala (GB) in the G2 Champagne S. at Doncaster Sept. 10.

11	1	Ringmoor Down (GB)	Pivotal (GB)	Arbuthnot	123
12	3	Simianna (GB)	Bluegrass Prince (Ire)	A Berry	123

Airwave bids farewell to the track before fulfilling a date at the December Sales in Newmarket. Despite scoring only twice in the past two seasons, she has barely missed a dance on the sprinting circuit and has given the impression on more than one occasion that she should have added to her tally. She looked a world beater when claiming the scalp of Russian Rhythm in the G1 Cheveley Park S. at two and when overcoming a troubled trip to win the G2 Temple S. on her sophomore bow at Sandown last May. She was unfortunate to meet Choisir (Aus) in the G1 Golden Jubilee S. over course and distance at the Royal meeting the following month and held her form admirably when finishing third in the G1 July Cup at Newmarket and G1 Haydock Sprint Cup in September. Her 2004 campaign has been more miss than hit, but she hinted at a return when third behind The Tatling in the G3 World Trophy at Newbury last Saturday. That rival continues to scale the heights, with his customary fast-finishing style carrying him to success in the G2 King's Stand S. at Royal Ascot June 15 and to the runner-up spot for the second year in succession in the G1 Nunthorpe S. at York Aug. 19. Lack of early pace was blamed for his one-length defeat by Pivotal Point in the G3 Prix du Petit Couvert at Longchamp Sept. 5, but he reversed that form last week and is weighted to confirm it here. Stakes Previews cont. p4

Assiu has produced a string of consistent efforts in Germany's top mile events throughout the summer, winning the G3 Dr Busch-Memorial at Krefeld Apr. 18 before running third behind Brunel (Ire) and Lazio in the G2 Mehl-Mulhens-Rennen over course and distance May 16. He was beaten a head by one of his country's leading milers Martillo (Ger) when runner-up in the G2 Berlin-Brandenburg-Trophy at Hoppegarten July 11 before filling third behind Pepperstorm (Ger) in the G2 Oettingen-Rennen at Baden-Baden last time Aug. 31. He may have most to fear from the English challenger Putra Pekan, who beat subsequent G3 Winter Hill S. winner Ancient World in the Listed Royal Windsor S. May 10, but disappointed when down the field in the G3 Prix du Chemin de Fer du Nord June 13 and again in the Listed Robert Sangster Superior Mile Sept. 4.

EL PRADO JOINS RANKS OF SIX-FIGURE STALLIONS

Adena Springs' El Prado (Ire) (Sadler's Wells--Lady Capulet, by Sir Ivor), who has been first or second on the leading sires' list the last three years' running, will command a fee of $100,000 in 2005, it has been announced. The 15-year-old stood for $75,000 at Adena Springs Kentucky in Versailles in 2004. "He is one of the great success stories," said Adena's Jack Brothers. "I don't know a stallion that has been more consistent. He is the weekend sire--a Saturday-

El Prado (Ire)

Sunday horse. I don't know of any stallion that has been able to do what he has done. He has had a great run." Brothers added that breeders have not blinked at the increase in El Prado's stud fee. "Judging by the response we've gotten so far, no one is begrudging him the bump," he said. "It's hard to argue with his success. He has a Grade I winner on the dirt [Medaglia d'Oro] and a Grade I winner on the turf [Kitten's Joy] this year, and he has a couple of rising stars. Everyone recognizes what he has accomplished. Day in and day out, he is the real deal." El Prado is currently second on the sires' list, some $2.6 million behind Elusive Quality, who enjoyed a $5 million boost from the bonus earned by Smarty Jones for completing the sweep of the Rebel S., GII Arkansas Derby and GI Kentucky Derby. El Prado has had 15 stakes winners and seven graded winners this season. He leads all sires in number of stakes wins with 25. Adena Springs has also raised the stud fee for Alphabet Soup (Cozzene) from $10,000 to $20,000.

You can also pick up a copy of the TDN today at the Keeneland September Yearling Sale.

Mazuna had placed in three handicaps at Newbury and this track in midsummer before being stepped up in trip to tackle the G2 Park Hill S. at Doncaster last time Sept. 8. Belying her odds of 100-1 on that occasion, she proved the only threat to the winner Echoes in Eternity (Ire) when producing a late rattle to get to within a length of that rival at the line. Settled in the rear by Ryan Moore throughout the early stages of this contest, she made steady progress wide on the turn tracking last year's winner My Renee. Hooking up with that rival with 100 yards remaining, she showed gritty determination to win the bobber in a thrilling finale.

"The way to ride her is from the back and leave it late," Moore explained. "She can take a bit of a grip and you have to settle her and build up her confidence. She's pretty game and just did enough." Trainer Clive Brittain added, "She was put in the July Sales, but I thought it was too early and we hadn't seen anywhere near the filly I had seen on the gallops at home. It's taken a long time for her to get the confidence, but Ryan's been a big help, suggesting we could go a lot further with her. I'd like to run her in the G1 Gran Premio del Jockey Club [at the San Siro Oct. 17]."

HORSE CHESTNUT COLT TOPS DAY 11 AT

KEENELAND A yearling from the third crop by South African Horse of the Year Horse Chestnut (SAf) brought

a final bid of $170,000 to top the 11th session of the 2004 Keeneland September Sale in Lexington yesterday. The bay, a Jan. 31 foal, was consigned by Blanford Stud (Padraig Campion), agent, and purchased by trainer Bob Baffert, agent. His dam, the unraced nine-year-old Dr. Redoubtable (Storm Cat), was sold to Phillip Mote for $57,000 while carrying yesterday's topper at Keeneland November in 2002. Earning an immediate return on Mote's investment, the colt brought $85,000 as a weanling at last year's November sale. His second dam is multiple stakes winner Irish Actress (Seattle Song). The top-selling filly yesterday was a daughter of Arch out of multiple stakes winner Tanja (Allen's Prospect). From the family of graded winner and track-record holder Midway Road and stakes winner and Grade I-placed Tuzia, the bay was purchased for $140,000 from the consignment of Eaton Sales, agent. Her dam, who has produced two winners from three foals to race, was sold for $45,000 at the 2002 Keeneland November sale. The 14-day Keeneland September sale continues today, with bidding once again beginning at 10 a.m. The sale ends Monday.

CHAPEL ROYAL RETIRED Chapel Royal

(Montbrook--Cut Class Leanne, by Cutlass), one of the top two-year-olds of 2003, has been retired due to a minor injury, according to Daily Racing Form. The dark bay will begin his breeding career at Ashford Stud. Purchased by Demi O'Byrne for $1.2 million at the OBS Calder Sale, the Florida-bred rattled off three straight victories to begin his career for the partnership of Derrick Smith and Michael Tabor, including the GII Sanford S. and the GIII Flash S. He followed those up with a pair of runner-up efforts in the GI Hopeful S. and the GI Champagne S. before closing out his two-year-old season with a third in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile. But Chapel Royal made only two starts during his sophomore year, finishing fourth in the GIII Swale S. at Gulfstream Park, then returning from a layoff only to sustain an injury in the Fly So Free S. at Belmont Sept. 12. "It's a minor injury, but one that would not allow him to make any significant races this fall," trainer Todd Pletcher told DRF. "He had a spectacular two-year-old year; he was second to Birdstone in the Champagne and third in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile. He's a beautiful horse that had a lot of talent. He's going to make a good stallion." Chapel Royal retires with a record of 8-3-2-1 and earnings of $495,571.

COURT APPROVES CHURCHILL'S DEAL WITH FAIR GROUNDS

The U.S. Bankruptcy Court, Eastern District of Louisiana, yesterday approved the $47 million deal which gives Churchill Downs Incorporated controlling interest in Fair Grounds Race Course. CDI, the Fair Grounds Corporation and the Louisiana Horseman's Benevolent and Protective Association need to sign off on the acquisition, but the transaction is expected to be finalized by Oct. 15. "The bankruptcy court's ruling brought us one step closer to achieving what we believe is an excellent strategic fit between Fair Grounds and CDI and an ideal entree for our Company into a city and state with such a rich racing heritage," said CDI President and CEO Thomas Meeker. "Going forward, we will now turn our focus on closing the transaction, immersing ourselves in the New Orleans community and supporting the Fair Grounds staff in delivering an outstanding 2004-2005 meet." Upon closure of the deal, Fair Grounds will become the seventh racetrack owned and operated by CDI.

TVG to Air Arc Live:

TVG will once again present live coverage of the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe and several other prestigious races from Longchamp Sunday, Oct. 3. The special program will air from 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., EDT. Hall of Fame jockey Gary Stevens, recently returned from a French riding excursion, will join the regular TVG hosts for the coverage. "The Arc is one of the great events in international horse racing, and we are excited that for the sixth year in a row we will be bringing it live to our viewers," said Tony Allevato, vice president and executive producer of TVG. "We are especially thrilled Gary Stevens will be on hand to offer his unique commentary." In addition to the Arc, the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac and the G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere (Grand Criterium), both for two-year-olds, will be shown live.

SULAMANI FACES VITAL WORKOUT

Godolphin will give Sulamani (Ire) (Hernando {Fr}) a crucial gallop today to determine if he will have a place in the line-up for Sunday's G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at Longchamp. Trainer Saeed bin Suroor, who confirmed the G3 September S. winner Mamool (Ire) (In the Wings {GB}) as a certain runner in the feature event, explained yesterday that the team were unsure whether the G1 International S. scorer would join his stable companion. "We need to see him work before we decide," he said.

MURTAGH BOOKED FOR OUIJA BOARD

Johnny Murtagh has been booked to ride Lord Derby's dual Oaks heroine Ouija Board (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) in Sunday's G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at Longchamp, it was announced yesterday. Trainer Ed Dunlop announced the call-up on the understanding that Kieren Fallon will ride the Weinstock Family's North Light (Ire). However, Dunlop stressed that, "in the unlikely event of Kieren becoming available again, it would be his ride."

DESTINATION DUBAI (c, 3, Kingmambo--Mysterial, by Alleged), a full brother to Dubai Destination, G1 SW-Eng, $367,713, was last of 13 in a Doncaster handicap on his most recent start Sept. 8. Pressing the leader in second from the outset, he came under pressure once into the stretch run, was sent to the front approaching the final furlong and was driven out in the closing stages to hold the late thrust of Courageous Duke (Spinning World) by a half length at odds of 9-1. The winner was a $1.5 million KEEJUL yearling purchase. Lifetime Record: 8-2-2-1, £26,208.

O-Godolphin; B-Calumet Farm; T-Saeed bin Suroor.

Ascot, 4.15, Mdn, £11,500, 2yo, c/g, 7fT, 1:29.69, gd/fm.

DAVID JUNIOR (c, 2, Pleasant Tap--Paradise River, by Irish River {Fr}) went postward as the even-money favorite off a promising third on debut at Thirsk Sept. 14 and led from the outset of this one. Ridden along when hard pressed by Macabre (GB) (Machiavellian) inside the final quarter, he responded gamely to every call of Richard Hills to gamely deny that rival by three-parts of a length. The winner, a $175,000 FTFEB two-year-old purchase, was produced from a full sister to 1994 U.S. champion turf horse Paradise Creek. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-1, £8,143.

Haydock, 3.25, Mdn, £5,660, 3yo/up, 1m 30ydsT, 1:47.43, hy.

MUSICANNA (GB) (f, 3, Cape Cross {Ire}--Upend {Ire} {GSW-Eng}, by Main Reef {GB}), a 60,000gns TATOCT yearling, was runner-up over this trip at Newmarket June 5. Reserved off the pace until gaining forward momentum after halfway, she was ridden along at the quarter-mile marker. The 5-2 pick was angled out for her challenge at the eighth pole and ran on well in the latter stages to assert a 1 3/4-length superiority. Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, £5,415. O-Abdulla Buhaleeba; B-P D & Mrs Player; T-J Fanshawe.

Haydock, 4.35, Mdn, £5,420, 2yo, c/g, 6fT, 1:17.41, hy. DRAMATICUS (GB) (c, 2, Indian Ridge {Ire}--Corinium {Ire} {MSW-Eng}, by Turtle Island {Ire}) finished third on his debut at Warwick May 4 and returned here as the 7-2 joint favorite after a 143-day absence. Settled off the pace in midfield from the start, he made smooth headway to seize the initiative with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining and was ridden out in the closing stages to safely account for Rio Riva (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) by 1 3/4 lengths. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-1, £4,296. O/B-Derek & Jean Clee; T-David Loder.

FAIR MIX TO SHADE OAK STUD

Fair Mix (Ire) (Linamix {Fr}--Fairlee Wild, by Wild Again), who upset Falbrav (Ire) in the 2003 G1 Prix Ganay, will retire to Shade Oak Stud at the end of his racing career. In a transaction brokered by Fiona Marner's Kingswood Bloodstock, the six-year-old will become part of a roster that includes both flat and jumps stallions and will be used as a dual-purpose sire. Bred by the Lagardere family, the grey graduated from handicap company to win the G3 La Coupe de Maisons-Laffitte in 2002. While the Prix Ganay was his lone success from six starts last term, he is a dual winner this season, registering victories in the G3 Dubai City of Gold S. in March and the G3 La Coupe de Maisons-Laffitte in his latest effort Sept. 21.

SGA SALE HOLDS UP

The Societa Gestione Aste SRL two-day Select Yearling Sale kicked off with the record-setting excitement of Thursday's opening session, when Pegasus Farms' Herve Bargout paid €280,000 for a Woodman filly, and it ended with a far-from-weak finale yesterday. Sergio Scarpellini upheld the domestic end of Thursday's bidding war when buying three of the top four lots, but it was Scuderia Briantea who went home with the top-priced yearling of the second session. The owners of G1 Lockinge S. runner-up Salselon (GB) went to €75,000 to secure hip 122, S.A.R.L. SRL's Dr Fong filly out of the stakes winner Lucia Tarditi (Fr). Scarpellini was back in action on the second day, buying hip 136, a Sinndar (Ire) filly from the draft of Azienda Agricola Rosati Colarieti, one of 18 horses to be knocked down to the owner of Allevamento la Nuova Sbarra SRL during the two days. While the gross was markedly up on 2003, the overall average dipped slightly by 4.5 percent. The average of €19,322 was up over five percent on the 2003 figure.
