

HIS CUP OF TI

In scenes reminiscent of last year when compatriot Falbrav (Ire) beat the best milers at their game, Gary Tanaka's Rakti (GB) (Polish Precedent) suffered no problems dropping back to a mile to defeat Lucky Story (Kris S.) by a half length in yesterday's G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. at Ascot. After landing the G1 Prince of Wales's S. over this course in June, the headstrong five-year-old was off the board in both the G1 Coral-Eclipse S. July 3 and the G1 Irish Champion S. Sept. 11. "We had nothing to lose today, and if he keeps on in this sort of form, he probably is one of the best horses in the world," said winning trainer Michael Jarvis.

FANTASTIC RETURN FOR BARNETT

Trainer Bobby Barnett, a one-time fixture on the Louisiana racing scene, had started just two horses at the current meet at Louisiana Downs. But yesterday, the 55-year-old veteran made a triumphant return to Bossier City, saddling R Bar S Thoroughbreds' Fantasticat (Storm Cat) to a 14-1 upset victory over Borrogo (El Prado {Ire}) in the 25th running of the GII Super Derby. The bay colt began his career in Ireland, carrying the colors of Michael Tabor in his first two career starts before being sold to race in this country. In his final European appearance, Fantasticat was third at odds-on in a Tipperary maiden last July 10. The horse that finished second that afternoon was Castledale (Ire), who would adapt to the American brand of racing with wins in the GIII Generous S. on the turf and the GI Santa Anita Derby on the main track. The learning curve for Fantasticat has been a little bit slower. Cont. p3

A TOUGH ACT TO FOLLOW

The Sangster Family's Playful Act (GB) (Sadler's Wells) provided her sire with yet another Group 1 winner, leading from flagfall to finish to take yesterday's Meon Valley Stud Fillies' Mile S. at Ascot. Following her impressive victory in the G2 May Hill S. Sept. 9, trainer John Gosden suggested that the filly's main goal for 2005 would be the G1 Epsom Oaks, without the benefit of a Guineas prep. Following yesterday's performance, it seems the conditioner has had a change of heart. "I'll take her straight to the G1 1000 Guineas [at Newmarket in May], as she's a Group 1 winner, so there's no point carrying penalties in a prep," Gosden said. "If she runs a nice race and all goes well, she'll then go straight to the G1 Epsom Oaks." Cont. p2

NOTHING SHORT OF PERFECT

From the day of his birth, there have always been lofty expectations for Perfectperformance (Rahy). A half brother to the outstanding racemare Russian Rhythm, he was knocked down as a yearling for $1.1 million to Team Godolphin. A Listed winner in his most recent outing, the Pennsylvania-bred took another step towards stardom with a facile victory in the G2 Royal Lodge S. at Ascot. Cont. p3

Winning Precedent

Rakti confirms his brilliance and versatility – he's now won G1s at eight, 10 and 12 furlongs – with a championship display in the Queen Elizabeth II Stakes at Ascot.

FOR THE QUEEN Since being transferred from his base in Italy after taking the 2002 G1 Derby Italiano, Rakti (GB) (Polish Precedent) had harnessed his natural exuberance to win the 2003 G1 Champion S. at Newmarket and the G1 Prince of Wales's S. at Royal Ascot on his return this year. However, that excess energy looked to be getting the better of him when he finished a disappointing eighth in the G1 Eclipse S. at Sandown July 3 and fifth in the G1 Irish Champion S. at Leopardstown last time Sept. 11. Here, jockey Philip Robinson was able to let the habitual hard puller roll at strong pace while stalking Godolphin's rabbit Blatant (GB) (Machiavellian). Striking at the top of the straight, the 9-2 chance was able to employ his inherent stamina on the stiff climb to hold Lucky Story (Kris S.), just missing the track record in the process. His rider was not surprised by the five-year-old's speed. "The first time I sat on him I was astounded to hear he had won over a mile and a half, and I said to Michael [trainer Jarvis] that he seemed like a top-class miler. Mile pace helps him to relax and he was just doing what was necessary in front." Jarvis was rewarded for his patient handling. "He's a horse that gives us problems, as he gets so wound up when he gets to the track," he explained. "He's like an elastic band that's going to snap, but today he was very good." The winner will be pointed for the G1 Breeders' Cup Mile at Lone Star Park Oct. 30. "I know nothing about Dallas or the track out there, but, though he is a big horse, he is very athletic and I don't think the bends will be a problem," Jarvis added. Rakti is likely to close out the year in the G1 Hong Kong Cup Dec. 12, a race in which he was second to Falbrav in 2003. The second- and third-place finishers will have a rematch in the G1 Champion S. at Newmarket Oct. 16.

Playful Act opened her account in a Newmarket maiden Aug. 27 before beating Queen of Poland (GB) and Maids Causeway in the G2 May Hill S. at Doncaster last time Sept. 9. Breaking smartly from her high draw here, she was forced up to dispute the early lead and was soon left in front to her own devices. She kicked on the turn into the straight, stole first run on Maids Causeway and was always holding that game rival in the drive to the line. "In the May Hill they went very fast and it was a true test, so we wanted to bounce out and use her stride today," explained winning trainer John Gosden. "There is plenty of stamina on the dam's side, and she really appreciates a test, so we didn't want it turning into a four-furlong sprint." Trainer Barry Hills said that the runner-up has been purchased by American Martin Schwartz and may be aimed at the G2 Rockfel S. at Newmarket Oct. 16. Fantasticat broke his maiden in career start number seven, taking a Fair Grounds event by a length Feb. 28, then went winless for another three months before registering a 1 1/2-length allowance victory at Churchill Downs June 6. Fourth in a second-level allowance in Louisville July 2, he wheeled back on 15 days' rest and shed the blinkers to be a good second to Cryptograph (Cryptoclearance) in the July 17 Round Table S. at Arlington. A non-threatening fifth in the GIII West Virginia Derby Aug. 7, he was coming into this off a neck defeat at the hands of South Africa (Cape Town) in the Aug. 28 Prelude S. at this track. Settled well off the early pace, Fantasticat put in an eye-catching move on the far turn, came out for the drive and outbattled Borrego to the wire. Favored Imperialism (Langfuhr), making his first start since finishing fifth in the GI Preakness S. May 15, was last after a half and offered a mild late bid to be fourth.

A half brother to the recently retired Russian Rhythm, Perfectperformance continued the rich vein of form for the Godolphin juveniles with a game display in this contest. Successful on his debut at Salisbury June 24, he looked in need of further when finishing 3/4-lengths second in a seven-furlong Newmarket conditions event July 30, and relished the extra panel when stepped up to a mile for the Listed Stonehenge S. at Salisbury, where he scored in convincing style Aug. 11. Forced to race three-wide from his high draw stalking this early pace, he was wound up on the turn into the straight by Frankie Dettori and hit the front passing the quarter pole. The chestnut was challenged by Scandinavia soon after, but showed determination to repel that threat in the drive to the line. "He has class and speed, but he has always looked as if he needs further," trainer Saeed bin Suroor commented. "We thought he was a nice colt earlier in the season, and one-and-a-quarter miles would be perfect for him already, but he'll run next in the G1 Racing Post Trophy [at Doncaster Oct. 23]. Next year he'll get a mile and a half." Click for the [Racing Post](http://Racing Post) chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Britain's major sprint handicaps have been a prolific source of top-class sprinters in recent times and Pivotal Point joined the club with a scintillating display of speed here. Emerging on the scene with a win in the Stewards' Cup at Goodwood July 31, he took the step into stakes company in his stride when beating The Tatling in the G3 Prix du Petit Couvert at Longchamp Sept. 5. He failed to fire when only fifth behind that rival in last Saturday's G3 World Trophy at Newbury, but bounced back in sensational style under an enterprising ride from Seb Sanders. Reined back to sit in a stalking second behind the speedball Celtic Mill (GB) (Celtic Swing {GB}) early, he quickened to lead with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining before dismissing the brief threat from Airwave. "Last week was a bit of a hiccup in our procession, but we think the loose ground was to blame," conditioner Peter Making commented. "Seb said he thought the six suited him better than five and I want to go for the G1 Hong Kong Sprint [at Sha Tin Dec. 12] if he gets an invite." Eagle Rise stamped himself as a live Classic contender when winning the G3 Preis des Winterfavoriten over course and distance two years ago, but those dreams faded with a disappointing fourth in the G3 Dr Busch-Memorial last April and a ninth in the G2 Mehl-Mulhens-Rennen (German 2000 Guineas) the following month. He got back on track this term when winning the Listed Kolner Fruhjahrs-Meile over course and distance Apr. 4, and held his own when third in the G3 Deutscher Herold-Preis at Hamburg June 26 and runner-up in the G3 Globetrotter-Meile back over course and distance Aug. 1. Though only fifth in the G3 Preis der Sparkassen-Finanzgruppe at Baden-Baden last time Aug. 27, he returned to winning ways here on his beloved stomping grounds. English raider Putra Pekan helped force the pace throughout, but Eagle Rise came with a fine late rattle to gain the victory.

Sabiango got the training career of former Bob Baffert assistant trainer Tim Yakteen off to a promising start, leading nearly every step of the way to take yesterday's GIII Kentucky Cup Turf. A Group 1 winner in his native Germany, the chestnut made two U.S. appearances last year, finishing fourth in the GI Turf Classic at Belmont and fifth in the GI Canadian International. Last of 14 in the G1 Hong Kong Vase in December, he returned from a six-month vacation to wire the GI Charles Whittingham Memorial H. at Hollywood June 12, but faded tamely in his latest to finish 11th of 13 in the GI Arlington Million Aug. 14. Sent immediately to the front by Brice Blanc, Sabiango cut out moderate fractions over the undulating surface, travelled nicely throughout and covered his final quarter mile in :23 1/5 to deny Rochester a third consecutive victory in this event.

On the board in all eight prior starts this season, Ocean Drive had not put together back-to-back wins, but changed her luck here. The dark bay earned her first graded-stakes score in the GIII Gallorette S. at Pimlico on the Preakness undercard and came back two starts later to add a 2 3/4-length success in the July 10 GIII Eatontown H. at Monmouth Park. Third after pressing the pace in the July 31 GI Diana H. at Saratoga, she came back at the end of the meet to take the Aug. 30 GIII Ballston Spa Breeders' Cup H. The slight choice over Canadian shipper Hour of Justice to make it two in a row, Ocean Drive tracked the leaders while racing on the outside, launched her bid on the final bend and finished well to post a popular decision. "She was carrying top weight and the outside post can be tough...but she's just so good right now she was able to overcome those things," trainer Todd Pletcher said. Western Ransom graduated over the Fair Grounds turf Jan. 24 and added a $50,000 optional claimer that came off the turf at that track Feb. 24. Freshened off that effort, the dark bay filly returned to finish second, beaten a head to eventual GI Garden City Breeders' Cup H. victress Lucifer's Stone, in the Appalachian S. at Keeneland Apr. 14. The Michael Dickinson trainee earned her first stakes success in Pimlico's Hilltop S. May 8, then ran second in the GIII Regret S. at Churchill June 12. Off since finishing 10th in the GI American Oaks at Hollywood July 3, Western Ransom was made the lukewarm favorite here. Unhurried in the early stages, the sophomore filly rallied six wide on the turn for home and was along in time to nail the pacesetter. "I really didn't want to go that wide, but things worked out and she was good enough to get there," said jockey Ryan Fogelsonger. "She's as game as they get. I had her too far back and took her too far wide. She did the rest." Click for the brisnet.com chart.

event of the new season. The six-year-old, scoring his third victory at the highest level, corralled stablemate Shamekha turning for home, but jockey Danny Beasley had to call on his horse for everything he had to stave off King's Chapel in the final furlong. "He is the best horse in the country and he proved himself today, over weight-for-age at a mile," said winning trainer Gai Waterhouse, adding, "You will see plenty of him in the next two months." Hennessy is proving to be a gallant flag-bearer for his sire, Storm Cat, having sired 10 Australasian stakes winners, including two Group 1 winners.

Albanova, who found only Mamool (Ire) too strong in this contest 12 months ago, arrives here as the favorite following two successes at this level in two starts this term. Forsaking a tilt at next Sunday's G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at Longchamp in favor of this contest, the grey will find easier pickings here as she bids to follow up on victories in the G1 Deutschlandpreis at Dusseldorf July 25 and G1 Pokal over course and distance last time Aug. 15. Egerton disappointed when down the field in the G1 Deutsches Derby at Hamburg July 4 before finishing last in the G1 Grosser Dallmayr-Preis at Munich Aug. 1. It was no surprise to see him sent off at 38-1 for the G1 Grosser Preis von Baden, but, though he ran above himself when failing by a neck to catch Warrsan (Ire) in that Sept. 5 event, he has to prove that was no fluke.

There's no easy way to fault Artie Schiller, who figures a short-priced favorite this afternoon. Six-for-eight on the turf and three-for-four over this course, the bay colt followed up a victory in the May 15 Woodlawn S. at Pimlico with a 1 3/4-length success in this track's GIII Hill Prince S. June 6. Stretched to 10 furlongs, he filled the runner-up spot behind divisional leader Kitten's Joy in the July 10 GIII Virginia Derby, but atoned for that defeat with a powerhouse score in the GII Hall of Fame H. at Saratoga Aug. 9. Rousing Victory can improve in his third start off a layoff. Making his graded-stakes bow today, the half brother to the good turf mare Mariensky broke his maiden over the Belmont turf in May and comes into this off a 1 3/4-length allowance victory at Saratoga Sept. 2.

TRIPPI COLT TOPS KEENELAND SATURDAY

Hip 4063, a colt from the first crop of top sprinter Trippi (End Sweep), realized a final bid of $170,000 to top yesterday's action at the Keeneland September Yearling Sales in Lexington. Consigned by Susan M. Forrester, agent, the gray was knocked down to the winning bid of California trainer William Currin, acting on behalf of Oak Tree Farm. A Jan. 23 foal, he hails from the immediate family of Purge, winner of this year's GII Jim Dandy S. at Saratoga, as well as leading sire Valid Expectations. The sale, already the highest grossing of all time, continues with its penultimate session beginning this morning at 10 a.m.

THE WORLD

COMING HOME U.S. champions Criminal Type (Alydar) and Sunshine Forever (Roberto) as well as French Group 1 winner Creator (GB) (Mill Reef), who had all stood at stud in Japan, are set to return to Kentucky through the efforts of Old Friends, an organization which seeks to provide a permanent home for retired Thoroughbreds. The 1990 U.S. Horse of the Year Criminal Type has been donated to Old Friends by the Japanese Thoroughbred Club and Shintaro Otuka of Hokkaido, Japan. Sunshine Forever, 1988 Champion Turf Horse and a 3/4-brother to leading Japanese sire Brian's Time, has been purchased for $10,000 by Old Friends from Tokio Origasa. Creator, a multiple Group 1 winner in France, was acquired by Old Friends for $4,500 from Masaru Yamaguchi. The three stallions are expected to arrive in Kentucky late this autumn. Narvick International principal Emmanuel de Seroux was instrumental in arranging for travel discounts for the horses. Old Friends intends to syndicate the retirees for $100 per share, with 250 shares available in Creator, 500 for Sunshine Forever and 1000 for Criminal Type. "Owners" will receive a photograph, an owners certificate and a video of their races. For more information, go to www.oldfriendsequine.org.

Provincetown returned after more than 10 months on the shelf to take a Belmont allowance test over fellow New York-breds by 6 1/4 lengths May 22, but had been shut out in his four starts since. The bay managed to get third behind Christine's Outlaw in an open allowance June 20, but could do no better than seventh behind that rival in the July 10 Gill Poker H. A fading fourth in the Aug. 15 West Point H. at the Spa, the four-year-old closed to be fifth, beaten just three lengths, in the restricted Troy S. at Saratoga Sept. 3. P-Town was sent off the crowd's choice to handle state-bred foes here and did so, but with a change of tactics. The favorite went right to the front, opened up on the field in the stretch and held on for the win.

On the board in each of his next three starts versus allowance company, the chestnut bounced back to clear his second condition at Belmont July 11. He was last seen finishing sixth at the Spa Aug. 28 and was backed as the chalk by the Belmont faithful here. Kept close to the leaders by Johnny Velazquez, he was angled out in the stretch and rallied to get up for the victory.

Dance Away Capote led every step to break her maiden in her career opener at Monmouth Park Aug. 22. Sent right into stakes company off that effort, the gray was off at 7-2 in the Sept. 4 Sorority S. and finished second. The odds-on choice stretching out to a mile here, she was last out of the gate and still trailed after the opening half, but rallied to take control at the top of the lane and galloped home an easy winner.

Statement Retired:

Statement (Seattle Slew--Appealing Missy, by Lypheor {GB}), a two-time stakes winner over the Del Mar turf this summer, has been retired because of an ankle injury, trainer Kristin Mulhall told Daily Racing Form. The New York-bred was purchased by The Thoroughbred Corporation for $900,000 at the 1999 Keeneland July sale and raced predominantly on the East Coast, winning six times and finishing second in the 2001 Mohawk H. for horses bred in the Empire State. Offered as part of the dispersal of racing stock from The Thoroughbred Corp. at the Barretts March sale earlier this year, the six-year-old was knocked down for $100,000 to the ownership team of Winner, Bienstock and Papiano, among others. Statement capped off his career with victories in the Wickerr H. July 31 and the Live The Dream H. Sept. 8. He retires with a record of 32-8-4-4 and earnings of $374,068. Stud plans have yet to be determined.

Van Clief Officially Appointed NTRA Commissioner:

During its third-quarter board meeting at Lone Star Park, the National Thoroughbred Racing Association officially appointed D.G. Van Clief, Jr. to become its commissioner "until such time as an executive search is completed." Van Clief takes over for Tim Smith, who resigned the position in August to explore other career options. The Board also established an executive committee, chaired by Robert Clay, to develop a profile for the organization's next chief executive; and approved a resolution authorizing the NTRA to establish a National Office of Wagering Security.

Kehaar broke his maiden at Newbury June 10 before inflicting the sole defeat on subsequent MGSW Mister Monet (Ire) this term in a competitive handicap at Newmarket July 8. He was drawn unfavorably wide when he disappointed in a conditions event at Goodwood last time July 29, but came back sick and duly bounced back after a freshener to add this valuable handicap to his tally. Racing with the benefit of cover early settled in behind the leaders by Eddie Ahern, he was short of room when full of run at the quarter pole. He was switched when the daylight appeared and quickened to hit the front with 150 yards remaining before stretching clear in impressive fashion. "He had a horrible draw and couldn't handle the track at Goodwood, but also came out of it with a temperature," his trainer Mikael Magnusson explained. "He had some sort of infection which I couldn't trace on the scope or bloods beforehand, but we've given him plenty of time off, and he's been to Lingfield twice for gallops and worked very well. He is a late-developing horse who has had his problems, but his year will be next year."

COUNTRY RAMBLER (c, 2, Red Ransom--Country Garden {GB} {GSW & GISP-US, $461,255}, by Selkirk), a respectable seventh to Dubawi (Ire) in the G3 Superlative S. at Newmarket July 8 and a last-out third at Chester Sept. 11, went to the gate as the 9-4 outsider of two runners. Sent to the lead from the outset, he was coaxed clear of Loaderfun (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) approaching the final furlong and stretched further clear of that eased-down rival in the closing stages to record a facile 16-length success. The winner was a $125,000 KEENOV weanling and $225,000 KEESEP yearling. Lifetime Record: 5-2-0-1, £15,245.

FRANKIE FORGES CLEAR

Though it wasn't another Super Saturday for Frankie Dettori, the Italian jockey took a four-race lead in the Jockeys' Championship following the Ascot meeting. After winning the opening G2 Royal Lodge S. on Perfectperformance, Dettori stretched his lead over the defending title-holder Kieren Fallon. "I've been here before, but it's a long time and never in a million years did I think I'd be leading," he said. "The pressure is there every morning and we're going to throw everything at it. We are very competitive and professional and just try and do the best we can."
