ARTIE SCHILLER ROLLS TO JAMAICA WIN

Artie Schiller (El Prado {Ire}) had a lot to live up when he walked into the gate for Sunday's GII Jamaica H. at Belmont Park. Many felt the bay couldn't lose, installing him the piping hot 1-5 choice, and the talented three-year-old did not disappoint. Full of run early, the bay pressed the fast, but sometimes quirky Icy Atlantic (Stormy Atlantic) through moderate early fractions. Ready to roll on the second turn, Artie Schiller overtook the tiring leader and cruised home in a gallop, 5 1/4-lengths clear of his nearest foe, 30-1 longshot Rousing Victory (Victory Gallop). "He keeps getting better and better," said Richard Migliore, who was aboard for the colt's track record-setting performance. "It's an amazing feeling riding him; just a tremendous amount of power." (report cont. p2)

GOFFS BONANZA BEGINS

Today marks the beginning of an important week for Goffs as they open the new look five-day Orby Sale, which amalgamates their three autumn auctions for the first time. With the formerly separate Challenge and Autumn Bonus Sales incorporated into the Orby, the venue at Kill, County Kildare, will serve up a marathon feast. Just last Saturday, Vinnie Roe (Ire) (Definite Article {GB}) did the marketing executives a huge favor when rattling up a fourth consecutive victory in the G1 Irish St Leger at The Curragh. He continued the high-profile run of Orby graduates in 2004 begun by the GI Santa Anita Derby winner Castledale (Ire) (Peintre Celebre) and G1 Irish 2000 Guineas hero Bachelor Duke (Miswaki), who was purchased by the late Joss Collins for €125,000 in 2002. This year's 1000-plus strong catalogue features many of the world's leading sires, including Danehill, Danzig, Green Desert, Kingmambo and Sadler's Wells, alongside a collection of new bloods such as Fantastic Light, Fusaichi Pegasus, Galileo (Ire), Giant's Causeway, King's Best, Montjeu (Ire) and Mozart (Ire). Most of the choice lots will sell on the first two days, traditionally the slot for the Orby in its previous format. It will be a crucial 48 hours for the sales company, who saw the average decline by seven percent in 2003. The new marketing team at Goffs have also led a departure from the Sales Race norm that dominates many similar auctions. While most of their competitors continue to rely on the lure of a single Sales Race, Goffs have initiated a €250,000 prize fund for graduates accumulating the most points next season in Europe and North America. "We are optimistic and the feedback is that there is very good depth in this catalogue," Managing Director Matt Mitchell said. "People have been viewing since Thursday and we are expecting a huge volume of people. The new format should work for both buyers and vendors and we hope that by Friday our optimism will have proved correct." Selling begins at 4 p.m. today and at 11 a.m. tomorrow through Thursday, with the final session beginning at 10 a.m. Friday. Full catalogue and updates can be viewed online at www.goffs.com.

☆ HIP HAPPENINGS ☆

Hip 4, c, Giant's Causeway--Shy Princess, by Irish River (Fr)
Consigned by Ashtown House Stud

The most expensive of those purchased as foals, the $260,000 KEENOV weanling is half-brother to the G2 Diadem S. winner Diffident (Fr) (Nureyev) from the family of last year's G1 St James's Palace S. winner Zafeen (Fr) and G1 Breeders' Cup Mile winner Opening Verse. Giant's Causeway's juveniles have had a fine season thanks to the exploits of group winners Shamardal and Maids Causeway (Ire), and the dam was runner-up in the G1 Prix Morny at two.

Hip 24, c, Grand Lodge--Alessia (Ger), by Warning (GB)
Consigned by Ashtown House Stud

This January-born colt is out of a half-sister to the smart stakes scorers Assiun (Ger) and Anthurium (Ger) from a solid German family. He was the most expensive of Paul Shanahan's purchases at €165,000 at the November Foal Sale here.

Hip 38, c, Galileo (Ire)--Crystal Ring (Ire), by Kris (GB)
Consigned by Abbeville & Meadow Court Studs

This colt is a half-brother to Germany's older champion mare Catella (Ire) out of a half-sister to Diamond Shoal and Glint of Gold.

Hip 65, f, 2, Kingmambo--Isle de France, by Nureyev.
Consigned by Oaks Farm Stables

The sole Kingmambo in the sale, she is out of the smart dual group winner Isle de France, herself a daughter of multiple Grade I winner Stella Madrid and a granddaughter of champion sprinter My Juliet.

Hip 93, c, 2, Danzig--Nuts in May, by A. P. Indy.
Consigned by Kilcarn Stud

The sole Danzig in the sale, this colt is out of a half-sister to Pleasantly Perfect (Pleasant Colony) and group winner Hurricane State (Miswaki) and is from the family of Distant View. His half-brother by Nureyev went for €420,000 at last year's Orby Sale.

Artie Schiller has been a model of consistency this term, having finished in the money in five of six starts. Winner of the GIII Hill Prince S. over track and trip June 6, he ran second behind the talented Kitten's Joy in the GIII Virginia Derby at Colonial Downs July 10, but rebounded to score last time in Saratoga's GII Hall of Fame H. Aug. 9. Trainer Jimmy Jerkens indicated that although the Breeders' Cup is not out of the question, the colt is most likely going to make his next start in the GII Kelso H. Oct. 9. "[The Kelso] is only two weeks from now, but we'll consider that," said Jerkens. "I like to stay home when I can."

BREEDERS' CUP BULLETIN

BREEDERS' CUP DOUBTS FOR RAKTI Michael Jarvis yesterday revealed that Gary Tanaka's Rakti (GB) (Polish Precedent) may sidestep the G1 Breeders' Cup Mile at Lone Star Park Oct. 30. Instead, Jarvis could freshen the five-year-old for a winter campaign in the Far East. Describing Saturday's G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. winner as "very happy and absolutely 100 percent" after his half-length victory in the Ascot contest, the Newmarket conditioner ruled out the G1 Champion S. at Newmarket Oct. 16 before voicing doubts about a tilt at the Mile in Texas. After talking it over with Tanaka, Jarvis told PA Sport, "I would have some concerns about the track in America. Obviously I haven't been there, but with a maximum of 14 it sounds to me as though it is very sharp like Chester and we all know what happens to outside horses there, so we are in a bit of a quandary where we go next. I think the Champion comes a bit quick and I would be worried about the track at the other one. So it's a possibility he might go to Japan [for the G1 Mile Championship at Kyoto Nov. 21] or we might even wait for the G1 Hong Kong Cup [at Sha Tin Dec. 16]."

Also ran: Egerton (Ger), Deva (Ger), Well Made (Ger), Longridge (Ger), Soterio (Ger), Dano-Mast (GB).

No horse had ever won the Deutschlandpreis, Pokal and Preis von Europa, three of the Group 1 jewels in Germany's middle-distance championship crown, in the same season, but yesterday Albanova made history when completing the treble with a stirring defeat of Saldentigerin. Settled off the pace set by that runaway leader throughout the early stages, she showed the tenacity that has contributed to her historical feat when reeling in that rival in the final strides under a power-packed Seb Sanders drive. She also becomes the first distaffer to take this event. There is something about Germany that ignites the fire in Albanova, who got to within 1 1/4 lengths of Mamool (Ire) in this race 12 months ago. She returned to this country after nine months off the track to down Dayano (Ger) in the G1 Deutschlandpreis at Dusseldorf July 25, recording her first success at the highest level, and beat yesterday's G3 Cumberland Lodge S. winner High Accolade (GB) comfortably in the G1 Pokal over course and distance last time Aug. 15. She duly established her dominion by making it three in a row here. Connections are eyeing a tilt at the G1 Premio Roma Nov. 7 before an honorable retirement alongside her dual Champion S. winning sister Alborada (GB) at the end of the year.

Also ran: Compton Bolter (Ire), Muqbil, Franklins Gardens (GB), The Khamsin (Den), Alpino Chileno (Arg), Persian Majesty (Ire).

Last year's winner High Accolade was tried over staying trips after finding Albanova (GB) too strong in the G1 Pokal at Cologne Aug. 15. He was far from disgraced when fourth in the G2 Doncaster Cup, where the two-and-a-quarter mile trip may have been a bridge too far at this stage of his career, but, back at his beloved Ascot, he showed determination to record back-to-back successes in this event. This was also his third course victory, as he also won the G2 King Edward VII S. at the Royal meeting last June. Settled in a stalking second by Martin Dwyer throughout the early stages, he grabbed the lead on the turn into the straight before being headed at the quarter pole by Self Defense under a Kieren Fallon drive. Squeezed against the fence inside the final eighth, he rallied to regain the advantage soon after and dug deep to assert in the closing stages.

"He's a very tough performer and loves Ascot," commented winning trainer Marcus Tregoning. "Kieren's horse may just have been hanging, which made it harder for him, but he loves a scrap. It has been difficult for him taking on the older horses this year, but I thought he looked terrific in the paddock before the race today and he does love this place."

SALT LAKE COLT TOPS KEENELAND SUNDAY

Hip 4549, a colt by Salt Lake out of the unraced seven-year-old mare Snowmass (Kingmambo) brought a final bid of $82,000 to top the penultimate session of the 2004 Keeneland September Yearling Sale in Lexington yesterday. Consigned by Eaton Sales, agent, the dark bay was purchased by John T.L. Jones, Jr., agent. The yearling's third dam is Crimson Saint (Crimson Satan), who produced champion and sire Royal Academy, MGSW Pancho Villa and GSW Terlingua, who was herself the dam of superstar stallion Storm Cat. After 13 days, the gross for the September Sale, which was held over 12 sessions last year, has grossed a record $323,743,800, surpassing the previous record of $317,666,000 established during the Keeneland November Sale in 1999. The final session will be held this morning beginning at 10 a.m.

Island Fashion Set for Lady's Secret

Island Fashion (Petionville) blazed through six furlongs in 1:11.60 at Santa Anita Sunday, prompting trainer Marcelo Polanco to commit his star filly to Sunday's GI Lady's Secret H. The four-year-old filly recorded the co-fastest time at the distance from 16 drills on the day. "We're pretty sure we're staying here for the Lady's Secret," confirmed Polanco. "I talked to Jeffrey [Nielsen, owner of Everest Stable] and we agreed that, the way she worked, she showed us she should run here first." As for the roan's future plans, Polanco added, "Hopefully, from there, it will be the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff [at Lone Star Park Oct. 30]." Also possible for the Lady's Secret is MGSW Musical Chimes (In Excess {Ire}), although the Neil Drysdale trainee would have to be supplemented, at a cost of $5,000, for the 1 1/16-mile event. "We're thinking about it," said Drysdale. "The plan is for Kent [Desormeaux] to ride her." With Desormeaux slated to ride Musical Chimes, the mount on Island Fashion, who the rider partnered for a pair of wins in last year's GI La Brea S. and GI Santa Monica H., will be up for grabs.

Sugar Punch, unbeaten in four starts since joining the barn of Richard Dutrow, Jr., followed back-to-back Belmont wins with an Aug. 5 Saratoga allowance tally and, most recently, a gritty score in the Aug. 26 Union Avenue S. With a bullet four-furlong move at Aqueduct Sept. 10 under her belt, the bay filly was sent off the favorite here. With the pace early, Sugar Punch asserted control when asked for run at the top of the stretch and pulled clear late for her fifth straight win. "I never would have dreamt this would have happened when we bought her," admitted Dutrow. "I was just looking to get a nice, solid horse. She's a nice filly. Watching the rerun, when they turned for home, it looked like she dropped down a little bit and said, 'Let's get rolling.' She did everything the right way." Dutrow added that Sugar Punch will likely return in the Oct. 23 Iroquois S.

Friendly Island, bidding for his third consecutive victory following back-to-back Saratoga allowance tallies Aug. 7 and Aug. 21, was sent off the 3-5 chalk. My Poker Player, claimed for $50,000 after running second at Del Mar Aug 28, was the 5-2 second choice in his New York debut. The pair settled off the brisk pace set by Show Boot (Storm Boot), with Friendly Island making the first move. The crowd's choice grabbed the lead as they raced down the stretch, but My Poker Player joined him in the final strides and the two hit the wire together.

Pleasantly Perfect Drills at Santa Anita:

Getting ready for his title defense in the Oct. 30 GI Breeders' Cup Classic, Pleasantly Perfect (Pleasant Colony) worked seven furlongs in 1:26.80 at Santa Anita yesterday morning. The six-year-old goes straight from his one-length win in the Aug. 22 GI Pacific Classic to Lone Star Park. Trainer Richard Mandella was pleased with the breeze. "He's on schedule," Mandella said. "Everything's perfect with Perfect."

Chandtrue Out Until Winter:

Undefeated two-year-old Chandtrue (Yes It's True), who made it a perfect four-for-four in the July 17 GIII Hollywood Juvenile Championship last time out, will skip Sunday's GII Norfolk S. at Santa Anita and instead be rested until the end of the year. Trainer Bob Hess Jr. said yesterday that the Florida-bred colt would be pointed for the Sunshine Millions in January, "hopefully with a prep before that," he explained, adding, "We'll keep him short."

Jockey Dean Kutz Dead at 48:

Veteran jockey Dean Kutz, who rode more than 2,800 winners during a racing career spanning four decades, died Sunday morning at Lexington's Saint Joseph Hospital after a lengthy battle with throat cancer. He was 48. The Carrington, North Dakota native began riding in 1972 and competed for over 20 years along the Midwest circuit before he was temporarily forced to the sidelines to receive a kidney transplant. In 2000, Kutz lost his larynx after he was diagnosed with throat cancer, but in a great show of courage, returned to the saddle for a brief stint in August 2001. Kutz, who was inducted into the North Dakota Sports Hall of Fame, also received the 2001 George Woolf and 2002 Mike Venezia Awards. A winner of 2,835 races and $33,691,225 in purses, Kutz's biggest victories came in the 1997 GII Arlington-Washington Futurity and the Cradle S. with Cowboy Dan. A memorial service, arranged by Blackburn and Ward Funeral Home, will be held at 3:00 p.m. Tuesday in the Keeneland sales pavilion. For information, contact Jim Williams at 859-288-4220.

DOYEN TARGETED AT CHAMPION

Godolphin's impressive G1 King George VI & Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. winner Doyen (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) could reappear in the G1 Champion S. at Newmarket, according to the Racing Post. Despite immediate suggestions that he would be put away for the season after disappointing when down the field in the G1 Irish Champion S. at Leopardstown Sept. 11, Racing Manager Simon Crisford told the Post that they are "just having a look at him" and that he "remains a possible for the Champion S." After overseeing a six-furlong breeze on the Newmarket gallops, he added, "The horse is fine. He came out of the Irish Champion S. very well and his performance is still a mystery. We'll tip-toe forward with him and he'll continue to work over the next couple of weeks and we'll see where that takes us. He won't be set too many tasks this year, as he stays in training next year. Nothing has been ruled out, but we'll probably limit the amount of traveling he does at this stage of his career. We always felt he'd come into his own as a five-year-old."

SUEZ READY FOR PARK BID

Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid al Maktoum's Suez (GB) (Green Desert) was yesterday reported on course for Thursday's G1 Cheveley Park S. at Newmarket. Trainer Michael Jarvis confirmed the unbeaten Listed Dicke Poole S. winner as an intended runner as long as the dry forecast proves correct. "She is a little professional," he said, before adding, "We would be very hopeful that she would put up an extremely good display." The Salisbury scorer will face a maximum of 10 rivals in the six-furlong contest, headed by Susan Magnier's G1 Phoenix S. scorer Damson (Ire) (Entrepreneur {GB}) and Cheveley Park Stud's G2 Lowther S. scorer Soar (GB) (Danzero {Aus}). Trainer Richard Fahey supplemented last Saturday's G3 Firth of Clyde S. winner Golden Legacy (Ire) (Rossini), while Clive Brittain has added the G3 Sirenia S. winner Satchem (Ire) (Inchinar {GB}) to Friday's G1 Middle Park S. at the same venue.

Frankie Dettori has enjoyed some of his career high-lights in the shade of the first pole in Ascot's winners' enclosure. Badminton allowed him one more memory before he takes home the cherished souvenir for his back lawn as the track's redevelopment gets underway. Held in high esteem by trainer Clive Brittain at two, Badminton justified his faith by finishing runner-up in the G2 Lowther S. at York in August and third in the G1 Cheveley Park S. at Newmarket in October.

Snapped up by Godolphin after her juvenile campaign, she had failed to make it back to the track so far this term, but gave the impression she is ready to make up for lost time here. Stalking the leaders throughout the early stages, she quickened to the front with 300 yards remaining before asserting from stable companion Pearl Grey to provide a one-two for the royal blue. "Badminton has won well on her first appearance of the season, which has been delayed because she has had some little problems," commented trainer Saeed bin Suroor. "We gave her an easy time, but in the last month she has been working really well and she has been very quick to come to hand to run in this race. We will now try to find a group race for her and she will stay in training next season."

SULAMANI DOUBTS LINGER

Godolphin have yet to commit Sulamani (Ire) (Hernando {Fr}) to Sunday's G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at Longchamp, with Racing Manager Simon Crisford explaining that a decision will be made later in the week. Despite expectations that the G1 International S. hero would work Saturday, he was absent from the roster again, with Crisford explaining to the Racing Post, "We wanted to give him a few more days, then he will do a little piece of work and we will decide after that." While the operation have already committed G3 September S. winner Mamool (Ire) (In the Wings {GB}) to Sunday's feature, they have freed Kerrin McEvoy to continue his partnership with Saeed Manana's Warrsan (Ire) (Caerleon). Godolphin's second jockey was on board when the six-year-old took the G1 Grosser Preis von Baden last time Sept. 5.

Irish Division for Hamilton & Partners:

Charles Hamilton, managing director of Hamilton & Partners Ltd., announced yesterday the opening of an Irish subsidiary to the company. An independent insurance broker, Hamilton & Partners currently has offices in London, Cirencester and Newmarket and specializes in the insurance requirements of bloodstock owners. The new subsidiary, Hamilton Ireland, will be regulated by the Irish Financial Services Regulatory Authority and is located in Newbridge, Co. Kildare. John Anderson has been named Hamilton Ireland's managing director, while Paddy Jordan is the non-executive director. Cathy Grassick will be the insurance executive. "I am thrilled that we have been able to put together such a strong team and I hope that we can become a significant force in the Irish bloodstock insurance," Hamilton said. The new offices are located at 6 Edward Street in Newbridge.
