TATTERSALLS OCTOBER KICKS OFF TODAY

There was an air of cautious optimism in Newmarket yesterday as buyers inspected yearlings ahead of Part 1 of the Tattersalls October Sale, which begins this morning at 11:30 a.m. This year's new sale format includes lots that would have appeared in the now-defunct select Houghton

Yearling Sale and the larger, October Sale. The opening two sessions are comprised of select yearlings. Part 2 of the sale takes place next week from Monday through Saturday, with the format now similar to Keeneland September. Strong trade at Doncaster and Tattersalls (Ireland), lower-budget sales this autumn, was followed by a downturn at last week Goffs' select session, which stopped Tattersalls' Marketing Director Jimmy George from making any bold predictions. "After huge rises at our yearling sales in the last two years, we have a hard act to follow," said George. "No clear pattern has emerged from earlier yearling sales in Europe, but vendors have provided us with a superb catalogue to serve all levels of the market." Part 1 of the October Yearling Sale has 791 lots catalogued and runs from today through Friday, beginning at 11:30 a.m. each day. For the complete catalogue and current outs, visit www.tattersalls.com.

All Hands on Deck...

The sale will not lack of potential buyers. John Magnier and the Coolmore team were in evidence at Park Paddocks, as were representatives of Sheikh Mohammed and his brothers, as well as possible purchasers from Japan and Hong Kong. But London-based agent Charlie Gordon-Watson, leading buyer at the October Sale on nine occasions, feels that there are relatively few star animals for sale. "The overall standard is very good, but I haven't seen many horses that are going to go sky high--it's slightly lacking in terms of what I'd call top top quality. I don't know where they've all got to this year, although there's certainly more in the hands of private breeders." (cont. p2)

ABC BAGS BELMONT STAKES

The American Broadcasting Corporation will offer exclusive broadcast coverage of the Belmont S., beginning with the 2006 edition, under an agreement forged with the New York Racing Association. The contract will run only until 2007, the year NYRA's franchise with the state of New York to run Belmont Park, Saratoga and Aqueduct, expires. Also among the changes, ESPN has acquired the distribution rights for the race across numerous outlets, including ESPN International, ESPN.com, ESPN Deportes and ESPN Classic. The parties intend to explore opportunities involving emerging technologies such as video on demand, broadband, wireless applications and pay-per-view. With its withdrawal from Triple Crown Productions, also made up of Churchill Downs and Magna Entertainment Corp., NYRA will receive a 'fairer' share of the pie, according to NYRA Chairman Barry Schwartz. In the previous agreement outlined in the current Triple Crown Productions contract, which runs through 2005, Churchill Downs, received 50 percent of the television revenue, while Magna and NYRA each received 25 percent. ABC televised the Triple Crown from 1986 to 2000, but turned over the rights to NBC for the 2001 edition.

'CLIFF' DOING WELL AFTER SURGERY

Robert LaPenta's The Cliff's Edge (Gulch) is reportedly doing well following surgery Monday morning to repair a fracture sustained during the running of Saturday's GI Jockey Club Gold Cup, according to the Blood-Horse. During the surgery, which was performed by Dr. Patricia Hogan at the New Jersey Equine Clinic, three screws were inserted to repair a displaced condylar fracture of the right front ankle. "He has an excellent prognosis for breeding," Hogan told Blood-Horse. "He's very lucky he didn't do any more damage. [Trainer] Nick [Zito] asked me to keep him here for two weeks. I didn't need to medically, but he just wanted him to stay until the stitches come out. We have a farm here, so he'll stay with us, then ship to Vinery."

Non-stop action...

This autumn's European yearling sales calendar is more demanding than ever on buyers and sellers. Many trainers and agents have been working without a break since going straight from Doncaster in early September on to Keeneland, followed by Fairyhouse, Goffs and now a fortnight in Newmarket. Both Doncaster and Deauville stage yearling sales the following week. "I had one day at home after getting back from Goffs, then I've been here since the crack of dawn on Friday. I'd have had no chance if I'd gone to the Arc as well," added Gordon-Watson. "It's asking a lot of the people having to work it, you need a lot of time to look at horses and we're not really getting the time."

two-year-old campaign with a victory in the G1 National S., then kept his record unblemished when taking the G1 2000 Guineas under Moyglare Stud's banner. Sold to Godolphin, Refuse to Bend got off to a slow start at four, finishing eighth in his first two outings, but rebounded strongly to notch wins in the G1 Queen Anne S. and the G1 Eclipse S. "Refuse to Bend is a fantastically good-looking colt who showed he had the class and speed to win Group 1s at a mile or less at two, three and four," said Sam Bullard, head of nominations at Darley. "He was tough and adaptable and went on any ground. We hope he will prove an able replacement for In the Wings (GB) at Kildangan." A stud fee will be announced at a later date.

Content to settle off the pace early on, Agnes Wing began to soar when given his head by jockey Hideyuki Miyuki and surged past favored Ekolu Place in deep stretch. "He never shrank from the kick-back," said Miyuki. "I could control him smoothly, and I think he's one to look for in the future." The Sirius was Agnes Wing's third straight victory, following wins in a pair of minor stakes, the Aug. 15 Naeba Tokubetsu and Sept. 11 Shukugawa Tokubetsu.

PEDIGREE INSIGHTS

BY ANDREW CAULFIELD

THE LEGACY OF DANZIG

Danzig may no longer be available to breeders, but descendants of this truly exceptional stallion made their presence felt time after time during an action-packed few days last week.

Danzig, who hadn't had a Group 1 winner for more than three years, was back on top again when his unbeaten son Ad Valorem took the Middle Park S., a day after another of Danzig's juvenile sons, Crimson Sun, narrowly failed to win the G3 Somerville Tattersall S. This two-year-old crop--conceived when Danzig was 24--also produced two potentially smart maiden winners in the Phipps-bred Defer at Belmont and Godolphin's Loyal Love at Newmarket (where the runner-up, Discuss, was another very promising daughter of Danzig).

Zieten, Danzig's first winner of the Middle Park S, was responsible for Flip Flop, one of the stakes winners on the opening day of the Arc weekend. We also saw two of Danzig's freshman sires enjoy stakes success. Up Like Thunder became the second stakes winner for the up-and-coming War Chant, who completed a double on the main track at Belmont. Additionally, Monashee Mountain, who started his career at only Ir4,500gns, hit the stakes target with Kay Two in Ireland and Le Giare in Italy.

One of Danzig's established sons, Green Desert, went close to supplying the winner of the G1 Cheveley Park S., when Suez led nearly all the way. Green Desert's son Cape Cross was also in fine form, with his sons Mac Love and Nights Cross completing a stakes double on the last day of September. Then Cape Cross' outstanding daughter Ouija Board finished an excellent third to Bago in the Arc.

But, as so often happens, it was the Danehill clan which made the greatest contribution to the Danzig line's purple patch. Although there was the odd disappointment, such as North Light's fifth in the Arc and Grey Lilas' second in the Prix de l'Opera, these were more than compensated for by several victories.

Cacique's Group 2 success in the Prix Daniel Wildenstein possibly earned a trip to Lone Star Park for this brother to Dansili, Banks Hill and Intercontinental. The same possibility applies to Light Jig, who could hardly have been more impressive as she sprinted away with the GI Yellow Ribbon S.

The next day saw Danehill add two more Group 1 victories to his long list, with these winners underlining his versatility. The five-year-old Westerner repeated his 2003 success in the Prix du Cadran over 2 1/2 miles, while the two-year-old Oratorio got up close home to snatch the G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere (Grand Criterium) from Early March, a very talented colt from the promising first crop by Dansili.

Dansili wasn't the only stallion son of Danehill vying for top prizes. Desert King, Danewin and Redoute's Choice were all represented by Group 1 winners in Australia three days ago, and Desert King sired G2 German St Leger winner, the Czech-trained Darsalam.

All in all, this represents an exceptional few days for an exceptional sire line: one whose importance, I feel, is sometimes underestimated in the U.S.A. Perhaps War Chant, a graded winner on dirt and turf, could change that. Perhaps Kentucky could make good use of a high-class son of Danehill. After all, Light Jig is just the latest in a lengthy line of graded winners by Danehill in the U.S.A., following such as Landseer, Banks Hill, Dress To Thrill, Danish, Chiming, Intercontinental, Spring Star, Desert Lady and Simple Exchange.

☆ NEWS CONT. ☆

FAR EAST LIKELY FOR VAR Trainer Clive Brittain looks set to send Sunday's impressive G1 Prix de l'Abbaye de Longchamp winner Var (Forest Wildcat) to Hong Kong to contest the G1 Sprint at Sha Tin Dec. 12. Following the five-year-old's half-length defeat of The Tatling (Ire) in the five-furlong contest, the Newmarket conditioner said yesterday that "it seems the obvious thing to go to Hong Kong." Adding that he had yet to speak to owner Mohammed Rashid, he described the "very fast five furlongs" of the Hong Kong Sprint as "the best option." He also revealed that Saeed Manana's Warrsan (Ire) (Caerleon), who disappointed when only ninth in Sunday's G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, was "pretty certain" to contest either the G1 Japan Cup at Tokyo Nov. 28 or G1 Hong Kong Vase at Sha Tin Dec. 12. "He got bobbed back and didn't have a race because he never got in the race," he said.

(Andrew Caulfield cont.)

Mention of Landseer reminds me that no one could begrudge the Magnier-Tabor partnership their Group 1 success with Oratorio. This partnership had campaigned Danehill's very fast son Mozart, who died during his first season at Coolmore, and Landseer, the French 2000 Guineas and Keeneland Turf Mile winner, who was fatally injured in the 2002 Breeders' Cup Mile.

Oratorio was bred by the partnership of Orpendale and the Nagles' Barronstown Stud. Barronstown signed the ticket at Goffs when Oratorio's dam, the Vaguely Noble mare Mahrah, was culled from the Shadwell broodmare band at the age of 12 in 1999. The mare's price, equivalent to around 85,000gns, appeared very reasonable, especially as she came from the female line responsible for such as Alydar, Our Mims and Codex.

Although she had only two winners among her six foals of racing age, Mahrah had already produced a good-class winner to a son of Danzig. This was the Green Desert colt Fahim, who lowered the track record for a mile and a quarter in winning the Fort McHenry H. and was second in the GI Sword Dancer H. over a mile and a half. Mowaadah, her last foal for Shadwell, was also to become a stakes winner.

David Nagle of Barronstown was no doubt aware that Vaguely Noble mares had an eye-catching record with Danehill. One had produced Danefair, an unbeaten Group 3 winner over a mile and a half in France, while another had produced the top Australian filly Danarani. Another Vaguely Noble mare ranked as the second dam of Danehill's Group 1 winner Kissing Cousin. Green Desert's matings with Vaguely Noble mares had also produced another Group 1 winner, in the 1998 Haydock Sprint Cup winner Tamarisk, so this added up to a very productive partnership.

Thanks to Oratorio, Danehill's total of stakes winners out of daughters of the brilliant 1968 Arc winner has now risen to seven. The colt has yet to tackle more than seven furlongs, but he is sure to stay further.

Mahrah, who stayed at least a mile and an eighth, is a half sister to Andros Bay, an Alleged colt who won the G2 Blandford S. over a mile and a half. Their dam, the Alydar mare Montage (inbred 4x4 to Real Delight) was a daughter of the high-class racemare Katonka, which made her a half sister to those accomplished turf performers Give Me Strength and Talakeno. The latter, a graded winner at up to 1 5/8 miles, was by Vaguely Noble, so was a three-parts brother to Oratorio's dam. Vaguely Noble also sired the very successful miler Eminency from Katonka's dam Minnetonka.

This is also the family of Stinger, a champion juvenile filly in Japan. Oratorio still has work to do if he is to become the champion two-year-old of his generation, but he is just the type to continue improving. It could be worth remembering that the last Danehill colt to land the Grand Criterium for trainer Aidan O'Brien was Rock of Gibraltar, who went on to establish a sequence of seven consecutive Group 1 victories.

FASLIYEV COLT TOPS GOLD COAST SALE

A two-year-old son of Group 1 winner Fasliyev attracted a sale-record bid of A$300,000 during yesterday's Magic Millions Gold Coast Horses in Training Sale on the Gold Coast, Queensland. The bay, out of Ghizhou (NZ) (Sir Tristram {Ire}), attracted attention during Sunday's breeze-ups when he worked 200 meters in :10.88. The colt was purchased by Proinn Constructions Pty Ltd. The A$300,000 bid marked the second time during yesterday's sale that the sale's record price was broken. Earlier in the day, a two-year-old by U.S. Horse of the Year Favorite Trick smashed the previous record of A$160,000 when he sold for A$220,000. The South African-based World Wide Bloodstock purchased the colt out of Cotton Bay (NZ) (Zabaleta). Magic Millions sold 155 horses yesterday for a sale's record aggregate of A$4,744,000 and an average of A$30,606. "We had a good selection of buyers on the Gold Coast today," said Magic Millions managing director David Chester. "But no doubt the international strength was the highlight. All parts of the market today seemed pretty strong. The top end was especially strong with our international clients looking for youngsters to fit their orders."
