PADUA'S PRIDE

He started out a $47,000 yearling, blossomed into a $450,000 two-year-old and has now become the pride of Padua Stables. Undefeated Proud Accolade (Yes It's True), a son of Padua's millionaire sprinter, joined the leaders of this year's juvenile division with a half-length triumph over previously unbeaten Afleet Alex (Northern Afleet) in the GI Champagne S. at Belmont Park yesterday afternoon. colt's first try beyond 6 1/2 furlongs, but trainer Todd Pletcher was confident before the race. "Based on the way he ran the first two times, and the way he trained up to this, I was fairly optimistic about the distance," Pletcher said, adding, "Assuming all goes well, we'll go to the Breeders' Cup." Champagne cont. p2

SOLID AS A ROCK

Consolidator (Storm Cat) didn't handle the slop and a rough start in the Aug. 21 GI Hopeful S. at Saratoga, finishing fourth, but enjoyed smooth sailing to take the GI Lane's End Breeders' Futurity at Keeneland yesterday. With the victory, the chestnut became the first Storm Cat colt to win an American Grade I race since High Yield captured the GI Blue Grass S. in 2000. He'll get the chance to make it two victories at the highest level in the Oct. 30 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile at Lone Star Park. "He'll fit down there real well," trainer D. Wayne Lukas said. Lane's End Breeders' Futurity cont. p2

WHO WANTS TO BE A MILLIONAIRE?

Somnus (GB) (Pivotal {GB}), who provided jockey Gary Stevens with his only French Group 1 success in the G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest at Deauville Aug. 8, got the job done with Michael Kinane in the saddle yesterday. Sent off the 13-5 favorite in the G1 Prix de la Foret at Longchamp, the four-year-old gelding denied the resurgent Denebola (Storm Cat) to win by three quarters of a length and, in doing so, broke through the €1-million earnings barrier. Trainer Tim Easterby said, "I couldn't be at Deauville, but I'm thrilled to be here today." Prix de la Foret cont. p4

SHALL WE DANCE?

Bumped onto her right lead by a tiring Sis City (Slew City Slew) as they raced down the stretch, Balletto (UAE) (Timber Country) found another gear in the final sixteenth and drove through on the rail to win the GI Frizette S. at Belmont Park yesterday afternoon. Was it enough to earn her a ticket to the Breeders' Cup? "We have no definite plans at the moment," trainer Tom Albertrani said. Frizette S. cont. p3

Earning Accolades at the Spa...

Proud Accolade cruised to a 7 1/2-length score in his July 31 debut at Saratoga, earning a 94 Beyer, but Todd Pletcher resisted the urge to send the colt into stakes company off the effort. Instead, the Padua runner was sent off the 3-20 chalk in an allowance test at the Spa Sept. 1 and picked up another easy victory.

The top of the stretch

Stepping right up to the Grade I ranks for his third start, the Florida-bred was sent off the second choice in the Champagne. He rated in fourth under jockey John Velazquez down the backstretch, eased closer on the final bend and drove to the front at midstretch. Proud Accolade opened daylight in the final furlong, but had to dig down in the waning yards to hold off 6-5 Afleet Alex. "It worked out beautifully," said Velazquez, picking up his fourth win of the day. "He let me do whatever I wanted with him out there. He was stretching out, and I didn't want to move too soon and get him tired. He did well." Beaten But Unbowed...

GII Sanford S. winner Afleet Alex ran his record to a perfect four-for-four with a neck decision in the Aug. 21 GI Hopeful S. and was the crowd's choice to run his winning streak to five in the Champagne. But the bay was caught behind horses at the head of the stretch and had to angle outside for the final drive. He finished well, but ran out of real estate. "I think he wins if he gets a clean trip," trainer Tim Ritchey said. "But that's what happens in racing. He ran his race. He was catching that horse at the end, so distance wasn't a problem. We found that out for absolute certainty and we'll go forward from here." Ritchey added, "As for the Breeders' Cup, we'll see how he comes out of the race. It just depends on that."

A seven-figure KEESEP yearling, Consolidator was fifth after getting bumped around at the break in his career opener at Churchill Downs Apr. 29, but followed that performance with a bang-up second in the June 5 GIII Kentucky Breeders' Cup S. The stout red colt came back to break his maiden under the Twin Spires July 3 and was a solid third in the GII Sanford S. at Saratoga 26 days later, but failed to fire with blinkers added in the Hopeful and crossed the line 13 lengths behind winner Afleet Alex. Shedding the hood this time, he was in perfect position at the flank of Bellamy Road (Concerto) through moderate splits, strode to the front on the far turn and powered home an impressive winner. Rising star rider Rafael Bejarano, who last partnered the winner in the Kentucky BC, said, "What a difference from the last time I rode him--he's much stronger. I asked him to run and he took off."

Sightseek added her name to a list that includes such greats as Gamely, Desert Vixen, Lady's Secret and Personal Ensign by winning the Beldame for the second straight year. The chestnut powerhouse demonstrated her distaste for the Santa Anita surface in her next two starts, finishing fourth in the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff and the GI Santa Monica H., and didn't look comfortable over the sloppy Churchill strip when fourth in the Apr. 30 GII Louisville Breeders' Cup H. She regained her form to win the June 19 GI Ogden Phipps H., then finished second while giving two pounds to winner Azeri in the Aug. 1 GI Go for Wand H. at Saratoga. But the Juddmonte juggernaut rolled over her foes in the Sept. 19 GI Ruffian H. and was much the best again yesterday. Allowed to loaf along on the front end through easy fractions, she was finally given her head in the stretch and easily opened up on the field for another facile score. Because trainer Bobby Frankel believes she will not handle the Lone Star surface, she will now be retired. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Balletto opened her career with a maiden win at Belmont Park July 18 and came back to make it two-for-two in a Saratoga allowance test Aug. 2. Let go at 7-1 in the Sept. 19 GI Matron S., the chestnut filly finished well to be second behind Sense of Style. That effort earned her the role of favorite in the Frizette, and she did not let her backers down. The Darley color-bearer was tucked in at the rail as former claimer Sis City cut out the fractions. Balletto closed ground from the rail as they came around the far turn, but continued to race on her left lead and was gaining only minimal ground from the inside. Sis City had started to drift out, then overcorrected under a right-handed whip and veered toward the crowd's choice, who finally switched to her outside lead, finding a little more in the final yards to drive to victory over fellow closer Ready's Gal. "[Sis City] ran a little bit green ahead of me," jockey Corey Nakatani said. "I had to shift her to the inside and keep her busy...but it showed me she is really gutsy." Appreciating every drop of rain that fell on the lush Bois de Boulogne track, Somnus renewed his love affair with the assembled Gallic horde to record a third victory at the highest level. "He really loves this ground, it makes a lot of difference to him," said Tim Easterby. Somnus recorded his first Group 1 win when lowering the colors of Oasis Dream (GB) in last term's Haydock Sprint Cup and doubled that tally in the Maurice de Gheest, then just missed when attempting to retain his Haydock title Sept. 4. Making his first start since, the winner was reserved off the pace in rear as Mick Kinane employed confident waiting tactics behind the blistering downhill fractions set by Monsieur Bond (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) and Charming Groom (Fr) (Kaldoun {Fr}). Closing on the wide outside soon after straightening for home, Somnus accelerated to the front inside the eighth peg and ran on strongly late to hold off Denebola's game effort with a bit to spare. "There's nothing left for him now, so I guess that's it for this year," Easterby said. "We'll bring him back next season with a similar program over six and seven furlongs." Ken and Sarah Ramsey, the owners of Kitten's Joy and Roses In May, are likely to be represented in the GI Breeders' Cup Mile after an outstanding performance by Nothing To Lose here. Switched to the barn of Bobby Frankel this year, the bay was a good second to Sweet Return (GB) (Elmaamul) in the Jan. 19 GII San Marcos H. in his first start off an 11-month layoff, but was a disappointing sixth in the GII Mervin Muniz Memorial H. Mar. 21. Freshened off that effort, he returned to be second to Silver Tree in a Belmont optional claimer June 16 before finishing an excellent third in the GI United Nations H. July 3. Silver Tree handed him a neck defeat in the GII Bernard Baruch H. at Saratoga July 30, but he turned the tables on that foe in their latest meeting, taking the GII Fourstardave H. by a half length Aug. 28. Let go at generous odds of 9-2 yesterday, Nothing To Lose coasted along at the back of the pack early. Given his cue turning for home, he swooped to the lead in upper stretch and was going away late. "It was a great trip," said jockey Robby Albarado. "Mr. Ramsey said to trust his turn of foot and I did." Mr O'Brien posted wins in the Henry Clark S. and the GI Dixie H. in May before firing late to finish third next time out in the 10-panel GI Manhattan H. June 5. He was second, beaten only a half length, in the GI United Nations H. at Monmouth July 3, but the gelding threw in a pair of out-of-money finishes in his two latest. A flat sixth in the GI Arlington Million Aug. 14, Mr O'Brien didn't handle a surface switch when fifth in the off-the-turf John D. Schapiro Memorial Breeders' Cup H. Sept. 18. But, back on the grass yesterday, the chestnut settled in fourth through sensible opening fractions, moved to within a head of the lead with a furlong left to run and forged to the front in the drive to the wire to score comfortably over late-running Millennium Dragon. "Now that he has learned to relax and kick at the end, he can run any distance from a mile to two miles," said winning trainer Robin Graham. She added that the five-year-old is not eligible to the Breeders' Cup and is an unlikely supplement. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Musical Chimes gave her male rivals weight and a beating in the GI Oak Tree Breeders' Cup Mile. The winner of the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches at three, the dark bay had taken on colts earlier this season, finishing second in an allowance test in her return off the seven-month layoff May 30 and seventh in the GI Charles Whittingham H. June 12. She followed that start with a victory in the July 24 GI John C. Mabee H. at Del Mar, then took a break after running a close-up fourth in the Aug. 14 GI Beverly D. S. at Arlington. The third choice after the two-month freshening, she saved ground off a moderate pace, switched to the outside for the stretch drive and was game as they come from between horses, battling her way to victory in a tight three-way photo. "What I'm most impressed with is that, I think it was anybody's race from a sixteenth of a mile out, and I was on the horse who stuck her neck out," jockey Kent Desormeaux said. homebred for Mr. & Mrs. Stuart Subotnick, the dark bay won the GII Red Smith H. and the GII W.L. McKnight H. at the tail end of 2003, then missed by just a head to Hard Buck (Brz) in the GI Gulfstream Park Breeders' Cup H. Feb. 22. Given some time off following that effort, the gelding returned to be sixth in defense of his GI United Nations H. title at Monmouth July 3. He weakened late, but still managed a third-place finish after setting the pace in the GI Sword Dancer Invitational H. at Saratoga Aug. 14 and was most recently seventh in the GI Man o' War S. over the Belmont turf Sept. 11. Returning to the main track for the first time since finishing second in the off-the-turf Oceanport H. in June of 2003, Balto Star was content to rate off the early pace of Unforgettable Max (Northern Afleet), engaged that rival on the far turn, edged away in upper stretch and held off a determined late run from favored Dynever for the victory. Now it's on to Lone Star, though trainer Todd Pletcher has a decision to make. "We might cross-enter in both the Classic and the Turf and take a look," he stated, but added, "The last time we went dirt to turf, he won the U.N. We think he'll like the turf course at Lone Star, so that will be our first choice, but we'll play it by ear." Dynever, who prepped for the 2003 Classic with a runner-up finish in the Meadowlands Cup and went on to be third in the $4-million event, is Lone Star bound "as long as he comes out of this race in good shape," his trainer Christophe Clement said. Ipi Tombe: A Modern Classic

Chapter 3 Ipi Conquers the World

After her tour de force in South Africa resulted in a championship, Ipi went to Dubai over the winter to rest up from her 3-year-old season and to prepare for her US campaign. She started three times in Dubai and won each race easily.

She smashed a field of males as the highweight in the Listed Stakes Al Fahidi Fort, setting a new course record (watch the video). She shattered the stakes record in the 1 1/8 mile G3 Jebel Hatta in 1:48.62, again as the highweight in a field of males (video).

Ipi Tombe stole the show on Dubai World Cup day 2003. As the only filly in the Dubai Duty Free, she won in a blistering time of 1:47.61, a new track record, her second in Dubai (video). She would be named Dubai's Horse of the Year.

Shipped to America, she won the GIII Locust Grove H. at Churchill as the highweight under a hand ride (video).

Mustanfar, who began the year with an allowance victory on the Gulfstream main track Jan. 24, tried the turf for the first time in the Feb. 21 GIII Palm Beach S., but could mount only a mild rally and finished sixth, three lengths behind Kitten's Joy. Second in the GIII Tampa Bay Derby and fourth in the GI Blue Grass S., the Shadwell homebred returned to the grass after running third in a Belmont allowance test in May. He raced evenly to be fourth in the June 27 Mac Diarmida S., then missed by a nose when stretched to 10 furlongs for the July 18 GIII Lexington S., but got the win on the DQ of Icy Atlantic. The chestnut was second again in the Aug. 9 GII National Museum of Racing Hall of Fame H. and in the Sept. 6 GIII Saranac H., but broke his bridesmaid streak in his first start against older horses. Allowed to settle off the pace, he picked it up as favored Denon (Pleasant Colony) snuck through to take over at the eighth pole, sprinted past the leaders in deep stretch and galloped away to an easy win. Jockey Jose Santos said, "The farther he goes, the better he does, and he showed it today." MGISW Denon, making his first start since an 11th-place effort in the Dec. 14 G1 Hong Kong Cup, faded to be fifth. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the video race replay.

Winner of the GIII Hawthorne Derby at three, Scooter Roach won just one of 10 outings as a four-year-old in 2003. This year, he had defeated Illinois-breds in the Milwaukee Avenue H. Apr. 10 on the Hawthorne main track, and was claimed out of a second-place finish over the Arlington lawn June 3. After finishing unplaced in the Cardinal H. on the turf June 26, the bay made his next four starts on the dirt at Arlington, running second in optional claimers July 29 and Aug. 21, and third most recently in a Sept. 10 optional claimer. Scooter Roach, dismissed at long odds in his return to the Hawthorne grass course, enjoyed a ground-saving trip under birthday boy Jesse Campbell. Angled out for the drive, he reeled in pacesetting Gin and Sin for his second career graded stakes victory. "He doesn't do anything special, he's just your blue collar horse," said Campbell. "He's always there to pick up the pieces. This horse is funny, the harder he's in, the tougher he runs." Click for the brisnet.com chart.

OVERBROOK SPINSTER S.-GI, $500,000, 3yo/up, fm,
1 1/8m

PP	HORSE	SIRE	TRAINER	ODDS
1	Azeri	Jade Hunter	Lukas	3-5
2	One for Rose	Tejano Run	Attard	8-1
3	Tamweel	Gulch	Catalano	8-1
4	Angela's Love	Not for Love	Romans	15-1
5	Mayo on the Side	French Deputy	Nafzger	12-1
6	La Reason	Labeeb (GB)	Vance	15-1
7	House of Fortune	Free House	McAnally	7-2

It has certainly been an up-and-down season for Azeri, who began 2004 by recording a third straight success in the GI Apple Blossom H., then embarked on a three-race skid that had many questioning the logic of keeping her in training. But, just as the naysayers were ready to put the final nails in the coffin, the chestnut recorded a resounding 1 3/4-length victory over Sightseek in the GI Go For Wand H. at Saratoga, and she lost little when going down to a 1 1/4-length defeat at the hands of Storm Flag Flying in the GI Personal Ensign H. Aug. 27. "[Owner Michael Paulson] should be saluted, not criticized, for keeping such a big draw like her around for another year," trainer D. Wayne Lukas told Daily Racing Form.

Trainer Ron McAnally, a four-time winner of the Spinster, saddles sophomore filly House of Fortune this afternoon. The attractive dark bay was a disappointing eighth in the GI Kentucky Oaks Apr. 30, but came back to wire the field in the GII Hollywood Breeders' Cup Oaks by three lengths June 12. The daughter of the late Free House acquitted herself well in her first try against older, finishing second in the GII Clement L. Hirsch H. at Del Mar Aug. 8, and stands the best chance of scoring the upset.

7	Pt's Grey Eagle	Pleasant Tap	C Dollase
8	Hombre Rapido	Falstaff	Sadler

Third to Pico Central (Brz) in the GII San Carlos H. in March, Pohave bounced back to win the GIII Los Angeles Times H. by one length May 8. After rounding out the trifecta behind Speightstown in the GII True North Breeders' Cup H. June 5, the six-year-old bested Rojo Toro by three-parts of a length in the GI Triple Bend Breeders' Cup H. July 3, and comes into this off a runner-up effort to Kela in the GII Pat O'Brien Breeders' Cup H. at Del Mar July 25. Bluesthstandard, second in last year's GI Breeders' Cup Sprint, was a disappointing third as the odds-on favorite in the GII Potrero Grande Breeders' Cup Mar. 28 before getting a breather. The Georgia-bred gelding returned to action with a solid runner-up finish to G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen upsetter Our New Recruit in the Sept. 6 Pirate's Bounty H. at Del Mar. He could get another crack at the Breeders' Cup if he performs well today. "If he runs a really good race and proves he should go to the Big Show, we'll go," trainer Ted West said.

PREMIO VITTORIO DI CAPUA-G1, €330,000, 3yo/up, 1mT

7	6	Ryono	Mountain Cat	Lautner	125
8	2	Scabiun (Ire)	Dolphin Street (Fr)	A & G Botti	125

Le Vie Dei Colori (GB), previously trained by Robert Brogi, ended a 15-year drought of domestic success when landing this contest 12 months ago, but only local hopefuls Marbye and Scabiun offer resistance to the five-strong international challenge this time. Marbye, fourth in this event last year, can be considered the main threat. She merits the utmost respect for her career-best win, over Majestic Desert, in the G1 Prix d'Astarte at Deauville Aug. 1. That effort complemented her win in the G2 Premio Emilio Turati over course and distance June 2, and she sets the standard. Scabiun may well be out of his depth, but earned his place in the line-up off a cozy victory in the Listed Premio del Piazzale over track and trip Sept. 19. Hurricane Alan, who has posted fine performances in defeat this campaign, may have found an opportunity to win his first Group 1 and is a must for the shortlist. The hero of the G2 Sandown Mile Apr. 24, he followed with a fine third to Norse Dancer (Ire) in the G3 Sovereign S. at Salisbury Aug. 12 and chased home Chic (GB) and Nayyir (GB) in the G2 Celebration Mile at Goodwood Aug. 28 before finishing runner-up to Cacique (Ire) in the G2 Prix Daniel Wildenstein at Longchamp last Saturday. Majestic Desert is another who continues to earn laurels without gaining ultimate glory. She came back from her defeat in the G1 Prix d'Astarte to finish fourth in the G1 Prix Jacques le Marois back at Deauville Aug. 15 and occupied the same berth behind Attraction (GB) in a hot renewal of the Oct. 2 G1 Sun Chariot S. at Newmarket.

8	Alchemist	A.P. Indy	McGaughey III	12-1
9	Dimitrova	Swain (Ire)	Drysdale	9-2

The winner of the May 1 Hollywood Wildcat Breeders' Cup S. at her Calder base, Stay Forever successfully ventured beyond the confines of the Sunshine State to take the GIII Mint Julep H. over the Churchill Downs turf course May 29. Let go at odds of 8-1 for the GII New York H. July 5, the Florida-bred mare turned in an excellent runner-up finish to the soft-turf loving Wonder Again, but is making her first start since. Bedanken, winner of this track's GIII Valley View S. in October 2002, rounded into one of the top turf distaffers on the Midwest circuit this summer, winning the July 5 Possibly Perfect S. at Arlington before tacking on a 3/4-length victory in the GIII Modesty H. July 24, with Shaconage in third. The gray endured a troubled trip in the Aug. 14 GI Beverly D. S. in Chicago, but finished well to be fifth, just 1 1/2 lengths behind Crimson Palace (SAf). Trainer Donnie K. Von Hemel seeks his second consecutive win in this event, having saddled Bien Nicole to victory in 2003. The lone Grade I winner in the field, Dimitrova ships in from California off a fourth-place effort to Star Over the Bay in the 11-furlong GII Del Mar H. Aug. 29.

5	Forty Moves	Gold Fever	Hennig	12-1
6	Molto Vita	Carson City	Stewart	8-1
7	Lady Tak	Mutakddim	Asmussen	7-5

Off the board in just two of her 19 career starts, Ebony Breeze was third to Lady Tak in the May 22 Winning Colors H. at Churchill Downs, but atoned for that loss with a one-length score in the June 26 My Juliet S. at Philly Park. Caught in the final jump of the GII Honorable Miss H. at Saratoga Aug. 6, the Kinsman homebred proved far too tough for five other foes in the GIII Endine S. Sept. 11 at Delaware Park, winning by a widening three-length margin. Lady Tak followed her Winning Colors effort with a third-place finish in the GII Princess Rooney H. at Calder July 10, but eclipsed the million-dollar mark in career earnings in her latest, outlasting My Trusty Cat to win Saratoga's GI Ballerina H. by a head Aug. 29.

5	5	Sant Jordi (GB)	Cape Cross (Ire)	Meehan

All carry 126 pounds.

Indesatchel's achievements have been somewhat overshadowed by the exploits of stablemate Damson (Ire) this term, but he may have the ideal opening to grab his share of the limelight in this select renewal. He is sure to provide the benchmark if repeating the level of performance when third to subsequent G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere winner Oratorio (Ire) in the G3 Anglesey S. at this track July 18 and when runner-up last time to subsequent G1 Middle Park S. hero Ad Valorem in the Listed Blenheim S. Sept. 19. The relatively unexposed Merger is a once-raced winner of a one-mile maiden at Thurles Sept. 30 and should not be taken lightly. He created a favorable impression when lengthening to an impressive five-length score and is the chosen representative of the powerful Dermot Weld yard.

EU YEARLINGS DOWN 15 PERCENT TO DATE

Evidently, the first three days of Tattersalls October Part 1 lulled us all into a false sense of security that the figures weren't going to look too bad when compared to those at this juncture in the 2003 European sales season. No sooner had we thought it, and said it, than the market collapsed. The first three days showed a very respectable 76 percent reported as sold, with 79 percent reported sold on Thursday, Day 3; on Friday, Day 4, only 63 percent were reported sold. Assuming, as we (and sales company officials, too, I believe) did, that Thursday and Friday were roughly equal, a 38 percent drop in average from Thursday (79,419gns) to Friday (49,426gns) definitely didn't fit the scenario we'd predicted.

It is obvious that the market suffered a big drop in money and buyers Friday, but before we speculate what that means for next week's six-day, 1,302-strong Tattersalls' October Part 2 sale, let's try and establish exactly what did happen Friday, and what we think this now means in comparison to last year. First, we need to consider the sale's actual format this year, with 'Days 1-2' and a 'Days 3-4' resembling Keeneland Books 1 and 2 at the September Sale. In other words, the top yearlings (corresponding to September Book 1) sold the first two days; and the next best group (corresponding to September Book 2) the next two days. But within each grouping, consignors evidently had some room to move around--if they had three slots Thursday and three slots Friday, then consignors would have input into which of their yearlings sold which day. Sales company officials had informally estimated averages of 70,000gns and 60,000gns, respectively, for Thursday and Friday.

In fact, Thursday's average was 10,000gns higher than that informal projection, and Friday's was 10,000gns lower. Part of what appeared to have been a collapse could in fact have simply been consignors, collectively, 'packing' Thursday at the expense of Friday.

In any case, it's an interesting coincidence that only the first three of October's Part 1 and Part 2 combined 10 selling days ended up with prices the level of the first two days of last year's October Part 1 (78,100gns) and above, and that Goffs' itself catalogued the Orby part of the former Orby sale as 1 1/2 of their five selling days. I suspect that the 30 percent 'better yearlings' concept might be something we come back to when next week is done and in the history books.

If you add in Goffs' Autumn yearling sale last year to their 2003 Orby and Challenge figures, the number of yearlings offered in 2004 was similar to last year: at all three sales combined last year, 925 yearlings were offered and 831 reported as sold for a total (converted from Euros at the rate of 1 guinea = €1.575, or £1 = €1.50) of 24,793,800gns and an average of 29,836gns.

The corresponding gross this year was down 17 percent, the average was down 14 percent. Comparing Tattersalls' four-day October Book 1 this year with Houghton plus the first two days of October Book 1 last year (see below), the gross is down 11 percent, the average 15 percent.

Week 1, Goffs--average down 14 percent. Week 2, Tattersalls--average down 15 percent. A pattern is emerging. Last year, the 789 yearlings to sell in October Part 1 (after the first two days) and October Part 2, combined, averaged 21,522gns. If this week's average is also down 15 percent, October Part 2 will average around 18,300gns.

If that proves to be the case, then the three-week orgy of Irish, then British yearlings will end up with almost exactly the same number of yearlings sold as last year's 2,115, and we can now project the final figures will show about a 13-percent decline from last year, with total sales of about 88,129,800gns (down from 101,182,300gns last year), and an average of 41,610gns (down from a combined and converted average of 47,840gns last year).

Thanks to Tattersalls' Jason Singh for helping me work up and analyze these figures--though he is more optimistic about October Part 2 than I am.

These are pretty sobering figures, not least if you are going to be setting stud fees for next year, or thinking about paying them. Here's another set of sobering statistics: of the 512 yearlings sold last week in October Part 1, I reckon over 100 of them were bought by Maktoums and associates.

You can also pick up a copy of the TDN today at the OBS Fall Mixed & Tattersalls October Sales.

John Ferguson, Shadwell and Darley signed for 67, and between Charlie, Anthony Stroud and anybody else who might have been buying for them, I'd say they'll have comfortably broken the 100-yearling mark. That's one of every five sold. Add in Demi's 24, and the game's two biggest operations bought over 25 percent of the yearlings sold last week, and spent over 40 percent of the money. Take the Maktoums out of the equation, and the value of horses in Europe would drop 40 percent overnight.

Perhaps just as ominously, 23 of the 24 bought by Demi O'Byrne were by Coolmore stallions, and 17 of the 31 bought by John Ferguson were by Darley/Maktoum stallions--though they did also buy 10 by Coolmore sires.

There is a lot of thrashing about and hand-wringing going on, and there's sure to be a lot more by the end of next week because, after all, prices aren't going to go up from here on in, are they? The target, I would say, would be to equal last year's gross for the last 789 sold, right at 17-million guineas. In market theory, the solutions are very simple:

- Breed fewer horses, period
- Stop overbreeding bad mares to potentially good stallions just because you can get to them cheaply
- Find out what the business has to do to turn all these new-money sellers into new-money buyers
- Otherwise expand the number of buyers--but how?

Since the first two options are only going to happen when people start losing enough money to discourage them from being horse breeders, we have to try and solve the third and, certainly, the fourth. There are two principal potential motivations for people owning racehorses: fun and glory (that's one), or money. Long-term, the industry must address these issues anyway and, by doing so, the motivations to buy yearlings could be restored, and expanded. But it's a big job, and the industry as a whole, nationally or internationally, is not really addressing the problem. It's thus being left to private (or unilateral, as the French proposals I mentioned the other day) initiatives, which are fine if they work, but have thus far been fairly limited in scope, compared to potential industry-sponsored strategies and programs.

6th-KEE, $52,000, Alw, NW2L, 3yo/up, f/m, 7f, 1:23 2/5, ft.

MYFAVORITEPASSION (f, 3, Wekiva Springs--Myfavorite Charity {MSP, $124,067}, by Great Above) broke her maiden for a $50,000 tag at Churchill Downs in June, then moved into allowance company and picked up checks in three starts at Ellis Park. The grey filly tried her luck at Turfway Park last time out, but stumbled at the start and finished fourth in that Sept. 18 test. Ignored at 29-1 in her Keeneland debut, the homebred dueled 7-10 Private Opinion (Deputy Minister) from the start and prevailed in a hard-fought finish to take it by a head. The winner is a 1/2 to Myfavorite Place (Runaway Groom), SW-PR, $252,157; Starlet In Motion (Fappiano's Star), SW-PR, $280,132; and My Favorite Dream (Runaway Groom), MSW-PR, $119,627. Lifetime Record: 9-2-3-1, $66,842. O/B-James E English (KY). T-Vickie L Foley.

9th-KEE, $52,000, Alw, NW2L, 2yo, f, 6f, 1:10 1/5, ft. BURNISH (f, 2, Menifee--Burnished Bright {MSW & GSP, $160,743}, by Well Decorated) finished a solid second at 25-1 in her debut at the Spa Aug. 9 and duly graduated as the favorite next out Sept. 5. Sent postward as the 7-5 chalk here, the bay took up a stalking position in behind the leaders, then swung out four wide to make her bid. The half to Bright Launch (Relaunch), GSW, $129,262; and Bright Valour (Wild Again), MGSW, $408,133, outfinished Aspen Tree (Holy Bull) for a half-length tally. Lifetime Record: 3-2-1-0, $68,522.

1st-KEE, $50,000, Msw, 3yo/up, 6f, 1:09 4/5, ft. CHINA GOLD (c, 3, Charismatic--Paved in Gold {GSW, $237,798}, by Carson City), a $225,000 KEEJUL yearling, made three starts at Gulfstream this past winter, capped by a runner-up finish to Wild Wadi Feb. 21, but was sidelined thereafter. He returned to run fifth as the favorite Sept. 26 at Turfway, and was the 8-5 choice once again in this spot. After breaking from the rail, the chestnut kept tabs on the pacesetters, moved five wide into the stretch and went on to win by three lengths. Lifetime Record: 6-1-1-0, $39,075. O-Buckram Oak Farm. B-Brian Scott Dance (KY). T-Carl A Nafzger.

4th-KEE, $50,000, Msw, 2yo, 1 1/16m, 1:46, ft. REAL DANDY (c, 2, Yankee Victor--Berga, by Jade Hunter) had filled the runner-up spot in each of his last three starts--all going a mile at Arlington--most recently when missing by 2 1/2 lengths Sept. 8. Trying two turns this time, the $75,000 KEESEP yearling went postward as the 7-2 second choice. The bay broke alertly to dispute the lead, but found himself swamped with challengers at the top of the stretch. The half to Premeditation (Afternoon Deelites), MSW & MGSP, $317,999, switched gears impressively and pulled away to defeat even-money Chekhov (Pulpit) by 4 1/2 lengths, becoming the eighth winner for his freshman sire (by Saint Ballado). Lifetime Record: 5-1-3-0, $50,140.

HECKLE (c, 3, Hennessy--Bid Me Adieu, by Spectacular Bid) won the GIII Tremont S. last June, but went missing after an unplaced effort in the GII Sanford S. in July. Out of action for 13 months, the grey returned to run second in a Saratoga allowance Aug. 28 and followed up with a fourth in the GIII Kentucky Cup Sprint Sept. 18. Meeting solid allowance foes here as the 3-2 chalk, the $90,000 KEEJUL yearling set out in front, opened up seven lengths in midstretch and dug in to deny Saratoga County (Valid Expectations) by 1 1/4 lengths. Second at Belmont July 1 and third at Saratoga a month later, the bay had a wide trip over the Spa turf Aug. 22 and finished sixth, but was the 4-5 chalk in her return to the main track. The Phipps homebred settled into stride near the back of the pack, circled the field turning for home and kicked on late to win by four lengths. Lifetime Record: 6-2-1-1, $71,530. Laurel Opening Delayed; Pimlico to Extend Meet:

The Maryland Jockey Club has informed the Maryland Racing Commission and the Maryland Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association that, because the $16 million renovation of Laurel Park has not yet been completed, it will extend the current Pimlico meeting. The Pimlico meet was scheduled to close Nov. 2, with Laurel kicking off its fall stand Nov. 4, but Pimlico will now run until mid-December. Laurel is slated to re-open Dec. 26. The Laurel backstretch has been closed since the middle of June as the main track and the turf course are widened. Work is expected to be finished in time for training to resume Dec. 5. Pimlico will now host the Nov. 20 Fall Festival of Racing, which is highlighted by the GI Frank J. De Francis Memorial Dash.

Presidentialaffair started off the year with a trio of second-place finishes in easier company before destroying stakes foes in the slop in Monmouth's Skip Away H. July 5. A length winner of the GIII Salvator Mile H. over that track July 25, the gelding was a well-beaten second behind Ghostzapper in the nine-furlong GIII Iselin Breeders' Cup H. and faltered to finish seventh behind that foe in his latest, the GI Woodward H. at Belmont Sept. 11. Sent off the well-regarded choice this time, the Pennsylvania-bred took command early and held a comfortable advantage throughout, scoring by 1 3/4 lengths over Aggadan.

Silmaril defeated state-breds in the Jameela S. Feb. 15 at Laurel and added a two-turn allowance victory Mar. 21 at the same track. The dark bay didn't race again until Aug. 31, but had rallied well for an allowance win at Philly Park and was the second choice here. Always in striking position, she took command in the stretch and was safely in front at the wire.

After closing to be second in his first two tries, What's Up Lonely changed tactics and broke his maiden in front-running fashion at Pimlico Sept. 23. The even-money chalk in his stakes debut, the bay reverted to his original style, rating in sixth through the opening half before kicking it into gear in the stretch. The gelding drifted toward the rail in deep stretch, but kept the rally going en route to a decisive score.

A graded-stakes winner against fellow distaffers in 2002 and again last year, Caught in the Rain closed to take the Pistol Packer H. over Penn-bred company at Philly Park Aug. 7 and made it two in a row with a six-length score in the restricted Mrs. Penny S. Sept. 6. Taking on Pennsylvania-bred males this time, the dark bay stalked the pace, moved to the front as they came around the far turn and showed her tail to the field as she came home a popular victress.

Forest Grove showed promise over the Gulfstream main track this past winter, but was shelved after a seventh-place effort as the favorite in that track's Aventura S. Apr. 3. The chestnut returned to action with a runner-up finish in a Belmont allowance June 23 and was fourth as the chalk in the restricted Ogygian S. in Elmont July 9, but upset the field at 13-1 in the grassy Ocean Place Resort S. at Monmouth Aug. 8. He may not have cared for the off going when fifth in the Majestic Prince S. at the Jersey Shore Sept. 11, but was trying to regroup here as the second choice. A pace-pressing second for the opening six furlongs, Forest Grove surged to the front in upper stretch and held well for the win.

A troubled third in the Gill Jersey Derby at Monmouth May 31, Grand Heritage found himself boxed in at the quarter pole of the July 10 Choice S. at the Shore and got up late to round out the trifecta. A rallying third as the favorite to Forest Grove in the Ocean Place Resort S. Aug. 6, the chestnut most recently dipped a toe back into graded-stakes company, finishing fifth to Prince Arch in the Sept. 6 Gill Saranac H. at Saratoga. Favored in this softer spot, Grand Heritage tracked the early pace from the four path, advanced at the quarter pole and took over inside the final sixteenth en route to the victory.

Successful in a Brighton nursery handicap Sept. 23, Moth Ball returned to finish fourth in the valuable Listed Two-Year-Old Trophy at Redcar Oct. 2. Out again quickly for this one, he made light work of his 10 opponents to gain a decisive first stakes win and rewarded shrewd supporters who backed him down to 15-2.

“[Trainer] Jamie [Osborne] has done a fantastic job with him because he is quite full of himself, but he’s just improved with every run,” said winning jockey Darryll Holland. Positioned just behind the smart early tempo set by Yajbill (Ire) (Royal Applause {GB}), the eventual victor was ridden along with 2 1/2 furlongs to go, accelerated to the head of affairs approaching the final furlong and ran on strongly for necessary encouragement nearing the wire to secure the purse.

MISTER GENEPI (GB) (c, 2, Mister Baileys {GB}--Ring Queen, by Fairy King) started as the 8-13 favorite off a close-up third to Diktatorial (GB) in the seven-furlong G3 Somerville Tattersall S. at Newmarket Sept. 30. Ridden with patience in rear this time, he made smooth progress through the pack from the top of the straight, seized the initiative approaching the final furlong and was pushed clear in the latter stages to beat William Tell (Ire) (Rossini) by an easy five lengths. Lifetime Record: GSP-Eng, 7-1-2-2, £15,667.

3--Advice (GB), 127, c, 3, Seeking the Gold--Anna Palariva (Ire), by Caerleon. €6,750.

Margins: 2HF, 1HF, SHD. Odds: 13.40, 6.00, 3.80. Also ran: Reine de Vati (Fr), Excelsius (Ire), Ballast (Ire), Activo (Fr). Scratched: Tiberius Caesar (Fr), Open Offer (GB).

Unconsidered at the windows as a 134-10 outsider, Night Chapter stole a march on his rivals inside the final furlong of this contest to secure a deserved first stakes victory. He hinted at better things to come when winning a six-furlong conditions event at Deauville Aug. 3, but was found wanting in Group 3 company when unplaced in both the G3 Prix de Meautry back at Deauville Aug. 29 and most recently in the G3 Prix du Pin over seven furlongs at this track Sept. 18. Settled five lengths off the pace in third from the beginning, the eventual winner was ridden along to close inside the final quarter, led with 150 yards remaining and stretched away late to deny the running-on Tiganello with something in hand. "He's a nice horse, but I felt, after his two previous starts, that a mile would suit better than six or seven furlongs," said winning handler Criquette Head-Maarek. "He proved me right today, so we might bring him back in the G3 Prix Perth [at Saint-Cloud Oct. 31]."

Longchamp, 1.45, Cond, €31,000, 2yo, f, 1 1/8mT, 1:56.70, sf.

+ OISEAU RARE (FR) (f, 2, King's Best--Oiseau de Feu, by Nijinsky II) was settled in a stalking third from the get-go and gained momentum to close into second at the top of the stretch. Joining issue with the leader at the eighth peg, the 134-10 outsider was ridden out inside the final furlong to edge out Winter Silence (GB) (Dansili {GB}) by a cozy half length. With the victory, Oiseau Rare becomes the 14th winner for her freshman sire (by Kingmambo). Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, €15,500.

O-Lagardere Family; B-Jean-Luc Lagardere; T-Andre Fabre.

Longchamp, 3.20, Cond, €31,000, 2yo, c/g, 1 1/8mT, 1:56.90, sf.

GRAND BAHAMA (IRE) (c, 2, Singspiel {Ire}--Rum Cay, by Our Native) went postward as the 12-5 second choice off a debut second over this trip at Compiègne Sept. 27. Stalking the lead from the outset of this one, he was ridden along soon after turning for home and exhibited the renowned battling qualities of his illustrious sibling under strong driving to deny long-time pacesetter Todman Avenue (Lear Fan) by a half length in the final strides. The 800,000gns TATHOU yearling is a half to the ill-fated Persian Punch (Ire) (Persian Heights {GB}), European Ch. Stayer & Hwt Older Horse-Eng at 14f, MGSW & MG1SP-GB, GSW & G1SP-Fr, $1,264,024. Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, €19,100. O-Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum; B-Granham Farm; T-Andre Fabre.
