WILD AGAIN PENSIONED

Three Chimneys has announced that Wild Again (Icecapade--Bushel-n-Peck, by *Khaled), the winner of the inaugural GI Breeders' Cup Classic in 1984 who became one of the nation's top stallions, has been pensioned from stud duties due to declining fertility. "Wild Again has been a distinguished member of our stallion roster for the last 13 years," said syndicate manager Robert Clay. "His fertility has declined in the last two years, so that it is time he retire to the comfort he so richly deserves here at Three Chimneys." The 24-year-old will join pensioners Slew o' Gold and Capote at the Midway, Kentucky farm. As a four-year-old, Wild Again captured the GI Meadowlands Cup before finishing third in a Bay Meadows allowance race, then was supplemented for $360,000 for the Breeders' Cup. His front-running victory, during which he was part of the bumping between favored Slew o' Gold and Gate Dancer, remains one of the highlights of the championship event. With earnings of over $2.2 million in compiling a record of 28-8-7-4, Wild Again entered stud at Calumet Farm before moving to Three Chimneys in 1991. The nearly black horse established himself as one of the most dependable sires in the U.S., begetting the likes of Grade I winners A Wild Ride, Elmhurst, Milwaukee Brew, Sarava, Shine Again, Vicar, Wild Escapade, Wilderness Song, Wild Event and Wild Rush. From 16 crops of racing age, Wild Again has sired 84 stakes winners to date, 9 percent of his foals. Among his representatives in the current racing year are graded stakes winners Christine's Outlaw and Offlee Wild. "He's sired eight millionaires, four champions, and an incredible number of good, hard-trying racehorses," commented Clay. "His runners win races over all distances. Versatility and consistency have been the hallmarks of his stallion career."

All horses in the TDN are bred in North America,

DANCE HALL DAYS

Valentino (Fr) (Valanour {Ire}), an admirably consistent individual during three seasons of racing, hadn't scored in group company despite some valiant efforts in defeat. He consigned that unwanted statistic to history with a win in yesterday's G3 Prix Andre Baboin at Bordeaux. The Alain de Royer-Dupre trainee secured his only previous stakes success in the 2002 renewal of the Listed Prix Edellie and he subsequently placed second in last year's G2 Prix d'Harcourt. Valentino returned from a short break to finish runner-up in the Listed Prix de Boulogne at Chantilly Sept. 6 and was back to near his best for a last-time fourth in the G2 Prix Dollar at Longchamp Oct. 2. Settled behind the leaders in sixth from the bell, the 23-10 favorite made smooth progress from the top of the straight and was pushed to the front with 150 yards to go. From there, he ran on strongly under minimal encouragement to easily hold the staying-on Marshall (Fr) (Anabaa). Click here for the Racing Post chart.

ANNIE EDGE DIES Augustin Stables' Annie Edge (Ire) (Nebbiolo {GB}--Friendly Court {Ire}, by Be Friendly {GB}), a successful racemare who became a top broodmare, was euthanized at Derry Meeting Farm in Pennsylvania due to the complications of old age. The 24-year-old mare had been pensioned since 2001. She was barren to the cover of champion sprinter Elnadim (Danzig) in 2001. Trained in England by Ian Balding, the chestnut was a Listed winner and also ran third in the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas. Sent to Jonathan Sheppard in the U.S., she captured the GII New York H. and defeated colts in the GIII Riggs H. and retired with a record of 23-6-7-3 and earnings of $270,343. Her second foal was Selkirk (Sharpen {Up}), whose victories in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S., G2 Lockinge S., G2 Challenge S. and G2 Celebration Mile led to his being England's highweighted miler at three and four. The chestnut is now one of England's top stallions, with three Group 1 winners to his credit this season. In 1991, Annie Edge produced the Silver Hawk colt Rory Creek, who became a Grade III winner in the U.S. He was followed by the stakes-winning Skillington (Danzig) and Seebe (Danzig), a graded/group winner on both sides of the Atlantic. Seebe's yearling filly by A.P. Indy sold for $1.5 million at this summer's Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Sale. Annie Edge produced two additional stakes winners by Danzig, Syncline and Rimrod.

YES IT'S TRUE TO STAND FOR $25,000 Leading freshman sire Yes It's True (Is It True) will stand his first season at Three Chimneys in Kentucky for a fee of $25,000, live foal, payable Sept. 1. A Grade I winning millionaire during three seasons at the track, Yes It's

www.paduastables.com

True began his stallion career at Padua Stables near Ocala, Florida, before being moved to the Bluegrass after getting off to a swift start at stud. The eight-year-old was represented by his 10th winner Wednesday afternoon when Happy as Larry won in England, and is also the sire of Proud Accolade--victor of Saturday's GI Champagne S. at Belmont--and GIII Hollywood Juvenile S. winner Chandtrue. Three Chimneys purchased an interest in Yes It's True a month ago.

HKIR DRAWS NEARLY 300 ENTRIES A total of 293 horses representing 15 different racing jurisdictions have been nominated to this year's Cathay Pacific Hong Kong International Races, set for Sunday, Dec. 12 at Sha Tin Racecourse. Nearly one quarter of the entries are Group or Grade I winners, including undefeated Silent Witness (Aus) (El Moxie), the defending champion in the G1 Hong Kong Sprint; Vallee Enchantee (Ire) (Peintre Celebre), winner of the 2003 G1 Hong Kong Vase; and G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. winner Rakti (GB) (Polish Precedent), who hold entries for both the G1 Hong Kong Mile and the G1 Hong Kong Cup, a race in which he finished second to Falbrav (Ire) last year. Other prominent names among the possibles include four-time Group 1 winner Attraction (GB) (Efisio {GB}); Epalo (Ger) (Lando {Ger}), currently atop the World Series Racing Championship standings; dual Oaks winner Ouija Board (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}); demoted GI Arlington Million hero Powerscourt (GB) (Sadler's Wells); and Var (Forest Wildcat), upset winner of the G1 Prix de l'Abbaye de Longchamp. A total of 51 horses from North America appear on the list, including Hard Buck (Brz) (Spend a Buck), second in the G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Diamond S.; GI Joe Hirsch Turf Classic victor Kitten's Joy (El Prado {Ire}); Perfect Soul (Ire) (Sadler's Wells); and Soaring Free (Smart Strike). Purse money for this year's International Races is in excess of $7 million.

SAINT LIAM LIKELY TO MISS CLASSIC Saint Liam (Saint Ballado), a gallant second to Ghostzapper in the Sept. 11 GI Woodward S. in his latest, is unlikely to contest the GI Breeders' Cup Classic. Trainer Richard Dutrow said the four-year-old colt hadn't acted like himself several days last week, and explained that, although no injury had been detected, he was leaning against a crack at the Classic. "I'm not so sure we're going to go," Dutrow told Daily Racing Form. "He might have come up with a little virus. He didn't spike a fever, and he didn't miss an oat, but he wasn't really right, and that leads me to believe he shouldn't run. I'm afraid of making a bad move with him. I've never been in this spot before, and I don't want to [mess] it up. If he ran in the Breeders' Cup and ran terrible, I'd feel like an idiot."

Saint Liam (inside) in the Woodward S. A Coglianese

Thousand Guineas...

Trainer Lee Freedman had 327,000 reasons why Alinghi should start in the Thousand Guineas rather than the Caulfield Guineas against the colts on Saturday, and the formidable filly duly added A$327,000 to her earnings of A$2,380,125 with an improbable last-to-first effort in the fillies' race. Alinghi was last of 11 coming into the straight with Ballet Society (Stravinsky) appearing to have the face in her keeping, but Alinghi rocketed down the outside to win her fourth start in five appearances this spring. "This filly is amazing," Freedman, who celebrated his 100th Group 1 victory when Mumfify won the Yalumba S. Saturday, said after the win. "She can turn defeat into victory in such a short space of time. It's almost like when she gets bottled up she is able to produce these unbelievable finishes. The key to her greatness is she switches off." Jockey Damien Oliver said of Alinghi, who cost just A$85,000 as a yearling and was syndicated among 16 people: "What a ride we are having with this filly, she is amazing. She certainly speaks my language." Syndicate manager Rob Slade would not rule out the possibility of Alinghi, who has eight wins from 11 starts, venturing to North America and Freedman told The Age newspaper that he had started talks with trainer Bobby Frankel. The only other trainers in Australia to reach the 100 Group 1 winner mark are the late Tommy Smith, and Bart Cummings.

Nannycam scored by 3/4 of a length over the Churchill turf course June 19, was given a bit of a breather and returned to be fourth, beaten only three-parts, in the restricted De La Rose S. over the Saratoga grass course Aug. 11. Sixth after contesting the pace in a division of the 11-furlong Gill Glens Falls H. at the Spa Sept. 5, the chestnut was bet down to odds-on for the drop in company and distance. Fastest into stride from the inside box, Nannycam was rated on a deliberate pace, kicked into a daylight advantage turning for home and held sway late.

RHYTHM IN SHOES (f, 4, Rhythm--Aunt Ginger {SP}, by Fred Astaire), a close fourth in the Firecracker H. at Mountaineer Park July 4, resurfaced from a 2 1/2-month breather to complete the triple in River Downs' Vivacious H. for Ohio-breds Aug. 22. In her most recent appearance, the chestnut closed with a rush to be third by a neck in Arlington allowance company Sept. 12. A half sister to Anna Em (Our Emblem), MSW, $180,486, the chestnut lingered at the back of the pack, was switched out seven wide for the stretch run and finished willingly for a 1 3/4-length victory over Pleasant Emily (Pleasant Tap) at odds of 3-1. Favorite Trick, Alke to Cloverleaf Farms:

Horse of the Year Favorite Trick (Phone Trick--Evil Elaine, by Medieval Man) and GSW Alke (Grand Slam--Pasampsi, by Crow {Fr}) will stand the 2005 season at John Sykes' Cloverleaf Farms II in Reddick, Florida. Favorite Trick, who will remain the property of a syndicate, previously stood at John T.L. Jones Jr.'s Walmac International near Lexington. Campaigned by Kenneth English and Alan Braun, Alke has been purchased by Cloverleaf and will stand as property of the farm. A stud fee has not been set for either prospect. Favorite Trick has sired 76 winners, including stakes winners Tight Spin, Sum Trick, Hypnotist, Tricks of Glory, Favorite Mint, and Australian Listed winner Rutherford Eagle. During his undefeated season as a juvenile, Favorite Trick won two Grade I's--the Hopeful S. and Breeders' Cup Juvenile--and collected two-year-old and Horse of the Year titles for 1997. Second in the GIII Iroquois S. during his juvenile year, Alke won a pair of New York allowance contests at three before bumping up his game a notch in 2004 after joining the stable of trainer Todd Pletcher. Victorious in his first two starts of this term, including the GIII Deputy Minister S. over defending GI Breeders' Cup Sprint champion Cajun Beat, he ended his career with a second-place finish in the G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen at Nad al Sheba Mar. 27. The four-year-old retires with five wins from 10 starts and earnings of $619,385.

Dooley Named Track Announcer at Fair Grounds:

John G. Dooley has been named track announcer at Fair Grounds Race Course in New Orleans for the upcoming season, which begins Nov. 25. Dooley, 38, has been the track announcer at Arlington Park for the past five years and will retain his position at the Chicago-area oval. Fair Grounds' meet runs from November through late March, while Arlington's May through September meet will allow Dooley to call at both tracks. "I've had a great experience working at Arlington Park and being a part of the Churchill Downs Incorporated team," said Dooley. "I'm looking forward to joining our new team at Fair Grounds." Churchill Downs Incorporated recently completed a purchase of Fair Grounds.
