GREEK SUN RISES IN OAK TREE DERBY

Greek Sun (Danzig) moved back into the spotlight Sunday with a come-from-behind move, taking the GII Oak Tree Derby at Santa Anita Park. Well back in the early going, the well-bred three-year-old mounted his attack, while racing five wide, heading into the stretch and swept to the front in the final strides, outgaming Laura's Lucky Boy (Theatrical {Ire}) for the prize. "He's a nice horse who needs a little room to get himself going and he did that," explained winning rider Edgar Prado, who flew in for the mount. Lightly-raced Greek Sun started off his career with three-straight victories, including the GIII Cinema Breeders' Cup H. at Hollywood Park June 26 before finishing a respectable second to turf star Kitten's Joy next time in the GI Secretariat S. at Arlington Aug. 14. A flat eighth over the soggy Belmont turf in the GI Man O War H. Sept. 11, Greek Sun was made the 7-5 to make it two for two over the track and distance. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

OUIJA BOARD BC CUP BOUND

Lord Derby's Ouija Board (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) will travel to Texas for a tilt at either the GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf or GI Turf, it was confirmed yesterday. After the G1 English and Irish Oaks scorer finished third in the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at Longchamp Oct. 3, connections suggested she might take her chance in the Championships. Trainer Ed Dunlop told BBCi Sunday, "She seems fine, but we have not done too much work with her since the Arc. So long as she is okay on Monday and I have had the chance to speak with her owners, then she will be entered."

AZAMOUR TO STAY IN TRAINING IN 2005

His Highness the Aga Khan's G1 St James's Palace S. and G1 Irish Champion S. winner Azamour (Ire) (Night Shift), third behind Haafhd (GB) in Saturday's G1 Champion S. at Newmarket, will remain in training as a four-year-old, conditioner John Oxx told the Racing Post yesterday. "The plan is to keep him in training next year and there is a fairly obvious programme for him, starting with the G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup at The Curragh. Then comes the G1 Prince of Wales's S., which will be run at York. We will then stretch him up to a mile and a half, and the GI King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. [at Newbury] would be the obvious race for that."

DEUTSCH DAY

Shirocco (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}) capped a memorable day for Germany at the San Siro when denying Electrocutionist (Red Ransom) in a pulsating finish to yesterday's G1 Gran Premio del Jockey Club. Following hot on the heels of a German one-two in the G1 Gran Criterium, Baron Georg von Ullmann's G1 Deutsches Derby winner made virtually all the running and pulled out all the stops to deny the home hope by a short head in a bobbing finish "Shirocco is very good and today he really showed some guts when he was fighting for victory," his owner Baron Georg von Ullmann told PA Sport.

Shirocco debuted at Krefeld only in March, but has made rapid strides subsequently, winning the Listed Derby-Trial at Mulheim May 15 before filling third spot in the G2 Oppenheim-Union-Rennen at Cologne June 13. He destroyed his rivals with a relentless display of galloping when winning the Deutches Derby by four lengths at Hamburg July 4 and returned after a summer break to finish third behind Warrsan (Ire) in the G1 Grosser Preis von Baden last time Sept. 5. Von Ullmann announced that he will remain in training as a four-year-old, when the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe will be his main target. "He is a top-class horse and we hope that he will be a real star in Europe's best races next season," he added. Electrocutionist's trainer Valfredo Valiani told PA Sport, "We chose to run even though we knew the ground was really too soft. Imperial Dancer (GB) (Primo Dominie {GB}) finished third, but was disqualified and placed fifth.

Germany continued its domination of the afternoon, with the Gestut Schlenderhan homebred stable mates Konigstiger and Idealist filling the first two places here. With just a debut score at Baden-Baden Sept. 1 to his name entering this contest, Konigstiger was deserted by Andreas Suborics in favor of the Listed Junioren-Preis scorer, but it was Filip Minarik who benefited from that decision to cause the upset. Settled in a stalking position off the moderate early pace, he followed Hearthstead Wings through when that rival was committed with three furlongs remaining and challenged soon after. Getting the better of that rival in the final 100 yards, he held on to his slim advantage as Idealist closed late under Suborics. Konigstiger marks the first Group 1 winner for his owner-breeder's stallion Tiger Hill (by Danehill), who was also responsible for the runner-up. Both colts will be put away for the winter with a Classic campaign in mind for 2005.

Pride relished the deep turf of Chantilly when winning the G3 Prix Allez France May 7 before finding the faster surface against her in a third-place effort in the G2 Prix Corrida at Saint-Cloud May 31. After finishing fifth in the G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud July 4, she filled the runner-up spot in the G2 Prix Jean Romanet at Deauville Aug. 22 and was third in the G1 Prix Vermeille at this track Sept. 12. She was allowed to take her chance in the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe back here, but did not enjoy the best of runs and finished down the field last time Oct. 3. Back on her favored soft ground, she traveled easily in rear before quickening at the top of the straight to pass all her rivals before reaching the eighth peg. From there it was a procession as she drew clear before being eased by Davy Bonilla near the line. "She has a lot of class and was very unlucky in the Vermeille," commented conditioner Alain de Royer-Dupre. "She was also stopped at a crucial stage in the Arc and had plenty left at the time, but she's definitely better on this softer ground and this was well deserved. I hope she stays in training next year." Click for the racingpost.co.uk chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Toll Taker, sixth in a five-furlong Monmouth maiden June 17, finished third next time over that track and trip July 15 and continued to move in the right direction when she graduated by five lengths Aug. 12. Bolstered from that confidence-boosting performance, the Illinois-bred returned to score by 10 lengths last time out when trying six panels in allowance company at the Oceanport oval Sept. 10. Settled off the pace in third behind a changing cast of leaders, Toll Taker angled out, while racing four wide, to take command in the stretch and galloped clear late en route to an easy score over favored Im a Dixie Girl. "I've been very confident in the filly," said winning jockey Eibar Coa. "She's improving with each race. She broke sharp, settled and I knew she'd be tough at the quarter pole." Trainer Timothy Hills said, "We really liked the way she ran today. She finished very nicely." Commenting on the filly's future, Hills added, "The plan was to run her in a $100,000 stakes race at Hawthorne because she's an Illinois-bred, but now that she has won this, I don't know. Eventually, she'll go to Florida." According to Bruce Levine, trainer of the beaten favorite, Ima Dixie Girl will head back to the barn of Kentucky-based Bernie Flint. "She was gusty," said Levine. "Maybe chasing the pace hurt her. It was a good effort." Click for the brisnet.com chart. For the video race replay, select: broadband or modem.

Peter Schiergen houses a serious crop of juvenile colts this year and, on the same afternoon that Konigstiger (Ger) and Idealist (Ger) filled the first two spots in the G1 Gran Criterium in Milan, their stable companion Manduro was holding the fort at home when taking this prestigious prize. Like Konigstiger, he had a sole maiden score on his resume, but the manner in which he dismissed his rivals at Munich on debut Sept. 12 suggested he should hold his own in this company. Stalking the early pace under Terence Hellier, he cruised to the front at the top of the straight and with a shake of the reins soon after opened up for the emphatic score. Manduro was providing his owner-breeder Baron Georg von Ullmann with an afternoon to cherish after the San Siro exploits of his star performer Shirocco (Ger), also by Monsun. He is the fourth foal bred from the Listed-placed mare Mandellicht, whose progeny include the G1 Preis der Diana (German Oaks) third Mandela (Ger).

Making her second start in a week, Molto Vita led every step of this race to earn her first graded stakes victory. The bay had paired up victories at Ellis July 23 and Aug. 14 before heading to New York. A close fourth, beaten 1 1/4 lengths, to Lady Tak in the GI Ballerina H. Aug. 29, she chased that filly again when second in the GII Gallant Bloom H. last Sunday. Trainer Dallas Stewart opted to wheel his charge right back and Molto Vita was up to the challenge.

Molto Vita
 Bill Straus/Keeneland

Breaking alertly under meet-leading rider Rafael Bejarano, she rolled along on the front end with a clear advantage through splits of :22.09 and :45.75. Favored My Trusty Cat took a run at her down the lane, but Molto Vita kept finding more and maintained her momentum going under the wire. "My filly broke very, very sharp and even though there were two other speed horses in the race, I was sitting against her all the way," Bejarano said. "She won super easy." As for the decision to run Molto Vita back quickly, Stewart said, "Sometimes it works and sometimes it doesn't. She bounced out of that last race well, so [owner] Mr. Gunther and I put our heads together and we felt if everything was good this morning, we would go ahead and do it. And look what she did!"

Raffelberger proved yet another German success on a San Siro card overrun by overseas invaders. The imposing sophomore won the Listed Prix Cor de Chasse at Maisons-Laffitte Apr. 6 before finishing fourth in the Listed Prix Sigy at Chantilly Apr. 30. Down the field in the G3 Holsten-Trophy at Hamburg July 3, he shaped better when fourth in the Listed Prix du Cercle at Deauville July 31 before proving himself his country's leading sprinter by capturing the G2 Goldene Peitsche at Baden-Baden Sept. 1. He disappointed when only 11th in the G1 Prix de l'Abbaye de Longchamp last time Oct. 3, but found this company less taxing. Stalking the early pace under a confident Andreas Suborics, he settled the issue in a matter of strides approaching the eighth pole before recording a cosy score.

Musketier opened his account in a decent conditions event at Deauville Aug. 24 before suffering a troubled trip when runner-up in the G3 Prix des Chenes at this track last time Sept. 18. Always traveling easily under a confident Christophe-Patrice Lemaire, he stalked the early pace before quickening to the front with 2 1/2 furlongs remaining. Pushed out to assert from Doctor Dino, he was firmly in command in the closing stages. "He was very unlucky last time, so he deserved this," commented trainer Pascal Bary. "The ease in the ground was a big help and he has class. He will now go for the G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud [Nov. 6]." Click for the racingpost.co.uk chart.

See Me Through broke her maiden in her first start of the season, taking a six-furlong test at Hastings in April. The chestnut failed to visit the winner's circle in her next seven starts, but was coming off a solid third-place finish behind Summer Symphony in the Sept. 25 GIII British Columbia Breeders' Cup Oaks over this track and distance. Looking to turn the tables here, the 8-1 shot went right to the front and led every step, easily holding off the runner-up in the final furlong.

Overlooked at 22-1 in her turf debut, the chestnut filly followed the leaders while racing wide early, closed to take control as they came out of the turn and opened up some daylight late to post the 2 1/4-length upset. The bay just missed in her latest, however, rallying to be second by a half length Sept. 15. Off at 7-2 in her Lexington debut, she tracked the leaders through the opening splits and went after front-running 5-2 favorite Dowry (Belong to Me) in the stretch, catching that rival late for a 3/4-length decision. The chestnut put in a pair of appearances at Saratoga, running second in the July 29 GII Sanford S. and most recently finishing third in the Aug. 21 GI Hopeful S. Odds-on against softer foes here, he broke through the gate before the start and was also quick to get going once they rung the bell. Flamenco tracked Fusaichi Rock Star (Wild Wonder) through a half in :46.20, strode to the lead in the stretch and was under a drive as he held off the late bid of longshot Better Than Bonds for a narrow triumph. Making his turf debut, Slew's Saga provided owner/breeders Karen and Mickey Taylor with the latest stakes winner by the late, great Seattle Slew. The Ontario-bred had graduated from the maiden ranks in his first attempt at a route Sept. 19 on the dirt at Woodbine, but wasn't given much of a chance here on the grass. Breaking alertly, the bay set out in front and never looked back, extending his advantage with every stride in the stretch to win by 9 3/4 lengths. "He handled it [turf] very good," said winning rider Steven Bahen. "I wasn't worried about anybody behind me. He was going pretty easy. When I called on him, he opened up some more, so I was pretty happy with that." Slew's Saga will now point for the C$250,000 Coronation Futurity Nov. 13 on the main track at Woodbine.

SHAMARDAL EARNS PLAUDITS

Gainsborough Stud's Shamardal (Giant's Causeway) was lauded by Racing Manager Joe Mercer yesterday after his convincing 2½-length success in Saturday's G1 Dewhurst S. at Newmarket. Following his defeat of Oratorio (Ire) in the seven-furlong contest, the juvenile was quoted as low as 3-1 favorite for next year's G1 2000 Guineas. "He's very probably one of the best two-year-olds we have seen in a long time," Mercer said yesterday. "The way he won a Dewhurst on just his third career start suggested to me that he is very special." Trainer Mark Johnston's wife and assistant Deirdre explained that he had come out of the race well. She said, "He trotted up sound and well this morning. He did it so well yesterday on ground I'm not sure was completely to his liking, but he's so good he handled it anyway. We'll have to wrap him up in cotton wool now through the winter and keep him as safe as we can for the Guineas."
