GLOBETROTTER TOPS INTERNATIONAL FIELD

Born in Ireland, Godolphin's Sulamani (Ire) (Hernando {Fr}) started his career in France, but has traveled far and wide over the last three seasons. The bay's passport picked up a new stamp when he landed north of the border for today's G1 Canadian International S. at Woodbine. The five-year-old has already accounted for six wins at the International distance of a mile and half, including the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club at three and the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic and G1 Turf Classic at four. He had made four previous starts this year, all in Britain, running third in the July 24 G1 King George VI & Queen Elizabeth S. and most recently posting a 3/4-length victory in the Aug. 17 G1 Juddmonte International S. According to connections, he has settled down comfortably in his new surroundings. "Since he got [to Woodbine], he's done everything we've asked of him," said Godolphin assistant Tony Howarth. "He's eaten well. He seems happy in the shedrow. He has traveled before, so he is a horse that pretty much adapts quickly."

Take Two...

Sulamani isn't the horse in the International field with frequent flyer miles, but Mubtaker (Silver Hawk) has restricted his travel to Europe. The seven-year-old makes only his 20th career start this afternoon, but he has made the most of his opportunities, hitting the board 18 times and winning no less than nine races. A shock second at 32-1 in the 2003 G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, the chestnut opened 2004 with a win in the Aug. 14 G2 Geoffrey Freer S. The even-money chalk in his latest, the Sept. 5 G1 Grosser Preis von Baden, he grabbed the lead three furlongs out and battled gamely for a quarter mile before weakening to be seventh. GO-GETTER

He had been the talk of Newmarket, but Motivator (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}) rose above the hype and showed his substance to win yesterday's G1 Racing Post Trophy at Doncaster. Always traveling smoothly while stalking the early fractions under jockey Kieren Fallon, the 6-4 pick was eased to the front at the three-furlong marker. Shaking off Henrik (GB) (Primo Dominie {GB}) by Motivator the eighth pole, he exhibited signs of greenness, but was comfortably on top as Albert Hall (GB) (Danehill) closed to within 2 1/2 lengths at the line under Jamie Spencer. "He's a serious horse," commented trainer Michael Bell. Racing Post Trophy cont. p2

Eye-catching from the Start...

Motivator had created quite a stir when opening up six lengths in his debut, a Newmarket maiden Aug. 13, but the dry conditions had kept him in his stall while the major prizes were played out over the summer. He had been training well for his second career start, however. "He's been doing it at home and I'm delighted he got the chance to go through the gears," Michael Bell said. "We've been very careful to protect him from the fast ground, and our patience has been rewarded." Jockey Kieren Fallon reported that Motivator had felt a "bit flat" going to post, but was impressed with him on the way back. "He got there too soon and idled, but it was a big step up and he proved how good he is," he said. "If something had come to him he would have shown more gears, and he's got a great attitude." Michael Bell revealed that the G1 2000 Guineas at Newmarket may be on the agenda before a tilt at the G1 Epsom Derby in June. "He's got plenty of speed and wouldn't be inconvenienced by a mile," Bell said. "He'd be fine on ordinary good ground and he'll be stronger next year." Most bookmakers were offering Motivator at 16-1 for the 2000 Guineas. Prices for the Epsom Derby ranged between 10-1 and 20-1.

Praise for the Also-rans...

Aidan O'Brien was not disappointed by the effort of the runner-up, Albert Hall. "He probably found the ground a bit difficult and is best on good ground, but he's a big rangy horse with scope so he's a horse to look forward to for next year," O'Brien said. Jockey Ted Durcan was even more enthusiastic about third-place finisher Henrik. "We're over the moon with him," Durcan told Sporting Life. "He's run a huge race, but the ground has found him out. He's got plenty of speed, but it was blunted by the ground today. He's going to be a smashing horse over a mile on better ground next year."

Earlier this week, ebullient trainer Graeme Rogerson received a call from a potential buyer offering A$10 million the elegant Savabeel and responded typically, "Which leg do you want?" As Cox Plate fever intensified this week, Rogerson earnestly touted the colt, who was coming off a win in the Oct. 2 G1 Spring Champion S. at 2000 meters, as the best horse he had ever trained. Still, the three-year-old remained a glaring omission from every tipsters' selections. "All the experts said he couldn't win, but he is the best horse in Australia and you won't buy him now for A$20 million, I'll tell you that much," an emotional Rogerson said. "I knew he could do it, he was running the sectionals in his work. I put my reputation on the line, and maybe I am not such a bad judge."

Breaking the Sophomore Jinx...

Aided by a superb ride from Chris Munce, Savabeel became the first three-year-old since another son of Zabeel (NZ), Octagonal (NZ), got the job done in 1995, and he beat a genuinely worthy field to capture the Southern Hemisphere's weight-for-age showpiece. Savabeel drifted from 8-1 to 14-1 on course as Caulfield Cup victor Elvstroem (Danehill) rapidly assumed favoritism. The sophomore settled third, some four lengths behind Regal Roller (Regal Classic) and Miss Potential (Dolphin Street {Fr}), but as the field bunched at the home turn, Munce let the long-striding colt go. Fields of Omagh gave his all, powering home from sixth, but under his light weight, Savabeel would not be collared, while the much-hyped Starcraft scrambled out of a pocket to capture third ahead. Munce said he worried that his mount was racing too fiercely early. "He was unbelievable," the rider said. "I thought he was going too hard and decided there was no use both of us pulling. He was a lot keener that I wanted him to be, so we ended up three deep and three off the lead, and with no weight on his back, I wasn't going to wait for them to come. He finds plenty under pressure, and he loves it. There's a lot of depth to him." Savabeel becomes his sire's 29th Group 1 winner. He will make his next start in Saturday's G1 Victoria Derby as he aims to become the first horse in 30 years to do the double. Favored Elvstroem lacked pizzazz, settling for sixth from the rear.

Making his turf debut here, Eddington showed newfound determination to earn his first career stakes victory and his first trip to the winner's circle since a Feb. 28 allowance win at Gulfstream. The chestnut had posted a somewhat frustrating series of third-place finishes in major races since then, completing the tri-fecta in the GI Wood Memorial S., GI Preakness S. and the GI Travers S. In his most recent trip to the post, he came up a neck short as the even-money choice in the GIII Pegasus H. Oct. 1. Jockey Eibar Coa tucked the colt into a ground-saving position, and the duo waited patiently for a seam in the stretch. Eddington kicked on in the final furlong, caught pacesetter Bob's Proud Moment and got his head down on the line. "He deserves to win one of these graded stakes," said winning trainer Mark Hennig. "It opens the door for a lot of opportunities for him. That's not to say we'll concentrate solely on the grass with him, but this race may have been just what he needed to get his confidence back on any surface." Click for the brisnet.com chart.

Built Up had won no fewer than nine added-money events entering this test, but had never taken a graded race before gutting out the head victory here over Super Frolic. The six-year-old gelding finished third by a neck to a tough competitor in Champali in the GIII Smile Sprint H. over this strip July 10, but faltered as the 3-5 choice in his next, the Groomstick H. July 31, fading to sixth. Switched to the lawn in the GIII Miami Mile Breeders' Cup H. Sept. 11, he clearly didn't appreciate the rain-softened sod and was eased. A return to the main track saw the bay finish second in the 1 1/16th-mile Sumter S. Sept. 26 and he was sent off the second choice to go one better. Rated in fifth under Eibar Coa, Built Up launched his bid leaving the backstretch, surged clear by 2 1/2 lengths two furlongs from home and dug in gamely to stave off the closing Super Frolic. "This horse has had a very good year," said winning conditioner Enrique Alonso. "I think he is getting younger, like his trainer."

Sister Swank had success in stakes company on the main track, running third in the GII Silverbulletday S. at Fair Grounds in February and second in the Sunland Oaks at Sunland Park Mar. 27, but she has excelled since switching surfaces. The chestnut was sent to the bench after her effort in New Mexico, returning to win an Arlington Park allowance in her turf debut Aug. 22. Taking on grassy stakes foes at 25-1 in her latest, she was not disgraced in finishing third behind the talented Ticker Tape (GB). Sister Swank was sent off the second choice while facing a softer field here. She settled off the flank of pacesetter Jinny's Gold through moderate splits over the yielding course and still had 2 1/2 lengths at mid-stretch, but caught the frontrunner late and edged clear. "The ground is getting chewed up, but she handled it pretty well," jockey Pat Day said. "She was slow to find her best stride, but once she leveled off, she found her best gear."

Habaneros was sidelined for 15 months before returning to beat $25,000 claimers on the dirt at Del Mar July 24. The chestnut gelding added an entry-level allowance score Aug. 29, then moved to the turf and was second by 3/4 of a length in a starter allowance going nine furlongs at Santa Anita Oct. 11. Stretching out while taking on graded-stakes foes off that effort, he was ignored at odds of 14-1, but led from gate to wire, cutting out soft fractions before holding off fellow 14-1 shot Pellegrino in the dying strides. "I knew we were walking," winning jockey David Flores said. "It was just a matter of who was going to move early, but nobody was in a rush so I took my time on him. He loves to run, this horse, and he's very sharp." Continuously (Diesis {GB}), the 13-10 chalk, trailed the field early and had no rally late, beating just one horse home. "The turf was too hard for him, that's all," jockey Corey Nakatani said.

Orcadian made the most of the atrocious conditions to wire this contest and spring a huge surprise. The ground at Newbury had deteriorated markedly as the afternoon wore on and had claimed most of his rivals by the top of the straight, including the returning Asian Heights. Pulling further clear of the struggling field inside the final quarter, he had a lot of daylight on the second horse by the time he had reached the line. Orcadian had split Haafhd (GB) and Milk It Mick (GB) in the Listed Washington Singer S. at this track last August, but had failed to fire this term over much shorter trips. After finishing sixth in the Listed Guisborough S. at Redcar Oct. 2, he was stepped up two furlongs two weeks later and was again sixth in the G3 Darley S. at Newmarket before encountering this test. "He handled the ground and stayed well," commented jockey Martin Dwyer. "He's a nice horse and went through it better than most."

Changing World closed out her sophomore campaign with a two-length decision in Calder's Frances A. Genter S. Dec. 20. Backed as the 2-1 choice off the layoff, the bay filly notched a $75,000 optional claimer at Saratoga Aug. 19, then ran fourth behind Ocean Drive in the GIII Noble Damsel H. last time Sept. 25. Overlooked a bit at the windows here, she was sent right to the front by Pablo Fragoso, opened up a 3 1/2-length lead at the half-mile marker and had enough left in the tank to post her first graded success. "I originally told Pablo [Fragoso] to cover her up and sit in second or third," said winning trainer Barclay Tagg. "But I also told him that if she broke sharply she would be tough to hold. Everything worked out perfectly. I'm not sure what's next for her. She still has a little growing up to do." Heavily favored Ocean Drive stalked the early pacesetter and had no excuse while third. Godolphin's three-year-old Punctilious is the morning-line favorite in the 49th renewal of this event. The bay hasn't been able to step out of the shadow of Ouija Board across the Atlantic, finishing third to the Breeders' Cup hopeful in the G1 Epsom Oaks S. and second to her in the G1 Irish Oaks. In between those starts, she defeated Quiff (GB) in the G2 Ribblesdale S. at Royal Ascot, but the British-bred reportedly didn't handle the soft going when a distant fourth to Quiff in the G1 Yorkshire Oaks Aug. 18 and has not raced since. "She's in good shape," assistant trainer Tony Howarth told Daily Racing Form. "She's fresh and well." Punctilious will be treated with Lasix for the first time.

Commercante split Riskaverse and Moscow Burning--two starters in next week's Breeders' Cup F/M Turf--when second in the GI Flower Bowl Invitational Oct. 2.

Whortleberry faces a deep field as she bids to record back-to-back successes in this contest. After some respectable efforts under the burden of a penalty, she beat Pride (Fr) and Chorist (GB) in the G2 Prix Jean Romanet at Deauville Aug. 22, but finished down the field in the G1 Prix Vermeille at Longchamp Sept. 12, and she needs to bounce back from a second disappointing effort when sixth in the G1 Prix de l'Opera at that track last time Oct. 3. Last year's G3 Premio Sergio Cumani winner Marbye heads a strong domestic defence. She looked stronger than ever when winning the G1 Prix d'Astarte at Deauville Aug. 1, but trailed in sixth in the G1 Premio Vittorio di Capua on her latest start Oct. 10 and has something to prove. Germany, who swept the board at the San Siro last Sunday, field a strong hope in Saldentigerin. Her headstrong tendencies got the better of her when third as favorite in the G1 Preis der Diana (German Oaks) at Hamburg June 6, but she was far from disgraced in a fourth-place finish in the G1 Deutsches Derby at Hamburg July 4. After finishing runner-up in the G3 Furstenberg-Rennen at Baden-Baden Aug. 29, she recorded a career-best when going down by only a half length to Albanova (GB) in the G1 Preis von Europa last time Sept. 26.

France's staying champion Westerner returns to the scene of his triumph 12 months ago in arguably the form of his life. His impressive resume already includes the last two renewals of the G1 Prix du Cadran at his beloved Longchamp, where he also won the G3 Prix de Barbeville Apr. 22 and G3 Prix Gladiateur Sept. 12. He was also a game second to Papineau (GB) in the G1 Ascot Gold Cup June 17. His infamous ear plugs have not needed to be removed on his latest starts, which is a measure of the improvement he has made since beating Alcazar and Behkara in this race last year.

CLASSIC, POWERED BY DODGE, $4,000,000, 3yo/up, 1 1/4m

Two Classic contenders tuned up at Lone Star Park yesterday morning. Roses in May (Devil His Due), undefeated in five starts this year, was out on the track first, going five furlongs in 1:01 1/5. The move was just what trainer Dale Romans was looking for. "Perfect," Romans said. "I don't think he could have worked any better. He did enough and still had a lot of energy afterwards. It was the last big hurdle and now we just jog and gallop the rest of the time." He added, "He hasn't missed a beat since [winning the Sept. 18 GII Kentucky Cup Classic]. He's gotten better with every race and trains better into the next race every step of the way." Also working yesterday, GII Meadowlands Cup runner-up Dynever (Dynaformer) went a half in :48 3/5. "It was a routine work, nothing special," said Christophe Lorieul, assistant to trainer Christophe Clement. "He ran two weeks ago, so he doesn't need much." Four-year-old Dynever will be making his second start after a three-month layoff in the Classic.

JOHN DEERE TURF, $2,000,000, 3yo/up, 1 1/2mT

GI Man o'War S. hero Magistretti (Diesis {GB}) had an easy six-furlong breeze on the Lone Star turf yesterday. Working around the "dogs," the four-year-old went the distance in a leisurely 1:20. "I think it was his normal work," trainer Patrick Biancone said. "It was an easy work, just to see how he handled the track. He worked beautiful on it--it's what we were looking for."

Kitten's Joy (El Prado {Ire}) also stretched his legs at Lone Star yesterday, going his five-eighths in 1:06 3/5. "He got everything he needed," trainer Dale Romans said. "When you're going around the 'dogs' like that, the time isn't the most important thing. It's how much the horse has and how he feels."

Kitten's Joy Horsephotos

V05 F/M TURF, $1,000,000, 3yo/up, f/m, 1 3/8mT

Trainer Jimmy Toner was worried when told his F/M Turf hopeful Wonder Again (Silver Hawk) had been times going five furlongs in 1:04 4/5, but he felt a lot better when it turned out that the time was a bullet, and that Turf choice Kitten's Joy had been clocked going nearly two seconds slower. "We wanted to go in 1:01, but if she was faster than anyone else, that's good," Toner said. "[It] shows she shipped in well, she's on target and she's training well to the race. Now we just have to play with her the rest of the week."

JUVENILE FILLIES, $1,000,000, 2yo, f, 1 1/8m

Enduring Will (Arch) will be forced to miss the Juvenile Fillies after coming down with the flu. "She's a scratch," trainer Al Stall Jr. confirmed yesterday. "We're very upset. It stings. She'll be over it in about 24 or 48 hours, but we're not going to compromise her in any way by taking any chances."

TAPIT RETIRED TO GAINESWAY Winchell Thoroughbreds LLC's Tapit (Pulpit--Tap Your Heels, by Unbridled) has been retired from racing and will enter stud next season at Gainesway Farm in Lexington, Kentucky. The grey will stand for a fee of $15,000 live foal as the property of Winchell Thoroughbreds, Gainesway and shareholders. "It was a decision by committee--Michael

Tapit Jim McCue/MJC

Dickinson, Ron and Joan Winchell, and myself," said David Fiske, racing manager for the Winchells. "Basically, we decided that we would rather breed to him next year than race him." Fiske added that the three-year-old retired sound. A $625,000 Keeneland September yearling purchase, Tapit was perfect in two starts at two for trainer Michael Dickinson, winning the GIII Laurel Futurity. He lost his unbeaten record in the GI Florida Derby, but rebounded to take the GI Wood Memorial S. at Aqueduct. Ninth in the GI Kentucky Derby, he didn't race again until Labor Day, when he ran ninth in the GII Pennsylvania Derby. He retires with earnings of $557,300. Produced by a stakes-winning 3/4-sister to champion sprinter Rubiano, Tapit is from the family of Glitterman and Relaunch. "Tapit has a classic stallion's pedigree," said Antony Beck, president of Gainesway. "He was an impressive performer on the track and we believe he will be an excellent sire."

DR. REED PASSES AWAY Dr. William O. Reed, the veterinarian who operated on such illustrious patients as Conquistador Cielo, Damascus, Dr. Fager, Hoist the Flag and Tim Tam, died yesterday morning at Winthrop Hospital in Mineola, NY. He was 83. A native of Ohio, Reed served as president of the American Association of Equine Practitioners during his notable career, but he is probably best known for performing surgery on the ill-fated Ruffian after the filly suffered fractured sesamoids during her match race with Foolish Pleasure in 1975. In addition to his medical practice, Reed and his wife Audrey owned and operated Mare Haven Farm in Lexington, breeding such top horses as Gone West, Goodbye Halo and Known Fact. The Reeds sold the farm just a month ago. Visitation will be at the Fairchild Funeral Home in Garden City, NY on Monday from 2-4 p.m. and from 7-9 p.m. A funeral mass will be celebrated Tuesday morning at 10 at St. Joseph's Roman Catholic Church in Garden City.

UNINHIBITED SONG (f, 3, Unbridled's Song--Special Mistress, by Deputy Minister) was a 2 1/4-length allowance winner at Pleasanton July 4, then finished ninth in a $62,000 optional claimer on the Del Mar turf July 21. Last seen placing fifth in the Washington Breeders' Cup Oaks at Emerald Downs Aug. 21, she was sent off at 9-2 here. Sent to the front by leading rider Rafael Bejarano, the $90,000 KEESEP yearling came home a two-length winner over 3-2 chalk Family Business (Saint Ballado). Uninhibited Song is a half sister to Special Brush (Broad Brush), GSP, $145,605; and Twilight Time (Twilight Agenda), GSW, $329,068. Lifetime Record: 7-3-1-0, $73,951.

She returned to run ninth by 12 lengths in her grass bow at Kentucky Downs Sept. 21, but figured to improve in her return to the dirt and was sent off at 7-2 odds. In seventh in a tightly packed field through the opening furlongs, she swung wide for the drive and drove past Tailwind Flyer (Tale of the Cat), winning by 1 1/4 lengths on the line. Spite the Devil, winner of last year's GIII Withers S., sprung the 15-1 upset in the feature of Belmont's showcase for New York-breds yesterday. A half-length victor of the Evan Shipman H. at Belmont in late July, he finished a badly beaten 12th in his turf bow, the West Point H. at Saratoga Aug. 15, then ran fourth sprinting in the Gen. Douglas MacArthur H. at Belmont Sept. 10. Dead last in a crowded 14-horse field here, Spite the Devil began picking off foes with a wide move on the turn, moved wider still entering the lane and was under a stiff drive to outfinish favored West Virginia. "That was great," said victorious trainer Allen Jerkens. "He likes to come from off of a fast pace, so it set up very nicely for him. It's very nice for us because my wife owns the horse. This should help pay for some of the mare's bills."

On the Bus blew away a field of state-bred allowance rivals by 6 1/2 lengths at Belmont May 20, finished third in the Mt. Vernon H. June 20, then just missed when nosed out of the win by Sabellina in the Aug. 18 Yaddo H. over a yielding Spa lawn. Returning from the two-month freshening as the pick here, she stalked a modest pace before launching an outside bid leaving the turn. Asked for her best from there, she kicked clear and was never seriously threatened by the rallying pair of Sabellina and Little Buttercup.

Irish Colonial had suffered some hard luck in posting four straight third-place efforts, finishing 3/4 of a length behind Silver Tree and Nothing to Lose in the GII Bernard Baruch H. July 30. He followed with a half-length loss in the West Point H. Aug. 15 and was most recently 1 3/4 lengths behind in the Ashley T. Cole H. Sept. 25. Well-spotted early inside, the bay angled to the outside for running room in the stretch and finally got the job done in a tight finish. "It's great to get him back to the winner's circle," acknowledged winning trainer Randy Schulhofer. "He hasn't had much luck, but today, everything fell into place." Friendly Island drilled New York-bred maidens by 17 1/4 lengths first time out at Belmont June 6, but faltered at even-money in the Mike Lee S. June 26. The chestnut had rebounded smartly, including a pair of state-bred allowance tallies Aug. 7 and Aug. 21 at Saratoga, and kept the winning streak alive with a dead-heat in open company Sept. 26. Able to recover from an awkward start, the three-year-old contested the pace, shook loose after a half in :45.59 and was kept busy en route to the wire. "I was worried because it looked like there was so much speed in there," said winning trainer Todd Pletcher. "He didn't break great, but crept up the right way and responded when called upon. It is hard to do what he has done in such a short period of time. He is awfully good."

acquired shortly thereafter by IEAH Stables, Yankees manager Joe Torre, et al, the bay filly easily went through her New York bred conditions and added stakes victories in the Union Avenue S. Aug. 26 and the Schenectady H. Sept. 26. Seeking her sixth straight here, she raced with the early leaders, took over on the turn for home and drew off under a mild drive by jockey Edgar Prado. "I got goose bumps when she turned into the stretch," co-owner Torre said. "It is so exciting watching outside and in person. This is the first race I have had a chance to see her in person. We've been working every time she's run. Unfortunately, I should have been working today too."

Dual classic winner Funny Cide used the Sleepy Hollow S. as a springboard to a championship three-year-old season and undefeated juvenile Galloping Grocer will try and follow in his footsteps. An 11 3/4-length winner in his debut at the Spa Aug. 22, he added a first-level allowance going 6 1/2 furlongs at Belmont by 12 1/2 lengths Sept. 17. The heavy choice to take his stakes debut, he led at every call and cruised home under wraps to an easy victory. "This horse is awesome," winning trainer Dom Schettino said. "If he comes out of this race well, we'll go in the Remsen S. [GII, Nov. 27, Aqueduct]."

A winner first time out June 23 here at Belmont, Pelham Bay added a state-bred allowance victory to her tally Sept. 16, but regressed to finish fifth in the Joseph A. Gimma S. Oct. 3 and was equipped with blinkers this time. Showing good speed here, the dark bay moved three wide at the top of the stretch and drew off with authority. "She trained well with the blinkers, and I was pretty sure the distance would help," winning trainer Pat Kelly explained. Pelham Bay will likely make her next start in the East View S. for New York-breds Dec. 5 at Aqueduct.

Gathering Storm:

Making her stakes debut in today's $75,000 Miss Grillo S. is the regally bred My Typhoon (Ire) (Giant's Causeway), who posted an eye-catching maiden win at

Adam Coglianese

Saratoga Aug. 29. But trainer Bill Mott is waiting to see what his charge does here before going overboard. "She was on the lead and no one challenged her, but I guess what I saw her do looked pretty good," he acknowledged. "It would have been nice to see her behind horses, swoop by the leaders and to see what kind of acceleration she had, but it was a nice effort." Mott has a twist ahead for the daughter of Arc heroine Urban Sea: her next start will likely come in the GII Demoiselle S. Nov. 27 at Aqueduct on the main track. "That's my plan," he explained. "I'd like to run her on the turf and then wind up the season on the dirt. That would help determine what we did with her next year, whether we stay strictly on grass, or have the option of running on the dirt. She works really well on the dirt." The chestnut, a record-priced weanling in Europe and a half sister to dual Derby winner Galileo (Ire), is 8-5 on the morning line for the Miss Grillo. Jerry Bailey, who piloted the Live Oak colorbearer in her debut, has the mount once again.

Aclassysassylassy became the second filly to sweep the Florida Stallion Series with this authoritative success. The tiny grey broke her maiden by 12 lengths at first asking June 5, then ran second in the J J's Dream S. June 26. But she returned to capture the opening leg of the FSS--the Desert Vixen Aug. 14--and added the second leg in the Susan's Girl S. Sept. 6, and was odds-on to complete the sweep. The Florida-bred had a perfect trip in third, assumed command in the stretch and was never seriously threatened on her way to the wire. "She's not for sale," said grateful winning trainer David Vivian. "She got me out of hock. Six months ago I was borrowing money off my buddy to make the payroll, and that's no joke. That's how this business goes." Vivian indicated that his pride and joy might have a new challenge ahead of her. "She's bred for turf on both sides, so I am going to nominate her to the [Nov. 13 John Franks Juvenile Fillies Turf]," he said.

CHOOSE (c, 3, Arch--Harp Attack, by Carson City) showed plenty of potential while sprinting earlier this season, winning his debut at Gulfstream Mar. 6, then adding a Monmouth allowance May 31, but didn't take kindly when stretched out in distance. Sent off the 4-5 chalk in his first test around two turns at the Jersey Shore June 27, he finished eighth, then ran seventh in that track's Gill Long Branch Breeders' Cup S. last out July 17. Backed as the 2-1 lukewarm choice on the cut back, he vied for the early lead and dug in gamely while racing on his left lead to win by a nose over 5-2 chance Wild Card Deck (Souvenir Copy). Choose was a $42,000 FTMSEP yearling purchase. Lifetime Record: 5-3-0-0, $67,610.

After running second in a $40,000 maiden at Emerald Downs June 26, Personable Joe graduated in the Emerald Express S. July 17. He didn't have his usual punch when stretched out to a mile Aug. 29, finishing fourth in the WTBA Lads S., but bounced back to take the Captain Condo S. Sept. 19 while covering six furlongs in 1:09 in that Emerald Downs contest. Travelling south for this spot, the Washington-bred was far back early, but ranged up alongside favored Chips Are Down as they entered the stretch and got the better late of his gallant rival. "It wasn't our intention to come from that far behind," explained winning trainer Howard Belvoir. "He's won two stakes, so it's hard to place him anywhere, and I figured this would be the easiest one around."

Bibury Flyer has hit a rich vein of form this month. She was facing the starter for the third time in 13 days after winning the Listed Flame of Tara S. at The Curragh Oct. 10 and finishing fourth in Saturday's G2 Rockfel S. at Newmarket. Reserved in rear throughout the early stages by Sam Hitchcott, she was covered from the strong winds and heavy rain until asked to quicken passing the quarter pole. Grabbing the lead with a furlong remaining, she was driven out to assert as Wedding Party stayed on gamely to lead the chase. "She's been on the go from early on, but has done it well and keeps on improving," explained her rider. "She got through the mud better than the others and hit the front sooner than I would have liked."

Pursued by that rival all the way to the line, she found extra for her rider's urgings to maintain her advantage and record her first stakes score.

The Curragh, 3.30, Mdn, €19,280, 2yo, 7fT, 1:34.80, sf/hy.

+ CAPRAROLA (f, 2, Rahy--Grazia {GB} {SW-Eng & GSP-Ire, $149,150}, by Sharpo {GB}) was reserved in rear early before making steady progress passing halfway. Grinding her way to the front with 100 yards remaining, the 6-1 chance stayed on in the closing stages to beat Miss Kingsdale (Ire) (Bold Fact) by 1 1/2 lengths. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, €13,020. O/B-Cyril Humphris; T-John Oxx.

The Curragh, 4.30, Mdn, €16,388, 3yo/up, 1 1/4mT, 2:18.20, sf.

MESOPOTAMIA (IRE) (c, 3, Sadler's Wells--Bermuda Classic {Ire} {MGSW-Ire}, by Double Form {Ire}), sixth on debut in a Thurles maiden Sept. 30, broke well and disputed the early lead. Joined by stable companion Because (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) at the quarter pole, he rallied against the rail to regain the advantage with a furlong remaining before asserting for a neck score. The victor is a half to Tropical (GB) (Green Desert), Hwt. Older Mare-Ire at 5-6f, MGSW-Ire & GSP-Eng, $148,915; and Shake the Yoke (GB) (Caerleon), G1SW-Eng, MGSW & MG1SP-Fr, GSW & GISP-US, $701,620; and a full to Kournakova (Ire), SW-Ire & G1SP-Fr, $110,371. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, €11,747. O-Mrs Susan Magnier; B-Tower Bloodstock; T-A O'Brien.

BADEN-BADEN TOPPER TURNED BACK

Glad to be Fast (Ire) (Big Shuffle--Glad to be Here {Ire}, by Waajib {Ire}), who topped the two-day Baden-Baden Autumn Mixed Sale that concluded Friday, failed to pass his X-ray examinations and has been returned to his seller. Last year's G3 Premio Umbria winner had been purchased by BBA Germany, acting on behalf of the Maktoum family.
