A DAY OF FIRSTS IN THE LONE STAR STATE

On a sunsplashed afternoon which saw the state of Texas play host to the Breeders' Cup World Thoroughbred Championships for the first time in its history, there were many firsts of the equine and human variety during yesterday's eight-race program at Lone Star Park. Ashado (Saint Ballado) kicked off the day's festivities with an authoritative victory, becoming the first filly to win the GI Kentucky Oaks and the Breeders' Cup Distaff in the same season. Trainer Todd Pletcher was uncharacteristically demonstrative in cheering his filly to victory, and with good reason; she provided him with his first victory in a Breeders' Cup event.

For good measure, Pletcher made it two wins from 14 runners when Speightstown (Gone West) rallied up the inside to win the Breeders' Cup Sprint. Both of the aforementioned runners were bred by Aaron and Marie Jones, who become the third breeders to be represented by more than one winner on a single Breeders' Cup program. Midlantic-based conditioner Graham Motion also celebrated a successful afternoon in the Metroplex, highlighted by the upset victory of Better Talk Now (Talkin Man) in the Breeders' Cup Turf, who also gave up-and-coming rider Ramon Dominguez a first Breeders' Cup win. Motion was also represented by Filly & Mare Turf runner-up Film Maker (Dynaformer). Unheralded trainer Don Chatlos brought Singletary (Sultry Song) into the Breeders' Cup Mile off a single prep race, a third-place finish in the GII Oak Tree Breeders' Cup Mile, and, carrying the blue and orange colors of Billy Koch's Little Red Feather Racing, the four-year-old drove to a narrow victory. Julio Canani, who twice saddled winners of the Mile, proved that he can do it on the main track as well, sending out Sweet Catomine (Storm Cat) to a championship-caliber victory in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies. And for the first time, the Breeders' Cup Classic was won by a horse sired by the winner of a previous Classic. On the eve of Halloween, it is only appropriate that the jewel of the afternoon was won by a horse with a ghostly moniker.

ZAPPED!

Sure, there were some questions to be answered going into the $4-million Breeders' Cup Classic surrounding Stronach Stables' Ghostzapper (Awesome Again). Consider the critics silenced. The bay colt made the most of his inside draw, leading every step of the way for arguably the most impressive victory in the 21-year-history of the event. "This is as big a win as I've had in my career," said winning trainer Bobby Frankel, winning his first Classic after saddling the post-time favorite in each of the previous three years. "He ran the way I thought he would. This is a good horse--a really good horse." Classic cont p2

Bred To Be Any Kind

A half brother to the good sprinter City Zip, Ghostzapper began his career racing around one bend and found the winner's circle three times from his first four trips to the post before finishing a hard-charging third against the bias in the 2003 GI King's Bishop S. at Saratoga. He closed his sophomore season in style, winning the GI Vosburgh S. with a 116 Beyer Speed Figure, but trainer Bobby Frankel resisted the urge to go on to the Breeders' Cup, deciding instead to freshen him up for a four-year-old campaign. "Maybe he could be the winner of the Met Mile next year," Frankel said at the time. Ultimately the bar would be set much higher.

Pleasantly Perfect in '04

Feet problems delayed a return to action until mid-summer, but Ghostzapper celebrated Independence Day with a blowout success in the GII Tom Fool H., earning a 120 Beyer, the top sprint figure of the year. But in the back of his mind, Frankel thought of Ghostzapper as a two-turn animal. What he unveiled to a rain-soaked crowd on hand Aug. 21 at Monmouth Park for the GIII Philip Iselin H. was a two-turn monster, who hit 128 on the Beyer scale. In his most recent effort, Ghostzapper made it three-for-three on the year with a stirring victory in the nine-furlong GI Woodward S. Sept. 11, but still, how would he handle furlong number 10?

The Making of a Champion

Sent off the slight betting favorite, Ghostzapper set the pace in advance of GI Whitney H. winner Roses in May (Devil His Due) and the duo raced through sensible fractions of :23.42 and :47.00 for the half. Nearly inseparable with four furlongs to race, Ghostzapper began to separate himself from his shadow approaching the quarter pole and covered his final two panels in a freakishly fast :23.64 for the win, accomplished in track and stakes-record time.

Faith In Castellano Pays Off

Any rider would salivate at the chance to ride the likes of a Ghostzapper. A trainer could be easily swayed to make a switch to a "big-name" jock. But Bobby

Ghostzapper beneath a jubilant Javier Castellano Horsephotos

Frankel stayed with Javier Castellano and the commitment paid off yesterday. "I had all the confidence in the world," the winning jockey commented. "He broke well and I took him off the rail. There was no question he wouldn't go wire-to-wire. He's that sharp. Bobby said whatever you want to do with him, it's your job." For Castellano, the victory was particularly emotional. The Venezuela native, who celebrated his 27th birthday Oct. 23, was tabbed to ride Exogenous, one of the favorites in the 2001 Breeders' Cup Distaff. But the Unbridled filly flipped coming onto the track and later died as a result of her injuries.

The Defending Champ Checks In Third

Diamond A Racing Corp's Pleasantly Perfect (Pleasantly Colony), attempting to become the second horse to repeat in the Classic, endured a tough trip from the 12-hole en route to a third-place finish. "I couldn't ever get him settled and I was wide on both turns," said jockey Jerry Bailey. "The post position pretty much cost me. He showed a lot of guts, but you can't run 1 1/4 miles on the bridle like that. It just doesn't work." Tentative plans call for Pleasantly Perfect to contest the G1 Japan Cup Dirt Nov. 28.

Azeri Loses Little in Defeat

The decision to send Azeri (Jade Hunter) to the Classic was much maligned, but the six-year-old mare acquitted herself well, finishing fifth. "I thought she ran well," commented her trainer D. Wayne Lukas. "We took our shot, she ran hard and beat a lot of them that you guys [the media] liked."

BETTER WIN NOW

All the pre-race hype was on Kitten's Joy (El Prado {Ire}), but it was 27-1 longshot Better Talk Now (Talkin Man) who bumped and weaved his way to a 1 3/4-length win in yesterday's GI Breeders' Cup Turf S. The five-year-old gelding won the GI Sword Dancer Invitational H. over a yielding Saratoga course at the Turf's

1 1/2-mile marathon distance and faced similar conditions yesterday. Front-running Star Over the Bay (Cozzene) showed the way, leading by as many as five lengths, but the gray faded quickly when challenged nearing the final bend. Powerscourt (GB) (Sadler's Wells) moved strongly to the lead and looked a winner with a quarter-mile to run, but began to tire as he was passed by Better Talk Now and Kitten's Joy. After exchanging bumps with Kitten's Joy, Better Talk Now found another gear and drew off. "This is so wonderful," said winning trainer H. Graham Motion, who also saddled Film Maker to a runner-up finish in the F/M Turf. "It makes it even more special when you have a longshot and you get a win." As for what instructions he gave newcomer Ramon Dominguez, Motion said, "I didn't tell Ramon anything special. He knows this horse very well. And besides, he is starting to be a star; in fact he is a star in his own right now." Dominguez had to sweat out a claim of foul lodged by Kitten's Joy's rider John Velazquez before his first Breeders' Cup win was official. "It felt like an hour before they made it official," Dominguez said. "But it was more exciting after he went through all of that." Of his trip, the jockey added, "I didn't know how it was going to develop, but when I got to the five-eighths pole, I felt so good. I was getting good, everybody weakening and quickening and everybody going after Kitten's Joy and I said, 'If he is going to win, today is going to be the day.'" Joy Defeated Kitten's Joy was the heaviest favorite on the Breeders' Cup morning line, but the three-year-old had his three-race win streak broken in a roughly run stretch drive. Kitten's Joy looked to be moving to the outside of a tiring Powerscourt, but was cut off by a rallying Better Talk Now. "I had to claim foul," explained the favorite's jockey John Velazquez. "I thought he had a chance at the three-sixteenths pole, but the winner hit me pretty hard. He put me in a bad spot." But Velazquez admitted Kitten's Joy was not showing the acceleration of his recent races. "[Kitten's Joy] was having trouble with the ground, too," Velazquez said. "I slapped him a couple of times and he never quickened the way he usually does. When I got after him around the quarter-pole and I finally got him running, then he had to stop. It completely stopped our momentum. If we had had a clean trip, we would have won it."

ASHADO WINS THE DISTAFF

The defection of multiple champion Azeri left a hole in yesterday's Breeders' Cup Distaff and sophomore standout Ashado (Saint Ballado) ran right through it to post an authoritative 1 1/4-length victory. Saddled by Todd Pletcher, who was looking for his first Breeders' Cup victory, Ashado broke from the inside and rated behind dueling leaders. As the field bunched up turning for home, the dark bay filly forged between rivals and drew clear easily for a track-record setting win. "I had a perfect trip," admitted winning rider John Velazquez. "I tucked into position on the first turn and I just had to bide my time following the leaders. When Stellar Jayne went to the outside, a hole opened up for me and when I asked her, she was there for me." A jubilant Pletcher added, "I was shouting, 'Go, Johnny, Go. Go, Johnny Go.'" The Texas-born trainer felt Velazquez deserves credit for Ashado's winning trip. "We talked about strategy a little bit, but it was pretty obvious what he was going to have to do from that one spot," Pletcher said. "It opened up for her at the right time and she delivered. Johnny rode her the way he had to. He got a great spot and he got the job done." Ashado, coming off a win in the GII Cotillion H., in all likelihood wrapped up divisional honors as champion three-year-old filly.

Stirring Farewell for Storm Flag Flying

Storm Flag Flying (Storm Cat) zigged and zagged her way to a win in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies two years ago. Yesterday, in what was likely her final start, the filly came from well off the pace and overcame traffic in the stretch to be a strong runner-up. "I had a relatively good trip, but to win on a come-from-behind horse on this short stretch, you've got a lot of running to do all the way around," explained the filly's rider Jerry Bailey. "And if there is traffic, you can't let them run more. I didn't check. I just couldn't do everything I wanted to let her do. Inside the quarter-pole, I got clear, but had four or five lengths to make up, and Ashado was in front of me. I couldn't catch up."

Stellar Substitute for Lukas

D. Wayne Lukas sidestepped the Distaff with Azeri, but the Hall of Fame trainer was well-represented in the race by third-place finisher Stellar Jayne (Wild Rush). Last into the gate in the 11-horse field, the GI Gazelle S. winner was away slowly, made a five-wide move into the lane and loomed a threat before tiring to third in the final furlong. "I was pleased, in light of the way it unfolded," Lukas said. "We were last down the backstretch and that's not her style. She made a tremendous run to get up for third."

Island Fashion (Petionville), runner-up in the GI Big 'Cap, raced wide while chasing the pace and posed a major threat nearing the stretch, but couldn't sustain her rally and finished fifth with BC rookie jockey Kerwin John. "When I went down the backstretch, I was out four off the rail and that was a good spot," John said. "At the three-eighths pole, I thought I was home free. I had a lot of horse, but then she just kind of flattened out." SINGLETARY DELIVERS BIG SACK

Singletary (Sultry Song) was dismissed at odds of 16-1, but delivered a big blow taking yesterday's GI Breeders' Cup Mile S. at Lone Star Park by a half-length over 31-1 Antonius Pius (Danzig). Ridden by David

Singletary Horsephotos

Flores, the bay colt named for former Chicago Bears linebacker Mike Singletary sat a perfect trip in fifth, while GI Atto Mile S. winner Soaring Free (Smart Strike) set fractions of :24.03 and :48.65. Asked for run at the top of the stretch, Singletary accelerated impressively to take the lead, but was collared by European invader Antonius Pius in deep stretch. Urged repeatedly by a right-handed stick by jockey Jamie Spencer, the runner-up had dead aim on the winner, but couldn't get by after lugging in badly in deep stretch. "I had a great trip," winning jockey Flores said. "He broke good and we got a good spot. I just waited and waited and when I saw the light at the head of the stretch, I let him roll."

Killing 'Em With Consistency

Singletary made six attempts this season, all going one mile on the turf and was never worse than third.

Horsephotos

The bay colt kicked off his four-year-old season with a win in Santa Anita's Thunder Road H. Feb. 11 and followed up with a sharp second-place finish in that track's Gil Frank E. Kilroe Mile H. Mar. 6. Freshened up off that effort, he returned with a victory in the Gil

San Francisco Breeders' Cup Mile H. Apr. 24. Given a 4-1 chance in his next start, he finished second in the GI Shoemaker Breeders' Cup Mile S. May 31 and was given another vacation thereafter. Backed as the 3-2 chalk in his final prep, he rallied to finish third, beaten only a head by Musical Chimes (In Excess {Ire}) in the Gil Oak Tree Breeders' Cup Mile S. Oct. 9.

Can't Knock The Champ

Last year's Breeders' Cup Mile victress Six Perfections (Fr) (Celtic Swing {GB}) was winless in three times since defeating the boys last year, but turned in another solid effort yesterday, rallying to finish third. "She ran into trouble on the last turn," trainer Pascal Barry commented. "The jockey [Jerry Bailey] told me she was squeezed for room, but she made her usual good run at the end. This is her last race. She is being retired and will be bred to Storm Cat."

GI Lane's End Breeders' Futurity hero Consolidator (Storm Cat). Four wide entering the far turn, he was guided in one path on that bend, rallied approaching the eighth pole and outfought a game Afleet Alex for the victory. "This feels fabulous," said winning trainer Jeremy Noseda, saddling a horse in the Breeders' Cup for the first time in his career. "He's by [1998 Breeders' Cup Classic winner] Awesome Again and after his second start in England, I told [co-owner] Susan Roy, 'this could be a dirt horse.' He always trained better on artificial surface than on grass." While Roy will retain an interest in Wilko, the day-to-day training of the colt will be taken over by trainer Craig Dollase in California.

Roman Ruler Spins His Wheels

Fog City Stable's Roman Ruler (Fusaichi Pegasus), favored at 2-1 off his 4 1/2-length victory in the GII Norfolk S. at Santa Anita Oct. 3, raced in and among horses for much of the trip and offered no late response, finishing about four lengths back in fifth. "He was slipping the whole way and the horse was not handling the track," offered his rider, Corey Nakatani. "He's better than that. He never tried. His head was in the air the whole way."

Alex Gallant in Defeat

Cash Is King LLC's Afleet Alex ran a very game race in defeat. The bay stumbled leaving the starting gate and, making his first start at two turns, did not negotiate the first bend well. Widest of all up the backstretch, he raced wide on the far turn and into the stretch and was outfinished for the victory. "He ran a gutsy race," commented Tim Ritchey. "We were further back than we were planning to be. But that happens in racing. He showed his heart. I thought he was going to get there, but the other horse got him." Despite the defeat, Afleet Alex remains a leading contender for championship honors, having won his first four starts, including the GI Hopeful S. Aug. 21

SWEET VICTORY

Sweet Catomine (Storm Cat) came into yesterday's Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies shouldering great expectations and she proceeded to surpass those high hopes with a convincing 3 3/4-length victory over Balletto

Sweet Catomine
Horsephotos

(UAE) (Timber Country). Far back in seventh through crisp splits of :22.99, :46.44 and 1:10.69 for three quarters of a mile, the Feb. 14 filly launched her bid between horses leaving the far turn, but was forced to check sharply heading for home. Undeterred, the powerful bay swung out for the stretch drive, mowed down tiring leader Sis City (Slew City Slew) and drew off late to score by daylight over Balletto, in a time 2/5 of a second faster than the Juvenile Colts later on the card. "I was really in a good spot early," said winning jockey Corey Nakatani. "They are both really nice fillies and I was just lucky enough today." The runner-up, fresh off a 3/4-length win in the GI Frizette S. at Belmont Park Oct. 9, caused some of Sweet Catomine's traffic problems turning for home, and couldn't resist the winner. Five lengths back in second in her debut at Del Mar July 31, Sweet Catomine overcame a rough start next time and got up for a 3/4-length victory in the seven-furlong GI Del Mar Debutante Aug. 28. Granted a cleaner trip in her latest, the Oct. 2 GII Oak Leaf S., the filly cruised home an unchallenged four-length winner.

Class Triumphs

Prior to Saturday's race, trainer Julio Canani exuded confidence in his charge, indicating that everything was on track and all his star needed was some racing luck. Sweet Catomine proved that luck had little to do with it, encountering a few obstacles in the final furlong, but still coming out the dominant winner. "I got into a little trouble," said Nakatani, referring to the traffic encountered a furlong from home. "She is such a good filly, she was able to overcome it. Even though she's big, she's by Storm Cat, so she has a quick turn of foot. That sort of thing happens in a race like this."

On the Catwalk

Given little consideration at 10-1 to follow up with another win following a score in Keeneland's GII Darley Alcibiades S. Oct. 8, Runway Model (Petionville) showed plenty of class and determination in the stretch yesterday afternoon, but lacked the racing luck needed to get her the big prize and had to settle for third. "She got stopped in mid-stretch, but that's racing luck," said trainer Bernie Flint, who was hospitalized in September after suffering from a clot in his lungs. "I can't complain. She did a wonderful job coming back to get third. I'm really proud of her," he said, adding, "She looks like she wants to go farther and that makes me happy because we will be looking forward to the first Friday in May [Kentucky Oaks]."

OUIJA BOARD SPELLS F/M TURF WIN

The ultra-consistent Ouija Board (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) added another victory to her impressive resume with a sterling 1 1/2-length victory in yesterday's GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf. The three-year-old filly scored a double this past summer with wins in the G1

Ouija Board Horsephotos

English and G1 Irish Oaks and was a game third-place finisher against the boys in the Oct. 3 G1 Prix de l' Arc de Triomphe. Cross-entered in the Turf, connections decided to keep her against her own sex where she was heavily favored in a talented field of 12. Ouija Board ran in mid-pack as

Moscow Burning (Moscow

Ballet) was allowed to cut out pedestrian fractions of :26.42, :52.47 and 1:18.50. She was still on the lead after one mile in 1:42.36, but Ouija Board, the only sophomore in the field, came running as the field turned into the straight and charged to the front with authority to win going away. "I was very concerned the first half because the pace was so slow," admitted winning trainer Edward Dunlop. "She was coming from a 1 1/2-miles [in the Arc] back to 1 3/8 miles and I was afraid that slow pace might get her beat. [Jockey] Kieren [Fallon] rode a great race and had her in the right spot and the result was just what we wanted." Fallon was never concerned. "I was in the 'box' seat," the Irishman said. "That's where I like to be, with not too much ground to make up. This filly likes to follow a fast pace, but I knew there wouldn't be much pace here so we were saving ground on the rail. I was always confident. I knew she was the best filly and she proved herself." After Ouija Board's win, Dunlop provided racing fans with more good news. "She stays in training as a four-year-old," the Englishman said. Ouija Board has now won five of eight starts, including three Group 1 races. Film Maker Holds on For Second

Film Maker (Dynaformer), lightly regarded by the bettors, attended the pace and held on gamely late for second. Pleased with his filly's effort, trainer Graham Motion had nothing but praise for the competition. "All the credit in the world to the Europeans," he said. "They are very game and very sporting to come over and race against us." Of his filly, Motion added, "I believe my filly fit here today and I think she showed it."

Slow Burn

Moscow Burning (Moscow Ballet) set the pace before tiring to third in the Oct. 2 GI Flower Bowl Invitational H. She followed the same plan yesterday en route to a fourth-place finish and even jockey Jose Valdivia Jr. was surprised with the slow fractions he was allowed to set. "[Trainer] Jim [Cassidy] told me that if somebody wanted the lead, to let them go ahead, but if they didn't, for me to set my own pace," Valdivia explained. "We were just at a high gallop around there. When I hit the half-mile pole, I said, 'Come and catch me,' and I started to quicken away. But it was still soft out there and she was struggling with it."

PLETCHER, VELAZQUEZ-TAKE TWO

When hip 185 strode into the Keeneland sales pavilion on the final night of the 1999 July sale, pharmaceutical magnate Eugene Melnyk was extremely high on the chestnut colt by Gone West out of Canadian champion Silken Cat. His final bid of $2 million spoke volumes about his confidence in the colt he named Speightstown, after the first major center in Barbados, and he showed flashes of brilliance as a sophomore, winning three of seven starts while in the care of trainer Phil England. Plagued by injuries following a runner-up finish to City Zip in the 2001 GII Amsterdam S. at Saratoga, Speightstown was away from the races for 21 months, resurfacing in the barn of Todd Pletcher to defeat reigning Breeders' Cup Classic hero Volponi in a Belmont allowance, but he was sidelined yet again off a runner-up finish in the Jaipur H. at Belmont. If his career had been a series of more stops than starts to that point, his 2004 season represented a complete reversal.

Solid As a Rock at Six

There had been no better or consistent sprinter earlier this year than Speightstown, who posted four consecutive victories in a well-managed campaign, including a bust-out score in the GII Churchill Downs H. on Derby Day followed by an overpowering victory in the GII True North Breeders' Cup H. on Belmont Day. He made just one appearance at the summer race place, Saratoga, defeating Clock Stopper (Gilded Time) by 1 1/2 lengths in the GII A.G. Vanderbilt H. Aug. 14, but stubbed his toe when he missed the break and struggled home third to Pico Central (Brz) in the GI Vosburgh S. Oct. 2.

Securing a Championship?

In the absence of the Vosburgh winner, a victory from Speightstown would give him a leg up in the battle for year-end honors. A smoother dispatch this time around found the six-year-old in fourth, right behind a trio of early leaders, who ticked off fractions of :21.23 and :43.47. Sent through an opening at the rail turning for home, Speightstown burst clear and held off a late rush from GII Pat O'Brien BC H. winner Kela (Numerous) for a richly deserved first Grade I score. "Our strategy was to ride him away from there the first 100 yards and see where we landed," commented trainer Todd Pletcher, winning for the second time on the afternoon. "He didn't break as sharp as he normally does. But he was able to get position and the hole opened at the right time and he had something to give." The winning conditioner resisted talking up his charge for Eclipse consideration earlier in the week, preferring to let the horse do the talking. Pletcher was on the campaign trail following Speightstown's win yesterday. "The Eclipse Award will be an argued point," he said. "He and Pico Central have one loss, but I think if you want to be a champion, you have to show up when everyone else does."

Kela Flies Late to Cash

Kela, ridden for the first time by jockey Jerry Bailey, raced in 10th for the opening half mile, then was very wide into the lane before finishing best of all for second. "Jerry apologized for having to go wide, but that's the way the horse wants to run," commented trainer Mike Mitchell. "I was pleased. This horse is obviously a good horse. We ran our race and I am very happy."

Chilean champion Host was looking for his first U.S. win in his fifth North American outing. The chestnut was second to Del Mar Show in a Gulfstream turf allowance Feb. 5 and filled the runner-up spot again Feb.
 23 before shipping to New York, where he was third in the Apr. 3 Excelsior Breeders' Cup H. over the main track. Sidelined six months off that effort, he resurfaced with a troubled third-place effort over the Meadowlands turf in the Oct. 15 GIII Cliff Hanger H. Outrun early as L'Oiseau d'Argent (Silver Hawk) set an uncontested pace, Host swept to the outside for the stretch run and drove through the fog to win going away. "I told [jockey] Chris [De Carlo] to ride him like a good turf horse," said Tristan Barry, assistant to trainer Todd Pletcher. "He showed he is the good horse we all think he is." Evening Attire, favored in just the second turf start of his multi-million dollar career, was more forwardly placed than usual, rallied into the stretch and held gamely for second.

Midway Road earned a 123 Beyer Speed Figure in his 11 1/4-length GIII Ben Ali S. romp Apr. 22 and followed up with a sharp second in the GI Pimlico Special H. May 14. Freshened up off a dismal sixth in the GI Stephen Foster H. June 12, he returned with a 3 1/4-length $100,000 optional claimer tally at Saratoga Aug. 21. Placed on the shelf again after finishing sixth in the GI Woodward S. Sept. 11, he was made the second-choice here by the Keeneland faithful. The bay colt broke on top, set :23.70, :47.35 fractions and outbattled the GI Hollywood Gold Cup winner to the wire after getting bumped repeatedly by that rival through the stretch. "He really loves Keeneland," trainer Neil Howard said of Midway Road, who is unbeaten in three attempts at the Lexington racetrack. "He's got the right style for this track. We're going to make him eligible to everything and keep our options open, but we might try the [GII] Clark H. at Churchill Downs [Nov. 26]." Click for the brisnet.com chart.

As if trainer Bobby Frankel hadn't had enough fun on Breeders' Cup Saturday, Leroidesdesanimaux came running late to register his fourth U.S. victory from five starts. A maiden winner and Group 1 placed in his native Brazil, the chestnut made his stateside bow in a course-and-distance allowance Jan. 7, finishing fourth. Stretched out to a grassy mile for his next two, he won over this course Jan. 31 and Mar. 20, but was making his first appearance since setting a track record of 1:38 2/5 for his two-length victory in the 8 1/2-furlong GIII Inglewood H. at Hollywood Park May 1. Allowed to take up a stalking position as they sprinted down the hill, Leroidesdesanimaux was switched to the outside coming across the dirt, challenged for the lead three abreast in the stretch and pulled clear late despite lugging in. "He's been freshened up and they did an excellent job, as Mr. Frankel always does," said winning rider Jon Court. Added Sally Lundy, an assistant to Frankel, "We started him out last year in a race down the hill, so we felt this was a good place to try him again. Jon Court rode the horse the way he likes to be ridden. Click for the brisnet.com chart.

This race, which was formerly known as the Grand Criterion and run at Longchamp, has a rich tradition of producing top-flight performers and has produced Act One (GB) and the last two Arc winners Dalakhani (Ire) and Bago (Fr) since its switch to Saint-Cloud in 2001. Trainer Crique Head-Maarek, who won this twice in its former guise with Saint Cyrien (Fr) in 1982 and Okawango four years ago, saddles Early March here. It appeared that there was a lot left in the tank when he beat Stop Making Sense by 1 1/2 lengths in the G3 Prix la Rochette at Longchamp Sept. 9 and he duly delivered when splitting Oratorio (Ire) and Layman in a thrilling and high-class renewal of the G1 Grand Criterion back at that track last time Oct. 3. That effort came on an unseasonably fast surface and it remains to be seen whether he can handle this testing ground, which will not be an issue for the supplemented Cupid's Glory. He enters this contest in a rich vein of form, having powered to an impressive success in Newbury's mud in the G3 Horris Hill S. last time nine days ago. That convincing performance took his recent run to four-from-five, interrupted only by subsequent G1 Middle Park S. winner Ad Valorem when third in the Listed Blenheim S. over six furlongs at The Curragh Sept. 19. Helios Quercus provided trainer Cyriaque Diard with his first Group success when beating subsequent G3 Prix de Conde winner Musketier (Ger) and G3 Prix Thomas Bryon scorer Vatori (Fr) on his stakes bow in the G3 Prix des Chenes at Longchamp last time Sept. 18 and warrants respect, as does Merchant, who was fourth in the G1 Gran Criterion in Milan last time Oct. 17 and will relish the soft. Walk in the Park has also been supplemented, having looked a possible improver when winning a course-and-distance conditions event last time nine days ago.

A daughter of Grade II turf winner Yokama, Theater R.N. is the least experienced member of this octet, but at the same time has the most upside potential. A winner of her first two starts, the chestnut was fifth over this track and trip Jan. 8, then was sidelined and returned to take a July 21 Del Mar optional claimer by a length over Uraib. A Group 1 winner in her native Brazil, Lots of Hope has made just one start to date in this country, a runner-up finish to Good Student over the Del Mar turf course Sept. 2, and is another with license to improve.

Mellowes, stepping up from the claiming ranks for this start, won for $25,000 going 1 1/2 miles over the Arlington turf Sept. 16 and was coming off a second-place finish for a $25,000 at Kentucky Downs Sept. 27. Allowed to settle moderate fractions, the chestnut opened up a clear lead entering the straight and held sway late for the victory.

3rd-KEE, $52,060, Alw, NW2X, 3yo/up, a7f, 1:26 3/5, ft.

CHACHACHARLIE (c, 3, Indian Charlie--Daughter of Wolf, by Wolf Power {SAf}) was claimed for $30,000 out of a winning Churchill effort Apr. 25, then added a Turfway allowance off the layoff Sept. 30. Overlooked at odds of 10-1 here, he showed the way early through a half-mile in :44.99 and came home 5 1/4 lengths clear of even-money chalk Saratoga County (Valid Expectations). The winner, a half brother to Stiltsville (Sky Classic), SP, $171,654, was a $20,000 FTKOCT yearling acquisition. Lifetime Record: 8-4-2-0, $85,861. O-Mark Nickolas. B-Sy Baskin (KY). T-Rebecca Maker.

1st-KEE, $49,550, Msw, 2yo, f, a7f, 1:30 3/5, gd. CAROLINE'S GOLD (f, 2, Touch Gold--Sweet Damsel, by Turkoman) finished third at Turfway Sept. 22, then ran fourth over track and trip Oct. 16. Backed at odds of 5-2 to get it right this time, the $65,000 FTMSEP yearling purchase stayed close to the early leaders, took over in the lane and drew off to a 3 1/2-length decision. Holy Silver (Holy Bull), the 4-5 choice, completed the exacta. Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-1, $36,270. O-Bill & Vicki Poston. B-Winstar Farm, LLC (KY). T-Dale L Romans.

PRIMARY SUSPECT (c, 3, Hennessy--Deb's Honor {SW & GSP, $182,973}, by Affirmed) bounded home a 10 3/4-length winner in his debut at Monmouth July 17, but didn't care much for the Saratoga slop, finishing third as the 9-5 chalk behind subsequent GII Pennsylvania Derby winner Love of Money Aug. 12. He made amends for that effort posting a 4 1/2-length allowance tally over that track Sept. 6, then finished second in Philly Park's Gallant Bob H. last out Oct. 2. Hammered down to 1-2 by the Big A faithful, he dueled through early fractions of :22.18 and :44.55 and drew clear in the stretch to record a 3 3/4-length victory over Polish Rifle (Polish Numbers). *Babodana finished first but was disqualified and placed second.

In highly controversial circumstances, Sleeping Indian lost the bobber to Babodana before being awarded the race in the stewards' room. Off the mark at the first time of asking in a Windsor maiden Oct. 11, he is bred to appreciate this ground as a half brother to the stable's smart stakes performer Felicity (Ire). Aware of the strong bias of racing against the stands' side rail, jockey Jimmy Fortune kept him against the paint stalking the early pace before running out of room inside the final quarter. Switched wide for his challenge, he hooked up with Babodana and was judged to have been carried wide by that rival, who had his nose down when it mattered.
