Helios Quercus (Fr) (Diableneyev) found a golden rail and used it to maximum effect to power to a 1½-length win over Dubai Surprise (Ire) (King's Best) in the G1 Criterium International at Saint-Cloud yesterday. The colt gave the small yard of Cyriaque Diard and virtually unknown rider Alexandre Roussel a dream day when winning the G3 Prix des Chenes at Longchamp Sept. 18, but topped that with a stirring effort in the testing ground here.

Stalking the moderate pace set by the 11-10 pick Early March (Fr) (Dansili {GB}), he was full of run with nowhere to go inside the final quarter, but seized the initiative when the gap opened at the eighth pole and had enough staying power to hold on. "This has to be the greatest moment of my career," Diard said. "For a small provincial trainer like me, it is hard to be confident taking on the big stables and runners from abroad, but he has worked really well this week and I knew the soft ground would help." Criterium International cont. p2

BREEDERS' CUP BULLETIN

GHOSTZAPPER TO RETURN IN 2005

Trainer Bobby Frankel said yesterday that GI Breeders' Cup Classic hero Ghostzapper (Awesome Again) will be back next season. "We'll put him away for a while now and bring him back for the Met Mile in the spring," Frankel said. "Then there will be a summer campaign for him." Added owner Frank Stronach, "He is a very exciting horse and I think I owe it to the racing public to run him next year." But the colt will not be heading overseas to compete. "I will race him in America. I don't plan for any races outside the country," Stronach said. "We won't be going to Japan or Dubai with him." Will Ghostzapper be the reigning Horse of the Year when he returns in 2005? Frankel believes he should earn the title. "It's a no-brainer," he said, adding, "This horse--you can run him six furlongs or you can run him as far as you want. He'll go head-and-head or he'll come from 20 lengths out of it. And he doesn't carry his racetrack around with him. He's a dream horse and he might well be a super horse."

Seven of Eight to Race Again...

With only Breeders' Cup Sprint winner Speightstown (Gone West) slated for retirement, seven of the eight Breeders' Cup champs will race again in 2005. Trainer Don Chatlos Jr. will bid to take the Mile back-to-back with Singletary (Sultry Song). "We'll probably use the same pattern of races as this year," Chatlos said. "I think the one turn [mile] at Belmont will be to his advantage." The 22nd World Thoroughbred Championships will be held at Belmont Park next Oct. 29.

Azeri to Race Again?

Trainer D. Wayne Lukas said yesterday that 2002 Horse of the Year Azeri (Jade Hunter), fifth against the boys in the Classic, could have a few more races in her. He has yet to finalize a plan with owner Michael Paulson. "We haven't made a decision [on her future]," Lukas remarked. "She goes back to Churchill Downs [today]. There is a stake [GII Falls City H.] on Nov. 25--that's out there, but we didn't have much time to talk about it. She is scheduled to be bred in February, but I think there is a chance you will see her again." Lukas added that he was proud of the mare's Lone Star performance. "She beat a lot of the horses that [the media] liked," he said. "There were a lot of nice horses behind her." Another Classic also-ran, fourth-place finisher Perfect Drift (Dynaformer), will be racing at Churchill on the final weekend in November. "He came out of the race OK and he'll run in the [GII Clark H.] the day after Thanksgiving," trainer Murray Johnson said. "Then we'll give him a little rest and not let him down quite as much. We think we've maintained a good level of performance all year and we think he's running as well as he ever has. We'll be back to run again next year. We're very careful and take good care of him. He's had some minor foot problems, but that's all."

Not Quite Perfect...

Pleasantly Perfect (Pleasant Colony), who finished third in his Classic title defense, was scheduled to make one more start in the Nov. 27 G1 Japan Cup Dirt, but a minor hind ankle injury may prevent the overseas foray. "He came back a little jarred up behind," trainer Richard Mandella said. "It doesn't look like anything serious, but we'll run him through a scan." The six-year-old shipped back to California yesterday morning.

Eventful Day for Spencer...

Jockey Jamie Spencer relived his Lone Star Park misfortunes after stepping off the plane to ride a double at Leopardstown yesterday. Just beaten into second in the G1 Breeders' Cup Mile on Michael Tabor and Susan Magnier's Antonius Pius (Danzig), he offered an explanation for the errant stretch run of the Aidan O'Brien-trained sophomore. "I thought when I got the gap turning for home I'd definitely win and he usually goes right, but he copped the chute just before the furlong pole and went left," he said. "The reason he does it is because he's finding everything so easy, but he ran his heart out and by far the best run of his life. Some day, hopefully, I can produce him right on the line with no daylight." As for the G1 Breeders' Cup Turf third Powerscourt (GB) (Sadler's Wells), he offered, "He was slow away and I had to take my time for the first circuit and then they steadied right up and he traveled real strong. He had a couple of weeks off after the Irish Champion and it was maybe that and maybe me going a tad too soon, as he emptied inside the final furlong."

Helios Quercus was tackling stakes company for the first time when beating subsequent G3 Prix de Conde winner Musketier (Ger) and G3 Prix Thomas Bryon scorer Vatori (Fr) in the Prix des Chenes last time. That was labeled as a surprise, but he had shown smart form when capturing a conditions event at Deauville Aug. 11, one of four successes at that level this term, and made good on that promise in his first Group 1 attempt. Cyriaque Diard expects even bigger things from the dark bay next season. "We'll put him away now and bring him back with the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club [French Derby] in mind," he said. "I'm sure he'll stay further than a mile and the new distance of the race will be ideal." Theater R.N. opened her career with a maiden win on the turf at Santa Anita last October and added a Hollywood allowance score in November, but disappeared after finishing fifth in her next start, an optional claimer at Santa Anita Jan. 8. The chestnut filly made her return in an optional event at Del Mar July 21 and rallied well to beat Uraib (Mark of Esteem {Ire}) by a length. Making her stakes debut as a 5-1 shot, the Paulson-bred runner settled in fifth as first Fencelineneighbor (Wild Rush) and then Good Student cut out the fractions. The winner had 8 1/2 lengths to make up as they raced past the three-eighths pole and was still three lengths from the front when they hit the final furlong, but finished with determination to post the narrow score and give trainer Bobby Frankel a 1-2 finish. "I waited for the right time to go," winning jockey Rene Douglas said. "I asked her turning for home, because I only had to beat two fillies. I knew my filly would give me a good kick at the end. I timed it perfect and I knew I was going to get up." Added Humberto Ascanio, assistant to Frankel, "We were waiting for [an allowance race] to run her short...and Bobby said, 'no, no, wait,' and finally he said, 'let's step up and see how good she is.' I knew she was a good filly. I told Rene to ride her with confidence and he did a good job."

Sir Cherokee rallied from last place and blew past heavy favorite Fire Slam in mid-stretch to post the upset under jockey Calvin Borel. The four-year-old, a 55-1 victor of last year's GII Arkansas Derby, began his year with a stakes win at Sam Houston in January, but could manage only a pair of thirds in five subsequent stakes events, including his latest, the Slipton Fell H. at Mountaineer June 5. Returning from the five-month freshing at 6-1 odds, he was relaxed in sixth while racing well off the rail, powered to the front at the furlong marker and drew clear by daylight. Sophomore Fire Slam, making his first start since finishing sixth in the Aug. 28 GI King's Bishop S., was taken off the early pace of Cappuchino (Capote) and moved wide rounding the turn, but never posed a serious threat while besting longshot Slate Run by a neck.

A winner of her first two career starts on the main track, Finery had spent a year looking her her next victory while competing on the grass. The Virginia-bred had gone close in a pair of allowance contests this summer, finishing second to subsequent GSW Spotlight (GB) at Belmont July 23 and by a neck to Madeira Mist at Saratoga Aug. 27.

Stepped up to graded company in her next start, the bay settled for fifth in the GIII Noble Damsel H.

Sept. 25. She had her picture taken next out in a local allowance over yielding turf Oct. 17 and was the third choice here. Never far from the front, Finery angled to the outside in the stretch and finished up well to catch the game pacesetter Madeira Mist in the final strides.

"We had a good trip," said jockey Pablo Fragoso.

"She's a big filly and I thought as long as she handled the sharp turns, she'd be okay. Things opened up at the right time." Winning trainer Billy Turner indicated that the four-year-old could be back again in 2005.

"She's been very good on turf, but I guess that's in her pedigree with Lear Fan [her sire]," he said. "I'd like to run her next year, because I think she'll go 11 or 12 furlongs with no problem." Click for the brisnet chart.

After capturing his first two starts at Louisiana Downs last summer by a combined 33 1/4 lengths for trainer Cole Norman, Mass Media was well-beaten in the GII Lane's End Breeders Futurity last October and went to the sidelines. The dark bay returned June 23 to prevail in a hard-fought allowance score, but bounced with a seventh in the GII Amsterdam S. Aug. 7 at Saratoga. He came back to post a win at 12-1 in Belmont's Fly So Free S. Sept. 12, a victory which didn't earn him much respect at the windows here against his elders.

With Breeders' Cup Classic-winning jockey Javier Castellano in the irons, Mass Media went up to press Voodoo (Petionville) through a half in :44.60 before being asked for more. The three-year-old responded smartly, drawing off to win by daylight. "I've liked this horse for a long time," Castellano said. "He always works good in the mornings. He was stepping up today. I knew I had Voodoo turning for home. When I asked him, he took off." Trainer Lee Freedman has 2003 Melbourne Cup winner Makybe Diva right on song for her title defense on Tuesday, giving her a final gallop at Mornington Saturday that had jockey Glen Boss brimful of confidence. The six-year-old mare was off the board in her first three starts last autumn, but added the G1 Sydney Cup to her repertoire in April. She almost collared Elvstroem in her return, the Oct. 16 G1 Caulfield Cup, indicating she is ready for another crack at this prize. The 17-hand Distinction, who gives Sir Michael Stoute his first Australian runner, has awed the locals with his easy, loping stride and proven ability to stay the arduous trip. The five-year-old bay gelding's 20 owners have made the trip from England to cheer on the horse, the winner of the Listed Troy S. at Doncaster in his most recent outing. Trainer Dermot Weld has indicated he won't run four-time Irish St. Leger winner Vinnie Roe if he deems the track too firm when he walks the course Tuesday morning, but, if he goes, the grand stayer will take beating.

Fourth in this event two years ago, Vinnie Roe comes off a third straight win in the G1 Irish St Leger. Stablemate Media Puzzle has been plagued by tendon problems since winning the 2002 Melbourne Cup, sitting out 2003 and making just two off-the-board starts this campaign, but Weld told Racing Post, "He improves when he comes out here." G3 September S. winner Mamool, 15th in the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe last time, and Razkalla, who came back after a six-month layoff to be fifth in a Listed stakes at Newmarket Oct. 1, represent Godolphin, which has found the Cup an elusive target. Post time for the race, Eastern Standard Time, is 11:10 p.m. Monday.

will move from Florida's Double Diamond Farm to Taylor Made Stallion Division in Nicholasville, Kentucky, according to a press release. No stud fee has yet been announced for the 11-year-old, who will stand as the property of a syndicate as a Taylor Made/WinStar venture. The bay follows Kris S. and Saint Ballado as stallions who initially made their mark in Florida before relocating to Kentucky with the help of Taylor Made. "We see similar attributes in Northern Afleet that we saw in Kris S. and Saint Ballado," said Ben Taylor. "They had both sired exceptional Grade I winners early on in their careers, and their statistics at the time of their relocation very closely resembled those of Northern Afleet. From relatively small numbers, his performance is nothing short of outstanding." From three crops to race, Northern Afleet has sired 54 winners and six stakes winners, headlined by GI Hopeful S. hero Afleet Alex. He has also sired the GISP Ice Wynnd Fire and MGSP Unforgettable Max.

DERBY FEVER (c, 3, Arch--Mariamme, by Verbatim), a $310,000 KESEEP yearling, had put in two solid efforts previously on dirt, finishing third in his July 31 career bow at the Spa and fourth, beaten 1 1/2 lengths, at Belmont Sept. 18. But the dark bay was well beaten on the turf Oct. 10, and was adding blinkers in his return to the main track here. Miss George, who has been campaigned largely over sprints on the turf, had shown a liking for this polytrack surface when rattling up four course successes over seven furlongs. Her last victory had come Mar. 17, after which she had suffered 14 defeats, the latest of which came when second in a handicap on Wolverhampton's new polytrack surface Oct. 18. Proving her stamina for the extra panel here, she raced in rear before being unleashed inside the final quarter by Dane O'Neill and wresting her first stakes success in the final 50 yards.

Making smooth progress on the outside at the top of the straight, he led with 200 yards remaining before asserting under a hand ride to comfortably beat Bogside Dancer (GB) (Groom Dancer) by 1 1/2 lengths. "He won snug in the end and he was a little bit green," jockey Jamie Spencer commented. "I always had them covered and knew I was going to win after two furlongs, so he could have a nice future." Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, €13,020.

★ FRANCE ★

Yesterday's Results:

Saint-Cloud, 1.40, Cond, €23,000, 3yo, 6fT, 1:16.40, vsf.

VILLADOLIDE (FR) (f, 3, Anabaa--Vassia, by Machiavellian), the winner of last season's G3 Prix d'Arenberg and a last time fifth in the Listed Prix de Bonneval at Chantilly Oct. 1, broke well from the gate and soon led in this one. Headed inside the final quarter, the 6-5 choice rallied gamely to regain the lead at the eighth pole and was driven out to hold the late flourish of Sweet Salsa (Fr) (Highest Honor {Fr}) by a short head.

Lifetime Record: GSW-Fr, 10-3-1-0, €73,000. O-Ghislaine Head; B-Alec & Ghislaine Head; T-Criquette Head-Maarek.

Saint-Cloud, 2.10, Cond, €19,000, 2yo, 1mT, 1:47.10, vsf.

SOUPCON (FR) (c, 2, Enrique {GB}--Topira {Fr}, by Pistolet Bleu {Ire}), fifth in both previous starts at Chantilly Sept. 8 and here Oct. 7, tracked the pacesetters in fifth until making notable headway in early stretch. Launching his bid approaching the final furlong, the near 10-1 chance was ridden out in the latter stages to deny the persistent Reve de Paix (GB) (Selkirk) by a half length. He becomes the fifth winner for his freshman sire (by Baratheia {Ire}). Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-0, €12,050.

O-Claude Cohen; B-Claude Cohen & Elie Lellouche; T-Elie Lellouche.
