

MAKYBE DIVA AGAIN

Marvellous stayer Makybe Diva (GB) (Desert King {Ire}) became the first mare in history to capture back-to-back Melbourne Cups with a dominant victory in driving rain at Flemington Tuesday. Makybe Diva won the race for now Hong Kong-based conditioner David Hall last year at A$8 but she was sensationally backed from A$4.20 into A$3.60 on track at her second attempt, and trainer Lee Freedman and jockey Glen Boss seemed overwhelmed by relief when the powerfully built mare rocketed away from a determined Vinnie Roe (Ire) (Definite Article {GB}) to win by 1 1/4 lengths. "It was like having a present under the tree and not being able to open it until 3:15 p.m.," Freedman grinned. "She is one of the greatest mares to race in the country," he added. "Glen had her a long way back, but he saved a lot of ground. It was a top ride, but I would not have expected anything less."

ROCK THE VOTE

Aqueduct's Election Day feature, the GIII Nashua S., went to Fox Hill Farm's Rockport Harbor (Unbridled's Song), who galloped away from his rivals to remain unbeaten. With the same jockey/trainer combination as Smarty Jones--Stewart Elliott and John Servis--the two-year-old romped in a pair of starts at Philly Park, by 8 3/4 lengths in his Sept. 12 debut and by 7 1/2 lengths in an allowance test one month later. Breaking alertly, the blaze-faced grey went up to show the way, then kicked on for home at the top of the stretch. He glided home under minimal encouragement. "I think now we will start looking for a long-term goal and getting him ready for next year," Servis said. "He needs to put some weight on and he has a lot of growing up to do."

Anatomy of a Melbourne Cup Repeat (cont. from p1)

Makybe Diva was tucked away 12th of 24 on the fence, with Vinnie Roe on her outside. While Zazzman (Aus) (Distinctly North) and Caulfield Cup victor Elvstroem (Aus) (Danehill) set a solid pace, Boss crept stealthily forward and as the field swung for home, Boss let the mighty mare have her head and she accelerated on the rails to leave all but an extraordinarily dogged Vinnie Roe in her wake. Boss, renowned for his high-spirited jubilation returning to the winners' stall, had tears streaming down his face and broke down again during the presentation. "What a mighty mare, she gave me the ride of my life," he said. "At the half mile I felt like I was 'in the zone' again, it was a flashback to last year, I was so confident and relaxed, in a little world of my own. It was a walk in the park," he said.

Makybe Diva's the Boss

"I'm not a legend, don't go down that path," said Boss in response to a media question. "She's a legend. I'm just the lucky bastard who gets to sit on her back. There was a lot of pressure, she was the defending champion, the favorite. All the people who do all the work back at the stables, I get the accolades, but they are the ones...I just sit there and steer in the right direction." Makybe Diva, only the second horse in 143 years to win the Sydney-Melbourne Cup double in the same year, has earnings of A$7,177,135, making her the second highest earning mare in Australasia after Sunline (NZ) (A$11,690,679). Freedman has also won the Melbourne Cup with Tawrrific in 1989, Subzero in 1992 and Doriemus in 1995. Freedman's long-held dream to race a horse in the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe is fast crystallizing, but he must convince laid-back owner Tony Santic. "It's been a dream of mine to race a horse in the Arc, but I've never had one good enough," Freedman said. "But this mare is right out of the box. She's the perfect horse for a race like the Arc."

Conditions Hamper Also Rans

While Media Puzzle (Theatrical {Ire}) struggled in the soft going to finish 12th, Vinnie Roe appeared as though he could have sustained the fight for several more furlongs. Trainer Dermot Weld said he would consider returning with Vinnie Roe in 2005. "He had everything in his favor today and he ran a superb race. I thought he might win a furlong out. We might even come back next year," he said. Distinction (Ire) (Danehill)'s rider Darren Beadman said the soft conditions were the undoing of his mount. "He's a big-striding horse and didn't let down on the track," Beadman commented. "It might have been a completely different story on a firmer track." Frankie Dettori said Mamool (Ire) (In the Wings {GB}), who sustained a fracture on a firm track in the race last year, failed to stay, while Godolphin stablemate Razkalla (Caerleon)'s rider Kerrin McEvoy said: "He tried to go with Vinnie Roe but didn't let down on the ground." Damien Oliver rode Distinction in trackwork before opting to stick with 12th placed Media Puzzle, but said: "He couldn't go in the ground. He copped a bump from Mamool on the turn when I tried to track behind Vinnie Roe. From there, his race was over."

Melbourne Cup Betting Sets Record

Makybe Diva, at 5-2, the shortest-priced favorite to win the Melbourne Cup in 50 years, inspired a record A$126-million betting splurge at Australian TABs Tuesday, Australian Associated Press reported. The previous record was A$117 million, set when the mare won the Cup last year.

Summer Raven had been hoping to take a break from graded stakes company, but when her connections realized that this contest was coming up short, she took her chances and came away with a front-running tally. After running second to Sense of Style in a Saratoga maiden Aug. 1, the bay graduated with a hard-fought effort at the Spa Aug. 29. Back at Belmont, she ran sixth in Sense of Style's GI Matron S. Sept. 19 and third in the GIII Astarita S. Oct. 17. Jockey Stewart Elliott hustled Summer Raven to the front, where she clipped off honest fractions while tracked intently by heavily favored Salute. Emboldened on the lead, the Todd Pletcher trainee shrugged off the chalk and opened up in the stretch. "I have got to give this trophy to Andrew Byrnes [NYRA stakes coordinator], because I wasn't planning on running," Pletcher said. "He called down a couple days ahead of time and said this race was coming real light. We were going to go into an allowance race Thursday." As for Salute, her rider John Velazquez said, "Perfect trip. I thought I had the filly on the lead, but my filly didn't punch the way I thought she should. AMERICAN POST RETIRED Khalid Abdullah's American Post (GB) (Bering {GB}--Wells Fargo {GB}, by Sadler's Wells) has been retired due to a problem with a hind hock, according to Racing Post. Last year's impressive G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere and G1 Racing Post Trophy winner won the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains (French 2000 Guineas) in dramatic circumstances at Longchamp May 16. Having looked booked for a place when Antonius Pius swept past inside the final eighth, he found himself back in front at the line after that rival collided with the rail in the final 25 yards. He subsequently finished sixth in the G1 Epsom Derby June 5 and disappointed when 10th on his return from a summer break in the G1 Prix du Moulin de Longchamp on his final start Sept. 5. "He was a very good horse and had rather a special, but appealing personality," conditioner Criquelette Head-Maarek told the Post. Regular jockey Richard Hughes added, "He was a very versatile horse with a lot of speed. He didn't quite get home in the Derby and was an exceptional horse when he had his ground." It is yet to be decided where American Post, who won six of his nine starts and £495,759 in total prizemoney, will stand in 2005.

DAM OF WILKO TO SELL AT TATTERSALLS

Native Roots (Ire) (Indian Ridge {Ire}), the dam of Breeders' Cup Juvenile winner Wilko (Awesome Again) will sell at the upcoming Tattersalls December Sale. The seven-year-old mare is in foal to G1 Dubai World Cup winner Street Cry (Ire). Wilko, the first foal of Native Roots, was multiple group placed in England before his upset victory in Saturday's Juvenile. Trained in England by Jeremy Nosedo, the colt will join the California stable of Craig Dollase for owners Paul Reddam and Paul and Susan Roy. Native Roots, who has a filly foal by Talk is Money (Deputy Minister), is one of 22 fillies and mares to be consigned to the December Sale by Jamie Railton. The Tattersalls December Sale will run from Nov. 22 through Dec. 2.

retired from racing and will enter stud at Brereton C. Jones' Airdrie Stud. The $325,000 Keeneland September yearling purchase will stand for a fee of $10,000 live foal guarantee. "I could not be more excited about having another brilliantly fast son of Gone West," Jones said.

"Add to his brilliance the fact that his multiple graded dam is by Seattle Slew and that his first three dams are all graded/group stakes winners and I believe his chance for sire success is exceptionally strong." The five-year-old retires with six wins from 13 starts and $253,239 in earnings. He was last seen finishing ninth in the GIII Phoenix Breeders' Cup S. Oct. 8.

THIRD-CROP SIRES: AWESOME

The torch has been passed. The great sires of the last thirty years, now nearly all dead or retired; Sadler's Wells, 24 next year, the only one still left--and Storm Cat, from the next generation, will be 22. This isn't news: what is news is that a new group of Young Turks is emerging in Kentucky. They may well not dominate like the great sires of the Golden Age of the last thirty years--I don't see anybody about with 15%, 18% SW; these days, 10% SW is probably a seriously good sire. So the standards do appear to be changing, and the top sires probably won't be as dominant as the last group was--but new top sires there are, and at least five of them are the top five North American third-crop sires by cumulative progeny earnings.

This group of sires has two crops of three-year-olds, last year's and this year's, including both years' Kentucky Derby (and Preakness) winners. Here's a short synopsis of what the top five have accomplished so far (ranked by cumulative progeny earnings, excluding Japan):

1. Elusive Quality: from 203 foals (3 crops) of racing age, 109 winners (54%), $14 2/3-million in earnings, 16 SW (8%), 22 SH (11%), including 2004 Kentucky Derby and Preakness winner Smarty Jones. Entering stud fee: $10,000; 2005 stud fee: $100,000.
2. Grand Slam: from 322 foals (he and the other Ashford sire, Tale of the Cat, have over 300 foals in three crops; the other three top five sires have between 185-215), 135 winners (42%), $12-million in progeny earnings, 15 SW (4.7%), 37 SH (11.5%), including 2003 BC Sprint winner Cajun Beat. Entering stud fee: $30,000; 2005 stud fee: $85,000.
3. Tale Of The Cat: from 316 foals, 149 winners (47%), $11.4-million earnings, 13 SW (4%), 30 SH (9.5%); Champion Sire of 2-Year-Olds 2003. Entering stud fee: $25,000; 2005 stud fee: $65,000.

4. Distorted Humor: from 185 foals, 94 winners (51%), $10.6-million in purses, 17 SW (9%), 24 SH (13%), including 2003 Kentucky Derby and Preakness winner Funny Cide. Entering stud fee: $12,500; 2005 stud fee: $50,000.

5. Awesome Again: from 215 foals, 67 winners (31%), now $9.85-million in progeny earnings, 7 SW (3%), 13 SH (6%), two Breeders Cup winners Saturday, including Classic winner Ghostzapper, whose 124 Beyer is probably the most reliable top Beyer figure of the decade (he had run a 128 on a wet-fast track--which can sometimes lead to off-the-graph high figures--at Monmouth in the Iselin); that conservatively equates to a Timeform 136, in my view (which makes the Beyer 128 a Timeform 140 if you take it at face value).

As you'll see from the accompanying table, Awesome Again's fifth-place progeny earnings total of just under $10-million is miles clear of the rest of the third-crop sires, led by now Japanese-based Wild Rush ($7.1-million) and Ten Most Wanted's sire, Deputy Commander. The elite group has broken away from the pack, but it's worth remembering that this 'pack' also includes the likes of Touch Gold, the excellent young Stormy Atlantic, new Kentucky sire Northern Afleet, and the rapidly improving grass sire, Arch. As promising as they all are, though, it's the top five who have been responsible for two Kentucky Derby winners in two tries, and this year's probable Horse Of The Year, Ghostzapper, and likely Champion Three-Year-Old, Smarty Jones.

So, statistically, what these sires are scoring are what need to now be regarded as current industry standards, not what the greats of the past achieved. I'm not saying become totally relativist, but we must be practical. So far these five sires have notched up 68 SW and 126 SH from 1,241 foals -- 5.5% SW/foals, and 10.2% stakes horses/foals. I think these percentages will improve slightly, because two-year-old crops win and place in stakes at only half the rate of older crops; therefore, sires with fewer total crops have a higher percentage of two-year-olds, who have lower stakes percentages, among their total foals.

“SMART STRIKE —
 THE VERY DEFINITION OF A ‘RACEHORSE’ SIRE.”

— Owner•Breeder, October 2004

Oppenheim cont.

As they have more crops, their percentages of stakes horses therefore gradually increases. The same is true of the percentage of winners/foals statistic. This has traditionally been over 60% for Top 50 North American sires, though undoubtedly the increase in foal crop sizes is contributing to these lower percentages, too. But, at the end of the day, it's those handful of top-class performers who sell the seasons, which is why the stud fees of these top five sires are all at least 2 1/2 times what they started out at: it's none of those percentages, really. It's the names like Funny Cide, Smarty Jones, and Ghostzapper--that's what sells those seasons.

The Wilko Lesson...

Amid all this excitement, the forgotten horse of great significance is Wilko, Awesome Again's first winner on the day, author of a massive upset in the BC Juvenile. This needs to be looked at very closely. I read in yesterday's Racing Post that the European handicapper was going to promote him to equal second European two-year-old colt, along with G1 National S. winner Dubawi. Forget it. European champion two-year-old colt Shamardal hammered Wilko in the G3 Vintage S. at Goodwood at the end of July: he beat him 2 1/2 lengths that day, which is about 6 'pounds', though he won very easily--Raceform actually rated him 11 pounds above Wilko. But let's be conservative (just this once): the six pounds is about right, because Wilko spent most of the rest of his British campaign finishing right there with other horses Shamardal hammered in the Dewhurst.

But Wilko did establish two very important virtues during his campaign, which attracted the attention of bloodstock agent Jamie McCalmont, on the hunt for California owner Paul Reddam: Wilko had plenty of seasoning--always a very important ingredient in American racing--and, in the last of his ten British races for owner Susan Roy and trainer Jereny Nosedo, he also demonstrated he could stay on. This was in the one-mile G2 Royal Lodge S. at Ascot, September 25. He got in a world of trouble in the straight, and when he finally extricated himself, Perfectperformance had flown and Scandinavia was chugging on by; nonetheless, a few observers noted Wilko was staying on again, quite determinedly.

The rest is now history. McCalmont thought the colt had shown enough to justify further action on his part, and the plan--to run in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile--began to take shape. Reddam bought majority interest, they enlisted jockey Dettori, and off they went to Texas. The colt was by a son of Deputy Minister, he had seasoning, he stayed on--all in all, they felt he justified his place in what turned out to be a small, eight-horse field, though they thought a placing was the best they could expect. But guess what? Nothing else stayed, jockey Dettori saw them all dying in front of him, and they just kept going. But Wilko's not all of a sudden the equal second-best colt in Europe: he's exactly what he was before he went. The race went in a Beyer 98 (= Timeform 110), and all that happened was that all the fancied American colts didn't get the trip. So we learn a lot from Wilko's win, in my view--including that American owners and trainers who are running scared over the BC Juvenile and are afraid of 'over-racing' their two-year-olds in general, are not doing themselves any favors. There are a lot of opportunities being missed, I don't doubt. Wilko's connections were smart, and lucky--but they were also brave, and sometimes that's what can make the difference, too. But don't let anybody tell you Wilko's a 122; not on this planet he's not; not yet, anyway. He was just a very well-placed horse who proved you've got to get the trip.

The Vocabulary Lesson...

Now it's time for the vocabulary lesson. This has to do with the word "accurate", as in, when John Ferguson released the Darley stud fees last week, his accompanying document began with the following assertion: "Common perception is that the market is around 15% down on last year. This is not accurate." Whoa, Nelly. This IS accurate. What John meant to say is "This isn't the whole story," or "But, if we break the overall figures down into deciles, they tell a somewhat different story," something like that. But the figures he was referring to WERE accurate: the gross for the 2,168 yearlings sold at Goffs and Tattersalls was down 15% from the corresponding sales in 2003. That is a fact, and it is accurate. By all means, break the figures down further, qualify them, whatever: but, please, as Mark Twain put it in his great essay, "Fenimore Cooper's Literary Offences"--"Use the right word, not its second cousin."

The chestnut immediately went to the front, shook free of an early challenge and drew off to score by five lengths over 4-5 Datsyuk (Stephen Got Even). The winner was a $60,000 KEENOV weanling, a $175,000 FTKJUL and $210,000 FTFEB two-year-old. Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-2, $36,800. O-Paraneck Stable. B-Elser Farms Corp (KY). T-Jennifer Pedersen.

HONORABLE MAN (g, 5, Honor Grades--Simoom {MSW, $128,880}, by Rahy) didn't make it to the races until this past May, when he placed in a pair of starts at Pimlico. Following a brief break, the $80,000 FTSAUG yearling romped by 6 3/4 lengths Aug. 13 and added an allowance win two weeks later before missing by a nose at Delaware Sept. 26. The Maryland-bred got back on track Oct. 10 at Pimlico, taking his route debut by 4 3/4 lengths, but was 3-1 in this spot. Allowed to settle into stride, the bay launched his run on the outside approaching the stretch and pulled away under his own steam for a seven-length success. Lifetime Record: 7-4-2-1, $81,830. ★ CENTRAL ★

Roses in May Possible for Clark:

Roses in May (Devil His Due), second behind Ghostzapper in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic, could run next in the GII Clark H. at Churchill Downs Nov. 26, according to trainer Dale Romans. "There's no reason not to, he's doing good," Romans said. "We'll wait and see how he trains. It's a little quick back, but he seems like he came out of it fine. He's the second best horse in the country this year, maybe in the world." The trainer added that Kitten's Joy (El Prado {Ire}) would be going to the farm for some deserved rest after a long season.

Pyramid Peak to Nuckols Farm:

Pyramid Peak (Mt. Livermore--Way It Should Be, by Stalwart) will stand the 2005 breeding season at Nuckols Farm in Kentucky for a fee of $2,500 live foal. As a sire, Pyramid Peak has produced a total of 11 winners/placed from 17 starters in his first two crops, including graded stakes winner Piramidal. The runner-up in the 1995 GI Travers S. and GI Haskell Invitational H. posted wins in the Baltimore Breeders' Cup and GII Flamingo S. and retired with $871,559 in earnings.

Cat Alert finished second in each of her last two starts, both over the turf at Bay Meadows. After missing by three lengths in the Autumn Leaves H. Sept. 4, she came up a nose short in the Hillsborough H. Sept. 25. The favorite controlled things on the front end and was never seriously threatened by any of her three foes.

QUINTONS GOLD RUSH (c, 3, Wild Rush--Hollywood Gold, by Mr. Prospector) earned a spot in the Kentucky Derby starting gate following his success in the GII Coolmore Lexington S. Apr. 17, but was eased in the Run for the Roses and spent a few months on the sidelines. He made a dismal return when last by 42 3/4 lengths in the GII Indiana Derby Oct. 2, but nevertheless was 3-5 in this spot. The flashy chestnut cruised along through solid fractions and was kept busy by Pat Day for a 2 3/4-length defeat of Interwoven (Honour and Glory). Quintons Gold Rush was a $60,000 OBSMAR two-year-old acquisition. Lifetime Record: GSW, 8-3-1-0, $329,835. O-Padua Stables & Jay Manoogian. B-Toyomi Omiya (KY). T-Steven M Asmussen.

The Sangster homebred didn't race again until Oct. 9, when she missed by a head in a seven-furlong allowance at Keeneland. Back against maidens at Keeneland Oct. 8, the chestnut faltered as the favorite, finishing a distant seventh, but was backed down to 1-2 here despite the black mark. After a slow start, the bay reached contention with a five-wide move, collared pacesetter Royal Snooze (Royal Anthem) in the stretch and powered through the slop for a six-length decision over his rival. Don't Get Mad is the fifth winner from the first crop of his sire (by A.P. Indy). Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $29,395. O-B Wayne Hughes. B-Milton & Beth Hendry (KY). T-Paul J McGee.

Leading from the outset, he had to dig deep to repel the strong challenge of the even-money pick Distant Way (Distant View), but responded to Edmondo Botti's every call to hold on by a head, with five lengths separating this duo from the third. Lifetime Record: MSW & GSP-Ity, 12 starts, 6 wins, 5 places, €197,880.
