STORM TEAL TOPS FRIDAY SESSION

Former Kentucky Governor Brereton C. Jones added to his broodmare band yesterday at Keeneland, going to a session-best $270,000 for Storm Teal (Storm Bird) from the consignment of Hill 'n' Dale Sales Agency. The 12-year-old mare, carrying a foal by Hill 'n' Dale stallion El Corredor, has been well represented this year at the races, as she is the dam of Gold Storm (Seeking the Gold), winner of the Arlington

Gold Storm Horsephotos

Breeders' Cup Sprint and a close second to Champali in the GIII Phoenix Breeders' Cup S. on the opening day of the Keeneland meet Oct. 8. "She's a beautiful mare, physically," Jones said of his purchase. "She comes from a family with great depth and great quality. It's one thing to have good black type up close, but I also think it's important to have good black type down in the family, because that means that the tree's got deep roots and generally those are bigger, stronger, healthier trees." Jones indicated that the mare will be bred next season to his newest Airdrie stallion, GI Florida Derby winner Friends Lake. "I think she fits him beautifully. Physically she fits him and pedigree-wise she fits him. She actually fits several of our stallions." Jones has had a successful sale on the consigning end of things as well, highlighted by the sale of Got Koko for $1.5 million and Be Happy My Love, the Formal Gold half sister to Smarty Jones, for $360,000.

Tale of a Top Weanling...

Hip 1742, a colt by Tale of the Cat out of the Phone Trick mare Love U Fran, was knocked down to Twin Spires Inc. for a winning bid of $180,000 to rank as the top-selling weanling during yesterday's session. The Mar. 10 foal is void of any black type under his first two dams, but more than made up for that with his attractive looks. "He was a top physical, good size and tons of scope," commented Joe Seitz of Brookdale Sales, who consigned the bay. "I thought he really stood out for Book 3. He's by a really successful hot sire right now. He won the beauty contest for the day. He was the complete package and a real athlete." Ashford Stud's Tale of the Cat has had another very solid season, highlighted by Grade I winner Lion Heart as well as other graded stakes winners My Trusty Cat and Catboat. A weanling son of his out of Dayclear brought $330,000 during Thursday's fourth session while his graded-stakes winning daughter Be Gentle sold for $2.1 million carrying a foal by A.P. Indy.

Gross Sales Surpass Last Year's Total For November...

As hip 1786 left the ring after selling for $125,000, the Keeneland November sale has already surpassed last year's overall gross receipts. At the end of the fifth session, total sales amounted to $236,323,000; last year's total for 11 days of bidding was $236,070,900. "Anytime you do that, you have to be extremely delighted," said Keeneland Director of Sales Geoffrey Russell. "The market has certainly increased and it's bigger at the top end, as has been reflected in September and now November." Friday's clearance rate climbed back into the upper 70s after Thursday buy-backs were surprisingly in excess of 30 percent. "That's what we expected to happen," Russell said, referring to the more manageable RNA rate. "People seem to have made an adjustment. As far as Thursday goes, some have pointed out that there were more foals selling than mares and that would have had an effect." Yesterday's activity at Keeneland showed small decreases in gross receipts and average while the median rose by 12.5 percent versus the corresponding session in 2003.

Bluewater Colt Sells With Fanfare...

A colt by Cherokee Run out of 1989 GI Arlington-Washington Lassie S. winner Trumpet's Blare (Vice Regent) brought a final bid of $175,000 during Friday's session. "He's just a beautiful colt," said Meg Levy, whose Bluewater Sales LLC consigned the Mar. 7 foal. "This has been a great sales mare. The family's been moving a little bit lately and it looks like [Trumpet Blare's] daughters are going to be producers." Bluewater also sold a colt by A.P. Indy out of Trumpet's Blare which brought $1.3 million from John Ferguson at the 2000 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Sale and on Wednesday sold her daughter Call to the Post (Mt. Livermore) for $220,000 carrying a foal by More Than Ready. The latter is already the dam of Elke (Dixie Union), a two-year-old filly of this season who has placed three times in stakes company. Levy said the choice of Cherokee Run was an easy one. "It's a perfect mating for the mare," she explained. "She's a really big, strong Vice Regent mare with a lot of bone and we thought Cherokee Run fit her well. He really stood out in this book because he was out of a good racemare and he was an excellent physical." Trumpet's Blare is owned by Levy's father-in-law Robert Levy, who raced the likes of Housebuster, Bet Twice and Smoke Glacken. Trumpet's Blare is currently in foal to another Darley at Jonabell stallion, E Dubai.

Hill 'n' Dale Goes Back to Back...

Following the profitable sale of Storm Teal just one hip earlier, John Sikura's Hill 'n' Dale Sales Agency scored again, this time with the half brother to Gold Storm by Capote. "He's a very nice colt," Sikura commented. "Capote has been pretty quiet and I think he might have made a little more if he were by a different sire." The bay colt also hails from the immediate family of GISW Danger's Hour. Referring to the sale of Storm Teal herself, Sikura commented, "She's the dam of a current stakes winner and she produced a foal last year that sold very well as a yearling this year. She's a good young producer, well bred and had a good foal by her side." Storm Teal's foal of 2003, a filly by El Corredor, was purchased by Hal Earnhardt for $150,000 at this year's Keeneland September sale.

NOVEMBER GROSS SURPASSES 2003 TOTAL

Given that the composition of November mixed catalogues varies much more than September yearlings usually do, it's hard to be dogmatic about exactly how much this November market is actually up. Clearly the imbalance in the supply and demand equation which plagued the European yearling sales is not in evidence here. The Thursday session, which closed out Book 2, was dominated by weanlings; perhaps for that reason, I don't know, the RNA's shot up to 32 percent, the number sold and gross dropped 10 percent from the corresponding session last year, while the average was again virtually dead even, down $8, or one one-hundredth of one percent (.01 percent).

In fact, in three of Keeneland's first four sessions (combining the average for the two sessions of Book 1), the average was virtually dead even with last year, though the number sold and gross were up. But Wednesday was massively up, by almost 60 percent in gross and over 40 percent in average, so, through the first four days, Keeneland had posted gains of 7 percent in number sold, 19 percent in gross, and 11 percent in average.

It's all one big November market, though, really, and after a buoyant Fasig sale which featured Smarty Jones's dam, I'll Get Along, and Toccet, here are the comparative figures with the November sales' first five days last year:

2004: 1,115 sold--$241,977,300 gross--$217,020 average
2003: 913 sold--$191,564,000 gross--$209,818 average
Number sold: + 22%--Gross: + 26%--Average: + 3%

Adding in Fasig's small, 59-horse sale last year, the entire November total 2003 saw 2,675 sales grossing $241,230,900. After Thursday's session this year, just 1,115 horses have surpassed that total. That's pretty impressive. After last year's first Thursday, the remaining 1,760 sales grossed about $50-million.

There's one more day this year, so even if the rest of the sale just averages about $30,000 like it did last year, we can expect Keeneland November 2004 to finish up around $275-million, which would be nearly a $40-million (or about 18 percent) increase in gross--plus Fasig added another $15-million increase over 2003. But I expect prices will run ahead of last year's; Keeneland could well finish up at $285-million, and with Fasig's $20-million added in, that would propel the November market above the $300-million mark once again. However it finishes up though, the fact that last year's gross has already been surpassed after five days makes pretty good reading--especially considering there was no Thoroughbred Corp dispersal this year, and no mares above $5-million (three last year). What there has been, though, is a 50 percent increase in 7-figure horses: 23 at $1-million plus at Keeneland last year, 35 this year, plus the two at Fasig.

The usual contingent of first-year sires have continued to sell well, as usual: Johannesburg ($141,417, 12 sold of 16 offered) held a slight lead over Came Home ($137,000, just five sold of 10 offered) and Orientate (five of seven, $135,000) after Book 2. Among covering sires, the big three are Empire Maker (6/6 - $654,167), Mineshaft (8/11 - $608,125), and Vindication (16/16 - $592,188). Sky Mesa (7/9 - $220,714) and Aldebaran (10/10 - $154,500) also figure prominently among first-year covering sires. But nobody had a bigger sale than Smarty Jones' sire, Elusive Quality. Including Smarty's dam, 21 mares in-foal to Elusive Quality went through the ring in the first five days; 20 sold, averaging $660,500. His 2004 foals were bred on a $30,000 stud fee, up from $10,000 up till then: 12 of them were offered, eight sold, averaging $306,875.

RICK LITTRELL DEAD Viking Stud owner Rick Littrell died Thursday night at a hospital in Lexington, Kentucky, according to The Blood-Horse. He was 50 years old. Littrell had suffered from complications of diabetes in recent years. His death was attributed to a blood clot in his lung. Along with his wife, Pam, Littrell operated Viking Stud and was a regular consignor to auctions. "He was a quiet guy that worked behind the scenes but was a great horseman," bloodstock agent Mike Akers told The Blood-Horse. "He really had a passion for the business. He was the kind of guy that you watched work his way up the hard way. He worked in Northern Kentucky for Bill Melton, later worked for Don Sucher [at Echo Valley Farm], and then began leasing his own place. He had developed a good client base, had become a top consignor, and was diversifying into buying mares of his own." Funeral arrangements have not yet been announced.

EYE DAZZLER (f, 3, Boundary--Dancing With Deb, by Cox's Ridge) showed promise at two, running third in the Gi Matron S. and second in the GIII Tempted S., and looked like she was going to make good after opening 2004 with an allowance victory at Gulfstream Park Jan. 9. But the dark bay filly disappeared after finishing second by a head in the Feb. 7 GII Davona Dale S., returning to be fifth in a Belmont allowance test Oct. 15. The 9-5 second choice in her second start back, she pressed a moderate pace, put a head in front after six furlongs and held off 7-5 chalk Strategy (A.P. Indy) for a 1 1/4-length score. The 1/2 to Wild Current (Wild Again), MSP, $273,218, relished the return to the main track here, taking over after six furlongs and galloping away from her rivals to cross the finish line 12 3/4 lengths to the good at odds of 9-2. Gulfstream to Offer One-Turn Mile Races:

The backstretch chute at Gulfstream Park is being extended 150 feet, which will allow the track to card one-turn mile races for the first time in its 66-year history. The renovation is scheduled to be completed before the 2005 meet opens Jan. 3. "Our horsemen and our fans told us that they wanted mile races, and we did, too," Gulfstream President and General Manager Scott Savin said. "We've been working on this for some time now and we're pleased that everything is in place for it to happen. It's a winner all around."

SGA NOVEMBER SALE - DAY ONE

Two lots shared the highest-priced honors at the opening session of the SGA November Sale in Milan yesterday, each attaining €52,000. Hip 33, a yearling filly by Observatory, was the first to reach that figure when knocked down to trainer Bruno Grizzetti. Offered by Agricola Patrizia, the half-sister to dual Listed-placed Norina (GB) is out of the Rainbow Quest mare Nuit Indienne (GB), herself a half-sister to Northern Crystal (GB). The price was matched later when S.A.R.L.'s Hip 126b was secured by Scuderia Siba's Emilio Balzarini on behalf of Azienda Agricola Antezzate. The In the Wings (GB) yearling colt, out of the dual G3-placed Faribole (Ire) (Esprit du Nord), is a half-brother to Listed Noel Murless S. winner Hilbre Island (GB) (Halling). The latter pedigree was updated yesterday afternoon when the dam's half-brother, Solsiste (GB) (Vettori {Ire}), won a conditions race at Maisons-Laffitte [see "Euro Breeders' Edition"]. Balzarini was also responsible for the acquisition of a further three lots and his total outlay of €115,500 accounted for over 20 percent of the session's €562,000 gross, whilst 76 lots sold for an average €7,395. Today's final session at the Settimo Milanese complex begins at 11 a.m. The full catalogue can be viewed at www.anacpurosangue.com.
