THE BRITISH ARE COMING

Paul Revere warned us back in 1775 and his words held true in the GII Mrs. Revere S. at Churchill Downs yesterday. British-bred River Belle (GB) (Lahib), ridden by six-time champion British champion jockey Kieren Fallon, outfinished Lenatarese (Broad Brush) and Cape Town Lass (Horse Chestnut {SAf}) to take the three-way photo and her first U.S. stakes.

River Belle (ctr) 4 Footed Fotos

The chestnut won the July 26 G3 Princess Margaret S. in her native country, but was off the board in her next two and headed across the Atlantic. She opened her American account with a Saratoga allowance tally Aug. 7 and was coming off third-place finishes in the Sept. 12 GIII Boiling Springs H. and Oct. 16 GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup. The crowd's choice at Churchill, River Belle settled in fourth, angled outside for the stretch drive and was all out to get the job done. ORIENTATE COLT TOPS AT KEENELAND

A colt from the first crop of GI Breeders' Cup Sprint winner and champion sprinter Orientate (Mt. Livermore) attracted a final bid of $250,000 to top the sixth day of bidding at the Keeneland November Breeding Stock sale in Lexington. Consigned by Taylor Made Sales Agency as agent, the bay is out of Haleys Fury (Ogygian), a half sister to the dam of European two-year-old champion Mujahid. "He was just an awesome specimen and he was about as close to perfect as you can get," commented Duncan Taylor. "He was well-balanced, had a great hip and shoulder, and that's what everybody is looking for." Taylor indicated that the horse had been out of his stall "about 80 times" and was seen multiple times by several would-be buyers. The winning bidder was listed as Athens Woods (Donovan Bradshaw). A representative for the operation indicated that the purchase was for a group of pinhookers who wished to remain anonymous. The afternoon was characterized by spirited bidding, especially for foals by first-crop stallions. "There are still a lot of people here," Taylor remarked. "But I think the way the market is now and the kind of crowd that's here...I think it shows the strength of the horse business." Keeneland cont. p3

Classic Endeavor lost 13 straight races as he dropped through the ranks and was finally claimed for $35,000 after finishing sixth at Belmont in June, but he has blossomed since changing hands. The dark bay beat $50,000 claimers for trainer Scott Lake July 18, then was haltered again after winning at that level--despite drifting badly late--at Saratoga Aug. 1. Given a short break by new trainer Rick Dutrow Jr., the Florida-bred made it three in a row with a front-running score in an optional claimer at Belmont Sept. 29 and was the third choice taking on graded stakes foes here. Classic Endeavor went right to the lead and played 'catch me if you can,' which they couldn't, easily holding Colita at bay. "After his last race, when he got out so bad, my doctor found some muscle tears in his hind end and he fixed them up," Dutrow said. "I had no question that he was going to turn into a different horse and we saw that today." Click for the brisnet.com chart. For the video race replay, select: broadband or modem.

The champion older mare in Canada last season, One For Rose captured three of her first five outings this term, including back-to-back stakes at Woodbine in August and September. The dark bay was shipped to Keeneland for the Oct. 10 GI Overbrook Spinster S. and was not disgraced, finishing fourth behind Azeri, then returned to her home track and was second to Raylene in an allowance test Oct. 24. The odds-on choice to turn the tables on that rival here, she went right to the lead, was allowed to cut out easy fractions and galloped away from the field to win as much the best. "She was left alone on the lead and...persevered like the champion she is," jockey Emile Ramsammy said. "She's a helluva mare. She enjoys the game, she likes running and she loves Woodbine. What more can I say?" Added trainer Sid Attard, "She's been good to us and she gives you 100 percent all the time." As for what's next, Attard said, "We'll probably give her six weeks off, because she has been running really hard." Click for the brisnet.com chart.

a 1 1/4-length winner. A rank outsider vs. stakes foes off that effort, the bay colt ignored the board and led the field from gate to wire to win handily. "[Trainer Roger Attfield] told me in the paddock, when the gates open to do whatever I thought was right," winning jockey Gerry Olguin said. "[Ablo] was off the bridle really nicely and really comfortably and, when I asked him at the head of the lane, he responded very well." As for the future, Attfield, who was picking up his third Coronation Futurity, remarked, "I'm going to take him down to Florida next week and give him some time off. I'll bring him back at the beginning of next year and aim him for Keeneland and then to [Woodbine]."

Wheeling and Dealing...

Dr. Philip McCarthy, who sold Helsinki (GB) and her Unbridled's Song foal on Wednesday, signed the tickets on the top two broodmares Saturday afternoon. Bidding on behalf of partner Fred Herrick's Brilliant Stables Inc., McCarthy went to $200,000 to acquire seven-year-old Gran Seniorita (El Gran Senor) from the Taylor Made consignment. The mare's page has been especially active of late. Gran Seniorita is the dam of Gilded Gold (Gilded Time), a three-year-old filly who was second in the Polly's Jet S. at Delaware Park prior to winning an Arlington allowance Sept. 3. Under the second dam, Dr. Kashnikow (El Gran Senor) has added a victory in the Oct. 15 Gill Cliff Hanger H. at the Meadowlands since the catalogue. Gran Seniorita sold carrying a full sibling to Gilded Gold. "The Gilded Time [filly] is doing great and Dr. Kashnikow has won another stakes race," McCarthy commented. "El Gran Senor is an great broodmare sire and that's just the kind of mare we're looking for." He added to his shopping cart with the purchase of hip 1972, the winning four-year-old filly Blues in Seattle (Seattle Slew). From the consignment of Mill Ridge Sales, agent, the bay hails from the family of Beal Street Blues and Dixieland Brass and sold on a May 6 cover to Pleasant Tap.

Lewis Dispersal Proves Profitable...

The decision by Bob and Beverly Lewis to disperse the bulk of their breeding stock at Keeneland not only provided a financial windfall for the sales company, but also gave the bidding public a rare opportunity to buy into some very fashionable pedigrees. The portion of the Lewis dispersal handled by Craig and Holly Bandoroff's Denali Stud realized gross receipts of over $11 million for eight horses sold. Miraloma was withdrawn from the sale. John Moynihan, who has served the Lewises for many years as bloodstock advisor, explained their approach to the sales. "When we go in, we try to buy great looking yearlings," he commented. "It shows that it pays off, at least a little bit. When you buy that great looking horse, these commercial breeders come back and want that kind of quality and we've been rewarded by that." Moynihan was reluctant to accept undue credit for the success at Keeneland and hastened to point out that it was more the fruits of a team effort. "Whether it's me, Bob Baffert or Wayne Lukas, all three of us put the most emphasis on conformation," he said. "Then when you bring pedigree into it, Santa Catarina, for example, obviously she's going to cost more. Fortunately, she also carried over her quality to the races and it worked out well." According to Moynihan, the stars aligned at this sale. "We're very pleased," he said. "It looks like we caught a good market. This is probably the best market I've seen in the short term. There's a lot of enthusiasm here. There are people buying mares, there's people that are upgrading their programs, and I think a lot of that came together at this sale and boosted everything." A smaller draft of Lewis foals will be sold in the remaining books.

Ipi Tombe: A Modern Classic

Chapter 3 Ipi Conquers the World

After her tour de force in South Africa resulted in a championship, Ipi went to Dubai over the winter to rest up from her 3-year-old season and to prepare for her US campaign. She started three times in Dubai and won each race easily.

She smashed a field of males as the highweight in the Listed Stakes Al Fahidi Fort, setting a new course record (watch the video). She shattered the stakes record in the 1 1/8 mile G3 Jebel Hatta in 1:48.62, again as the highweight in a field of males (video).

Ipi Tombe stole the show on Dubai World Cup day 2003. As the only filly in the Dubai Duty Free, she won in a blistering time of 1:47.61, a new track record, her second in Dubai (video). She would be named Dubai's Horse of the Year.

Shipped to America, she won the GIII Locust Grove H. at Churchill as the highweight under a hand ride (video).

Next Up: Chapter 4 --
Pedigree Explains Success

Epilogue: IPI TOMBE is now in foal to SADLER'S WELLS and will be offered Nov. 30 at Tattersalls.

4th-AQU, $41,000, Msw, (S), 2yo, 6f, 1:13, my. POWER LINK (g, 2, Successful Appeal--Linking, by Saint Ballado) got off to a slow start in his debut and ran an uncompetitive seventh at Saratoga Aug. 23. Making amends this time as the 2-1 choice, the Broman homebred moved to the front while running well within himself and drew clear by 6 1/2 lengths under the line. Gold and Roses (Gold Token) was second. This marks the 15th winner for his freshman sire (by Valid Appeal). Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $24,805.

Homeister Calls It Quits:

Jockey Rosemary Homeister Jr. announced Friday that she has retired from riding. A native of South Florida, the 32-year-old horsewoman grew up on the Calder backstretch, where her mother trained horses. She took out her jockey's license in 1992 and earned the Eclipse Award as the country's top apprentice that year. She led the standings at Hialeah in 2001 and made it to Churchill Downs on the first Saturday in May, piloting Supah Blitz in the 2003 Kentucky Derby. She retires with 1,726 career victories. "I made the decision this summer to retire at the end of the Tropical Park meet," Homeister said. "Then a lot of things started happening at one time and I started thinking more about my future. I want to start a family." Married to jockey Jose Ferrer, Homeister took her realtor's test in March and will now embark on a new career as a real estate agent.

Supah Blitz, moved to Doug O'Neill's barn in California over the summer, responded to the switch by winning the Gil Del Mar Breeders' Cup H. Sept. 5. Third by two lengths in the Gil Goodwood Breeders' Cup H. Oct. 2, he returned to the East Coast for this one as the well-supported chalk. Content to stalk four lengths off the free-running Hear No Evil, the four-year-old was given the go-ahead by jockey Jerry Bailey and promptly moved up with a four-wide bid leaving the turn. Hear No Evil proved a game foe down the lane, but Supah Blitz inched away in the final furlong. "They told me that this horse is kind of lazy, but not to worry because when you get into him he's there for you," said Bailey afterwards. "You just have to let him know when it's time to run." O'Neill said that the Jan. 29 Sunshine Millions would be the next target for Supah Blitz.

Aclassysassylassy brought an impressive four-for-five record into this race and added another stakes tally to her resume with ease. The gray broke her maiden by 12 lengths at Calder in June, then, after a hiccup in the form of a runner-up finish to Punch Appeal in the JJ's Dream S. in late June, she rattled off three straight stakes wins. In her most recent, she captured the restricted My Dear Girl S. in her route bow at Calder Oct. 23 and was sent to post odds-on scaling back here. Just off the leaders early while racing under cover, the favorite ranged up to take command in upper stretch and came home well clear of Running Bobcats. "I was concerned when she blew out in :53 1/5 [Nov. 11]," admitted winning trainer Dave Vivian. "I thought it was too slow, but her exercise rider said 'Don't Worry, she's fine.' I've learned not to second-guess him. I want to run her on the turf, but that will have to wait until next year." Vivian indicated Aclassysassylassy would make on more start this year in the Dec. 4 Three Ring S. at Calder.

Hailing from Todd Pletcher's barn, Flamenco had put together an impressive record in New York, finishing second and third in the GII Sanford S. and GI Hopeful S., respectively, before winning the Cowdin S. at Belmont Oct. 17 in his most recent trip to post. The northern invader, made the heavy chalk by Calder's faithful, broke awkwardly, but recovered quickly and was soon up to shadow the pacesetter. Taking command at the quarter pole, he edged away under Jerry Bailey's drive, winning by four. The trip to Calder came after trainer Todd Pletcher was forced to call an audible in the colt's schedule. "We had planned to run him in the [GI] Breeders' Futurity to see if he could make the [GI] Breeders' Cup, but he missed five days of training when he ran a temperature," Pletcher explained. "We didn't want to take the chance. As a Florida-bred, this race fit nicely." As for future plans, Pletcher commented, "I'll have to talk to [Peachtree owner] John Fort, but I think the Sunshine Millions at Gulfstream [Jan. 29] might be next and probably not a start in between."

Weigelia took the GIII Carry Back S. over course and distance in July, then ran admirably when third in the Aug. 7 GII Amsterdam S. and second in the Aug. 28 GI King's Bishop S. Offered a bit of a breather, he came back to disappoint as the 7-5 favorite in the Perryville S. at Keeneland Oct. 14, running third by 7 1/2 lengths. Returning to Calder--where he'd won four of eight before this one--the bay saved ground in third as F J's Pace (Gallant Prospector) lived up to his name through a sharp half in :44.98. Moved wide for his stretch bid, Weigelia tackled Onebadshark in the final eighth and was under a stiff drive to get past that one. "He's just a good horse and gets better every day," said the winner's trainer, Manny Azpura. "We're going to try him on the turf [in the Pete Axthelm S. Dec. 11]."

Wando's victories in the Queen's Plate, Prince of Wales S. and Breeders' S. earned him Canada's Triple Crown last year--along with Horse of the Year honors--but his four-year-old campaign had yielded only two wins in five starts. A grassy allowance victor at Keeneland in April, the handsome chestnut failed to hit the board in three successive turf efforts before finding the winner's circle in his return to the main track, a Woodbine allowance Oct. 31. Sent off the pick here to make it two straight on the dirt, he relaxed off the pace of Twisted Wit, then forged to the lead to win handily.

Rich In Spirit earned her diploma over the Arlington sod Aug. 26, then added a Keeneland allowance last out Oct. 15. Looking to remain perfect on the grass here, she raced in midpack, was angled out in the stretch by Javier Castellano and rallied to post her first stakes victory. "She'll go back to the farm [Glen Hill Farm in Ocala]," winning trainer Tom Proctor said. "I don't have any horses down here for the winter yet, but we'll bring her back for the Tropical Oaks on Jan. 1, probably 10 days ahead of time."

Turk's Ransom graduated over the Calder turf last out Oct. 18 and was bet down as the third-choice in his first attempt versus winners. Kept close to the leaders while racing along the hedge, he was steadied by Cornelio Velasquez down the backstretch, but overcame the adversity rallying late to post the victory. "I knew he had the pedigree for the turf, but he caught a soft course the first time and didn't handle it," winning trainer David Vivian Jr. commented. "This is my first stakes win. The chestnut found room along the rail two furlongs out and scampered on through, notching the 4 1/4-length victory as pace factor Gold Zapper (Gold Case) held on for second. After two straight victories this summer, Tap Day was given a chance in the GI Haskell Invitational H. Aug. 8, but could do no better than seventh. Bet down to 2-1 in his next outing, he turned in a second-place finish in the Lamplighter S. Aug. 28. Making his first start at the Big M last time, he didn't disappoint, reporting home a 3 1/4-length vicor in an $85,000 optional claimer Oct. 9. Backed as the chalk this time, the dark bay settled in fifth as Sonny and Rose cut out the early fractions. Asked for run while racing four wide on the far turn, Tap Day rallied strongly and outgamed Separato to post a narrow victory. "I had to start riding him at the half-mile pole and I didn't stop," winning rider Jose Velez Jr. said. "The other horse was starting to come back on me on the inside, but at the wire I thought I held on."

Perfect Drift Sharp for Clark:

Tuning up for the Nov. 26 GII Clark H. at Churchill Downs, Perfect Drift (Dynaformer) zipped a half mile in a bullet :45.80 at the Trackside Louisville training center yesterday. "He's maintained himself good all year," trainer Murray Johnson said. "If he gives as good an effort [in the Clark] as he has the rest of the year, he should be good enough to win it." Clark candidate Eurosilver (Unbridled's Song) also breezed yesterday, going five-eighths in 1:00.40.

Hoosier Racing Suspended After Dispute with Jocks:

Citing concerns over the safety of the inner rail, the majority of the Hoosier Park jockey colony refused to ride Friday night, forcing the cancellation of the card. Hoosier officials then made the decision to suspend racing until there are enough riders willing to compete. Chief Steward Gary Wilfert met with the jockeys to inform them of this decision and to ask them to vacate the premises, but 10 riders refused to leave and had to be escorted off the track by the local police. Also ejected was Albert Fiss, vice president of the Jockey's Guild. He and regional rep Darrell Haire were in the jocks' room Friday, and Hoosier Park President Rick Moore stated that he felt it was the visit by the Guild members, and not a problem with the inner rail, that was behind the jockeys' refusal to ride. "We believe the presence of Albert Fiss and Darrell Haire in our jockeys' quarters [Friday] evening points to the real reason that jockeys elected not to ride," Moore said. "The Guild has publicly supported the actions of Kentucky-based jockeys who refused to accept mounts earlier this week at Churchill Downs. Based on Friday's events, we have reason to believe that jockeys were encouraged by Guild representatives, and refused to ride at the direction of the Guild." More than a dozen riders were banned for the remainder of the Churchill meet after a protest over medical insurance, but there have been enough jockeys willing to ride that there have been no cancellations at that track. Hoosier was also able to field enough riders to get back in action last night.

Anziyan Royalty had been knocking on the door of stakes success, finishing second in the Sept. 11 P.D. Shepherd S. at Fairplex and third in the restricted Cal Cup Classic H. at Santa Anita Oct. 16. Finally crossing the threshold here, the bay loomed a threatening presence as the leaders sped through a half in :44.26. Given his head as they entered the stretch, he locked up with the game Lava Man at the furlong marker and outslugged that foe to the wire.

Golden Arrow had not visited the winner's circle since taking an optional claimer at Santa Anita more than 13 months ago, but had been on the board in three of his five prior outings this season. Second to repeat winner Stage Player, with The Tin Man third, in an optional claimer at Del Mar Aug. 12, the dark bay returned after a two-month freshening to be fourth in a one-mile optional test at Santa Anita Oct. 15. The five-year-old was favored to improve in his second start back and did just that, setting all the pace and hanging on gamely to take it by a nose.

3rd-HOL, $37,000, Alw, NW1X, (S), 2yo, 7f, 1:22 3/5, ft. UNCLE DENNY (c, 2, In Excess {Ire}--Gift to the World, by His Majesty), a $140,000 CALAUG yearling acquisition, handled state bred in his Santa Anita debut Oct. 7 and was the even-money choice to notch his first allowance condition here. Sent to the front by jockey Rene Douglas, the half brother to Infinite Faith (Dixieland Band), SP, $226,540, dueled through a half mile in :44 and was forced to steady in mid stretch when 3-1 Lucky J.H. (Cee's Tizzy) ducked in. Uncle Denny fought on gamely to finish second, beaten a head by the latter, but was awarded the victory via disqualification. Lifetime Record: 2-2-0-0, $30,800. TIZAWOOD (f, 3, Cee's Tizzy--Lucky Marge, by Something Lucky) couldn't recover from a tardy start in her Oct. 9 bow over Santa Anita's main oval and trailed home sixth. Working well in the mornings in preparation for her initial turf try, the Pacifica West homebred showed a good turn of foot after lagging behind early, chasing down favored Glamour Cat (Tale of the Cat) and denying that rival by three-parts of a length. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $27,700.
