YONAGUSKA HITS IT BIG AT KEENELAND

Three of the top five weanlings at yesterday's session of the Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale in Lexington were from the first crop of Yonaguska (Cherokee Run). The winner of five stakes, including the GI Hopeful, the six-year-old stands at Vinery Kentucky. His 2003 stud fee was $10,000, but the progeny of his first season were selling for a serious profit Sunday. Leading the session was a weanling colt out of Jetazelle (Tri Jet). Consigned by his breeder, Clarkland Farm, the half-brother to stakes winner Runaway Jet (Runaway Groom) was purchased for $210,000 by Bloodstock Services. Clarkland bought the dam for $55,000 at the 2002 Keeneland January Sale. The day's second-highest priced weanling was also by Yonaguska. The bay filly, first foal of SW Gate Swinger (Wayne's Crane), was consigned by breeder Moreau Bloodstock International, who purchased the mare for $15,000 at the '01 Keeneland January Sale. The weanling was bought for $200,000 by Vinery Stables.

Two for Two Hundred K...

The two top-selling mares Sunday each brought $200,000. The first, SP Totally Crafty (Crafty Prospector), is from the family of Canadian champion Magic Code. The five-year-old, in foal to Posse, was bought by Pennston Farm Inc, from the Taylor Made Sales Agency consignment. Her yearling half-brother by Unbridled's Song brought $210,000 at the 2004 Keeneland September Sale. The second, Lyrics 'n Laughter (Stop the Music), is a half sister to MSW Western Trader. Carrying a foal by Chief Seattle, the Ballinswood Sales offering was purchased by Ben Glass, agent. The eight-year-old mare was a $34,000 FTKJUL yearling and a $75,000 OBSMAR juvenile.

Magoo's Magic broke his maiden by 3 1/4 lengths at

Calder Sept. 11 before finishing fifth, beaten 20

lengths, in his latest, the Oct. 17 Cowdin S. at Belmont. Overlooked in this one, the dark bay came out running and never looked back en route to a facile

score. "He did it easy all the way," said winning rider

Javier Castellano. "He did everything right. I had plenty of horse left in the stretch. When I asked him, he took off again."

The Sovereign Award winner as top juvenile colt in Canada in 2002, Added Edge was unsuccessful in four starts last year, finally getting off the schneid with an 8 1/4-length allowance score at Churchill Downs this May. The chestnut finished sixth in the June 12 Brandywine H. at Delaware Park, but rebounded with a victory in the Aug. 28 Governor's H. at Ellis Park and was most recently third in the Oct. 2 GIII Turfway Park Fall Championship S. The second choice off that performance, the former champ stalked the pace from third, drove inside Coach Jimi Lee as they raced down the lane and fought his way to the front as that rival leaned on him late to get his nose down on the line.

Discreet Hero, winner of the 2001 GIII Round Table S., has proven adept at picking up checks since, but found himself in for a $40,000 price tag at Churchill Downs July 5, when he came home a 5 1/2-length winner. A discouraged sixth next time in an Ellis Park turf handicap July 24, the gelding proceeded to finish in the money in five of his next six starts, including a second-place finish in the Governor's H. at Ellis Aug. 28 and a win against allowance foes at this track Oct. 11. The well-regarded 3-2 choice this time, the dark bay broke sharply and led through soft opening fractions of :24.50, :48.01 and 1:13.59 before cruising home to win by daylight.

Forest Music got the year off on the right foot with a head victory in the GIII Miss Preakness S. May 14 before adding the Crank It Up S. at Monmouth June 6. Third in a pair of Grade I events, including the seven-furlong Test S. at Saratoga July 31, the grey subsequently spent three months on bench before returning with a dull seventh in the GII Gallant Bloom H. at Belmont Oct. 10. Sent off the 7-2 fourth choice here, the filly took command quickly, opened up a 5 1/2-length advantage turning for home and had enough left in reserve to gain the victory.

Broadway View finished a respectable second in a nine-furlong allowance on the dirt at Saratoga Aug. 30 before breaking a long drought and coming up with a win going a mile over Belmont's main track Sept. 19. Fourth as the 2-1 choice in his latest over this distance at Keeneland Oct. 21, the dark bay was let go at generous odds for his return to the grass here. Camped near the back of the pack early, Broadway View swept wide entering the stretch and was fully extended late to get up late for the narrow win. Said winning trainer Nick Zito, "I don't know where we'll go from here, now that he's won on the grass. We'll just see if he improves. He's proved that he's versatile, and we always thought that he would get better as he got older. This is a big step in the right direction."

Brunilda made her stakes debut in her final Argentine start, finishing a close-up second in a Group 2 event on the grass at San Isidro in January. Shipped to the States after that effort, the chestnut filly took her time acclimating to her new surroundings, then opened her American account with an allowance win on the Arlington main track Aug. 21. She came back to be third in the Sept. 12 Flawlessly S. at that track before tiring to sixth in her latest outing, a Keeneland allowance test Oct. 20. Trying out blinkers this time, the crowd's third choice was not inspired to show any early speed, but fought her way through traffic in the stretch to catch Fashion Girl in the final jump.

A head winner of the B Thoughtful S. at Hollywood at the end of April, Royally Chosen went to the shelf after that victory. She made her return in the July 10 GII A Gleam H. and tired badly to be ninth, but improved to third after setting the pace in her next outing, the Aug. 8 GII Clement L. Hirsch H. at Del Mar. Given another break after that performance, the bay was and was looking to defend her title in her comebacker, the Oct. 16 Cal Cup Matron H., but again wearied late and ended up fourth. The odds-on chalk to get back on track with that tightener under her girth, Royally Chosen broke on top, dashed off a quarter in :22.25, lost the lead after a half in :44.46, but was back in front after six furlongs in 1:08.89 and drew clear.

AIN'T HERE TAKES CUP TRIAL

Ain't Here (Aus) (Dehere), always travelling well beneath jockey Brett Prebble, stormed down the center of the Sha Tin stretch to win yesterday's HK$3 million G2 International Cup Trial by a deceptively easy 1 1/4 lengths. Settled in fourth in the 2000-meter event, Ain't Here responded when set down leaving the quarter pole, hit the front with a furlong to run and stayed on well to defeat Bowman's Crossing (Ire) (Dolphin Street {Fr}). Bullish Luck (Royal Academy), the 2-1 favorite in the wagering, nosed out High Intelligent (Aus) (Anabaa) for third money. Five-year-old Ain't Here, third in the 2002 G1 Victoria Derby and in the G1 Hong Kong Derby this past March, lost his first 13 starts in the SAR before snapping that streak with a neck victory over Bowman's Crossing in the G3 Sha Tin Trophy H. Oct. 17. He was in receipt of 11 pounds from the runner-up that afternoon, but yesterday's Cup Trial was run at level weights. Trainer David Hayes, who was winning this for the fourth time in the last six years, will decide in the coming days whether to run his charge in the G1 Hong Kong Cup over 2000 meters or the 2400-meter G1 Hong Kong Vase. Both races are to be contested Dec. 12.
