ONE GUESS: OUIJA BOARD STARS AT CARTIER

Lord Derby's Ouija Board (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) was the star of the show at the 14th Cartier Awards, carrying off the Horse of the Year and Three-Year-Old Filly titles at the ceremony, which took place at the Four Seasons Hotel in London's West End Wednesday evening. Trained by Ed Dunlop at Newmarket, the bay had a successful international campaign in which she captured the G1 Epson Oaks, the G1 Irish Oaks and the G1 Breeders' Cup F/M Turf. She also was a fast-finishing third in the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe to Bago (Fr) (Nashwan), winner of the Cartier Award for Three-Year-Old Colt. That colt, a homebred for the Niarchos Family, also landed the G1 Grand Prix de Paris and the G1 Prix Jean Prat. The connections of both Ouija Board and Bago have announced that they will remain in training for 2005.

Older Brigade

Elite Racing Club's homebred Soviet Song (Ire) (Marju {Ire}) put together a three-race skein which landed her the Older Horse prize. The four-year-old won the G1 Falmouth S., G1 Sussex S. and the G1 Matron S., defeating dual Classic heroine Attraction (GB) twice. Another homebred, Ecurie Wildenstein's Westerner (GB) (Danehill), carried off the Stayer Award with victories in the G1 Prix du Cadran and G1 Prix Royal-Oak. Lady Legard's G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest and G1 Prix de la Foret winner Somnus (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) picked up the Cartier Sprinter Award.

Red Merit

David & Patricia Thompson, owners of Cheveley Park Stud in Newmarket, were honored with the Daily Telegraph Award of Merit after a highly successful season highlighted by the exploits of G1 Lockinge S. winner Russian Rhythm (Kingmambo), G1 Pretty Polly S. heroine Chorist (GB) (Pivotal {GB}), G2 Celebration Mile victress Chic (GB) (Machiavellian), and the Group 2-winning juveniles Soar (GB) (Danzero {Aus}) and Iceman (GB) (Polar Falcon).

Youth Gone Wild

The Niarchos Family earned their second award of the evening when Divine Proportions (Kingmambo) was deemed the top Two-Year-Old Filly. The Kentucky-bred was unbeaten in five starts, including a win against colts in the G1 Prix Morny before concluding her season in the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac. The undefeated Shamardal (Giant's Causeway) finished up the year with a victory in the G1 Dewhurst S. He has since been purchased by Godolphin.

A strong field of 11 lines up for Saturday's Frank J. De Francis, which attracted last year's top three finishers, as well as four others that competed in the Oct. 30 GI Breeders' Cup Sprint. The eight-year-old A Huevo, who beat out Shake You Down and Gators N Bears in 2003, will face a stiff challenge taking on the likes of Midas Eyes. The Bobby Frankel charge was a disappointing 10th in the Sprint, but proved his talent winning the GI Forego H. over Clock Stopper in September.

BETTER TALK NOW TO RETURN IN HOLLYWOOD TURF CUP Better Talk Now (Talkin Man), who upset favored Kitten's Joy (El Prado {Ire}) in the GI

Better Talk Now
Horsephotos

Breeders' Cup Turf as the longest shot on the board, is scheduled to make his next start in the Dec. 4 GI Hollywood Turf Cup. The five-year-old gelding, 27-1 on Breeders' Cup day, is seeking to strengthen his credentials for an Eclipse Award as champion male turf horse. "The general sense of opinion seems to be that Kitten's Joy deserves it even though we won the Breeders' Cup against him," commented trainer Graham Motion. "We thought winning one more Grade I might sway the voters. That entered into our decision." Motion, who stables his horses at Fair Hill Training Center in Maryland, said that Better Talk Now would ship to Hollywood Park the Wednesday before the race. It will be the 40-year-old Motion's first California starter. "This horse took me to Texas and now to California," he said. "I always wanted to run a horse there."

STORM CAT, A.P. INDY SEASONS ADDED TO KEEP AUCTION Seasons for champion Kentucky sires Storm Cat and A.P. Indy have been added to the Dec. 3 stallion season auction to raise money for the Kentucky Equine Education Project. The event, which features both silent and live auctions, takes place at the Hyatt Regency in Lexington Kentucky. "We're delighted that so many owners, breeders and syndicate managers have been so generous by donating stallion seasons for most of the greatest horses in Kentucky," said Claria Horn Shadwick, executive director of KEEP. "Our slogan to promote the value of the equine industry is Horses Work for Kentucky. The commitment on the part of the donors demonstrates another way that work continues." Seasons for other top stallions include Fusaichi Pegasus, Kingmambo, Giant's Causeway, Vindication, Distorted Humor, Awesome Again, El Prado (Ire) and Unbridled's Song.

Country Judge notched back-to-back allowance wins at Belmont in June, then alternated second- and third-place finishes in his next four, including a runner-up effort at Belmont Oct. 11. The public's second choice in this abbreviated four-horse affair, he saved ground up the backstretch as favorite My Snookie's Boy loped along through uncontested fractions of :25.52, :50.01 and 1:13.83. Ushered through a narrow opening as the pacesetter came a tad wide into the lane, Country Judge put that foe away a furlong from the wire and finished up strong posting the daylight win.

+ COEUS (c, 3, Mazel Trick--It's a Wrap, by Cutlass), a $192,000 FTKJUL yearling purchase, had shown promise in his morning drills and debuted as the 5-2 second choice. After a slow break, the chestnut rushed up to challenge for the lead, angled to the outside in the stretch and continued on determinedly for a one-length graduation over Unabashed (Kingmambo). The 9-5 favorite Sensational Choice (Storm Cat) was never in the hunt and finished a green fifth. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $27,000.

BROADWAY LADY (f, 4, Ordway--Broadway Joan, by Bold Arian) hadn't raced on the grass since running sixth to Seven Moons (Jpn) (Sunday Silence) July 3. The dark bay captured an allowance on the main track at Belmont July 18, but failed to hit the board in three subsequent outings, including a sixth-place finish going a mile at Belmont Oct. 7, and was dismissed at 43-1 here in her return to the turf. Allowed to settle into stride, the famously related filly came running down the center of the course and got up just in time to deny Seven Moons by a head. Broadway Lady is a half to Fourstardave (Compliance), MGSW, $1,636,560; Fourstars Allstar (Compliance), MGSW & MGISP-US, G1SW-Ire, $1,573,361; and Astor Place (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), GSP-Fr. TRICKY DEVIL (c, 3, Coronado's Quest--Bag of Tricks, by Devil's Bag) didn't do much in a pair of starts last year, and wound up sidelined for 11 months. The grey returned with a bang, however, decimating $40,000 maidens at Keeneland by 18 3/4 lengths Oct. 8 while earning a Beyer Speed Figure of 113. Bet down to 3-5 on the strength of that effort, the half to Confide (Phone Trick), MGSW, $230,766, quickly opened up on the field and never looked back en route to an easy two-length success. BROADWAY IDOL (c, 2, Theatrical {Ire}--Windansea {SW & GSP, $138,585}, by Conquistador Cielo) started his career with an eighth over the Belmont lawn Oct. 8, but was bet down to even-money this time after getting in from the also-eligibles. Unhurried in the early stages, the grey colt angled five wide into the stretch and outfinished Poco Bueno (Grand Slam) for a 1 1/4-length tally. The winner is a half to Truman C. Runway Model to Golden Rod:

GII Darley Alcibiades S. winner Runway Model (Petionville), a good third after a troubled trip in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies, is being pointed toward the GII Golden Rod S. at Churchill Downs Nov. 27. Trainer Bernie Flint originally had planned on shelving the filly for the remainder of the season, but had a change of heart after his charge returned from Lone Star in fine fettle. "She's doing very good or I wouldn't even consider it," said Flint. "I was not going to run her any more this year, but she's feeling so good and she's cutting it up around here. I don't know--she's just one of those kind."

Fantasticat Possible for Clark:

Trainer Bobby Barnett's three-year-old Fantasticat (Storm Cat) breezed four panels at Churchill Downs yesterday and is being considered for the Nov. 26 GII Clark H. The winner of the GII Super Derby, who finished ninth to Ghostzapper in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic in his latest, covered the distance in :49.20 in what was his first serious move since his trip to Lone Star. Barnett said that a final decision would not be made for a few more days. "We'll see how he does when he goes back to the track in a couple of days," explained Barnett. "He popped a quarter [crack] on him in the race at Lone Star. We patched it and it looks good, but we just want to see how it looks in the next couple of days." Also expected for the Clark H. is GIII Northern Dancer S. winner Suave (A.P. Indy). The sophomore was third in the GII Indiana Derby last out.

STONE RAIN (g, 3, Grindstone--Rainy Night, by Caro {Ire}) had been claimed for $40,000 at Santa Anita on New Year's Eve, when he won by 11 lengths while notching a 105 Beyer Speed Figure. But the $15,000 KEESEP yearling purchase didn't see action again until Aug. 21, finishing second in a Del Mar optional claimer, and most recently faded to sixth in the Foothill S. at Fairplex Sept. 10. Dismissed at 7-1 in this competitive heat, the grey set a hot pace of :21.73 and :43.95 and had enough left in the tank to last by a neck over Harvard Avenue (You and I). Minister Eric (Old Trieste), making his first start since the GI Kentucky Derby, put in an encouraging run to be third. The 4-5 chalk Life-style (In Excess {Ire}), off since June, backed up on the turn and wound up last of eight. Lifetime Record: 8-4-2-0, $89,620. O-Ronald McAtee & Melodie. B-Overbrook Farm (KY). DIAMOND FURY (g, 3, Sea of Secrets--Swift Spirit, by Tasso), a $30,000 FTKJUL yearling, found himself on the cover of industry magazines when achieving a world-record $2,700,000 as a BESMAR two-year-old. But the chestnut had failed to live up to that price tag during his 2003 campaign, and returned from a six-month break with a second Aug. 29 at Del Mar. The half to Friendly Spirit (Friendly Lover), MSW, $107,636, had a troubled trip when fifth last out going two turns at Oak Tree Oct. 14, and was 7-2 here while cutting back to a sprint. Always in contention, Diamond Fury hooked up with Cronenbold (Exploit) and got the better of him late to prevail by a nose. Lifetime Record: 8-1-1-2, $42,580. O-Charles E Fipke. On hand during the opening will be Jared's Shadow, a descendant of Seabiscuit that was acquired by Anne and John Rainey after running ninth in a $3,500 claiming race at Evangeline Downs July 5. The four-year-old is slated to be unloaded along with two other horses at the Wateree facility at ceremonies at 11:00 a.m. For further information, contact John Carmichael at (803) 572-1069.

The potent front-runner Striking Ambition got the early fractions he needed to record his fourth stakes success here. After defeating the smart Avonbridge (GB) in the Listed Pavilion S. at Ascot and Listed Carnarvon S. at Newbury last spring, he lost his way before being transferred to the barn of Roger Charlton. He offered hope of a return to form when third in the G3 Prix de Meautry at Deauville Aug. 29 and confirmed that impression when beating Grand Reward in the Listed Testimonial S. at The Curragh Oct. 10 before going down by a half-length to Miss Emma (Ire) in the G3 Prix de Seine-et-Oise over course and distance last time Oct. 29. Always in control against the stands' rail, he dug deep to ward off the threat of Malaica and had enough in reserve to fend off the late challenge of Ratio.

HIGH IS THE MOON (FR) (c, 2, Highest Honor {Fr}--Ambassadrice {Fr}, by Be My Guest) finished second at Compiègne last time Oct. 17 and was installed the 11-4 choice this time. Content to stalk the early pace, the €105,000 DEAAUG yearling was asked to close at the top of the straight, and despite running greenly, responded to driving to reel in Silver World (Spinning World) in the final strides and score by a nose. Lifetime Record: 3 starts, 1 win, 1 place, €14,100.
