ALL EYES ON THE DASH

A field of 11 will line up for today's GI Frank J. De Francis Memorial Dash at Pimlico, including last year's top three finishers--A Huevo (Cool Joe), Shake You Down (Montbrook) and Gators N Bears (Stormy Atlantic), but the likely favorite will be Midas Eyes (Touch Gold). The bay labeled himself as a top sprinter at Saratoga this summer, posting an allowance victory

Aug. 25 and the GI Forego H. Sept. 4, but could do no better than 10th in the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint at Lone Star Oct. 30. Trainer Bobby Frankel believes his charge may have had an excuse that day. "He bit his tongue real hard in the paddock, and he had blood pouring out of his mouth," Frankel told Daily Racing Form. "I'm hoping that's what stopped him. That and being so wide." Shake You Down makes his first start since finishing sixth in Belmont's GIII Bold

Ruler H. May 8. "I'd always rather be the hunted," trainer Scott Lake commented. "Obviously with him being off we haven't gotten the recognition that we did last year. When horses have the time off you are always curious to see if they come back the same."

THAT'S A WRAP AT KEENELAND

The Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale concluded Friday with a record average, a record-equaling median and the third highest gross in the history of the auction. "The sale started strong and continued strong to the very end," said Director of Sales Geoffrey Russell. "There was a strong premium on young mares and for weanlings by freshman sires." A total of 35 horses brought $1 million or more, including three for $4 million or greater. By comparison, 23 horses sold for $1 million or more during the 2003 breeding stock sale. The highest-priced lot on the final day was hip 4431, the eight-year-old broodmare Mist on the Hill (Mt. Livermore), acquired by Classic Bloodstock for $41,000. Offered by Windfields Farm as agent, the bay is in foal to Canadian champion A Fleets Dancer. Topping the weanlings at Friday's session was hip 4225, a filly from the first crop of Vinery stallion Yonaguska. Cobalt Investments LLC signed the ticket for $37,000 for the bay from the consignment of Patricia Clark.

KRIS DEAD A champion on the racecourse who became a leading sire, Kris (GB) (Sharpen Up {GB}--Doubly Sure {GB}, by Reliance {Fr}) died of heart failure in his paddock at Plantation Stud. The 28-year-old stallion had been pensioned since 2002. A full brother to champion and successful sire, Diesis (GB), Kris was honored as Europe's top miler at both three and four. He won 14 of 16 career starts for trainer Henry Cecil, capturing the G1 Sussex

S., the G2 Queen Elizabeth II S., G2 St. James's Palace S., G2 Waterford Crystal Mile and the G2 Lockinge S. In his only two losses, the chestnut ran second in both the G1 2000 Guineas and the G2 Queen Elizabeth II S. From his first crop came Oh So Sharp (GB), who swept England's Triple Crown for fillies by winning the G1 Oaks S., G1 1000 Guineas and the G1 St. Leger S. Her exploits led to Kris being champion sire in Britain in 1985, and he was also the leading British-based sire in 1986 and 1987. Best known as a sire of top fillies, he has become a successful broodmare sire. In that capacity, Kris has been represented by Group 1 winners Doyen (Ire), Kiri's Clown, Lend a Hand (GB), Moonshell (Ire), Okawango and Rose Gypsy (GB).

The final turf stakes of the year in New York drew an evenly matched field that lacks a clear standout. New York-bred Irish Colonial snapped a streak of four third-place finishes with a late-running tally in the restricted Mohawk H. at Belmont Oct. 23. He's bred to handle the added ground--the Mohawk was nine panels--and should have a solid enough pace to run at. "We've been pointing for this race since the summer," said his trainer, Randy Schulhofer, who added that his charge "likes a little give in the ground," should it rain. European invader Alost, a winner going a mile and a half in the French provinces in mid-October, will be getting Lasix for his U.S. debut. The distance will be no problem for the four-year-old, but he's prone to acting up at the gate and might be handful under jockey Tony Farrina. The improving Shug McGaughey-trained Sailaway closed into slow fractions to complete the trifecta in the Oct. 30 GII Knickerbocker H. and will be running late here.

7	Megabyte	Chief Seattle	Cerin	6-1
8	Bushwacker	Outflanker	Curran	15-1

Declan's Moon came into his debut at Del Mar July 31 a bit under the radar, posting a five-length victory at odds of 14-1, then defeated odds-on Roman Ruler by a neck in the GII Del Mar Futurity Sept. 8. His connections decided to skip the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile in favor of the Prevue and the GI Hollywood Futurity Dec. 18. "It's pretty much gone according to plan," trainer Ron Ellis told Daily Racing Form. "I think he's bigger. I would think the two months have done him some good. He looks as good or better than he did at Del Mar."

Seize the Day aired by 11 lengths at Santa Anita Oct. 11 and could be any kind.

GOING FOR A RECORD

"Another record which could possibly fall this year is Storm Cat's single-year stakes winner standard of 24, set in 1999. A.P. INDY has sired 20 (now 21) stakes winners so far in 2004 and is the only American stallion other than Storm Cat to have reached that plateau."

MADCAP ESCAPADE TURNS IN SHARP WORK

Madcap Escapade (Hennessy), winner of the GI Ashland S., returned to serious training Friday with a sharp three-furlong breeze in :36.69 over a sloppy track at Churchill Downs. "I thought that was about as slow as you could get her," trainer Frank Brothers said. "The most important thing is that she did it well within herself and she seemed to cool out fine. She's been training great and, at this point, I'm very happy with her." The sophomore filly hasn't raced since suffering her first career defeat, while third behind Ashado in the GI Kentucky Oaks Apr. 30. She suffered a non-displaced hairline fracture of the hip while preparing for a start in the GI Acorn S. at Belmont. "We're going to take our time," Brothers added. "We'll go to Miami and probably start down there. There's no rush on her. I don't even know where we would start her."

Personal Touch, second in the restricted Seeking the Gold S. at Belmont July 22, returned from a two-month freshening to be runner-up in a Belmont optional claimer Sept. 23. A non-threatening fifth in the Gill Sport Page H. at that track Oct. 31, he was sent to post the crowd's pick dropping in class. After losing ground because of a bobbed start, Personal Touch settled off the lead while racing undercover, then took aim at the pacesetting duo of New York Hero and Rogue Agent. The former proved especially reluctant in the closing stages, but the chalk came through for the fans under a John Velazquez drive.

9th-AQU, $47,000, Alw, NW1X, 3yo/up, 7f, 1:22, ft. COAST LINE (c, 3, Boston Harbor--Mission Pass, by Mr. Prospector) went missing after finishing fourth in a Saratoga special weight in July of 2003. Returning over 15 months later, he received a smart 94 Beyer beating Belmont $45,000 maidens in wire-to-wire fashion Oct. 14. Offered up at 3-1 odds by unconvinced handicappers, Coast Line was quickest into stride and set sensible :23.14 and :46.22 fractions. The bay picked it from there, opening up by three lengths as they entered the lane, and was kept to task late to account for 6-1 Liquor Cabinet (Ire) (Hennessy) by 1 1/4 lengths. PETER'S PUDDLES (c, 3, Thunder Puddles--Ionika, by Steinlen {GB}) didn't let a troubled start stop him from posting a rallying victory in a nine-furlong Saratoga turf maiden for New York-breds Sept. 1. The chestnut came back to take a 10-furlong first-level allowance over Belmont's sod Oct. 14 and was the tepid 5-2 pick scaling back a panel. Well placed in fourth racing several paths off the rail, he was part of a crush of horses vying for the lead with a furlong left to run, but proved gamest of all as he got a nose down on the line in advance of Lukelynn (Banker's Gold). Lifetime Record: 3-3-0-0, $79,200.

The 23-1 outsider Jewel in the Sky rated near the back of the pack, then finished strongly to share the spoils.

Fundraiser for Injured D'Amico at Furlongs:

A fundraiser for jockey Tony D'Amico, who was injured in a spill at Churchill Downs Nov. 3, will be held Monday at Furlongs Restaurant on Frankfort Ave. in Louisville, Kentucky. The benefit runs from 6-10 p.m. A $25 per person door charge will include dinner, a cash bar, silent and live auctions, and the chance to mingle with jockeys and other racetrack characters. D'Amico spent two weeks at the University of Louisville Hospital. He was released Tuesday night and is recovering at home from two surgeries to repair a crushed rib cage and broken shoulder. A special account has been opened for D'Amico at Fifth Third Bank; donations are welcome. For more information, contact JoLynn Johnston at (513) 354-8234.

A surface switched yielded an even fifth-place effort at Churchill on Halloween and it was back to the main track here for the chestnut when this one came off the grass. The Bernie Flint trainee, a 13-1 longshot here, found room to advance along the rail leaving the quarter pole, moved to take a clear lead in upper stretch, then gamely held sway over 2-1 shot Straw Hat (Dixie Union) by half a length. The slight 2-1 chalk, Dynatonia (Dynaformer), never got going and finished last of seven. Pletcher Shipping Three For Turf Festival:

Trainer Todd Pletcher plans to ship Ocean Drive (Belong To Me), Dubleo (Southern Halo) and Paddy's Daisy (King of Kings {Ire}) next Tuesday for the Turf Festival at Hollywood Park Nov. 26-28. Ocean Drive, winner of the GIII Noble Damsel H. at Belmont, seeks her first grade one victory in the Matriarch S. Nov. 28. "She didn't fire that day," Pletcher said of Ocean Drive's third-place finish in the GIII Violet H. last out Oct. 22. "But she's been very consistent throughout her career over a lot of different courses." Dubleo, winner of the GII Summer S. at Woodbine, will run in the GIII Generous S. Nov. 27, while Paddy's Daisy will try the GIII Miesque S. Nov. 26. The conditioner added that Proud Accolade (Yes It's True) will also be aboard the Tuesday flight. The GI Champagne S. winner is being pointed to the GI Hollywood Futurity Dec. 18.

Wind Flow showed promise as a juvenile, talking a minor stakes at Fairplex by seven lengths before winning Santa Anita's Anoakia S. by five in mid-October. It would be almost exactly a year later before the dark bay reappeared, when she won the Ahwatukee Express S. at over Turf Paradise's main oval Oct. 23. Making her turf bow here, she ripped through splits of :21.57 and :44.17, but left enough in the tank to keep favored Market Garden at bay.

+ D'ESTE (f, 3, Old Trieste--Slide, by Smarten) showed a steady worktab for her unveiling, including a 1:12 1/5 bullet over the Hollywood main track Nov. 13. Let go at odds of 10-1 while debuting with Lasix, the dark bay settled towards the back of the pack, began to rally on the turn for home and drew clear while racing along the rail to post a two-length tally over 9-2 chance Royal Sweetpea (Favorite Trick). The winner, a half to Take Arms (Honour and Glory), GSP, $112,862, was a $220,000 KEESep yearling. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $22,200.

Breeders' Cup Gala Raises $30,000 for Equine Research:

The Breeders' Cup World Thoroughbred Championships "Not Black Tie" Charity Gala, held Oct. 29 at the Fort Worth Zoo's Texas Wild! Exhibit, raised $300,000 for the Grayson-Jockey Club Research Foundation. "We are most grateful to the Breeders' Cup, the Fort Worth Zoo and all of the sponsors, advertisers and attendees who contributed to the success of this year's gala," said Nancy Kelly, vice president of development for the Foundation. "We extend special thanks to Ramona Seeligson Bass, who chaired the event and worked so tirelessly to make it a success." The Grayson-Jockey Club Research Foundation is currently funding 20 research projects at 12 universities throughout the country.

SOVIET SONG CAREER IN DOUBT The racing career of Soviet Song (Ire) (Marju {Ire}), recent winner of the Cartier Older Horse of the Year award, is in doubt after it was revealed the four-year-old filly has been "intermittently lame" since finishing sixth in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. at Ascot Sept. 25. Matthew Budden, racing manager for the 15,000-strong Elite Racing Club, told Racing Post: "The intention always was for Soviet Song to race on next year, but she has a little injury and she has been intermittently lame since September. It's a fetlock injury, a small flake has come off one of the sesamoid bones. It's a minor thing, but not something you would want a top athlete to have. The vet didn't recommend any surgery, just time off to recover. We will know more around January when she will be x-rayed and scanned again and we will see whether, in the vet's opinion, she can race on [or not]. If it will hinder her training she will be retired to our breeding program, but we hope she will race again." Soviet Song secured a hat trick of G1 victories earlier this term, winning the Falmouth S. at Newmarket July 6, the Sussex S. at Goodwood July 28 and the Matron S. at Leopardstown Sept. 11.

ROCK TOP OF THE POPS A weanling colt from the first crop of Coolmore's Rock of Gibraltar (Ire) secured top-lot honors on the final day of Goffs November Foal Sale at Kill in County Kildare yesterday, knocked down to Eddie O'Leary's Lynn Lodge Stud for €280,000. One of the last lots to go through the ring, River Downs' Hip 1044 is a half-brother to Listed Noblesse S. winner and G2 Pretty Polly S. runner-up Snippets (Ire), and is also closely related to G1 Prix Vermeille heroine Pearly Shells (GB). Two lots realised €105,000, with Seskin Stud's Hip 917, a Fasliyev colt out of the Doyoun (Ire) mare Run To Jane (Ire), going the way of Timmy Hyde, whilst Newtown Stud's Hip 1006, a colt by Sakhee out of the Salse mare Mamara Reef (GB), was purchased by Ennistown Stud for the same price. The action at Goffs continues today with the Broodmare and Fillies Sale at 10 a.m. Goffs November Foal Sale cont. p7
