TATTERSALLS DECEMBER KICKS OFF TODAY

Tattersalls' world-famous December Sale begins this morning in Newmarket at 10 a.m. with a day devoted to yearlings. "It's been a great year for Tattersalls yearlings on the racetrack and this looks as good a December Yearling catalogue as we have seen for many a year," said Tattersalls' Marketing Director Jimmy George. There are 245 lots catalogued for today's session, many of whom have missed a previous yearling sale engagement earlier in the year. That applies to the day's standout pedigree, Lot 189, a colt from the first crop of Galileo (Ire) (Sadler's Wells). The half brother to five black-type performers, including G1 Grand Criterium winner Second Empire (Ire) (Fairy King), hails from Pat O'Kelly's Kilcarn Stud and was withdrawn from Goffs' Orby Sale. Lot 212, a Fantastic Light (Rahy) colt out of Glamadour (Ire) (Sanglamore), made 115,000gns as a foal, but was withdrawn from Tattersalls' October Yearling Sale. American-bred and sired yearlings are well represented. Lot 58, a Red Ransom half sister to multiple Grade 1 winner Marlin (Sword Dance {Ire}), was bought in for 100,000gns at Tattersalls in October. Red Ransom is also responsible for Lot 176, a filly out of Gaye's Express (Timeless Native) who was an $85,000 Keeneland RNA in September. Pine Bluff has a rare European representative in Lot 183, a colt out of Viva Maria (GB) (Hernando {Fr}) bred by Kirsten Rausing and consigned from her Irish stud, Staffordstown. Foals will be featured from Nov. 24th through the 27th, while the mare sessions run from the 29th through Dec. 2nd. For catalog, updates and current outs, visit www.tattersalls.com.

DURANDAL TAKES HIS SECOND MILE

Local hero Durandal (Jpn) (Sunday Silence) became the fourth horse in history to capture the G1 Mile Championship in consecutive years, outfinishing the three-year-old filly Dance in the Mood (Jpn) (Sunday Silence) for the victory at Kyoto yesterday. Second in his only two previous outings this year, Durandal rated off the leaders in midpack, drafted behind the rallying Dance in the Mood as they entered the stretch, then swept past that foe in the final 100 meters. The Yoshida clan's Shadai Farm dominated the top three placings, with its late stallion Sunday Silence accounting for the exacta. European invader Rakti (GB) (Polish Precedent), off as a 5-1 chance, missed the break, recovered and raced up to be third, but tired at the head of the lane and finished 14th. Chart p2

MEGASCAPE OUTPADDLES FOES IN STREAM

Megascape (Cape Canaveral) drew away down the lane to take the GIII Valley Stream S. at Aqueduct yesterday by 2 1/4 lengths. The filly, who had been competing mostly against fellow New York-breds, was a five-length maiden winner at first asking at Saratoga

Megascape A Coglianese

Aug. 2 and captured the seven-furlong Joe A Gimma S. at Belmont Oct. 3 before tiring to sixth after setting the pace in the one-mile Maid of the Mist S. last time out Oct. 23. Shortening up to six furlongs, Megascape broke sharply and quickly went to the front, while setting fractions of

:22.16, :45.39 and :57.37. She drew clear when asked in upper stretch and held sway late to add to trainer Steve Asmussen's season record tally. "It was very nice getting a stakes win against open company with her," said assistant trainer Toby Sheets. "She has done very well." Winning rider John Velazquez added, "She was comfortable the whole time. She was the best she has ever been today." Chart p2

 stake with a claiming horse," said winning trainer Steve Flint. "Not many guys get to do that. The odds of you claiming a horse and winning a graded stake at Churchill Downs may be, I'm not going to say like hitting the Powerball, but it's like hitting the Kentucky Lottery."

 you have a good trip. I thought I had a good chance at the three-eighths pole. I was sitting on a lot of horse."

Making his first start in nearly seven months, Silent Witness successfully retained his undefeated record with an unprecedented 12th straight Hong Kong victory.

Sent off the odds-on favorite for the 10th consecutive time and giving each of his nine rivals five pounds, the bay broke alertly from the outside before settling in midpack just off the pace. Still fifth and two lengths behind 45-1 chance Able Prince at the 400-meter mark, Silent Witness came under a strong ride and looked to be struggling, but he responded to jockey Felix Coetzee's urgings, collared Able Prince inside the final furlong and edged away to take it by a length in :55.9 for the 1000 meters. "He had the extra weight, so the others were able to get a break on him through the first half, but I always felt he would get there in the end," explained winning trainer Tony Cruz. "It's a great relief that we have got that race out of the way and it sure puts him spot-on for the big [G1] International Sprint [Dec. 12]." Scintillation, the 7-2 second choice off his win in the Oct. 9 G3 Sha Tin Sprint Trophy H., outlasted Cape of Good Hope (GB) (Inchiner {GB}) for third. In the afternoon's other pattern event, The Duke (Aus) (Danehill) won the G2 Cathay Pacific International Mile Trial in a three-way photo over Meridian Star (Aus) (Dolphin Street {Fr}) and the mare Elegant Fashion (Aus) (Danewin {Aus}). ☆ NEWS TODAY ☆

ASMUSSEN BREAKS WIN RECORD Steve Asmussen surpassed the North American single season win record with a dramatic victory in the Delta Belle S. at Delta Downs Saturday night. That victory gave Asmussen 497 wins in 2004, passing the mark of 496 set in 1976 by Jack Van Berg. The conditioner tied Van Berg's mark earlier in the night when Expect Will captured the Groovy S. at Sam Houston Race Park. But the record was all Asmussen's when Coronado Gold overtook True Tails in a determined stretch drive in the Delta Belle. The 39-year-old Asmussen has won or tied for the training title at eight meets around the country this season.

Steve Asmussen

Van Berg had nothing but praise for the man who took away his 28-year-old record. "He's got to be working to win that many races," Van Berg said yesterday.

WEIGHT COULD ALTER AZERI'S PLANS Azeri (Jade Hunter)'s participation in Thursday's Gill Falls City H. at Churchill Downs has been cast in doubt by her 126-pound impost in the 1 1/8-miles race. Trainer D. Wayne Lukas said a final decision on a possible Falls City start for the champion would be left to owner Michael Paulson. Azeri has breezed once since finishing fifth in the Breeders' Cup Classic, going a half mile in :47.60 on Nov. 9. "She doesn't need much," Lukas explained. "That last race was a very good one." Should she bypass the Falls City, Azeri would ship back to California and would likely get the rest of the year off. Another Falls City contender, Indy Groove (A.P. Indy), worked five furlongs Sunday at Churchill in 1:02.

Smooth Bid was winless in three starts on the turf, but finally broke through with a victory in his dirt debut at Lone Star Park Oct. 24. The well-respected second choice for his stakes bow, the grey stalked the early pace, but gradually inched up on the front rank while racing up the backstretch. Ready to move on the second turn, the colt collared frontrunner City Code in the stretch and had enough left to hold off the ultra-game bid of Silver Haze.

 Exceptional Ride marked his turf debut with a respectable third in a Keeneland allowance at this distance Oct. 14 before winning by an impressive four-length margin last time over track and trip Oct. 31. Sent off the third choice for this step up into the stakes ranks, the bay was unhurried early and was still in seventh place after three quarters in 1:15.61. Swung five wide heading into the lane, Exceptional Ride gained control a furlong out and drew off to score under a hand ride.

 six-furlong Princess H. by 1 3/4 lengths most recently Nov. 6. Sent off the 9-5 second choice here, the chestnut was content to track favorite True Tails early, moved up to challenge her foe in deep stretch and overtook that rival in the final jump to eke out a narrow victory. The win provided trainer Steve Asmussen with his 497th of the season, eclipsing the previous mark set by Jack Van Berg in 1976. "This has been quite emo-

Sweet Lips has proven tough to beat during her brief career. A winner of her three most recent starts against allowance foes, beginning with a two-length victory going seven furlongs at Saratoga Aug. 27 followed by a half-length victory at Belmont Sept. 15. An impressive 4 1/4-length winner in her latest at Keeneland Oct. 16, the chestnut was installed the even-money choice to make it four in a row here. Parked near the back of the short five-horse field, Sweet Lips mounted her challenge in the final sixteenth, and despite lugging in late, she drew clear under a drive.

(Mark of Esteem {Ire}), from the 26-strong draft offered by His Highness The Aga Khan's Studs, drew the highest bid on the final day of Goffs Broodmares & Fillies Sale in Co Kildare yesterday when Kieran McManus went to €170,000 for the three-year-old maiden filly. Selling as Hip 1452, the daughter of the unraced Nishapour (Fr) mare Akishka (GB) was one of only two lots to reach beyond six figures during the closing session. Akilana is a half sister to G2 Henry II S. winner Akbar (Ire) (Doyoun {Ire}) and hails from the immediate family of Akiyda (GB) and Akarad (Fr). The other six-figure price attained was the €120,000 paid by Bobby Donworth's Roundhill Stud for Hip 1566, the five-year-old mare Pantoufle (GB), from the Darley selection. In-foal to Halling, she is from the family of Street Cry (Ire), Helen Street (GB) and recent G1 Dewhurst S. winner Shamardal, whose dam Helsinki (GB) brought $3.9 million at last week's Keeneland November Sale. The sale's downward trend continued into its final day, with the session average falling 13.7 percent short of last year's corresponding figure and the overall average dipping 14.2 percent.
