THE SAINT COMES MARCHING IN

He couldn't quite get the better of Horse of the Year candidate Ghostzapper or top handicapper Peace Rules, but Saint Liam (Saint Ballado) proved best in the GII Clark H. at Churchill Downs yesterday. The bay colt

Saint Liam (outside)
Four Footed Fotos

was second by a head to Peace Rules in the Feb. 29 GII New Orleans H. and finished third behind that rival in the Apr. 3 GII Oaklawn H., then disappeared. He was put to the test in his return, the Sept. 11 GI Woodward S., but battled Ghostzapper every step before going grudgingly to run second by a neck at level weights. The 6-5 chalk to go one better in the Clark, Saint Liam was bumped at the break, then pressed the pace for six furlongs. He forged to the front in the stretch and held Seek Gold (Touch Gold) and a less-than-determined Perfect Drift (Dynaformer) at bay. BEST OF THE WEST MEET OUT EAST

Both are stabled at Hollywood Park, but Pico Central (Brz) (Spend a Buck) and Kela (Numerous) have shipped all the way across the country to lock horns in the GI Cigar Mile H. at Aqueduct this afternoon. Already a three-time Grade I winner this season, Pico Central is head-and-head with GI Breeders' Cup Sprint hero Speightstown for the Eclipse Award as the year's top sprinter. Trainer Paulo Lobo believes that his victories in the GI Carter H., GI Met Mile and GI Vosburgh, where Speightstown finished third, should be enough to sway the voters, no matter the outcome at the Big A. "Pico has done enough the rest of the year to be sprint champion," Lobo said. The five-year-old has a record of five wins from six starts in 2004, suffering his lone defeat when third behind fellow California shipper Kela in the Aug. 15 GII Pat O'Brien Breeders' Cup H. at Del Mar. He rebounded to win the Oct. 2 Vosburgh by four lengths, but owner Gary Tanaka declined to pay the supplementary fee for the Breeders' Cup. Kela, who also captured the GIII Texas Mile and the GI Bing Crosby Breeders' Cup H. from his eight starts this year, was at Lone Star Park Oct. 30 and acquitted himself well, closing to be second behind Speightstown in the Sprint. "He would have gotten up if he had a little more ground," trainer Mike Mitchell said. "He had to go around a lot of horses and ran out of time." The six-year-old has been first or second in five of six mile tries.

Daydreaming had won every other start this year, sandwiching losses in between her victories in a Mar. 1 allowance at Gulfstream, a May 6 allowance at Belmont, an Aug. 4 optional claimer at Saratoga and the Oct. 1 GIII Indiana Breeders' Cup Oaks. But the bay broke that pattern here, finally gaining back-to-back success as the even-money chalk. The Ogden Mills Phipps homebred was allowed to settle in fourth as first Tempus Fugit (Alphabet Soup) and then Pop Princess (Alphabet Soup) cut out the fractions. Roar Emotion took over at the eighth pole, but she yielded in the dying yards as Daydreaming held off Bending Strings for the score. "Bending Strings was way out in the middle of the track," jockey Jerry Bailey explained. "I could see her, but my filly couldn't. She put [Roar Emotion] away and kind of thought the race was over. The last two jumps, she saw [Bending Strings] and you could feel her surge again." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Cajun Beat followed up on his upset win in last year's GI Breeders' Cup Sprint with a 1 1/2-length score in the Jan. 3 GIII Mr. Prospector H. at Gulfstream Park, but had been held winless in his four starts since. The dark bay was second behind Alke in the Feb. 7 GIII Deputy Minister H. before shipping to the Middle East to run fourth in the Mar. 27 G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen. Freshened after his international adventure, the four-year-old was moved to trainer Bobby Frankel's barn during his vacation. He came back to be fourth behind Pico Central (Brz) in the Oct. 2 GI Vosburgh S. and fifth behind Speightstown in the Oct. 30 GI Breeders' Cup Sprint and it was decided a surface switch was in order. Cajun Beat, who was second by a neck in his only other grass effort, a Churchill Downs allowance test 17 1/2 months ago, was the 2-1 favorite with the return to the lawn and came through for his backers, closing from seventh to win with something left.

Paddy's Daisy had won three of her four prior turf tries, including the Oct. 2 Salem County S. as the 9-10 favorite at the Meadowlands and the Oct. 28 Jesamine County S. as the 1-2 chalk at Keeneland. The well-traveled chestnut shipped cross-country from her home base at Belmont Park for this test and was sent off the crowd's choice once again. Rated in sixth through moderate fractions, she was wide on both bends, but kicked it into gear as Conveyor's Angel took over at the eighth pole and was able to get by that gutsy foe in the final strides to take the photo.

Halory Leigh ran her record over the Churchill main track to four out of six, coming from off the pace to record a second consecutive graded-stakes victory. Campaigned on the grass over the summer, the chestnut was second in the GIII Locust Grove H. over this turf course June 26, but finished seventh in three straight efforts--the GI Diana H. at Saratoga July 31, the GIII Ballston Spa Breeders' Cup H. Aug. 30 and the Kentucky Cup Ladies' Turf at Kentucky Downs Sept. 25. Returned to the main track, the four-year-old earned a then-career best 103 Beyer for a four-length allowance victory at Keeneland Oct. 10 and topped that with a 105 for her 14-1 upset in the GII Churchill Downs Distaff H. Nov. 7. Favored in the absence of Azeri here, Halory Leigh raced within easy striking distance of the lead, came wide for the drive and pulled clear under left-handed urging. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Lesroidesanimaux bids for his fifth consecutive victory in his sixth U.S. appearance. The chestnut started three times in his native Brazil, breaking his maiden by 11 1/4 lengths in May of 2003 and running second in a Group 1 event that June. Sent north after that effort, he opened his U.S. account with a fourth-place finish in a Santa Anita allowance test Jan. 7, then reeled off wins in a Jan. 31 allowance and a Mar. 20 optional claimer in Arcadia and the May 1 GIII Inglewood H. at Hollywood Park. The four-year-old was given a break over the late spring and summer, returning to add to his streak with a 1 1/4-length tally in the Oct. 30 GIII Morvich H. at Santa Anita. The "King" has most to fear from stablemate Nothing to Lose. The four-year-old took the Aug. 28 GII Fourstardave H. at Saratoga and the Oct. 9 GI Shadwell Turf Mile at Keeneland. He was a well-backed 4-1 in the Oct. 30 GI Breeders' Cup Mile, but failed to fire after racing wide and finished 11th. Special Ring, who successfully defended his title in the July 25 GI Eddie Read H., also needs to rebound after running 13th in that event.

Undefeated Rockport Harbor will look to add to his lofty reputation with a fourth straight victory. Like his one-time stablemate Smarty Jones, the $470,000 KEESEP yearling started his career at Philly Park, breaking his maiden in eye-catching fashion Sept. 12 and adding a facile allowance score Oct. 12. The gray was odds-on to remain unbeaten in the Nov. 2 GIII Nashua S. at Aqueduct and did just that, cruising to a 6 1/4-length score over subsequent GIII Laurel Futurity hero Defer. Trainer John Servis had originally stated he would skip the Remsen and head to Oaklawn Park with the colt, but changed his mind. "He came out of the Nashua so good," Servis said. Also a perfect three-for-three coming into today's test is New York-bred Galloping Grocer. The chestnut gelding made his stakes debut in the restricted one-mile Sleepy Hollow S. at Belmont Oct. 23, cruising to a front-running 7 1/2-length triumph, but trainer Dominick Schettino said his charge does not need to be on the engine early. "He will rate," Schettino said. "He doesn't have to be on the lead and that's a big plus when you add distance. His mother won going long, so I'd be really surprised if he got beat because of the distance." Previews cont. p6

Sis City, claimed for $50,000 after breaking her maiden by a nose at Saratoga Aug. 5, made her first start under new management in the Sept. 12 Mongo Queen S. at Monmouth Park and galloped home a 16-length winner. The bay set the pace before fading to third while drifting out in the Oct. 9 GI Frizette S., and was again on the front end in the Oct. 30 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies, cutting out quick splits before settling for fourth. Dutrow also saddles the maiden K.D.'s Shady Lady, who picked up checks in three turf tries before a second-place finish in her dirt debut, the Oct. 30 GIII Tempted S. at Aqueduct.

In the Gold stretched out to Belmont's one-turn mile to break her maiden in the mud Sept. 18 and proved that victory was no fluke, finishing third by a head to Runway Model in the GII Darley Alcibiades S. at Keeneland Oct. 8. Scratched out of the Breeders' Cup after spiking a slight fever, the chestnut has turned in a pair of solid works over the Churchill main track and gets a six-pound shift in the weights with the Alcibiades winner. Runway Model, making her 10th start of the season this afternoon, comes in off her troubled third-place effort in the Juvenile Fillies.

Social Probation won each of his first two career starts before faltering to be a mid-pack fourth after a wide trip in the James C. Ellis Juvenile S. Aug. 22. Freshened off that effort, the gray colt added Lasix and turned in an excellent runner-up finish in a highly rated renewal of this track's GIII Iroquois S. Nov. 6. One of the best juveniles in the state of Florida, B.B. Best won the six-furlong Dr. Fager division of the Florida Stallion S. Aug. 4, but disappointed when only third at odds-on in the seven-furlong Affirmed division Sept. 6. He atoned for that defeat with a front-running 1 3/4-length victory in the In Reality S. at this distance Oct. 23.

DYNAMIC DANEHILL DUO A pair of offerings from the final crop of Danehill led Friday's round of trading at the Tattersalls December Foal Sale in Newmarket. Tullamaine Castle Stud in Co. Tipperary consigned the topper, a son of the late Coolmore stallion out of the Aga Khan-bred mare Zarawa (Ire) (Kahyasi {Ire}) who was purchased by BBA Ireland's Adrian Nicoll for 510,000 guineas. Angus Gold, representing Sheikh Hamdan al Maktoum's Shadwell Stud, was the immediate underbidder. "I haven't seen a nicer foal for a very long time," said Nicoll. "He was outstanding looking and they don't really come any better than that. He is for an Australian client who does not want to be named, but the colt was bought to race in England or Ireland. Hopefully he'll be good enough to stand as a stallion in Australia." Zarawa was purchased for just 36,000gns at the 1998 Tattersalls December sale. The day's second-best seller was a daughter of Danehill and G1 Irish Oaks heroine Knight's Baroness (GB) (Rainbow Quest), consigned by breeder Bjorn Nielsen through Watership Down Stud. The 3/4-sister to MGSW and MG1SP Riyadian (GB) (Polish Precedent) was knocked down for 475,000 guineas by agent Peter Doyle, with Johnny McKeever the underbidder. "She was bought to go racing for a long-established client," said Doyle. "She was a gorgeous-looking filly with a great pedigree, and we're getting short of Danehills." Danehill's son Rock of Gibraltar (Ire) provided the two next-highest prices. A half-brother to G1 Prix Saint-Alary winner Fidelite (Ire) (In the Wings {GB}) was bought for 300,000gns by Sheikh Hamdan al Maktoum, while Adrian Nicoll from Norelands Stud purchased a filly by that sire for 220,000gns. The final session of the December Foal Sale starts today at 10 a.m.

Thursday Session Gains Momentum...

Following Wednesday's disappointing opener, the Foal Sale came to life Thursday with a day of strong trade that all but matched the record-breaking 2003 figures. The turnover of 4,359,100gns and the average of 22,354gns came within a fraction of last year's record-breaking figures, but the median of 15,500gns was down 2,500gns. A first-crop son of GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile winner Johannesburg (Hennessy) and U.S. stakes winner La Martina (GB) (Atraf {GB}) topped the day at 200,000gns. Father and son pinhookers John and Andrew Ellis, who trade as Bolton Grange, outbid first Shadwell's Angus Gold and finally Irish pinhooker Timmy Hyde to get the colt, consigned from Tim Cooper's Nuthurst Farm Stud. Andrew Ellis, who is based near Alnwick in Northumberland, remarked, "He was a very good walker and looked a trainer's horse--he could just be a champion one day." La Martina, a $95,000 RNA at Keeneland November last year, was sold privately by Team Valor to Cooper, who had originally bred the mare. She was returned to Britain after being covered by Diesis (GB) this year. John Ferguson was busy Thursday, recruiting future racing prospects for Sheikh Mohammed. Accounting for three of the five top sellers on the day, Ferguson picked up two colts by Darley stallion Cape Cross (Ire) and one by Pivotal (GB).

Read the Footnotes, the 8-5 chalk on the morning line, will break from post seven with jockey Jerry Bailey in the saddle.
