LION TAMES CENTRAL IN CIGAR

For trainer Todd Pletcher, it was mission accomplished on a couple of counts. Not only did he saddle Michael Tabor's Lion Tamer (Will's Way) to an impressive victory in yesterday's GI Cigar Mile H. at Aqueduct, but the Eclipse Award chances of GI Breeders' Cup Sprint hero Speightstown, also trained by Pletcher, received a boost when favored Pico Central (Brz) (Spend a Buck) turned in a disappointing third-place effort. Last of eight for the opening half mile, Lion Tamer kicked it into high gear entering the far turn, swept to the front nearing the final furlong and drew clear late. "I was worried that maybe Lion Tamer had gotten there too soon," the winning conditioner admitted. "But when you have momentum like that, you don't want to take it away. He was just rolling along." Cigar Mile cont. p2

ROCK SOLID PERFORMANCE

He's not Smarty Jones, not just yet anyways, but Fox Hill Farm's Rockport Harbor (Unbridled's Song) turned in an outstanding performance in yesterday's GII Remsen S. at Aqueduct, decisioning New York-bred Galloping Grocer (A. P Jet) by a hard-fought neck. Committed to a front-running try after breaking like a shot, the grey colt with the big white blaze set a solid pace, dueled heads apart with the eventual runner-up for the final three furlongs and just held. As for comparisons with his dual Classic winning former stablemate, "He's got big shoes to fill," mused winning rider Stewart Elliott. Remsen cont. p3

CITY ZIP

Sis City (Slew City Slew) was overlooked at 20-1 in the Oct. 30 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies at Lone Star Park, but led the field for a long way before getting caught in the final furlong. The bay had to settle for fourth that day, but she cut out all the fractions in the GII Demoiselle S. at Aqueduct yesterday and was opening up at the finish, drawing off to a 3 3/4-length tally as the 2-5 favorite. "In the Breeders' Cup, we were going much faster than we were today," winning jockey John Velazquez said. "That's why she had so much left today." Demoiselle cont. p3

KING FOR A DAY

Leroidesanimaux (Brz) (Candy Stripes) received a perfect trip beneath Southern California transplant jockey Jon Court to take yesterday's Citation H., boosted to Grade I status for the first time this year. Since dropping his initial race in this country in January, the four-year-old has won five consecutive races, three of those in graded-stakes company. Citation H. cont. p2

A One-Turn Specialist...

Lion Tamer kicked off the year with three consecutive wins at his preferred seven furlongs, including the Mar. 6 GII Richter Scale Breeders' Cup H. at Gulfstream Park and the GII Commonwealth Breeders' Cup S. at Keeneland Apr. 10, but faltered to be fifth in the one-mile GIII Westchester H. at Belmont May 5. Fourth behind Ghostzapper in the GII Tom Fool H. at Belmont on Independence Day, the diminutive chestnut took the Formal Gold S. going two turns at Monmouth Sept. 11 then was eighth to stablemate Balto Star in the GII Meadowlands Breeders' Cup S. Oct. 8, but bounced back to finish a strong second in this track's GIII Sport Page H. Oct. 31. "I really didn't plan on going here with him, but he ran so well in the Sport Page...we decided to take a shot," Pletcher explained.

Eclipsing Pico Central...

Pico Central arrived in the Big Apple earlier this week looking to become the first horse since In Excess (Ire) in 1991 to win four Grade I races in New York. He was also seeking to enhance his Eclipse Award credentials, but weakened in the drive to be third after setting a very demanding pace for the opening six furlongs. "With the rail, there is no option," said trainer Paolo Lobo of the inside draw. "We talked before the race about trying to leave one or two horses in front of him, but from there, it was impossible." Lobo also explained that Pico Central lost his right hind shoe during the running of the race, and, despite yesterday's results, he thinks his charge has done enough to be named champion. "Pico won the [GI] Vosburgh, [GI] Carter and [GI] Met Mile," he commented. "He ran the first three-quarters of the Carter in less than 1:08 [1:07 2/5]. Now, we'll have to wait until January." He added, "We have no plans with him right now, but he will run next year."

Leroidesanimaux broke his maiden by open lengths in a Gavea turf sprint and was second in a Group 1 event going a flat mile in June before heading to this country. Fourth in a Santa Anita down-the-hiller Jan. 7, the chestnut kicked off his winning skein with a 2 1/2-length victory going a mile in Arcadia Jan. 31. He repeated over that course and distance Mar. 20 then set a track record of 1:38 2/5 in winning the 8 1/2-furlong GIII Inglewood H. May 1. Off nearly six months following that event, the TNT Stud runner charged from off the pace to win the GIII Morvich H. down the hill Oct. 30 and was the second choice to complete the five-bagger. Well placed along the inside and never far from the front, Leroidesanimaux advanced between rivals leaving the far turn, took command once into the stretch, drew clear and held on to defeat Cal Cup Mile winner A to the Z. Three Valleys, last for the opening six furlongs, was steered off the rail at midstretch and ran on well for third.

An April foal, Rockport Harbor debuted with extremely high expectations at Philadelphia Park Sept. 12, and did not disappoint, taking that 5 1/2-furlong debut by a convincing 8 3/4 lengths at odds of 3-10. Hammered down to a dime on the dollar for his first try against winners in Bensalem, the $470,000 Keeneland September graduate was no less impressive, reporting home 7 1/2 lengths best. The waters became deeper yet in his most recent appearance, but Rockport Harbor was more than up to the task, adding Lasix in a 6 1/4-length victory over subsequent GIII Laurel Futurity hero Defer in this track's GIII Nashua S. on Election Day. Yesterday's win was not nearly as easy. "Galloping Grocer kept coming up on me and I kept letting my horse out," explained winning jockey Stewart Elliott. "I think my horse ran as hard as he had to; it's hard for me to tell if there was more horse there because he was running just enough to stay in front. He had to run and he did." The winner returned with an injury.

"Somebody ran up on his back end and his back right-quarter was just hanging," commented trainer John Servis. "It was pretty nasty looking." In for a tag less than five months ago, Sis City joined the ranks of graded stakes winners with this decisive score. The two-year-old held on for a nose win against $50,000 maiden claimers at Saratoga in August and made it two in a row with a 16-length victory in the Sept. 12 Mongo Queen S. at Monmouth Park in her first outing under new management. Third in the Oct. 9 GI Frizette S. and fourth on Breeders' Cup Day, she was sent off the heavy chalk with this step down the ladder and justified her odds with a handy front-running success. As for what's next, trainer Rick Dutrow Jr. said, "We'll put her away for the winter and give her some time off on the farm in Florida. We want to have her fresh for the big races next year."

Greater Good remained perfect going two turns, charging up the rail to win the GII Kentucky Jockey Club S. on closing day in Louisville. A disappointing fifth at odds of 7-2 in his July 24 debut at Ellis Park, the bay atoned for that effort with a 1 1/2-length maiden victory in Henderson Aug. 7. Stretched out to a mile for his next, he came from 19 lengths last to win the GIII Kentucky Cup Juvenile S. by 2 3/4 lengths Sept. 18, was freshened off that effort and was most recently an even third in this track's one-mile GIII Iroquois S. Nov. 6. Settled towards the back of the pack, Greater Good advanced four wide on the far turn, was cleverly angled back to the rail in the stretch, drove through a narrow opening at the eighth pole and was going away late.

Runway Model has established herself as one of the nation's top juvenile fillies with three excellent efforts in stakes races. The dark bay strutted her stuff in her first attempt at two turns, rallying from the back of the pack to post a 17-1 surprise in the GII Darley Alcibiades S. at Keeneland Oct. 8. She proved that was no fluke with a third to Sweet Catomine in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Oct. 30 at Lone Star and was even-money her in her return to the Bluegrass State. Jockey Eddie Martin Jr. allowed his mount to settle into stride in fourth as Summerly cut out the early fractions. Inching up to take the lead passing the 3/8-pole, Runway Model increased her advantage through the lane for her second graded stakes success. Second choice In the Gold (Golden Missile), the Alcibiades third-place getter, came up empty in the stretch to be fifth.

Making his ninth start of the year at a sixth different racetrack, Dubleo responded when asked to run down 41-1 chance Littlebitofzip to win his fourth stakes race of the season. Fifth in the GIII Flash S. over the Belmont main track, the dark bay switched to the turf to take a Colonial sprint allowance by eight lengths July 10. The 3/4-length winner of the off-the-turf Chenery S. July 24, he wired the fields in the Sept. 5 Continental Mile S. at Monmouth and in the GII Summer S. at Woodbine, but was most recently second after setting the pace in the Bourbon County S. over the Keeneland grass course Oct. 29. Dubleo and jockey Corey Nakatani conceded the early lead to the fleet Littlebitofzip, choosing to chase from second. The pacesetter was still in charge turning for home and looked like he might hold sway, but Dubleo kept finding more and edged away late to the victory.

Zenno Rob Roy figures a warm favorite as he bids to become the sixth Japanese winner of this in the last seven years. Fourth to last year's winner, Tap Dance City, in the G1 Takarazuka Kinen June 27, the dark bay was upset by Narita Century by a neck in the Oct. 10 G2 Kyoto Daishoten before punching his ticket to this with a 1 1/4-length victory in the G1 Tenno Sho (Autumn) at this track Oct. 31. Cosmo Bulk, second in this year's G1 Japanese 2000 Guineas, was eighth in the G1 Japanese Derby prior to being sidelined. The colt resurfaced to defeat Hookipa Wave by a neck in the G2 St Lite Kinen at Nakayama Sept. 19, but was most recently fourth to Delta Blues in the Oct. 24 G1 Kikuka Sho at Kyoto. The chief foreign protagonists have drawn outside. Powerscourt, most recently third in the G1 Breeders' Cup Turf, looks for his first official victory since winning the G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup in May. Warrsan has a pair of victories to his credit this year, including a narrow success in the G1 Grosser Preis von Baden Sept. 5. The six-year-old comes into this off a midpack ninth in the G1 Arc de Triomphe Oct. 3.

Total Impact, the lone American representative on the program, has been a model of consistency this year with nine top-three finishes, including his 1 1/4-length victory in the G1 Hollywood Gold Cup July 10. Third to Pleasantly Perfect in the G1 Pacific Classic, the Chilean-bred has finished runner-up in his two most recent trips to the post, the Oct. 2 GII Goodwood Breeders' Cup H. and the GIII Fayette S. Oct. 30. A victory this afternoon would earn his connections a bonus of ¥100,000,000 for pairing up in this and the Gold Cup. Admire Don is hoping the third time is the charm. The bay rounded out the trifecta as a three-year-old in 2002 and just missed last year in a photo with America's Fleetstreet Dancer. As in 2003, the five-year-old prepped with a victory in the G1 JBC Classic Nov. 3.

The winner of the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac going this distance at two, Denebola has yet to win in five tries this season, despite some top-shelf performances. Seventh, but beaten just two lengths, in the G1 Prix d'Astarte at Deauville Aug. 1, the Flaxman homebred faced males in her two most recent efforts at Longchamp, finishing fourth (with Breeders' Cup Mile runner-up Antonius Pius third) in the G1 Prix du Moulin Sept. 5 and second by 3/4 of a length in the G1 Prix de la Foret Oct. 9. A neck second in this event last year, Musical Chimes looks to go one better this afternoon. The easy winner of this year's GI John C. Mabee H. going nine panels, the four-year-old was fourth as the favorite in the 9 1/2-furlong GI Beverly D. S. Aug. 14, but bounced back to win the GII Oak Tree Breeders' Cup Mile Oct. 9 over Singletary. The dark bay was most recently a troubled sixth behind the latter in the GI Breeders' Cup Mile Oct. 30.

Trainer Ron McAnally sent out Sweet Return (GB) to a 16-1 upset victory in the 2003 renewal of this event and takes his chances today with Fast and Furious. Third in the G2 Prix Noailles this past April, the dark bay closed the European portion of his career with a two-length victory in the Listed Derby du Languedoc June 20. Rested up off that effort, the French-bred colt resurfaced in the GII Del Mar Derby Sept. 6 and encountered traffic trouble nearing the stretch before rallying to finish fifth, beaten less than two lengths, by Blackdown. The latter won a division of the Oceanside S. and the GII La Jolla H. prior to his Del Mar Derby victory and enters this event off an eventful seventh-place effort in the GI Breeders' Cup Mile. Timo was third to Artie Schiller in the May 15 Woodlawn S. at Pimlico and second to that foe in the GIII Hill Prince S. at Belmont June 6, but is making his first appearance since winning the GIII Kent Breeders' Cup S. ☆ SALES NEWS ☆

TATTERSALLS UPBEAT DESPITE DROPS The numbers from this year's Tattersalls' December Foal Sale were down across the board, but the market held up remarkably well following the autumn yearling sales. An upbeat Tattersalls Chairman Edmond Mahony commented, "There was a measure of uncertainty coming into the December Foal Sale, but we had a successful yearling sale on Monday and the foal trade has been robust throughout the four days. As with so many sales this year, we felt that the spectacular levels of 2003 would be very difficult to match, and in that context we could not be disappointed after returning figures second only to last year's foal sale." The four-day Foal Sale ended yesterday after posting a turnover of 18,270,000gns, which was down by 14 percent on 2003. The average of 26,482gns dropped by eight percent and the median of 14,500gns was 15 percent lower than 12 months ago. But the figures didn't tell the whole story. "From the outset, vendors have reported no shortage of interest from buyers at all levels of the market and this is borne out by a clearance rate, which compares favourably with last year, and a record number of six-figure transactions," Mahony said. "In addition, the number of foals selling for 50,000gns or more has only been bettered once." After a one-day hiatus, the December breeding stock sale begins Monday morning. "Looking ahead to next week, we have a good solid catalogue which has already engendered considerable interest from throughout the world," Mahony continued. "Unlike last year, we do not have any high-profile dispersals, but there is strength in depth which has always been the crucial ingredient for a successful breeding-stock sale." As was the case Friday, a pair of Danehills led the way at yesterday's final foal session, with Demi O'Byrne going to 180,000gns to get the day's topper, a filly from the Churchtown House Stud draft. The foal's dam is the unraced Band Of Angels (Ire) (Alzao), herself a half-sister to Epsom Derby winner Dr Devious (Ire) and champion sprinter Archway (Ire). A Danehill three-parts sister to G1 July Cup winner Owington (GB) (Green Desert) from the Gaines-Gentry Thoroughbreds offering was the second-highest seller yesterday, bringing 165,000gns from Barbara Facchino's Barouche Stud, with farm manager Rory Matthews doing the bidding. "She was a really sporty-looking foal and there are very few Danehill fillies on the market," said Matthews, who added, "She was bought for racing and we have three or four different trainers, so it's too early to say where she might be heading."

He annexed two additional allowance contests at the Jersey oval Oct. 11 and Oct. 25, respectively, and was favored here in his stakes debut. The Maryland-bred bay came five wide into the stretch, made the lead inside the final furlong and opened up to win by daylight. "I've been training many years, and this is the first time I've ever won five in a row," said winning trainer John R. S. Fisher. "He's very versatile, and all the riders that have ridden him have all said the same thing--when you ask him to go, he does just that."

EL DON (g, 3, Cee's Tizzy--Timed Perfectly, by Pre-tense), a half brother to Bah Bye (Mamaison), MSP, $156,260, was sidelined following a maiden win versus state-breds Dec. 13, returning to defeat Cal-breds in a Del Mar allowance July 26. Unplaced in a pair of state-bred stakes afterwards, he ran fourth in an open allowance over this surface Nov. 3. Three wide for most of this test, the bay gelding raced off the rail into the stretch and dug in gamely to defeat Awesome Dividend (Awesome Again) by 3/4 of a length. Lifetime Record: 7-3-0-1, $97,986.

+LAGUNA POINTE (f, 2, Distorted Humor--Raise a Kiss, by Kissin Kris), a $28,000 FTMSEP yearling and $32,000 OBSJUN juvenile, showed only moderate works for her career opener, but was bet down to 5-2. The bay was sent away from her inside post to stalk the early leaders, changed lanes for the stretch drive and finished well on the outside to take the lead in midstretch. She drew off late to best 9-5 favorite Ivy League Miss (Carson City) by 3 1/4 lengths. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $14,575.

 Elopa opened her account in impressive fashion at Mulheim Oct. 2 before finishing a half-length second to Australie (Ire) in the G3 Prix de Flore over course and distance last time Oct. 26. In the style of her G1 Singapore Airlines International Cup winning half-brother Epalo (Ger), she dominated this event from the front and had the race at her mercy turning into the straight. Never in any danger thereafter, she galloped relentlessly to the line as Pink Palace emerged from the pack in her wake. "I think she will be a Group 2 or even a Group 1 horse," commented winning rider Terence Hellier. "She is an improving filly and is something to look forward to next year."
