NINE SET FOR HOLLYWOOD TURF CUP

Bushwood Racing Partner's Better Talk Now (Talkin Man), who upset favored Kitten's Joy in the GI Breeders' Cup Turf at Lone Star Oct. 30, will attempt to increase his Grade I tally to three in Saturday's GI Hollywood Turf Cup, but standing in his way are eight worthy rivals, including up-and-comer Habaneros (Tabasco Cat). The gelding scored in three of four of his most recent starts, all at double digit odds, including a three-quarter length win over Pellegrino (Brz) (Nugget Point {Ire}) last time out in the GIII Carleton F. Burke H. at Santa Anita Oct. 23. "He hasn't proved he's a really good horse yet, but he keeps improving," said the five-year-old's trainer, Ray Bell II. Habaneros kicked off the year with a neck victory in a $25,000 claimer on the dirt at Del Mar in July before winning against open allowance company at that track Aug. 29. Second in his return to the turf, his first in over a year and a half, the chestnut collected his first graded stakes victory in the Burke. A victory Saturday would give Bell his first Grade I score since 1994, when the conditioner won the GI Del Mar Oaks with Twice The Vice.

SINGSPIEL FILLY TOPS TATTS FINALE

Tattersall's December Sale finished its nine-day run Thursday night with cumulative gross receipts of 52.9 million guineas, down 10.2 million guineas, or over 19 percent, on 2003. The company's annual turnover was 149.35 million guineas, down 9.2 percent from the 163.1 million guineas achieved in 2003. Highlighting yesterday's action was the top price of 38,000gns, paid for Hip 2429, the Singspiel (Ire) filly Cumbria (GB). Purchased by agent Brian Grassick, the filly is out of G2 Prix de Pomone winner Whitehaven (Ire) (Top Ville {Ire}). The three-year-old, consigned by Darley, is a granddaughter of multiple Grade I stakes winner White Star Lane. "She's for a partnership including myself and will come to my stud. We'll put her in then resell her," said Grassick. "She was a nice family and comes from the family of Preseli, who my brother trained."

Strength in the Middle Market.

The four sessions of mares, topped by the sale of the International star racemare Ipi Tombe (Zim) for 850,000gns on Tuesday, closed with a 21.7-percent dip in gross receipts and a 13.3-percent decline in average. However, the middle market held up nicely over the course of the mares sale, increasing by 2.7 percent. "It is always a pleasure to end a year on a high note, but even more so when a sale dramatically exceeds expectation, and that has been the case at this year's December Sale," commented Tattersalls Chairman Edmond Mahony. "The figures will show that we have not matched last year's sale, but there are times when the bare figures do not tell the whole story. Last year's December Sale had two high-profile dispersals, was widely regarded as the best December catalogue for decades, and deservedly broke all previous records. This year's catalogue was far from a vintage one. We lost a couple of potential stars on the eve of the sale, but the consensus from both vendors and purchasers has been that this has been as strong a December Sale as any in recent years." ☆ TATTERSALLS CONT. ☆

Past, Present and Future at Tattersalls..

Commenting on Tattersall's entire season, Mahony remained optimistic despite some less-than-stellar returns. "While 2004 has been far from plain sailing at times we can also look back on sales which have given genuine cause for encouragement," he explained. "Our Breeze-Up Sale continues to set new standards, and the Autumn, July and February Sales all produced record figures contributing to an annual turnover second only to last year's massive total. Concerns over prize money in Britain are very real, and the massive foal crops that await us are a little daunting, but we have seen new faces investing in the Thoroughbred industry in the course of the December Sale allowing us to end the year with a flourish. Looking ahead to the 2005 yearling sales, it was clear this year that the sheer numbers took their toll, and next year it is important that we manage the numbers in a manner which places less strain on the market."

NAKATANI TO RIDE WILKO Jockey Corey Nakatani will get the call aboard GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile winner Wilko (Awesome Again) in the Dec. 18 GI Hollywood Futurity, according to trainer Craig Dollase yesterday. Owned by J. Paul Reddam, the English import joined the Dollase string after winning the BC Juvenile for trainer Jeremy Nosedo. Wilko is expected to face MGSW Declan's Moon (Malibu Moon) and GI Champagne S. hero Proud Accolade (Yes It's True).

GEORGE WOOLF FINALISTS NAMED David Flores, Casey Lambert, Richard Migliore, Ray Sibille and Rick Wilson have been nominated for the 2005 George Woolf Memorial Jockey Award. Now in its 55th year, the award which honors the memory of the jockey known as "The Iceman," recognizes Thoroughbred jockeys whose careers have reflected credit on themselves and their sport. Past winners include Bill Shoemaker, Eddie Arcaro, Laffit Pincay, Jr., Angel Cordero, Jr., Chris McCarron, Eddie Delahoussaye, Pat Day, Jerry Bailey and Gary Stevens. Robby Albarado won the award in 2004. The 2005 winner will be announced in January and will be presented the award in March in a ceremony in the Santa Anita winner's circle.

STAR CROSS TO RETURN IN UNDERWOOD Star Cross (Arg) (Southern Halo), winner of the GII San Bernardino H. at Santa Anita last January, is expected to make his first start in nearly seven months in the GIII Vernon O. Underwood S. at Hollywood Park Sunday. Second to Pleasantly Perfect in the GII San Antonio H. later that month, the seven-year-old finished out of the money in three subsequent starts, including a lackluster eighth in the GII Mervyn LeRoy H. at Hollywood May 8. Trainer Darrell Vienna attributed that poor performance and subsequent layoff to tender feet, but he believes the horse is ready to start anew. "I'm just getting him ready," said Vienna. Watchem Smokey, Our New Recruit and Taste of Paradise are among those slated to challenge the Argentine.

CANDID GLEN (h, 7, El Gran Senor--Candid Moments {SP}, by Pirate's Bounty) shocked the crowd at the Fair Grounds the last time he visited the winner's circle, taking the 2003 GII Explosive Bid H. as a rank 84-1 outsider, but was a 6-1 chance to get the job done here. Coming off an extended layoff, the veteran had not been out since finishing eighth in the 2003 GIII Arlington H. 16 months ago, but had been training forwardly for his return. The $67,000 KEESEP yearling was ready to fire despite the absence, sitting just off a pedestrian pace before taking the lead in the stretch and turning back the challenge of Justlikedawg (Unaccounted For) for a 1 1/2-length victory. RAZOR (c, 2, Concorde's Tune--Silk Stocks {SW}, by Medieval Man) was a well-beaten fourth in his debut over a sloppy track at Keeneland Oct. 13, but graduated with a 5 3/4-length tally at Churchill last time out Nov. 14. The 6-5 favorite pressed the pace, took charge on the turn and powered clear at midstretch to win by seven lengths over Substantiate (Valid Expectations). The $200,000 OBSFEB two-year-old is a half brother to Silk Broker (Pentelicus), GSP, $156,215. Lifetime Record: 3-2-0-0, $43,920. O-Padua Stables. B-E P Robsham (FL). T-S Asmussen.

Stud Fee Set for During:

MGSW During (Cherokee Run--Blading Saddle, by Blade), who will begin his stud career at Claiborne Farm near Paris, Kentucky in 2005, will stand for a fee of $10,000 live foal, The Blood Horse reports. The four-year-old won four graded stakes, including the 2004 GII San Fernando Breeders' Cup S., and retires with a record of 22-6-3-4 and earnings of $822,364.

Eclipse Champion to True North Farm:

Eclipse Award winner Northern Spur (Ire) (Sadler's Wells--Fruition {Ire}, by Rheingold {Ire}) has joined the stallion roster at True North Farm in Versailles, Kentucky. The 13-year-old, named the champion turf horse of 1995 after winning the GI Oak Tree Invitational S. and GI Breeders' Cup Turf, has had just 62 named foals from five crops to race. With 34 winners and three stakes winners, the bay has sired the earners of more than $3 million. He will stand for $3,500 live foal.

Greathouse-Claus Named Saybrook CEO:

Margaret Greathouse-Claus has been promoted to the position of chief executive officer at Saybrook Advertising. Claus, who has served at Saybrook for 18 years, will also retain her current role as director of account and media services. "Margaret has been an asset to Saybrook from the day she walked in the door," said Saybrook owner John T. L. Jones Jr. "She knows the people in this industry and she knows advertising and marketing, so we know the company is in excellent hands with her at the helm."

So. Cal Report cont.

Santa Anita to Begin Testing Carbon Dioxide Levels:

Santa Anita Park has announced that, starting with its 2004-2005 Winter/Spring Meeting, horses will be subject to blood tests for carbon dioxide levels. The new testing program was coordinated by Santa Anita, the Thoroughbred Owners of California and the California Thoroughbred Trainers. "Nothing is more important to us than maintaining the highest standards of integrity for California racing," said Santa Anita President Jack McDaniel. "This new testing program will bolster our commitment to provide a level playing field and fair competition within our gates." High levels of carbon dioxide have been linked to the banned practice of administering "milkshakes" to horses before they run. The trainer of a horse whose blood test reveals a carbon dioxide level of 37 millimoles or more per liter of plasma will be subject to disciplinary measures. The first offense will involve 45 days of surveillance, which may include the use of cameras in the barn and could subject the runners to confinement in a detention barn beginning at noon on the day before the horse is to race. Detention barn fees would be $150 a day for security and $25 a day for stall renovation. Trainers will be prohibited from entering horses for a period of 15 days following a second offense. A third positive will involve a one-year ban from Santa Anita.

★ INDUSTRY INFO ★

NTRA Approves 2005 Budget:

The Board of Directors of the National Thoroughbred Racing Association met in New York City on Wednesday and Thursday, approving a preliminary budget for next year that includes $66 million in revenue and $65.8 million in expenses. The budget allots $21.2 million for purses and awards, $10.8 million for television, $17.5 million for marketing and promotions and $1.8 million for legislative and regulatory programs. It will be reviewed by the Breeders' Cup Board of Directors at its regular meeting in January before going back to the NTRA Board for final approval. The NTRA Board will hold its first quarter meeting for 2005 Mar. 3-4.

KEEP Auction Growing:

The Kentucky Equine Education Project has enjoyed an overwhelming response to its announcement of a Dec. 3 stallion season auction. The organization currently has more than 150 stallions participating, including a live auction of about 40 stallions that will be held in conjunction with a silent auction for the remaining stallions. In addition, other horses will be made available for private sale at later dates, with proceeds also going to KEEP. "I knew the horse industry was behind what KEEP is trying to do, but to see the outpouring of stallion seasons donated really puts the importance of our mission in perspective," said former Governor Brereton Jones, KEEP founder and auction organizer. "Everyone wants the entire horse industry to come together with one voice to make sure Kentucky remains the horse capital of the world." The following seasons will be available during the live auction: A.P. Indy, Aldebaran, Awesome Again, Buddha, Congaree, Distorted Humor, Dixie Union, Dynaformer, El Corredor, El Prado (Ire), Elusive Quality, Forest Wildcat, Fusaichi Pegasus, Giant's Causeway, Glitterman, Kingmambo, Maria's Mon, Mineshaft, More than Ready, Mr. Greeley, Proud Citizen, Pulpit, Rahy, Sky Classic, Sky Mesa, Speightstown, Storm Boot, Storm Cat, The Cliff's Edge, Theatrical (Ire), Tiznow, Unbridled's Song, Victory Gallop, Vindication and Yonaguska. For a list of all stallions, log onto KEEP's web site at www.horseswork.com. The event, which takes place at Lexington's Hyatt Regency, begins at 7 p.m. The live auction starts at 8:15 p.m. and silent auction bids end at 10:30 p.m. Tickets can be obtained through the KEEP office at 859-259-0007. Bid-by-phone will be available, but buyers must pre-register.

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, a ▲ will denote a first-time Grade/Group 1 winner, a + will first-time starters, an (S) will be used for state-bred races, a (C) will be used for maiden-claiming races and an (R) will be used for other restricted races. THREE RELEASED AFTER ARREST

The City of London Police investigation into alleged race fixing took another twist Wednesday when trainer Alan Berry, jockey Paul Bradley and farrier Steve O'Sullivan were arrested. The trio were taken to Lancaster police station for questioning and were later released on police bail until April. Before their release, a police spokesperson told Racing Post, "City of London police have arrested a further three men in connection with the ongoing horseracing corruption investigation. The men, from the northwest of England, have been arrested on suspicion of conspiracy to defraud." The number of arrests in the case, which has also seen jockey Kieren Fallon detained and released, has now risen to 25.
