PELEGRINO SPARKLES AT HOLLYWOOD

Just a neck away from taking a Group 1 event in Argentina two years ago, Pellegrino (Brz) (Nugget Point {Ire}) was involved in another photo at the finish of the

GI Hollywood Turf Cup yesterday afternoon, but this time came out on the winning end. Trying elite company for the first time since journeying to the U.S. for the 2004 season, the dark bay bided his time in seventh as Balestrini (Ire)

(Danehill) was allowed to set a snail's pace. The 10-1 shot was in tight quarters on the final turn, but found running room at the rail as they straightened for home. The diminutive Megahertz (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) was closing on the outside, but Pellegrino outgamed the filly to get the nod. Hollywood Turf Cup cont. p2

KELA TOWERS OVER UNDERWOOD FIELD

Kela (Numerous) had to skip last Saturday's GI Cigar Mile after developing a fever, but he recovered quickly and looms the one to beat in the GIII Vernon O. Underwood S. at Hollywood Park this afternoon. The six-year-old, winner of the GI Bing Crosby Breeders' Cup H. and GII Pat O'Brien Breeders' Cup H. at Del Mar, closed well to be second in the Oct. 30 GI Breeders' Cup Sprint. Shipped to Aqueduct for the Nov. 27 Cigar, he flew home Tuesday with nothing to show for the cross-country trip. But, none the worse for the wear, the bay was supplemented to the Underwood. "It was a call I made," trainer Mike Mitchell said. "I could look like a genius, or I could look like an idiot." Kela has been first or second in five of seven starts at Hollywood. Our New Recruit (Alphabet Soup) has a win and three seconds from his four tries on the Inglewood oval. Second to Watchem Smokey (Alphabet Soup) in this event a year ago, the chestnut opened 2004 with a third in the GII Palos Verdes H. at Santa Anita, then shipped to Nad al Sheba to capture the Mar. 27 G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen. The five-year-old took a well-deserved vacation after that effort, returning to win the Sept. 6 Pirate's Bounty H. at Del Mar, but he has to rebound after running 12th after a rough trip in the Breeders' Cup Sprint. "It wasn't his day," trainer John Sadler said. "Another horse jetted out in front of him, and dirt hit him in the face hard. He lost his action and it was all downhill from there."

Pellegrino was close to Group 1 success in 2002, finishing second by a neck in the Gran Premio Jockey Club, second again in the Argentine Derby and third in the Gran Premio Carlos Pellegrini. He made just one appearance in 2003, finishing fourth in another Group 1 in February, then disappeared for 11 months. Joining the stable of trainer Donald Burke during his break, he was not pressed to climb the ladder too quickly, earning his first American score in his fourth try, a Hollywood allowance May 2. The Gary Tanaka colorbearer picked up another win in an optional claimer two starts later, then stepped up to the stakes ranks and ran fourth in the Aug. 4 Escondido H. at Del Mar. Freshened after that effort, he returned to be a fast-closing second in the Oct. 23 GIII Carleton F. Burke H. and was primed for his second start back. "Don Burke did a great job with this horse," winning jockey Gary Stevens said. "His feet were stinging him in his last race and he still ran great. Don told me I was riding a different horse [yesterday], and he was right."

Better Days Ahead?

Sent off the even-money favorite, GI Breeders' Cup Turf hero Better Talk Now (Talkin Man) was hard-held while sitting off the early pace. He pulled his way to the front with a quarter mile to race, but weakened while drifting in deep stretch and finished sixth.

Classic Endeavor was claimed for $35,000 after finishing sixth at Belmont in June, then came back carrying a $45,000 price tag July 18 and won by two. The dark bay was in for $50,000 at Saratoga Aug. 1 and won again, but also changed hands, this time moving to the barn of trainer Rick Dutrow Jr. Given a break after that race, he made his first start for Dutrow at Belmont, taking an optional claimer Sept. 29. The Florida-bred made it four in a row in the GIII Stuyvesant H. Nov. 13 and was the second choice to continue his winning ways here. Employing his habitual front-running tactics, Classic Endeavor cruised through moderate splits, opened up daylight in the stretch and held on over the fast-closing favorite Evening Attire. Looking ahead, Dutrow said, "Maybe we'll just sit on him and run in the Sunshine Millions [at Gulfstream Park Jan. 29]. It's a million bucks, babe, we got to go for it."

Something Ventured last visited the winner's circle after taking the Auntie Mame S. at Belmont Park in June of 2003, but had hit the board in nine of 16 starts since. The dark bay mare was second in both the Sept. 12 Voodoo Dancer S. at Belmont and the Oct. 1 Navajo Princess S. at the Meadowlands, but suffered a troubled trip in the Oct. 31 GIII Athenia H. at Aqueduct and finished 10th. Allowed to settle as pacesetting favorite Changing World led by as many as nine lengths here, she closed the gap when the leader began to tire in the stretch. She caught the crowd's choice late before holding off Snowdrops to break her losing streak. "At first I thought I shouldn't pay attention to the horse on the lead, then I was thinking she had a pretty easy lead," winning jockey John Velazquez said. "I changed my mind and started paying attention--she was holding on pretty good. I got out there and kept my filly busy and she responded for me." As for the future, trainer Todd Pletcher said, "It hasn't been decided if she'll race next year or be bred." Click for the brisnet.com chart.

Host was beaten just once in six starts in his native country, closing out his South American campaign with a 6 1/2-length victory in the G1 Chilean 2000 Guineas on the main track in September of 2003. Given five months to acclimate to life north of the border, the chestnut made his U.S. debut in a Gulfstream allowance test on the turf Feb. 5 and finished second. Second again 18 days later, he switched to a muddy strip for the Apr. 3 GIII Excelsior Breeders' Cup H. and ran third to Funny Cide, then went to the shelf. Host resurfaced with a third-place effort in the Oct. 15 GIII Cliff Hanger H. at the Meadowlands and followed up with a rallying score in the Oct. 30 GII Knickerbocker H. at Aqueduct. Favored to earn back-to-back victories, he settled in sixth through six furlongs, then hit his best stride in the stretch, outgaming Silver Tree late to take the photo and give his jockey and trainer a graded-stakes double. The winner will make his next start in the Feb. 12 GIII Appleton H. at Gulfstream Park. Click for the brisnet.com chart.

Texcess came back to take the Oct. 16 Cal Cup Juvenile at Santa Anita by six lengths. He made it two in a row with one-length triumph in a Hollywood allowance Nov. 14 and was the 7-5 chalk to keep the streak alive. The bay shadowed Cherokee Path (Cherokee Run) early, took control after six furlongs in 1:12.43 and held Closing Argument at bay late to get the winner's share of the $1 million pot. The runner-up was coming off a second-place finish in the Nov. 13 Jack Price Juvenile S. at Calder. Frontrunner Cherokee Path faded to fifth.

A model of consistency, Punch Appeal easily handled favored graded stakes winner Summer Raven to post her fifth stakes victory of the year. The Florida-bred started her career at Calder, where she rebounded from a loss to Leona's Knight (winner of yesterday's Three Ring S.) to land the J J's Dream S. and the Chispiski S. Fifth to Sense of Style in the GII Spinaway S. Aug. 20, she captured the Kentucky Cup Juvenile Fillies Sept. 18 before faltering to be seventh in the GII Darley Alcibiades S. She subsequently proved a game winner of the Pocahontas S. at Churchill Nov. 6, but was led out unsold at $425,000 at the Keeneland November Sale the following week. Breaking alertly under Donnie Meche, Punch Appeal went up to dictate honest fractions and turned for home with a narrow advantage over Summer Raven. The bay shrugged off that challenge and opened up nicely down the lane.

BODEGUITA TOPS DEAUVILLE OPENER They saved the best for nearly last at the opening session of Agence Francaise's December Mixed Sale at Deauville yesterday. The day's topper, who entered the ring with just six left to sell, was the two-year-old Bodeguita (Fr) (Cape Cross {Ire}), from the consignment of Haras d'Ommeel. Secured by Pegasus Farms for €280,000, the winner of a fillies-only conditions race at Saint-Cloud Oct. 26 is out of the Red Ransom mare Red Bravo, a half sister to G3 Gordon S. winner St Mawes (Fr). There were a number of fillies offered by His Highness the Aga Khan, the most popular of which proved to be three-year-old Behlaya (Ire) (Kahyasi {Ire}). The half sister to G2 Prix Hubert de Chaudenay winner Behkara (Ire) was bought by Emerald Bloodstock for €185,000, the second highest price of the opening session. Helped by a healthy clearance rate of nearly 80 percent, the session aggregate advanced almost seven percent to €3,882,500. The average also saw an upturn, rising 16 percent to €24,266.

KEEP AUCTION RAISES $2.3 MILLION The live auction of stallion seasons to benefit the Kentucky Equine Education Project, held Friday night at the Hyatt Regency Hotel in Lexington, raised $2,309,300, The Blood-Horse reports. Seasons to 37 Thoroughbred stallions and to two-time reserve champion jack stallion Bubba were sold. The top seller was a no-guarantee season to Storm Cat that went for $370,000. The proceeds from a silent auction and the private sale of more than 100 all-breed seasons have yet to be totaled. KEEP, founded by former Gov. Brereton C. Jones, is a lobby established to publicize and promote the Kentucky equine industry.

SANTA ANITA MOVES SOPHOMORE PREPS The schedule for the three-year-old stakes at Santa Anita's upcoming Winter/Spring Meet has been changed. The one-mile GII San Rafael S., run last year on Big 'Cap Day, has been moved to Jan. 15. It will be followed by the Mar. 5 GII Santa Catalina S. and the Mar. 19 GII San Felipe S., both at a mile and a sixteenth. The $750,000 GI Santa Anita Derby at nine furlongs is set for Apr. 9. The track will also offer the $100,000 Sham S. at a mile and an eighth Feb. 5 and the GII San Vicente S. going seven furlongs Feb. 13. "What we're trying to do is have different starting spots for horses who are already ready to go," explained Santa Anita Racing Secretary Rick Hammerle. "The [trainers] who don't quite know what they have can progress through the distances. And the races are spaced a little better now."

LUCKY GAMBLE (c, 3, Dove Hunt--Out of Money {SP}, by Out of Place), a winner going seven panels at Saratoga Aug. 28, missed by a half-length to subsequent GSW Thunder Touch in an allowance at Belmont Oct. 14. Most recently third in a swiftly run (1:08 4/5) allowance on the Aqueduct main Oct. 30, the bay was bet down to 4-5 in his return to the site of his maiden win last February. The Florida-bred assumed command at the outset, opened up daylight and was never threatened reporting home a 4 1/2-length winner. Lifetime Record: 15-4-2-6, $146,044. O/B-Tin Z Kin Stable (FL). CUBA (c, 3, Not for Love--Shaunlee, by Deputy Minister) broke his maiden over this course last February, but hadn't gotten his picture taken since in five attempts, including an eighth-place finish in the GI Wood Memorial S. Apr. 10. Last seen running third in a Belmont allowance Oct. 16, he was backed as the even-money choice here. The $34,000 KEENOV weanling and $65,000 KEESOP yearling battled for the early lead, shook clear entering the stretch and bounded under the line 2 1/4 lengths clear of 3-1 Say Cousin Lenny (Smart Strike). Lifetime Record: 9-2-1-2, $78,220. O-Cam Allard. B-Shaunlee LLC (NJ). T-Thomas M Bush.

BYANOSEJOE (g, 2, Cherokee Run--Je Comprend, by Caerleon), an $80,000 KEESEP yearling and a $190,000 KEEAPR juvenile, was bet down to 4-5 in his Belmont debut June 18, but could do no better than seventh while racing greenly. Freshened up and gelded off that effort, the dark bay was backed as the 6-5 chalk here. He settled in fifth after a half mile, brushed with a rival while taking the final turn six wide and rallied in the lane to wear down 10-1 first-time starter Storming (Wild Rush) by 3/4 of a length. The winner is a half brother to Krigeorj's Gold (Kris {GB}), SW & GSP, $322,022. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $24,887.

Since capturing her first two career starts, Leona's Knight had competed solely in stakes company, with little to show for her efforts. She posted thirds in both the Chispiski S. July 23 and the Brave Raj S. Oct. 2, and was coming into this contest off a seventh in the My Dear Girl S. Oct. 23. Breaking alertly from her rail post, the Florida-bred loped along on the front end and had plenty left to discourage heavily favored Smuggler in the final furlong. "We always had confidence in this filly, but it seems like something happened to her in every race after winning those first two," said trainer Barry Rose after saddling his first stakes winner. "The Davona Dale at Gulfstream [GII, Feb. 5] will be on her list, but I have to see what's leading up to that for her."

Proving you don't need steroids to hit one out of the park, Better Than Bonds overcame a troubled trip to record a popular victory. The bay broke his maiden in his second start at Belmont Sept. 25 and just missed in his next, finishing second by 3/4 of a length behind Flamenco in the Oct. 17 Cowdin S. Trying a one-turn mile last time out, the Florida-bred ran into Rockport Harbor and was not disgraced while running third in the Gill Nashua S. Nov. 2. The 6-5 chalk in his two-turn bow, Better Than Bonds was bumped around as they raced into the first bend and again nearing the second, but finally found clear sailing in the stretch and drove home a determined winner. "I thought he would handle two turns, but you never really know until they try it," winning trainer Bobby Reinacher Jr. said. "I would expect him to improve as he gets older."

Midlantic December Starts Today:

The first session of the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic December Sale, offering broodmares, broodmare and racing prospects and one stallion, will be held today at the Maryland State Fairgrounds in Timonium. A second session of weanlings, yearlings and horses of racing age is set for tomorrow. A total of 535 hips have been catalogued for the two day-sale, including mares in foal to solid stallions such as Alphabet Soup, Black Tie Affair (Ire), Devil's Bag, Louis Quatorze, Not For Love and Phone Trick, and to promising young sires like Partner's Hero, Precise End and Stephen Got Even. There will also be mares carrying foals by up-and-coming stallions including Buddha, City Zip, Yonaguska and Zavata. Represented by weanlings and yearlings are top sires such as Belong to Me, Cherokee Run, Devil His Due, Forest Wildcat, Smoke Glacken and Victory Gallop. Bidding begins at 10 a.m. daily. For complete catalogue and results, go to www.fasigtipton.com.

Midway Road ran one of the fastest Beyer Speed figures [123] of the season, posting an 11-length victory in Keeneland's Gill Ben Ali S. in the slop Apr. 22, then added a solid second-place finish in the GI Pimlico Special H. May 14. He was given some time off after finishing a disappointing sixth in the GI Stephen Foster H. at Churchill June 12, and responded with a 3 1/4-length tally in a $100,000 optional claimer at Saratoga Aug. 21. Midway Road could do no better than sixth, beaten 25 lengths by subsequent Breeders' Cup Classic hero Ghostzapper in the GI Woodward S. at Belmont Sept. 11 and was last seen posting a game nose victory over GI Hollywood Gold Cup victor Total Impact (Chi) in Keeneland's Gill Fayette S. Oct. 30. Ridden by Robby Albarado here, the Neil Howard trainee set the early pace, turned back a challenge from Spanish Empire on the far turn and got the best of Pie N Burger after a stretch-long duel.
