AS GOOD AS GOLD

Alexander Goldrun (Ire) (Gold Away {Ire}) was produced from the back of the pack and held on in a desperate finish to win the G1 Hong Kong Cup by a short head over the locally based Bullish Luck (Royal Academy) at Sha Tin yesterday. She becomes the first filly to win the race in the event's history and is the first Irish-trained filly to win in Hong Kong since 1991. "Her draw was a worry, gate 12 wasn't a help, but on the day she broke well and got into a good early position," said winning jockey Kevin Manning. "She has a great turn of foot." The bay came into this off back-to-back scores at the 2000-meter distance, including an impressive win in the G1 Prix de l'Opera at Longchamp Oct. 3. Cont. p.2

PHOENIX REACH TAKES THE VASE

Phoenix Reach (Ire) (Alhaarth {Ire}) battled to the wire to earn a hard-fought half-length victory in yesterday's G1 Hong Kong Vase at Sha Tin. A dull 10th in the G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth II Diamond S. July 24, the Irish-bred colt hinted at a return to better form when sixth, beaten about five lengths with blinkers added in the Nov. 28 G1 Japan Cup. Lightly regarded in yesterday's 2400-meter event, Phoenix Reach was forwardly placed behind a dawdling early pace and, after getting his cue midway on the turn, bid for the lead three wide into the stretch. He made the front in upper stretch and was joined to his outside by Sights On Gold (Ire) (Indian Ridge {Ire}) for the final furlong, prevailing in a driving finish. "They went very slow, so I wanted to be near the pace," explained winning jockey Martin Dwyer. "At the 3 1/2-pole, I quickened and he was electric. I was aware of Frankie [Dettori] looming up on my outside, and I can tell you that's not a nice sight, but my lad just kept pulling out more." Chart p2

DIFFERENT YEAR, SAME STORY

Hollywood Story (Wild Rush) had not visited the winner's circle since a dramatic maiden-breaking victory in last December's GI Hollywood Starlet and yesterday it was deja vu all over again as the three-year-old filly stormed down the stretch to secure a one-length victory in the GII Bayakoa H. at Hollywood Park. Hollywood Story had been keeping top company since her Starlet victory, running second in the GI Las Virgenes S. in February, fourth in the GI Santa Anita Oaks and fifth in the GI Kentucky Oaks. After third-place efforts in the June 12 GII Hollywood Breeders' Cup Oaks and on the grass in the July 3 GI American Oaks, the dark bay filly was a well-beaten 10th in the Breeders' Cup Distaff last time out. Sent off at 5-1 in the Bayakoa, Hollywood Story chased a moderate pace before moving up four wide into the lane. She took charge at midstretch and won with authority. "She was just ready for this race," trainer John Shirreffs said of the winner. "She looked great in the paddock, carrying a good weight, got Victor [Espinoza] back on her. She's run a lot of good races without winning, so it always gave us the thought that she could compete at this level." Chart p4

Alexander the Great...

A handy five-length winner of the G3 Irish 1000 Guineas Trial May 9, Alexander Goldrun ran the classy Attraction (GB) to a length when second in the Irish Classic two weeks later. The bay filly found Lattice (Ire) (Inchiner {GB}) two lengths too good when finishing fourth in the G1 Prix de Diane (French Oaks) June 13, but bounced back to take the G1 Pretty Polly S. less than two weeks later. Rested off that effort, the Jim Bolger trainee defeated the top-class Grey Lilas (Ire) in the Opera in her lone prep race for this test.

A Golden Run...

Drawn out in 12, Alexander Goldrun was a bit wide into the first bend before settling into a midpack position, but not far from the front, as the field rounded into the Sha Tin backstretch. In and amongst horses throughout the middle stages, she found some daylight and began to advance at the three-eighths pole. Six or seven paths off the rail at the quarter-mile marker, the Irish-bred rallied to the front approaching the final furlong and just staved off a furious rally from Bullish Luck, who nearly did the impossible on the day, coming from last to just miss. Touch of Land (Fr) (Lando {Ger}) was along for third, while Powerscourt (GB) (Sadler's Wells), who raced with the eventual winner into the lane, won a photo for fourth. A claim of foul lodged by jockey Jamie Spencer aboard Powerscourt against the runner-up was disallowed.

Rakti Disappoints...

Rakti (GB) (Polish Precedent), second to Falbrav (Ire) in last year's Cup, broke tardily, endured a wide journey and could do no better than seventh as the 3-1 favorite. "He just couldn't find that extra gear," said his rider Phillip Robinson. "He really gave me nothing in the straight. He's not quite the horse he was at the beginning of the season."

Phoenix Reach, winner of the G3 Gordon S. in just his third career start, was beaten 2 3/4 lengths into third by Brian Boru (GB) in the G1 St Leger last September before recording a career-best victory in the G1 Canadian International the following month. A promising start to his career had turned sour this year as the bay colt was sixth in the G1 Prince of Wales's S. in June and in the G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud before being sidelined off a 10th-place finish in the G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth II Diamond S. July 24. Let go at 26-1 off a sixth in the Nov. 28 G1 Japan Cup, the colt outbattled Sights on Gold for his second Group 1 win. Defending race champion Vallee Enchantee raced wide for most of the journey and stayed on well to earn a place, while Sweet Stream (Ity) (Shantou) rallied from way back to be a creditable fourth. A two-time winner of the G2 Godolphin Mile on the dirt, Firebreak, two lengths fifth in this event last year, had yet to strike at the highest level on the grass. Fourth, beaten two lengths, in the May 15 G1 Lockinge S. following his victory in this year's Godolphin Mile, the five-year-old received another four-month break before finishing second in the seven-furlong G2 Park S. Sept. 9. The bay was most recently a one-length winner of the Oct. 16 G2 Challenge S. Alertly away from the three-hole, Firebreak settled in third for the run up the backstretch, a couple of lengths off Scintillation (Aus) (Danehill), who set a good pace. He circled three wide and into the clear at the quarter pole, looked a bit one-paced at the 200, but leveled off nicely to win cozily from Perfect Partner. "I am so pleased for this horse to get a Group 1 win," commented winning jockey Frankie Dettori. "He may not be that flashy, but he always tries for you. He can maybe only run four times a year, but when he comes to the races, he will give you a run for your money." Favored Durandal (Jpn) (Sunday Silence) caboosed the field early and closed well late, but fell 1 1/2 lengths short in fifth. Click for the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. After defeating National Currency (SAf) and Cape of Good Hope in last year's Sprint, Silent Witness swept the trio of races comprising the Champions' Sprint Series prior to receiving a break at the end of April. Trainer Tony Cruz gave the bay just one lead-up race ahead of this title defense, but the gelding recorded a workmanlike one-length victory in the Nov. 21 G2 International Sprint Trial. "The Witness" jumped beautifully, but was eased back to third, allowing Natural Blitz and stablmate Multidandy (Aus) (Danehill) to dispute the pace. Asked for a bit more at the quarter pole, the five-year-old glided by that pair to their inside and was not fully extended to hold Cape of Good Hope. "That's the easiest win he's ever had," jockey Felix Coetzee enthused. "When he hit the front, he was just toying with them and at the 200-meter pole, he pricked his ears." Cruz said Silent Witness would be pointed at the Champions Series, with an aim on Cigar's 16-race winning skein. He may then be considered for an overseas assignment. The biggest disappointment of the race was 9-2 second choice Calstone Light O (Jpn) (Warning {GB}), who was prominent early before dropping out last of all. American raider Battle Won (Honour and Glory) raced evenly in an eighth-place finish. Click for the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Witnessing History...

They came from far and wide to tackle the irrepressible Silent Witness (Aus) (El Moxie) in the G1 Hong Kong Sprint and on paper it looked like the toughest assignment yet for the undefeated five-year-old. Last year, National Currency was the lone threat, Tony Cruz' runner swatted him away and had gone on to win four more in a row. There were a pair of Group 1 winning sprinters from Japan this time around, an Abbaye victor and a speedball from Macau, who had won 10 of his 14 starts, including eight in a row. Still, Silent Witness cast them all aside with condescension, ears pricked and looking for competition. "We haven't seen the best of him yet," Cruz suggested. Added his jockey Felix Coetzee, "He's an awesome horse to sit on. I've never sat on anyone like it and I don't expect I ever will again."

Dwyer Glad to Be Back...

Just a few weeks after guiding Phoenix Reach (Ire) (Alhaarth {Ire}) to his GI Canadian International triumph, jockey Martin Dwyer signed a retainer to ride from December to March in Hong Kong. But just a few weeks into his commitment, Dwyer decided to cut short his stay, citing family reasons for returning to England after finishing unplaced in 11 rides.

Twelve months later, Dwyer celebrated one of his finest moments in the saddle after Phoenix Reach's win in the Vase. "It's a great privilege to ride a Group 1 winner in front of such a huge crowd," the 29-year-old said. Dwyer has been riding since 1993, registering his first victory for trainer Ian Balding. He is now the stable jockey for Balding's son, Andrew. The two teamed to win the 2003 G1 Epsom Oaks with Casual Look, while Dwyer also had a long association with the outstanding stayer Persian Punch (Ire) for trainer David Elsworth.

Team Godolphin Goes Well...

Always a staunch supporter of the International meeting, Godolphin celebrated a successful Sunday afternoon at Sha Tin. With Firebreak (GB) (Charnwood Forest {Ire})'s victory in the G1 Hong Kong Mile,

Dettori and trainer Saeed bin Suroor following the Mile hkjc.com

Godolphin was winning for the first time at the meeting since Fantastic Light's score in the 2000 Hong Kong Cup. While Firebreak was proven at group level, the team's other less-exposed runners performed extremely well.

Sights On Gold (Ire) (Indian Ridge {Ire}), a dual Group 3 winner, was given a ground-saving ride by Frankie Dettori and nearly got the job done in the Vase. "He's run the race of his career," the jockey said of Sights On Gold. "I came there to win the race and just found one too good." Racing Manager Simon Crisford indicated that the five-year-old will be pointed for the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic Mar. 26.

Ancient World (Spinning World), winner in his most recent start of the G1 Premio Vittoria di Capua in Italy, set the pace in the Cup and gave ground grudgingly to finish fifth, beaten just 2 1/4 lengths.

Cruz, Coetzee Stay Hot...

After winning two of the four Group 1 events on International Day last year (Sprint and Mile), jockey Felix Coetzee and trainer Tony Cruz put together another memorable meeting yesterday. Not only did they team to win the Sprint with Silent Witness, but also earned second-place checks with recent stable addition Perfect Partner (Aus) (Quest For Fame {GB}) in the Mile and for Bullish Luck (Royal Academy) in the Cup.

"We were expecting a big run," Coetzee said of the latter, winner of the domestic G1 Hong Kong Gold Cup last February over the 2000-meter trip. "Tony told me whatever happened to switch him off in behind. He lugged in a bit under pressure and that might have cost him."

For good measure, Cruz and Coetzee also won the first race on the card with Class 3 runner Zero In (Aus) (Danzero {Aus}).

Although unable to win, Naughty New Yorker hit the board in three of his initial four outings, including a second-place finish here in the one-mile Sleepy Hollow S. against state-breds Oct. 23. An impressive 10-length winner when dropped back into maiden company Nov. 12, the bay was given a 7-2 chance in his step back up in class. Far back early, the colt circled the field four wide on the far turn, drew off with ease and continued his tour de force late to score by daylight. "We were pretty sure that he would like two turns," said winning tainer Pat Kelly. "He's a very nice horse. I don't know what we'll do, but I'm sure we'll keep an eye on some of the three-year-old stakes next year." Up Like Thunder (Thunder Gulch), winner of the Bertram F Bongard S. Oct. 3, never got into the mix of things and came home a distant seventh as the 3-2 chalk.

My Poker Player was haltered for $50,000 following a second-place finish at Del Mar last summer and returned a quick profit for his new connections with a pair of victories, including a stakes score in the restricted Maryland Million Sprint H. at Pimlico Oct. 9. Fourth against state-breds in his latest in the Challedon S. over that track Nov. 6, the chestnut gelding was installed the 3-2 choice to return to the winner's circle. Content to stalk the early pace, the gelding moved into contention turning for home, hit the front at midstretch and drew clear late to record the win.

LITTLE MONEY DOWN (f, 2, West Acre--Out of Money {SP}, by Out of Place), fifth in her debut over track and trip Nov. 14, was given a 6-1 chance for her second crack at it. With Rafael Bejarano in the irons for this one, the bay jumped out to take an early advantage, increased her lead to four with a furlong left to go and continued to dominate late en route to a 4 3/4-length victory. Valid Expectations Filly Tops Fasig-Tipton Texas Sale:

A yearling filly by Valid Expectations topped yesterday's Fasig-Tipton Texas December Mixed Sale at Lone Star Park with a final bid of $34,000. Sold as hip 178, the bay is out of Fivegirlsinarow (Boys Nite Out) and was consigned by Frannie Stewart with Oak Tree Ranch acting as agent. Danny Shifflet made the winning bid. The sale also featured a 42-lot breeding stock reduction from Turf Express Stud Inc. The top-priced offering from the reduction was hip 240, Bred to Fly (Fly So Free). The unraced broodmare prospect was purchased for $12,000 by 4M Ranch. She is a half sister to multiple stakes winner Al's Dearly Bred (Waquoit) and sold with a 2005 season to New Trieste or Aggressive Chief. During the one-day auction, Fasig-Tipton sold 180 horses for a total of $825,300 and an average of $4,585.

Juveniles Work at Hollywood:

GII Del Mar Futurity winner Declan's Moon (Malibu Moon) and Proud Accolade (Yes It's True), leading candidates for next Saturday's GI Hollywood Futurity, turned in five-furlong works at Hollywood yesterday. Undefeated Declan's Moon completed his drill in a bullet :58 3/5, while GI Champagne S. winner Proud Accolade went the distance in 1:01 4/5. "He went just like I wanted," trainer Ron Ellis said of Declan's Moon. "He was cruising all the way." Michael McCarthy, assistant to trainer Todd Pletcher, was also happy with Proud Accolade's work. "He went the first eighth in :13, textbook," McCarthy said. "He worked with blinkers for the second time. He's acclimated well. His disposition is great. He seems eager to train."

Although the official going was described as good, persistent rain in the locality made the turf course a stamina-sapping test for Europe's final stakes race of the season. The conditions proved right up Chapel Tale (Ity)'s alley as he had won his previous start, over a mile, in similar circumstances at Rome Nov 21. Settled off the pace set by Listed Premio Giuseppe de Montel winner Slapper in the early stages this time, he kicked into a racewinning lead entering the final furlong and held plenty in reserve close home to comfortably hold the fast closing Flight To The Moon. Slapper's two-kilogram penalty proved too much of a burden but he kept on well, once headed, to fill the show.
