ECLIPSE BATTLE IN FUTURITY

With divisional honors hanging in the balance, eight juveniles will go postward in today's GI Hollywood Futurity at Hollywood Park. Unbeaten Declan's Moon (Malibu Moon), the 7-5 morning-line favorite, jumped from a debut win at Del Mar July 31 to wins in the Sept. 8 GII Del Mar Futurity and Nov. 20 GIII Hollywood Prevue. He'll be making his two-turn bow this afternoon as he takes on Breeders' Cup Juvenile winner Wilco (Awesome Again) and GI Champagne S. winner Proud Accolade (Yes It's True). Since springing a 28-1 upset in the Juvenile, Wilco has joined the barn of Craig Dollase. Dollase reported yesterday that the chestnut colt suffered a quarter crack in his left front foot, although he is still "95 percent" likely to start, according to Daily Racing Form. "At least it didn't happen on the day of the race," Dollase said, adding that the foot would be soaked and patched. "I think we'll be fine." Also in contention for an Eclipse Award, Proud Accolade won the Champagne is his third start but suffered his first defeat when a dull sixth in the Juvenile. The Todd Pletcher trainee will start with blinkers on today. British invader General Jumbo (GB) (Dansili {GB})'s status for the race has been cast into doubt after the colt began running a slight fever Tuesday.

SOARING FREE AT THE SOVEREIGN AWARDS

Soaring Free (Smart Strike) was the star of a big show for Sam-Son Farms at the Sovereign Awards Friday night at the Wyndham Bristol Place Hotel in Toronto, Ontario. The Sam-Son homebred's outstanding campaign, highlighted by victory in the GI Atto Mile, earned him titles of Horse of the Year and Champion Turf Horse. Also represented by Champion Three-Year-Old Filly Eye of the Sphynx (Smart Strike), Sam-Son was honored with awards for both Outstanding Breeder and Outstanding Owner. It was the fifth straight Sovereign Award in the Breeder category for perennial powerhouse Sam-Son, and their eighth overall Owner award. Both Eye of the Sphynx and Soaring Free were trained by Mark Frostad. The award for Champion Three-Year-Old went to the consistent A Bit O'Gold (Gold Fever), who won four stakes and placed in three others from seven 2004 starts for trainer Catherine Day-Phillips. Bred in Ontario by Beclawat Stable, the chestnut campaigned in the colors of The Two Bit Racing Stable. A Bit O'Gold's exploits earned his dam Annasan (Corporate Report) recognition as Outstanding Broodmare. The 10-year-old mare had previously produced stakes winner Arco's Gold and stakes-placed Adjalah, both by Gold Fever, from three foals to race.

The German-bred Humaita has captured four of her eight starts since arriving on these shores, capturing one division of the GIII Glens Falls H. Sept. 5 at Saratoga and Keeneland's Dowager S. Oct. 24. In between those starts she ran a decent seventh--beaten just two lengths--in the GI Flower Bowl Oct. 2 at Belmont. Arvada has shown early speed atypical of most ex-European runners, posting a front-running victory in the other division of the GIII Glens Falls H. In her only start since, the bay got a bit tired late when third in the GII Long Island H. Nov. 6.

Dreadnaught, who was hurdling earlier in the year, returned to the flats at Saratoga in August and made it back to the winner's circle last time out with a narrow victory over Certiably Crazy in the Nov. 20 GII Red Smith H. On the board in nine of his last eight starts, Certiably Crazy won a Saratoga allowance contest Sept. 3 followed by a pair of runner-up efforts in state-bred stakes company at Belmont. He set the pace before grudgingly giving way to Dreadnaught in the Red Smith. Macaw, second in last year's GI Sword Dancer Invitational and GI Canadian International, has started sporadically this term, most recently defeating Dreadnaught by a neck in the Oct. 29 John Henry S. at the Meadowlands.

MISWAKI DIES Miswaki (Mr. Prospector--Hopespringseternal, by Buckpasser), pensioned from stallion duties in August, died yesterday at Walmac Farm due to the infirmities of old age. The 26-year-old stallion was a leading sire and broodmare sire. "Miswaki was the last of the big three who put Walmac on the map," said Walmac President emeritus John T L Jones Jr. "First Alleged, then Nureyev and now Miswaki have passed on. We were certainly fortunate to have one like him and can only hope to have another one as good someday in the future." Miswaki won the G1 Prix de la Salamandre, was second in the G1 Prix Morny and third in the G1 Dewhurst S. as a two-year-old in 1980. He retired to Walmac in 1982 and has 97 stakes winners to date, including nine champions in five countries and Grade I winners in the U.S., France, Japan, Australia, Italy and Ireland. Miswaki is the only stallion to sire a Breeders' Cup Classic winner, Prix de l' Arc de Triomphe winner and Japan Cup winner. This season he was represented by Irish 2000 Guineas winner Bachelor Duke. Daughters of Miswaki have produced 112 stakes winners.

READ THE FOOTNOTES RETIRED Multiple graded stakes winner Read the Footnotes (Smoke Glacken) has been retired due to a knee problem, according to Daily Racing Form. Stud plans for the colt will be announced once negotiations are complete. Read the Footnotes had not raced since the GI Kentucky Derby May 1, after which a chip was removed from his knee. Trainer Rick Violette Jr. indicated that arthritic changes necessitated the colt's retirement. Bred in New York by Lawrence Goichman, the bay was purchased as a two-year-old by Violette on behalf of Klaravich Stables for $320,000 at the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic Sale. He captured four of five starts in 2003, including the GII Remsen S. and the GIII Nashua S., and entered 2004 as a leading Classics contender. After kicking the year off with a determined win in the GII Fountain of Youth S., when he earned a 113 Beyer Speed Figure, Read the Footnotes bounced to a fourth-place effort in the GI Florida Derby Mar. 13 before running seventh in the Kentucky Derby. He had been entered to run in an allowance at Aqueduct Nov. 27, but was scratched when his knee troubles flared up. Read the Footnotes retires with a record of 8-5-0-0 and earnings of $450,660.

VELAZQUEZ TO RIDE AFLEET ALEX John Velazquez will take the reins on leading juvenile Afleet Alex (Northern Afleet) when the colt takes to the Triple Crown trail next season. Jeremy Rose was aboard the precocious bay in all of his six starts to date, including wins in the GI Hopeful S. and GII Sanford S. and runner-up efforts in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile and GI Champagne S. "We feel we have the best two-year-old in the country," trainer Tim Ritchey explained. "And we wanted to have one of the best, most experienced riders in the country for the big races." Of Rose, Ritchey added, "He's a very talented rider. Mileage is the only thing that gets you there. There is no doubt in my mind he will get to that level one day. This is a once in a lifetime opportunity for the horse, the owners and me." Afleet Alex is currently stabled at Oaklawn Park and is expected to make his sophomore debut in the Feb. 19 Southwest S.

Winning Season ran third to the talented Punch Appeal in the Kentucky Cup Juvenile Fillies while still a maiden Sept. 18 before faltering as the favorite in a Keeneland maiden Oct. 8. The chestnut rebounded with a front-running tally Nov. 2 at Churchill and followed that up with a third in the GII Demoiselle S. Nov. 27 going nine furlongs on the Aqueduct main. Here, jockey Rafael Bejarano allowed the favorite to settle into stride within striking distance from the start. Winning Season rallied three wide into the stretch and finished up well for her first black-type score.

The Jockey Club Provides $600,000 in '04 Assistance:

By the end of the year, The Jockey Club Foundation will have provided over 100 needy individuals throughout the Thoroughbred industry with approximately $600,000 in aid. Some of that total was distributed through a monthly assistance plan to individuals who need help on an ongoing basis; the remainder was distributed to individuals requiring assistance on a short-term basis. "Many of the people we help have had a temporary setback in their life and we help them through a bad time," explained Nancy Kelly, the executive director of The Jockey Club Foundation. "Others are less fortunate and need assistance for a longer duration of time." In 2004, the Foundation paid for prosthetic legs, physical therapy, medication, wheelchairs, handicap controls for motor vehicles, funerals, headstones and countless medical bills. The Foundation, which was created in 1943, is governed by a three-member board of trustees that includes Steve Duncker, John Hettinger and D. G. Van Clief, Jr. "Since 1998, The Jockey Club Foundation has provided more than $5 million in assistance to individuals who have devoted their lives to the Thoroughbred industry," Kelly said. "We know that our assistance has made a difference in their lives and we are glad that the Foundation can help so many people." Additional information on the Foundation can be obtained at www.tjcfoundation.org.

Fogelsonger on MTV:

Ryan Fogelsonger is joining the list of reality television stars after a crew from MTV arrived at Pimlico yesterday and will spend the weekend with the 23-year-old jockey for the documentary series "True Life: I Want the Perfect Body II." "We are planning on filming with him over the next three months," explained MTV producer Pat Lope. "It will be a day in the life of Ryan. How he prepares his body for his job. We talked to about 50 jockeys around the country, but Ryan stood out personality wise. He fits our demographic and has a pretty interesting story." Fogelsonger did not ride a horse until after graduating from high school in 1999, but has already won the 2002 Eclipse Award as the top apprentice rider in the country. In 2 1/2 years, he has 757 victories and earnings of $14.8 million. Since its initial episode in 1998, MTV's "True Life" has told remarkable real-life stories of young people and the unusual subcultures they inhabit. The show is tentatively scheduled to air in May or June.

MUTAMAM TO GERMANY

Shadwell's Mutamam (GB) (Darshaan {GB}--Petal Girl {GB}, by Caerleon) will stand at Gestut Rietberg in Germany for the 2005 covering season. The son of champion sire Darshaan had taken up stud duties at Allevamento di Besnate in Italy in 2002. His first crop will be two-year-olds next year. The winner of 11 races in 21 starts, his main victories came in the G1 Canadian International and the G2 Princess of Wales's S. Mutamam was bred from the Listed-placed Caerleon mare Petal Girl, herself a full sister to Group 3-winning Savoureuse Lady (GB), the granddam of this year's G1 Prix du Jockey-Club victor Blue Canari (Fr). Petal Girl is also a half sister to the G1 King George VI & Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. winner and successful sire Mtoto (GB). Mutamam's fee for 2005 has been set at €3,000.
