OVER THE MOON

Jay Em Ess Stable's Declan's Moon (Malibu Moon) completed a perfect season with a victory in yesterday's GI Hollywood Futurity. The win, with GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile victor Wilko (Awesome Again) finishing third, in all likelihood earned him an Eclipse Award as the nation's top male two-year-old. A grandson of 1991 Hollywood Futurity hero A.P. Indy, Declan's Moon would be the first winner of this race to take the Eclipse since Roving Boy accomplished the feat in 1982. "I think that should eliminate all doubt [for the Eclipse Award]," said winning trainer Ron Ellis. "No doubt in my mind, that's for sure. We've done enough, and how he treated this field here today...I think this is a pretty representative field from around the country." Hollywood Futurity cont. p2

Today's GI Hollywood Starlet S. could provide Dixieland Band with his 100th stakes winner if his two-year-old daughter Sharp Lisa can come through. Listed as the 5-2 second choice on the morning line, the chestnut was acquired privately following her September debut win at Calder and missed by just a head in the GI Darley Alcibiades S. Oct. 8. She had a very wide trip when sixth in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Oct. 30, and will be hoping for a solid pace to set up her closing punch. She'll have to overcome the highly regarded Splendid Blended (Unbridled's Song), whose sole career defeat came at the hands of pro-tem division leader Sweet Catomine, against whom she ran second in the GI Oak Leaf S. Oct. 2.

The rangy chestnut posted a facile allowance victory over track and trip as the 1-10 favorite Nov. 14 and will be tough to beat here. Northern Mischief (Yankee Victor), a half sister to champion Gourmet Girl, graduated gamely Oct. 24 at Oak Tree. The dark bay had a tough trip next out when fourth, beaten a length, in the Moccasin S. Nov. 21.

MOON GLOWS A five-length winner of his career opener at Del Mar July 31, Declan's Moon trumped the vaunted Roman Ruler in the GII Del Mar Futurity Sept. 8, earning a 107 Beyer Speed Figure. Trainer Ron Ellis opted to skip the Breeders' Cup after that draining effort and brought the gelding back in the GIII Hollywood Prevue S. Nov. 20. Ridden out to a popular victory that day, Declan's Moon was even-money here in his first try at two turns despite the presence of Wilko and GI Champagne S. winner Proud Accolade (Yes It's True).

After the gates sprang open, the Maryland-bred tugged his way into second heading into the first turn with Bushwacker (Outflanker) showing the way and Wilko tucked in along the rail. When the saddle slipped aboard Bushwacker and that colt was eased, Declan's Moon took over and turned for home with lead. Wilko tried tackling him from the outside, but the favorite maintained his advantage all the way to the wire. "He was putting his ears up and down, and I had to get after him a couple of times to get his attention," explained winning rider Victor Espinoza. "It was definitely easier than it might have looked." Giacomo (Holy Bull) closed from way out of it to snatch second from Wilko. Proud Accolade, well positioned from the start, backed out of it on the far turn and wound up fifth, beaten 13 lengths.

Group-1 placed in France, Arvada needed four tries to gain her first U.S. victory, in a Saratoga allowance Aug. 11, but immediately added a win in a division of the the GIII Glens Falls H. Sept. 5. She didn't race again for two months, when she lost the lead late on her way to a third-place finish in the GII Long Island H. at Aqueduct, and was the second choice here to Humaita. Breaking from post 10, the bay was hustled out of the gate by jockey Edgar Prado and raced along in second through the opening half. She assumed command on the far turn, but had to summon up her reserves in order to deny the persistent favorite Humaita. "At the top of the stretch she was very game," said Prado. "I don't think that other horse [Humaita] could have ever gotten by." Arvada will winter at Gulfstream.

Since his hurdling stint this past spring, Dreadnaught has turned into a model of consistency. A neck loss in the John Henry S. Oct. 29 is the only thing standing between him and a four-race winning streak, and he most recently used his patented stretch kick to land the GII Red Smith H. at Aqueduct Nov. 20. The bay, sent off as the tepid 3-1 favorite in this bulky field, raced in midpack early under a patient Jean-Luc Samyn. Demeteor took command turning for home, but Dreadnaught came after him and put in a relentless run to secure a narrow victory. The four-year-old gelding will now get a vacation before an ambitious 2005 campaign. "He'll go home now," said winning trainer Tom Voss, referring to his Atlanta Hall Farm in Monkton, Maryland. "You won't see him run again probably before June. Hopefully, he'll be ready for the good races like the Sword Dancer at Saratoga and the Turf Classic later [at Belmont]."

Rare Gift put it all together here when she authoritatively captured her first graded stakes. An allowance winner at Gulfstream Feb. 7, the steel grey ran third in both the GII Bonnie Miss S. Mar. 6 and the GII Black-Eyed Susan S. May 14 before being sidelined with a sinus infection. Fourth in her Oct. 24 return in a Belmont allowance, she missed by just a neck in the GIII Anne Arundel S. at Pimlico Nov. 20 and was the second choice here. She broke alertly under jockey Richard Migliore and cut out sensible fractions. Turning for home, she let out a notch, drawing off impressively. "She was coming into nice form this spring, but then she started to grow this mass on the side of her face," explained winning trainer John Kimmel. "It was the weirdest thing you ever saw...she had a large cyst in her sinuses on the left side. It ended up taking a couple of months to treat that, but she really responded." Rare Gift will head south for the winter. "We'll take her to Florida and freshen her up to get her ready for a campaign this winter," Kimmel added. "It's nice to get that graded stakes win, because she is a pretty valuable filly to the breeders." Click for the brisnet.com chart. But he endured a wide trip when seventh in the GIII Lone Star Derby Oct. 29, and never factored when filling the same spot in Saint Liam's GII Clark H. Nov. 26. The second choice here, he rated just off the pace set by Hear No Evil and moved up to collar that rival in the stretch. The two matched strides for a sixteenth of a mile before Pies Prospect turned on the afterburners and pulled away from the field. "It's a kick to win this race after watching all of his [Fred W. FALLON FLYING TO FLORIDA Six-time British champion Kieren Fallon will ride this winter at Gulfstream Park, reports Daily Racing Form. The 39-year-old jockey is scheduled to fly in after Christmas and will ride at Calder on New Year's Day. He will be represented by Ron Anderson, who also handles Jerry Bailey's book. Fallon, who garnered six riding titles in Great Britain from 1997-2003, was allegedly involved in race fixing this year, but Britain's Jockey Club has recently dropped their inquiry into that matter. "I've always maintained my innocence, but the pressure on me during the past few months has been colossal," Fallon said in a published report. The regular rider for trainer Sir Michael Stoute, Fallon piloted the winners of both the G1 Oaks and G1 Derby this year, aboard Ouija Board (GB) and North Light (Ire), respectively.

SILENT SIGHS RETIRED Grade I winner Silent Sighs (Benchmark--Quiet Romance, by Bertrando) has been retired due to persistent ankle trouble, according to Daily Racing Form. The three-year-old will be sent to Kentucky to be bred. Bred in California by Pam and Marty Wygod, the dark bay filly was a stakes winner at two for trainer Julio Canani and opened 2004 with a determined win in the Sunshine Millions Oaks. She returned to California and captured the GI Santa Anita Oaks in March, inflicting the first career defeat on champion Halfbridled in the process. Silent Sighs ran 10th in the GI Kentucky Oaks, but exited the race, her final career start, with ankle chips that necessitated surgery. She heads to the breeding shed with a record of 6-4-1-0 and a bankroll of $442,700.

AROUND

NYRA INFO LEADS TO INVESTIGATION The raids conducted Wednesday at the three New York Racing Association tracks--Aqueduct, Belmont and Saratoga--came about as a result of information that was developed by the Special Oversight Committee of the NYRA Board of Trustees. That information was provided to the New York State Attorney General's Office, which executed search warrants at the three tracks. "The New York Racing Association is 100 percent committed to ensuring that nothing is permitted to interfere with the integrity of the races we conduct," said Peter Karches, who is a member of the NYRA Special Oversight Committee and co-chair elect of the NYRA Board of Trustees. "The NYRA Trustees and NYRA's senior management want it to be perfectly clear, both to the general public and to the people who are involved in NYRA's racing operations, that we have zero tolerance for anyone who fails to abide completely by the laws and rules of racing. If we see something suspicious occurring at one of our racetracks, the appropriate law enforcement agencies will be immediately notified. If actual wrongdoing is uncovered, the perpetrators will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law." NYRA officials could not comment on the specific details of the suspected activity due to the ongoing nature of the Attorney General's investigation. NYRA did confirm, however, that it is cooperating fully with the Attorney General's Office and State Police to facilitate a thorough and complete investigation. "Over the past two years, NYRA has completely overhauled its business and management practices, replaced key managers and built a professional and highly trained security force," said Karches. "Working in close cooperation with our Federal Monitor (the law firm of Getnick & Getnick), the U.S. Attorney, the State Attorney General, the State Comptroller, state and local law enforcement and the State Racing and Wagering Board, NYRA is demonstrating to the racing public that its racing operations are the equal to its racing product, which is indisputably the best in the world."

Pavo earned his diploma in impressive fashion, winning by five lengths over the Aqueduct main oval Nov. 2. Ambitiously placed off that effort, he found the likes of Rockport Harbor and Galloping Grocer a bit too much, finishing sixth in the nine-furlong Gil Remsen S. Nov. 27. Cutting back in distance here, the chestnut trailed the field after the opening quarter, crept up closer on the turn for home and kicked in strongly to run down Benjamin Baby in the late stages. Carson's Bridge (Carson City), hammered down to 1-5 off a six-length maiden victory Nov. 20, stumbled badly at the start and never recovered, finishing fourth.

Brought to you by  FASIG-TIPTON

David Bernstein

This week's accomplishment: The trainer of Truly a Judge, who was claimed for $20,000 in 2001 and became a GSW in Saturday's GIII Native Diver H. at Hollywood Park.

Birthdate: 1-6-40

Birthplace: Downey, CA

Current Residence: Arcadia, CA

Principal Business: Trainer

1st winner as a trainer: Teri Sue in Feb. 1985 at Golden Gate.

What has been your greatest accomplishment in racing?

Winning an Eclipse Award with The Wicked North.

What would you still like to accomplish in racing?

I would love to win one of the Classics or a Breeders' Cup race.

What is your favorite racetrack and why?

Santa Anita, my home base. You can't beat the surroundings with the mountains and everything. It's a very majestic place.

What would you be doing if you weren't in horse racing?

Wow! That's a tough one. I've been in the business so long--35 years now. I've never really thought about it. But there's nothing else I'd rather be doing.

Who was your biggest racing idol growing up?

Milo Valenzuela. One of my first times at the racetrack when I was nine, he won six of eight races and ran second in the other two. I had delusions of being a jockey at one point in my life when I was younger.

Favorite food or meal: It would have to be Italian food. No specific dish; I love Italian food in general.

Favorite time of the year: The holiday season has always been a very joyous time for me and my family. Even though I'm divorced, I have three sons and we have remained very close. It's always great to get together with family during the holidays.

Who do you think is one of the most underrated stallions out there?

Judge T C and not just because I've done well with his runners. He gets hard-knocking horses here and also on the East Coast. They're real sound and durable and can go long or short. He's an excellent buy.

CONGRATULATIONS!
