head in front at the eighth pole, but Alphabet Kisses drove past in the waning yards and had enough in reserve to hold off East Coast invader Bending Strings for her first graded score. "I thought she had a chance to hit the board," said trainer Marty Jones, saddling his first Grade I winner since Auriette (Ire) took the 1996 Gamely H. "We had her in a stake up north [Sunday], but decided not to run because we didn't want to ship her. We kind of backed into this one." La Brea cont. p2

Zenno Rob Roy became just the second horse in the last 50 years to sweep the Japan Racing Association's three major autumn Group 1 races with a resounding success in Sunday's Arima Kinen. In his record-breaking performance, he provided trainer Kazuo Fujisawa and Olivier Peslier their third straight renewal. The pair had teamed up to win the race the last two years with Symboli Kris S. Zenno Rob Roy set himself up for the historic accomplishment by winning the G1 Tenno Sho Autumn and G1 Japan Cup and was favored to make it three straight by a packed Nakayama crowd of 125,316. Settled off the leaders, Zenno Rob Roy set his sights on the pacesetter Tap Dance City in the final 100 meters and outbattled him to the wire. The final time of 2:29.50 shaved a full second off of Symboli Kris S' stakes record. "He knows exactly how to race now," Peslier told The Daily Yomiuri. "I just wanted a good start because I was drawn in the one hole." Added Fujisawa, "The horse was in form. He ran a tough, fantastic race." The only other runner to achieve the sweep of the autumn Group 1s is Japan's all-time leading money earner, the Hall-of-Famer T.M. Opera O.

The Long and Short of It...

The versatile Alphabet Kisses had beaten fellow Cal-breds in a pair of sprint races at Hollywood this spring, then made it three in a row in an optional claimer going a mile and a sixteenth on the grass June 10. She returned to the dirt to be second in the July 24 Fleet Treat S. and third in the Sept. 4 Torrey Pines S., but tired after showing brief speed in the Oct. 16 Cal Cup Distaff H. down the hill at Santa Anita and finished ninth. Freshened after that performance, the sophomore made her return in an optional claimer at a mile and a sixteenth on the Hollywood main track Dec. 3 and, with blinkers added, led nearly every step en route to a one-length score. She made it two in a row with the new equipment in the La Brea. "Ever since we put the blinkers on her, she's been a lot more focused," Marty Jones said. "She's always wanted to lean out and look in the infield, but we put the outside extension blinker on her and she's really trained super with it...I think it's really helped her." As for what's next, Jones added, "I would think the Sunshine Millions [Distaff at Santa Anita Jan. 29] is a possibility." Yearly Report Scratched from La Brea...

Golden Eagle Farm's Yearly Report (General Meeting), the 6-5 morning-line favorite for yesterday's GI La Brea S., was scratched by trainer Bob Baffert due to a minor ankle injury. "She had a deal on her [left front] ankle [Sunday morning]," the conditioner explained. "It was a little warm on the outside. I didn't like the way it looked....so I didn't take any chances. [Golden Eagle owner Betty Mabee is] good about not running horses like that." Baffert indicated that the injury would cost the California-bred filly a few days, but he remains optimistic that the three-year-old would be ready in time for the $500,000 Sunshine Millions Distaff at Gulfstream Park Jan. 29.

SECOND OF JUNE SECOND IN DECEMBER

Making his first start since finishing a game second to Read the Footnotes in the GII Fountain of Youth S. in mid-February, Second of June (Louis Quatorze) fell a neck short of Smooth Lover (Suave Prospect) in yesterday's sixth race at Calder, a $62,500 optional claimer. The three-year-old colt, trained by trainer Bill Cesare and owned by Cesare's wife Barbara, put himself on the Classic trail earlier this year with a victory in the GIII Holy Bull S. at Gulfstream (111 Beyer). But the colt emerged from the Fountain of Youth, a race that earned him a 113 Beyer, with a non-displaced fracture to a cannon bone and was forced to the sidelines. Sent off the 3-5 pick in his comeback yesterday, he shadowed longshot Smooth Lover through six furlongs in 1:13.84, battled to even terms in mid-stretch, brushed the eventual winner after coming in a bit and stayed on gamely to the end. The final time for the mile-and-a-sixteenth race over the fast main track was 1:46.03.

Philly Park Cancels Monday:

Snow, frigid temperatures and high winds in the Philadelphia area yesterday forced Philly Park to cancel racing for the second straight day. But, with the forecast calling for milder weather, the track is expected to be back in action today, with first post set for 12:25 p.m. Thistledown, which also called off its Monday card due to wintry conditions, is scheduled to hold its next live program Dec. 30.

The brisnet.com 'Race of the Day' is the 10th Race, a $25,000 allowance, at Calder. For pps and a complete race analysis, click here.

The chestnut picked it up with a seven-wide move on the turn, showing a nice turn of foot to close hard on the front rank before surging to the two-length victory over even-money chalk Duck Down Under (Distorted Humor). Memorette couldn't handle the company in the Dec. 19 GI Hollywood Starlet S., running seventh at 11-1, but got the better of fellow Cal-breds in this event. The dark bay filly broke her maiden vs. state-breds at second asking at Del Mar in August and was second best in the restricted Generous Portion S. at that track next time out Sept. 1. She made her route debut in the Oct. 2 GII Oak Leaf S. and was not disgraced, finishing third behind subsequent Grade I winners Sweet Catomine and Splendid Blended. Trainer Bill Currin decided to try blinkers on his charge for the Starlet, but, unhappy with that result, pulled the hood for this start. Memorette rated off a swift pace while racing wide early and was five off the rail as they came into the stretch, but hit high gear to take control in the final furlong and edged clear.

Buckland Manor capped a three-race winning streak with a victory in the off-the-turf Sir Beaufort S. a year and two days ago, but had failed to get his picture taken in six subsequent starts. The chestnut opened 2004 with a solid third-place finish in the Feb. 7 Gil Strub S., but was off the board in his next three outings and was sent to the bench. He spent nearly four months on the sidelines, but the McCaffery and Toffan homebred proved sharp off the layoff, missing by a nose behind Musical Chimes in the Oct. 9 Gil Oak Tree Breeders' Cup Mile over this course and distance. In his lone appearance since, he set the early pace in the Nov. 27 GI Citation H., but ran out of gas in the final furlong and finished fifth. The even-money chalk facing a much softer field here, Buckland Manor pressed the pace from second, got a short lead in deep stretch and gamely held off Inesperado to take the photo.

The chestnut colt stretched out to two turns for his latest, a Hollywood allowance test Dec. 3, and was second again. The 1-2 chalk off that effort, he grabbed the lead soon after the start and opened it up late to hit the line three lengths to the good of 22-1 Salty Humor (Distorted Humor).
