'CAL' FOLLOWS IN BARBARO'S HOOFS

An easy maiden winner going a mile on the grass. An overwhelming winner of the Laurel Futurity. Unproven on the dirt. Favored to take his seasonal bow, the GIII

Tropical Park Derby at Calder. You'll recognize the profile as that of Barbaro, winner of the 2006 GI Kentucky Derby. It's also the profile of Cowboy Cal (Giant's Causeway), and while it's premature to draw many comparisons between the two, the connections of Cowboy Cal hope the homebred can reach at least some of the peaks scaled by Barbaro. To do so, Cowboy Cal will have to prove he can be as effective on dirt as he has been on turf, like Barbaro, a challenge that is likely to come sooner than later. But today, Cowboy Cal, trained by Todd Pletcher for owner/ breeder Stonerside Stable, sticks to the green stuff and figures to go favored in the nine-furlong Tropical Park Derby over Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf third Cannonball (Catienus). Cont. p2

At the 3/16ths pole, it looked like Idiot Proof was going to be the winner of the 24th GI Breeders' Cup Sprint at Monmouth Park. That was before Midnight Lute stormed down the center of the track to win going away, but Idiot Proof lost little luster in defeat, having set a blistering half-mile fraction of :44 flat while still beating eight others home. The Pam and Marty Wygod homebred is unraced since, but sports a series of eye-catching bullet drills, including a best-of-18 five-furlong breeze in :59 2/5 at Santa Anita Dec. 26. Idiot Proof previously showed his affinity for the Cushion Track with a 3/4-length tally in the GI Ancient Title S. in early October.

Can 'Cal' Take the Next Step?

Cowboy Cal was unveiled at Saratoga in late August, sprinting six furlongs on the dirt. He chased the leaders from a wide perch that day before fading to be seventh, beaten 11 1/4 lengths. Moved to the sod next out, he led by a wide margin for most of the way and cruised home well clear in a one-mile Belmont maiden Sept. 26. John Velazquez was aboard for both of those, but it was Edgar Prado who steered Cowboy Cal to a rallying 6 1/4-length victory in the Nov. 24 Laurel Futurity. Velazquez and Cowboy Cal are reunited here, but look for another off-the-pace trip, according to John Adger, racing manager for Stonerside. "I think we'd all like to see him run a similar race, sitting a few lengths off the lead," Adger said yesterday. "But John's a great rider and knows the horse, so however it sets up, he'll be ready." At this point in his career, Barbaro was unproven on the dirt because he hadn't run on the surface. Cowboy Cal ran poorly in his lone dirt start, but Adger, willing to chalk that up to inexperience, isn't ready to call Cowboy Cal strictly a turf animal just yet. "Obviously, he has some talent," said Adger. "I think you always have to give them another chance or two on the dirt. His family is dirt-oriented. His mother, Texas Tammy, had ability, but she got hurt and ran just once. And she comes from the female family of Behrens, who was an outstanding dirt horse." Texas Tammy, by Seeking the Gold, is a half-sister to Behrens, a triple Grade I winner on the dirt. "Todd had mentioned, after we won the Laurel Futurity, that he might put Cowboy Cal on the same path that Barbaro took. We would like to put him with some of the better three-year-old dirt horses and see how he handles it. We hope he's going to be a colt who could possibly figure in the Kentucky Derby and some of the big three-year-old races on dirt, but if not, we know that he can run on the grass."

NYRA GETS EXTENSION THROUGH JAN. 23

Officials at the New York Racing Association confirmed yesterday that NYRA has been granted a temporary extension to run Aqueduct through Jan. 23 as officials continue to hammer out a deal with New York state representatives to renew NYRA's franchise, which was set to expire today. "On behalf of our fans, employees, and the participants in the racing industry, NYRA wants to thank Gov. Eliot Spitzer and Steven Newman, chair of the Oversight Board, for their extraordinary efforts to continue racing at Aqueduct," NYRA Chairman Steven Duncker said in a statement released Monday. Spitzer, the Non-Profit Racing Association Oversight Board and state representatives came to an agreement last week to give NYRA a temporary license to operate Aqueduct through Jan. 23, but that plan hit a snag Saturday morning when the New York State Racing and Wagering Board failed to give its consent, saying it did not have the authority to do so. Talks continue as NYRA looks to retain the franchise to operate Aqueduct, Belmont and Saratoga. NYRA has drawn a nine-race card for this afternoon, headed by the $75,000 Interborough H., and has taken entries for Thursday, as well. Wednesday was a scheduled dark day at the track.

It was surely never going to be easy for Airdrie Stud to find a horse capable of filling the shoes of Silver Hawk, so long the stalwart of the stud's stallion team. After all, 2007 saw this son of Roberto represented by his 15th individual Grade I winner when Nashoba's Key won the Vanity H. and Yellow Ribbon S.

However, Airdrie has every reason for hoping that its difficult mission has been accomplished. Thanks to Into Mischief's victory in the Cashcall Futurity, Harlan's Holiday has a Grade I-winning juvenile among his first runners, as did Include, another Airdrie resident, when his first runners raced in 2006. Into Mischief's efforts--along with those of such as Bear Holiday (Colin S.), Tasha's Miracle (Gill Sorrento S.), P.S.U. Grad, Harlan's Song and Riley Tucker--have propelled Harlan's Holiday into second place on a freshman sires' list which features three Airdrie stallions among the top 12. He's one position ahead of Proud Citizen, whose main earner, the GII Matron S. winner Proud Spell, finished second in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies to Indian Blessing, a filly whose sire, Indian Charlie, became an Airdrie crew member in 2002.

It's going to be interesting to see whether the younger members of the team can prove similarly effective. Among them are a champion two-year-old in Stevie Wonderboy, a GI Florida Derby winner in Friends Lake and a son of a Silver Hawk mare in Badge of Silver.

One thing's sure. Harlan's Holiday is well qualified to build on the solid foundations laid down by his first juveniles, just as Include did in 2007 (to boost his fee to $35,000).

Although Harlan's Holiday boasted a record of four stakes successes in a six-race juvenile campaign, three of them were gained in Ohio. He quickly showed he had a future outside his home state, though, when he followed up a second in Keeneland's GII Breeders' Futurity with a victory over Request for Parole in the GIII Iroquois S. at Churchill Downs. While these efforts were good enough to earn him 114 on the Experimental Free Handicap, they still left him 12lbs below Johannesburg, 10lbs below Siphonic, 9lbs below Repent and 7lbs below Officer.

Ken McPeek's comments made it clear that he believed Harlan's Holiday had every chance of developing into an even better performer in 2002:

"He's got so much speed, and it's tactical speed," the conditioner said. "He's just a very talented horse, a very easy horse to handle. He's push-button, no problem."

By the end of 2002, Harlan's Holiday had closed the gap on the leaders of his generation. Indeed, he did so well in the spring, notably winning the GI Florida Derby and GI Blue Grass, that he headed the betting for the Kentucky Derby. There were times, including in the Derby, when it seemed that Harlan's Holiday's stamina didn't quite stretch to 1 ¼ miles, but he had no such troubles over a mile and an eighth, as he showed with victories in the GIII Pennsylvania Derby and GI Donn H. He also enjoyed a rich payday when second in the 2003 G1 Dubai World Cup, but a strained suspensory ended his career at Saratoga, with his earnings standing at more than $3.6 million.

He started out at a fee of $17,500, well short of the $100,000 charged for such as Empire Maker and Mineshaft. His comparatively modest fee reflected the fact that he wasn't quite the whole package in a highly competitive industry. On the plus side he had been a graded winner in each of his three years on the track, and his form fell only a little short of the highest level. There was also plenty to admire about the bottom half of his pedigree (even though his dam, the Affirmed mare Christmas In Aiken, had been sold for only $17,500 a few months before his conception). In addition to being by a Triple Crown winner, Christmas In Aiken had a highly distinguished second dam in Princessnesian, a top-class racemare who was also a half-sister to Boldnesian and to some very good broodmares.

The main obstacle facing Harlan's Holiday, in some eyes, was the fact that he was by Harlan. This son of Storm Cat didn't race at two and then failed to earn black type at three. Although good enough to become a Grade I winner in the Vosburgh S. at five, that was Harlan's only stakes success in 30 starts. Attracting mares didn't prove easy for Harlan, and his death at the age of 10 meant that he left only 98 named foals.

However, those 98 included two colts which ranked among the best of their age at three. The first, Menifee, was second in the first two legs of the 1999 Triple Crown. The second was Harlan's Holiday.

Harlan's Holiday seems to have passed on a good measure of his push-button tactical speed to Into Mischief, but the colt will also have inherited speed from his dam, Leslie's Lady. A stakes winner over six furlongs at two in Indiana, Leslie's Lady was conceived at a fee of $2,500 in 1995, her sire being the tough nine-furlong performer Tricky Creek. As often happens with cheaply produced horses, the bloodlines become more impressive a few generations further back and Into Mischief's second, third and fourth dams were all by stallions--Stop The Music, One For All and Sea-Bird--which won over at least 1 ¼ miles. Into Mischief therefore has a fair chance of staying the Derby distance next May, if he proves as effective on the main track.

Incidentally, three of Harlan's Holiday's most promising performers--Into Mischief, Bear Holiday and Tasha's Miracle--are all stakes winners on synthetic surfaces, so he looks well qualified to cope with any further moves away from traditional dirt in years to come.

LOUIS WOLFSON DIES Louis Wolfson, who bred and raced Triple Crown winner Affirmed, died Sunday at his Bal Harbour, Florida home. He was 95. The St. Louis native was a longtime racing fan before buying his first horse in the late 1950s. His homebred Affirmed was named champion juvenile colt of 1977 before defeating archrival Alydar in all three legs of the legendary 1978 Triple Crown races. Affirmed was named Horse of the Year in 1978 and 1979 and was champion three-year-old of 1978 and champion older horse of 1979. Wolfson also campaigned champions Roman Brother, Raise a Native, Outstandingly, It's in the Air and Flawlessly. Harbor View Farm received the Eclipse Award as the nation's top owner in 1978 and 1979 and as top breeder in 1978. The stable led all owners in national wins in 1971-1973 and again in 1979 and led the nation in money earned in three consecutive years, from 1978-1980. Harbor View was leading breeder by money earned in 1970 and 1971. Wolfson's son Marty is a Florida-based trainer. His sons Steve and Gary are the former owners of Happy Valley Farm, breeder of 1978 champion juvenile filly It's in the Air. Wolfson is survived by his three sons and his wife. Services will be held Thursday at 2 p.m. at Temple Ahaveth Chesed in Jacksonville, Florida.

Trying the turf for the first time as the 3-1 second choice, the homebred was pinched back early on and gained ground on the backstretch. Three wide on the final turn, she overtook Tale of a Lady (Tale of the Cat) inside the final furlong and went on to a 1 3/4-length win. The winner is 1/2 to Daiwa Carson (Carson City), SW-Jpn, $510,136; Golden Corona (Gulch), MGSP, $280,908; Mark One (Alphabet Soup), MGSW, $744,916; and Benz Boy (Siphon {Brz}), SP, $187,220. Trainer Mike Mitchell is always dangerous off the claim, and handicappers who remembered that were rewarded with a $17.20 mutuel when Ever a Friend stormed to a good-looking win in this event. Based on the East Coast for much of 2007, Ever a Friend, an allowance winner sprinting at Saratoga in early September, came west to be fourth to Bushwacker in a $100,000 optional claimer on the main track at Hollywood Nov. 10. Dropped in to a grassy $62,500 optional claimer by trainer Christophe Clement last out, Ever a Friend ran third in the six-furlong dash at Hollywood Dec. 6, and was haltered by Mitchell, who won a shake for the big gray. Looking for his first stakes win, Ever a Friend broke alertly from post seven, but was reined in by jockey Tyler Baze and sat in a good tracking spot a few lengths off the leaders. A chain reaction to his inside crossing over the dirt pushed Ever a Friend widest of all, but he recovered quickly and showed grit to catch and pass Bonfante, who staved off Night Chapter for place honors. Ever a Friend's upset ensured a Pick 6 carryover today of over $900,000. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

CHAMPAGNE EYES (f, 2, Flatter--Corking {MSP}, by Sensitive Prince) became the 18th winner for her freshman sire (by A.P. Indy) with this easy victory. Fourth going six furlongs during the Oak Tree meeting Oct. 20, the $30,000 FTKJUL was a good second to Foxy Danseur in the Nov. 17 Sharp Cat S. at Hollywood Park. The bay was coming off a good fourth in the Delta Jackpot S. in Louisiana Dec. 7 and was a warm item here. Settled just off a moderate pace, the half to Betty Van (Broad Brush), GSP, $128,538, eased to the front while being shown the whip and came home two lengths better than Skylighter (Sky Mesa) as the 3-5 chalk. Lifetime Record: SP, 4-1-1-0, $66,922.

Somethinaboutlaura Races on at Seven:

It's rare that a million-dollar racemare is back for a seven-year-old campaign, but such is the case with Somethinaboutlaura (Dance Floor), who makes her 2008 debut in today's $75,000 Campanile S. at Golden Gate. Owned by a partnership which includes John Sikura, George Todaro and trainer Jerry Hollendorfer, the chestnut disappointed as the 6-5 favorite in the Cal Cup Matron H. over the Cushion Track at Santa Anita Nov. 3, but atoned for that effort with an easy victory in the Pacific Heights S. back at this venue Dec. 1. That win, her 17th from 30 career starts, took her earnings to $1,008,865, and she looks to pad those marks in this prep for the Sunshine Millions Jan. 26. Hollendorfer is as yet undecided on which race she will contest. His options are the Distaff at Gulfstream Park or the Filly and Mare Sprint or F/M Turf, both at Santa Anita.

Rapper S S graduated by six lengths at second asking at Zia Park Oct. 30 prior to finishing third as the odds-on favorite in the Eddy County S. at Zia Nov. 23. He dropped into a conditioned allowance spot at Sunland Dec. 16 and romped by five lengths, setting him up for this year-end test. Content to race just off the pace of favored Yonegwa, Rapper S S went after that one in earnest entering the final furlong and pulled away late for the win.
